Chapter 551: Calculate in the nest

Ye Zhuo said disapprovingly, and a cruel color flashed inadvertently in the depths of his eyes.

The tea cup he held in his hand looked indifferent, "Now Le Jing is breaking up with Bo Zhiqing. Since Le Jing is tired of playing, then the Bo family doesn't need to bother."

Le Jing, Ye Lejing, Ye Zhuo's daughter, are a playful temperament.

I screamed with Bo Zhiqing, only to see that Bo Zhiqing looks good, and now he has a new goal, so he has no interest in Bo Zhiqing.

Ye Zhuo knew that his daughter loved to play and never stopped.

It's not that his family can't afford it.

It just so happened that the Bo's side had also used up, and the trouble happened with his daughter.

Ye Zhuo didn't look down on the Bo family either.

The niece Ye Youyin, the old lady wanted her to marry into Mu's house, so Le Jing was also the old lady's granddaughter, so why should she marry me?

It's best to marry, and marry too!

Jing's family is not bad!

The eldest brother Ye Yan stared at the Mu family, and then his family stared at the Jing family, and no one would suffer.

The old lady Ye didn't know the calculations in her son's heart. After hearing the words, she said gloomily: "The Bo family wants to use our Ye family as pawns, no way!"

"Mom, how can it be 'abandon', that's wit." Ye Zhuo was quite happy in his heart, and he was worried that his family would depend on them.

As a result, when the Bo family heard that Le Jing had broken up with Bo Zhiqing, the old man from the Bo family came over to talk to him for a while on a hot day.

"Mr. Ye, since the fate of the children of the two families is exhausted, we don't want to be the elders. Le Jing is a good girl, but my grandson is not worthy of it. Alas, what the two of us said should never be said before. Bar."

Hearing this, it almost came to his heart.

Ye Zhuo said again: "The Bo family knows that it is high, now that the sense of interest is retreating, mom, you, don't be angry. I got a good treasure in the West some time ago. It is said that the mysterious lord of the emperor domain once wore it. Blue diamond, I will send it to you when I look back, and honor you."

Mrs. Ye likes famous diamonds, especially blue diamonds.

Seeing the four sons coaxing him, the anger in his heart dissipated a little, and he smiled: "Okay, you are also a grandfather, but you can't be as fun as before."

"Yes, yes, my son knows, you can rest, I won't bother you." Ye Zhuo said, rubbing his temples a little tiredly, and then he heard the old lady Ye say: "Look, you are tired too, and I will go back to the capital city later. Don't worry about coming to see me."

"It's the same when you come back after resting at home. You are not young, so you have to pay attention to maintaining your body."

Ye Zhuo said, "That won't work, I don't worry if I don't come home and see you right away."

The old lady likes to put her first in the family. It doesn't matter if she says it, but she remembers it all in her heart. The fifth one returned to the capital from a different place once, and she never came to see the old lady the first time. Remember.

He also left the fifth family abroad and left them alone for three years!

The lesson from the past is another critical juncture. No matter how tired Ye Zhuo is, he still has to do his best.

The old lady Ye was very helpful and didn't leave Ye Zhuo.

Ye Zhuo walked out of the door, the smile on his face instantly disappeared.

"The Ye Family is not a * that others can abandon", they are all deceptive words!

The Bo family is being used at this moment, not because the old man Bo has a son in the team. The old lady wants to take advantage of the Bo family to get rid of a potential rival for his niece Ye Youyin!

The old lady was always thinking about Ye Youyin's plan. Why did his daughter Le Jing plan for another granddaughter?

Chapter 552: Jealous

The old lady was dissatisfied with the Bo family's lack of wit, but in his opinion, the Bo family was very witty!

Knowing that Le Jing didn't want to be with Bo Zhiqing, she immediately told him that it was Bo Zhiqing who could not climb Le Jing. This is 'witness'!

Knowing that you can't afford it, give way immediately.

Ah

He knew exactly what the old lady was thinking!

Madam Ye Si poured a cup of health tea for her husband, her expression complaining, "Fortunately, we knew the old lady's calculations, otherwise, you would have to make your uncle give way to your niece!"

Really annoyed!

They are both sons and granddaughters, so why should the old lady be so dedicated to making money for the long room?

Long room, bah!

The real long room is the original one, and it is called the long room!

What kind of long house is Mrs. Ye San!

The more I thought about it, Madam Ye Si became more and more angry in her heart, "The old lady is also eccentric! The young voice is good, I admit it. But what's the difference between Lejing? What's the difference?"

"Is it guilty to treat her so cheaply? The old lady said all day that she was a bowl of water, so where did she get it? If she really wants to do it, she also has to plan for Le Jing to marry her."

As he spoke, he massaged Ye Zhuo's shoulders with careless hands.

She also feels distressed for her husband. Every time she goes back to the capital from a different place, she can't go back to her home immediately after getting off the plane, so she has to go to wait with the old lady first.

What is said to report peace, in fact, they are all dependent on the old lady.

The old lady likes to control, like watching her son, daughter-in-law, and grandchildren all around her, coaxing her and honoring her.

She was happy, raised her hand, and leaked such a good thing from her fingers, which could attract the younger generations to flock to and jealous.

Looting in Ye's house is commonplace!

Ye Zhuo closed his eyes to enjoy his wife's service, still humming the old song from the old alley.

It seems that he has not heard his wife's complaint.

Mrs. Ye Si who was mumbling in her mouth just wanted to hear her husband say a few words. Seeing that he was motionless and enjoying her service, she didn't mean to respond, so she was angrily burdened and stopped waiting!

"Go out and find your Yingying Yanyan! Don't stay at home all day long evening clothes uncle! If you have the ability, you go to the old lady and pretend to be uncle!"

When his wife was angry, Ye Siye opened his eyes and smiled.

"What are you angry about? Isn't this a fact that has always existed? Youyin is the daughter of the elder brother, and has been raised by the old lady since childhood."

"Le Jing, didn't you want to send it to the old lady back then? The old lady didn't accept it, but she refused with lack of energy. You told me when you went home. The old lady's mind went to the armpit."

"What else is there to be angry about what I have known a long time ago? The old lady is just the young voice who prefers to raise her around. She is not too cold to us, and the whole family knows."

Ye Siye is not as angry as Mrs. Ye Si, the marriage of his daughter's family, who knows whether to marry a dragon or a mouse before the last moment?

He said: "Do you think the Mu family is good to marry? You didn't tell me on the phone the other day that Mr. Mu was unwell, and the old lady wanted to visit, but the Mu family refused."

There is such a thing.

Last month, Mrs. Mu caught a cold and was admitted to a war zone hospital. The old lady did not know where to get the news, so she went to the hospital to visit.

Then...

Mu Ruqing was stopped by Mrs. Mu's granddaughter.

At that time, she was accompanied by Mrs. Ye San and Mrs. Ye Si, and the two wives saw their mother-in-law's face, and there was no way to keep the smile on her face.

At any rate, he was also an elder, so he was so neglected!

Chapter 553: Dirty root

Finally, the old lady stepped down for herself and said, "Oh, I didn't want to be thoughtful. When I heard that the old lady was not feeling well, she hurried over, forgetting that the old lady needs the most rest at the moment."

"Then I won't bother you much, and ask the old lady to take care of her body."

He didn't even bring out the precious gifts he mentioned in the past.

People don't want to see it, and gifts are never going to be sent.

It's better to learn something interesting and go quickly.

When she got out of the hospital, the angry old lady shook her body, her face "cang", she was dark and cold, and it was hard to see that the two wives didn't even dare to breathe.

Especially Madam Ye San, who is cautious, Madam Ye Si feels very relieved thinking about it now.

"The old lady suffered so much humiliation in front of a junior in the Mu family. It wasn't for the young voice, the sister-in-law those few days..." Madam Ye Si is a stubborn, thinking about venting her anger, it's not the same right now. Ye Siye was angry.

He pursed his mouth and happily said, "My sister-in-law served the old lady with her tail between her tails for a few days. She didn't even dare to provoke me, for fear that I would turn the matter out that day and provoke the old lady to anger her."

Ye Siye was quite relieved as he listened.

"That's it, the old lady wanted to marry Xiaoyin into the Mu's family with all her heart, that's also the old lady's wishful thinking! If the Mu's family wants it or not, the old lady won't even think about it!"

"My step-sister's daughter is quite capable, and she actually caught up with Mu Sishao. The old lady was anxious, and wanted me to put pressure on the Bo family so that the five-star warrior of the Bo family could use his hands and feet. It's ruined my step-sister's daughter."

The calculation in the old lady's heart was understood by him, and the Bo family would definitely not answer the old lady's phone calls.

Because he warned the old man Bo in advance.

If you dare to hold back the Ye Family, don't blame them Ye Family for turning their faces away from their old feelings.

Thinking of the eldest brother's daughter not being able to marry into the Mu's family smoothly, but her daughter Le Jing, and You Jing's family got on the line, Ye Siye feels smooth and comfortable!

He closed his eyes again, shook his head and shook his head, making old songs.

Madam Ye Si was still waiting for him to continue talking.

Seeing her husband humming the song again, he shook his head and said, "Hurry up and say, don't adjust your appetite! They are all grandpas, so naive!"

Last week, Madam Ye Si's eldest daughter-in-law gave birth to a son. The two Madam Ye Siye were so generous that they directly gave their daughter-in-law a house worth nearly 100 million yuan because of their merits in giving birth to their daughter-in-law.

The daughter-in-law is happy with such a big deal, the in-laws are also happy, and the whole family is happy together.

Ye Siye glanced at his wife indifferently, "What's wrong with Grandpa? There is also a seventy-year-old naughty boy!"

"Say it!" Mrs. Ye Si said coldly: "Our family has made enough rafts for the eldest brother's family, so I don't have to return it to my nephew as a raft now!"

"The Bo family won't follow the old lady. I also warned the Bo family and told them not to hold on to the old lady anymore. However, all calls from the Ye family are not allowed to be answered except me!"

"The eldest brother is also in the team. Why doesn't the old lady go to the eldest brother? Youyin is the biological daughter of the eldest brother. He didn't apologize for not showing up as a dad. It's my uncle for both good and bad!"

Brothers, that also has to be settled.

Madam Ye Si was relieved when she heard the words, "Yes! That's the reason! It doesn't make sense for her daughter's marriage to act as a dad. Instead, she asked her uncle to work hard for her everywhere."

Fortunately, the husband is a man who can screw it up clearly, otherwise, she would have to die!
After talking for a while, the two couples went to the confinement center to see their grandchildren.

Chapter 554: Mutual grievances

As for the old lady, Ye Siye and his wife really didn't have time to bother.

Madam Ye San was anxious, "Old lady, didn't the second brother talk to the Bo family?"

"The second family has its own arrangements." Old lady Ye said in a somewhat unsound mind. The weather was hot, and even if the house was cool, she was always a little irritable in her heart.

There is no way to alleviate the Buddha.

When Mrs. Ye San heard it, a cruel look flashed in her eyes.

These words...

When I heard it, I knew that there was no heart in Sifang!

Talking about self-arrangement is an excuse.

"Hey, the second brother is really busy in Southern Province. If the second brother is really hard to get away, or should I let Ting Yu go over and help the second brother?"

Ye Tingyu, the eldest son of Mrs. Ye San, is 26 years old this year and has already begun to take over the industry of the Ye Group.

He is quite capable and has means, which is very popular with Mrs. Ye.

However, no matter how good the grandson is, it has to be temporarily placed behind his son.

Hearing that, the old lady looked at her daughter-in-law, her eyes were sharp that could dissect people's hearts, and she swept away Madam Ye San's heart.

The old lady who was still stained with calming sandalwood was in the red sandalwood chair, her hand habitually twisted the prayer beads, her eyes kept staring until Madam Ye San said, "Mom, daughter-in-law...no other meaning."

The grievance in my heart has deepened a lot.

They are good at serving the old lady in this room, and for fear that it might be unsatisfactory, but if something really needs to happen, the old lady is still facing the fourth and fifth rooms in his heart!

"Do you have any other meanings, you know it in your own heart." The old lady said lightly, and the fluttering words pierced sharply, and Madam Ye San couldn't help but shiver.

"The second family has been troubled by the business in Southern Province for the past six months. You are in the capital city, and you are easy to open your mouth, thinking that you are relaxed and others are relaxed."

This is preaching.

Mrs. Ye San's face was very impatient.

Preaching to her in front of the servant, the old lady got up fierce and didn't save any face!

Anyway, she is the eldest daughter-in-law of the junior room!

Elder Ye's original partner was the big room, the second room was Ye Mengwei, and the third room was the current old lady Ye.

"The daughter-in-law knows wrong, please forgive the old lady. The daughter-in-law is also anxious in her heart, and worried about You Yin's side..." Then, Mrs. Ye San wiped the corner of her eyes, "You have loved Mu Si Shao for so many years, I am here. Damn...look in the eyes, hurt in my heart."

"As long as you are not so caring about Mu Sishao, I feel better in my heart. Now that I have been wronged, my family can't help her out. Mom..., I feel uncomfortable."

Speaking of Ye Youyin, the sharpness in Mrs. Ye's eyes narrowed a lot.

"Okay, you feel bad, don't I feel bad when I am a grandmother?" The old lady pressed the corners of her mouth, her face was much gloomy, "You can ask the boss over there and see if the boss can think of something secretly."

Madam Ye San didn't hesitate, and refused, "Mom, the uncle has only recently been promoted, and the position has not been firmly seated. How can you come forward for this little thing?"

"If you want to be taken as a handle by someone with a heart, wouldn't it hurt the uncle? It's better to hand it over to the second brother so that he can contact the Bo family. It is best for the Bo family to come forward."

"Something is really going to happen to the Bo family, the uncle is secretly dealing with him because of his family's work for the young music, and he must be able to cover it for the Bo family."

Something really is going to happen to the Bo family. It is because their ancestors of the Bo family have no virtue, and they can't handle even small things.

Chapter 555: acting

Mrs. Ye San did the calculation clearly.

Your husband can't have an accident, just in case something happens.

An accident in the Bo family was due to the bad life of the Bo family.

The old lady thought so in her heart!

That's why the Bo family came forward.

But now the Bo family does not come forward!

The Buddhist beads in his hand twisted faster.

no.

The Bo family must solve An Xia for her, and must not let An Xia stay in the team!

It seems that it takes heavy bait.

Then let Bo Zhiqing be engaged to Le Jing immediately, temporarily tie the Bo family to the big boat of the Ye family, wait until they resolve An Xia, and then cancel the engagement privately.

The old lady called the old man Bo again.

The old man Bo took it this time. Before he could speak, he coughed. The force seemed to be able to move the internal organs to the point of dislocation.

Sha said in her throat, "The old lady is well, I'm really sorry recently, but she's not feeling well, she just came out of the ghost gate alive."

Block the conversation first, in case the old lady makes a fuss about why she doesn't answer her phone.

The grim-faced old lady was about to start a trouble, but now it's hard to tell.

Hearing this, he said: "Oh, when you get old, a little bit of discomfort can kill people. We are all old, we have to pay more attention to it, and strive to live for a few more years, and bring great grandchildren to the younger generation. Enjoy the blessing."

The inexplicable mention of "great grandson" made the lifelike old man Bo, who was living in the hospital, stared tightly.

Dragging his voice, said weakly: "Oh, there are always fixed numbers, and I can't force it. I'm afraid that this old bone will have to live in bed in the future, great grandson...cough cough cough..."

There was no chance to say the following words, and the old lady Ye panicked after coughing.

Immediately afterwards, someone said loudly: "Doctor, doctor! My old man is not very well, please come right now!"

In the unfinished call, Mrs. Ye heard a turmoil over there.

Is it possible that the old man of the Bo family is really not in good health?

I also wanted to listen carefully. Someone answered the phone and said politely: "Old lady, I'm really sorry, my old man is not doing well. When his old man comes to rescue, I will call you as soon as possible."

The politeness of the needle in Mianli made the old lady's face instantly blue.

Listen, is this blaming her for stimulating the thin old man to rescue?

He immediately ended the call, and when it was over, he patted the armrest again and his face was so gloomy that it was about to drip.

Beside, Madam Ye San didn't dare to breathe.

The old lady touched a soft nail at Bo's again!

How can this be good?

The Bo family can't come forward, nor can their family come forward. Who else is in the clan of the capital's giants? Who would be willing to take big risks for the Ye Family and solve the little * An Xia?

No one had the courage to come forward with matters in the team.

Once in trouble, the whole family is overthrown.

The risk is too great, I would rather offend the Ye Family than nod in agreement.

Xuancheng, Nursing Home

Old man Bo was sitting on the hospital bed, his complexion ruddy and not a bit sick.

When I got a small cold, it happened to be the time of massage and acupuncture every year, so I simply stayed in the sanatorium built by myself.

While keeping in good health, while avoiding Ye Family.

Uncle Liang stood by the hospital bed, poured a glass of water for the old man Bo, and waited carefully, "You drink slowly, be careful of choking."

Just now in order to act, the old man deliberately choked himself with water before answering the phone. This is what happened before.

Bo Zhiqing was full of guilt, pursing his thin lips, took the cup from Liang's hand, and waited on the old man.

In the past six months, Bo Zhiqing has also grown a lot.

Chapter 556: Variety

Even the temperament has changed a lot, the youthfulness faded, and he became more mature and stable.

The old man Bo was very pleased to see it in his heart.

After drinking the water, his throat was moisturized, the old man patted his grandson's shoulder lightly, and sighed: "This time, you are wronged."

It was his grandfather's miscalculation!

Thought to climb the big tree of the Ye family.

Who knows, the Ye family didn't put their Bo family in sight at all!

The grandson he carefully cultivated was... even regarded as a plaything by Mrs. Ye's granddaughter! !

Fortunately, Zhi Qing also played with the woman.

The two of them treat each other as playthings and are even!

Bo Zhiqing put down the water glass, his eyes were dull, and he said indifferently: "Everyone takes what they need, there is nothing wronged."

He really doesn't feel wronged.

An Yangyang's accident caused him a big blow, and his grandfather's standing by and left him frustrated. exist

I drank it, and the woman fell asleep. After a few months in a daze, she should be sober now.

Old man Bo didn't have much comfort.

Man, how can you grow without experiencing a little thing!

"These are all trivial things, and there are bigger things waiting for you. There is the Ye Family here in Southern Province, and our Bo family has separated from the Ye Family. With the temperament of the old lady Ye, we will definitely not let it go. Bo family."

"Grandpa plans to let you go abroad for development. I will arrange Liang Bo for you, and then transfer two reliable executives from the group to go abroad to assist you."

"Give you three years. Grandpa hopes that you can stand firm abroad within three years."

The Bo family has a foundation in Western Europe. As long as Bo Zhiqing is not stupid after the past, there will be no problem in standing firm within three years.

Bo Zhiqing has no opinion.

At home, he didn't want to stay anymore.

It's okay to go out for a while.

"Grandpa, Liang Bo will stay by your side to take care of you. I only need two executives to do it."

"confirm?"

"Yeah." Bo Zhiqing nodded, he should have grown up too, and he can no longer live his own life like before.

Those naive past events are all over.

Seeing this, Old Man Bo was full of emotion.

His most important grandson has grown up!

"Okay! Grandpa believes you! Remember, when you go abroad, you must manage your own business, and you must never ask for help at home. Unless there is something you don't understand, you can ask Grandpa again."

Bo Zhiqing said solemnly, "We will definitely not let you down."

Even An Xia got up and walked so far, how could he still stand still!

Bo Zhiqing did not stay in the nursing home for too long, so he was 'rushed' away by the old man Bo, "After finally returning to China, I will pass by in a few days. I'll talk to my friends while I'm still in the country."

"In the future, the development of our Bo family will focus on foreign countries, but we still need to pay attention to domestic current affairs and news. More friends and more roads."

"Don't stay with me all the time, go, and get together with friends."

I am still worried that my grandson will suffer from the woman's loss, and I will be sick in my heart, and that will be troublesome.

Bo Zhiqing wanted to stay and fulfill his filial piety, but the old man Bo refused to give him a chance and insisted on 'catching up' people.

Uncle Liang also smiled and persuaded, "The old man is really okay, you can rest assured to go out to play, Master. After playing for a few days, you will have to be busy after you go abroad."

When Bo Zhiqing left the sanatorium, the old man Bo solemnly said to Liang Bo: "Send Hui Yi to Zhiqing in secret. The Ye family is not a vegetarian."

He now hopes that An Xia will be able to stabilize the big tree of Mu's house, and then come out to clean up the Ye's house!

Chapter 557: No more intersection

Uncle Liang had always listened to Mr. Bo, and he made arrangements what Mr. Bo said.

After receiving the order, Liang Bo reminded me carefully, "Look, do you want to contact Young Master Li Rong? So that he can rest assured? After all, there is a six-star warrior in the Ye family, not afraid of ten thousand, just in case."

Why did old lady Ye contact the Bo family again and again, not at Master Li Rong.

In case she hates the old man, she changes hands to let the six-star warlord of the Ye family wear little shoes for Master Li Rong...

It's better to guard against it.

Old man Bo is also worried, but...

After pondering a little, he said coldly: "They Ye Family really dare to embarrass Li Rong, ah, then their Ye Family's death date is not far away! They don't need the Mu Family to take action, Ye Family finds their own way of death!"

If the grievances in the family dare to involve the team, will the above allow it? !

"They dare to take action, our Bo family is not so bully!"

Old Man Bo was not so afraid of the Ye Family.

At his age, there are actually very few things he can be afraid of.

However, he had to be responsible for the entire Bo family.

This time it was his misstep to pull onto the thief ship of the Bo family and the Ye family. Now it must take a little effort to get off the thief ship.

Since last time Bo Lirong reminded Mr. Bo, in order to get off the thief ship, he was actually ready to let the Bo family peel off.

Unexpectedly, the old man helped the Bo family and gave him the opportunity to get off the thief.

It's almost done now, and Mrs. Ye still wants to drag Bo's family into the water, but there is no chance.

After listening, Liang Bo answered without hurries, "Young Master Li Rong has always been decent and cautious. The Ye Family is looking for Young Master Li Rong's fault, I am afraid it will take a bit of thought."

"Father, I'm afraid that it will be on them. It's better to let Young Master Li Rong be more careful."

"You're right, you really want to remind Li Rong." The cold-faced old man nodded and listened to Liang's suggestion. "I'll contact Li Rong and you will arrange for Zhiqing to go abroad."

Liang Bo owed himself, "Okay, I'll make arrangements now."

After finishing speaking, he paused slightly, Liang Bo's always rigid face had a smile on his face, "Young Master Qing is quite sensible now, you can rest assured."

Speaking of Bo Zhiqing, the old man Bo also had a smile on his face, very pleased, "Zhiqing, after all these things, he is considered sensible."

"The road ahead is still long. I only hope that he can take the Bo family farther."

Among the descendants of the Bo family, there are more mediocre ones, and less promising ones. Bo Zhiqing is indeed one of the more promising ones in the Bo family.

If it hadn't been for an accident in An Yangyang, Bo Zhiqing might not be able to wake up.

Liang Bo said, "Qing Shao has always been smart. No matter how you give pointers, Qing Shao will not let you down."

Liang Bo has always been very optimistic about Bo Zhiqing.

The old man Bo said: "The way, you have to walk on your own, relying on other people's guidance, like a baby who can't be breast-fed, and has no good prospects. He went abroad, fell and hurt, and he has a long memory. With experience, it will be more convenient to deal with all kinds of affairs in the future."

After the master and servant talked for a while, Uncle Liang left to arrange for Bo Zhiqing to go abroad, and Mr. Bo called Bo Lirong.

Don't worry about your son in the team about the family affairs.

The old man Bo did not contact Bo Lirong at the first time, and his cell phone was turned off.

Contact again the next morning, or shut down.

At this time, Bo Lirong and An Xia arrived at a certain war base deep in the Gobi.

Chapter 558: Report

Bo Lirong did not take An Xia to report.

He could see that An Xia didn't want to have any contact with the Bo family or him.

After entering the base, Bo Lirong said: "You report first, and you will be arranged to go to the dormitory after the report. The next selection will be cruel. I hope you can stick to it and pass it smoothly."

An Xia, who has watched the selection videos in the past, said that she was very indifferent.

With a faint look, she twisted her poor luggage, nodded slightly to Bo Li Rong, and then left.

She has been here three days late, and now she has come here and can't delay her time.

Time, eight o'clock in the morning, is exactly the time for training.

An Xia went to report first according to the text message sent by Xia Houyu on the phone.

She was received by a junior special fighter.

An Xia handed over the certificate, the junior special fighter took the certificate and took a look, then looked up at An Xia again.

This one, he knows.

The above said hello, saying that it would be three days late.

Reason: The report can only be reported after the new member period is over.

In other words, the female fighter in front of her, who was as tender as a flower-bone on a branch, was a female fighter who had just completed three months of recruitment.

Look, I can't see how powerful it is.

Look, well, it doesn't seem to be too much.

Today happened to be a combat fight. No matter how good the newcomer period was, all the fighters who participated in the selection process were at least one year old. She was so tender and thrown into the crowd, and she didn't know if she would have to come out all the way.

"Name."

"An Xia."

"Affiliated to the team."

"Lu Second District, there is no detailed team yet."

"age."

"18."

"height."

"167."

"weight."

"48kg"

"Stand well, aim at the camera, and complete the facial recording."

"Complete thumb and index finger fingerprint authentication."

While verifying, the junior special agents entered considerable information and finished the report in less than three minutes.

Re-handed the certificate to An Xia, and the junior special warfare officer said in a cold voice, "The dormitory is Room 305 on the third floor of Building 7, a quadruple room. Five minutes later, go directly to the playground and look for the instructor to report."

"Understood." An Xia took the certificate, then picked up the luggage, and hurriedly went to the dormitory to put the luggage.

Five minutes later, the playground reported that she had to hurry up.

She turned around and left. The junior special fighter in charge of reception picked up the walkie-talkie and contacted Lei Hongtao, the company commander in the playground.

"Lei Lian, An Xia, who came three days late, has finished reporting."

After a burst of "Zizi" electric current, there was a man's voice harder than Gobi gravel, "Okay, let her come directly."

"Arrive in five minutes."

"Five minutes?" Tan Lian looked at the multi-function electronic watch on his wrist, "Okay, just look at this one's capabilities."

Coming three days late, the new recruiting period was just over, and the personal information was very good. The new recruiting period participated in two actual combat missions.

The task, it must be true, this can't be done falsely.

What can be deceived is whether the two actual combat participation is hiding and lying flat, or the whole participation with real guns and live ammunition.

The information sent by each team for each selection will be somewhat exaggerated, and it is all vanity.

I'm afraid that the resumes of people in my team are not good enough, and they will be compared by people from other teams.

Who knows, exaggeration is a shame.

When you practice your hands, you will know whether it is true or false.

On the playground, there are ninety-nine fighters participating in the selection of reserve special fighters. Ten of them are ready to start a wheel fight. There are no men and women, only winning or losing.

When An Xia came over, there were exactly one hundred people.

Chapter 559: Get off the horse

During the day, the sun in the Gobi was extremely hot, and Lei Hongtao, who had cracked his cheeks, looked up at the sky and wiped the sweat from his forehead. Some thought it was windy today.

When the sun comes out, the sun comes out. What wind is blowing?

After wiping the sweat, he walked to the deputy company and said indifferently: "You have to come over for a special female war. You'll keep an eye on me later, don't let her paddle."

The surname of the deputy Lian is "Zuo", and the single name is 'rock'.

Standing in front of Lei Hongtao, who was wearing short-sleeved stamina and a muscular body, he looked a little thin, and even his tanned lips were much lighter in color.

Hearing this, he twitched the corners of his mouth, and the faint voice seemed to be faintly sick, "It's her."

"I only gave her five minutes." Lei Hongtao glanced at the electronic eyes again, "There are still three and a half minutes."

Zuo Yan smiled. Suddenly, Lei Hongtao frowned when he coughed and coughed without warning.

Said, "I will switch to logistics at the end of the year. You should worry less about things here and take care of your body. Sister-in-law sees you like this, and I don't know how distressed it is."

At the beginning of this year, Zuo Yan fell off the cliff to save a soldier. A rib pierced his lungs. The person was rescued, but he suffered from a cough.

Zuo Yan was in charge of the preliminary work for the selection of reserve special fighters. Lei Hongtao repeatedly proposed to let Zuo Yan rest, but he refused.

After ten years of first-line work, he suddenly retreated to the second line. The gap was so great that Zuo Yan, who wanted to fight on the front line, couldn't accept it.

Faced with Lei Hongtao's concerns, Zuo Yan said with a smile: "It's okay. It's not too late for a few months. I can choose someone from the beginning and the end, and I have an explanation for myself."

It has nothing to do with glory, only responsibility.

Now that he has taken over, he has to be responsible for the end. How can he carry the burden on the way for personal reasons?

Lei Hongtao knew he was a stubborn temper. He suppressed the worries in his heart and murmured, "If there is anything uncomfortable, don't hold on. You are hiding it from others, and you can't hide it from my side!"

"Okay, okay, how to be like an old mother, I know my own body. Don't think of me as a small twig, and break it when you blow it." Zuo Yan didn't want to say too much on his body. Changed the topic.

"You said, she can be there in five minutes? It will take five minutes to find the dormitory from the reporting office, and it will take five minutes to get from the dormitory to the playground at the fastest. Five minutes is a bit short."

Lei Hongtao sneered, "If you are special, treat it specially so that she knows that she is here, not where she used to stay."

"I also want to see where she is special, so that she can open a special case above, and send it to us when the three-month recruiting period is over."

The selection of special combatants in the three major wars is diverse.

Generally speaking, they perform well during the newcomer period, and observe for one year after being assigned to the team before they can participate in the selection of special combatants.

Such selected special fighters are regional special fighters who belong to his own team and rarely go out on missions.

There is also the outstanding performance in the new recruits period. These new recruits are arranged to concentrate on training in the three major battles, and then pass the assessment. In the end, it is confirmed which battle type these new recruits are suitable for.

This kind of situation will arise. Originally new recruits from the air combat side, after the assessment, they may eventually go to land combat.

They are also regional special fighters and their range of activities is limited.

The other is that the fighters used their own strength to create a 'blood path' in the original team and obtain the qualifications to be eligible for the regional reserve special fighters.

Chapter 560: Crack

For example, Miao Hai from Bai Yonglong's second camp area has strong comprehensive abilities in the second camp area, and thus obtained the qualification for the selection of reserve special fighters.

All special fighters of the Broken Wolf brigade belong to the regional special fighters, the real frontline, going out to perform tasks is commonplace.

But their mystery is lower than the "snow brigade" in Luyi District.

Although the Snow Region Brigade belongs to Lu Yi District, the team is a mysterious base where no such team was found in the Marine War. All the special combatants cannot be checked, and even the basic personal information does not exist. They only went to the 'Snow Region'. The special combatants of the brigade knew that there was such a special combat team.

The Powolf Brigade is the base that all special fighters in Lu Second District want to go to.

And Lei Hongtao and Shi Yan are responsible for the selection of reserve special fighters. As long as they have passed the selection, they are more likely to become special fighters of the Broken Wolf team!

For this reason, there has never been an example of being qualified to come to them at the end of the new term.

An Xia set a precedent!

Because, to participate in the selection on their side, as long as they pass, at least the junior special warfare level.

Can a guy who has only finished three months of training for new recruits win against veterans who have trained for at least one year?

This is why Lei Hongtao said Anxia is special.

If you want to be special, don't blame them for coming off ahead of time. Let's see how powerful this side is.

An Xia naturally knew.

He ran all the way to find the dormitory, put down his luggage, and rushed to the playground immediately.

No one told her where the dormitory was, and where was the playground, it all relied on the ability to observe in the smallest detail to find the location accurately.

The base is very large. An Xia walked through the internal path without greenery, observed the surrounding buildings, and rushed to the playground at the fastest speed.

The playground covers a large area, and a corner of the base will be chosen.

After she entered the base with Bo Lirong, the vehicle she was riding in turned south. It can be seen that the main vehicle on the south side is parked by various vehicles of the base, which is unlikely to be a playground.

On the east side, there are a lot of buildings, and the dormitory is also on the east side. It can be ruled out that the playground is not on the east side.

Needless to say, the west side is the entrance to the base.

Well, there is only North.

Going all the way to the north, the line of sight to the north is extremely wide, and even a faint roar can be heard.

There is no doubt that the playground is to the north.

Sure enough, passing through the two main roads, the roar was clearly heard.

Ninety-nine combatants are warming up. Everyone is shouting and shouting, all of them sound like rainbows, and the tigers descending the mountain, wrapped in murderous aura, rushed toward their faces.

Lei Hongtao saw a slender figure and rushed towards him.

Very fast!

All ran out of afterimages.

It was also very light, and when he ran past, there was no dust on the gravel ground.

It seemed that the running figure used the legendary light work and flew by without touching his feet.

Could it be...

An Xia?

Pupils tightened slightly, Lei Hongtao whispered to Zuo Yan: "She should be here."

Zuo Yan looked at Lei Hongtao's line of sight, his expression froze for an instant.

What a fast speed!

"It seems that there is indeed a little skill."

Running fast is indeed a small skill, not a big skill.

Here, there are too many fighters with hard skills.

Lei Hongtao nodded, "Well, somehow it made me see something good, the first impression was good."

He has no prejudice against An Xia, just because the above has broken the arrangements for An Xia, and for this reason, he has thoughts about An Xia's key observations.

Looking at the electronic watch, there are still sixteen seconds away from five minutes.

"She doesn't have any luggage in her hand." Zuo Yan also had a good first impression of the figure who ran over. "She went to the dormitory to put down her luggage and then found the playground. It's not bad. Observe the details."
