

Goddess 631

Chapter 631: Sow discord

Ye Youyin is most worried about the first team finding the correct route early.

If this is the case, and she is unable to change it as a foregone conclusion, then she can do something else.

for example.....

The voice is much more serious than before, "Could it be guessed that our No. 2 team has the same map as the No. 1 team. The No. 1 team is nowhere to be seen. Would they have discovered the problem early and avoided it in time?"

The captain of the third team pressed the corners of his mouth suddenly, his solemn expression became a bit sharp.

Especially the captain of the No. 2 team has a vague anger on his face.

If, as Ye Youyin said, then, the first team had never thought of passing the second team at all, they chose to conceal it, and take the first step by themselves!

As the haze enveloped, the captain of the second team said coldly: "Not necessarily, we found out it is still early! The first team might also be detouring."

"It's possible." When the goal was achieved, Ye Youyin lowered his eyes and pointed his finger over three maps. "Then now, we have to confirm the correct route."

"They gave us the wrong map and the scale was wrong, so we didn't find the problem while looking and walking. Now we need to solve the problem..."

After speaking, he picked up the same piece of gravel, one of which represented the target point, and the other represented the three teams of them, and began to paint on the ground.

"We confirm that the target point remains the same, so now we have to find the real route from different routes. Then we must first confirm where we are currently located."

"I suggest that we calculate the latitude and longitude of the target point, then confirm where we are, and use the compass to find the correct route."

As soon as the voice fell, the captain of Team No. 5 shook his head, "We have no way to confirm the current location, the parameters are lacking, and it is difficult to find the correct route."

"The most conservative way is to return to the original place, return to the place where the route started wrong, find the highest point, and then combine the longitude and latitude of the target point to find the correct route."

The proposal of Captain No. 5 was approved by the captains of the second and third teams.

the reason is simple.

Captain No. 2 said: "The Gobi Desert is vast. None of us are familiar with the topography and topography of this area. Once you lose your way, you will only go farther and farther."

"Furthermore, there is a big temperature difference in the Gobi Desert at night. Just now, we have begun to feel the chill, and we will lose our way again, I'm afraid..."

I didn't say it too clearly, everyone knew it in their hearts.

The suggestion was not adopted, and the three people united to oppose it. Ye Youyin, who couldn't hold back his face, said coldly: "Three people, do you know how far we need to go back the same way?"

"Five kilometers! We need to walk five kilometers to get back to where we were. Once and again, we walked ten more kilometers! Ten..."

The voice stopped suddenly, the time she thought of.

For the 20-kilometer walk, Fu Siling gave quite ample time.

This man! ! !

As long as they find that the route is wrong, they will definitely go back the same way!

Every step is dead, there is no second choice!

No more comments, he froze, and said stiffly: "You are the captain, you have the final say. Whatever you arrange, I will obey unconditionally."

It's looking for yourself to step down.

They are all sensible people, knowing that they can't explain it through their mouths.

What's more, she is still a female fighter.

Although there is no gender distinction in the team, sometimes it is necessary to give a hand to it.

It can't be counted to make her face a big loss.

Chapter 632: Swallow

There is no other way to walk ten kilometers.

Must have to return.

"Time is tight, we need to speed up. There can be no rest in between."

The captain of the third team solemnly informed the members of his team that everyone was already a veteran, but he had a big somersault here. You can imagine how bad his face and mood were.

No one scolded how vicious the assessment was.

Cruelty is one thing, and they fail to find out in time that the problem is their problem.

The three teams reorganized and returned together.

The captain of the No. 5 team waited for Ye Youyin to walk away. He walked to the captain of the No. 2 team and whispered: "There must be no time for the No. 1 team to inform us of the route. With the method of Instructor Fu, the No. 1 team is afraid to go around. It's on the way."

At that time, the captain of the No. 2 team heard what Ye Youyin had said, and the captain of the No. 5 team saw the instant face change.

He is not acquainted with An Xia, but he has been with Miao Hai in the past few days, and the temperament of taking Miao Hai's pleasure in helping others is impossible.

The captain of the second team also guessed why he said so, and answered rather unnaturally, "I know, everyone wants to stay, even if there is anything, it's normal."

Obviously, he took Ye Youyin's words to heart.

"What I mean is that it is impossible not to say it deliberately, but there is no way to say it in time, or they themselves are also wrong, it is impossible to meet you, naturally there is no way to tell you."

"I really understand what you mean, don't worry, brother, I didn't think too much." The captain of the second team patted the shoulder of the fifth captain and smiled tiredly.

"I'm worried now, even if we find the right route, we still don't know if there is an assessment that will stop us halfway."

It's really scary that a simple walking assessment can do such a big event.

It must be done with caution.

It was really guessed by the captain of the second team.

There is indeed another question.

Anxia and the others have reached the fault!

At any time, there is also the No. 7 team.

The route on the map in their hands was the same as the route of the No. 1 team, and the No. 1 team ran into the fighters of the No. 7 team on the way back.

Knowing that the map was wrong, the members of Team Seven said that their luck was not so good.

If it weren't for the map route to be the same as the No. 1 team, the No. 1 team found the problem again, and they would definitely go farther and farther and around.

Along the way, apart from their No. 7 team and No. 1 team, they didn't run into any other teams.

Now that the problem is encountered, the No. 7 team is also a stable group.

Don't panic at all.

"What..." Rao is as prudent as Miao Hai, and can't help but want to curse at this time. The route is correct, but there is a fault below!

Commonly known as: Broken Road!

An Xia lowered her head and looked down her eyes, her face as usual, "It's okay, it's not high, just go down."

Go down and go up again, not far from the target point.

Still haven't found the best route. Finding out the real best route will definitely not need to go down the fault and climb up again.

Fu Siling drove a warrior off-road vehicle. The off-road vehicle couldn't build two wings in the air, and flew directly from the fault side to the opposite side.

There is also a very secret route, you can drive to the target point.

At this time, the sky was getting darker.

At the end of the sky, a clear and dark ink color is drawn, and a few orange sunsets are added to reflect the beautiful scenery of the sky. Even if you only take a look, the mood will be beautiful together.

With eight fighters from the first team and nine fighters from the seventh team, a total of seventeen people began to act.

Chapter 633: Get along well

An Xia took out the climbing rope and prepared to wrap it around her waist and let the other fighters climb down the rope first. The captain of Team 7 immediately said: "Don't An Xia, give us Team No. 7 a chance to perform."

"We are tangled up, we will go down after you finish."

Team No. 1 has already helped them a lot. If they can use Team No. 7 at this moment, how can they let the No. 1 team members be the stakes?

The other No. 7 team members also laughed, "Yes, An Xia, Captain Miao, give us a chance, otherwise, our conscience is disturbed."

You help me, I help you, this is mutual help.

How can one party always pay, and they sit back and enjoy it.

An Xia is actually someone who never intends to reciprocate as long as she has given her, but it is undeniable that the help from the contacts can really make people feel good.

With a smile, I asked the fighters of the two teams, "Which one of you has entered the Gobi Desert training? If you have experience, please stand up."

Only one came out, the team of team seven, "I have, but only once. I don't have enough experience."

They were all ordinary combatants from the south, and the Gobi Desert training was too far away from them.

That's not enough just once.

"I am more familiar. I can accurately judge where I can step on and where I can't step on. Let's take a step back. I will look at the side first. When there are only two people left, I will go last."

"That's it. Come, you guys start first."

this.....

Liu Anxia is the last one to go down?

The members of Team Seven were embarrassed, this... didn't they still help An Xia?

Miao Hai slapped, "Come on, you guys, An Xia and I will go down last."

"That won't work, I and An Xia will go down for the last time." Captain No. 7 resolutely objected, "Captain Miao, that's it! Time is tight!"

Miao Hai glanced at An Xia, and seeing An Xia nodded slightly, he did not insist anymore.

Then he played the third from the bottom.

"Fighter of Team Seven, tie the rope!"

"Yes!"

Following the order from the captain of the No. 7 team, the fighters wrapped the climbing rope around their waists as fast as possible, and then pulled each other tightly. After the trial, the fighters of the No. 1 team were allowed to climb the rope.

The fault is not high, it is five meters deep by visual inspection.

This height is not difficult for the fighters.

Usually training, crossing trenches are also so deep.

But the five meters deep in front of me, the biggest difficulty is that I step on it with one foot, and I see that it is a solid foothold. The result is.

It doesn't work!

The outside looked strong, but it was actually weathered and hollow, and a little harder stepped on the flying sand and walking stones, and people fell along with them.

"Don't worry, we still have time, we must step on it firmly before we go up!"

Standing on the edge of the fault, Miao Hai reminded him in a deep voice from time to time.

He was very worried, his heart kept taut, and his back was still sweating even if the evening breeze was slightly cold.

The members of the No. 1 team who went down were also very careful.

The members of Team No. 7 clenched their teeth, and withstood the falling force from below, their feet were firmly anchored, like tree roots stuck in the soil, preventing themselves from shaking.

Suddenly, the stabilized body of the battlehorn No. 7 in the middle suddenly leaned forward. An Xia, who had been paying attention, rushed up with a stride, pulled the rope and pressed it hard...

Standing on the edge of the fault, Miao Hai was frightened and broke into a cold sweat.

Yelled, "What's the hurry! Stand still and get down!"

It turned out that the member of the No. 1 team who went down was anxious and took the next step without stepping on his feet. The whole body fell down, and even the member of the No. 7 team who was assisting fell forward.

Chapter 634: Charisma

An Xia's timely shot stabilized the two.

"Is it all right? Is there any strangulation?" An Xia asked the 7th team member. Just now, she saw the arm of this fighter. Because of the force, the rope wrapped around the arm was suddenly tightened, worried. Sudden stress will strain the muscles.

"I tighten, you loosen your arm."

The seventh team member pursed his mouth and smiled embarrassedly, "I'm fine, I can hold on."

Very young fighter, but around twenty-two.

His tanned face still had the youthful tenderness, and he smiled slightly, and his eyes were as clear as a smile.

Obviously so young, and he has already taken up the steel gun, and with his not too generous shoulders, he has taken up the responsibility of defending his home and the country.

It has been so long since I joined Xia State. An Xia discovered that the people of Xia State have a natural attitude towards Xia State fighters, which is the worship and belief carved into the depths of their souls.

It seems that as long as there are soldiers in the great difficulty, the people of Xia Kingdom believe that the soldiers who will protect them will definitely be resolved.

It's a miraculous trust, and I don't know how Xia Guo's team did it.

Outside the territory, she has seen the hostility and distrust held by too many people towards the fighters of her country.

In Xia Guo, she seemed to have never seen it before.

Worship, believe, help, and unite as one, this is how the people of Xia country get along with the soldiers of Xia country.

While she was surprised, she was looking for the reason for a while.

I even thought naively that if the Emperor Realm wanted to get along with the soldiers of the Xia Kingdom, there would be a lot less conspiracy and tricks.

And now...

She seemed to understand.

The clear smile on the face of the young combatant would never appear in the Imperial Realm.

The laugh in the emperor domain is so false that it is evil.

Obviously it is a calculation, but also pretend to be friendly.

Obviously, I hate not letting the other party hang up immediately, but also pretend to tell the other party to take good care of the body.

Her naive thoughts were really naive.

The falling force below disappeared, and the fighters of the first team landed smoothly.

Ten minutes later, only three people remained on the fault.

An Xia, Miao Hai, the captain of Team No. 7.

"Captain Miao, you get off first!" The captain of Team No. 7 tightened the rope tied to his waist and did not give Miao Hai a chance to refuse.

An Xia also smiled and persuaded, "Don't grind, go down quickly."

Even An Xia persuaded, Miao Hai could only go first.

"Then you must be careful when you come down at the end, don't worry, don't panic, we have plenty of time, and we are not afraid of overtime." Before going down, Miao Hai did not forget to tell.

An Xia's ears almost became callous when she heard it.

Soon, Miao Hai succeeded.

Only An Xia and the captain of Team No. 7 were left.

The captain of the No. 7 team was also hesitating, "An Xia, it's better for you to play, let you play for the last time, I really..."

"Should I kick you down now? Save some time?" An Xia interrupted, "I just thought Miao Haimoji, I think you are the same."

Captain No. 7 pulled the rope wrapped around An Xia's waist and got off.

When An Xia went down alone, all the soldiers below stared wide, shut their mouths, and dared not breathe, for fear of disturbing An Xia and causing her to step on the air.

An Xia went down very quickly.

Before the soldiers went down, she had also paid close attention to the positions they had stepped on. At this moment, she only had to pick a few more steps carefully, and basically didn't need to worry that she would fall.

The sky darkened completely, and the sky was dotted with stars, and a crescent moon hung coldly in the sky, looking down on the earth.

The beams of more than a dozen lighting flashlights shone all around An Xia, allowing her to see her feet clearly so as not to step on them.

The gravel and dust kept rolling down, and the soldiers saw that their throats were dry and astringent.

Chapter 635: Non-human training too fast!

An Xia came down too fast, faster than they could climb down the rope.

Almost to make them fearful.

"Slow down, slow down, too fast, slow down, slow down..."

Miao Hai whispered softly, but dare not say anything.

They were so nervous, An Xia didn't have a trace of fear.

Continue down, down, and down, and the final distance is about 50 centimeters. With a loose hand, he jumps.

At this little height, she suddenly jumped down, frightening everyone to their heartbeats.

Usually, jumping down from a height of one or two meters, no matter if you are jumping by yourself or someone else, without blinking.

Seeing An Xia jumped down this time, everyone was shocked for no idea why.

An Xia stood, clapped the gray on her hands, and saw the fighters of the two teams staring at herself, "What's the matter? There is a problem?"

Or is there something wrong with her?

Scratches, scrapes, didn't you notice?

A dozen beams of light illuminate her, and when she lowers her head, she can see clearly even the small thread.

No injuries.

Then it's not her problem, it's that they have a problem.

Miao Hai wiped the sweat from his forehead and exhaled a foul breath, "No problem, I saw you suddenly jump off just now, everyone was not wary, and was shocked."

Upon hearing this, An Xia was silent for at least five seconds.

In the end, he still didn't hold back and said, "Then you are so courageous."

It was also dark, and the wind blowing in the Gobi Desert was strong, biting, and whistling, as if the battle spirit that never disappeared in the ancient battlefield was shouting.

The moonlight was just right, An Xia was very interested, and said seriously: "Wait when you are on the way, you'd better go hand in hand together?"

What do you mean?

A simple fighter blurted out and asked, but other delicate fighters had no time to stop it.

"If you encounter something unclear, you can drag and run together in time."

Sure enough, I was teasing them.

The captain of the No. 7 team was also able to answer the call, and seriously urged, "Have you heard? Hand in hand, walk together, and run together if something happens."

Don't say it, it rhymes.

I would definitely not walk hand in hand, but when we set off again, the soldiers talked more about each other.

The soldiers of Team No. 7 had not dared to talk to An Xia before. They were too cold and walked in front like a meteor. Their momentum is comparable to a commander in charge of thousands of troops. They only dare to ordinary soldiers like this. Follow closely.

But with the jokes just now, everyone is bolder.

As for An Xia, he is a master who always answers questions, does not cover up, and does not know how to process art.

"I'm not a veteran fighter, I just ended the three-month recruiting period, so I am a new fighter."

The chatting fighters heard a severe stumbling under their feet, but An Xia had quick eyes and hands, and grabbed his rucksack and pulled the person back to avoid falling.

The players listening nearby didn't believe it.

An Xia raised her eyebrows, "I didn't lie to you, I am indeed a new fighter, and I have been specially recruited. Didn't you say everything before? Why, don't you believe it?"

Of course I don't believe it!

How can you be a new fighter if you have won an intermediate special fighter!

Who will believe it?

No one believes it!

"Don't believe me, ask Miao Hai, he knows my situation." There were too many explanations and it was a bit tiring, An Xia simply threw the topic on Miao Hai, anyway, she didn't have any secrets, Miao Hai said casually.

Miao Hai smiled and said: "An Xia is indeed a new fighter who has just finished his three-month recruitment period. He is very powerful and can endure hardships. As for why he is so good, don't ask me, I don't know."

"I only know that she trains non-human beings. She can last for three months and only rests for 6-4 hours a day. She is training at other times."

Chapter 636: No way, is it a rival in love?

Only 4-6 hours of rest a day, and persisted for three months, the fighters listened to each other.

"What is the training content?" The seventh team member couldn't wait to ask.

The training time is not a big problem for him, mainly the training content.

The content is different, the difficulty and intensity are different, coupled with the personal sweat and effort, the harvest is naturally different.

It doesn't matter to endure hardship, as long as he can make himself strong, no matter how hard he suffers, no matter how much sweat he puts in, he is willing.

All the combatants present will be willing.

Special fighters, it's not just that they can go up casually. They are already a bit more creative than ordinary fighters. The team has given them the opportunity to become a special fighter. As long as there is a glimmer of hope, they are all willing to give.

An Xia glanced at the special fighter appreciatively.

Someone always asks her why she is so good, but she never asks what kind of training she is so good.

An Xia was not concealed in training, and said: "I am not the same as your usual training..."

When it comes to training, An Xia's indifferent voice has always been slightly higher, and more enthusiastic, like the morning glory in the morning, dazzling but not hurting.

All the fighters listened carefully, without distraction at all.

And the other side

The soldiers of the two brigade met between Broken Wolf and Snow.

Mu Chenyuan recognized the blue bird at a glance, there was nothing unusual, his gaze glided across her face as usual, and shook hands with the captain of the snowy brigade, "Hello, this is Mu Chenyuan."

Very simple introduction, there is no next to it.

In contrast, Xia Jinyuan of the Snow Territory Brigade had more words.

He is a chat, elegant and elegant, standing next to Mu Chenyuan wearing a combat uniform, and he doesn't look like a special special fighter in every move.

The main thing is that there is always a trace of evil passing by inadvertently in his eyebrows, which instantly dilutes the killing air from the battlefield like a golden horse and iron horse, but it also has a sense of mystery.

"Hello, Xia Jinyuan, I have been admiring the power of the wolf for a long time. I did not expect to have the opportunity to train together. Next, please advise and forgive me. If you have any comments or questions, please let me correct and make progress together. "

Mu Chenyuan is just a brief introduction, his side...

Ye Jian, who was standing by her side, stroked her forehead, a flick of helplessness flashed in her dark eyes.

Team Xia, you really lower the image score of the Snowy Team like this!

Mu Chenyuan's expression remained unchanged, and he said politely and politely: "Make corrections together and make progress together."

How could the captain of the ace special fighter in Luyi district be just as superficial.

Xia Jinyuan's thin lips lifted slightly, and dark eyes flashed across her black eyes as deep as the sea.

When it was the turn of the blue bird to introduce, Xia Jinyuan heard the blue bird smile and said: "I have seen it again, Team Mu."

"It's been a long time." Mu Chenyuan stretched out his hand. It turned out that the Blue Bird who had assisted last time was a special fighter of the Snow Territory Brigade, no wonder he was very skilled.

An Xia also has a very good impression of her.

Because of An Xia, in front of the woman, Mu Chenyuan smiled.

Smiled slightly, enough to be allure.

Xia Jinyuan, who was still lazy just now, even stood up a lot, his straight and loose silhouette dyed harshly.

It was the first time he saw Blue Bird take the initiative to smile at other men.

It's not a polite, detached smile, but a very familiar, not wary smile.

Looking at Mu Chenyuan's eyes, something was not quite right.

Seeing this, the soldiers behind him all smirked.

Chapter 637: Lovely snowman

Their Q king, as long as it is related to the blue bird, especially friends of the opposite sex, is always very keen.

Well, too keen.

Alas, Weishi can't blame Q Wang Minrui for chasing Jade Bird's rivals.

Nowadays, the diplomatic press spokesman Qin Xiu, Jun Ya Wushuang, who is often seen on TV, is unmarried. He is one of King Q's biggest rivals!

That's right, it's just one!

Other rivals are just as strong. In order to catch the blue bird, a foreign noble was willing to give up his original nationality and settle in Xia Country.

There is even a super-rich, who is less than 31 years old and ranks in the top five in the world fortune, has love for Jade Bird.

What's more terrifying is that he bought the island where Blue Bird rescued him, and built a castle on the island. Every July, he would go to the city alone to live in the city, looking forward to meeting Blue Bird again one day.

Qin Xiu, nobleman, and rich man, these three are the biggest rivals of King Q.

Now the Mu team of the Wolves team is also a kind of talent, and looks very handsome. Standing in front of the summer team, which has always been outstanding and the most beautiful, it is not inferior...

Their deputy team Jade Bird is perfect in both combat and life, but there is just a little problem.

It's not a problem, after all, everyone loves beauty.

Jade Bird is naturally no exception, she is a bit of control.

The face of Captain Mu is definitely enough to attract the attention of Blue Bird.

The members of the Snow Territory Brigade all smiled and looked at them. They never left their summer team.

It's definitely not a kind of sight, and everyone's eyes are deeply gloating.

Waiting for their summer team to make a fool of themselves.

No way, the life of the team is so boring, and sometimes a little spiritual food is needed to improve the life of the barren team.

And the summer team's jealousy is their spiritual food.

Come-on-baby!

Let the storm come harder!

"I bet that King Q is already soaked in the tank now."

"What is soaking in a simmering tank, I'm sure, Q is sour in his intestines now!"

"Tsk, King Q is so careful that he can't even see the blue bird smiling at others."

"It's not that Jade Bird smiles at others. In the past Jade Bird and Qin Xiu performed tasks together, and King Q could face it calmly. I think..."

Han Zheng, code-named z7, paused for a few seconds before slowly saying: "The crisis of King Q's appearance is coming."

Z7 is familiar with King Q in childhood and is the iron party of King Q. After King Q joined the Snow Brigade, Z7, a top student who graduated from China University, gritted his teeth and joined the team together, and finally became a member of the Snow Brigade.

He knows King Q very well.

So, he said that King Q has a crisis of appearance, so there must be!

T6 touched his mouth, pretending to be deep: "I think Z7 is right. King Q is 30 years old, and Captain Mu of the Wolves team is only 25 years old this year. Look at that face, he is handsome and tender. Look again. Look at King Q, tusk, is it handsome or handsome, but it's been a long time and I'm tired of it."

"Let's Jade Bird, and have such a little hobby, such a young and promising captain Mu suddenly appeared, not worse than the Q king back then."

"It seems that the biggest calamity in King Q's life is here!"

The analysis is straightforward, and the logic is full marks. Well, even if they don't have full marks, they will boast full marks, mainly because they want to add a block to King Q.

Who would let him, as long as he rests, always like to show affection in front of them!

Chapter 638: Refuse to eat dog food

The snow brigade has eaten too much dog food in recent years. They have been eating too much, but they are too young. The two who feed them dog food will also feed them occasionally and abruptly. No matter if they eat too much, it will hurt the stomach and hurt the stomach. Sad!

At this moment, finally there is a chance to fight back, and we must not let it go!

"I look forward to coming soon. It's best to be thunder and fire. If it's out of control, let's empathize. Q is so angry that I fast!" The special fighters of the snow brigade, code-named V8, are even more ruthless. They all hope that the blue bird will move. Don't fall in love.

Not only was it not beaten by the fighters, but it was supported!

"This is good, this is good, let the blue bird empathize, fall in love with the little fresh meat, and let the old bacon of King Q abandon it, throw it away, and dry it."

"Why don't we help by the way? Advance the progress?"

"That's it, our captain don't look at someone who looks like five people and six people. Who doesn't know that he is a black hearted heart, a dead daoist but not a poor daoist! We have to take action. Will there be a way for us to survive when we go back?"

That's right!

No one in the team knows how dark the heart of King Q is and how cruel his hands are.

Don't do the things that add to the flames. In order not to irritate your upper body, let's eat melon next to it.

The people who eat melons are not only the soldiers of the Snow Territory Team, but also the soldiers of the Broken Wolf Team.

Especially the three of Cheng Ming, Wei Ji, and Qi Xingsu, mainly because the three of them are familiar with An Xia.

It's anxious now, like ants on a hot pot.

I wish I could rush down and drag their team back, who never smiled at the girls, but at the deputy team of the Snow Region today.

Team Mu, do you want to die?

You are the master of the famous flower!

Where is the courage of the dog?

Are you afraid that An Xia will cut you off?

Although the relationship between Mu Chenyuan and An Xia is not yet completely clear, Cheng Ming and the three of them all know that Mu Chenyuan is in charge.

Those who have the master do not know how to constrain, openly talking and laughing with other female fighters, the sin is unforgivable!

Cheng Ming gritted his teeth and secretly said: "When I see Miss An next time, I must tell Miss An, watch the Mu team!"

"Don't spread the word, let's see what's going on first." Vice Captain Wei Ji was still very calm, "I'm watching, it's not what we thought. Is it, Ying Que."

Ying Que was staring at Xia Jinyuan and couldn't answer.

This guy, he knows!

Still the rival of his good buddy Qin Xiu!

Good guys!

I didn't know which team he was in, and there was no news about him in the capital city. I only knew that the prince of the Xia family didn't rely on family relations, and went to a remote place to become an ordinary soldier.

Is this a * ordinary warrior?

The captain of the ace special team "Snowy Brigade" in Luyi District!

At that time, he persuaded good buddies to * people, saying, "You are Qin Xiu, the son of the Qin family! Why? Can you still lose to the hopeless prince of the Xia family?"

"What's wrong with the engagement? As long as you don't get married for a day, you still have a chance! You have liked it for so many years, can't you fight for yourself?"

"You didn't fight for it, how do you know that it's impossible!"

The good guys looked ugly at themselves, he wanted to talk, and finally finished a bottle of beer, and smiled bitterly, "No chance, there really is no chance, the prince of the Xia family is not easy, you are also a fighter, and I will meet you later. I'll know."

Later, he really met the prince of the Xia family, the old lady's birthday banquet, he came, and he wanted to come forward to greet a few words, he, on behalf of the Xia family, sent a birthday gift and hurriedly left.

See you again this time...

Chapter 639: Powerful rival

It's no wonder that good friends say that the prince of the Xia family is not easy, he is not qualified, and can not do wicked things to grab a girlfriend.

Good buddy, you really kicked the iron this time!

Thinking of her good buddy, Ying Que sighed quietly.

If you don't sigh, pay for it, sigh, just when Wei Ji who asked him heard it, Wei Ji's eyelids jumped violently, "What did you sigh? What did you find?"

"I sigh, what are you nervous about?" Ying Que finally realized that his teammates were abnormal, turned his head and narrowed his eyes, "Vice team, are you scared?"

Yes, he must have not heard what they said just now!

Wei Ji resisted the urge to roll his eyes. "You didn't see Team Mu and their deputy team. Did you know him?"

"If you know you, you know, what are you nervous about?" Ying Que became even more confused, and the two of them looked like a catastrophe. "Can you make it clear? There is no beginning and no end, and I don't understand what you want to do."

Cheng Ming stared at Mu Chenyuan, who was still chatting with the Xueyu deputy team, gritted his teeth and squeezed every word, and said with an aura: "Team Mu, just smiled at the Xueyu deputy team!"

"???" Ying Que's eyes were looking at the fool, and it took a while before he said: "The captain is not a wood, and he smiles politely, is there a problem? What are you thinking about?"

Wei Ji saw that he hadn't understood it yet, and seeing their eyes look like a fool's Ying Que, he immediately changed his way and said, "Team Mu smiled at a girl!"

The deputy team in the snowfield is a girl!

The captain, who had always kept a distance from the girl and was so stingy that he would never show a smile, smiled at the other girl.

Ying Que finally reacted, "I'm sorry, but I forgot that the deputy team in the Snow Region is a girl."

He was too self-conscious, so he was so obsessed with gender, that he treated him equally.

The problem is really serious.

Doesn't the Mu team have An Xia?

What's the matter?

Still want to cast the net widely?

"Reminder to remind." Ying Que sullen. He has reminded the Mu team before and said that the Mu family does not object to him being with An Xia.

Ah!

How long is this!

Did he openly change his heart?

Scumbag!

Wei Ji said, "It must be reminded that there are so many people now that I will talk about it later."

As soon as he finished speaking, he heard Mu Chenyuan raise his voice, "Vice team Wei."

Wei Ji, the vice team of Wei, strode forward and walked to Mu Chenyuan's side in a few steps.

I'm afraid that something big will happen later.

Cheng Ming even whispered: "Squeeze Team Mu!"

There is Miss Ann, and smiles at other girls, scumbag.

Mu Chenyuan seemed to feel the hostility coming from his teammates, turning his head, his eyes were cool and he glanced at Cheng Ming, and then fell on Ying Que.

Qi Xingsu had hidden behind Ying Que.

He didn't say anything.

What I said in my heart didn't count, and I didn't say it.

Ying Que's gaze greeted indifferently, it was not he who did the wrong thing, so he looked at each other!

Seeing this, Mu Chenyuan wrung his brows without a trace.

Something is not right.

The reason why something is not right can't be found.

Soon, Mu Chenyuan found the reason.

"This is Wei Ji, the deputy team of our team." Mu Chenyuan, who was pushed aside, introduced, "the deputy team, this is the blue bird of the snowy deputy team."

The two parties shook hands in a friendly manner, and Wei Ji said politely: "Please advise."

Holding it up, Wei Ji was surprised by the firefly on the palm of the blue bird's palm.

Yu Guang quickly glanced at the hand of the blue bird, with new calluses on the back and wrist.

This is.....

Hands practicing guns.

Chapter 640: It's not right, it's not right

At this time, Mu Chenyuan stood beside Xia Jinyuan.

He should have found the reason why the players are not right.

Also, the Captain of the Snow Region.

He shook hands with Blue Bird just now, and Qing Wu greeted him familiarly. The captain's eyes were somewhat random, and they were sharp as an arrow and shot straight at him.

It was very short, and it returned to business as usual.

Since he realized that he likes to go to Anxia, Mu Chenyuan, who exists like a wooden person, has a straight line of emotional intelligence, and he can always find the difference in the subtleties.

This Captain Xia seemed to have some thoughts about Blue Bird.

Later, he will remind his teammates that it's okay to get close to the blue bird.

and also!

Don't think of him as a scumbag!

He is acquainted with Blue Bird because of An Xia!

Last time, Jade Bird took a rest and went to the hospital to visit Aunt Ye.

It can be seen that the two have a good relationship.

At this time, the two teams started a friendly meeting with each other shaking hands.

Mu Chenyuan began to tell Captain Xueyu without a trace that he already had a girlfriend.

It just so happened that Captain Xia also deliberately revealed that Blue Bird has an owner. If he can, he wants to point to himself and say that he is Blue Bird's fiancé.

But the true relationship between him and the blue bird should not be revealed. He can only hold back and smile and said: "Our deputy team is very powerful. Are there any female fighters in Powolf? If so, you can let them learn from each other."

"Not yet, but there will be in the future. Before, Blue Bird still wanted to dig her to Luyi District, throwing out the olive branch, Xiahou fighters were very nervous." Mu Chenyuan said politely, "I am also very nervous. , It's hard to get people into the team. If you really want to be picked by your Luyi District, I should come over to grab people."

It is rare to say a long paragraph in one breath. After Mu Chenyuan finished speaking, he only felt that the corners of his mouth were a little stiff.

Snowy Captain Xia Jinyuan is an eloquent. Hearing that, a gleam of deep black eyes flashed, and the corners of his lips curled up to show a sincere smile, "Blue Bird is really going to dig people over, so I shouldn't rob you again. Chance to go back."

Mu Chenyuan said indifferently: "It's a lifelong matter, and it must be grabbed."

Understood!

Xia Jinyuan with a sincere smile said: "That really can't be robbed, we can't do such an unrighteous, unreasonable thing."

Marriage of bad guys, great thunderstorm!

Can't do that.

"People don't need to snatch, but as far as I know, Blue Bird has a good relationship with the female fighter that your district is optimistic about. Team Mu doesn't mind if they become good friends."

"Blue Bird and her are already good friends." Mu Chenyuan felt the sincerity of Captain Xueyu, and Leng Rui's handsome face was also slightly smiling, "I also hope that Team Xia will not mind."

Xia Jinyuan smiled, "Of course not, Blue Bird doesn't have any close friends. I really hope she can have a few friends she knows, so how can you mind."

Stop talking smartly.

After the two people finished speaking, the dragon and the phoenix smiled at each other, and everything was silent.

They are peaceful and friendly, but the two teams who are still shaking hands politely cannot be peaceful and friendly for the time being.

Every time I shook my hand, the most common words were "please advise me" and "please forgive me."

Saying that, the line of sight is sharper than the other, and they look at each other secretly.

Everyone knows the backing of the other party, and will more or less have a feeling of competition.

If you want the players of the two teams to have an understanding of each other, the best way is to learn from each other and then cooperate.

How to learn and cooperate.

Fu Siling raised his brows when he received the news.

"Last time I went to the special team in Jianglian, where all the new battle eggs were laid down?"
Holding the satellite phone terminal, Fu Siling's thin lips were slightly bent, "Then, what do we need to do?"
