Chapter 871: The hardest encryption

It's rare to see An Xia's confusion, the brothers of Polangu are quite strange.

At this moment, the Mu team started to teach, with An Xia's understanding, it won't take long to learn.

As for the teaching method, Ying Que didn't dare to be interested at all.

Indifferently: "I don't want to listen, I don't want to become a plate of sauerkraut, you listen carefully, I'm leaving."

Ying Que didn't want to abuse herself.

It's not a view that single dogs can see, don't look at it!

I saw it, and it hurts the body and the heart, why bother.

Ying Que turned around and left, but Wei Jila couldn't help it.

Without a brother to accompany him, it is equivalent to not taking responsibility together after being arrested, and Wei Ji also slipped away.

The two people who were chatting in front have not looked back, and continue to talk about business matters.

Both of them knew when they came and when they left.

An Xia didn't want to look back.

She is a good student. As long as she encounters something she doesn't understand, she will study it very seriously until she can too.

Not to be distracted.

Mu Chenyuan, who is teaching seriously, is more attractive, and even her voice is her favorite.

Mu Chenyuan's voice was cold at first, and it was cold with the moonlight at the moment, like a snowy stream flowing in a mountain meadow, and there was a little sweetness in the cold, listen to it, Fascinated.

"Although wireless communication can guarantee the connection between us, once we enter the signal shielding area, we can only communicate in the most primitive way."

"Our team has a lot of primitive exchanges of this type, and it is difficult for countries outside the region to decipher."

"Even if they succeed in deciphering, we have already upgraded and changed."

"The speed of letting them decipher will never keep up with the speed of our upgrade."

"This is what you said before, only continuous improvement and improvement will not be eliminated."

Mu Chenyuan found a small sandy area where he could write and paint. They have not yet walked out of the Kanglian Mountains. Small sandy areas can be seen everywhere.

After signalling An Xia to squat down, with a cold moonlight, holding small rocks in his hand, he drew a staff score on the small sandy ground.

"Come on, look at this... the squeaky tone means that there are two whistles in front, one on the left and the other on the right, solve it."

An Xia said "Huh".

Somewhat surprised, "With so many words, do you want to simplify it?"

"Yes, only three times, but there are changes in the ups and downs." Mu Chenyuan explained with a smile, "That is to ensure safety, but also accurately transmit information."

"Furthermore, we are all word of mouth, there is no written word."

"So, every time those countries outside the region tried to decipher it, they secretly pretended to be bugs, but they never succeeded."

When he said this, An Xia's eyes flickered.

I'm sorry.

Emperor domain has also done wiretapping.

A few years ago, Xia Guo sent a team of elite special fighters to an international competition. Although the Imperial Domain did not need to participate, it needed fairness and supervision.

She took Tianshu and the six to go.

Knowing that Xia Guo's special fighters would communicate in bird language at special times, she secretly ordered Tianshu and them to install bugs to listen to this special and effective communication language.

Cheng was successful, but after returning to the emperor domain, Tianshu and the others analyzed it for three full months, but failed to decipher it.

too difficult!

Tian Shu also said, "They are the most difficult to decipher encryption words in the world, none of them!"

Now, why is she finally so difficult!

The truth is so simple.

They want to be complicated.

Mu Chenyuan, who was teaching earnestly, didn't notice An Xia's strangeness.

The stone continued to paint on the small sand, "If there is a lot of information to be conveyed, then we will use four tones at the beginning."

"This is a combination of the four tones of our pinyin, and then combined with the staff."

An Xia: "... " There was a question mark on her face.

Chapter 872: Enough IQ

An Xia stared at Mu Chenyuan when he heard the question mark on his face, and the tone was clear, and he explained clearly to himself.

"When the two are combined, the tone will be quicker and quicker, normal and slower."

"After the teammates heard it, they knew immediately whether they needed to act immediately, continue to hide, or move forward slowly."

An Xia: "... "

I don't know if I don't know how to say it!

Fighters of Xia Guo, don't be too smart!

Who can understand how complicated it is?

Before you can understand it, you have to learn the four-tone spelling!

Afterwards, An Xia asked quietly, "Who invented it? I want to know each other."

Mu Chenyuan raised his eyes and saw An Xia's little expression, grieved, like a little white rabbit that hadn't eaten food, very cute.

"It's not a single person, it's derived from the experience of all the soldiers in Xia Guo."

An Xia has nothing to say!

One word: service!

I'm so convinced!

Xia's five thousand years of civilization is really not comparable to other countries.

Combine and change, then melt the staff, you have to learn pinyin before deciphering!

Therefore, Tianshu and the others did not succeed in deciphering it, and they could understand it.

Fortunately, she criticized several people back then, saying that they had insufficient IQ.

It's not that they don't have enough IQ.

In fact, Xia Guo's fighters have enough IQ!

Through the past and the present, there is no basis from the Xia country culture, and there is really no way to break it out!

Although they can speak Chinese and speak well, it is really difficult to make them read every word accurately!

Her Chinese is good, and Xia Guo's general speech doesn't have an extraterritorial accent, but she really didn't expect the encryption code to be such a connection.

Clothes!

Really served.

If she meets it later, she should be able to translate successfully.

I don't know, Mu Chenyuan said again, "Each special team has our own special communication language, which is only used for communication between players."

"We have our own special language for communication, and so does the Snowland Brigade."

An Xia: "..."

So, she just thought of herself again!

Understanding the special communication language of the Powolf Team does not mean that you can understand the communication language of the Snowy Team.

"If you go to a teacher for advice, don't you know how to teach it?" An Xia asked.

Mu Chenyuan nodded, "No, only communication between team members."

What a pity, I can't learn.

An Xia said, "If you say so, there is also a special communication language that you can use."

"Yes." Mu Chenyuan said with a smile: "The gestures are the same. In addition to the international habit and common use, there will also be a set of our own gestures."

This Anxia knows.

They also have the imperial domain.

The elite also have their own code words.

When he finished speaking, An Xia sighed, "I need to learn too much."

She can learn half of the knowledge in Xia Guo's team before returning to the Emperor's Domain, which is considered the best.

"It doesn't matter, there is such a long time, enough for you to study."

After Mu Chenyuan finished speaking, An Xia's expression changed a little.

Asked with a smile, "What? Are you worried that you can't learn well?"

An Xia shook her head, "No."

Alas, the time is very long, but unfortunately, she didn't think about being in Xia Guo for a long time.

Forget it, don't think about it.

She didn't think about when to leave.

Maybe three or five years, maybe eighty or ninety years, who knows.

"Let's end here for today's class, Wei Ji and the others should have something to look for you." An Xia got up and clapped her hands.

In the sky, the cold stars are twinkling, and the Milky Way is winding, which is a rare night in a big city.

An Xia, who stood up, looked up at the night sky, and suddenly asked Mu Chenyuan.

"Mu Chenyuan, if one day, I suddenly disappear, will you look for me?"

Chapter 873: I will find you for a lifetime

I never thought that one day I would ask such a clichéd question.

Tonight, Xu is the moonlight is so good, and Xu can't help but want to ask when she thinks that she will return to the Imperial Realm in the future, and she is alone again.

After asking, An Xia closed the corners of her mouth.

She didn't know how Mu Chenyuan would answer herself.

People, no one can't live without anyone.

If you leave today, you will die and live, and after a long time there will be a new person to replace the old one.

At that time, what time is there to think about the old man?

The newcomer always wins over the old.

Mu Chenyuan didn't think about it at all, didn't think about it, and answered very positively.

"Yes, surely."

Yeah?

An Xia retracted her gaze looking up at the starry sky, with dark and faint eyes, staring at Mu Chenyuan, "How do you find it?"

"I will do everything possible to find you until the day I find you." He said.

Every word reveals strength, and every word is like promise.

Like others, what you say is a promise that you are not ashamed of.

An Xia was silent for a while, then asked.

"What if you can't find it forever?"

"Then I will look for it all my life." The sudden and sad topic made Mu Chenyuan's back tighten a little.

How can you say that she won't see you one day?

not see?

Why are you missing?

Did you deliberately avoid him?

Or is it that the execution task is gone?

An Xia laughed, "If you can't find it for a lifetime, then you haven't found it for a lifetime."

"Will you let me not find it for the rest of my life?" Mu Chenyuan asked back.

The voice is low and deep, and the sound is deep.

"Are you willing to let me find it for a lifetime?" he asked again.

Asked An Xia's heart trembling.

Will she be willing?

I want to answer "I'm willing", but the two words that can't be more simple, it's hard to say it when it comes to my lips.

She didn't answer right away, and chose a long silence.

Mu Chenyuan did not urge.

Silence is not a refusal, on the contrary, it shows that she is reluctant.

Don't worry about answering, he can afford to wait.

After a while, An Xia said, "I really don't want to give up."

Mu Chenyuan smiled.

He stretched out and took An Xia's hand.

The two hands, which have been well-cocooned, are held together, their fingers intersect, and they will never leave.

"Then we promised that if one day it disappears, we must do everything possible to return to each other, you say, okay?"

This is what he wants and hopes for.

It was his wish to be with her for life.

An Xia squeezed his hand back, and this time, there was no silence.

Raised a smile, "I will try my best."

She can only do her best.

The world is unpredictable, and she really has no way to guarantee that after leaving, she will be able to come back alive when she returns to the place where people eat people without spitting out bones in the Emperor Domain.

Mu Chenyuan said, "Then I will try my best to take you back to me."

"Really?" An Xia raised an eyebrow and asked.

The starlight fell in her eyes, dazzling.

Mu Chenyuan nodded, "Really."

"Okay." An Xia was smiling, smiling from her heart, and staring in her eyes, "Then I'll wait for you."
so good.

One day she is gone, someone will desperately find themselves.

Even if you run out of life, you will not give up.

As for the Emperor Domain, her relatives are exactly the same as those of Xiao Anxia.

Missing?

Very good!

Set off fireworks, eat a big meal, and rejoice together.

Nowadays, someone will finally go to her, until she has been found.

An Xia said again: "If one day, you disappear, even if you turn into bones, I will definitely find you."

The warm topic was suddenly full of danger.

The handsome smile deepened, and Mu Chenyuan said earnestly: "I will definitely work very hard, very hard to come back to you, I will not let you find me, let alone turn into a pile of bones."

Because he is reluctant to give up.

Not willing to leave her alone for the rest of his life.

Chapter 874: May the world live up to all feelings

An Xia also followed: "Then I will be like you, try to come back."

Return to the imperial domain, find out the real murderer, save his life, and return to him as the master of the imperial domain.

Mu Chenyuan said, "I still hope that there will be no missing day."

"There's really no way to guarantee this. For so long in a lifetime, it will suddenly disappear one day. It's normal."

"Where is normal, missing, big event."

"Mu Chenyuan!"

"exist!"

"Forgot what I said before?" An Xia stared at him with a faint smile, "Do you need me to repeat it?"

Mu Chenyuan was silent.

Quickly for a while, forget it.

However, he really couldn't agree with this.

Truthfully said: "This requires refutation and cannot be followed."

"What did you mean, I was wrong?"

Unreasonable making trouble, as the emperor will occasionally commit.

The little girl she committed in front of Mu Chenyuan had a lot of temperament.

Only in front of him, would An Xia unscrupulously reveal those small shortcomings and ailments that she had never had before.

Mu Chenyuan said, "There will be mistakes."

"Then I'm going to be wrong, you must talk about letting me realize that I made a mistake?" An Xia hummed, "Then I won't think I'm wrong."

What should I do, my girlfriend suddenly makes a petty temper, how can I break it?

Novice Mu Chenyuan thought for a while, and suddenly, he flashed an kiss on An Xia's cheek.

Judo: "No, I only know that I am wrong. I won't force you to recognize it."

Answer this--

Anxia expressed satisfaction.

Pointing to her right cheek, Xiao Tsao Jiao said, "If you kiss this way, I will forgive you."

Is this forgiveness?

Obviously it is welfare.

Mu Chenyuan readily accepted and quickly kissed An Xia on the cheek again.

After the kiss, the two of them held hands, smiled at each other, and met He Meimei again.

An Xia did not make trouble.

She wasn't making trouble, but she told him in advance to let him know.

One day she really left, and he thought of tonight, he should be able to understand that she was only leaving briefly.

One day, he will come back to him.

Before that, in fact, she had never thought of returning after leaving.

Never thought that she just wanted to sleep, and the man who solved her physical needs became her reluctant fetter.

She stayed by his side when she didn't leave.

After leaving, secretly missed, come back after the big event is done.

The two returned to the temporary camp, and when they saw a little light, they had a tacit understanding and let go at the same time.

"I'll go to Wei Ji."

"I'm going to find the blue bird."

The two spoke at the same time.

All laughed.

At the same time, he nodded and said, "Okay."

Once chatting, the distance between heart and heart is getting closer again.

Blue Bird looked at it with a deep smile in his eyes.

Tsk tut, the young man in love is so sweet.

The corners of the clothes were torn, and the blue bird turned his head to meet the deep eyes of King Q.

He said, "Envy? So can we."

Talking sweet, they are also very sweet!

Ye Jian laughed, "You are even jealous of this."

"A little bit." Xia Jinyuan's thin lips raised slightly, "I am much better than the young captain."

The competition between the natural strong men in the bones of men will always come up inexplicably.

Ye Jian couldn't laugh or cry.

"When did I say that you are worse than the Mu team?"

Summer team, we also need to be jealous.

Xia Jinyuan didn't care what he saved.

In the eyes of his fiancée, he can only see how strong he is alone.

The young Mu team, no matter how strong it is, it can't be better than him.

"Now, I have to watch out from now, and I must never let that day appear." plausibly.

Chapter 875: People have to have a sense of crisis

The sense of crisis is super strong, and he is always on guard.

People must have a sense of crisis and cannot settle for the status quo!

After Xia Jinyuan finished speaking, he said with emotion, "Although I am excellent, I still have a lot of room for improvement."

"Team Mu is too young to be as thorough as I am, and it's still a little tender. Otherwise, how can you always annoy your friends?"

Self-confidence is bursting, boasting that his face is not red, and his heart is not breathless.

Ye Jian rubbed his forehead and patted Xia Jinyuan's shoulder again.

Enduring a smile, pretending to be serious and said: "Team Xia, people need to learn to recognize their fate."

"Team Mu is still young. In some respects it is not as good as you, but in some respects it will definitely be better than you. You, just accept it."

Good guys!

Directly stabbed Xia Jinyuan into the vinegar jar.

He * his sleeves and sneered, "I'm going to knock him down now!"

An Xia stopped doing it, rolled up her sleeves, and said coldly, "Come on, I'll talk about it after I pass."

Her man is protected by her.

Dare to move him?

Let's see if she should or should not!

Xia Jinyuan slowly turned around and glanced at An Xia.

He is a fake roll up his sleeves to defeat Mu Chenyuan.

Where is An Xia?

She really rolled up her sleeves to hit him.

Ye Jian didn't help Xia Jinyuan, and smiled like a crescent moon in the sky, "Team Xia, or, try?"

Not talking about it, she really wanted to see the two of them discuss each other.

She and Xia Xia have played against each other and have a certain understanding of each other's skills.

The Xia team did not.

Besides, the approach of Team Xia's close combat is somewhat similar to that of An Xia.

It's all a deadly weird trick.

Her fighting skills were taught by Xia Jinyuan.

Last time I discussed with Xia Xia, it was not that Xia Xia couldn't beat herself, but that her strength had been stored.

It can be said that Xia Xia actually lost physical strength.

This time, everyone's physical exertion is the same. I don't know how many moves Xia Xia can take?

Ye Jian has always been very confident about Xia Jinyuan's fighting skills.

When An Xia heard it, she was also interested.

"Try it."

After saying the two words, An Xia said it and shot it.

Xia Jinyuan flashed, "Young man, don't talk about martial arts."

Just hit it when you talk, and there isn't even a prelude to a warm-up.

An Xia shot again, "On the battlefield, if the enemy attacked, would you still say hello in advance?"

It certainly won't.

The two quickly fought together.

After the two moves, An Xia discovered the strangeness.

"Are you following my way?" She avoided Xia Jinyuan's long legs and kicked her neck, her eyebrows raised lightly, "Last time I was fighting with the blue bird, you were watching."

Cough cough cough...

Ye Jianqing coughed a few times.

Forgot to tell Xia Xia.

Xia Jinyuan shot again, attacking An Xia's eyes.

Entering the fight, his elegant and handsome face was cold and hostile, without the slightest trace of irregularity just now.

At this time, he was the king of the Snow Territory Brigade.

The king sets out to rule the world!

He said: "Yes, your tricks are very flexible."

"It's not just flexibility." An Xia sneered.

She didn't know about stealing a teacher to learn art, it was too much.

"There is also the cruelty in fighting. You secretly learned and practiced secretly."

Now that you have learned it, you must practice.

Wouldn't it be wasted if you didn't practice it?

"Not only did we practice, but we also had analysis." Xia Jinyuan was very frank. Since I have already said everything, it's better to make it clear all at once.

So as not to pull it again in the future, it makes people feel uncomfortable.

Why did he and Mu Chenyuan get close? In many cases, the two people's views on people and things are also surprisingly consistent.

An Xia doesn't mind if they steal school.

"It seems that you have a high opinion of my fighting skills. Unfortunately, you..."

Before she finished speaking, she saw An Xia suddenly turn her wrist and a dagger appeared in her hand.

Chapter 876: The sword of the imperial domain, ruthless

If you haven't learned it, just show it in front of her and look for death!

When the dagger came out, An Xia said coldly, "Unfortunately, you didn't learn everything."

The fighting of Emperor Domain not only integrates into the most fierce fighting in the world, but also extracts all the essence of several kinds of fighting, and then integrates assassination technique into a whole new set of fighting.

She fought with Blue Bird that day, all with bare hands in the early stage, and did not use real knives and guns.

Tonight, Quan was given as a gift to Xia Guo's fighters.

The dagger pierced Xia Jinyuan's heart.

In the cold moonlight, the sharp dagger blade and cold light passed by, and with a murderous intent, pointed directly at Xia Jinyuan.

Beside, Ye Jian's face changed slightly.

"Summer Team..."

She reminded in a low voice.

Xia Jinyuan had found out, but it was still a step later.

Although he flashed quickly, his arm was still scratched by the dagger in An Xia's hand.

The wound was not deep. At the moment of the stabbing, An Xia was still merciful.

In the imperial domain, there has never been a tip of a knife just to speak to the enemy.

An imperial domain that is so cruel that there is no friendship, love, and only the strong survive, the tip of the knife in his hand will face the enemy.

It will even stab people around, and sometimes it is very likely to hurt yourself.

The injured Xia Jinyuan's face remained unchanged.

He stepped back, his black eyes closed slightly, and the cold air thickened a little.

After a while, his thin lips moved slightly and slowly said, "Yes."

He really didn't expect that An Xia would actually stab him when he killed the enemy's dagger.

There will also be dagger fights in the team, but in the end it all ends.

An Xia is different. She stabs herself with the real purpose of hurting others.

"Thank you." An Xia responded indifferently.

Take the two words Xia Jinyuan said as appreciation.

Without retracting the dagger, he asked him, "Do you want to continue?"

"Continue." Xia Jinyuan said solemnly, her black eyes locked tightly on An Xia, and she took the initiative to attack with cold eyes.

The fight between the two attracted the brothers of Xueyu and Broken Wolf.

"Team Mu, hurry, hurry! Hurry!" Qi Xingsu trot over and interrupted the chat between Mu Chenyuan and Wei Ji, "Report, Miss An and King Q are fighting!"

what!

Mu Chenyuan and Wei Ji's faces moved slightly.

Why are they fighting?

"Let's learn from each other." Wei Ji asked, following Mu Chenyuan's footsteps.

When Mu Chenyuan heard "fighting", his cold eyes suddenly sank.

He knew An Xia was really good at fighting.

The Xia team is just going to be a point-to-point match.

You have to hurry over and take a look.

The stride meteor changed to a trot, and soon I heard cheers from the front, "beautiful, An Xia!"

"An Xia! Come on!"

"Q King, come on!"

"An Xia! Come on!"

"Q King, come on!"

The special fighters of the Broken Wolves team and the special fighters of the Snow Region team cheered and shouted for the players in their teams.

When Wei Ji heard Xia Jinyuan's arm stabbed by An Xia, his face changed a lot.

"Team Xia stabbed? Are you sure?" He asked Qi Xingsu.

Listen, how do you feel the opposite?

An Xia was stabbed.

Qi Xingsu quickly said: "Do I still need to confirm? Everyone knows! How did the two fight against each other, Miss An suddenly showed the dagger while Team Xia was not on guard."

"The dagger originally pierced Team Xia's chest. Team Xia reacted quickly and dodged dangerously. This only stabbed the arm."

Wei Ji gasped.

Everyone knows that one is to face the teammate with the back of the blade, and the other is to stab the teammate with the dagger.

An Xia how... how...

It hurts!

You have to go and see it quickly.

Then Qi Xingsu said, "They said that the Snow Territory Brigade secretly learned Miss An Xia's own fighting skills, Miss An Xia was angry, this..."

Chapter 877: The king strikes, the king is over the world

"Nonsense!" Wei Ji scolded, "An Xia wouldn't be so careful, there must be other problems!"

From the time she spent with An Xia, her temper was sometimes terrifying, but she was very reasonable, and she was not the kind of prudent person.

How could he be angry because of the self-made fighting skills that the Snow Brigade had learned secretly.

Besides, they know it too!

Have practiced too!

Qi Xingsu was also anxious, "I don't know, Ying Que is watching, I rushed over to find Team Mu."

No one knew why the two of them were fighting.

Originally, I wanted to ask Ye Jian, the only one who was on the scene and was watching. In the end, no one had time to ask.

Because the fight between the two is really wonderful!

Reluctant to leave the line of sight for a second.

It's never too late to understand the reason why the fight started.

Mu Chenyuan directly found Ye Jian and asked why.

Ye Jian smiled and said: "I asked King Q and Xia Xia to compete, and the two of them were hit."

It's easy to explain, it's not a fight because of anger.

When Wei Ji listened, he breathed a sigh of relief.

Mu Chenyuan didn't believe that An Xia was angry because of stealing his studies in the snowy area.

What he is worried about is...

The thin lips were slightly compressed, and Mu Chenyuan pressed a little coldly, and said: "An Xia's understanding of the discussion is different from ours."

"Well, I found it." Ye Jian stared at the fighting two, "I was a little surprised at first, we all know the rules."

"But I think about it again, what are we talking about?"

"In order to improve ourselves, to fight the enemy for the future, to win, to protect ourselves, this is the purpose of why we have to learn from each other."

"However, we have always regarded it as a friendly discussion with our own people, and the real intention of the discussion is actually not realized."

"Xia Xia's appearance suddenly broke our cognition. After reflecting on it, I recognized Xia Xia's way."

"Since it is a competition, then treat teammates as the enemy I need to kill, I think, our fighting skills will be more advanced."

That's why, after the Xia team said "not bad", he continued to compete with Xia Xia.

Because he immediately understood after that moment.

Mu Chenyuan's pressed thin lips loosened slightly, and the sharpness in his handsome face was also restrained a little.

He whispered: "Yes, in An Xia's eyes, as long as they are talking to her, the two are the enemy and me. As they are the enemy and me, we must go all out."

"She treats each time of negotiation as a life-and-death struggle, not just communication."

He knew it, but others didn't.

People who don't know misunderstand An Xia, which is a scene that Mu Chenyuan didn't want to see. Fortunately, Jade Bird and King Q both understand.

Ye Jian said: "Actually, Xia Xia's idea is right. But it takes a little time to adapt to her idea."

After speaking, Ye Jian sighed lightly, "Xia Xia's appearance broke a lot of our regular training. I admire her very much. She twisted many of our solidified but unknowing thoughts."

"Team Mu, you are really lucky to have Xia Xia in the second area of Lu."

When Mu Chenyuan heard the words, a small smile flashed in his eyes.

It was indeed the luck of their Luer District, and also the luck of his Mu Chenyuan.

An Xia is still fighting with King Q.

The two of you come and go, both are extremely vicious killer moves.

It's not that you locked my throat, but I used a dagger to stab your temple, fighting for my life the whole time, so that the onlookers were terrified and horrified.

At the same time, he was hooked.

too strong!

The strong sees the strong, either you die, or I live, there is no tie.

Chapter 878: Who is she

"Her trick is a bit like the samurai trick on Yangdong's side."

"Well, it's a bit, but with the addition of Maga, the two are penetrated by her, and the kill value is instantly increased."

"She absolutely knows all kinds of fighting fights very clearly, and possibly even more."

"It makes sense, otherwise, it is impossible to integrate and innovate."

The brothers of Powolf watched, communicated in a low voice, and gesticulated with each other from time to time.

"This trick was useless last time when she was fighting the blue bird."

"Take it down, write it down quickly."

"How can you remember so many tricks. Don't worry, let her teach us later."

"Huh? Yes, we can let Anxia teach us."

With gestures, the Bro Wolf brothers who had learned one and two tricks laughed.

hapiness!

After they return to the base, An Xia can teach.

The special fighters of the Snowy Brigade that no one taught were crazy remembering.

"Did you remember? Did you remember?"

"Don't rush! I'm remembering!"

"You remembered it for me! Damn! Your memory makes people anxious."

"Shut up, you! Don't disturb me!"

"This trick, this trick was used with the blue bird last time, and I've had it!"

"I haven't used this trick! Quickly write it down!"

"After twenty moves, An Xia can continue with King Q, really strong!"

"If it's not strong, why would Blue Bird and King Q want to dig her over all the time."

"We thought we learned before, but now we know that the previous fight between her and the blue bird was just fur!"

The special fighters of the Snowy Brigade were shocked!

Eighteen-year-old An Xia and their King Q have been fighting for 20 minutes, and there is still no sign of defeat!

I know that An Xia is very strong, but I never thought it would be so strong!

Horrible!

In a few years, won't it be even more invincible?

Very experienced fighting, no matter how fierce and fierce their King Q's offense is, An Xia can always pick it up immediately.

Not a little flustered.

The on-the-spot reaction power alone is shocking enough.

King Q, a * battle with no return, the trump card of illustrious achievements!

Where is An Xia?

Brand new fighter!

However, it was such a brand-new young combatant who faced the trump card of illustrious military exploits, and did not see the timidity and fought bravely.

And there is no ruin.

"Ever since I was young? This is too experienced! I still see the new fighters against King Q for the first time, so I can be so calm!"

"The psychological quality is very good, and I don't panic because Team Xia is the king of the snow."

"When the two sides are at war, whoever panics first loses!"

"To be honest, I am very interested in Anxia's growth environment now. It's not like a girl raised by an ordinary family."

Girls raised by ordinary families, no matter how poor their family background, are girls.

After becoming a fighter, the small habits and small problems of the body will gradually disappear.

How long is it like An Xia?

Experienced is not like a new fighter at all.

"Raised by a gangster family?" T6's brain hole expanded infinitely, without passing through the brain, he responded smoothly.

In exchange for the collective contempt of the brothers.

As I get older, my mind is really not so good.

Just now, it was that the T6 recording action was rejected by G3 and others as having a bad memory.

T6 glared at them, "Look at what I'm doing? It's a girl raised by yourselves that doesn't look like an ordinary family."

"You have also seen it yourself, which family raises a girl with a murderous spirit? I now doubt whether An Xia is too * in her hands."

K7, who hadn't said a word, had a flat voice and interrupted, "She did, with me and Jade Bird."

Oh oh oh, I almost forgot.

I really did.

Chapter 879: Brilliant

T6 remembered, after thinking about it, he said again:

"What about before this? Have you ever?"

K7 pressed his lips together early and stopped speaking.

Talking, very tired.

Prefer not to say.

Before that, there is.

he knows.

But too lazy to say.

It's all past history, there is nothing to dig deeper.

There must be no problem with her. With her strength, the team has secretly investigated her at least ten times.

The eighteenth generations of ancestors have all investigated.

All her friends, relatives, and anyone related to her have all been investigated.

Needless to say, my travel trajectory.

It was so detailed that I didn't figure out what time to go to the toilet.

"Then who knows. Anyway, it is impossible to come from the underworld, and the audit will not pass."

Z7 Han Zheng touched his chin, his face was inscrutable thinking.

Afterwards, he said in a low voice, "You said, will An Xia's experience be the same as that of Blue Bird? Is there a big man who pointed her?"

Only with such an explanation can it be justified.

A word to wake up the special fighters of the snow brigade.

Not impossible!

When Jade Bird was in junior high school, it was trained by a few big guys, and finally was spotted by the Xia team and became a member of the Snowy Brigade.

Y is suspicious, "Where is such a coincidence in the world."

T6 rolled his eyes, "Are there few coincidences in the world?"

X, who was always on the same line as Y, stood up, "A lot, but it's hard to have a coincidence like Blue Bird's experience."

"Then what else do you say?" Z7 threw the problem again.

Everyone was silent.

do not know.

Or, ask Polang.

They must know.

I will ask, and I will ask.

G3 said, "Stop discussing, look good!"

The two people on the field are still you and me, there is no way to decide the outcome.

Thirty minutes is the boundary. If there is still no victory or defeat after thirty minutes, the two actively separate.

Twenty-three minutes, twenty-six minutes... thirty minutes!

Ye Jian pressed the time, her voice rose sharply, "Time is up!"

Finish!

The sweaty two separated.

I never thought of a tie, but the time has come to force a tie.

An Xia, sweating profusely, stopped, stood still, and adjusted his panting breathing.

A few seconds later, she said: "You are very powerful, it is difficult for me to beat you."

truth.

Thirty minutes of fighting was almost close to the edge of her body's stamina.

If she continues to fight, she will lose his hand because of exhaustion.

Xia Jinyuan shook the sweat in his eyes, his face flushed, and he looked at An Xia with appreciation.

Praised, "You are the second most powerful female fighter I have ever seen."

Apart from Jade Bird, she is the second female fighter who can play with herself for half an hour and draw a tie.

"The first one is the blue bird?" An Xia asked.

Xia Jinyuan smiled and nodded, "Yes, it's her."

The Blue Birds are very powerful, and when they were 18 years old, they had performed many special A missions with them.

Now, the 18-year-old star An Xia appears, and her light will be as bright as the blue bird!

An Xia said: "You are the third person I have played very happy."

"The first is Mu Chenyuan, and the second is Blue Bird."

An Xia played extremely happily, so happily that she was all relaxed.

happy!

It's so fun!

After fighting against Mu Chenyuan and Qingniao, the third person who made her want to continue fighting after the fight.

"Recognition of my fighting skills?" Xia Jinyuan raised his eyebrows, and when he saw Ye Jian walking towards him, he raised his voice.

"Blue Bird, next time you have a good discussion with her."

Mu Chenyuan, who came along together, said coldly, "Next time, I will discuss with the blue bird."

Ye Jian thought for a while, smiled and suggested, "Why, next time I will play with the Mu team."

"The four of us will compete together? How about?"

Chapter 880: Why don't you change your fiance?

It's a good proposal.

An Xia agreed, "First, I and Mu Chenyuan will fight with you, and then I will fight with you two together with Blue Bird."

The difficulty escalated.

Ye Jian's interest instantly increased, "No problem!"

"Yes." Mu Chenyuan responded.

Xia Jinyuan smiled, "All three of you have responded, but I shouldn't. Wouldn't it be too good?"

"If you shouldn't..." An Xia paused and turned to Ye Jian's serious proposal, "Then you might as well be unmarried."

At the scene, the special fighters from Snow Territory and Wolverine broke into an uproar.

There were also a few people who were not afraid to put their fingers in their mouths and blew the lively whistle.

"Jade Bird, we also support it!"

"Hahaha, support, support! Change fiance! Change fiance!"

"It's better to change to me, it's okay!"

"Oh shit! Shameless! You are too short, change me, change me!"

Dare to say that if you change to your own, they are all warriors who are not afraid of death.

Xia Jinyuan's dark eyes were smiling, and his gaze swept over several fighters who jumped up and said that he would be replaced by him.

The dog is bold enough!

They just want to replace the captain.

Now they still want to replace his fiancé status?

Ah.

Ha ha.

Xia Jinyuan was already gearing up secretly.

Good guys.

I can't kill you guys.

Z7 Han Zheng was originally the most popular, but he rushed to the front and patted his recommendation, "I can, so can I."

When Xia Jinyuan glanced over, Han Zheng stunned.

That's it!

He had a fever in his head just now, as if he had said something he shouldn't have said!

Slipped away!

Quickly slip away.

It's late.

It was written by Xia Jinyuan a long time ago.

All the special fighters of the Wolves Brigade were silent.

What a courage!

This is even more terrifying than the position of the captain of the conspiracy.

Not only the captain of King Q, but also King Q's fiancée.

I admire you.

They are timid, so they only dare to think about taking the captain of the Mu team.

Others, besides, didn't dare to think about it at all.

An Xia...

Cough cough cough.

Mainly, they were more in awe when they saw her than their ancestors.

I really don't dare to give birth to alienation.

Don't dare, let alone dare.

As for An Xia, she just mentioned it casually, she never expected so much to replace her.

Then, he said to Ye Jian: "Don't hang on a tree all the time, go to the forest more, and life will be better."

...

Xia Jinyuan turned his head and said to Mu Chenyuan without a smile, "Brother, congratulations, I found a girlfriend who wants to run into the jungle."

He has no way to make An Xia sad, so let Mu Chenyuan feel sad.

They are a pair anyway.

Who has suffered the same.

Mu Chenyuan smiled, "Team Xia, let's worry about yourself first. Tonight, thanks to An Xia's words, the Xia team discovered that there are so many brothers and wants to replace Team Xia."

"That's just talking about it." Xia Jinyuan looked uneasy.

He still doesn't know what kind of urine his brothers are like.

Where is the excitement?

Especially with the excitement of his captain, as long as the good shows are pulled away, all of them can't jump over and disturb the situation.

"If you think about it, you will have something to say." Mu Chenyuan reminded.

Xia Jinyuan responded, "Well, that's right, it seems that An Xia also has some thoughts, and only then said it."

Come on, hurt together.

Mu Chenyuan was silent for a while, his voice lowered a little, "Why should we hurt together?"

It's obviously not their fault.

Xia Jinyuan was taken aback.

Yes, why should they hurt together?

The point is off!

Looking at Ye Jian, An Xia was so amused that he bowed his head and smiled.

After laughing, he leaned to An Xia's ear, "Team Xia, he is afraid to make himself sour tonight that he will suffer from insomnia."

"Insomnia for a night is nothing." An Xia disapproved. "In my opinion, it's okay to change your taste occasionally."
