

Goddess 681

Chapter 681: Goddess fights, fierce

The captains of the two teams are still naive, and the two goddesses are already looking for a fight.

If Ye Jian didn't say anything about the bright dagger, An Xia would fall behind again.

With a backhand drawn to his waist, it also revealed a sharp, cold dagger.

It's been a long time since I used this thing. If Ye Jianliang hadn't come out, she would have almost forgotten that she still had a dagger.

The cold weapon came out, and the momentum changed drastically.

Just now, I was just smiling, it was the joy of my friends reuniting.

In front of him, the God of War is back, kill! No pardon!

So pound and thin, swept across with a destructive aura, and the special fighters of the snowy and broken wolf teams watching the battle all around were fiercely excited.

The members of the Powolf Brigade had already heard about An Xia early in the real-time video transmission of Cheng Ming in the special education.

Of course, seeing it is better than hearing it!

"Hey, this, this, this...this is Miss An? This is a murderous god! How come you look like Jiao Didi, a weak and feeble lady rich!"

"Is she a rich lady? If you don't tell me, I forgot."

"Miss authentic giants, young ladies, but she has a miserable life experience. Being in a small giants, she has never enjoyed a blessing." This is Cheng Ming's voice. He knows Anxia better than the other fighters.

Not much, just a little bit more.

The special fighters of the two teams have tied all 76 fighters aside, and the two teams sent two special fighters to keep an eye on them. The other team members have found places to watch the battle, and they can communicate openly and quietly, without the need for anymore. I wonder if "Xiaoyuer" will hear it.

"You said, can the blue bird win?" The brother of the Yibao wolf brigade asked in a low voice.

Then...

The public channel exploded.

The members of the Snow Brigade quit.

Recovering from the shock, they all said: "Don't, brother, the blue bird of our team is not a vegetarian. If you win or not, let's enlarge the situation and communicate friendly, regardless of whether you win or lose."

I said so, but!

They don't think so in their hearts, who have always protected shortcomings.

Bro Wolf, what do you mean?

Is it that the blue bird is not good?

How can it be!

Their blue bird is the best.

Definitely win.

The win is stable.

However, it cannot be said.

Because their blue birds are particularly low-key, they are doing good things, and they don't leave their names on their sleeves.

"It doesn't matter whether you win or not, it's important to communicate, to deepen your relationship, and to help each other."

"Well, blue bird, she is not very talkative, she is also a serious female fighter, she will go all out for everything, and if it hurts later..."

Before the words were finished, countless coughs came from the public channel.

"Cough cough cough, cough cough cough..."

"Cough cough cough, cough cough cough..."

"Cough cough cough, cough cough cough..."

There were coughs, one after another, as if all the special fighters of the Snowy Brigade had caught a cold in a second, and their throats were itchy and dry, and they had to cough a few times.

Someone, you said something wrong!

How could the blue bird hurt people?

will not!

It is really going to hurt, that is also a misunderstanding, not intentional.

The special fighters of Broken Wolf are not vegetarian either. The main reason is that their captain Mu Chenyuan is not vegetarian either. Naturally, all the fighters brought out are not vegetarian.

Hearing this, smiled.

He laughed and said friendlyly: "That's natural. An Xia is still a new fighter. She just joined the team for three months and a few days. She is ignorant of everything. It's rare to have such a good opportunity to communicate. She, she definitely will. Go all out."

"What hurts or not, it won't."

Chapter 682: Short protection

My own fighters, my own pain.

There should be some sort of noodles, whoever has the shortcomings can not be less.

Although An Xia has not formally joined the Wolf Wolf, in their hearts An Xia is a member of the Wolf Brigade.

Must be guarded.

"The little girl is kind and soft-hearted, and even an ant is reluctant to trample to death, just in case she gets nervous, she doesn't pay attention to the severity of the action, and it really hurts..."

It is estimated that the temperature dropped even lower in the middle of the night. The special fighters of the Wolves Brigade were blowing a cold wind for a long time. One or two of them also caught a cold. In the public channel, there was another cough.

"Cough cough cough, cough cough cough..."

"Cough cough cough, cough cough cough..."

"Cough cough cough, cough cough cough..."

At night, compressed biscuits should not be eaten too much, too dry, not drinking water in time, and sore throat. At this time, it is very itchy, and it is only after a few coughs.

In order to protect the shortcomings of their team members, the two special fighters drew a thousand catties in a graceful manner, poking you and me to confront each other.

The captains of the two teams who had ended their confrontation spoke at the same time.

Mu Chenyuan said calmly: "There are many words."

The cough in the channel disappeared in seconds.

Xia Jinyuan was lazy, and smiled gracefully: "Isn't it fragrant to watch the battle? If you talk too much, you are not afraid of biting your tongue."

I completely forgot what he said just now, which is quite a lot.

The captain who talks less brings a group of fighters who talk less, naturally, the captain who talks more brings a group of fighters who talk more.

The members of the Broken Wolf team stopped talking.

The members of the Snowy Brigade heard the words and continued to speak.

"Watching and chatting is not impulsive. It's great to watch while chatting."

"Hey, it's just a pack of melon seeds."

"There are no melon seeds, there are stones, or else, give your old man a stone?"

"Fuck! You just ate the stones."

"There are so many stones and minerals. If you don't move, just lick it. You can happily beat the old gods while you lick it."

There are not so many words.

Until the captain Xia Jinyuan let out a cool chuckle, all the voices stopped abruptly, as if the channel was silent.

Sorry, there are a lot of words today.

The main thing is that they are so nervous watching the game.

Tensions never before.

Because they discovered that An Xia, a new soldier guarded by Bro Wolf Brothers, was really, amazing!

Speed and strength do not lose the Jade Bird at all.

What made them even more frightened was that An Xia's close combat is the cruelest fighting martial art in the world: Ma Jia Shu!

Maga-shu absorbs the essence of various martial arts such as judo, wrestling, boxing, and so on. Therefore, fighting skills are extremely vicious. There are everything to kick the crotch, dig your eyes, and hit the throat.

"It's not the same as Maga technique." K7 said, and the dull voice pierced everyone's ears. Because the voice was too grounded, it shocked the special fighters of the two teams.

Yingque of Polang took the words, "It's really different. She combined the dagger assassination with the Maga technique, which is her own fighting technique."

Self-made fighting skills?

The two teams' gazes are tight, it is easy to learn, but it is extremely difficult to create one!

Can Anxia create his own?

K7 said, "Well, create your own."

Even K7 said that it was self-made, and it was 100% self-made.

"Quickly, learn a few tricks quickly!"

"Remember actions, remember actions!"

The special fighters of the two teams reacted quickly to the thieves. Hearing the words, they reminded them to learn quickly.

It turns out that they taught these "little fishes" to be humans. They never expected that the clowns were themselves, and they learned from "little fishes" Anxia!

Ye Jian also found out.

She is good at assassinating in close quarters, and at the moment when she reveals her dagger, she is very serious about communicating with An Xia.

Chapter 683: Go all out

The two hit it off, but they never knew each other in terms of combat strength.

A rare opportunity, Ye Jian, who is serious about doing things, didn't want to miss it.

Similarly, An Xia thought so.

Go all out to be worthy of Ye Jian's seriousness.

In the thin moonlight, with the sharp blade facing outwards, with An Xia's fierce attack, a clear cold light could be seen passing by Ye Jian's arm.

"Here..."

The waterproof, moisture-proof, wear-resistant and quick-drying desert training break immediately made a long cut, the fabric was cut, and the special fighters of the snow brigade tightened their backs instantly.

This is the second time they have encountered such a powerful female fighter since Jade Bird.

Its ruthlessness does not lose Ye Jian.

Without saying a word, everyone stared at the two slender figures fighting fiercely. Whether it was a counterattack or an offense, the contest between the two was the real life-and-death contest on the battlefield.

No water, no randomness, only seriousness.

Seriously treat the other party as your opponent, seriously put the other party in your eyes, and conscientiously compete.

Two steps back, An Xia waved his dagger again. At the same time, her right leg was ready to go, and she was ready to kick Fei Ye Jian at the right time.

Ye Jian is also a fighter who likes to attack.

The best defense is always offense, and defense after defense may eventually be suppressed by others time and time again.

She knew that An Xia had been looking for a chance to defeat her.

Similarly, she is also looking for.

The night was deep and the stars flickered, Ye Jian finally found a chance.

Pretending to make a defensive mistake, his body suddenly turned to the outside, An Xia's right leg that had been prepared, like a rattlesnake hidden in the desert, swept towards Ye Jian.

The Bro Wolf brothers were so nervous that they immediately held their breath.

The brothers of the Snowy Brigade flashed a smile in their eyes.

Jade Bird, she has a good temper and few words, but that doesn't mean she won't cheat!

She is as smart as a blue bird now. Since J5 left, she has become the deputy captain of the Snow Region through her own efforts, and she often defies King Q.

Occasionally, there will be a whole Q King, until Q King only gets his mobile phone, he will immediately complain loudly and coquettishly in the group, saying that he does not love him, and that he is too cruel, which hurts his guard.

vomit! ! !

Far away, let's take a good look at how the deceitful Blue Bird defeated An Xia.

Just waiting for the corner of Ye Jian's mouth to rise a little at this moment, an incredible body appeared from the fallen side of the body, soft to the waist without bones, and suddenly leaned back, the right leg exerted force, and the left leg moved faster and more fiercely. He kicked An Xia's chin fiercely.

People also rise into the sky.

The brothers of the Snowy Brigade clenched their fists!

Success or failure in one fell swoop!

An Xia also smiled.

It's cold, it's cold, and the corners of the mouth are drawn up.

Right before Ye Jian's left leg kicked her chin, everyone's eyes widened at the moment when Powolf brigade was so nervous that his heart jumped into his throat, thinking that An Xia was about to be kicked.

Oh shit!

Oh shit!

Oh shit!

Is this also possible? ? !

I saw An Xia actually came to a posture exactly like Ye Jian.

The waist leaned back like an arched bridge, and then turned back into the air...

"Boom!! Boom!"

When they landed, the combat boots on their feet came into a confrontation.

In the collision of force and force, the two of them did not land steadily, but turned upside down and then rolled on their backs. Only then did they risk kneeling on one knee, supporting the knee with one hand, and supporting the ground with the other, back to back to stabilize themselves.

After stabilizing, the two of them froze a little, and faintly heard the gasp of each other's mouth.

Chapter 684: Almost kicked me out

An Xia pressed his sore right leg and inhaled several times, "Your kick almost didn't kick me to waste."

The voices trembled with pain to a terrible level.

Ye Jian is the same in that room.

For a few seconds, Li Li's facial features were painful and distorted, "You almost kicked me out of use, and I will have maneuver training next, kicking me out of use, and delaying my training together, I'm going to rely on you."

It turned out to be Hexun, no wonder I met.

Then let's make a quick decision.

An Xia's eyes burst into battle, and this time, it was her turn to surprise her!

Come, fight again!

If something happens, no one should be responsible.

I only recognize my own strength!

The members of the Polang and Xuelang teams were dumbfounded.

This kind of soft and ruthless movement, their steel-like body really can't do it!

The scene was silent, and the eyes of the two female fighters were completely immersed in the wonderful fighting.

Xia Jinyuan slowly loosened her clenched fist, and said to Mu Chenyuan beside him: "An Xia, it's really amazing. The two are tied."

"The blue bird is a role model for all our male fighters." Mu Chenyuan let out a long sigh of relief, "Very powerful female fighter."

After the two talked, they didn't know if they thought of a certain point together, and turned their heads at the same time.

Mu Chenyuan's temperament was restrained, and he didn't immediately say it in his mind.

As for Xia Jinyuan, at the critical moment, he is a very reliable special fighter who is more stable than the mountain. Usually, in Ye Jian's words, he is so angry that he sometimes wants to punch him.

He looked at the handsome young captain who looked like a sword out of its sheath, his thin lips slowly raised, "I think we are also very good."

Which way is it great?

Naturally looking for a girlfriend, very good.

Men all over the world would be envious of finding a very powerful girlfriend.

Point your face, King Q!

Mu Chenyuan couldn't say what he said so much.

Not to say, but nodded.

Well, he also thinks he is great.

An Xia hadn't walked into everyone's field of vision, he had already found her.

Xia Jinyuan glanced at the figure who had been fighting again, moved a little closer to Mu Chenyuan, and said: "Come on, Team Mu, hurry up to confirm the name before the rivalry appears. Otherwise, you will be afraid."

He still doesn't tell the experience of the people who have come.

Mu Chenyuan thinks too!

What he wants is not a name.

However, An Xia didn't care about these at all, what she wanted more was... his body.

After being quiet for a few seconds, Mu Chenyuan nodded slightly.

Well, he will come on.

The two chatted like this, completely forgetting Fu Siling next to him.

Until Xia Jinyuan heard a soft hoot, King Q, who had experienced many battles, gave a slap in his heart.

That's it!

I just saw that I was too involved, and I put my cousin aside.

Fortunately, nothing wrong was said.

Pretending that nothing happened, Xia Jinyuan continued to watch with a calm face.

Fu Siling screamed again, "He did a bad thing in the past, but now I'm teaching bad Captain Mu again? Team Xia, do you want to show your face?"

Do you care or ignore it? They are all propositions.

The wise Xia team turned around and said serious nonsense, "Given that there are many men and young women in today's society, I think that once you run into what you like, you must hurry up and take action.

"Especially girls like Blue Bird, rare treasures, all of them want to get back. I have to be cheeky to get there, not cheeky, maybe I'm single now."

Chapter 685: Alas, poor single dog

I don't know if my cousin is single.

Alas, a single dog can't realize the joy of having a good girlfriend.

Fu Siling's face was a little better with a dark face.

Although his relationship with Ye Jian's relatives is a bit far away, when you calculate it carefully, he and Ye Jian's generation are just five clothes, and they are already very far away.

That is, Mr. Fu, Niangen, brought his granddaughter Ye Jian back to his hometown to list the genealogy. He happened to go home on vacation, and because he was also a soldier, his relationship with Ye Jian was much deeper.

Lao Fu is the direct line of the Fu family. The direct line has always been thin, and it has always been a single pass. It was passed down to the generation of cousin Ye Jian. If it weren't for a chance to recognize each other by chance, the direct line would be broken when it was passed down to the generation of Uncle Fu.

Fu Jiazong's family affection, since Ye Jian is the only daughter's family, as a cousin, of course she needs to take care of herself.

By the way, I have to warn some people that they dare to be bad to the cousin, and whether he is the prince of the Xia family in the capital, he still dares to kill him!

"It's good to know that the blue bird is good, dare to be bad to her..." Tonight, cousin Fu Siling showed his fist for the first time to warn Xia Jinyuan, "I will kill you."

The warning fell to Xia Jinyuan's ears, not a warning, but an approval.

Immediately Cong Shanru said: "My cousin's fist, it's impossible to hit me in this life."

How could he not be nice to the blue bird?

Mu Chenyuan's lips pressed tightly because of the conversation between the two.

He likes the girl An Xia, but her family only wants her life.

It's ok.

As long as she nodded, he would take her back to Mu's house and make her the favorite of Mu's family.

The missing family affection will definitely be found in Mu's house one by one.

Looking at the still vigorous figure, Mu Chenyuan's eyes were as dark as Yongye, and the cold-faced person hid all his tenderness under Yongye-like eyes, waiting for one day, tenderness is only for one person. And bloom.

The two people who became the topic of discussion for everyone, the dagger and the dagger collided, and the sharp sound that smashed, like a series of invisible sword energy, instantly tore everyone's eardrums and caused pain.

An Xia attacked, and Ye Jian defended again. This time the two faced off with a dagger.

See who can hit the dagger in the opponent's hand first.

Two ruthless eyes met, and the two female fighters with all looks like a murderous * came to the world, and the scarlet in their eyes, like the fire of hell, vows to burn each other to ashes.

"Hey!"

An Xia was pushed away by Ye Jian, and in the next second, Ye Jian attacked fiercely.

The tip of the dagger pointed at An Xia's throat.

At that moment, Mu Chenyuan's pupils tightened.

Just when he thought An Xia should avoid his hind legs, but unexpectedly, An Xia actually came directly on the face!

The tall and straight body stretched like an arrow bow, as if it would rush out in the next second.

Bro Wolf and the brothers of Snow Territory, their hearts were beating so wildly that they couldn't bear it.

What a special thing!

Not only don't hide, but also greet us!

That's too tiger!

They are so scared.

Ye Jian also didn't expect An Xia to greet her head-on, but she didn't release the water because of it.

Soldiers are not tired of swindling, and sometimes greet, but swindle.

The dagger held horizontally in his hand became a straight grip at the moment Anxia faced him, like holding a sword, with the dagger pointing straight up in the sky.

"Hey!!!"

There was another knock like eardrum tearing, and An Xia's straight dagger blocked the tip of the knife stabbed by Ye Jian.

"Ye Jian, your dagger can't be kept." At night, An Xia, who was hazy, had a smile that was tainted with gunpowder smoke at the corner of her mouth.

The smile is shallow, but cold and biting.

The dagger in his hand turned with his wrist, and I didn't know how to change his tricks. The blade groove suddenly hooked Ye Jian's dagger handle, and then turned it back fiercely...

Chapter 686: Or let go

At that moment, the special fighters of the Snowy Brigade knew that the dagger in Blue Bird's hand could not be kept.

It is said that wealth is sought in danger, and this victory is also sought in danger.

How could I know that An Xia used such a fierce, life-saving way to let the dagger in the blue bird's hand fall off.

But An Xia did not win either.

In order to protect his hand from stabbing, Ye Jian released the dagger in his hand, but at the moment when he released it, his hands suddenly wrapped around An Xia's hand, and smiled slowly, "An Xia, your dagger can't be kept either."

The two daggers were all released, and then they fell to the ground with a bang, and the two fighting men were hanged to death and no one could do anything.

So far, this round is over.

For a tie.

After having a good time, the two twisted together looked at me and I looked at you. Ye Jian first said, "Why don't you let go together?"

"One, two, three!" Following An Xia's command, the two let go after shouting 'three'.

All of their strength suddenly lost support. After bending over to pick up the dagger, the two of them made the same movement and lay directly on the ground.

God lay down at the same time, seeing this, the two couldn't help laughing anymore.

"Just now, I almost ended up in your hands." Ye Jian smiled and sighed with emotion, "I was thinking at the time, it ended up like this, it's a shame."

An Xia's ruthlessness is what she lacks at the age of eighteen.

And her combat experience is beyond the reach of the eighteen-year-old.

An Xia panted heavily, staring at the starry sky with bright eyes, and the moonlight fell in her eyes, as cool as water, "I don't think it is a loss. It doesn't matter if I can fight like this, it doesn't matter if I die."

In life and death, An Xia was very indifferent.

Live, work hard to live, do what you can, and fulfill your responsibilities.

If you die, you will have no regrets in this life.

The two are lying side by side, even if they are full of rocks underneath, they didn't feel uncomfortable. In this way, blowing the wind, admiring the stars and cold moon, and having a friend with him, fortunately, happy!

Xia Jinyuan's voice came from Mai Li, "Are you talking first?"

He couldn't bear to bother when the confrontation was over and there was follow-up communication.

Ye Jian just remembered that there were teammates beside him, and smiled: "A draw, you can let go. Let's talk for another five minutes, you can figure it out."

Mu Chenyuan silently retracted his raised foot.

Let's talk for another five minutes, right? Then he will wait.

Brother Xia Jinyuan comforted him, "Forbearance, five minutes will pass quickly. Let's talk about the fighting technique created by An Xia just now with Instructor Fu."

Very valuable, textbook-like existence.

Five minutes is not enough to talk about business.

They could endure for another five minutes, and Ye Youyin couldn't wait for five seconds.

Who are these people!

"Can you tell us what we are? What exactly are you trying to do when you tie us all up in the middle of the night? Can you give us an idea?"

The struggle was unsuccessful, instead, his wrist was strangled by the tied rope, and Ye Youyin did not use brute force to resist.

These people don't eat her style at all.

The four special fighters who were watching them did not hear, and continued to stand until Ye Jian said that she and An Xia had a tie. The V8 from the Snowy Brigade said indifferently: "In five minutes, you will be free."

"Why five minutes later? Why not now? Why on earth are you attacking us?" Ye Youyin was unwilling to figure it out and asked again and again.

I have no patience to ask about V8.

The strength is not so good, why is his mouth so broken, so babble, I hear his ears hurt.

Chapter 687: Hangman like them

Mime private 687

The special fighters of the Snow Territory Brigade have one thing in common. They especially don't like those who don't have any abilities, but they want to be self-righteous and keep pushing.

Especially the fighters.

Fighters of this type are directly on their blacklist.

Ye Youyin is now on the V8 blacklist.

But considering that the opponent is a female fighter again, V8 is out for the time being.

No matter what Ye Youyin said, he could not hear it.

Ye Youyin's anger was even greater.

No anger, she can't be angry, she has to communicate well.

"Beheading and having a bowl of decapitation rice, now, I just want to figure out why you are attacking, can't it be said?"

"You refuse to communicate now. I have reason to suspect that the target of your sneak attack was wrong! With your strength, you succeeded in attacking us. It's too simple!"

Ye Youyin is very smart. Since the other party refused to communicate with her, he was forced to communicate with herself.

What is the best way to force people to speak?

Naturally it is a misunderstanding.

She wouldn't be stupid enough to frame her, and she wouldn't be stupid enough to assert that the other party made a mistake.

Just stand on your own perspective and raise your own doubts.

Her eyes were like a little sparkle, Ye Youmiao stared at the man standing next to him for a moment, and the man who was so violent that she could not breathe smoothly, waited for his answer.

She must know if these people catch them, whether it has something to do with the assessment.

V8 was so quarreled by her that her temples burst.

But it was not fooled.

If there is anything to say, my master disdains to explain.

He is the "enemy". When did he meet the enemy and explain to the prisoners?

It's a bit clever, knowing to force myself to speak.

Ye Youyin didn't think that the other party could be so calm.

For a while, she couldn't help it.

Who are they!

Is it related to the assessment?

Where is An Xia?

Did she escape?

If it had something to do with the assessment, An Xia escaped, and all of them arrested...

The cold face became darker, and a very uncomfortable breath lingered all over his body.

It was this gloomy breath that made V8 finally bow his head, frowning and glanced at her.

Sweeping his gaze, even if the night was shrouded in darkness and his face was unclear, the horrible cold bursting out of those eyes made Ye Youyin's body tremble fiercely.

The look in that look was like an executioner on the execution ground, his sword swung down and the head fell.

Ye Youyin, who had a cold neck, didn't dare to say any more, and gave up idioms.

Along with her, Miao Hai and the other teams were members of the No. 1 team. The resistance of the No. 1 team was the fiercest and was the latest to be subdued.

Until now, even if Miao Hai's hands were tied, he had no intention of binding and squatting honestly.

Originally, Ye Youyin kept talking, which distracted the other party's attention to a certain extent, but at this moment, that line of sight swept over them one by one, and the momentum was like a mountain of pressure, and he had to pause and unwind the rope.

Five minutes, he only had five minutes, and he had to let Ye Youyin speak again to divert the person's attention.

Secretly, Miao Hai gently touched Ye Youyin with his elbow, motioning her to continue talking.

Ye Youyin, with a gloomy face, was wondering in her heart, she was shocked when her shoulder was bumped, but she didn't immediately react to how to come back.

After being touched for the second time, his eyes moved slightly, guessing what the other party meant when he hit him.

Then, I touched her three more times.

Do you want her to continue talking?

Why don't they say it by themselves!

Chapter 688: It's a miserable end

Especially that Miao Hai, wasn't he the happiest before?

Also make excuses for An Xia.

Ah!

Why do you beg Ye Youyin in turn now?

It can be seen that this person's memory is really bad, so if she persuades her, is it possible to let herself ignore the previous quarrels?

Miao Hai also wanted to speak by himself. He spoke before and evoked a beating.

At this moment, the lower abdomen is still painful, and the chest cavity is faintly painful after breathing.

The same goes for several other fighters.

There was a slight resistance, and his fists were like hammers, all smashed on them.

All of them are honest.

Never thought about it!

Ye Youyin said so many things, nothing happened!

She has to speak again to divert the other's attention so that they can seize the last five minutes and relax secretly together.

After nudging Ye Youyin's back several times, there was no response. Miao Hai didn't find Ye Youyin any more. The combatants tried to stay close together, folded their hands at extremely strange angles, and tried to break free.

However, V8 guarded like an evil spirit. When Miao Hai and the others moved, V8 immediately noticed, without saying anything, he lifted his foot and kicked Miao Hai directly.

Xiao Yu'er, don't have the ability to get away under the eyelids of the "enemy", and finally be good.

Otherwise, it is yourself that suffers.

Kick to Miaohai and plant straight down.

They were all thrown on a slope, and Miao Hai stepped down again. He planted down on his side, which eventually caused the seven * together to plant down together.

Ye Youyin broke her mouth when she fell.

The anger in my heart could no longer be suppressed, and it spewed out like a volcano.

"What do you want to do! An Xia! An Xia! You quickly contact Instructor Fu and ask what is going on! These people are very likely to have caught the wrong person!"

V8: "..."

Earlier he thought that this female fighter was a little clever and knew to force himself to speak.

Now, her cleverness is wrong.

He grinned, bared his teeth, and showed cold teeth like wild beasts. The sharp teeth of tiger teeth can bite off all the meat with one bite.

"You can eat anything, but you can't talk nonsense. Caught the wrong person? Do you think we are catching the wrong person? I didn't talk to you because you are now a prisoner. Do you know what will happen to a prisoner after being caught? "

The voice was also fierce, so hard that Ye Youyin hit a spirit when she heard it, and fear and panic began to occupy all of her thoughts.

Didn't catch the wrong person, and said that they were prisoners, then An Xia... An Xia escaped, wouldn't An Xia win? !

"The prisoner's end is very miserable..." As he said, V8 suddenly lifted his foot and shot again.

Under the moon, Ye Youyin's screams penetrated the night, and sound waves spread out several meters.

The outside of her iliac knee joint was stepped on by V8, and her strength sank. The screaming Ye Youyin only felt that her knee joint seemed to be broken.

"This hurts? I haven't worked hard yet. I want to know who we are? Why do we want to arrest you? Yes, you can take it and let me tell you."

"We just came here to catch you and respect you. Alas, as a result, I really didn't expect that after An Xia, everyone else was just a rookie."

"What about you, don't think about dragging An Xia into the water. You are weak and can't escape. Don't you allow others to be strong and run away?"

"Don't call An Xia to save you for a while, call An Xia to be a deserter, and then call An Xia to vent the letter, what do you always call others to do? If you have the ability to do it yourself."

"Look, see, see, I don't speak, you keep pressing, I am talking, you are dark again, and you blame me for speaking badly. Female combatant, you are very clever, so clever to make people surprised."

Still very subtle, not directly saying that Ye Youyin is too smart to be bad.

Chapter 689: I'll go see my people first

No matter how subtle it is, how could Miao Hai and the others not understand it?

Originally, they also thought that Ye Youyin had a problem.

An Xia told them earlier that they would run if they didn't win. The result?

Ye Youyin said that there were no deserters on the battlefield, and instantly made the other fighters think that An Xia wanted to escape.

An Xia never thought of fleeing.

The other party came premeditated, and they didn't have any preparations, only to get out and then deal with it.

With the opponent's strength, it is actually difficult for the combatants to get away. An Xia also thought that one could go one by one, but Ye Youyin jumped out and stepped on An Xia to advertise himself. This made Miao Hai and the others quite annoyed.

The anger has been suppressed, digested by himself, and did not vent.

Now, hearing the people who caught them educate Ye Youyin so much, Miao Hai and the others are finally comfortable.

Ye Youyin was uncomfortable at all.

His face was blue and white, his neck was stubborn, and he said coldly: "You don't want to make a difference here! Don't press the set you came up with out of your own mind!"

"Now I'm caught by you, if you want to kill, you have to follow you!"

In my heart, the stormy sea.

Since the wrong person was not caught, it must have something to do with the assessment.

Just now, she really should have found An Xia first, and dragged her to let her be caught together!

Now that she is running away alone, she must have added points.

Five minutes and two minutes.

Ye Youyin flies like a year.

In the end, Miao Hai and the others did not get away, and it was impossible for those small movements to be hidden from V8.

An Xia and Ye Jian were almost adjusted, An Xia turned her head and asked Ye Jian, "Get up?"

"Repose?" Ye Jian asked with a smile, the sweat on the forehead slipped down and disappeared into the temples.

An Xia nodded, "Well, five minutes will be here."

"It's still a minute away, do you want to know the captain of our team? I mentioned to you last time, he was also on the scene." Ye Jian began to sacrifice the hue of the Xia team.

Don't sacrifice at this time, but when will you stay!

An Xia didn't have much interest anymore, "Easy to get to know? If it's convenient, you can see it."

She still remembered that Blue Bird said that her captain had a good life.

It's a pity that she has met Mu Chenyuan and confirmed that she likes his model. No matter how handsome other people are, she feels ordinary.

Ye Jian got up and stretched out a hand to lift An Xia.

Listening to this tone, Team Xia didn't have the opportunity to sacrifice hue.

"Convenient, besides being the captain of my team, he has another identity." While speaking, Ye Jian had already closed his microphone and leaned into An Xia's ear to say a few words.

Hearing this, An Xia raised her eyebrows.

Boyfriend.

This time, she became interested, "Let's see."

Jade Bird's boyfriend, Team Xia, she didn't see it for the first time. The man she fancied, Mu Chenyuan, the captain of the Powolf Team, she caught it at a glance!

At one time I thought I should be dazzled.

Blink, blink again, the person is still there, and walked towards him.

An Xia turned his head to Ye Jian, and said to Ye Jian, "Your man, I'll look at it later. I'll go and see my man first."

"..." Ye Jian looked at the three people walking side by side, Team Xia, Mu Chenyuan, and one of them must be cousin Fu Siling, smiling and chasing An Xia, "together."

In An Xia's eyes, only Mu Chenyuan, and the other two who were in the same group, I am sorry, they did not exist in her eyes.

Mu Chenyuan was still walking calmly. Seeing An Xia suddenly quickened his pace and walked towards him, he realized that he was blessed to the soul, and said to the two of them: "Sorry, take a step first."

How to make An Xia one step faster? It should be that he walked to her first.

Mu Chenyuan, who was resuscitated, had terribly high emotional intelligence.

Chapter 690: My heart rejoices

Although Mu Chenyuan had seen Anxia in the dark, and was able to stay calm and watched the Anxia assessment throughout the entire process, even in the round up just now, Mu Chenyuan's focus was to observe whether Anxia could cope with the special fighters freely. .

He has always been very clear about public and private.

The judgment will never be affected by personal feelings.

But at this moment, he has been very calm as the two of them are getting closer and closer, all the calmness and self-sufficiency have become bubbles, seeing the wind, seeing her, and disappearing.

The pace also began to change.

From the initial calmness to the stride meteor, and finally to the trot, until finally standing in front of her, I saw her pair of snow-washed, cold and clear black eyes, and also saw the love and joy that the black eyes did not hide.

"How did you come?"

An Xia asked first, and Mu Chenyuan took the initiative one step. Naturally, she also had to take the initiative to make it.

People, as the anniversary said, you respect me and I respect you, you can't always let the other person respect yourself.

Respect is too high, and Jing became an ancestor, so it's meaningless.

She thought about it later, she was right.

I always thought it was Mu Chenyuan who took the initiative to her, myself, I would tease him when I think of it, and forget this person at all when I don't want to.

As for what spring is coming, she thinks about it carefully, and it is probably an excuse for her to look at him.

Men, there are so many.

Why is he greedy for this man's body? Well, I want to understand, because I like it, so I am greedy.

There is a smile between the eyebrows, and the eyes that are holding the water wave are smiling and looking at Mu Chenyuan, who is trying to restrain his excitement and keeps calm at all times. Is this guy stupid?

Can't speak anymore?

"Don't speak? Not happy to disagree with me?" The only play factor was all active because of him, and An Xia started to tease him again, "Then I'm leaving."

Mu Chenyuan is still organizing the language.

I was too excited, only her in my eyes, but for a while, my language was blocked, and I obviously had a lot to say, but I couldn't utter a word in my throat at the moment.

She said that she was leaving, and Mu Chenyuan directly started.

Grabbing her wrist, the cold voice calmed down and drifted into Anxia's ears lowly, "I'm very happy, I don't know what to say for a while."

Obviously he is a stalwart special fighter who is indifferent and indifferent to everyone, but as long as he arrives in front of An Xia, he is well-behaved and obedient, changing from a big wolf dog to a little wolf dog.

With the earth-shaking changes, the soldiers of the Wolves Brigade were dumbfounded.

"Quickly, squeeze me." A certain Wolffighter's warrior widened his eyes, and made suggestions to the players around him to make him more sober.

This kind of suggestion was put forward by himself, and the team members who loved each other would never refuse it.

Get started, pinch the meat on the inside of your arm, and twist it hard.

"Oh...hmm..."

The first sound was still painful and the wolf howled, and then the team member who pinched him covered his mouth, "Howling, I want to scare people to death. Shut up, don't say anything."

It's too painful.

He hasn't squeezed to death yet.

The combatant whose arms were all pinched, his mind was completely awake, and he couldn't care about his teammates' black hands, and tremblingly said, "Is that still our captain? Especially two people!"

obedient?

Clever?

Is this their captain?

Absolutely not.

"At first glance, you are just a little kid in love, with no experience. How can the captain treat his girlfriend the same way he treats us? He must dare to treat his girlfriend in the same way he treats us. Sun."

Alas, young man, learn more!

The captain is the captain, extremely clever!
