

Goddess 501

Chapter 501: Rare in the world, take precedence

Fang Yue has countless readers, but this time...

She sighed to An Xia and said, "Little sister, your vision is a million times stronger than that of your sister! When I meet the man you like, my sister just wants to slap herself in the face."

"What are the things that I have slept in before!"

I only hate myself for my lack of knowledge and narrow horizons, showing off how many men I slept in front of my little sister!

Right now, my face hurts!

If time can be turned back, she will definitely not say a man before her little sister!

The real man should be like that stride meteor, a man who is as fierce as a sword to cut through the world's hardships, unchanged, and walked by the little sister of An Xia.

An Xia also felt that she had a good vision, Fang Yue praised Mu Chenyuan, more happy than praised herself.

The corner of his mouth raised a faint smile, "It's really rare in the world, so I took it first."

Those women next to her, give her up!

The man she fancy, dare to covet, heh, can't kill her!

There is deep possession in his indifferent eyes.

It's hers, it can only be hers!

Others should not be contaminated.

Fang Yue left without concern for a while, and before leaving, she deliberately warned, "Come on, little sister! You are so good, and only his good son can be worthy of you."

"However, you can't be careless. There must be countless women Xiao thinks about the Erlang you like. Little sister, you must make yourself better, as bright as the stars, and as radiant as the sun!"

"Blind other women with their own light, so that they will be ashamed of themselves in front of you, and dare not be ill-intentioned with your son."

"More importantly, only when we women are good, can they attract good men more. You make yourself better, and from then on, he can only hold you in his eyes."

"Other women are in front of him, they are * vulgar fans! There is no comparison with you!"

This is something that only sincere people will say to remind you.

An Xia smiled and nodded, "I remember, you will definitely be a very good and outstanding man in the future."

"Hahaha, hahaha, that's natural! When the time comes, my sister will bring you in front of you! Waiting for you to call brother-in-law!" Fang Yue smiled with tears in her eyes and waved her hand, "I'm leaving, see you next time. Little sister Anxia."

That's great, eighteen years old is so good.

Has a beautiful face like a flower.

Have a brilliant mentality.

Have the courage to dare to fight and dare to blog.

If brother Fangli is still alive, he should be like Sister An Xia.

Standing in the sun, smiling freely.

Qin Wu!

Waiting for the old lady!

One day, my old lady will kill you!

Fang Yue, who had left, did not look back at An Xia. The background she left seemed to be chic, but it was not chic who yearned for death.

Rather, he was desperate to die, and finished the last journey in a chic life.

The fate of her and sister An Xia was broken at this moment of parting.

Can't look back.

She was walking along the Huangquan Road. How can anyone turn around on Huangquan Road? Those who live in the sun are worried about it.

Goodbye, little sister.

An Xia looked at Fang Yue and left with Lu Xinghe and Xie Tie.

Next to him were Niu Feiyu, He Miao, and the Hu Detachment who picked them up.

After Fang Yue left, the sights of the few of them fell to the marines who had walked in front of them, in combat uniforms, and on their bodies were * and muddy.

Just now, they heard Xiao An say that this is the man she fancied.

Chapter 502: You are thin

The first reaction they heard was not Fang Yue's stunning face.

But: Xiao An will not be fooled!

The Hu Detachment was fortunate. He didn't experience the chat between An Xia and Fang Yue during the day. The reason was not clear, and the reaction was a little calmer.

Moreover, the response is different.

Is he thinking about love at first sight?

Seeing that it's not like love at first sight, I haven't seen a love at first sight, so I asked, "Is it out of execution?"

It was the male soldier of the land warfare who asked.

Dark and deep, with gunpowder smoke at the end of his eyes.

An Xia raised her eyebrows, "Yes, just like you."

While speaking, he looked at the man who followed him and hadn't seen him for several months.

Lost a lot.

It looks even more handsome and sharp.

With bloodshot eyes like a spider web, I knew at first sight that I hadn't slept well for a long time.

The spirit is good.

Like a green pine in the snow, straight and awe-inspiring, with the unstoppable determination to rush to the sky.

He Miao approached Hu Detachment and whispered, "Team Hu, should we go first? Come and find Xiaolan later?"

Look, a few of them are not suitable for staying.

There is a suspicion of electric light bulbs.

The Hu Detachment took a look, and smiled at An Xia: "Xiao An, I will send someone over to take you to wash up later that night."

People are seconded by them to help. Now that the task is successfully completed, they have to take a shower and change into clean clothes.

An Xia turned her head and nodded, "Okay."

Although there are changes, some habits still cannot be changed.

People who are unfamiliar will not say a few more words.

Before Niu Feiyu left, he winked at An Xia, meaning: Not bad!

It's pretty good.

"I almost thought Xiao An had to spend all his life. I didn't expect that he had a goal." Going a little further, Niu Feiyu smiled and said: "The male warrior, at first glance, is a special combatant. His body is much heavier than us. NS."

All of them had passed human lives in their hands, and possessed innate, profound and profound acumen.

It's like when babies see them who are murderous and energetic, even if they are clean and cheap, the more sensitive babies will cry in fear.

He Miao looked back, and Niu Feiyu said, "I can't see it anymore."

"It's really good. He just walked over. I even got a lot of back straight." Niu Feiyu said with a smile, in exchange for Hu Detachment to kick.

He also evoked a laugh and scolded, "Fantastic, he is a special fighter, you are also a border policeman who has been in the rain, and your back is straighter. Why didn't he see you straighten your back?"

It made the two of them laugh "hahaha", He Miao said, "That's different. When we came to him, we still felt a little bit worse. People's eyes are much sharper than ours."

"The few who followed him are also quite capable of bluffing. I just saw a lot of blood scabs on their bodies. Those blood scabs are all other people's blood."

Out of professional sensitivity, He Miao looked more secretly and found some details.

Niu Feiyu said: "When Mu Xue returns, Xiao An is not surprised. It can be seen that Xiao An often followed them on missions in the past. It can also explain why Xiao An likes blood battles."

It turns out that they have always been * missions.

"Team Hu, who are they? Do you know?"

The Hu Detachment really didn't know, "I don't know, the team should be clear." After saying that, he glared at the two of them, "Do you understand what you are doing so carefully?"

"Go, go, change your body and this body first, and when the team comes back, you will report to the team immediately."

Chapter 503: There is a psychological shadow

"Yes!"

"Yes!"

The two made a grimace with a smile, and ran towards the gun store with their helmets in their arms.

Every time you come back, you have to hand in your gun first.

The gun that An Xia was carrying was also provided by the Border Police Brigade. It must be returned to him for use. They cannot return it.

This is the rule of iron.

At this moment, An Xia glanced at the gun Mu Chenyuan was carrying, and then at the gun she was carrying, she felt a little unbalanced in her heart.

She is much more advanced even with guns!

Sure enough, the better the mix, the better the benefits!

Looking from the top, she finally stopped on the face she liked very much, and said with satisfaction: "I have lost a lot of weight, but I still have to be as handsome as before."

"Are there any injuries? Or, let's wash together first? Then talk?"

There is nothing wrong with this.

What she said about washing together is not that two people use the same room for washing, it's just that they should go and wash together first, and then talk.

After all, everyone has a weird smell.

It's pungent, and it doesn't smell very good.

Don't know...

Behind Mu Chenyuan came a string of "Oh oh oh" sounds that seemed to understand everything.

One of the "Oh" sounds is the loudest, that is Cheng Ming's voice.

An Xia's gaze crossed Mu Chenyuan's shoulders and fell on Cheng Ming's face, raising her eyebrows, "Cheng Ming, I haven't seen you for a few months, your thoughts are a lot dirty."

Cheng Ming had a little psychological shadow on An Xia.

Hearing this, he immediately went to hide behind the side players.

I don't know, this team member has a greater psychological shadow on An Xia!

He will never forget the first time he was in the same car with Miss Ann, and the vice team took the front car. Maili asked them to ask about Miss Ann's personal situation.

He asked a question and was stunned by Miss Ann. After three consecutive KOs, he was almost desperate.

Finally, neither he nor another teammate dared to ask Miss Ann again.

Because!

They are afraid of committing the following!

Miss Ann, whose aura is comparable to a twelve-star warlord, just glanced at it from the corner of the eye and immediately recognized it!

Cheng Ming still wants to hide from him and lie down, does he still want to hide behind the deputy team?

Then, An Xia saw an unfamiliar fighter with three fighters on his body, like a string of candied gourds.

Cheng Ming also poked the deputy team's back and whispered: "Vice team, don't you really want to know Miss Ann, ah, the one in front is Miss Ann."

"Go! Vice team, go!"

The deputy team was not as embarrassed as the few fighters behind him.

A group of counselors!

What is there to be afraid of?

He looked at Ms. Ann very nicely.

However, the aura is really strong.

Standing in front of the Mu team, it is not inferior.

I am not afraid of the air-conditioning of the Mu team at all.

"No fart, look at me!"

The deputy team looked at An Xia with a smile, smiled and cursed the soldiers, and strode towards An Xia.

Cheng Ming and the others followed.

Hey hey, they waited for the deputy team to eat in front of Miss Ann!

Mu Chenyuan has turned around and stood shoulder to shoulder with An Xia.

Before a few people came over, he replied in a low voice to An Xia, "Okay, let's talk to them first. When you were still in the special education center, Cheng Ming had already advertised your name in our team.

At present, no one knows about the entire Wolves Breaking Team, and no one knows Anxia.

I want to know each other.

The deputy team is a masculine man, his angular face is tanned, his eyes are not as cold as Mu Chenyuan, but the same sharp, like hardened steel.

"This is Xiaolan, hello, hello, I'm Wei Ji, Shen Yuan's teammate. Nice to meet you."

Chapter 504: Come come and know each other

Wei Ji is the deputy team of Powolf Brigade.

He looked like a black-faced Hades, but he was actually much easier to talk than Mu Chenyuan.

He speaks with a smile, like a neighbor's big brother.

An Xia stretched out her hand and answered politely, "Hello, I'm An Xia, I'm glad to see you."

If she doesn't go wrong on this path in the future, she will become a member of their team and fight side by side with them in the future.

So, it's better to respond politely.

When she came by, she finally nodded faintly, as a response.

For the other three combatants, Cheng Ming doesn't need to be introduced. He smiled and waved An Xia like a lucky cat.

"Miss Ann, it seems to be soon."

Still retain the customary name for Anxia in the special education center.

Very inexplicable!

He didn't know why, as long as he stood in front of An Xia, he was always short of breath.

He didn't dare to call "An Xia" directly.

Another fighter who also had a psychological shadow on An Xia just stretched out his hand, An Xia said: "We met last time, and you asked me many questions in a row."

"..." The combatant's outstretched hand was stiff, and his palm was still in cold sweat, and he squeezed out a smile, "Yes, I saw it last time, Miss An has a good memory. I am Qi Xingsu. Qi of Qilian Mountain, 28 stars. The stars."

The name is quite related to Tianshu and the others, and they are all stars in the sky.

He is also very gentle and delicate, and there is still a hint of shyness between the smiles.

An Xia also found the opponent's stiffness, smiled slightly, shook her hand indifferently, and let go.

It's normal to be shocked at her, no fuss.

The other fighter hadn't seen it before, and when they met for the first time, he was very calm.

He stretched out his hand and introduced with a smile, "Hello, I am Ying Que."

If you ignore the blood stains on his neckline, the gun cocoon worn out on the palm of his right hand, Ying Que is not at all like a fighter, more like the academic bully, scholarly ink scroll he encountered in the book case, and he is very knowledgeable.

At this point, An Xia had already known four players before he went to the Wolves Brigade.

All are super-intermediate fighters.

After the introduction, Mu Chenyuan hurried away, "Assemble!"

The order was given, and a few people immediately stood in a team, thinking that their Mu team would go with them, but unexpectedly...

"Assemble in an hour! Turn right! Walk together!"

From confessing to ordering them to leave, he breathed in one breath without a pause.

Is there a mistake!

It's also anxious to rush people!

See the color and forget righteousness!

Is the layout too small?

Cheng Ming wanted to stay and say a few more words. Wei Ji, the deputy team, kindly reminded, "Cheng Ming, before making a decision, have you thought about which cemetery you will bury in?"

"..."

No, he is still young, so he doesn't need to think about it at all!

Cheng Mingsecond gave up.

Ying Que smiled and instigated, "Don't be scared by the deputy team, he, wear a pair of pants with Team Mu! Naturally speaking through Team Mu."

"You know Miss Ann the best, and it is okay to stay and say a few more words. Otherwise, Miss Ann will treat you as impolite."

that is!

Cheng Ming said: "Vice team, I am not occupying Miss Ann, I just have to say a few words with Miss Ann, what's the matter, isn't that possible?"

"I think it can." Ying Que continued to smile and instigated, "We can actually stay, and talk to Miss An. Through us, let Miss An have a more comprehensive understanding of our brigade and increase Miss An's determination to join us."

"At the same time, I also let Miss Ann see our friendliness. It can be said to be a good thing in one fell swoop."

Chapter 505: He is afraid of being struck by lightning

that is!

that is!

Still should be well thought out.

Cheng Ming said: "Vice team, let's go, I will go with Ying Que."

"How can we leave the vice team and the stars? We have to go over naturally together." Ying Que shook his head, a bright mind that blessed and shared, "Together, our unity is more manifest."

Obviously they wanted to pull together to cushion their backs, but the reason was so horrible.

Wei Ji sighed: "Ying Que, you obviously should have taken the position of the deputy team. Why do you become me now? Is it because I am a good person and bully?"

The position of the deputy team was originally due.

This is a guy who seems to talk humorously, treat people sincerely, and talk humorously.

He followed his mother's surname "Ying", but he was actually born in the capital's top wealthy "Jing" family.

The relationship between Mu and Jing is the friendship of gentlemen. The Mu family is a military attaché and the Jing family is a civil servant. They don't have much friendship, but the two are both top wealthy families in the capital, and it is inevitable that they have some contacts.

When he arrived at Yingque, he didn't know which muscle was wrong, he was always gentle, and he never abandoned Wen Congwu, who never needed his parents to worry about.

When the Jing family reacted, he joined the team early and became the only junior of the Jing family in the team.

Later, he joined the broken wolf team.

After getting along for a long time, I realized that Ying Que looked at being gentle and easy to talk. In fact, it was black to the point of blood!

He should have held the position of the deputy team. Knowing that there was no way to evade him, he happily said that he had been promoted. Who knew that there was a violation of discipline secretly!

It's not a big problem either.

Play single-player games with a cell phone sneakily in the middle of the night.

Still caught by the people above.

Deputy team?

Forget it!

If Xia Hou Zhanjiang hadn't come forward, the * boy would have to remember a big mistake.

The last thing I saw was a stand-alone game. I usually performed very well, so I remembered a warning.

The next time you commit the crime again, remember a big mistake.

At that time, they all thought it was the bad luck of this kid and comforted him.

Oh, the result.

Team Mu came over and said calmly: "He is very happy now and does not need comfort. It is Wei Ji who needs comfort."

Ying Que still wanted to refuse to admit it, until the Mu team pulled out a bottle of eye drops from his pocket.

All teammates exploded.

The * kid is crying, the flow is clearly eye drops!

The hard evidence was in front of him, Ying Que swept away the sadness of being criticized, and smiled: "I'm sorry, everyone. I, I don't like to be too tired, forgive me."

Team Mu said again: "I don't like writing reports or meetings."

Ying Que acknowledged, "The Mu team still understands me."

No sense of guilt!

In the end, he was beaten up by his teammates, and the bruises that hit him for half a month did not return.

I don't want to be a "deputy team". Why bother to cheat?

The most important thing: wasting their feelings, thinking he was really sad.

fraud!

Now the liar started to cheat again.

Wei Ji Ni glanced at him with a smile on his face, "It's better for you to come forward for such an important task, and let us forget it." Then to Cheng Ming, "Ying Que's eloquence is obvious to all. Give him such an important task."

"I see you saw Miss Ann just now. It's like a mouse saw a cat, so don't get over. Ashamed."

Cheng Ming thought for a while and made sense.

A solemn expression on his face said: "Brother, it's handed over to you! Go over, I will watch you leave."

I will send you away, thousands of miles away!

Was kicked thousands of miles away by the Mu team.

The blood is black, I want to persuade myself to interrupt the relationship between Team Mu and Miss Ann, huh, he is afraid of being struck by lightning!

Chapter 506: Chasing people, too hard

Cheng Ming is not so easily fooled.

Anyone who has been in the Wolves team has an IQ by no means low.

Just like you pit me, I pit you, pit pits happier.

Ying Que knew that he had been played by Cheng Ming. He didn't get angry, raised his eyebrows, walked unhurriedly, and said unhurriedly, "My team consciousness is very strong and I never act alone."

"Since everyone is unintentional, then forget it."

"Wash, wash and clean. Maybe we can have a chance encounter with Miss Ann. I don't know if there is time to sign with Miss Ann. You all said she has good skills, otherwise, we will arrange a match with Team Mu later. ?"

Oh, the * bastard!

It's going to the pit again.

Qi Xingsu was the first to object, "If you want to go, I won't go."

He is still under a lot of psychological pressure when facing Miss Ann!

Wei Ji and Cheng Ming said at the same time: "You go."

"The deputy team proposed, isn't it better?" Ying Que did not give up.

Wei Ji smiled and firmly refused, "I think it's not good. Go, better, go, brother, show your eloquence and impress the Mu team!"

There is no way to dig the pit.

Ying Que shrugged his shoulders with a casual look, "Forget it, I'll talk about it later. Anyway, I have seen the legendary Miss An today."

"After I went back, I had a topic to chat with my brothers."

Don't worry, it will be long.

Today is not what you want, but in the future, there will be someone on the team doing it for him.

Cheng Ming is not interested anyway.

He, I've seen it before.

A few smiled at each other, then let the other brothers complete it!

Mu Chenyuan didn't take his gaze back until now, seeing An Xia staring at him puzzledly, and explaining, "They often have a whim."

...Hidden somewhere to take a peek.

An Xia curled her mouth, "The atmosphere is harmonious and good. They all look cute."

When we met for a short time, we could see that they got along very easily, and there was no intrigue.

Mu Chenyuan didn't think the players were so cute.

cute?

The alarm sounded in my heart, and he said indifferently: "Occasionally cute, getting along for a long time, talking a lot, and very noisy."

The two hadn't seen each other for a long time, so they talked less about others, and more about the two.

Then, with zero experience in love, the small-minded Mu team changed the subject, "How many days have you been out? Is there any injury?"

Just look at it, and I can't see where there is any injury.

The familiar smoke of gunpowder and the gun she was carrying made his heart tighten.

She fought with others.

An Xia also turned away from the topic. Hearing the words, raised her brows, and started to sultry again with a smile but a smile, "Or, give me a check?"

The word "good" came to his lips, and Mu Chenyuan stopped in time.

Such an initiative is not a good thing.

But fearing that she was really injured, Shen said, "Go to the infirmary."

The border police brigade has medical personnel on duty, who will be handed over to them for inspection.

"Would you rather let the medical staff check it, don't you want to check it?" An Xia asked him, her long narrow eyes staring straight, her back tooth socket was a little bit tight, "Really not for me to check?"

Isn't it said that "women chase men and separate them into yarn"?

Why did it change on her side?

It's all in the "iron cloth shirt"!

She used all her effort to turn him into bed, but he was invulnerable!

Good temper.

Mu Chenyuan sighed.

On this topic, he has always said that An Xia is not enough.

"Go, go to the infirmary first." After saying this, he stretched out his hand, naturally wanting to lead her away.

Anxia immediately hugged his head with both hands, "Take my hand, and he is my person. Do you still dare to hold it?"

Chapter 507: Tame boyfriend

Dare, why not?

Mu Chenyuan, who has never been afraid of frightening, has his thin lips slightly bent, and a weak smile in his eyes, "Dare, take the left hand or the right hand?"

"Right hand." An Xia looked at her eyes and stretched out her right hand like a queen.

Mu Chenyuan's hands were large, his palms were warm and dry, and he was in a gun cocoon.

The fingers are slender and the phalanx is distinct, ignoring the cocoon in the palm of the hand, and more like a pair of pianist's hands.

The darling of the Creator is different, even his hands are perfect.

Looking at the hands held by the two of them, An Xia raised the corners of her mouth, her eyes filled with smiles, "Mu Chenyuan, forgot to tell you, holding my hand, you are the one who can do whatever I want. NS."

"What I want to do, you can't object, you can only obey."

The lord of the emperor domain prefers to control.

Mu Chenyuan is not afraid that she will do whatever she wants, "When you grow up a little bit, you can understand a little bit what I want, and let you do whatever you want."

"And now the most important thing is to go to the infirmary first."

I thought he would say "and now, you have to listen to me".

Really want to say, An Xia immediately waved away.

Seeing that he was really going to take herself to the infirmary, An Xia stopped moving, "I didn't get hurt. It was only two days ago. How easy is it to get hurt."

"It's you, have you hurt?"

It's better to care about it, after all, it's the man you like.

Mu Chenyuan reached out and touched An Xia's neck.

An Xia, who was accustomed to his touch, didn't move, so he tapped the side of his neck with his fingertips.

There was a subtle pain, and beside his ear, it was his low voice, "Here, it hurts."

"If you don't touch it, I don't feel it at all." Be careful, An Xia didn't feel relieved at all. "Don't look at it, the small scratches will heal by themselves in two or three days."

"You haven't answered me yet, go out for dozens of days and come back all black..."

He said, pulling at his cuff, very disgusted, "You won't have not bathed for dozens of days! The cuffs are all lumps!"

It is actually a blood clot, a blood clot left by the enemy in close combat.

Smell, there is indeed.

Fifty steps and a hundred steps, the smell of her and Mu Chenyuan are not much different.

That is, one light and one thick.

His mouth was disgusting, but his eyes were shining.

Obviously, he was very interested in where he went for dozens of days.

Definitely a big task!

Otherwise, it would take dozens of days.

Mu Chenyuan rubbed her hair directly and smiled, "Don't dislike it, there will be more odorous days in the future."

"Then I will be cleaner than you."

"confirm?"

It's not very sure, she has experienced too many days when her clothes are so dirty that she clumps.

"Why don't you hug? Rub each other? You don't dislike me? I don't dislike you?" An Xia said, pulling out the hand held by him, then let go of his arms, waiting for Mu Chenyuan to give his arms. Send hug.

Mu Chenyuan: "..."

Dumbfounding.

"An Xia, I am a man." Shouldn't it be a man's job to point out his gender and hug a woman?

An Xia didn't care, "Why, look down on me holding you? Who rules that only a man can hold a woman? Can't a woman hold a man?"

"Would you like to hug? Don't hug me and stop."

Hug, still hypocritical!

Can't get used to it!

Must be tamed!

Okay, okay, okay, okay.

Mu Chenyuan gave a clear cough, embarrassed that the tips of his earlobes turned red, and slowly embraced An Xia's arms.

An Xia waited for him to throw him into his arms, so that he could rub him like a big wolf dog.

Unexpectedly, a turning point!

Chapter 508: Come, i hug you

Seeing that he succeeded in throwing his arms into his arms, at the last critical moment, he suddenly opened his long arms, relying on his height, and hugged her directly from the top of her shoulders!

wrong!

foul!

An Xia quit.

Struggling, "Mu Chenyuan, it is good that I hug you, not you hug me. Let go of me and start again!"

It must be done again!

Take Zhen Wife Tsun!

Well, my girlfriend is not, but I thought about Zhen's wife Tsuna.

People are holding their arms in their arms, there is no reason to let go.

Hugging tightly, Mu Chenyuan tilted his head, thin lips kissed her sideburns, and whispered: "I'm sorry, I have to get used to it."

Really embarrassed.

In the frontier police brigade, one of his elders was held by An Xia, so the frontier police didn't care if they saw him. They didn't get along very often anyway.

I'm afraid of being seen by those few people in his team.

They want to see, that is to turn the sky upside down.

Speaking softly, his cold voice was a bit shy, let alone! Quite tempting.

An Xia felt that she was not an unreasonable person.

Since the wolf dog took the initiative to say sorry, forget it, her sir, Dali, forgive me.

"Next time, change to my hug, don't lie to it anymore."

Mu Chenyuan smiled and saw the spring breeze staying in his eyes, "Okay, next time, you hold me."

Next time, find a place where no one will see, whatever she wants to hold herself.

Man, it's not a shame to submit to the one you love.

Take his dad, the dignified twelve-star warrior, one time he accidentally broke his wife and smeared some water on his face, and then he was kneeled and stood on the balcony for an hour.

He didn't feel ashamed of the punishment, and said to him, "I'm smashed, it's a good thing to be punished by my wife, at least we still have a way to calm her down."

"You ruined her things, she didn't scold or make trouble, and looked at you with disappointment. That's trouble! Know why not?"

"That's because she was so disappointed in you, she didn't even have the strength to say a word about you. If you are too disappointed, after a long time, she will die. As men, how can we make women die!"

"When a woman dies for her husband, the house is also gone."

With a penalty, the twelve-star warlord can also lead the principle of life!

Thinking about it now, what my father said did make sense.

At this moment, An Xia said that she would change her to hug herself next time, indicating that they still had a chance to hug herself again.

The sky was dark, and several helicopters parked quietly on the wide apron, waiting for the next take-off.

However, the two young figures hugged each other and did not move.

After holding it for about ten minutes, An Xia said: "Hold it again, I am worried that the Kong team thought I had escaped with a gun."

She has to return the gun.

Also, those few teammates of the Wolves team, their hidden positions are indeed good.

The sight is too substantial!

She doesn't like to be watched.

Mu Chenyuan reluctantly let go of his hands, gently pulled out the broken hair on her forehead with his fingers, and looked at her with cold eyes, "I have an hour to stay, do you have time to accompany me?"

"Not necessarily." An Xia said: "I still have a report. I guess it will take some time. Try to come out before you leave."

Reunited for a short time, and there was not much time to meet.

Can only squeeze time to see each other.

This time it also happened.

Thanks to Fang Yue.

If she hadn't left An Xia and talked for a while, I'm afraid that the two would have missed it in the border police brigade.

Chapter 509: Small sample

When I met this time, she actually wanted to get along with Mu Chenyuan for a while.

It depends on whether he wants to get along with himself more.

Mu Chenyuan naturally thought.

"Okay, I'll wait for you." With a smile, she took her hand, and walked towards the gun storehouse while talking, chatting about her next business.

"When will you start to participate in the preparatory special battle selection?"

"Xia Houyu did not say the specific time, only told me that after the three months of new recruits are over, it is time to start." An Xia is confident in the selection and there is no pressure. "After you left, I did not relax. It's not a problem to pass the selection."

There is no need to "should not be a problem", and I am very confident.

Mu Chenyuan is also confident of An Xia, "Well, there is nothing wrong with passing, but then you should be careful."

"In previous years, strong players often lost points because of carelessness and almost failed to pass."

It's all talks of experience, An Xia remembered in her heart, "Don't worry, I will. Will you have time to come over and take a look?"

He is coming over, if you don't understand, you can ask him.

Mu Chenyuan said: "Closed selection, except for instructors, referees, and staff, no one else can enter at will. My side should not be able to pass."

Then there is no way.

An Xia said with some regret: "I still think about what I don't understand, so I can ask you."

"You will not be given a chance to ask questions. Go in. If you have any problems, you can only solve them yourself. The instructors, referees, and staff will not have private contact with you."

"I won't have too much communication with you. All difficulties and problems depend on you. Difficulties and problems are also an assessment of your strength."

It is not easy to become a reserve special fighter of Xia Guo.

It must be a strong comprehensive strength.

It is impossible for the strength to be biased towards one side, and it will be eliminated at any time.

This is why, once you become a special combatant, the strength of the frontier officers who have the same combat ability admire.

The frontier police may have their strength in a certain direction, but the special fighters will not, and they will develop comprehensively in all aspects.

In this way, An Xia completely gave up.

But the interest is also greater.

"That's interesting, and the competition is relatively cruel."

No wonder the special fighters from Xia Guo were so strong, it turned out that they were all trained step by step in this way.

learnt!

She can use it when she returns to the imperial domain in the future.

The two of them were walking in front, and there were always very light footsteps behind.

You don't have to look back to know who they are.

The gun depot is in front, and has entered the restricted area, and Mu Chenyuan can no longer accompany An Xia.

Let go, "Go, I'll wait for you to come out."

He has an hour of rest time, An Xia does not, naturally he is waiting here.

Waiting willingly.

Before An Xia passed, she looked back, intentionally or unintentionally, and waved to Mu Chenyuan, and walked quickly to the gun storehouse.

In front, the few people lying under the flower bed were all in cold sweat.

Qi Xingsu asked in a low voice, "Did Miss An found us? How do I feel that she always knew we were following?"

The Mu team knew that they followed secretly, it was normal.

The strength of the special special fighters, the intermediate special fighters are slammed.

Miss Ke An...

She is not even a junior special fighter, how could she find them?

Cheng Ming wiped his sweat, and when he spoke, his voice was false, "I have said that Miss An is very powerful, and it is not advisable to sneak in. You don't listen, you have to steal it!"

Chapter 510: Strict resistance to resistance, lenient confession

Definitely found out, Cheng Ming, who was holding his heart, felt very guilty.

"Who was the first to raise his hand in favor of taking a peek?" Ying Que kindly reminded him, "You have a bad memory, I will keep it for you."

Taking a peek, Cheng Ming was the first to agree.

But it was Ying Que who came out to take a peek.

"If you didn't say you want to take a peek, can I agree." Cheng Ming gave a blank look, and had to let the culprit face Miss An's torrential rain.

He is afraid, he persuaded, he dare not.

Should Que agree?

Damn it!

Four people took a peek, and naturally the four of them carried it together when something happened.

Twisting and pulling the vice team Wei Ji to dismount, "Vice team, you are the same. As the vice captain, you don't know how to take responsibility. We make mistakes, and you can't rein in the precipice for us in time. Instead, we make mistakes together!"

"As a deputy chief, he has made mistakes, and the crime is a plus."

"Yes! Just add to the crime!"

"Well, I agree."

Cheng Ming and Qi Xing suddenly agreed.

The dead dao friend does not die the poor dao, it must be carried out to the end!

What are your teammates?

Life is such a big event that you must abandon the team members to protect yourself.

Wei Ji sneered. A group of unscrupulous guys wanted him to be alone, heh, give up!

He got up and said calmly: "You young people are curious, I can understand. Alas, I am following you out, and I am also watching you not to do anything extraordinary!"

"Ms. An is not familiar with us after all. You came here rashly. I am worried that you will scare her. I don't want to disappoint you, so I have to go with you and supervise."

Rub down!

Things are not right!

There is a problem with the deputy team!

Together, the three people who wanted to get rid of the black pot and the deputy team stood up together, and then looked behind them together.

really!

Things are not right!

Their Mu team came, and, stood by their side.

With cold eyes, eyes shivering to the point of trembling bones, they looked at them with no expression on their faces.

"Team Mu..." Cheng Ming reacted quickly to the thief. He rushed to Mu Chenyuan and immediately apologized. "Team Mu, I'm sorry, I was wrong. I shouldn't peek with them. I should remind you in advance. ."

"I also thought of reminding you, but I don't have a cell phone."

"I was forced, Team Mu, I am loyal to you, and I have no two minds."

Qi Xingsu stared, "Beast!"

Ying Que grinds his teeth, "Beast!"

Wei Ji sneered, "shameless"

"Team Mu, you see, you see, they are terrible, I can only serve them more and make mistakes with them. I really don't want to peek at you and Miss Ann. I've watched it several times, it's not like They are so interested!"

In order not to be returned to the team for severe training, Cheng Ming spared no effort to drag the players into the deep water area.

As for himself, he could just flutter in the shallow water.

It is impossible to go ashore, and they are all caught on the spot, and there is no way to distinguish!

Qi Xingsu asked Mu Chenyuan, "Captain, can I beat him up first?"

"Add me!"

"Add me, thank you."

Wei Ji and Ying Que expressed successively.

Good guy, you don't speak loyalty too much!

Must be beaten!

Mu Chenyuan knew his teammates too well.

He didn't believe every word they said.

Just asked, "What did you bet on?"

!!!

Captain, are you the roundworm in our belly?

Know this too?

Terrible.

Tell the truth quickly.

Strictly resist, lenient confession!

Wei Ji spoke first, "Cheng Ming said that he bet that you will meet with Miss An, there will be intimate little moves."

"Is Qi Xingsu talking about kissing? Cheng Ming said that it should not be there yet. Miss An is very difficult to conquer. I am afraid that the Mu team has not completely captured Miss An."
