Chapter 691: On the importance of status

The fighters who despised the team members were quickly beaten back and despised by the other team members.

"Speaking of you as if you have had a girlfriend, what right does Tong Ziji have to say that someone is a lover, he still has three days of online dating? How about you, have you had three hours of online dating?"

!!!

Don't be so insulting!

"Online dating is not love! I have never been in love, but my theoretical knowledge is better than any of you! The captain is now deliberately pretending to be cute in front of An Xia, he, he must know that An Xia likes his cuteness."

"Xiao Caiji, let my brother tell you, this is called "following one's own preference" in love, understand."

The theoretical knowledge is indeed very rich, and I can see Mu Chenyuan's strategy at a glance.

It's a pity that there is no practical experience. Although it is said to be "fitting one's own interests", it is still willing.

Anyway, when the members of the Powolf Brigade saw their house usually cold and cold, they had the captain whose eyes were so sharp that they could kill. At this moment, they were still in a delicate mood when they installed the big-tailed wolf on the face of Anxia.

Sorrowful.

Because the * doesn't change, can't you get the gentleness of the captain?

The captain's gentleness was not available, so he could only stand by and watch.

How could Mu Chenyuan not know that the members of the team stretched their necks and looked at him and An Xia, taking advantage of this moment to rest, he needs to take a real name.

The honest, highly emotionally quotient Mu team remembers the experience of the summer team one by one.

At that time, Xia Jinyuan took great pains to expose his relationship with Ye Jian in order to be able to turn right.

It wasn't until a certain mission that he was washed in the cold snow water, and his relationship with Ye Jian was considered fair and honest, and he didn't hide it anymore.

It's too hard to have a nameless day!

It must be made public as soon as possible.

Let everyone know that he is a master.

An Xia really didn't know the cautious thinking in Mu Chenyuan's heart. At this moment, she was so embarrassed that she was scratching her heart.

"Waiting to find a place to sit?" An Xia took the initiative again. Her initiative has always been based on purpose. When she meets, she pulls a small hand?

The children will meet up and hold hands!

Adults must take actual action!

But at the moment, I definitely can't find a place to sit. The attack hasn't been understood yet, so I have to ask questions.

I wanted to directly ask Mu Chenyuan, think about it, forget it, and ask Fu Siling.

After speaking, he took Mu Chenyuan's big hand and walked towards Fu Siling.

Fu Siling was talking to Ye Jian, "I didn't expect it to be you. Last time I had a goodbye, and I haven't seen it for nearly a year. When will I go home on vacation?"

"I took a vacation and went home not long ago. There will be no vacation in the short term." Ye Jian has only one side relationship with the relatives of Fu's hometown.

Fortunately, she has a good memory, and she can recognize who the other person is when she meets again.

Fu Siling had a lot of contacts because of the fact that they were both fighters.

However, there is still a sense of strangeness.

She has a slow temper and a sense of distance. Even if she is a distant relative, she can't be too close.

Fortunately, Fu Siling is an extrovert and can talk to Ye Jian.

Hearing this, he smiled and said, "Contact me in advance in the next replay, and I will rest together, and take you back to Fu's old house when that time comes. I was in a hurry last time and didn't take you around."

Back then, Fu Lao took his granddaughter Ye Jian back home to the old house, which caused a sensation. Now the old people who are staying at the old house still praise Ye Jian when they mention it.

Just as Ye Jian was about to answer, An Xia came.

Chapter 692: Hand in hand generously

An Xia took Mu Chenyuan over, and the eyes of Ye Jian, Fu Siling, and Xia Jinyuan all fell.

When the brothers and sisters met, they didn't pay much attention to the two people who met again, but never thought that they would hold hands so generously.

In response, Xia Jinyuan gave Mu Chenyuan a thumbs up secretly.

The posterity is awesome!

Thinking back then, he wanted to have the courage of Captain Powolf, and he still needed to worry all day about his lack of status and his rivals would take the opportunity to grab people.

Tsk tusk tusk, the current offspring are much better than their generation.

Dare to pursue and express!

Mu Chenyuan gave his senior a look back to express his gratitude.

Thanks to the Xia team, otherwise, he would also worry about his reputation.

Ye Jian was attentive, glanced at the key, and raised her eyebrows lightly, cheering for her friend's initiative.

Not bad, Xiao Xia Xia!

Hold hands directly.

It was An Xia who held Mu Chenyuan's wrist, and a discerning person knew it was An Xia taking the initiative.

Ye Jian was not as bold as An Xia back then. Her relationship with Xia Jinyuan was kept hidden from the members of the Snow Territory Brigade.

An Xia calmly received the attention of the three of them. As usual, he asked Fu Siling, "What's the matter with the sneak attack? Can you explain it?"

Fu Siling originally wanted to criticize An Xia for not paying attention to the occasion, but when he spoke to his lips, he was swallowed by Mu Chenyuan's cold eyes.

"Take class to you to see if you are vigilant enough, can you react immediately in the face of emergencies, and counterattack quickly."

As a result, Fu Siling was quite dissatisfied.

An Xia asked again, "Does it have anything to do with the assessment?"

"Do you think it will matter?" Fu Siling sneered and asked An Xia, his unhappy eyes fell back.

Over there, all 76 fighters were tied up. If the real enemy attacked the camp tonight, all the others would have died in battle except An Xia.

An Xia knew immediately that it had nothing to do with the assessment.

The strength is not equal, and they are not eligible to be included in the assessment. Don't lower the threshold of the special forces responsible for sneak attacks.

"What's next? Release? Or continue to be * to save yourself?"

Fu Siling's face turned darker when she heard, "Do you think they can help themselves?"

I didn't want to talk anymore, and said directly: "You ask him, he knows."

Mu Chenyuan didn't let An Xia hold his wrist anymore. Instead, he became his slender hand holding An Xia. He explained in a warm voice, "Our two teams came to train together, because they will pass by the Gobi Desert where you are assessed. Arrange for us to practice hands for you."

"If the entire army is annihilated, you will throw everyone into various places in the Gobi Desert and you will have to walk back yourself. If someone finds the blue bird and can get out of the blue bird, this will be avoided."

An Xia understood, it was the man she fancy had articulate, unlike some people who said that he didn't have a point for a long time.

He glanced at Fu Siling disgustingly, and then asked Mu Chenyuan, "Now I have a tie with the blue bird, which is considered a break away. Can the captured fighters be released?"

The disgusted Fu Siling clenched his fist. As an instructor, he was disgusted by the fighters he had assessed!

What to do, I really want to educate her!

Tolerate!

He couldn't beat Anxia, who was as strong as a special fighter.

What's more, the guy holding her hand is also a special special fighter!

It is difficult for him to win one-on-one, let alone one-on-two.

Forget it, Xiaoye Fu is generous and doesn't care about her.

Chapter 693: It's okay don't disturb her

In fact, he really wants to educate An Xia, as long as it is correct, Mu Chenyuan will not stop the education for a reason.

After all, Fu Siling is now Anxia's assessment instructor and should be respected.

Allowing An Xia to lead herself, Mu Chenyuan, who was transformed into a little wolf dog, replied to her, "According to the previous rules, as long as you get away, you can indeed release all the combatants. But now you are in a tie..."

Lifting his eyes, he finally split his gaze to the captain of the Snowy Brigade who had been a transparent person for a long time. Mu Chenyuan asked, "Team Xia, can the captured combatants be released."

Xia Jinyuan, who had a sense of existence again, smiled gracefully and nodded, "Team Mu agrees. I have no objection with Qingniao."

Summer team...

Jade Bird's boyfriend.

An Xia glanced at Ye Jian first, then at Xia Jinyuan.

Look at the tall, facial features, I don't know clearly with the moonlight behind his back.

However, since Jade Bird said that her boyfriend's appearance was a good birth, with Jade Bird's own appearance, coupled with her eyesight, presumably the requirements for Yan will not be low.

That should be pretty handsome.

Just looking at it for a few seconds, Mu Chenyuan got a taste of it.

Holding the hand in his palm tightly, Mu Chenyuan said: "Instructor Fu, if it's okay, An Xia and I will be out of company."

An Xia did not realize that Mu Chenyuan was eating, thinking that he wanted to be alone with him, just like himself.

He also said: "According to the rules, I saved everyone. Now, I am very tired and need a rest. If there is nothing wrong with Instructor Fu, try not to disturb me."

Fu Siling: "..."

I really don't know where An Xia learned from the occasional prestige that high-ranking orders give orders and makes people unconsciously obedient.

Obviously he is an instructor, she is a fighter who needs to be assessed, and after she speaks, she directly becomes her superior.

Try not to disturb her to rest if there is nothing to do?

fine?

How could it be okay!

There are many things!

However, the next thing really has nothing to do with An Xia.

"Don't go far, Lei Lian and they are all nearby. Hearing the whistle, they came and assemble immediately." Fu Siling urged that tonight, An Xia had saved face and came back and said that the whole army would be destroyed and he would laugh out loud.

Although Fu Siling is only an assessment instructor for the combatants, he still hopes that all the combatants participating in the assessment will be very good, able to respond quickly to emergencies, and work together to fight back perfectly from the desperate situation.

Unfortunately, the reality is too cruel, and he is ashamed of the teams that recommended the players to come over.

Participating in the selection of reserve special fighters, the first requirement: recommended fighters must be close to the level of junior special fighters.

All of them must be close to the level of junior special fighters, and the sneak attack tonight will not be so disastrously defeated.

Little novices, wait to be scolded by him!

Fu Siling couldn't wait to rush An Xia away, so he could go over and curse after she was gone.

As for cousin Ye Jian...

"You rest first, I'll finish my work first, and then come to find you." After speaking to Ye Jian, his eyes suddenly sharpened, and he glared at Xia Jinyuan, "You also wait for me."

The cousin is the boss. King Q, who has always been restless, kept a smile on his face, and answered very obediently, "You are busy first."

Even "you" was used, showing how worried Xia Jinyuan was that he didn't take care of his good cousin today. When he turned around, his cousin gave him a short report to his quasi-yue Zhang, and his marriage to Qingniao had to be postponed again.

Seeing that he was fairly honest, Fu Siling nodded, holding the cousin's shelf, and left.

Chapter 694: What should I do, I really want to see

Over there, Mu Chenyuan led An Xia for a long way.

When passing by the soldiers of Powolf Brigade, Mu Chenyuan made a gesture, which meant: Who dares to follow and find death.

Several Wolf Breakers who want to follow: "..."

The plan I wanted to see hadn't started yet, so I was still dead.

"Follow or not?" You Buxu asked.

The first person to refuse was Qi Xingsu, shaking his head into a rattle, "I want to follow you, don't pull me. Every time you do bad things, which time does it happen again? It's not been cleaned up by the Mu team every time."

I really don't know how their brains were born, and they still don't have a long memory after learning a lesson.

Do not change after repeated teaching!

"Really not following? Can you bear it?"

Cheng Ming and Qi Xingsu nodded wildly.

They can bear it.

Because I've seen Team Mu and An Xia holding hands, and I've seen them alone, so I don't have much curiosity.

Wei Ji and Ying Que were not there, they were guarding the captives with the two brothers of the Xueyu Brigade.

Qi Xingsu and Cheng Ming were killed and did not participate.

In the end, there were wolves who were not afraid of death.

Before he died, it was worth seeing how their captain fell in love with the girl.

"True warrior." Qi Xingsu whispered as he watched several people's backs.

Cheng Ming wanted to cry without tears, "Su, they are true warriors, but we are really unlucky. If something happened, we were both fined. We were fined if we didn't watch, and we were fined if we watched, it's better to..."

Turning to look at Qi Xingsu.

Qi Xingsu happened to look at Cheng Ming too, and the two of them met. Finally, Qi Xingsu completed Cheng Ming's last sentence, "It's better to see it!"

I really want to be punished, I watched it anyway!

Then go together.

The two went together.

In the end, the soldiers who became the Wolves Brigade secretly followed.

Not far away, I saw Ye Jian: "..."

At the moment, she especially wanted to ask, when she was in love with Team Xia, were the members of the Snow Territory Team the same?

Secretly follow, hide, and peek.

Xia Jinyuan was also recalling the past, but what he recalled was different from what Ye Jian recalled.

Staring at the two backs that are drifting away, with a lot of emotion, "Back then, I wanted to have the courage of the Mu team, and I would not have such a long underground romance."

Ye Jian laughed when he heard it, pretending to embarrass him, "Why, does the Xia team feel wronged now?"

how come!

"No, no!" The alarm sounded, Xia Jinyuan reacted very quickly, and said solemnly: "I think it's not good to announce it too early, or it is our underground love hobby that was exciting and fresh! So every time I meet you, I'm nervous and excited, and it feels great!"

Team Xia still likes to be serious and silly talk as before.

It was precisely because of him that Ye Jian walked out of the haze little by little, opened her heart to accept him, and allowed him to enter her long imprisoned world like the sun.

After Ye Jian listened, she couldn't bear to embarrass him again.

Yingying smiled between her brows, her black eyes were bright, like starlight, "An Xia fought with me just now, Team Xia, have you seen anything different?"

Speaking of business affairs, Xia Jinyuan's smile narrowed, and the expression on her handsome face was only solemnly cold. "There are a lot of fighting tricks that she creates. Let's go and talk to my brothers."

The snow brigade did not secretly go to watch the captain of the other team to fall in love.

Alas, it's not the age yet, the impulse period of wanting to fall in love has passed.

Chapter 695: Because of you

The average age of the soldiers of the Broken Wolf team is nearly four years younger than the soldiers in the snow.

A group of people followed like thieves, tiptoeing, not daring to make any noise.

I didn't know that it was the boots I lived in that they stepped on the small weathered stone, and there was a cracking sound, and everyone's back was shocked by cold sweat.

"If you don't want to die early, be careful!"

"Stop talking, go!"

"Don't push me, you go in front of me, always push and push, I was pushed by you until the lumbar disc herniated."

In fact, just in case you find out, you can escape faster.

In this way, a group of people secretly poked and followed, so nervous and exciting.

I don't know, their Captain Mu was very guarded, specially looking for a recess, and then An Xia flashed inside, wanting to take a peek?

no way.

With her back against the mountain, An Xia smiled at the man who hadn't forgotten to look around.

Peek at peeking, she doesn't care at all.

Forget it, just care about it.

As the captain, you still have to pay attention to influence.

Just observe for too long to delay the great time.

Don't wait!

An Xia, who didn't want to wait any longer, rushed directly to Mu Chenyuan.

Mu Chenyuan just confirmed that the surroundings are very secluded. Don't worry about being peeked. He hasn't had time to tell An Xia, suddenly, a pounding force came behind him, Mu Chenyuan didn't even think about it, turned around quickly, and steady. Catch An Xia.

This is also thanks to the special fighters with good skills and quick response. They were replaced by ordinary people. They suddenly jumped from behind, staying motionless at most, waiting for the opponent to lie down on his back.

To respond quickly, it is difficult to turn around and hug people.

Holding An Xia, Mu Chenyuan didn't let go.

The girl he loved leaped into his arms, how could he let it go.

Hold tight, the next second, the mouth is also blocked.

As fierce as an emperor, he directly chewed on his mouth.

Adults, just wait to do adult things.

Breathing interlaced, lips and teeth intertwined, as if the whole world is in their arms, they are each other's unique world.

It's just lips and teeth dependent, the wind is strong, the dust is big, and it's cold. There are soldiers eavesdropping outside, and no further things can be done.

The city invaded, and in response to the other's miss, the proactive An Xia was once again dominated by Mu Chenyuan.

Mu Chenyuan was high and his arm strength was amazing. After the kiss was reached, he simply hugged An Xia high.

An Xia's slender legs tightened his thin and powerful waist, and he supported herself. From the kiss with her feet up and her head up, she lowered her head and kissed Mu Chenyuan.

Such a kissing posture, I want to be the ultimate.

Breathing heavier, An Xia tried to regain the initiative and gave the most passionate kiss.

Mu Chenyuan supported her steadily, using his powerful arms to support An Xia with a sky that could make her feel at ease.

Outside, the wolf-breaking fighter who could not see anything was anxious.

"What about people? What about people? Why are you missing? Where are you hiding?"

"I lost it? It's impossible. Just now I clearly saw the two walking here, how could they not see each other?"

"Speak down! Maybe it's nearby."

"Shhh, don't talk, just look for it first."

It's not easy to find someone blinded by a black lamp.

After searching for at least five minutes, no one was found.

Finally, admit that they really lost it!

The fighters engaged in reconnaissance were blasted with a hammer.

Don't be ashamed, don't be ashamed!

Let you follow and lose people.

Don't be ashamed.

In the valley under the mountain, An Xia adjusted her chaotic breathing, lying next to Mu Chenyuan's ears, exhaling like a blue fairy, "Team Mu, are you still reluctant to go out?"

Chapter 696: Next time, I need welfare

Obviously, it was nothing more than a single sentence, but it was a bit off the ground, and An Xia said it was extremely undecent, full of ear-pounding ambiguity.

Mu Chenyuan, who was holding her, immediately suffocated, and his blood poured back into the sky of his forehead.

At that moment, Mu Chenyuan was as solid as a golden city, and he was only a little short of a complete fall.

Hold her tightly and take a few deep breaths in a row to control the surge of breath and blood pressure.

"It's almost time, let's go out." He said hoarsely, his breath was extremely hot, and after speaking, he kissed Anxia's lips softly, "It's time for the gathering on your side, too."

An Xia felt a pity.

At the same time, he also admired Mu Chenyuan's self-control ability.

Obviously he couldn't bear it, he could still stop the car at a critical juncture, adjust himself in the shortest time, and return to normal.

Such a man, if you put it outside, don't worry about him stumbling on female sex.

Because, I can't move at all.

She can't move either!

It moved a little bit, and it was still far away from the collapse of the sky and the earth.

Unfortunately, it failed.

Hanging on Mu Chenyuan like a koala, An Xia continued to sultry, "Why don't you take me out?"

This really caused a problem for Mu Chenyuan.

Take it out, of course he wants to take it out.

but.....

His eyes darkened, with deep guilt, "I'm sorry, Xia Xia, I can't hold you out."

They all have it.

An Xia, with a sultry mind, heard the word "Xia Xia", and the tail vertebra seemed to have a very thin electric current, and she wandered around her body in an instant.

Um, I was electrocuted!

Such an honest man, the cool and mad emperor was reluctant to be embarrassed, holding his handsome face, directly "whipped", kissed his forehead fiercely, and said in a big way: "It's okay, I forgive you. ."

The man I fancy, I have to feel distressed.

Otherwise, others will feel distressed.

Mu Chenyuan's cold eyes were faintly bright, and in the depths, there was a dark surging, the * apple swallowed slightly, and his voice became hoarse, "Sorry, I made you wronged."

"Don't feel wronged, don't feel wronged, just give me more benefits in the future." The emperor, who has been generous once, will continue to be generous again, and smoothly seek benefits for himself.

Mu Chenyuan knew what welfare she was talking about.

"Okay." Nodded and agreed to her without hesitation.

An Xiabin doesn't have a big eye, but she always doesn't care about her own people. What's more, the man in front of her is the man she wants to feel distressed, and she doesn't care too much.

Jumping off of him, An Xia said with a smile: "Then I will remember, next time I will wash it clean and obediently go to the bed and wait for me to beg for welfare."

That's right!

An Xia's welfare is... Well, do something less serious.

Just now she wanted to touch Mu Chenyuan's thin waist, but he was wearing a desert combat uniform, belt, neckline, and lining tightly. She kissed and started, but she didn't touch it!

Good temper.

What adults do, how can they be limited to kissing!

The necessary contact on the body is conducive to the development of mental and physical health. Always be a vegetarian. How can nutrition keep up?

The time and the people are all there, but there is no good place!

An Xiayue said that it didn't matter, and Mu Chenyuan became more guilty, holding her hand tightly and walking out.

If you can't hug her and go out, then take her hand and go out.

He wanted to let Powolf's brothers know his relationship with An Xia.

On the contrary, An Xia didn't leave. "Will this have a bad effect on you?"

Chapter 697: It's miserable, I was found

The front is just teasing him, let him carry himself out.

An Xia was very clear when it came to a juncture.

Mu Chenyuan is the leader of a team. As the team leader, he talked about love during the non-vacation period.

"It's a rest time for the time being, it doesn't matter." Mu Chenyuan also knew in his heart, a few meters away from here belonged to him and An Xia.

Seeing this, An Xia knew that he was a safe temper, so he let himself go out.

Before he fully walked out, An Xia's gaze swept around slightly, and the corners of his mouth slightly raised.

They all guarded and didn't leave.

The hidden wolf warrior flashed, and the cat's waist was hidden.

"Just now, did An Xia glance at us?"

"Please use affirmative sentences, thank you."

You look at me with a few people hidden in the waist of the cat, and I look at you, and can't speak for a long time.

They hide so well, how did An Xia discover it?

And it's still a precise discovery, no need to look for it.

It seemed that she knew where all of them were hiding from the beginning.

"Did you stick out your head too much just now and be seen by An Xia?"

"Fart! I didn't move just now!"

"How did An Xia find us? He also scanned several positions in a row? Are there any brothers hiding those positions?"

Of course there is!

At this moment, like them, the cat's waist was stretched and even its breathing was stretched.

"Found it?"

"She has seen it, do you still need to ask? She must have found us."

"How did you find us? The few of us had hidden here early!"

silence.

"You ask me, who am I asking?!"

I didn't know how I was discovered, the prophet?

An Xia sighed, walking up the gravel.

When Mu Chenyuan heard it, he held her hand tightly, "It's me..."

"It's not you, it has nothing to do with you." An Xia interrupted directly, lest he think too much.

She was sighing the talking wolf-breaking fighters, alas, don't think that she can't hear them when they speak under their breath.

Hear it clearly!

After walking a few more steps, an exclamation came from the side, "Captain? Where did you get out?"

After speaking, he looked to the ground.

Really, their captain got out of the ground.

Mu Chenyuan couldn't bear to watch too much.

Sweeping the line of sight of the combatant was particularly sharp, "Where do I come from, shouldn't you, as a special combatant, reflect on it?"

With a stern expression, he swept away the cuteness in front of An Xia.

The aura is even more cold and compelling, as if the rising tide is coming surgingly, and it instantly swallows all lives.

An Xia slowly drew her hand out of his hand, and in front of her, she still stopped holding hands.

The trained wolf-breaking fighters dare not say anything.

He really needs to reflect on it.

Just now, it was obvious that he followed the captain first, and finally lost it.

At this moment, the captain went out, but he didn't find out in time...

Zhu Yu Shen said: "After the training is over, I wish Yu will receive the penalty!"

An Xia cast a pitiful look at the wolf-breaking fighter.

I can't blame her for losing this kind of thing.

It was her who pulled Mu Chenyuan to this side, and she was the best at reconnaissance and counter reconnaissance.

Also, her hearing is a little more sensitive than others.

For example, with a distance of ten meters as the limit, others can only hear the wind and grass up to ten meters away, while she can hear the wind and grass up to 15 meters away.

Applying this unusual skill to reconnaissance and counter reconnaissance is like a divine aid.

If she wants to be followed closely by Zhu Yu, then her training for almost 20 years in her previous life will be completely ineffective.

How did you break the prestige of the captain without standing up?

Chapter 698: Jinwu lives, where the sunrise is

Mu Chenyuan saw that the fighters knew what he knew, his expression improved a little, and then he apologized to An Xia: "Forgive me, I'm usually rather naive, and there will be some unintelligible behaviors."

"After you join Powolf, get along with them for a period of time, and then you can understand what they are."

He also introduced An Xia, "The codename is Zhuyu, Good assault."

Wish you?

Code name?

She thought it was a name.

As soon as Zhu Yu heard this, he stretched out his hand to shake An Xia. He stretched out his hand halfway, then retracted to take off the tactical gloves, and wiped his hands on his body. Then he stretched out his hand again.

"You, you, you...Hello, I'm Zhu Yu, it's a fairy grass that grows in Sweeping Mountain. After eating it, people won't feel hungry." I don't know how to introduce myself, plus it's a little bit after being trained. Little nervous, Zhu Yu simply introduced the origin of his code name.

An Xia was very confused after hearing this.

The fairy grass that grows in the swaggering mountains? Will people feel hungry after eating?

"Is there still this kind of grass?" An Xia asked curiously.

The emperor who was born in the imperial domain and grew up in the imperial domain, who knew very little about the civilization of the Xia country, really hadn't read the "Shan Hai Jing".

Mu Chenyuan did not expect that she would ask this question, and a smile flashed in his eyes, "There is no reality, only in the "Shan Hai Jing". The code names in our team are all taken from the ancient gods, fairy grass, etc. ."

"Shan Hai Jing", An Xia knew about it.

She hadn't read it, but she knew that Xia Guo had such a strange book.

She had watched a future movie made by Xia Guo, and "Shan Hai Jing" was mentioned in the movie, which sounded quite interesting, and she also thought that she would have to watch it when she had time.

Later, I got busy and left it behind. Later, I was completely disinterested.

Recalling it today, An Xia wanted to watch it again.

Huh?

Does Mu Chenyuan also have a code name?

I really don't know what Mu Chenyuan's code name is. I thought they didn't have a code name, and they all called their real names directly.

"What about your code name? What is it?"

Zhu Yu wanted to answer this question for his Mu team.

But An Xia didn't ask him, what he asked was Team Mu.

"Fusang, one of the sacred trees of the Xia Kingdom, where the Golden Crow lives, where the sunrise is, is for Fusang." Mu Chenyuan explained his code names, and informed them of the code names of Wei Ji, Ying Que, Cheng Ming, and Qi Xingsu. And explain.

After listening to the interpretation, An Xia was very interested.

Then she will have to take an atmospheric code name, preferably with the word "di".

Looking back, she bought a copy of "Shan Hai Jing" and slowly turned it over, preparing in advance.

The two of them talked as they walked outside, and Zhu Yu, who followed behind, dodged and avoided.

He followed behind, feeling like a big electric light bulb, which was an eye-catcher.

Dodged and walked towards the shadows that Guigui Chongchong wanted to escape.

Approaching, glared at them fiercely, his voice pressed tight, and said in a breath: "Where did you die just now! One and two all hide and not move!"

Let him stand alone in the captain's anger, and his knees are frightened.

"Quite your breath, clear your breath, we were scared just now."

"What are you scared of? I was the captain who trained me." Zhu Yu grinded his teeth. "I promised to follow along secretly. In the end, I was the only one looking for it!"

this.....

Isn't this thinking that people are very moving, and that they have not been found to be able to watch a good show.

Seeing that Zhu Yu was so active in finding people, let him find the exact location first, and then they would come out.

I don't know!

Zhu Yu has been looking for a long time but has not found the captain.

I knew that Zhichu would continue to explore the way ahead. He was engaged in reconnaissance, and asking him to find someone would be better than Zhu Yu, who is good at assault.

Chapter 699: Listening position

Faced with Zhu Yu's questioning, the four shadows were also wronged.

Explained: "The captain trained you, and we couldn't run away after we went back. We were scared by An Xia, she seemed to find out where we were hiding."

Zhu Yu looked disbelief, "An Xia has been with the captain. You said that the captain found you. I still believe that An Xia found you? Will I believe it?"

"Brothers, brothers really didn't lie to you. I was really discovered by An Xia, and I am going to join up with the brothers hiding in other places to see if they were also discovered by An Xia."

I wish Yu's brows tightened, "Really?"

"real!"

The four shadows nodded together.

They were really discovered.

Hidden so well in advance, how did Anxia discover them?

Zhu Yu didn't say a word, and asked after a while, "Where is Zhichu?"

Polang's brother asked, "Didn't Zhichu be with you? You two rush to the front. You don't know where he is going?"

"!!!" Zhu Yu darkened his face, "He wasn't with me, so I took a step slower, turned a corner and disappeared from him. Later, you are gone!"

In the end, he was the only one left to find someone.

Where did Zhichu go?

He is a scout, so it's impossible to lose himself.

Zhi Chu didn't lose it.

He has been following An Xia, about five meters away, his eyes fixed on An Xia, as if to confirm something.

An Xia didn't leave at all.

Mu Chenyuan didn't know, so, "What's the matter?"

An Xia smiled, turned around, and said lightly somewhere: "The one behind, do you keep following with me?"

Someone behind?

Zhichu?

Mu Chenyuan turned around at the same time, his cold eyes staring at the dark shadow slowly coming out.

It is indeed Zhichu.

Zhi Chu has always been honest, not talkative, dull-tempered, but good at spying.

The man is very thin, not like other special fighters.

The person is not tall, lean and lean. Walking out of the dark, the lean body is like a very thin steel needle, which will pierce the heart without knowing what.

In the storm break drill that year, Zhi Chu touched the command post of Demon King Li alone, installed the wiretap, and touched it back safely. No one was disturbed during the whole process.

He walked out, still keeping his eyes on An Xia, and asked, "Do you have strong hearing."

Was discovered?

"Well, it's okay." An Xia said, "Your hearing should not be bad."

Zhi Chu said, "Compared with you, it's far behind."

The reason why he disappeared suddenly was because An Xia, who had been with the captain about ten meters away, suddenly turned his head and looked straight in the direction where he was.

At that moment, he knew he had been discovered by her.

Mu Chenyuan looked at Zhichu and An Xia, and he tweaked his eyebrows.

He didn't even know that An Xia had a good hearing.

But if you think about it carefully, you have a clue.

But I didn't expect it to be stronger than Zhichu.

The corners of An Xia's lips raised slightly, "If you have a chance, let's compare."

"There is no comparison, I can't compare." After Zhizhu finished speaking, he said to Mu Chenyuan: "Captain, her voice is very discerning. Just now I followed, about 16 meters away from you. I was She found out."

"At the time, I didn't speak or make any movement, only breathing normally."

Means, sixteen meters away, can you hear Zhichu's breathing?

Rao is Mu Chenyuan calm, and he was surprised at this moment.

An Xia looked at him and raised her eyebrows, "Don't be surprised, I didn't deliberately conceal it. You didn't ask, I think it's a trivial matter, and it's not worth mentioning."

Therefore, she admits that her hearing is amazing.

Chapter 700: Stupid by myself

Hearing this, Mu Chenyuan was speechless for a while.

He sighed: "Xia Xia, this is not a trivial matter. Zhi Chu was rejected by Po Lang due to physical problems. Until he discovered that he had amazing hearing, he joined the team as a reserve player, and gave him half a year to strengthen his physical fitness with us. Only then stayed."

"Just now, he said you are better than him..."

Looking at An Xia with cold eyes, he didn't say anything further.

An Xia blinked, she thought, she should want to know what Mu Chenyuan's unfinished words were.

In other words, in fact, she didn't need to participate in the selection of any reserve special fighters at all. By virtue of her excellent hearing, she was able to recruit into the Wolves Breaking Team.

An Xia: "..."

The first time I was stupid by myself.

With a sullen face, "You have so many rules! I have well-developed limbs and a simple mind, I don't understand!"

Therefore, she can actually join Powolf early!

Depend on!

Mu Chenyuan was also helpless, he didn't know that he had delayed so much time for nothing.

Fortunately, it is not too late to know.

Squeezing the palm of her hand, her voice was gentle, "Fortunately, only fifteen days have passed."

"I'm in a bad mood right now, don't talk to me." The emperor who was so stupid by himself had no thoughts.

I'm so angry!

The enraged emperor did not forget to ask Mu Chenyuan, what does 'zhichu' mean.

"Tuohu Mountain has fairy grass, like okra, with red flowers, and the fruit is like honey locust, which is not good for food."

No need to sleep after eating, very suitable for reconnaissance day and night.

The code name is so profound, then she has to think about it.

On the other side, all 76 fighters were released.

Standing in front of them, Fu Siling was so dark that he could no longer look at him.

The sight that was swept over was sharper than a knife and could cut meat.

"You are called amazing? Ask yourself, is this amazing? From the appearance of the enemy to the end, you all * within five minutes. Ha, is this your amazing?"

"The resume is great! It's all bluffing! It has made me insightful like this. Isn't it ashamed? Isn't it ashamed? Come on, come out and memorize what your personal resume is written! No word is missing. Recite it to me!"

Being executed in public was so embarrassed that I really wanted to fly to outer space.

Even if you are embarrassed, you have to obey.

Carrying word by word, the more you recite, the lower the voice.

In the end, there was no courage to continue.

Fu Siling wanted to smash all of their self-righteousness, otherwise, two of them would really think they were so powerful!

After one memorization, pick the next memorial.

Whoever points to it will come out.

On the fifth one, he pointed to Ye Youyin.

Ye Youyin didn't want to come out at all.

I don't want to, I can come out!

Hatred flashed in his eyes.

The male fighters who stood up in the front should stand up and resist if they are a bit rebellious, instead of being so obedient!

If they resist, they will have nothing to do with them!

She had never been so embarrassed before, her face was pale and bloodless, and she walked the first few steps, struggling to take one step, and didn't want to take the second step.

Stand in front, close your eyes and recite your personal resume.

The sound is as small as a mosquito.

Fu Siling's eyes were cold and stern, and he shouted, "Be louder! I didn't hear it!"

Ye Youyin clenched her lower lip, tears streaming out.

The unprecedented shame made her almost unable to raise her head.

I had to speak loudly, carrying my resume.

She carries it, she carries it!

After the recitation, she even asked Fu Siling why An Xia had become a deserter and had not sent anyone to find her back!
