Chapter 561: Strength and courage

Everyone likes smart and cute, if smart and cute plus a steady, it would be perfect.

With the sound of "report" that was so cold that there was no ripple, the eyes of Lei Hongtao and Zuo Yan were completely locked on An Xia's face.

This is nothing special. It was three days late before the end of the three-month female war Anxia.

A female fighter with a clear face and a picture.

She is also a female warrior with a vaguely * atmosphere.

The hearts of both of them were weak.

An Xia, indeed participated in a * battle!

Only the fighters who are upright participating in the * battle will they be stained with the blood of the battlefield.

Looking over, Lei Hongtao nodded with satisfaction in secret.

The person is good, and it can be seen that he is really capable.

but!

It's not too much for him to have some ability, he needs to have great ability!

Those who can stay are all fighters with great abilities.

"Is my luggage put in the dormitory?" Lei Hongtao asked. Obviously, I still don't believe that Anxia can put down his luggage in five minutes and get to the playground on time when he is unfamiliar with the base environment.

It takes three minutes to run fast from the playground to their dormitory.

In other words, she found the dormitory from the reporting office within two minutes, put down her luggage, and then went to the playground.

No matter how time is arranged, it is not enough.

An Xia straightened her waist, her eyes calm, looking back at Lei Hongtao without dodge or dodge, "Yes!"

"How to do it?" Lei Hongtao asked again, his voice heavier than before, and the presence of intermediate special fighters made the scalp numb.

The deterrence of this kind of aura has always had no effect on Anxia.

She is not even afraid of the deterrence of a twelve-star general, not to mention the aura of an intermediate special fighter.

Still faint as water, he replied quietly, "Run."

It is more concise than Lei Hongtao's words, and there is no nonsense.

Zuo Yan watched, a smile flashed in his eyes.

Daring and aloof fighters.

Lao Lei likes to deal with this kind of self-reliance a little skill, so he is a little arrogant fighters.

Sure enough, the next sentence I heard Lei Hongtao said with a faint smile: "Are you fast?"

"Yes!" An Xia answered intently, telling the truth, her speed is indeed fast.

I came here to prove my strength. Now, since the other party has given the opportunity to him, is there any reason not to accept it?

Lei Hongtao hasn't said what he wants to do, An Xia has already guessed it.

"Then you run around the playground now." He pointed to Ruoda's playground, "Run until I am satisfied."

It's time to get rid of the horse again.

This alone is not exciting enough.

An Xia hooked up the corner of her mouth slightly, her eyes flashed darkly, "Not enough stimulation, play bigger."

!!!

Lei Hongtao and Zuo Yan were both stunned as soon as the kuangyan came out.

See you a long time!

The first time I met the fighters who had just arrived with them, they dared to speak wildly and said that their arrangements were not exciting enough.

After a short stunned, Lei Hongtao sneered, "Who gave you the courage to run to me presumptuously?"

"Strength and courage." An Xia calmed down, and Zuo Yan couldn't help but smile with his Feng Qingyun expression.

"Cough cough cough..."

A dull cough overflowed from Zuo Yan's throat, An Xia kept his eyes still, still watching Lei Hongtao.

Lei Hongtao turned to Zuo Yan, he coughed a little bit today.

You have to take a rest.

No longer talking to An Xia, Lei Hongtao raised his voice, "Qiao Jiquan!"

"arrive!"

A junior special fighter responded not far away and ran over quickly.

Chapter 562: Madly paradoxical

Qiao Jiquan, like Lei Hongtao and Zuo Yan, had cracked cheeks after years of exposure. His voice was only in his early twenties, but his face was at least ten years older than his voice!

The fighters who have been stationed in the Gobi for many years are much older than their actual age.

Lei Hongtao sneered at An Xia, "Would you like to have fun with excitement, Cheng, Lu Pingliang, junior special fighter, do you dare to compare with him?"

"Old Lei..."

Zuo Yan yelled lowly, a little too late.

Lu Pingliang was an intermediate special fighter, and An Xia was just a fighter who had just finished his newcomer period. How could he be compared with a junior special fighter.

Lei Hongtao knew that Zuo Yan was reminding himself, but he ignored it.

She is so arrogant, not to kill her, and really think that she is too capable!

On the battlefield, one should avoid being self-righteous!

Don't know...

What's more exciting is yet to come.

An Xia said indifferently, "I prefer to compete with intermediate special fighters."

!!!

This time, the expressions of Lei Hongtao and Zuo Yan were not stunned, but stunned.

I couldn't believe what I heard.

The junior special fighter Georgi who was called all felt despised.

He looked at the two big bosses in the base with faint gaze, a bit wronged.

Lei Lian, Zuo Deputy, you are... educating fighters, why bother to bring the innocent him in.

Also, what's the origin of this female soldier who has never seen her and is too beautiful?

After the light was over, Qiao Ji took a breath.

Damn it!

A newcomer who has just completed three months!

This one, isn't it the special fighter that the entire base knows!

It's 100%!

Turns out to be a female fighter!

In private, they always thought they were male fighters!

Qiao Ji Nian and the others are the official team responsible for the selection of the reserve special fighters. They have already read the personal data of the 100 fighters in advance.

Only An Xia's personal information, they did not know in advance.

It is said that it is not yet known whether people will come.

Personal information is only available when you come.

If he didn't come, personal information would naturally not be passed on.

Now that the person is here, she is still a female fighter who has just finished her new term!

Yu Guang glanced again, Qiao Ji-nian sighed inwardly.

Alas, it's a bit high-profile.

Lao Lei dislikes high-profile temperament the most.

Unless you have real strength, every sentence you say is true, without bragging or exaggeration.

Such as Lu Liang, this guy is very strong, and he can say one thing, no matter how mad Lei Hongzhu can bear.

And this one in front of me, I'm afraid that Lei Hongtao will take care of it.

It's a pity that he is not a smart person to be so beautiful.

Lei Hongtao was irritated.

With a sharp gaze like a sharp knife, An Xia looked up and down fiercely.

See you for the first time!

But looking at this female fighter, it didn't seem like a madness.

Standing coldly, with a dignified vigor, with a calmness that the landslides and the ground will not change their colors before their eyes.

Lei Hongtao thought that he still had some ability to know people, and he was a little bit out of it right now.

Could it be that it's really amazing?

Isn't he a slapstick person who is superficial?

Or, try?

You can tell at the first try if you are really capable or just trying to do it. In fact, it is an inner cotton wool, a pillow that does not survive.

With a cold face, Lei Hongtao said: "Okay, since it was your request, I don't agree, but it seems that I don't have the courage on my side! Yes, I want to be with the intermediate special fighters, I will fulfill you!"

Zuo Yan didn't ask any more questions.

At this moment, he also thought that An Xia in front of him was indeed a little crazy.

Chapter 563: Come, fight for the first place

You will be frivolous when you are young, so you should practice more to get a good temper before you can polish your temperament.

An Xia didn't feel that she was mad.

She has such a strength!

Such strength, tell the truth!

Besides, she was coming for the intermediate combatants, and the junior combatants were not her target.

Now that the goal is clear, let go of your hands and feet.

It's not her style to look forward and backward, fearful.

Come, just do it.

When it comes, fight for the first place.

In the imperial domain, fighting for the first place is to survive.

In Xia Guo's team, it doesn't matter whether she is honored or not. The main reason is that she likes to be number one and doesn't like being behind.

At this moment, facing Lei Hongtao's blade-like gaze, An Xia is like a deep quiet pool, letting him look at it, it will be calm and unmoved.

This made Lei Hongtao a little surprised.

It's a hard bone!

Hard bones, it's popular with any team.

Because hard-spirited people are very resilient.

How to rub, how to polish, the hardness in the bones will not disappear, on the contrary, the more frustrated, the more courageous, the more courageous, the higher the strength.

"Fu Siling!"

Lei Hongtao raised his voice again. This time, the shouting voice was two degrees higher than before.

Qiao Jiquan cast another "take care" look at the overly beautiful female soldier in front of him.

Fu Siling, an intermediate fighter, is known as "Ling Shen".

Crazy and wild, it is the beast of the town house in the base.

The temper is a bit violent.

He is the most unprovoked boss in the base.

Provoked Lao Lei, and was criticized severely at most.

It's really miserable to provoke Fu Cangling!

He will pack at least ten layers of skin inside and out!

Alas, now Lao Lei called him out, a strange female soldier, ask for more blessings.

Fu Siling is a notorious and ruthless character in the base.

Partially, born extremely handsome.

It is indeed Junli, a man is like him, and a woman is a little inferior when standing in front of him.

The cold and white skin was illuminated by the bright sunlight, as if a layer of fine jade and bone china glaze had passed, and it was so beautiful that it was a little fragile, as if it could crush a person with a light touch.

It was also a jealous man who didn't have much patience, walked over, saluted, and exuded "I have nothing to do and don't bother me" all over his body. He twisted his eyebrows and asked, "What's wrong?"

Even speaking, he was impatient.

It was this unruly impatience that dissipated the beauty of his male and female faces. The whole person was like a sharp machete inlaid with precious stones. No matter how gorgeous and beautiful, it was also a life-killing knife.

He only had Lei Hongtao in his eyes. An Xia was standing beside him, and he didn't even have a look in his eyes.

Lei Hongtao had long been accustomed to Fu Siling's bad temper.

This kid, don't look at it now, it's tugging and smelly, that's already a lot of restraint!

The former Fu Siling, like a wolf pup, was fierce and ruthless, with a face that would make girls feel ashamed, and when he arrived at them, he was regarded as a female fighter by men who had no vision.

A famous male warrior said with a smile, "Be careful when going to the toilet in the future. Don't be a man or woman anymore."

This is indeed a reminder, not malicious.

Because before, they really didn't have any female fighters here.

There are no female tourists either. The depths of the Gobi are in a harsh environment. It is a place with flying sand and rocks and severe water shortage. No tourists can enter the depths of the Gobi. Even the soldiers are unwilling to take their wives and children over to stay.

Men's and women's toilets are useless. Sometimes when there is not enough space, they go straight into another toilet.

The first time he arrived at Fu Siling Bainen, he still had a beautiful face, and the male fighters who had no eyesight misunderstood.

Chapter 564: What's the origin

The results of it.

When Fu Siling heard this, he looked fierce when he didn't say anything, and raised his fist and waved at the talking male combatant.

He said fiercely: "Damn! Do you want to take off your pants? It's far better than anyone else!"

I opened my mouth and realized that my gender was also male.

Still a hot-tempered man.

Speaking is even more elegant and vulgar, facing the very deceptive face, and often say some rude words that make people laugh or cry.

Nowadays, his temper is still hot, but not as hot as before, a lot of restraint.

Lei Hongtao knew that he was a person who didn't like nonsense, and said directly: "She, An Xia, wants to challenge an intermediate special fighter. Come and give the newcomer a good lesson."

"Challenge the Intermediate Special Combatants?" Fu Siling raised his eyes, the pair fell into the world, and after the curtain ended, only a cold eye glanced at An Xia, "Xiao Qiao is here, isn't it worthy to compare with her?"

Qiao Jiquan said, "I don't deserve it, I will challenge the intermediate special fighters by name."

When Fu Siling heard this, his eyebrows and eyes suddenly sneered.

I have looked at An Xia, "I just finished my new recruiting period, want to challenge the intermediate special fighters? Just run?"

It is to re-enter An Xia to find a place for Qiao Jiquan.

An Xia raised her eyebrows, "How do you want to play? Are you free?"

He is indeed even madder than he was back then.

He was just a junior special fighter, so he only dared to find someone to fight, nothing else.

The newcomer period has just ended, and the newly awarded female fighter is really interesting. The junior special fighters are not worthy of her, and the intermediate special fighters are required.

I raised my eyebrows, and the eyebrows flared up with a fiery frenzy, "First, warm up for thirty laps, then crawl five laps to get a little sweat, then roll five laps in the big car, wake up, and then with me Have a fight."

"How? Is it acceptable?"

It was An Xia who had turned against the guest just now. At this moment, Fu Siling, who had found his place, regained the home court and took the initiative.

An Xia curled her lips and smiled, and there was an unquenchable glow in her narrow eyes with the sun falling, "It's a very nice arrangement, I like it."

Lei Hongtao and Zuo Yan looked at each other quickly when they heard the words.

She really dare to pick it up?

Is there any reason not to accept the post?

received!

However, Anxia has to add another item.

"I'll add one more item." She said faintly, "Now that you have a awakening mind, let's have another eye-moving item. You can shoot ten bullets on a 200-meter stray target. Add it."

It was not asking Fu Siling whether he would accept it, but it was arranged directly.

When Fu Si heard this, his eyes narrowed slightly.

What is this person?

He is at least fifty times mader than he was back then!

Instead, she asked Lei Hongtao in front of her, "What is her background?"

"I told you last time that there are special circumstances for the fighters who will be a few days later." Lei Hongtao answered and asked An Xia, "Fu Siling is an intermediate special fighter, are you sure you compare him with him?"

Run thirty laps, crawl five more laps, then roll the wheel five laps, and then a 200-meter skeet, and then the two fight again. The amount is very heavy!

An Xia smiled and said with a smile: "You gave me two times to get off the hook, and I have to pay you back one or two. I am here for the intermediate special fighters. No comparison, I can't help myself."

Let's get started!

What are you waiting for!

A few people walked directly to the outer circle of the playground. In the playground, the ninety-nine fighters who participated in the election did not notice anything unusual at first, until a whistle suddenly came, and they all looked up as they warmed up.

Chapter 565: Play big

In the team, Ye Youyin clearly saw the figure that Dao had been walking side by side with the instructors, and his pupils shrank sharply.

This is.....

An Xia!

Why is she here!

Isn't she the new recruit this year?

This is not a place for new recruits to come over, why do you see her?

Ye Youyin, whose eyes gradually turned dark, clenched his fists.

Last time, she was in a hospital in the Capital Theater, and she also took a moment to understand this cousin who was related to her by blood.

Just like her mother, she didn't figure out how, why she suddenly became so strong when she was raised to be timid, cowardly, and completely unable to get on the stage.

Simple, like a different person!

If it weren't for her current eyebrows were exactly the same as her in the photo, she would have suspected that An Xia was actually a different person.

Stepping out of cowardice, sudden change and strong, settling down, and she was not affected at all, growing at a speed that everyone was surprised and could not stop.

In the end, it was so powerful that even the Song family and the Bo family couldn't join forces to kill her!

The people of the Song and Bo family who did not kill, appeared next to Mu Sishao and became a big worry for their Ye family.

Grandma said that she would definitely not let An Xia become her own stumbling block, and she would definitely solve her in advance.

It has been two months since the last visit to the capital, why is she still alive?

Also ran to the base and walked side by side with the instructors!

No, not walking side by side.

Instead, she is always in front.

The instructors follow behind like subordinates.

Even Lei Hongtao and Zuo Yan are the same!

These people all followed An Xia like little brothers!

Ye Youyin's fists clenched until the knuckles were clucking loudly.

There were dark birds in his eyes, and An Xia's figure clenched his eyes like sharp teeth and didn't let go.

"An Xia..." With a slight movement of Jiao's lips, An Xia's name was squeezed out from her white teeth, and there was a cool feeling of coldness.

Since you hit your eyes, don't blame her for being cruel!

Mu Si Shao can only belong to her Ye Youyin!

Whoever dares to get involved will make her die!

His eyesight was too gloomy. After An Xia stood still, he suddenly turned around, looking coldly toward the team of reserve special fighters.

Someone in the team stared at themselves like a poisonous snake.

Hidden deep, and did not find it the first time.

Instead, I met an acquaintance from the Eying District-Miao Hai.

He is here too.

Miao Haizheng stared at An Xia with a stunned look.

Thinking he was wrong, he closed his eyes vigorously, then opened them suddenly.

That's right!

It is indeed An Xia!

She also nodded slightly to herself.

Lying, why did An Xia come?

Can Anxia come here too?

Still standing with that fierce temperament Fu Siling, is she familiar with Fu Siling?

Miao Hai, who was shocked for a long time before returning to his senses, quickly nodded in response to An Xia.

If it weren't for him who couldn't get away, he would want to run over and ask An Xia how she was here.

If it weren't for robbing people in air battles and naval battles, Xia Houyu would really not arrange An Xia here.

The original plan was that he was going to send Anxia to the Three Wars Preparatory Special Combatant Base for training, and wait for Anxia to train there for a year to become a qualified junior special combatant, and then send him to Lei Hongtao for training. , The strength is promoted to an intermediate special fighter.

At that time, An Xia and Mu Chenyuan escorted the seized special test tubes to the capital. They went to the Lu Second District Building to meet Xia Houyu. The videos Xia Houyu broadcast to An Xia in the office were all prepared by special fighters of the three major wars. Training materials.

Chapter 566: Too unkind

Until, Xia Houyu realized that air battles and naval battles still wanted to grab people, and immediately changed his attention.

When An Xia assisted the border police to complete the task, Xia Houyu immediately reapplied, and the operation was as fierce as a tiger, skipping the training sent to the reserve special forces of the three major wars, and came directly to Lei Hongtao.

When the bosses on both sides of the air battle and sea battle found out, it was too late.

"No one came here? Confirm?" After receiving the news, the first reaction is impossible!

But there really is no An Xia's name over there.

"It was verified six times, and there was indeed no An Xia's name. After the new recruiting period, she did not arrange to come to our side." A big man from the training base for reserve special fighters of the three major wars laughed and said: "You want Don't believe me, fly over and see for yourself?"

How can I not believe it.

Air Seven Stars warlord smiled bitterly, "I was put on by Xia Houyu's old slippery head! I heard him say that An Xia should be arranged to you, I just waited for this day to come over, I don't know..."

I don't know, there is no arrangement at all.

I don't know if there is any news from the naval battle, or where An Xia has been.

"I don't know about the naval battle. I received a call from there early this morning, asking me to check if An Xia has arrived at my place."

When the Kong Qixing warlord heard this, he knew that the naval battle was the same as himself, and he didn't know where An Xia had gone.

No, he waited for so long to recruit An Xia to air combat. Now he can't find anyone, and he feels uncomfortable.

You have to ask Xia Houyu to go.

Xia Houyu was talking with the naval battle, smiling, and said leisurely: "Yes, I didn't go. I temporarily changed my attention and made new adjustments."

The microphone was deadly quiet, and after a while, a middle-aged man who was squeezed in anger came out: "Just so silently, you are too unkind!"

"Hahaha, hahaha, I'm not kind. But it's the most normal transfer inside my Luer District. Why is it not kind?"

"If you really want to say that you are not kind, it's because of your naval battles. Without saying a word, you are holding back the bad guys, and want to dig out our new recruits in Luer District."

"The good seedlings that I have worked so hard to coax over, how can you dig them? You have to prepare in advance to prevent you from digging people."

A word was silenced on either side of the naval battle.

Weng whispered: "Everyone is digging people according to their ability, you cover them and hide them, what if Anxia actually wants to come to sea battle?"

Xia Houyu heard the depression of the naval battle, and laughed louder.

Hahaha

Hahaha

They are depressed, he is happy!

"If An Xia really wanted to come to sea battle, she nodded and agreed last time. She told you clearly that she is not interested in naval battles, and you are still holding bad guys and digging people, not kind, too kind."

An Xia would not go to sea battles for a very simple reason: going to sea battles are all maritime missions, so how could she have the opportunity to return to the imperial domain.

Although the naval battle was rejected by An Xia, he didn't completely give up, and he tried to fight for it. While keeping an eye on it, he secretly convinced An Xia to come over.

The plan was planned like this, and now that Xia Houyu made such a plan, it was a * plan for nothing!

Good temper.

"You land battles are really more yin than one! We have suffered two consecutive dark losses for you land battles!" The irretrievable naval battle has finally given up.

After gritting his teeth, he hung up the phone fiercely.

Chapter 567: No one can take it away

Li Jinnian, who has been listening, was not surprised at all, and said a little comfort, "I will meet better next time."

Even without this phone call, he knew that An Xia would not be able to come to sea battle.

Last time, it was clearly stated that she was not interested in naval battles. It was true that she was not interested in naval battles. Even if naval battles rob and retain people, An Xia's temperament would not change.

The Sea Seven Star warlord caught the table "clanging".

Qi said: "How could it be better! How could it be so better! Ye Jian was robbed by Lu No. 1 District, An Xia was robbed by Lu No. 2 District, Lu Zhan was a * robber! Take it away."

"People, they dug up, not robbed, they stayed." Li Jinnian was very indifferent, and didn't think it was land warfare robbing people.

On the contrary, it is their naval battles that are robbing talents.

The cousin Ye Jian was dug from Luyi District and joined the land battle.

An Xia was dug up from the Second Lu District, and naturally he joined the land battle smoothly.

How could the good seedlings that Lu Zhan dug by himself let others go.

What's more, neither of these two are interested in naval battles.

I'm not interested in coming over, and I'm not going to let them change their decision.

Hearing the words, the Sea Seven Star warlord gave Li Jinnian a fierce look, "Last time I asked you to go to Xuancheng to grab someone, you have to grab it early. An Xia is now a member of our naval battle."

"If you can't get it, give it up." Li Jinnian said bluntly, and left after speaking.

The leaders all have a strong heart that can't fail, and they are not going well at this moment, but they are angry that their secret plans have not had time to implement, they were broken in advance, and in turn secretly generalized the army.

When the anger is gone, the matter will be turned over.

But then again, land warfare is indeed powerful.

Very powerful seedlings can be found every time.

They are still girls.

The cousin Ye Jian was found by them when she was only fourteen years old. After ten years, her cousin became an all-around female special warfighter.

A plenum of cousins who fly in the sky, walk in the sea, and run on the ground.

He thought that after the cousin, there would be no second person who could be as good as that.

An Xia appeared.

Like a sharp arrow coming through the air, shocked the three battles.

Air battles and naval battles were once again a step late, and they were once again preempted by land battles.

I have to say that the luck of the land war is really good.

Able to meet good seedlings one after another.

I hope that one day, they can also encounter a very talented seed in naval battles.

The anger on the naval battle soon calmed down, and the anger on the air battle had just started to burn.

Xia Houyu had prepared for being questioned by both sides.

There was no accident in receiving a call from the Air Seven Stars.

I moved out of the words I just said with the naval battle, and re-speaking to the air battle, "You are robbing people. I can't stop them. I can only find a way to keep them. People, I have kept them. It's my ability. How can I say that I make Fraud."

"I'm not deceiving, I'm taking precautions. Now that I know that you are interested in grabbing people, I can't just sit back and wait for it to happen. I must take action."

"Ansha is that I have finally persuaded to join the team. I have been arranging with my heart. How can I easily let people go. A good seedling, everyone wants it, I can understand. Even if you are angry, if you really want to be angry, you will be angry with yourself. Didn't you meet An Xia in advance?"

Anxia was encountered by them in Lu Er District. Naturally, they had to recruit Lu Er District to * people from air combat. Lu Er District is not a vegetarian either. It is impossible for people to wear clothes for land warfare. It is destined to belong to land warfare. Fighters.

No one can take it away.

Chapter 568: Look forward to

The air seven star warlord was a little excited. Hearing the words, he gasped and said, "Didn't An Xia choose to choose by herself? Isn't it her own choice now?"

"It's clearly your choice for An Xia! It was your temporary transfer that gave her no second choice but to stay in Luer District."

It was too irritating. There was a chance to * An Xia over in the air battle. As a result, the Lu Er District scammer suddenly made a transfer and left An Xia completely in Lu Er District.

Thinking of missing one of the generals, the Kong Qixing general was pounding his chest with anger.

I have a heart attack!

Xia Houyu, who had won the victory, could still smile and comfort, "Quiet, calm down, if you think about it in my position, you can understand my difficulties."

"We find people here, and you, do everything possible to * people, I'm still angry!"

"Next time you will recruit a good seedling in the air battle, am I, like you, can secretly plan to * people? Will you agree? Will you be unprepared?"

"I'm afraid it's better than me. It won't let us know that there is such a number one person at all!"

It must be impossible to let the land war know!

In case, the land war really snatched people away.

No matter how angry the Air Seven Star Warrior was, he was so angry that he was not righteous and his words were not right.

After adjusting to breathe, he asked, "What about An Xia? Where did you arrange it? You won't assign people to the grassroots level, right?"

Speaking of the Kong Qixing warlord's heart tightened a lot, Shen said: "If you really want to arrange this, you are delaying An Xia!"

"No, since I intend to cultivate An Xia, how can I delay her? She went to a more cruel place now, this time period should already be there, I..."

As he said, the inside line rang.

Press the hands-free button, and a voice from a civil servant can be heard, "Warlord, there is an inside line access."

"Okay, take it over."

After Xia Houyu finished speaking, he said to the air seven-star warlord: "There is internal line access, and I will talk next time."

Before finding out where An Xia was going, the Kong Qixing warrior said: "Okay, I will contact you later."

Xia Houyu smiled and connected the inside line.

It was Bo Lirong's voice.

Vaguely can still hear the roar of countless fighters.

"Already here?" Xia Houyu asked with a smile, "Well, did An Xia ask how you brought her to the Gobi Desert?"

While staring at the figure running on the playground, Bo Lirong replied, "No, I accept it calmly. At this moment, he is still compared with a mid-level special fighter on the base."

Comparable?

So fast?

Xia Houyu laughed, feeling very good, "Then let her compare, and report the result to me after the match."

"Aren't you worried?" Hearing the laughter, Bo Lirong thought he hadn't made it clear, and added: "The one who competed with her was an intermediate fighter, not a junior fighter."

Xia Houyu said, "Don't worry, I sent her to Lei Hongtao just to train her. She can win the junior fighters, and the intermediate fighters..."

Pause for a while, her eyes flashing darkly, "Since she dares to compare, she must be confident that she can win."

With An Xia's caution, she would not take it rashly.

Only if you are 100% sure will you be shot.

Instead of competing with junior fighters, she competed with intermediate fighters instead. She has determined that her strength has reached the level of intermediate special fighters!

Xia Houyu looked forward to it very much.

And Bo Lirong finished his report, and when An Xia ran ten laps or ran alongside Fu Siling, he also began to look forward to it faintly.

Maybe An Xia might win.

Oh, I ran out to watch the fireworks at night. I thought I could go home at 9:30, but I never expected to be stuck in Orange Island until 2 in the morning to get home! Tired and fainted, I went to bed and fell asleep, and didn't recover my energy until this afternoon...

Eighth watch to make up, continue tomorrow, good night.

Chapter 569: Shocking resume

Bo Lirong is one of the chief judges of this selection, and the results of all the fighters participating in this selection will be sent to him and the other three chief judges.

Next to him, the clerk had a tablet in his hand, and under the scorching sun, he showed Bo Lirong the personal information of all the selected fighters.

"A total of 100 combatants participated, unified by number, Anxia's number is 100. This is her personal information, you have read it."

Bo Lirong read the personal information of An Xia on the tablet.

He has read all the personal information of the other combatants. Only An Xia, because of her special willingness to personal information, arrived at the base this morning.

The basic information is slightly scanned, and the focus is on the column of personal detailed resume.

As soon as the line of sight fell, his eyes suddenly tightened.

this.....

Did you perform the task during the recruiting period?

Still twice!

One time was to assist a special team in Luyi District to hunt down saboteurs outside the territory.

One time was to assist border police to enter the jungle to hunt down suspects.

Both missions are fought in actual combat.

Bo Lirong suppressed the shock in his heart, and then continued to start, the more shocked he looked.

Although he already knew that An Xia was training with the sharp knife squad in the first camp, he performed very well and was deeply liked by the fighters.

but!

I don't know how good her training results are.

In every training, she turned out to be crushing the veterans! !

Even when participating in the two battalion competitions, she commanded the veteran combatants in the first battalion area and defeated the veteran combatants in the second battalion area by an absolute advantage.

this.....

Is it a bit exaggerated?

real?

fake?

Do you want to confirm it?

Turning his head, he asked Lei Hongtao beside him, "You read An Xia's profile?"

"It came over this morning, and I haven't had time to read it." Lei Hongtao said, "Have you seen it?"

I uploaded it early, he and Zuo Yan were on the playground, but they would not go back to the office to read them for An Xia's personal information.

Bo Lirong handed the tablet in his hand to Lei Hongtao, "Come on, you and Zuo Yan have a look. Don't look at the front carefully, focus on the bottom."

Zuo Yan was staring dignifiedly at the figure running on the playground. Hearing the words, he retracted his gaze and moved closer to Lei Hongtao.

He is also very interested in An Xia's personal resume now.

An Xia, who had just ended his three-month recruiting period, has kept running alongside Fu Siling, not lagging behind.

Is it possible that she was born in a long-distance race?

He leaned over and looked down, and his face changed like Lei Hongtao.

"She has performed the B-level missions? This..." Lei Hongtao was so surprised that his eyes widened, "Is there still a B-level mission in the rookie period? Aren't you afraid of killing her?"

In fact, he even wanted to say: Bragging!

Zuo Yan, who was also surprised, furrowed his brows and continued to look down, and saw his heart beating with horror.

He asked Bo Lirong, "Bo Tuan, what do you think of her information?"

The question is very euphemistic, mainly about ideas, don't you think the information is fake?

Bo Lirong took a deep look at the two of them, "You continue to look down, and you will know whether her information is true or false after reading it."

Soon after the two of them read it, the shock on their faces was like a magnitude ten earthquake, and they couldn't accept it.

"Is it too bullshit?" Lei Hongtao murmured, and he still couldn't believe it. Listen, why is it so mysterious?"

Incredibly mysterious.

After reading it, he had only one feeling: How old is An Xia's background? Can the people above be able to brag for her?

Chapter 570: Fake it, exaggerate it

Zuo Yan knew that Lei Hongtao's mouth was a little poisonous, and when he heard the words, he reminded him in a low voice, "Be careful when you speak."

"Is there anything to pay attention to, if you really don't do business, I can say?" Lei Hongtao coldly snorted, he is not afraid of offending people!

What kind of smelly smell is sent here, when he is a garbage dump here?

Zuo Yan simply reminded him to ask Bo Lirong, "What do you think?"

"The recommender is General Xia Hou. He always said one is one, and he never disdains fraud." Bo Lirong said in a low voice, "An Xia's personal information is also filled in by himself, and An Xia himself did not fill in a word."

"You look incredible, like fake, in fact..."

Looking across their faces one by one, Bo Lirong slowly said, "Actually, it's all facts, no exaggeration."

Lei Hongtao and Zuo Yan were silent.

If it's all true, then...

An Xia is a genius!

Is a genius born for the team!

"Bo Tuan, can you really be sure that there is nothing false?" Lei Hongtao pressed his throat and his eyes were dark, and he asked slowly, "You don't have any doubts?"

Bo Lirong smiled, "I did have some doubts at the time, and even thought about verifying it, but when I saw the name of the recommender, I gave up the idea."

The recommender's name was "Xia Houyu", and Bo Lirong knew that there was no need to verify it.

It can't be fake.

There is no exaggeration.

An Xia's personal resume is definitely the most authentic among the hundred combatants, without any exaggeration.

No wonder Xia Houzhan must make special arrangements for Anxia.

No wonder Chang Hu and Tan Jing were so reluctant when An Xia left the first camp.

How can I be willing.

If it was him, he couldn't bear it either.

Lei Hongtao and Zuo Yan didn't know much about Xia Houyu. Upon hearing this, the two silently glanced at each other, and did not answer the conversation.

Whether it's exaggerated, it won't be clear if it takes a few days to get here.

Bo Lirong didn't explain too much. He just smiled and said, "An Xia is already here. What is the strength of it and whether it is exaggerated? You can verify it yourself."

Lei Hongtao also smiled, "Well, from the current point of view, I can compete with the mid-level fighters, and I can really have the courage. I can run..."

His eyes fell on the two running people.

It's the fifth lap. An Xia and Fu Siling are still moving forward. If you don't lag behind me, I won't be a step behind you.

And Anxia's personal expertise is not good at running.

Zuo Yan pulled up the profile that had slipped to the bottom, and returned to the column of personal expertise.

This column is empty.

Did not write any specialties.

In other words, Anxia does not have a very outstanding specialty.

Unlike other candidates, they will have one or two or more specialties.

Touched Lei Hongtao's arm and motioned him to look at the special column, "Lao Lei..."

Lei Hongtao glanced, understood what Zuo Yan meant, and said indifferently: "It's only five laps, it's still early."

There are 30 laps in total, and no one will suddenly run hard in front. First, run at a constant speed and keep rest.

When you reach the middle section, exert a little force and pull a certain distance.

Until later, they will exert their best strength and surpass their opponents.

Fu Siling is a mid-level combatant, everyone knows how strong he is. At this moment, he is still maintaining his strength, and it is not surprising that An Xia can match him.

The point is to look at the back.

If An Xia can keep clenching tight in the future, it will be amazing.
