

Goddess 661

Chapter 661: Look again, look again, I'll come and find you

Z7 Han Zheng was arranged like this.

He naturally has no opinion, anyway, he often makes decisions for G3.

Brother, how can you leave each other behind if you have something to do together.

As for Xia Jinyuan, he still leaned beside Mu Chenyuan and asked with a smile, "Team Mu, you have no opinion."

After all the decisions were made, he asked Mu Chenyuan if he had any comments. Ye Jian was worried that he would be beaten.

Ugh.

He was as bad and stubborn as ever for many years.

Mu Chenyuan is also a calm temper, and said indifferently: "No comments, welcome to advise." He immediately said: "Brothers in the team pay attention to the arrangements. We can help at any time if there is a situation."

Backhanded the army, Ye Jian wished to see Xia Jinyuan's handsome face froze.

Should!

Who told you to get cheap and sell well.

Xia Jinyuan, the captain of the Snow Region, has always been willing to win with his mouth. Hearing this, he kept a smile on his face, "It seems that the brothers of Team Mu have suffered a loss in her hands."

"Well, she is the one I brought out, so naturally it won't be bad." Mu Chenyuan accepted the move steadily. How could it be bad if she was also a special special combatant, "Take this opportunity to ask her brothers in the summer team for advice. One or two."

Xia Jinyuan raised his eyebrows, no wonder he was confident that An Xia would not be snatched away by Lu Yi District.

It turned out to be someone who brought it out personally.

It's really hard to grab people.

Try even if it's hard.

If you don't try, how can you know if you will succeed or not?

Once again, his gaze fell on the figure that Ye Jian had remembered for a long time, and Xia Jinyuan's eyes gathered dark colors.

The deputy team Jade Bird has always wanted to organize a female special fighter in the snowy area. He has always supported her idea, but it is difficult to meet a female fighter who can be as powerful as Jade Bird.

And An Xia was the first female fighter to make Ye Jian so concerned.

For the blue bird, in order to make the snow brigade have a team of women special combatants, he really wanted to grab people.

The sight stayed longer, and the climbing figure turned his head again.

There are definitely people!

An Xia stared at a height about a hundred meters away, her eyes cold and sharp like a blade.

Below, Miao Hai and other five combatants had arrived. Seeing An Xia stopped suddenly, several of them shouted at the same time, cheering for An Xia, "An Xia, don't stop! You will be up soon!"

I thought An Xia was too weak to climb up.

Ye Youyin was about 200 meters away from five kilometers, and he could just hear the voices of Miao Hai and the others.

I was overjoyed right now.

An Xia can't climb anymore?

How much time does she spend now?

I will speed up the climb when I wait, can I surpass Anxia?

Five kilometers prostrate and lost to her, she must not lose again in the climbing and descent assessment!

Swallowing, the dust choked on her dry throat, Ye Youyin gritted her teeth, dripping sweat and dashed for the last 200 meters.

An Xia made an "OK" gesture towards the bottom and continued to move up.

At a high point a hundred meters away, no one looked at her anymore.

Look again, look again, look again I'm afraid she will rush over!

Finally, An Xia arrived at the top of the mountain.

Niu Qiyue released the timer, his face engraved with Fengshuang was full of surprises.

Quite amazing results!

Lei Hongtao also saw An Xia's results, and Rao calmed down again, and at this time was also a little excited.

Time to get close to the special fighters!

Faster than Fu Siling.

Holding the communicator, Lei Hongtao said solemnly to Fu Siling below: "After you go back, you should practice well. An Xia is eleven seconds faster than you."

You don't need to remind you, he also has a timer himself, knowing how much Anxia is faster than him.

Fu Siling replied, "I'm already self-reflection."

Chapter 662: What else she won't

Fu Siling really didn't expect to be able to achieve results close to that of a special special fighter.

The new fighter An Xia gave him another surprise he didn't expect.

It made him more sure that An Xia had definitely practiced before.

No matter how talented, it is impossible to have such a terrifying strength in the short three-month recruiting period.

Then there is only one possibility: An Xia has practiced.

Lei Hongtao felt a little better after listening.

The strength of the new fighters is better than that of the fighters in their team, and that feeling, to be honest, is really not good.

Ashamed of the important task of land warfare to them.

Suddenly someone tapped on his shoulder, Lei Hongtao turned his head, Niu Qiyue's simple explanation was in his ear, "Is it going to be horny?"

"Old Lei, then you can't feel sad because the newcomers are better than the members of your team. It's normal. A mountain is more high, and a strong player has a strong midfielder."

"An Xia, this girl is a rare and good seedling. Find a fighter who is stronger than her at this age. I dare say that there are not many of the three major wars."

"You, take her as the grindstone in your team, let Fu Siling know that strong players have more powerful mid players, inspire their fierceness in their bones, sharpen their fighting will, and spur them to continuously temper their fighting style and improve. The skill and tactics of the whole team, thinking about it this way, are you happy in your heart?"

Well, speaking of him, he suddenly understood.

Lei Hongtao scowled and smiled hard, "Yes, you are right to remind me, I think it's wrong."

Niu Qiyue looked at his smiling face and patted him on the shoulder again, "Don't laugh, I'm afraid when I laugh."

People who are not accustomed to smiling work hard to squeeze out a smile, their expressions are so stiff as if a stone statue is smiling, and people feel panicked.

Lei Hongtao closed his face in seconds, getting used to his straight face, finally squeezing out a smile, and being rejected by others.

Laugh less and don't scare people in the future.

As long as they chatted, An Xia dropped nearly 20 meters.

Quick descent is much easier than climbing. Grasp the rope with one hand, lean the front of the body, and fasten the waist buckle with the other hand. The speed drops effortlessly.

The gravel and dust "crushed" down. Miao Hai, who was about to climb, only saw a figure above their heads, like an eagle, flying over the ground.

The figure is extremely stable, the movement is not stagnant at all, it is just right to describe it with flying over the wall!

"Damn, what did An Xia do before? What else did she not?" A male fighter who was also about to climb looked at the figure flying above, surprised and envious.

He wants to be as powerful as An Xia, the special special fighters dare to think.

Miao Hai smiled and said: "I don't know, there are still twelve days. Let's watch and learn. Come here, brother, see who is the first to go."

Now Miao Hai is very calm, An Xia's power has spread throughout their second camp area when she was still a rookie.

At that time, Baiying had a long chat with Changying in the first camp in order to * An Xia.

Later, I didn't know how to come back.

It is estimated that seeing Anxia's strength and strength, he has no confidence in recruiting people into the second camp.

Waste talent!

A few people began to climb, and now is not the time to chat, the assessment is important!

Ye Youyin had already completed five kilometers of crawling, and she rushed straight towards the cliff.

All five climbing ropes were used, and she could only start after An Xia came down.

Taking advantage of this little time, Ye Youyin hurriedly adjusted herself and looked up.

An Xiafei's figure leaned over, smashed into her eyes fiercely.

Chapter 663: Somewhat self-aware

The pupils shrank suddenly.

how so!

Anxia has finished climbing and started to descend!

I have worked very hard to complete a five-kilometer crawl at the fastest speed, and I think even more, now that An Xia is faster, it is estimated that he will just climb half the slope.

As a result, she actually dropped!

The rate of descent is so fierce that it makes her back chill.

It is impossible for her to have An Xia's current speed drop completely!

Want to win An Xia in this assessment, crazy dreaming!

Ye Youyin is much stronger than Cheng Yiluo, can quickly know his shortcomings, will not paralyze himself, stubbornly think that he is better than anyone else.

Born from a wealthy family, she is much better than Cheng Yiluo in terms of vision, means, and strategy.

It is very clear that I am aware of my own deficiencies and is not ashamed. On the contrary, I can know my own deficiencies and try to make up for them as much as possible.

At this moment, realizing that climbing can't beat An Xia, Ye Youyin loosened her clenched hands. Suddenly, her face changed drastically and she screamed, "An Xia, be careful!!!"

The surrounding area was already very quiet, and there was no sound of insects. She screamed abruptly, like a foreign body infested. Even if the soldiers were bold enough, they were also terribly frightened.

Jiang Wenbin and Qiao Ji were all really frightened.

Just staring at Miao Hai and the other four people with all their attention, beware of any accidents, suddenly, a female ghost-like scream came from their ears, and on the spot, the two shivered in fright.

Oh grass!

What is it called in the middle of the night!

Don't know if people are scary, will they scare people to death?

Fu Siling was not surprised, but he was disturbed.

With a sharp gaze, he swept towards Ye Youyin and scolded, "What are you doing? Do you want to make small moves? Scared An Xia, do you think you can win?"

Very mercilessly, he directly pierced Ye Youyin's small movements.

Why didn't he look at Ye Youyin, who is equally strong?

the reason is simple.

In her eyes, he saw the gloom.

She thinks it's good to hide, but every time she looks at a fighter who is better than her, the gloom in her eyes is like the water in a stinking ditch, and there is a calculation that makes him sick.

At this moment, Ye Youyin was frightened.

At a loss, I took a step back, as if I wanted to explain to myself, but didn't know how to speak, and his face was flushed in anxiety.

After a while, she said, "Instructor Fu, you have misunderstood. I saw An Xia so quickly, and I was scared that she would fall off."

At the fast speed of An Xia, Jiang Wenbin and Qiao Jiquan both strained their hearts for fear of accidents.

After listening to her explanation, the two of them also believed.

Qiao Jiquan had a good impression of her and criticized her seriously, "Then you can't scream suddenly, not only does it not serve as a reminder, but it may also cause An Xia to be distracted and make mistakes."

"A good intention becomes a disservice! In the future, remember not to make similar mistakes again. If you do it again, you will lose points in the assessment!"

This can also deduct points?

Ye Youyin, who was suddenly upset in her heart, was silent, and she couldn't explain it to herself anymore.

Explanation is justification.

Sometimes silence is the best explanation.

Bow your head and accept criticism obediently.

Fu Siling pressed her thin lips with a cold voice, "No next time, this time, points will be deducted!"

Raising his eyes suddenly, there was an unacceptable shock in his eyes.

Fu Siling stared at her coldly, and said coldly again, "If there is any next time, we will clear it away!"

After a few seconds of silence, Ye Youyin responded dryly, "Received."

There can't be another time, she doesn't want to clear it.

Qiao Ji looked at Lingshen who was air-conditioned all over his body, and vaguely understood something.

Chapter 664: Incorrect mind

Sigh softly.

Ugh.

A good girl, with top-notch strength, how can she be wrong?

If the mind is not right, the individual will not be reused no matter how top-notch it is.

Observe again.

If there is a problem, even if she passes all the examinations later, it will not be possible for her to be promoted smoothly.

Ye Youyin's fist clenched tightly again.

Sure enough, the calculations made at the heart of the moment didn't work, and it was me that hurt in the end.

Only through thorough calculations can you achieve the effect and ensure that you are successful and will not be discovered.

An Xia was not frightened by her sudden screaming, but Miao Hai and the four of them were frightened, thinking that An Xia had something serious.

When Qiao Jiquan criticized Ye Youyin, Jiang Wenbin reminded Miao Hai in a deep voice, "Watch yourself! Hurry up and climb up."

Miao Hai and the other four held on to the ropes, stabilized their figures, condensed their minds and continued to move up, while An Xia, who flew down, passed them.

"Come on." The cold voice was constricted and calmed into the ears, and the four of them were sure of their minds.

An Xia is fine, and is about to land.

Ye Youyin, who stole the chicken without eclipsing the rice, watched An Xia steadily fall to the ground, released the lock, and passed her indifferently.

"Are you regretting that you scared me now?" A voice that seemed like a smile but not a smile also floated into his ears. Ye Youyin's face was slightly stiff, and he apologized softly, "I'm sorry, I'm reckless."

An Xia chuckled, glanced at her meaningfully, and strode towards Fu Siling.

"Report, the climb and descent are completed on the 100th!"

Ye Youyin's hands on the locks paused, and his face was so gloomy that it could drip.

"It's done well, you can rest." Fu Siling nodded, without much communication with An Xia.

Climbing and descending, Anxia's performance is close to that of a special special fighter, and he is not as good as Anxia.

An Xia did not leave, raised her eyes, and looked to the left side about a hundred meters away, "There is something wrong over there. Do you need to go and see it?"

The sight that fell on her was not very friendly, and regarded her as a prey torn into the abdomen, not like the instructor in the base who gave them the assessment.

On the contrary, he looks like a fierce gangster.

Fu Siling glanced at her, his fingers moved slightly, and those special fighters were too careless. They were actually noticed by An Xia?

Calmly said: "Don't worry, it's the instructor in the base."

The instructor in the base?

An Xia didn't believe it.

Seeing that Fu Siling had no intention of communicating with her, An Xia turned and left, standing under the cliff watching Miao Hai and the four climbing.

As for Ye Youyin, I don't want to watch it.

When Fu Siling waited for her to approach, he also walked a little further and contacted Lei Hongtao above.

Soon, Mu Chenyuan and Xia Jinyuan knew that they were discovered by An Xia.

"Team Mu, you can bring out a wolf cub, more than a hundred meters away, she can still detect the problem." Xia Jinyuan is really surprised, the blue bird's acumen back then is quite amazing, but now, he found An Xia Stronger than Jade Bird.

Is it true that the acumen of female fighters is much stronger than that of male fighters?

Mu Chenyuan knew An Xia was keen, but he was so powerful that he didn't know until tonight.

You know, they have been very careful not to be discovered by An Xia.

Unexpectedly, she was still aware of it.

"It's just a change of place, she might touch it." Mu Chenyuan said: "Only when she confirms that there is no problem, she will stop doubting."

Is it so vigilant?

Xia Jinyuan wiped the corners of his mouth, his eyes increased, "I really have to try it tonight, a rare talent."

Chapter 665: Looking forward to a wonderful counterattack

An Xia really wanted to touch it over and take a look, and considered it and chose to give up.

If it is the content of the assessment, she will act 100% immediately.

Since Fu Siling told the base instructor.

never mind.

Estimate and believe him.

Fu Siling was also worried that An Xia would touch him halfway, and secretly told the other instructors to keep an eye on them. As long as An Xia flees, he immediately brought her back.

The assessment of climbing and descent until 12 o'clock in the morning ended. At this time, all the combatants were exhausted, so tired that they fell asleep in seconds.

Find a shelter that can accommodate hundreds of people. With a "rest on the spot," 77 soldiers opened their backpacks, took out cold-proof bags, and held guns. Several people huddled together, closed their eyes, and fell asleep.

The ten captains were divided into groups of two to stand guard for one hour in turn, and the ten captains stood guard for exactly one hour in each group.

The night was dark, and the wind was howling like ghosts and wolves. The soldiers were a little afraid before. There is nothing to be afraid of at this moment. They are so tired that they are so tired that their eyes are closed. No matter what the ghosts are crying and howling, first sleep before you are full.

Fu Siling and the others were asleep.

Without going back to sleep in the car, several instructors scattered, held their guns tightly, and rested back to back.

Lei Hongtao and Niu Qiyue didn't have much sleep, they were having video calls with Bo Lirong and Zhao Zhengfei in the command center, reporting all the assessment results today.

After getting high scores in each of Anxia's assessments, Bo Lirong and Zhao Zhengfei laughed.

"The last fight tonight, let's see how she fights back." Bo Lirong watched An Xia's latest results, and smiled: "I have prepared all night and look forward to her wonderful counterattack."

Capture and Annihilation is a single-player combat assessment, which mainly assesses how to survive alone against the wind.

The extra points are: you absolutely survive and bring the fighters together with PUBG, plus one point for each fighter you bring.

Don't underestimate this point. The extra points for this assessment are very strict, and it is easy to deduct points. Three points are divided into base points.

Adding points is extremely difficult, one is divided into base points, if An Xia can bring out five people, five points will make a leap forward in the ranking.

Niu Qiyue was very optimistic about An Xia. Hearing the words, he smiled and said, "She is afraid that she is ready to fight back now."

"Huh? How to say?" Bo Lirong smiled and said, "Is it possible that she still has the ability to predict?"

Lei Hongtao reported the incident one by one. After Bo and Zhao listened to it, they did not speak for quite a while.

That's the ace special operations team in Lu No. 1 and Lu No. 2. How did Anxia find them?

Looking at An Xia's score sheet tonight, Bo and Zhao both stared at the note below the score sheet at the same time: close to the special special fighters.

"Do you now think that Anxia's level is actually almost reaching the level of special special fighters?" Zhao Zhengfei asked in a deep voice, with a particularly serious tone, "What about Fu Siling? Do you think so too?"

Fu Siling is an intermediate special fighter, and his words have a good reference value.

Reply received: Yes.

He also believes that Anxia's strength is close to that of a special special fighter.

Bo and Zhao gasped when they agreed.

Commander Xia Hou, how did he cultivate An Xia?

An eighteen-year-old special-level special fighter has never had one in Lu Er District!

Xia Houyu was also surprised.

When I received a call from Bo Lirong in the middle of the night, he was so shocked that he "flounced" up from his office chair and said, "Approach to super strength? Are you sure?"

"Yes, several assessments have already exceeded the intermediate level." Hearing Xia Houyu's surprise, Bo Lirong asked, "Don't you know?"

Otherwise, why are you so surprised.

Chapter 666: Three teams

Xia Houyu laughed, "I really don't know, I thought she should be at the intermediate level. I didn't expect that she was so surprised that she was almost at the super level."

"There are still twelve days. You must treat it strictly. I want to confirm whether Anxia's various assessments have reached the special level. Bo Tuan, if this is the case, we have found a treasure in Luer District!"

That kind of super baby!

Until the end of the communication for a while, Xia Houyu's spirit was still very excited.

I really want to report to General Mu and bear it.

Before the final assessment results come out, no conclusion can be drawn casually.

There are several assessments in the Gobi Desert. The most difficult assessment is the 100-kilometer steep combat assessment. This is a comprehensive assessment, including reconnaissance, stealing, strangulation, two days of survival without water and food, and finally "capture the wolf king."

If An Xia's strength in this assessment is close to the special level, then it is basically certain that she is indeed close to the special level.

Staying alone in the office, Xia Houyu stood, sat down, and finally stood in front of Xia Guo's map before gradually calming down.

Bo Lirong could not calm down.

Turning on the phone that has been turned off, Mr. Bo's messages came one by one, a total of five.

"Li Rong, the Ye family is very likely to target you in the team. It is because of the father's home that you are accumulating, and he blames himself extremely for his father. If you have any difficulties, please be sure to tell your family."

"Li Rong, Zhiqing knows that he is wrong. My father has asked him to leave the country and go abroad for training. I hope he can do a great job and leave a way out for the Bo family."

"Li Rong, the old lady of the Ye family contacted me again today to find out about the life of Ye Mengwei and An Xia's mother and daughter. For my father, I heard that the Ye family is currently jealous of An Xia, but I don't know the reason. I don't know if I told you about it. Is there something to do with the Mu family?"

"Li Rong, great news. Old lady Ye's eldest son Ye Yan and second son Ye Hao. The relationship between the two is not as affectionate as the brothers say. Ye Hao has opinions on the old lady's partiality and the eldest brother's family. The old lady wants Ye Youyin to marry her eldest granddaughter. Entering Mu's house, Ye Hao was dissatisfied with his little daughter, Ye Lejing, who was left out in the cold.

"Ye Yan has recently been promoted to a six-star warlord, but the roots are not stable, and the old lady Ye has scruples. She dare not trouble the eldest son Ye Yan to inquire about An Xia. The home will be rewarded."

"No one agreed to this reward, and Mrs. Ye became angry because of it and sent her to the hospital again."

The above are the four messages sent in the morning, noon, and afternoon respectively during the day.

The last news came at eight o'clock tonight.

"Li Rong, Ye, Ai, and Song have joined forces. If it is convenient for you, contact An Xia to remind her to be more careful. It is also considered that our Bo family compensates her a little."

After reading the last text message, Bo Lirong's eyes passed coldly.

How!

The three of them still want to stir the storm to the team?

Bo Lirong did not hesitate, and directly sent the news to Xia Houyu.

Xia Hou Zhan will know, and I believe the Mu family will know soon too, huh!

What about the three teams working together? !

If the Mu family makes a move, the vitality of the three families will be hurt.

When Xia Houyu received the text message, her good mood was immediately destroyed, and the corners of her mouth that had been rising all the time were pressed tightly, her face sinking to the point of freezing.

Outrageous!

Whoever gives them the courage, even the talents trained by the war department dare to hurt them.

At this time, the three families of Ye, Ai, and Song did not know that a catastrophe was coming.

Especially Mrs. Song, sitting in the brightly-lit Ai's hall, her eyes are like snakes, and she is vicious and vicious, "Big Brother, Yanyan's hatred depends on you!"

Chapter 667: Ai Jia Fengyun

His wife was taken back to Ai's house by Ai Tingze a week ago to recuperate.

No way, he has only one younger sister. The old lady who loves her daughter-in-law was originally on vacation abroad. When she learned that her sister had an accident, her granddaughter Song Yanyan had died. The old lady fainted and fainted.

After waking up, the first one went back to China immediately without notifying him in advance. He got off the plane and "killed" him directly to his company, and used crutches to teach him a few times.

He originally wanted to wait and find an opportunity to settle the account. But the old lady was forced to fate, first forcing him to retrieve his sister Ai Qianhua from Xuancheng, and then forcing him to inquire about An Xia's whereabouts.

He was still inquiring about An Xia, and the old lady heard that she and the old lady of the Ye family had a very happy conversation, and finally became the three families of Ye, Ai, and Song had a very happy conversation.

In the Song family, since it was reported on the Internet that his sister carried a knife, his image has plummeted, and the stock has dropped continuously. Brother-in-law Song Zhengwei was almost taken down by other shareholders of the company.

In the end, the younger sister was mentally ill, and she went to the hospital medical record, and then sold the charity she had done before to the marketing account. This turned the crisis into peace.

Fortunately, because of the death of her daughter, her sister did have mental problems, otherwise, things would not end well.

After raising them for a few months, seeing the improvement in spirit and the comfort of the old lady, Ai Wuze is not too worried about his sister now.

Hearing the words, Shen said: "I will do it, and you will do it with the old lady. The ticket has been booked for you. The day after tomorrow, you and the old lady will go abroad for vacation. I will pick you up when the matter is resolved."

When Ai Qianhua heard that she was going abroad, her expression was sullen, "I won't go out! I won't go anywhere before seeing An Xia's body!"

"Mom can't go out! In order to avenge Yanyan, she whispered to the Ye family at her age. Now that there is hope, you let me go out? Impossible!"

Finally escaped from Song Zhengwei's * and returned to the capital, and wanted to send her away?

She will never go away!

Ai Tingze said with a sullen face, "Qianhua, obedient! I have my own arrangements, and you can't help much if you stay in the capital. Now that the Ai family and the Ye family have joined forces, what are you worried about?"

"Also, as you said just now, Mom whispered to the Ye Family for the sake of her younger sister's age, do you have the heart? You went abroad to relax yourself, and then accompany the old lady to relax. I will deal with domestic affairs."

"It's so decided. Don't refuse to me anymore. An Xia is very tricky. She is guarded by the Seven-Star Warrior! If you insist on staying, you will find someone to deal with it yourself!"

Ai Qianhua has fallen into a morbid paranoia and can't listen to Ai Tingze's persuasion.

After being in the hospital for a few months, I still knew that I could no longer fight hard, heard the words, bowed my head, and sobbed softly.

She will not go!

"I can go, but before I go, I want to know where An Xia is!"

As long as she knows where An Xia is, she will seek revenge on her own!

No one can rely on it, only on their own.

Ai Tingze saw through what Ai Qianhua was thinking in her heart, and sneered, "Ai Qianhua, these years of smooth winds have passed for a long time, and it's so rampant that there is no limit to it, right!"

"Don't think I don't know what you want to do! If you know which team An Xia is in, you can sneak over by yourself? Heh! Your * team is Xuancheng. Go if you want?"

"Even the Ye family dare not fight against the team. How dare you dare to run to the warlord and make trouble? You * don't want to live, don't burden the whole family."

Chapter 668: She is crazy

Madman, she is a madman now!

It's no wonder that Song Zhengwei wants to take people seriously, just like what the * is now, letting go is a scourge!

The whole family will be killed by her!

Ai Qianhua has been backed by Song and Ai in the past few years, and she has always said that she is the only one in Xuancheng, and I am the only one who makes her feel a little uncomfortable. She immediately takes revenge.

What she wants to do, what must be done!

This is also why Song Yanyan was so young that she did a lot of evil, especially not knowing that she was wrong.

If there is a mother, there must be a daughter!

Ai Qianhua didn't realize that she was wrong.

Wiping away the pretending tears, his eyes were so cold that Ai Tingze couldn't help frowning.

"I know what I want to do, what I want to accomplish, none of you want to block me! What about the team, they dare to kill me and fail!"

"I came to ask for an explanation, and I would dare to attack me, that would be better! I made a big mess, and I knew it when I went abroad, so that the whole world would know that An Xia was a murderer!"

"At that time, I see who can protect An Xia!"

It was so arrogant that even the team was not at ease.

Ai Tingze thinks that he is bold enough, dark enough, and crazy enough, and now that he is compared with Ai Qianhua, he knows that he is really nothing. exist

At least, he was given ten guts at the moment, and he didn't dare to trouble the team.

madman!

She is a lunatic now.

For yourself and Ai's family, don't blame him for being rude.

Raising his hand, Ai Tingze screamed, "Come here!"

Ai Qianhua bounced from the sofa and screamed, "Brother, what are you going to do!!!"

People, rush directly to the gate.

Ai's family are all members of Ai Tingze, and it is more difficult to escape than to escape from the Song's family.

Without even rushing out of the sofa, he was blocked by two Kong Wu's powerful bodyguards.

"Give her twenty-four hours to watch her tightly and forbid her to leave for half a step!"

Ai Tingze was more ruthless than Song Zhengwei, and he was doing illicit work in private. He didn't know how many lives had passed. Once he turned his face, he would kill anyone who was not relatives, sisters or sisters.

The bodyguards held Ai Qianhua from the left and the right, and carried the people upstairs.

"Let go of me, let me go!" Ai Qianhua would not follow. She came out of the Song family to avenge her personally, and then locked her up. What's the difference between staying in Xuancheng.

"Mom! Mom!" screamed for help, "Mom! Mom! Brother is going to kill me, Mom, save me! Save me."

Compared to Song Zhengwei, she was more afraid of her cruel brother.

Only the old lady can save her.

Ai Tingze's eyes were full of dark predators, "Stop her mouth for me!"

Something that doesn't know how to live or die, but also wants to alarm the old lady!

"Hmm...hmm..." Ai Qianhua's mouth was blocked, and Ai Qianhua struggled even harder, with disheveled hair and red eyes, so crazy that Ai Tingze couldn't bear it.

He rushed over, raised his hand and slapped it down.

"You * try to make a fuss for Lao Tzu? Song Zhengwei sees my face, but dares to put you under house arrest. You dare not do anything else. If it falls into my hands, you * make trouble again, don't blame the cruel heart of the brother! "

The sinister, ferocious, brother-sister feelings are gone.

Ai Qianhua which is a soft, easy clothes, heard, eyes burst out of hatred, "Wu Wuwu Well there is ... have the ability to kill Well kill me! kill me!"

Ambiguous, I can still hear what she said.

"Do you think I dare not?" Ai Tingze was angry, and really grabbed Ai Qianhua's throat, "If I want to die, I will fulfill you now!"

Chapter 669: Life is better than death

Oh shit!

What's the point with a madman!

Since she wants to ruin Ai's family, what kind of sibling relationship does he talk about!

It can be killed directly.

Ai Tingze also had a murderous intention, but he was more scared away.

After all, it's his own sister, who has always had a good relationship, how could it really hurt the killer?

Ai Qianhua barefoot is not afraid of wet shoes, not afraid of death at all, and put her neck into Ai Tingze's hands.

The noble lady who used to be aloof is now completely devoid of elegance, so extreme that she either self-destructs, or pulls everyone to destroy together.

The alarmed old lady was helped out of the room by the night nanny, and she saw a scene of brother and sister cannibalism, and her eyes turned black for an instant.

"Stop it! Stop it!" The crutches hammered the solid wood floor with a bang, and the old lady was so angry that her heart hurts. "Do you have to be mad to stop me?"

The old ladies were all alarmed, Ai Tingze let go with a dark face, and did not let the bodyguard let go of Ai Qianhua, "Bring people up."

"Tingze! She is your younger sister!" The old lady shouted angrily, "I brought Qianhua back to let you, my brother, take good care of you, not for you to treat him like this!"

Ai Tingze took a few steps and went upstairs, supporting the old lady, "Mom, I will talk to you slowly when I go back to the room."

"You let Qianhua go first!" The old lady also had a stubborn temper and didn't dare to go back to the room.

"Mom, do you have to stand here to negotiate terms with me?" Ai Tingze said blankly, "Yes, then stand here and say, Ai Qianhua, I won't let it go, you have to love her, then accompany her With her."

"She is so daring that she wants to run to the team to kill people. I can't ruin Ai's house because of her."

When the old lady heard this, the skin on her face was trembling, she looked at it like a lunatic's daughter like she couldn't believe it, "Qianhua, is what your brother said is true?"

"Let her mouth loose, I want to hear Qianhua tell me personally!"

The daughter she raised is a bit crazy, but she can never be crazy!

The bodyguard received Ai Tingze's wink and pulled out the towel from Ai Qianhua's mouth.

Ai Qianhua, who got panting, screamed, "Mom, elder brother, he wants to put me under house arrest, mom, save me! I don't want to be under house arrest, I don't want to live in Xuancheng any more life than death!"

"Mom! Mom! Save me, save me."

After finding the backbone, Ai Qianhua screamed louder, and did not come back to the old lady's question.

The old lady was not so foolish. She smashed the floor with her crutches for several times. The old voice was so strong that he couldn't refuse, "You answer my question just now! Are you planning to go to the team to make trouble by yourself! Isn't it!"

"Yes! I just want to make trouble! I just want to make trouble! Yanyan is gone, I am just such a daughter who gave birth to her after nine deaths. Now that she is gone, can't I avenge her as a mother?"

"You don't think about it for me, you just don't care if you are doing well! Good! Good! Since you are not at ease, then I will go by myself! Isn't it possible for me to go by myself?"

"My daughter, grandma doesn't hurt, uncle doesn't hurt, even dad doesn't hurt, only my mother is the only one, she only has me!"

"My Yanyan! Yanyan, mother's Yanyan! You just died in your mother's arms and left your mother like this!" The heartbreaking roar, the grief on her face made the old lady cry with him. .

What made the old lady even more distressed was that she was always thinking about her daughter. In the end, the daughter said that she would not ask her.

Yeonyan is gone, isn't her grandmother sad?

Don't you want to avenge Yeonyan?

Chapter 670: Let's destroy it together

In order to avenge Yanyan, her old face shouldn't run over to flatter the old lady of Ye family's junior high rank!

The unsatisfactory old lady looked pale, clutching her chest, and complained word by word, "Inflict evil, make evil! Qianhua, are you digging the flesh in my heart?"

"I didn't care? Don't I feel sorry for Yanyan? Your elder brother sent out for Yanyan and never returned. How can you say that about your elder brother!"

"For Yanyan, who doesn't care about the whole family? In the end, you even blamed the family for not helping you. Do you really want the whole family to be buried together, you will feel at ease!"

"The Ai family can't be buried with you. Your brother has a wife and children, and there are a group of people to support. He can't be buried with him. Just me, this old thing, there is nothing but a handful of old bones. I will go to the funeral. I'll go to the funeral for Yanyan!"

With that, the old lady rushed directly to the handrail on the second floor, preparing to throw herself from the second floor to the first floor.

When she is old, she can still be so absolutely. It can be seen that when Mrs. Ai was young, she was also a rigid temper that could not tolerate sand in her eyes.

Fortunately, Ai Tingze and the babysitter who watched the night reacted quickly, and grabbed the old lady, otherwise Ai's family must have something big tonight.

In the middle of the night, the old lady fainted, and Ai Qianhua didn't make a fuss. She was again gagged by Ai Tingze, and she didn't shut down to the third floor.

The Ai's villa is big enough, with five floors, built on the hillside. The nearest neighbor is also nearly one kilometer away. No matter how loud the noise in the villa in the main building is, it will not be heard by the neighbors.

Sent the old lady to the hospital, and was so busy until two o'clock in the morning Ai Tingze finally took a breath.

The phone rang again.

It is a foreign number, a string of "0", the technology conceals the real number.

Connected, the other party spoke in Mandarin L, "Carl is dead. There is a girl who participated in the arrest of Carl, and the above wants you to secretly put her to death."

"Girl? Is there a picture?" Ai Tingze rubbed his temples, closed his eyes and leaned back in the back seat of the car, "Give me the picture."

Then he said: "I have finished all the problems left by Karl. There is no way to supply Xia Guo for the time being. All routes are blocked. The national police have been keeping an eye on them. I am not loosening my eyes. I plan to go to two nearby neighboring countries to find out. goods."

"Recently, the stocks of Asia are in short supply, and all the stocks are sold at high prices. If you don't hurry to find the goods, the money owners are afraid that they will be dissatisfied."

"We have always believed in your abilities. While looking for goods, be careful of your whereabouts, and don't be targeted by Xia Guo's national police. The most difficult thing in the world is your Xia Guo's national police, which has a very headache."

It was the L State Condor Gang who contacted Ai Tingze, and kept in contact with him once a month to inquire whether there was any new situation.

The Vulture Gang is also very important to Ai Tingze. Over the years, they have also been doing illicit work in Xia country many times, and only Ai Tingze can do things for them.

Very capable, the Vulture Gang hopes that the two sides can always have contacts for mutual benefit and win-win.

Soon, the photo was uploaded to Ai Tingze's phone.

Not a photo taken, but a picture.

I don't know if the painter's skills are not enough, the girl drawn is not very recognizable, but...

Keep an eye on the one eyebrow that is most clearly drawn. The more I look at it, the more familiar it becomes.

I always feel as if I have seen it somewhere.

It didn't feel like a young girl's eyebrows. He hadn't seen a girl whose eyes were so cold, cold enough to look like a robot that could only kill people.

Cold enough to look like a robot that can only kill people?

Has he seen similar eyes somewhere?
