Chapter 891: Goodbye

After leaving the hospital, Tianshu returned to the ward.

The four national security personnel went up together without awakening Ye Mengwei.

With their level of disguise, even if they passed Ye Meng slightly, she could not find out.

Ye Meng was pulling Mu Ruqing to talk.

"Doctor Mu, thank you for your care during this time. You have to take care of yourself, eat according to your meals, and take your rest."

"Don't cherish your body because you are young. Don't cherish your body now. When you are old, you will suffer serious sins."

Mu Ruqing smiled and said: "I know Aunt Ye, after you leave the hospital, you must take good care of yourself and don't have too much ups and downs."

"Take care of yourself, An Xia will feel relieved in the team."

Speaking of An Xia, Ye Mengwei's kindness in his eyes is deeper, "That child is a filial piety, and I have dragged her down these years. Fortunately, she made her own way and made a way out."

"I can't help her. I have to take care of myself and don't worry about her."

Now that the home is gone, those people can no longer hurt their daughter. She, taking care of herself in the future is the greatest support for her daughter.

Until now, Ye Mengwei didn't know that the Ye Family in the capital had been looking for her again and again.

With Tianshu and the four of them, Ye Yuwei didn't know the ups and downs outside.

Mu Ruqing knew a little bit.

She also knew that the old lady of the Ye family visited the Mu's house some time ago, saying that she was visiting the old lady, but in fact she went to the old lady to speak ill of An Xia.

When the old lady heard it, she was not polite, and asked the eldest mother to see her off.

An Xia is the daughter-in-law of their Mu family, bullying An Xia?

This is bullying the Mu family!

An Xia has the Mu family, plus her own unique skills, Aunt Ye really only needs to take care of herself.

"You have a spectrum in your heart, then I won't be wordy anymore." As soon as Mu Ruqing finished speaking, he saw Tianshu * in a pile of medicine.

They are all medicines that Ye Mengwei needs to take after returning home for control and treatment.

"Doctor Mu."

Tianshu yelled politely, then said to Ye Meng slightly: "Aunt Ye, all the procedures for discharge have been completed, and we can leave the hospital now."

Tianji tidied up his luggage, and Tianquan and Tianji guarded him outside. Ye Mengwei was protected by the four so that he didn't need to do anything.

Ye Meng smiled and said, "Thanks for your hard work."

She has been in the hospital for more than half a year, and she is not used to it.

She had been locked in a small attic for so many years before, and she lived on.

Mu Ruqing took a look at these medicines carefully, repeating how to use them, and then sent Ye Mengwei to the parking lot.

"Aunt Ye, take care. You will send me the address when you turn back. I will come to visit you when I have time."

"Well, well, remember to come." Inside the car, there were tears in Ye Mengwei's eyes.

She didn't get any attention when she was in her natal family.

After marrying someone, her life is no different from her natal family, let alone someone cares about her.

He ever thought that one day because of her daughter, she will receive so many people's care and care.

For the sake of her daughter, to care for and take care of her, one must also take good care of herself.

The door of the luxury nanny car was delivered, and the black window glass blocked Ye Mengwei's sight.

Tianshu and the four of them said goodbye to her one by one.

"Doctor Mu, take care."

"Doctor Mu, I have worked hard for you this time, goodbye."

"Thank you very much for Dr. Mu's care. Goodbye."

"Doctor Mu, goodbye by chance."

Mu Ruqing responded one by one. In the end, she said to Tianshu: "Although the condition is currently under control, it still needs proper treatment. Remember to follow up on time."

"Understood." Tian knew that the female doctor in front of him was really kind to Ye Meng, and he wrote them down one by one, saying goodbye to the car again.

Chapter 892: Bad breath, hard to swallow

The car started and quickly drove away from the hospital.

Mu Ruqing stood in place, then took out his mobile phone and took a photo of the car driving away with a "click".

Subsequently, it was sent to the family group.

"Aunt Ye is discharged from the hospital and is in very good condition."

Afterwards, Ai Temu Shenyuan specially said, "Come back and thank you for your beautiful and smart sister, because of you, your future mother-in-law, I have a great impression of our Mu family."

The information was sent out, and no one responded in time.

Ten o'clock in the morning on Wednesday is the busiest time for the Mu family.

Even Mrs. Mu and Mrs. Mu are busy at the moment.

The old lady was busy making tea, and the old man was busy playing chess or singing the quintessence of the country.

Mu Ruqing sent a text message, put her phone back in her pocket, and stepped on flat heels to leave the parking lot.

She did not find a small gray car sitting in the corner of the parking lot with three people, and when she saw the nanny car leaving, she immediately drove to follow.

"Quick, quick, keep up, keep up!"

The car drove away quickly, and when it was turning, it was too fast and almost hit another car that was about to leave.

"Damn! In a hurry to reincarnate?!"

The scared car owner slammed the brakes, lowered the glass and cursed at the gray car.

The gray car didn't stop, but quickly followed.

Looking back at the territory, Tian Xuan, who was sitting in the front co-pilot, glanced calmly.

Knocking his finger against the window of the car a few times.

"There is car tracking."

He delivers information.

It was Tianquan who was driving, and he glanced at the rearview mirror, and the speed slowly increased.

Follow them?

You have to see if you can keep up with it.

Tianshu is telling Ye Mengwei how to flatten the seat, "You press here, lie flat, here, it is massage and heating."

"Open here is a tea tray, these keys are used by you to watch movies in the car..."

Explain in detail, as if they didn't know they were being followed.

Yeja

Mrs. Ye San received the call and her face was immediately happy, "I was discharged from the hospital at that time? OK, OK, you must follow me! Also, don't let them find you."

"Okay, as long as I know the address, contact me immediately."

Very good!

Ye Mengwei finally left the hospital and they could finally approach her.

The old lady sitting on the sofa raised her eyelids slightly, and her voice came in a gloomy voice, "That * has been discharged from the hospital?"

"Well, just discharged from the hospital, our people are following." Mrs. Ye San put down the phone and came back to serve the old lady who was discharged yesterday.

"As long as you know where she lives, the daughter-in-law will come and look for her immediately."

The voice is equally gloomy.

The old lady coughed a few times, and her muddy old eyes burst out cold, "Okay! Bring more people over! Bring me back that bitch!"

"Mom, don't worry, for the sake of the young voice, the daughter-in-law must be safe."

Thinking of her daughter who was still locked up, Mrs. Ye San's heart burst into pain.

The daughter she pampered was imprisoned and suffered, but Ye Mengwei's humble species of life, there was nothing wrong with it!

She couldn't swallow this bad breath!

She has no way to find her daughter's troubles for the time being, so let the mother suffer for her daughter!

Ye Meng's life is better than death!

"Acting in the dark, don't make any publicity, get people into the house and then toss." After that, the insidiousness in Mrs. Ye's eyes became deeper.

She and her stepdaughter have not seen each other for more than ten years. This time, it is time to see her well.

"Daughter-in-law understands."

The Ye family's mother-in-law and daughter-in-law were already thinking about how to toss Ye Mengwei.

No one knows, their people did not keep up with the nanny car.

When the car drove to the road and waited for three traffic lights, someone showed their credentials and knocked on their windows.

In the next second, even the person and the car were detained.

The national security staff made the move, that's it.

Chapter 893: Has not yet shot has ended

The three people sent by the Ye family didn't even have time to give a response, and the national security personnel showed their credentials and were dumbfounded.

They just help the master to keep a close eye on a person and figure out where the other person lives.

How come even the national security personnel are alarmed?

On the other side, Tian Quan wanted to show off his driving skills.

After staying in the hospital for more than half a year, he felt that all aspects of his body's functions had decreased a lot.

Even the reaction is slow.

I wanted to practice my hands, but as a result, I looked back at the center.

"What about people?"

Tianji looked and looked again, and the gray car behind was gone!

It's gone.

Tian Xuan in the co-pilot seat also did not find the vehicle.

Regarding a traffic light, Tianji also deliberately slowed down the car by a traffic light to keep the other party at a traffic light distance from their vehicle.

did not expect.....

The car didn't even keep up.

Tracking technology is too far from home.

Tian Quan, who was sitting in the last row, did not speak. Among the four, he was the only one who sat quietly in the back after getting in the car.

Put away the pocket-sized pistol from the hospital again, and sit in the back like a beast of a car.

The car did not keep up, and the crisis was temporarily resolved.

Tianshu has already explained Ye Mengwei in detail.

The car didn't follow it, it must have something to do with Xia Guo's national security personnel.

Let them go and save trouble.

"In the future, this car will be one of the means of transportation for you to travel. You can try every key."

Ye Meng smiled and said, "Today's cars are much more refined than before."

Tianshu respectfully asked, "Do you like cars? Or, do you have a particular series that you like?"

No matter what the car is, they can buy it.

There is no problem with the most expensive car in the world that needs to be customized.

"I'm getting old. It's your young people's business to like cars." Ye Meng smiled and sighed. "When I'm old, I don't like to move anymore. I just want to sit quietly."

"Look at the book, clean up the room, practice calligraphy, read Buddhism, and cultivate one's moral integrity."

Tian Shu said: "You are still young, as long as you think, Miss An will definitely support you in anything."

With that, he took out a tablet from the hidden pocket on the side of the seat and opened a web page full of luxury cars from various countries.

"Look which one you like, and tell them to deliver it."

As four people have crossed the open road, there is no need to pick up a car to buy a car. A phone call can handle everything.

Ye Mengwei was shocked by Tianshu's action.

He waved his hand quickly and refused with a smile, "It's really not necessary. If I like anything, I will definitely tell the four of you."

The four of them and their daughter are not like friends, but more like a relationship between superiors and superiors.

This is her idea.

What kind of relationship is it? My daughter never thought about telling her.

Then she didn't ask.

The daughter only said, "You can trust them as much as I do. If you have anything you want to tell them, it will definitely be done for you."

She really didn't want anything.

The only thing I want is for my daughter to be safe.

And those who want, have dreams they want when they are young.

Living well is her biggest dream.

He whispered again: "I was just thinking of a time when I was a child, and I was a little bit emotional."

Just now, she remembered the days when the old man was still alive.

At that time, the old man treated her well, loved her bereavement since childhood, and would take her wherever he went.

She was soaked, sitting in the old man's luxury car, causing several brothers and sisters in Dafang to be jealous and jealous.

But she was only two or three years old at that time, and she didn't understand anything.

I don't even know that this angered Dafang's brothers and sisters.

Chapter 894: Unspeakable past

Later, Elder Ye preferred to marry the new old lady Ye more and more, and her life became more and more sad.

When the old man passed away, the elder brothers and sisters in Dafang dared to challenge the current old lady Ye, but he was locked in the house and didn't even have the ability to resist.

Dafang's elder brother and sister couldn't tolerate her. Old lady Ye regarded her as a thorn in her eyes.

There is no other reason.

Her existence reminds the third lady of how to get the seat of the main room all the time.

That was the dark history that Old Lady Ye wanted to wipe out in her life.

such a pity.

The black history is not just made up out of thin air, it is a fact.

No matter how much the current old lady Ye wants to erase, her shameless past will always be remembered.

It will not be easily forgotten.

Even if she is dead, someone will flog her from time to time.

Let the Ye Family Sanfang in the real upper class society of the capital, always feel less emboldened.

He touched the armrest of the seat, Ye Meng smiled slightly.

In the eyes of no longer being young, there is a past that cannot be told.

She can't tell her daughter.

There is no way to tell friends.

wrong.

She has no friends.

There are no friends in the capital.

Anyang has no friends either.

After living for dozens of years, it turned out that the four young people who had been with her for more than half a year spoke to her the most.

Tianshu and the four of them naturally knew what kind of life Ye Mengwei lived before.

The emperor instructed that Ye Jiara dared to come to the door, except for fate, no mercy.

But they can't take the initiative to find them.

Tianxuan turned from the passenger seat and said with a smile: "Those previous days have passed, and your days will definitely be better than now."

Among the four, Wei Tianxuan is a bit more lively.

He usually chats with Ye Mengwei the most.

But what shouldn't be said, Tian Xuan did not say a word.

Hearing this, Ye Mengwei's eyes had a deeper smile.

Even the temperament is calm and watery, with the softness of water.

"In the days to come, it will naturally get better and better."

As she said, she suddenly said: "You have worked hard for the four young people for more than half a year, and now I am in good health, it is really not good to delay the four of you, wait for me to return..."

I wanted to say that after she returned to Anyang, the four of them would work hard to accompany her...

When the words reached his mouth, Ye Mengwei's smile tightened.

Forget, Anyang doesn't have her home.

There is a courtyard house with her name in the capital, and the location is excellent.

After the old man left, let the old butler secretly give it.

"I won't go back to Anyang. I have a courtyard house in the capital city. Can you send me there?"

Still very polite, never instructed Tianshu and the four of them.

Tianshu also respected Ye Mengwei very much.

In this middle-aged Xia Guo woman, let them see the toughness of Xia Guo's women.

I saw that even if she died, she still had to protect the emperor's motherly heart.

And this is exactly the biggest lack of the emperor.

Tianshu said, "The courtyard house under your name hasn't been inhabited for a long time, so I guess it needs to be cleaned up."

"Miss Ann asked us to choose a place that is very suitable for you to live in peace. We are going here now. If you want to see the courtyard, we can accompany you."

Xia Xia had even considered where she would live.

Where to live and where to settle the home, it is obviously her mother's responsibility.

In the end, it was all about my daughter.

Ye Mengwei deeply felt self-blame in his heart.

Being a mother, she can't shelter her daughter from the wind and rain. Being a mother really fails!

Tianshu sensed that Ye Mengwei's mood was depressed, and was relieved, "Miss An has your protection to live up to now. Now, Miss An has enough ability to protect you, so don't have a psychological burden."

"Support and filial piety are Ms. An's responsibility and duty as a mother and child."

Chapter 895: Stay, don't go

The resettlement controlled by the Ye family, thanks to Ms. Ye Mengwei's strong and cautious, protecting her only daughter everywhere, the return of the emperor later.

Based on this, Ms. Ye Mengwei is the great benefactor of the four of them.

The emperor showed filial piety to Ms. Ye Mengwei, and they repaid their gratitude.

It can be said that without Ms. Ye Mengwei, whether the emperor will come back is still unknown.

Ye Meng smiled wryly, "Xia Xia is only eighteen years old, and now many eighteen-year-old children are still sitting in the classroom with carefree reading."

"And Xia Xia, already knows to protect me, and has taken up the responsibility of Gu's family."

Tianxuan, Tianji, and Tianquan all glanced at Tianshu silently.

Strictly speaking, if the five years after the emperor's departure are counted as human beings, their emperor is actually not too young.

But in Ms. Ye Mengwei's heart, the emperor was only eighteen years old.

This is a secret, a secret that Ms. Ye can never know.

Never let Ms. Ye know that, in fact, the daughter she desperately wanted to protect had left her forever that night.

Miss Ann today is the lord of the emperor domain

Tian Shu smiled slightly, "I believe that many 18-year-old students are far less powerful than Miss An."

"You really want Miss Ann to go to school, she, I'm afraid she is not very happy."

Hearing this, Ye Meng couldn't help laughing.

"Xia Xia is really reluctant to go to school, but she is very smart, and her grades have been stable in the top three of her grade since she was a child."

"She also quietly told me before that her biggest wish is to go to a prestigious school abroad and take me to leave Xia Country."

"result....."

Ye Mengwei sighed lightly again.

"Now, she hasn't studied anymore, and it's impossible to leave Xia country after joining the team."

If possible, she will choose to let Xia Xia go abroad.

It's too dangerous to stay in Xia Country.

The settlement has been resolved, but there is still a Ye family.

Old lady Ye must have known that she and Xia Xia had escaped from Anyang, and were doing everything possible to find their mother and daughter.

Xia Xia is now in the team, but the Ye Family can't find it.

Then stay in the team.

Tianxuan smiled and joined the chat, "It's easy to want to go abroad. After Miss Ann leaves the team, we can go abroad together."

It's not easy to want to go abroad!

The emperor must want to return to the emperor domain.

Since Ms. Ye insisted that the emperor goes abroad, it would be more perfect.

But Ye Meng shook his head slightly, "No, let's stay in the team, the team is safe."

She didn't know that Anxia was also very dangerous to stay in the team.

The task performed was far more dangerous than dealing with the Ye Family.

"I stay here now, and I will always come out in the future." Tianxuan said, "It is impossible to stay in the team for the rest of my life."

Ye Meng thought for a while and asked them, "You said, is it possible for Xia Xia to stay in the team forever? Perhaps, is there any good way for you to keep Xia Xia in the team?"

"I heard that it is a good choice to enter the battle school, and there is also the opportunity to stay in the team as a teacher. Girls are very good teachers, stable and not hard."

Speaking of Tianshu, the four of them were horrified.

Don't!

Your thoughts are too dangerous!

The emperor could not stay in Xia Guo team forever.

There are still a lot of things in the emperor domain that need to be cleaned up by the emperor.

Tianxuan tentatively said, "There is no need to stay in the team all the time. The team is not 100% safe."

"I heard that there will be accidents in training."

It was necessary for Ms. Ye Mengwei to dispel the idea in a hurry.

Ye Mengwei smiled and said, "So, I want Xia Xia to enter the battle school. With Xia Xia's cleverness, she can definitely stay in school as a teacher."

"It's great to be admitted to the war school first, then to graduate school, and then to stay in school."

Chapter 896: Look for

No, no, it's not good at all.

Tianxuan winked Tianshu quickly.

Don't pretend to be advanced, please persuade.

Tian Shu smiled and said in a low voice: "It depends on Miss An's personal opinion."

"It's best if she wants to, but she doesn't want to, and can't force her to choose a path she doesn't like."

"You say, yes."

The implication is clear.

Whether to stay or not depends entirely on Anxia himself.

No one else has the right to interfere.

Speaking of Ye Mengwei's heart.

She nodded, "That's true. Xia Xia sees the difference. She can stay if she wants to stay. It's useless to persuade anyone who doesn't want to stay."

Fortunately, Ye Meng focused on An Xia's personal wishes everywhere, and when he encountered a stubborn one, he insisted on arguing about this matter.

Hearing what she said, Tianshu and the four of them were relieved.

Ye Mengwei decided to go to the courtyard first.

When she was young, she was tortured and beaten by Mrs. Ye and bullied by the people in the big room. She occasionally came to the courtyard to have a look. You wanted to live here one day.

The old housekeeper said that she couldn't live alone before she grew up.

This is the order of the old man.

Later she grew up and never had a chance to live in again.

She was forcibly married to Anjia by the old lady Ye.

She also married voluntarily.

Escaped the tiger's den and entered the wolf's den.

Calculating now, I haven't been to the Siheyuan for almost 30 years.

The quadrangle courtyard is in a very good location. It was still a house left by a certain civil official, which later became a private house, and finally fell into the hands of Old Man Ye.

There are two hundred-year-old trees on the vermilion front door with luxuriant branches. The crowns of the trees intersect with the branches of the old trees on the other side of the road, forming a natural tree-lined avenue.

Ye Mengwei sat in the car and didn't get out of the car immediately.

Get off from Tianshu and check if there are people living inside.

Judging from the vermilion lacquer painted on the door, it is not like the appearance of no one inhabited for more than 30 years.

Although the lacquer looks old, there is no mottled appearance, and someone is taking care of it at first sight.

Tian Shu knocked on the door and waited for a while, but no one came in.

He tapped the bronze ring of the beast's mouth again, but no one agreed.

Tianshu is considering whether to overturn the wall.

Seeing this, Ye Mengwei said to Tianxuan: "I'm afraid there is no one, let's go."

"Okay." Tianxuan responded, ready to get off the car.

The front door of the courtyard next door was opened.

Walked out of a middle-aged uncle carrying a bird cage.

Seeing Tianshu, he said "Huh" and asked, "But looking for the owner of this house?"

This house, the owner's house is very mysterious.

Since his birth, he has never seen the master's house come.

At first, it was an old man with a special spirit, dressed in a nice silk coat.

When he was eleven or twelve years old, the old man was replaced by a middle-aged man.

Seeing are two fathers and sons.

Taking advantage of the post of the door couplet in a certain year, the family's old father took an opportunity to ask the middle-aged man.

Fang Zhi, it turns out that neither father nor son is the master.

It is a servant who takes care of the master's house.

The master family who can let father and son serve as servants, needless to say, must be a well-established and well-founded man from the old capital.

It was just such a family, two generations of masters and servants guarded by father and son, and no third person ever visited.

Today, I ran into it for the first time.

The middle-aged uncle who was carrying the bird cage said, and looked up and down the strange man.

Expensive!

Dress expensively. .

People are also expensive.

"You are, the master's family is here?" He asked again, politely, with a hint of curiosity.

Tianshu was also very polite and polite, "The master sent me back to have a look."

Still a servant!

The middle-aged uncle was shocked.

The servants are so expensive, so what kind of extravagance is the master's house like!

"Then it will take your master's house to contact the brother who guards the house. Here, as far as I can remember, I don't live, only people come to clean up and take care of it once a month."

"I just came this month, and I won't be able to see people until next month."

Chapter 897: That's how rich people are dragged

No one has ever lived, which means that the old steward of the caretaker did not take the courtyard house as an existing one.

Tianshu thanked the middle-aged man, and after thinking about it, he returned to the car and found a bloodstone.

He said slightly to Ye Meng: "Thanks to him just now, I have learned some things here, and I want to give some gifts to express my gratitude."

The bloodstone was in a brocade box, Ye Mengwei didn't know what it was, but it was still a small gift.

Concisely said: "Yes, you have to work harder to run one more time."

Tianshu got off the car again and gave the brocade box to the middle-aged man.

The middle-aged man declined.

It's just a few words of effort, no need to be courteous.

Tianshu insisted on giving it, and asked the middle-aged man to do something, "I'll come back next time, please tell him, stay for three more days, someone will come over to him."

After some push, the middle-aged man accepted the brocade box and promised to bring the words.

When the car drove away, the middle-aged man returned home and put down the bird cage, opened the brocade box, and was shocked!

It turned out to be a piece of bloodstone rough.

This this this...

This this this...

This is hundreds of thousands!

How dare a middle-aged man accept such a heavy gift.

Run out quickly.

Outside, there is no shadow of a car.

Gone long ago.

Gifts are indeed valuable, but there is no shortage of them in the emperor domain.

To Tianshu and the others, hundreds of thousands are all small amounts of money.

Most importantly, they need middle-aged men to help them speak.

An hour later, the car drove to the second ring road and entered the luxury villa area which is one of the best in the capital.

There are mountains and lakes, and the environment is very good.

This is the home of Ye Mengwei from now on.

An Xia's plan is to return to the emperor domain to clean up the door first, and then pick Ye Mengwei to her side.

This process takes less than two years.

After two years, Ye Mengwei stayed here temporarily.

Tianshu then quietly left, while the national security personnel were still waiting for him outside.

Later, Tianshu got into a jeep and left.

Tianji, who came to see him off, watched the vehicle leave before returning to the villa.

Tianquan asked, "Gone?"

"Yeah." Tianji nodded, and then said: "Our computer has been hacked."

"When?" Tian Quan frowned, "Which person?"

"Xia Guo, it should be the people who took Tianshu away." Tianji pressed the corner of her mouth, "Suddenly investigated again, could something happen to the emperor?"

Tianquan's face suddenly sank, and then he said, "It shouldn't be possible."

"If something happens, we will take away all of us."

What is the reason?

The three people who remained were a little uneasy.

Tianshu soon knew what the reason was.

Xia Guo's National Security Bureau, Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon, and even Dimensity's computer can successfully invade.

Fortunately, the emperor had already prepared!

Leave no traces everywhere.

When asked by the National Security Bureau, Tian Shu said: "This is a video we downloaded from an extranet paid website. An Xia has watched it several times."

"Whether she has practiced, then we really don't know."

The video shows the fighters of the special fighters of Xueyu and Powolf taught by An Xia.

The national security officer asked, "What website is it?"

"A dark web requires identity authentication to enter." Tianshu is very cooperative. "If you want to see it, give me a computer and I can enter."

Soon a laptop was placed next to Tianshu, and after a series of complex identity authentication, Tianshu landed on the dark web under the external network.

Inside, there are many unknown videos.

Among them is the video from Diyu, which was uploaded two years ago.

The fighting technique video of Emperor Yu is also available on this website, and the upload date is before An Xia joined the team.

Although there is a video as evidence, the national security personnel did not end there, and need to be reconfirmed.

On the other side, Mrs. Ye San learned that the person she had sent out had an accident, and she was so angry that she dropped a glass on the spot.

"A bunch of trash! This little thing can't be done!"

Chapter 898: Poor work

What made Madam Ye San even more angry was that she didn't know who had taken the people from her side.

She didn't dare to hide from Mrs. Ye.

Don't look at Mrs. Ye's anger from last time until she fell ill and was hospitalized, but Mrs. Ye must know about the family affairs.

If you dare to hide it, Mrs. Ye San will be better off looking back.

People are getting old day by day, even if the body is not as good as day by day, the old lady Ye, who is used to being the master of the house, has never thought about delegating power.

Tell the old lady Ye, the old lady who was drinking the bird's nest immediately turned gloomy.

"Who doesn't know?" The eyes looking at Mrs. Ye San were also gloomy, obviously dissatisfied with her daughter-in-law's work.

I don't even know who the people who took the Ye family are, rubbish!

Madam Ye San bowed her head and answered cautiously, "Mom, those people suddenly appeared, it's really... hard to find."

"How big is the capital! Why should you be looking for it! I don't have a charter for my own affairs, so how can I expect others to report on their own?"

Since Ye Youyin was arrested, the old lady is not pleasing to the eyes of Mrs. Ye San now.

As long as there is a little something, she must swear at Madam Ye San.

Mrs. Ye Si who came over just listened and couldn't help laughing to herself.

The eldest daughter-in-law is not easy to be.

She should be comfortable with her second daughter-in-law.

The old lady doesn't live with her, so she doesn't have so many pointers.

He told the daughter-in-law to hug her grandson and walked over with a smile, "Mom, look, who is coming to see you."

The great-grandson was born, and Mrs. Ye still liked it very much.

But it also reminded that she was really old.

Too old to have become a grandmother.

Mrs. Ye San's expression became stiff when she heard the lady's laughter, and she gritted her teeth secretly.

Doing things today is really at a disadvantage!

Let people look at the joke again.

The little baby came over, and Mrs. Ye didn't have any thoughts to tease.

A little tease, but said to Madam Ye Si: "Do things for your sister-in-law."

Then he explained what to do one by one.

When Mrs. Ye Si heard it, she signed a ticket, "Mom, this is a trivial matter. Take me."

"Sister-in-law, don't blame her on your side. Alas, there is something wrong with you, sister-in-law is anxious. Naturally, there is no way to take care of the trivial things."

"This matter, I have a letter from Ai's family, and let Ai's help sister-in-law solve it."

"Once, they have some abilities in the Aijia Road, so there are more ways to do it for them."

"Secondly, in case the person who took our family has a background, the Ai family will come forward, and our family will not be affected."

"Looking back at our family, Zhang Zhang's fingers, and some small gains leaked from the fingers to Ai's family. Ai's family will only be more grateful to our family."

"Look, my arrangement is feasible?"

After making a decision, the old lady has to nod her head.

This is the rule of the Ye family.

Mrs. Ye nodded, "If you want to be thoughtful, just do it."

He turned his head and said coldly to Mrs. Ye San: "Learn more from your younger siblings, don't cry all the time, you will cry for good things into bad things!"

Madam Ye San dared not refute a word, she had to bow her head to be taught, "Daughter-in-law understands."

Ai's family came forward, but nothing was found.

Three days later, the Ye family still didn't come back, and there was no news from the Ai family.

Tianshu and the four of them also ended the investigation and reunited.

Naturally there is nothing wrong.

Tianxuan said: "Every step the emperor takes, there is a way out."

"Otherwise, how could you be the emperor?" Tian Quandao, with the worship of the emperor An Xia in his eyebrows, "the emperor has never failed to do anything."

Chapter 899: More terrifying existence

An Xia always counts without omission in doing things.

She can think about a hundred steps, she will definitely not only think about a hundred steps, how can she think about a few more steps to prevent those unavoidable things from happening.

Just like this fight.

Fighting out of the imperial domain can only be used by the people of the imperial domain.

None of the people around will not.

Since none of the people next to her would be able to, then how could she, a small commoner who had never been abroad, even in Anyang, had never been out of the country.

Naturally, it takes a source.

This source cannot yet be a small source, it has to be a source that is deeply hidden and can be trusted.

An Xia would not treat others as idiots, let alone underestimate the people on Xia Guo's side.

An Xia, who instructed the two special fighters every night, was calm and relaxed, and was not afraid of finding out anything.

"It's too late. If you have an accident, you are one step later than others."

"Didn't you all tell you just now, the hand is to the left, the palm is out, and the dagger is immediately grasped? Why is it still not keeping up with the rhythm?"

Holding the freshly cut thorn sticks in her hand, An Xia drew the thorn sticks ruthlessly while pointing stubbornly.

As long as the special fighters selected by her, the pain must be so painful.

pain!

It hurts too much!

Can't hide yet.

Whoever hides will end up worse.

The special fighters of the Snowy Brigade were crying without tears.

They thought King Q was abnormal enough in training, who knows!

Who knew there was an even more abnormal Anxia!

As long as she is caught, it is a smoke.

"The legs are not fast enough! Slow!"

smoke!

"The reaction is not fast enough! Slow!"

smoke!

"How did you fight back? Where did your strength go?"

smoke!

"He showed his daggers all over here. Where's your dagger? Swallowed it?"

smoke!

One night, it was all whipping.

Even...

Mu Chenyuan, Xia Jinyuan, and Ye Jian are no exception. An Xia has all drawn.

Her strictness made all the special fighters of the two teams dare not take it lightly.

It even made Xia Jinyuan wonder if An Xia knew something and gave him a private vengeance.

Ye Jian gave him a sideways look, "How is it possible, Xia Xia is not such a person!"

Yes, yes, she is not such a person.

Xia Jinyuan didn't dare to say that An Xia was not good in front of Ye Jian.

Turning his head to want to say a few words with Mu Chenyuan, touching the sight of Mu Chenyuan Leng Lingling, it is impossible to say it in front of this one!

An Xia actually vaguely guessed what the three of them were hiding from themselves.

Fighting skills.

Xia Jinyuan has seen people in the imperial domain, and he does not rule out that he has seen people in the imperial domain using this set of fighting skills.

With his subtle keenness, he must have thought of the emperor domain.

The imperial domain, the western countries recognize the imperial domain and have close contacts with the imperial domain. Even some countries in the Asia-Oceania state also have some contacts with the imperial domain.

Only Xia Guo, they have always held the attitude of not interfering, not disturbing, and keeping a friendly distance with each other.

If Xia Jinyuan thought of the Emperor Territory, he would definitely report it.

After reporting, it will naturally have to be checked.

Check it, she doesn't understand at all.

The source is the dark web, Tianshu and the others told the dark web to Xia Guo, and then Xia Guo and the dark web clashed privately.

Based on her understanding of the dark web, the more people searched for them, the quicker the traces were wiped off. Even if Xia Guo investigates, he will not be able to find out anything for a while.

As long as there is no problem with the source, her side will be stable.

The dark web has its own rules of survival. The reason why it can be spread all over the world is that its hidden strength and influence are terrifying.

Even the Emperor's Domain, when it is less than a guarantee, will not easily fight against the dark web.

After Tianshu and the four of them had finished questioning one by one, An Anxin accompanied Ye Mengwei in the villa.

But there is no such thing as personal protection 24 hours a day.

If you have to live, you have to go out and take care of the industry.

Regardless of the fact that the four of them have been in the hospital before, but they have not left their computers, they have been taking care of various industries.

Can alarm the current emperor An Qian's industry, did not move.

The industries that moved were secretly purchased long ago.

These industries are also Anxia's retreat.

Now Jing Tianshu and the four of them are looking at them, one by one surfaced.

The bosses of countless big companies finally saw it, the big boss behind the scenes that he had never seen before.

Chapter 900: Shouldn't be curious

An Xia basically does not intervene in business matters. He has no time and no interest.

These are handled by Tianshu and they never need An Xia to worry about.

An Xia still knows how many properties Tianshu and the others have set up for Anxia, and they are not laissez-faire.

It is kept in the dark, and only people An Xia knows take charge of her and act as her "eyes."

Even in her body, these "eyes" are always running, and never stopped one day.

The "eyes" don't know who the people behind them are. They only know that if they are serious about doing good things, they will lead a pretty good life.

When they received a totem of the unsheathed ancient sword in their mailbox again, countless people in the cities of Xia State began to work overtime for nearly a week overnight.

They need to report assets, profits and other accounting reports as quickly as possible.

Tianxuan read the reports from several cities one by one, raised his eyes from the electronic screen, rubbed some dry eyes, and took a few sips of water after holding up the water glass.

Then, as if thinking of something, he approached Tianji and whispered: "You said, besides us, who else is in Xia Kingdom?"

Tian Ji twisted her eyebrows and said, "I'm looking for death."

"..." Tian Xuan closed her mouth, still didn't hold it back, and said again, "I'm not in the Emperor's Domain now, just ask, don't be so nervous."

Tian Ji didn't bother to pay attention to him, gave him a cold glance, and continued his work.

"Are you not curious at all?" Tian Xuan continued to move forward, "I always feel that the emperor still has a wave of forces hidden."

"It belongs to her completely, and all people from the imperial domain don't know it."

Tian Ji is also a person who doesn't talk much. Tian Xuan, who has always had a lot of face-to-face conversations, has always adopted an attitude of ignoring.

Seeing that he was still going on, Tianji made a deep face, "You can ask Tianshu."

Ask Tianshu...

Isn't this looking for death?

Tianxuan shut up.

He has always been afraid of his brother Tianshu.

Tianshu and Tianxuan are twins, and Tianji and Tianquan are twins.

The liveliest of the four is Tianxuan.

In the past, he talked with Anxia the most in the imperial domain.

Tianshu came in at this moment, followed by Tianquan.

When the two came in, Tianquan glanced at Tianji. The tacit understanding between the twins did not require Tianji to say anything. When he retracted his gaze, he glanced at Tianxuan, who was immersed in work.

Then, his gaze fell on Tianshu again.

When they were away, Tianxuan was afraid that he would talk again.

Also provoked Tianji's displeasure.

Tian Shu walked straight behind Tian Xuan, cold air, as if frozen with thorns, and pierced Tian Xuan's back with bursts of cold.

Did not hold it, got up.

"What did you say." Tianshu asked him.

Tianxuan coughed, "No, I didn't say anything."

"Say." Tianshu didn't talk nonsense, just one word.

One word is enough to make Tianxuan's calf tremble a bit.

The elder brother Tianshu is the guard who has been with the emperor for the longest time.

Especially when he is silent and cold, it feels as if the emperor is standing in front of his eyes, feeling frightened.

"I wonder if behind the emperor... is it..."

As Tianshu's breath became colder and colder, Tianxuan's voice became smaller and smaller.

Finally, it's as small as a mosquito.

"...Are there other forces."

It was pure curiosity, so I asked.

Tianshu's eyes were so gloomy that it was about to hail, "A few years of rest will make you courageous! Can you be curious about the emperor's affairs?"

If it were placed in the past, when Tianxuan spoke the first sentence, he was directly sentenced.

Tianxuan was so trained that he did not dare to look up.

Then, whispered: "I know, I won't ask again in the future."

"It's impossible to ask at any time!" Tianshu was angry, the blue veins on the back of his hand soared, "I turned around and pleaded with the emperor!"

"Yes!"

Honestly, I dare not say a word.
