

Goddess 541

Chapter 541: remarkably brave

With a sweep of his cold eyes, Cheng Yiluo felt that his knees couldn't help but feel weak.

She dared to run over to challenge Chang Hu, but she was thinking that she was leaving anyway, and Chang Hu could no longer control herself in the future.

At this moment, even though the swelling has weakened, it can still stand up to it.

Hearing this, gritted his teeth and said: "I just want to pursue a truth. Is it wrong to pursue the truth?"

"Yes, courage is commendable." Chang Hu narrowed his eyes slightly and said that she was stupid. Sometimes she was a little smarter, but she was still stupid when she said she was smart.

It was a girl, Chang Hu gave her the last chance, "Cheng Yiluo, you must figure it out, right?"

"Of course!" Cheng Yiluo nodded vigorously, his eyes beginning to look a little vacant.

Is it possible, isn't it?

impossible.

She must have guessed correctly.

She cheered herself up secretly, tried to straighten her back, and seemed to make herself confident and less guilty.

Chang Hu nodded, "Very well, in front of everyone, you will repeat the question you asked just now without missing a word. Would you like to?"

"I'm willing!" The answer was quick, with faint excitement, for fear that Changhu would regret it.

Very good!

She can finally question An Xia in front of everyone!

Hahaha

Hahaha

She will make An Xia lose face later, and let everyone know how hypocritical An Xia is!

An Xia, An Xia, I want you to save some face, and now it's Chang Hu who doesn't save you face.

You will be ashamed later, if you want to blame Chang Hu, she has nothing to do with Cheng Yiluo.

I have begun to imagine An Xia's disgrace, being cast aside and attacked by all the new recruits.

The picture was too refreshing, Cheng Yiluo was completely immersed, and he did not see Chang Hu's resolute and black face at all, and his expression was even colder than before.

It's like an iron plate with thick ice. Whoever kicks it on will definitely kick it.

He said to An Xia: "I wanted to keep a low profile and didn't want to irritate them. Now that she is harassed by her, it will only become well-known. You can't just let her know it, you have to know it by everyone."

An Xia doesn't care about these.

Whether it's low-key or high-key, it's her own strength to fight for it.

No one can * it from her, let alone change her whereabouts because of someone's jealousy.

Indifferently: "I'm free."

Chang Hu turned his head and said to the deputy platoon next to him: "Go and see if the helicopter has stopped? Get someone over."

"Yes." The deputy platoon nodded and walked away.

Chang Hu replied to Zheng Zheng: "Blow a gathering whistle and delay them for another five minutes."

"Yes!"

Is scheduled to be executed immediately.

A few seconds later, all the combatants who had been awarded the title heard the assembly whistle. After three months of memory training, they had conditioned their reflexes. They immediately assembled and stood up quickly.

Cheng Yiluo did not return to the team, and stood in front of Chang Hu with An Xia for the first time.

Tan Jing came from the other side, followed by Bo Lirong, the five-star warrior who had come to pick An Xia.

He didn't come to pick up An Xia on purpose, but just by chance, he was able to travel with him.

Bo Lirong received Xia Houyu's notice and learned that An Xia was the one who picked him up on the way, and he "cocked" in his heart, thinking that Xia Houyu was deliberately testing him.

Xia Houyu seemed to have guessed what he was thinking, and explained with a smile, "I still believe that you are a human being, and I won't come to test you. I had arranged for her to fly by at noon this morning, and learned that you would pass over there. You dropped her on the way."

Chapter 542: Want you to look good

Despite this explanation, Bo Lirong was still very nervous.

After all, what their Bo family did to An Xia was excessive.

Zhuan became curious about An Xia again.

What kind of girl is it that can make General Xia Houyu so concerned?

Is it really outstanding?

After getting out of the helicopter, he asked Tan Jing, the instructor of the first camp who received him, "Which new recruits have performed well in this batch of new recruits?"

Tan Jing said without hesitation that An Xia, "the most outstanding new recruit, there is no one. The comprehensive ability is quite strong, very talented, strategic, capable of offensive and defensive."

The evaluation is not high!

He has friendship with Tan Jing and has known each other for many years. It is clear that Tan Jing's personality is by no means exaggerated.

Now that he has such a high evaluation of An Xia, it is sufficient to show that An Xia is indeed quite good.

"It is really rare to get such a high evaluation from you, then I must see you well."

After he said this, Chang Hu sent a deputy platoon over and wanted him to come over and say something.

Just say a few words, it won't take much time.

Tan Jingdao: "After you met Xiao An, you knew that what I said was absolutely not false."

"I don't believe you yet? You said it was good, it must be good. Let's go over and take a look." Bo Lirong smiled and patted Tan Jing on the shoulder, and stepped forward.

Tan Jing glanced at the deputy platoon, and the deputy platoon moved his mouth and said the name "Cheng Yiluo".

Tan Jing frowned on the spot.

Suddenly mentioning her name, I'm afraid there is nothing good.

Before he approached, Tan Jing found Chang Hu standing next to An Xia with an air-conditioning, and his expression was not very good.

On the contrary, An Xia was calm and unaffected.

There is Cheng Yiluo next to it.

Looking around, he was not afraid of troubles, but wanted to cause trouble.

Tan Jing's eyes were narrow.

It seems that Cheng Yiluo's cause is not trivial.

I hope it will not affect Anxia.

If she really affects An Xia, she will definitely be merciless!

Bo Lirong had already seen An Xia.

There were two female soldiers standing in front of Mingming, but he was sure at a glance that the tall and straight figure standing under the sky was An Xia.

There are so many people, there is a Samsung warrior beside her, and she can still attract the attention of others instantly, and it is hard to forget.

Focusing on An Xia, Bo Lirong strode towards Meteor.

Chang Hu reminded An Xia, "The five-star general Bo Lirong who picked you up is Bo Tuan."

An Xia hasn't answered yet. He heard Cheng Yiluo go straight next to him, "Chang Ying, you said he was here to pick An Xia? Did you make a mistake?"

The five-star warlord will come to pick up Anxia?

How can it be!

Does An Xia have such a big face?

The voice was so loud that Chang Hu wanted to slap it over, pressed his throat, and scolded, "There is nothing to do with you here, shut up Lao Tzu!"

Turning back, his face turned to Cheng Yiluo.

He scolded Cheng Yiluo and shivered fiercely all over, with an ominous premonition in his heart.

Could it be that she really guessed wrong?

Really guessed wrong?

Don't panic.

Cheng Yiluo, don't panic!

Hold on!

This is the only chance I can make An Xia make a fool of myself, so I must not panic!

What about the five-star warlord.

Ah.

Maybe he came to trouble An Xia.

Don't panic, don't panic.

Never panic.

Never let An Xia see her own jokes!

Cheng Yiluo kept boosting herself in her heart, not allowed to shrink back.

She even whispered deliberately, "Pick her up? Who knows whether to pick up or catch her."

Chapter 543: Trembling

This person also has two advantages.

One:

The advantage of not hitting the south wall and not looking back.

Even if it is wrong, as long as she thinks she is not wrong, it will definitely go through to the end.

When the results came out, she was indeed wrong, and it was not her fault.

It was someone else who made her wrong on purpose.

This is the second advantage: habitually shirk responsibility.

The two major advantages can also be called: thick skin!

Chang Hu had nothing to say for a while.

This kind of person, no matter how much you say, she won't listen.

Don't say anything at all.

Looking at An Xia again, without seeing Cheng Yiluo the whole time, Chang Hu felt that he had to learn from An Xia.

Just ignore some inexplicable people.

An Xia didn't bother to see Cheng Yiluo.

This kind of person, saying a word with her is disrespectful to himself.

As early as Bo Lirong's eyes fell, An Xia was aware of it.

Hearing this, his eyes moved slightly.

Bo Lirong?

Last time Xia Houyu mentioned this person to her, the son of Father Xuancheng Bo.

How could he come to pick himself up?

An Xia looked back lightly, not surprised or shy, it was natural.

Cheng Yiluo is not natural at all.

Because she found that the five-star warrior who came over, her eyes kept falling on An Xia.

If you are arresting An Xia or criticizing An Xia, you have to bluff no matter how you look.

But not.

Instead, smile.

Smile?

How could it be a smile?

Could it be...

Could it be...

Are you really here to pick An Xia?

Cheng Yiluo, who was so stupid, would really panic.

I was so flustered that there was no way to cheer and cheer myself up in my heart.

How to do?

What should she do?

Cheng Yiluo thought anxiously, with a scorched face, suddenly a dark light flashed in his eyes, as if he had an idea.

She knows how to do it!

Bo Lirong had already arrived, and the Samsung warlord Chang Hu saluted him.

"Come here all of a sudden, I'm disturbing." Bo Lirong has the handsomeness of the Bo family, showing a refined demeanor in his gestures.

Chang Hu also asked him to give instructions. Bo Lirong smiled and said, "I'm just coming over to pick someone up, you, relax."

Turning to look at An Xia directly, "Xiao An, right? I'm Bo Lirong, I'm responsible for picking you up and leaving the camp."

If you don't like the Bo family anymore, An Xia must also salute at this time, saying sternly: "Combat An Xia, report!"

"Time is running out, what else do you have to deal with?" Because of the Bo family's relationship, Bo Lirong's voice couldn't help being softer when talking with An Xia.

An Xia said: "It has been processed, you can leave at any time. But..."

I glanced at Cheng Yiluo, who just wanted to pretend to be a transparent person, "This female fighter, she has a problem and needs to ask you for verification."

The illuminated Cheng Yiluo's eyes turned black.

She didn't want to ask anymore.

I really don't want to ask anymore.

The five-star warlord has said that he is here to pick An Xia away from the camp.

"Oh? Do you have any questions you need to ask me for verification." Bo Lirong asked Cheng Yiluo gently, "Come on, comrade, just ask what you want, don't be afraid."

Chang Hu drank coldly, "Cheng Yiluo! Answer Bo Tuan immediately!"

Cheng Yiluo cried.

She took out her usual tactics, and cried again. "I, I...I didn't...no...no, oooh, I...who...I didn't...no..."

I want to shame.

Chang Hu's face turned completely black, "Well, you don't want to say it yourself, then I will say it for you."

"No!" Cheng Yiluo screamed, refusing all over, and immediately shrank her shoulders, crying tremblingly, "No...don't...don't...I don't."

Seeing, it seemed to be bullied by Chang Hu.

Chapter 544: presumptuous

Bo Lirong glanced at Chang Hu, then at An Xia, smiling unchanged, "Xiao An, come on."

"Don't say it! Don't say it!" Cheng Yiluo rushed over, trying to cover An Xia's mouth, forbidden her to say it.

This time, let alone Chang Hu's face blackened, even Bo Lirong's face blackened.

Tan Jing, the platoon, and the deputy platoon are even worse.

Let's deal with it.

Bo Lirong yelled, "Presumptuous!"

"Chang Hu! Tan Jing! Is this the new recruit trained from your first camp?"

It didn't hurt An Xia, but Chang Hu and Tan Jing.

The two of them stood tall, looked ahead, did not escape, and faced each other, "Please Bo Tuan to punish!"

"Of course you have to punish! Now tell me what she wants to ask me! Immediately, immediately, say!" Pointing to Cheng Yiluo, "You tell me personally now!"

The Thunder Fury of the five-star warlord is far more terrifying than the three-star warlord.

Cheng Yiluo, who was still thinking of crying to be sympathetic and foolishly clear, her face was as pale as paper.

Say...what to say...what did she say...

"Say!" Bo Lirong drank again, his voice higher than before.

Pick up a person, and get a stomach fire!

The new recruits were handed over to a camp, and they were trained to be such a ghost!

Look at her, look at her! What does crying and crying look like!

Is she home as a team?

Cheng Yiluo, who was shocked to hiccup, said with a trembling, "I, I, I doubt... I doubt An Xia left a few days ago... a few days ago, it was... the early assignment... The team, now it's now... now back.Hiccup, she returned...returned, yes...was...retired by the team...returned, I, I...I doubt...doubt...Chang Ying, he...he hiccups...covers... ...An An...hiccup,...An Xia..."

After that, the cry of "Wow" became even bigger.

That grievance, it seems that she didn't say it herself, but was forced to say something against her will.

After listening to Bo Lirong, he knew why Chang Hu's face looked ugly.

Turning to face all the new recruits who stood still, Bo Lirong asked them, "Do you guys think so too?"

If a person is so suspicious, it means that the person has a problem.

If a few people are so suspicious, then it is necessary to investigate carefully.

He will not target An Xia, but he is not allowed to criticize and leak.

"Report!" Chen Dali said loudly.

"Get out!"

Bo Lirong directly asked her to move forward and said, "Who else wants to say!"

It's okay not to ask. When asked, more than a hundred new recruits shouted, "Report!"

It is impossible for so many people to ask one by one.

Bo Lirong said: "Time is limited, I won't ask them one by one. Now, if I ask, you answer!"

"Yes!" was another neat answer.

"Do you doubt An Xia?" he asked.

"No!"

"Do you trust Anxia?"

"trust!"

"How is Anxia?! Good? Or bad?"

"good!"

"Does Anxia need shelter?"

"unnecessary!"

Pointing to Cheng Yiluo, Bo Lirong asked again, "Do you believe what the fighter said?"

"Don't believe it! Don't believe it! Don't believe it!"

Three loud answers, like war drums hit Bo Lirong's ears, do you need to ask more about this?

unnecessary!

And Cheng Yiluo's face was as white as paper, swaying.

They... why are they like this!

How can this be done!

What kind of ecstasy soup did An Xia feed them!

Let them all face Anxia one by one!

Bo Lirong glanced at An Xia deeply, and said to the new recruits: "Then I tell you now, An Xia has performed well and has outstanding strength. She is authorized to participate in the selection of reserve special fighters, and I am here to pick her up and leave the camp! "

Chapter 545: Happy ending

Cheng Yiluo, trembling all over, heard the word "special fighter", suddenly raised his eyes, and looked at An Xia in disbelief.

Special fighter?

Has Ansha become a special fighter?

She was not returned by the troops!

But become a special fighter! ! !

He also asked a five-star warlord to come and pick her up.

This result is a result that Cheng Yiluo did not expect.

"How is it possible, how is this possible, how can she become a special fighter? Impossible, this is impossible..." The spirit was so severely wounded that he forgot where he was, muttering to himself.

It seemed that everything she heard was fake as she read it.

Bo Lirong glanced at her again, his eyes colder than before.

The facts are already in sight. She doesn't admit that she is wrong or tells her. She still thinks it's impossible here.

I don't know how to repent, we can see that there is a big problem with character!

The newcomers in the line wouldn't bother what Cheng Yiluo said. They were all shocked right now.

It has only been three months into the newcomer period, and everyone who has just become a fighter doesn't know much about the "preparatory special fighter selection".

However, they understand the three words "special fighters"!

After listening, there was about three to five silences, followed by thunderous applause.

Special fighters!

Anxia is about to become a special fighter!

She is going to be a special fighter!

This is too great!

Must applaud!

There was applause, everyone's face was full of laughter.

That is the best blessing to An Xia.

Jealous?

Of course you will be jealous.

But this is An Xia's ability, even if it is jealous, that can't be said.

Envy?

I must be envious.

Especially for men who want to become special fighters, they are especially envious.

Special fighters!

How majestic!

How awesome!

A girl in An Xia has become a special fighter without saying a word!

The thunderous applause allowed Bo Lirong to see An Xia's personnel, and also let him know that An Xia has a high status in the hearts of these new recruits.

They recognize Anxia and believe in Anxia.

It's not just good popularity.

It also shows that Anxia's strength is the strength that everyone knows and recognizes.

As for the female warrior who said "An Xia is sheltered", every word she said is not credible.

And such a person, there is no need to stay in the team.

The applause ceased and calm was restored.

Chen Daili put down her hands that patted red, feeling so excited that she couldn't calm down.

Just now, she was still thinking that after she was out of the ranks, the five-star warrior asked what she had to say so that the five-star warrior would believe in herself, instead of trusting Cheng Yiluo.

The five-star warlord deserves to be a five-star warlord. With such a question and answer, everyone's answers are more credible than her reply alone!

Hahaha

Hahaha

Cheng Yiluo, you are in bad luck!

Cheng Yiluo probably knew it herself. She, who didn't dare to cry anymore, was panicked and couldn't think of a countermeasure.

How to do?

How to do?

How should she plead with the five-star warlord for herself?

All I can think of is crying.

She can only cry, and can't think of any other way besides crying.

I hope she can let her go because she is a girl and crying so sadly.

The tearful eyes lifted up, and they met Bo Lirong's gaze. A chill made her whole body suddenly rise from the back, turning into a cold arrow, and piercing into the heart fiercely.

The fear that has never been before is like a storm, rolling in violently.

Bo Lirong glanced at her coldly, and said to Chang Hu Shen: "If you have bad conduct, behave improperly, you will cancel your military status and return to your place of origin on the same day."

Return to original place?

Cheng Yiluo's eyes widened suddenly, and with a stern cry, he fell to the ground.

This time, I was really shocked.

Chapter 546: Reluctant to give up

Cheng Yiluo's fainting did not cause any impact. The main reason was that everyone no longer believed in her.

An Xia is the nearest to her, so she can tell when she is really dizzy and fake.

Really dizzy.

What if it's really dizzy?

Still counting on her to help?

Excuse me.

Reject the Virgin.

She deliberately provoked again and again, and deliberately found fault again and again, she really didn't have such a big mind to ignore the predecessors.

Cheng Yiluo was lucky that he hadn't fallen into trouble.

Soon, someone carried Cheng Yiluo down.

From now on, Cheng Yiluo, who has a higher heart than the sky, is extremely lacking in self-awareness in the team.

Bo Lirong watched the whole process, and saw that the entire first camp, both new and veteran soldiers, were very protective of Anxia, and he had a new level of knowledge of Anxia.

Knowing that An Xia had not had time to say goodbye, she gave An Xia five minutes, "Up to five minutes, no more. Leave everyone's contact information and contact me later."

An Xia's impression of the Bo family is not very good.

But the impression of Bo Lirong was okay.

Acting resolutely and vigorously without losing a gentleness. If you should make a break, you should break, and if you fall, you will fall. No wonder Xia Houyu mentioned Bo Lirong and specifically told her that he was fairly fair in his conduct.

After thanking him, An Xia went to the sharp knife class.

"This is our little gift, you can't dislike it." On behalf of the class, monitor Zou Jun gave out the handmade gifts made by all of them to Anxia.

A bit rough, but very careful-the cartridge case is made into a rifle.

An Xia took it, slightly sinking her hands, as heavy as their friendship, falling into her heart.

He raised his eyes and smiled, "I like it very much, thank you."

She has received many gifts, but none of them are as valuable as this gift!

Seeing that she liked her, everyone in the sharp knife squad laughed with joy, and the deputy squad leader said, "Look, I said I will like it in Anxia, so I won't despise our gifts."

All the handmade gifts that all the staff participated in were all big masters. It was too hard to do this kind of meticulous work, and it took a full month to make it out.

The soldiers laughed loudly.

"That's also the squad leader's idea. We have to thank the squad leader for it."

"The monitor also said that he knows what gifts to give to his girlfriend in the future!"

"Please find a girlfriend before the monitor!"

There was another burst of laughter.

An Xia was holding the rifle in her hands, and they were still laughing as before, and she was looking at them with brows and eyes in a happy mood.

Five minutes is too short.

It's time for you to say something, and I say it to you.

The joyous atmosphere was suddenly suppressed, and the monitor blushed and patted An Xia's shoulder lightly, "Take care, Xiao An, remember to contact the brothers in the future, and don't forget us."

Xiao An, the youngest in the class, is also a girl, and the soldiers in the class regard Xiao An as a little sister in their hearts.

Nowadays, I don't know when I can meet each other. When I think about it, my nose and eyes are sour at the same time.

An Xia whispered: "Definitely."

I will never forget.

It was their warmth that gave her a certain sense of belonging to Xia Guo's team.

It was also on them that made her feel the pure, no calculations of the comradeship.

Even more, they let her know that everyone can get to know each other with open minds.

"If you are wronged in the future, you have to tell us that we will help you!"

"Yes, yes, we can't bear it, we can do it if we should!"

"When I find a boyfriend in the future, we must also tell us that we have to warn that kid and dare to make you wronged and kill him!"

Chapter 547: respectively

The clenched iron guys who bleed, sweat and never shed tears are bad words, and they want to say that there are too many and too many warnings, and in the end they all have to be stuck in their throats, all eyes are red, but they don't know what to say.

An Xia's gaze slowly slipped past their resolute faces, deeply burned in their eyes, placed in the depths of the most treasured memories, always fresh and bright.

Goodbye now, I don't know when I will see you again, I can only say "Treasure".

With a solemn expression, he raised his right hand and said a thousand words in this salute.

"salute!"

Squad leader Zou Jun yelled, and all the sharp knife squad members bid farewell to Ansha in salute.

Take care of yourself!

Take care of yourself!

Take care of yourself!

Not far away, the female fighters Chen Dali and Yu Tong looked at them, and they couldn't find a chance to talk to An Xia for a while.

"Or, just rush to it!"

Chen Daili gritted her teeth and said, "We are going to leave anyway, so we will be stunned for a while!"

"Don't, An Xia will definitely come over." Yu Tong caught it. She has scruples. The five-star warlord has always paid attention to An Xia. They can't cause An Xia to trouble.

Chen Daili stomped her foot, "It's only five minutes, you see how long it has been! It's almost out of time. No matter what, I'll rush first!"

After speaking, she closed her eyes and rushed to grab someone.

None of Yu Tong and the others reacted. She had already rushed several meters away.

Three months of training is not a waste of practice, the 100-meter sprint speed is improved for all members.

Chen Daili is even more outstanding.

The fighters of the sharp knife squad only saw one female fighter following the wind, blowing in front of them, pulling An Xia in a hand, and her voice was anxious and quick: "Excuse me, I took An Xia away!"

It didn't give the sharp knife squad fighters a chance to grab someone in turn, so he pulled An Xia and ran away.

Behind him, the fighters in the sharp knife squad gave a glimpse of joy.

"Oh, I'm so courageous, I dare to * people in front of us!"

"Run slowly, don't fall!"

"Don't run away, no one will rob you."

I'm not embarrassed to grab someone in the past.

Chen Dali sweats on her back nervously.

As he ran, panting, "The fighters of the sharp knife squad are different from those of the ordinary squad. I dare not look at them."

It's a little different.

The fighters of the sharp knife squad will perform some dangerous tasks afterwards, and most of them have blood on their palms.

An Xia smiled and said, "No wonder you didn't dare to come and find me before."

"Definitely not dare to come over and look for you, I was swept by their eyes, and my knees were weak. They didn't chase me, I'm just a tiger's mouth. If they catch up, will I be beaten?"

There is no time to look back.

An Xia looked back and saw that they were still looking at herself, and waved at them.

Goodbye, poor you.

May we meet again someday.

Standing in the shade of the tree, Yu Tong and the others were scared and excited when they saw Chen Daili really snatching An Xia.

"Daily is so courageous! I really snatched An Xia over."

"She has always been bolder than us, this little thing is nothing."

"I'm coming!"

"An Xia! An Xia!"

He lifted his feet and waved, afraid that An Xia hadn't seen them.

Several girls reunited, their eyes were red before they even spoke.

An Xia smiled and said, "Why cry well, there will be a chance to meet in the future."

"How is it possible." Chen Daili pouted and said sadly: "You have become a special fighter, and I don't know where you will go in the future. It is too difficult for us to see you."

Chapter 548: Sun in the eyes, sharp sword in the heart

Not to mention seeing Ansha, it's hard to see Yu Tong and others.

None of the new female recruits were assigned a place.

But one of them went to the Erying District, Tang Hui, the girl who pulled Yu Tong on the train, don't worry.

She went to the second camp area.

The second camp area is close to the first camp area, and a car will be sent directly over there to pick up people.

There are also eleven men fighting together.

A total of twelve new recruits were assigned to the second camp this year.

In the future, there will still be a chance to return to the first camp to get together again.

But everyone else left the first camp, I'm afraid it would be rare to return.

An Xia said: "When we leave the team, won't we have a chance to meet?"

All in the team, it is really difficult to meet.

"That's three years later." Chen Dali poured cold water again, "At that time, can we still be as familiar as we are now?"

In three years, people and things will change.

Who knows if we meet again, do we still have the feelings we have now?

When several girls were said by Chen Dali, tears flowed out.

Choked and said: "Then I definitely won't! I will definitely remember you!"

"Neither will I! I will dream of you all in my dreams."

Yu Tong wiped the corners of his eyes and glared at Chen Dali, "What's the matter with you today? Just say some frustrating things."

The world is sober, Chen Daili said: "I just inform in advance, everyone has a preparation in mind. There really is a day, let us not feel embarrassed."

"But, how have we become, we will always be friends!"

"Yes, always friends!"

Several girls in ground combat uniforms stood together, and the sun shined through the leaves on the young and beautiful faces, overflowing with their youthful beauty.

A few hands were stacked together, and in the wind, they heard their voices as clear as silver bells, "Come on! The future is promising! Come on! An Xia, you are the best!"

No one mentions Cheng Yiluo, as if she never existed in the intersection of everyone.

Five minutes have passed, Yu Tong and Chen Daili accompanied An Xia to Bo Lirong's side.

Bo Lirong's eyes were gentle and asked An Xia, "Did you say goodbye?"

"Yeah." An Xia nodded slightly, "Thank you."

Bo Lirong smiled, "You're welcome, let's set off now."

He was also making up for the wrong things the Bo family had done.

She was saying goodbye to the soldiers in the first camp, and he was also getting to know her.

I was most impressed by Chang Hu's words, "Xiao'an, don't look cold, temperament is not small. She will not cause trouble, but if others want to provoke her, there is nothing polite to say!"

"You have to pack it back, and you can't suffer at all. You say she is small-minded, it is not right, she is not private at all. You said she is big-minded, hahaha, really not, who would offend her, that would be terrible Yeah."

"She, even Lao Tan and I dare to clean up."

In a word: It's a ruthless character who don't want to offend.

And the Bo family offended her completely!

Today, he makes up for one or two as much as possible.

Tan Jing walked to An Xia, smiled and sent out his instructions to her, "An Xia, I hope you will be as upright and bright as you are now!"

Always magnanimous, disdain for dark!

Chang Hu said solemnly, "There is sunshine in the eyes, and a sword in the heart."

Not afraid of the way ahead, not afraid of the darkness!

An Xia sat in the cabin and waved to bid farewell to the bosses in the first camp.

Goodbye to the first camp.

The helicopter sailed towards the blue sky and flew towards the wider sky.

There is a new world and a new journey.

Chapter 549: An Xia's Revenge

On the plane, Bo Lirong mentioned the Bo family.

Now that he met An Xia, he still had to apologize for the things the Bo family had done before.

An Xia disapproved, and said calmly: "Bo Tuan, you are you, and the others are other people. There is no need for Bo Tuan to apologize for what other people have done."

Do not accept.

What the Bo family has done is disgusting, but it is indeed disgusting.

But she can also understand.

In the situation of relocating to a family, it is normal for Mr. Bo to want to divorce.

No one wants to be dragged down.

It's just that the old man Bo shouldn't, never should, and later tried to kill her with Song Jialian.

If you want to cancel the marriage, you can.

Each other has a way of life.

Let go of each, there is no intersection.

She cooperated happily, but she didn't know that Old Man Bo was dragged down afterwards and wanted to bite her in turn.

An Xia with cold brows pressed the corners of her mouth, even her eyes became extremely cold.

At this time, Bo Lirong had a deep understanding of what Bo Lirong said to Chang Hu.

Chang Hu said, "An Xia remembers his grudges."

Really hold a grudge.

Sighed: "My father is old and confused, and because the elders in the family are not up to date, he wants to take advantage of the power of the capital city's Ye family to make the Bo family rise to the next level."

"The idea is good, but the way is radical and unjust. I have committed an unforgivable mistake to you, Miss An, if you have any difficulties in the future, I will definitely help."

An Xia frowned and became impatient, "Bo Tuan, I asked Xia Houyu to convey to you before. I won't accept the Bo family's apology. You should have received it."

"Yes, it's just a chance encounter today. I still have to say sorry to you for the Bo family." Bo Lirong also saw An Xia's impatience, and once again confirmed what Chang Hu said.

The little girl is small and has a big temper.

He also had no choice. He had to apologize for what he did wrong.

An Xia said, "Not all mistakes made can be resolved with an apology. Since you apologize to me on behalf of the Bo family, you must also know what the Bos did to me."

"Retirement, I won't talk about it. If you want to retreat, I also think that this is a consensus, so don't say much. After retiring, I and your Bo family will go their separate ways, but the Bo and the Song family will join forces and desire. I died on the ground."

"Bo Tuan, your Bo family wants me to die. If it weren't for my little ability, today's An Xia Zao is a pile of loess and bones. I still have a chance to hear you apologize to me?"

"It was because I was lucky to survive that you had a chance to apologize to me. So, how could I forgive a murderer?"

"I repeat, the Bo family is the Bo family, and the Bo Tuan is the Bo Tuan. I will not confuse the audience, let alone shift responsibility for no reason."

She still admired Bo Lirong's personality and the courage of a five-star warrior, which really surpassed the three-star battle based on his resolute handling of He Cheng Yiluo.

If someone like Cheng Yiluo was in her imperial realm, he would inexplicably provoke the new recruits that day and immediately be removed from the list, which would not give her any chance to reform.

Some people play bad games, so you can give them a chance to make corrections.

Some people have bad character and cannot correct themselves at all. For this kind of people, they must solve it thoroughly and never let it go.

Chang Hu and Tan Jing's punishment of Cheng Yiluo, An Xia has always felt too light.

But then she went to the sharp knife class, and Cheng Yiluo saw that she was walking around again, so she didn't pay much attention.

But Bo Lirong, who stayed for less than fifteen minutes today, dealt with Cheng Yiluo decisively. It can be seen that this man uses a lot of iron and blood to manage the army.

Chapter 550: Conspiracy

She has always liked warriors with iron-blooded wrists, even if Bo Lirong comes from a Bo family, it will not affect her appreciation of him.

Now he has repeatedly stated to him that the Bo family is the Bo family, and he is him, also out of admiration for him, and does not want to ruin his goodwill.

Fortunately, Bo Lirong didn't say more.

Said: "Understood, I will not mention the Bo family again in the future."

"Yeah." An Xia nodded indifferently, and said: "I need to rest for a while."

After speaking, close your eyes and say no more.

After Bo Lirong was silent for a few seconds, he burst into laughter.

Chang Hu said that every time he talks to An Xia, there is always an illusion that he is a subordinate and An Xia is the superior.

He didn't believe it at the time, and said with a smile: "You are optimistic about An Xia, but you don't have to surrender like this."

The Samsung warlord faced a new recruit and felt that his aura was not as good. Who would believe it?

Anyway, he didn't believe it at all at the time, only that Chang Hu deliberately did this to promote An Xia.

But now it seems that Chang Hu really didn't deliberately raise An Xia.

This is indeed the case.

He communicated with her for a short time, as a five-star warrior, he really couldn't stand up his identity in front of her.

She is not afraid of him as a five-star warrior.

It should be said that she is not even afraid of the Seven Star Warlords!

Just now, he heard her calling the name of General Xia Hou.

Smiling, Bo Lirong sighed secretly.

My father is really miserable.

An Jia fell, but An Xia got up.

Thanks to the collapse of Anjia, otherwise, it will drag An Xia.

The father wanted to find a grand-daughter-in-law who could help Yibo's family and support his nephew Bo Zhiqing. The father who paid too much attention to family history missed An Xia.

If An Xia is still Zhi Qing's fiancée, Shang Qing will definitely be of great help in the future.

Unfortunately, I missed it.

Oh, what a pity, what a pity!

Zhiqing, that kid, wait to regret it.

Bo Lirong sighed again in his heart, and then slowly closed his eyes to rest.

He didn't think about rubbing Bo Zhiqing and An Xia again. At this point, the two are no longer the same, and it is better to have no intersection.

Don't try to borrow his hand from the Ye Family to give An Xia an envoy.

Bo Lirong thought so.

Old lady Ye didn't think so.

She hadn't looked into the Bo family. She had only used the Bo family's status in the Southern Province to let the Ye family's business enter the Southern Province. Here, she was willing to surrender her status and deal with a small wealthy family who came out of a small place.

Later, the Ye family successfully broke into Southern Province, and she didn't bother to talk to the Bo family again.

If it weren't for the phone call from the stepdaughter Ye Mengwei, the mother and daughter, and the Bo family, she would only send someone to pick it up, but she wouldn't personally intervene.

She gave the Bo family a face, and never thought that the Bo family was so rampant that she had repeated excuses for not answering her phone calls!

Outrageous!

Capital Yejia

Old Lady Ye twisted the red sandalwood beads in her hand between her fingers, no matter how well maintained, her old face with loose skin was stretched, and the corners of her eyes were cold.

"The old fourth family, you take the time to go to an open house, I want to see when their family wants to avoid me! Our Ye family's momentum, it's not that their Bo family wants to be in force and can be thrown away if they want to! "

Mrs. Ye's second son, Ye Zhuo, ranked fourth. He had been in the Southern Province for the past six months to take care of business and had a little more contact with the Bo family.

Hearing this, he will smile at 46-year-old Ye Zhuo: "Mom, you said before that Bo's family can't be on the table. If Le Jing looked at Bo Zhiqing, you didn't want to kill Le Jing's Xing'er. I would like to say a few more words with the Bo family."
