Chapter 911: The harm is not shallow, you should be punished

An Xia watched and listened.

What Luo Zhong said was not only in Xia State, but also in other countries.

Xia Guo has always been harsh on this type of crime, as long as a trace is found, it will definitely be investigated to the end.

Take new harmful products as an example, very few countries are as strict as Xia Guo.

Some countries even legalize these things.

Xia Guo did not.

"New types of harmful products have been diversified, and their disguise has become more concealed. This is a new category that we have seized on KTV this month. You can take a look."

Luo Zhong spoke very politely, and there was respect in his words, and he did not greet An Xia casually because of his tender age.

The national police needs a female special fighter with strong comprehensive strength to enter the campus to cooperate with this network-laying operation. Since Lu Er District has sent Anxia over, it has fully demonstrated Anxia's strength.

Young and strong, Luo Zhong has regarded An Xia as a teammate fighting side by side.

An Xia received the sample, her eyes condensed slightly.

Five years ago, these new harmful products were not as diverse as this.

Five years later, they can be disguised as beverages, coffee, calcium tablets, stamps, twigs, rainbow smoke, biscuits... and so on, everyday food items that people cannot recognize at first sight.

Picking up another transparent plastic bag, An Xia looked at the contents in it, her eyes flashed over, "Are there biscuits?"

"Yes, cookies. From the outside, they are the same as biscuits, but there is a green substance inside, which is marijuana. Many people have received the biscuits without thinking deep enough.

"The youngest recruiter was a thirteen-year-old middle school student. He was recruited unintentionally. Fortunately, the parents found it in time and immediately responded to us."

"It was precisely this clue that eventually landed in Changhai City."

"Shanghai is a coastal city, and Changgang City is connected to it. There is a large flow of people entering and exiting the border every day. These things are mixed into the food and it is difficult to identify them in the first place."

Changhai City itself is a city with a large floating population. Coupled with the connection to the international metropolis of Changgang City, it has increased the cover for these criminals and made the arrest operations more difficult.

The net-laying operation has been opened, just wait for the opportunity to close the net immediately.

Anxia put all the samples back into the light-weight aluminum alloy code box, and said Shen:

"Understand, I will do my best."

Punish the things that are not superficial!

There is a problem, you have to confirm it.

"If I find a major suspect and the other party tries to kill me, do I have the authority to clean up on the spot?"

Only when the problem is clear!

In case she didn't pay attention and started a little harder, it would be possible to solve all the people.

Luo Zhong nodded, "Of course, those who stubbornly resist and endanger the lives of others can be cleaned up."

"But we still try to catch it alive, because we need to get more useful information from their mouths."

OK, there is such a sentence.

Able to catch alive as much as possible.

There are 14 pages of information, all of which are targets to be approached.

It contains their personal details, as well as their parents' information.

As Luo Zhong said, they are all students with very good family conditions.

But the social relationship is very complicated, going out in luxury cars, calling friends, spending money like water, and living a life of drunkenness.

Men are handsome and women are beautiful, but unfortunately, some people make the wrong step, and all of them are wrong.

"This is your admission information. The school will have someone to receive you and directly handle the admission fee for you."

As he said, Luo Zhong took out another card and a car key, "This is your capital and the car key."

Since it requires a high profile, it must be equipped naturally.

An Xia glanced at the hardware and said, "No, I have it myself."

Chapter 912: Anxia

I have?

Luo Zhong raised his eyes and didn't react for a while.

"you....."

An Xia said, "Give me a cell phone and it's done."

Her mobile phone has not been around since participating in the assessment, only the mobile phone card has been carried with her all the time.

"Where is the nearest bank?" she asked again.

Luo Zhong immediately took out his cell phone and asked, "It's very close, five kilometers."

"Go to the bank to apply for a card first, if you have a mobile phone..." An Xia thought for a while, and said in a casual voice, "Forget it, I'll go buy it myself."

"You send me to the bank, and I will take care of other things myself."

Luo Zhong took the bank card and car keys, trying to catch up with Anxia's rhythm, and said: "They like to approach high-profile students. You need to be a high-profile one."

"The money in the card is not much, mainly car keys."

Famous car, this is a famous car.

Still a limited edition sports car.

The above was finally obtained with great difficulty, just for the high-profile use of An Xia.

An Xia indifferently refused, "I can get better hardware and equipment. You can keep these."

It is also pitiful. It is estimated that the funds are not enough. This car...

To be honest, it's not a very good car.

It wasn't the car that An Xia looked like Luo Zhong gave her.

In fact, her definition of luxury cars is different.

As for people who once owned several private jets, the underground garage has three floors, and at least 50 cars of various tens of millions of luxury cars, Anxia feels that a car under 10 million is not a luxury car.

Luo Zhong took back the car keys silently.

With a car of six million, how could he hear that Anxia still has such a trace of disgust?

"Really not?"

He asked again.

An Xia nodded, "No need."

"I don't need a card?"

"No." She wants to spend it, and the card he gave is probably not available.

The phone was not there yet. Anxia temporarily borrowed Luo Zhong's phone, inserted his phone card, and sent a text message to Tianshu.

Directly ask for money.

Simple and rude.

When Tianshu received the text message, he was still stunned.

The first reaction is: hacking?

Because this is the first time the emperor asks him for money!

Go back to the message quickly, "Or remit to the card that was given to you last time?"

The card given last time?

Oh, I almost forgot.

There is such a bank card.

I don't know how much money is in it. Anyway, I can buy a building in the capital.

How much is the housing price in the capital?

An Xia asked Luo Zhong, "What is the current housing price in the capital?"

He stopped asking Luo Zhong, he was really not sure about it.

"Good location, bring a good degree, one or two hundred thousand?"

The most expensive house price in Changhai City today is the Houhai wealthy area, with a unit price of more than 200,000 yuan.

An Xia estimated the amount of money in Kali, which was hundreds of millions.

That's enough.

"How much is in the card?" She asked Tianshu to confirm that the next amount of money would be much larger.

Prepare in advance, lest the money is gone when you really need to spend it!

Tianshu hit a string of zeros.

Rough calculations, more than 9 digits.

Anxia used Luo Zhong's mobile phone to search for the most expensive house prices in Changhai City. It was almost there, and he could pay the balance of five houses in one lump sum.

The bank card is also on me, so I don't need to go to the bank.

When shopping, it's just a matter of time.

Turning out the bank card, An Xia said: "You don't need to go to the bank, just go to the city."

Luo Zhong only obeyed the arrangement.

After arriving in the city, Luo Zhong did not follow An Xia as a precaution.

"This is my mobile phone number. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions, and turn it on 24 hours a day."

An Xia took the note with his mobile phone number, glanced at it, and memorized the number by heart.

After saying goodbye to Luo Zhong, An Xia first bought a mobile phone for herself, and then went straight to the famous car shop.

Chapter 912: Anxia

I have?

Luo Zhong raised his eyes and didn't react for a while.

"you....."

An Xia said, "Give me a cell phone and it's done."

Chapter 914: Emperor was assaulted

Here, Tianshu heard the words and was already preparing to book air tickets.

At the same time, I asked respectfully, "There are three major districts in Changhai. Do you prefer to rely on the sea? Or do you support the mountains?"

"Hounan District, by the sea."

"clear."

Hounan District, the most expensive place in Changhai City at present, if you rely on the sea...

Tianshu quickly locked in the most expensive and best large flat sea view room.

"I will contact you again after the process is completed. In addition, there is something about Ms. Ye that needs to be reported to you. Is it convenient for you to see us?"

Intuition tells Tianshu that the emperor he is loyal to is probably performing a certain task.

If it is to perform a certain task, I am afraid it is not convenient to see them.

This, An Xia really doesn't know, so he needs to ask Luo Zhong.

"I'll ask, the house matter will be resolved as soon as possible, choose the house and contact me."

"Okay." Tian Shu has already noted the intermediary phone number.

First-hand housing is impossible to buy and live.

Second-hand housing can be traded, and temporarily moved in at the time of the transaction, and settled by paying rent until the house is transferred.

You can also live in the hotel for the transition first, and wait for him to renew the house before entering.

These trivial matters were left to Tianshu to handle, An Xia didn't need to worry, just waited for the move in.

However, the man took advantage of this and sat close to An Xia, and said enthusiastically: "Little girl, you rent a house. I have a house in Houshan District just vacant. Why don't you go take a look?"

"Look, you are a student who just graduated from high school. I don't think there is much money on you. I can give you a little cheaper."

Sitting closer and closer, the moment he handed the phone to An Xia, the man holding the phone in his left hand stretched out his right hand and held it to An Xia's shoulder.

The intention of what you want to do is thoroughly exposed.

"Come on, show you the neighborhood of the house, the environment is very good."

Tianshu heard it clearly.

"Emperor."

His expression was cruel, and his face was cold.

"Hang up." An Xia finished speaking, her eyes stunned.

With his left hand stretched out, he caught the salted pig's hand who was trying to hold her shoulder at a very fast speed.

Over there, Tianshu heard a man's death tragically, and then the call ended.

It must be the emperor who has taken care of someone over there.

Tianshu did not bother, let alone anxious, put down his mobile phone to contact the intermediary.

In the car

The man's right wrist was twisted by An Xia, and his face was distorted in pain.

"My grass!! Let go!"

It was so painful that I was sweating, and my mouth was not polite.

The driver was taken aback and looked back quickly.

I saw the little girl who got in the car last, grabbing the right hand of the male passenger who got in the car first with one hand.

"What's the matter? What's the matter?" the driver asked urgently.

The male passenger yelled and shouted at the driver.

"What's wrong, what's wrong, are you blind?! Let go! Let me go!"

As he said, he even raised his foot and kicked towards An Xia.

The human appearance is gone, only the furious anger.

The driver also saw the broken wrist of the male passenger's left hand, and was so scared that he drove the car to the edge of the road.

The female passenger sitting in the front row shrank her shoulders, raised her mobile phone, and barked, "Call the police, I'll call the police."

The driver opened the door, ready to get off.

An Xia said coldly: "Sit down."

"Hey."

The door is closed and sit down honestly.

The man was furious, "Get out of the car! Pull her away for me!"

The driver did not move.

Compared to the man's anger, the driver was more afraid of the girl's eyes in the back seat.

The girl in the front row cried and called the police, "...I want to call the police, the police, someone is insulting us..."

The police dispatched in Changhai city very quickly!

Five minutes later, the police car arrived.

The door opened and An Xia dragged the man out of the car.

Just get off the car and throw the person in front of the city police, "Handle it, it's indecent."

Chapter 915: Rubbish

The man who had lost the ground screamed loudly when he heard it.

"Who is insulting you! Police officer, I was beaten by her! Look at my hand..." The white-faced man forcibly discerned it and raised his twisted hand.

"I want to call the police, she beats someone!"

An Xia has seen a lot of shameless people, and his masculine denial made An Xia sneer, "Assault? You should be thankful that you were born in Xia."

Change to another country, even a neighboring country, she can kill people!

indecent

Before, An Xia never thought that he would be assaulted one day.

Who would dare to insult her?

Too long?

And now

An Xia said with a cold face and left straight away.

In addition, this time, she was attempted to be assaulted twice!

Once, eating grilled fish with Jade Bird and Anniversary New Year's Eve Market was molested.

This time, taking a taxi was assaulted!

Is she not ruthless enough?

Or does she look like a bully?

You can meet a pervert in a car!

An Xia, who had a very stinky face, was stopped by the city police, "Little girl, don't leave, you need a routine questioning."

Very gentle, but his eyes are very reliable and serious.

An Xia stopped, "Ask what?"

"Is it the police you called?"

Normally, they must first confirm who the caller is when they come.

The little girl in front of them didn't give them a chance. Seeing them coming, the car door opened and people were lost, and she turned and left.

The whole set of movements is smooth and flowing, simply and neatly.

"She calls the police, and I am responsible for control." An Xia looked at the girl who was holding a canvas bag and ran to the other city policemen seeking asylum. "You can ask her for more useful information."

Very calm, not afraid.

The city police glanced at the disgraced man, then looked at An Xia, his voice was more gentle, "How about you? Have you been hurt?"

"With him?" An Xia sneered, "If you are a trash, you dare to attack the weak girl."

The man was picked up by another city policeman and yelled at him, "What's your name! Just say anything!"

"The two little girls said that you were indecent to them, and the elders of the big people, just do it when you do it, and admit it honestly!"

"I really wronged you, we will investigate it clearly and will not wrong you!"

A total of four city police officers were dispatched.

An Xia's side,

There is a driver next to him,

A girl next to her,

Add another scum.

The driver said to the questioning city police: "I don't know what happened."

"The little girl got on the bus at Dongmao Plaza, and the little girl with the co-pilot got on the bus at Huabu Electronics City. The male passenger got on the bus first."

"The little girl who got on the bus in Huabu Electronics City was originally sitting in the back. After the car stopped at Dongmao, she got out and sat in the front."

"When the car drove to Beihua Avenue, I heard a scream from the male passenger behind, scaring me to park the car on the side of the road."

"I turned my head and saw that I was so scared and sweaty. The hands of the male passengers were broken by the little girl."

"Then, the girl who got on the bus in the China Department of Electronics City called the police, and then you came."

The driver really didn't know what was going on. He drove well and something happened.

The girl was so frightened, the city police came over and rushed over at the first time.

With a sense of security, there is no more fear than before.

Crying in his throat, he said: "The policeman I called, the man, has been working with me since I got in the car, I resisted, he, he, he..."

"He threatened me that he knew where I was working, and he dared to say something, so he went to the gate of my company to catch me."

"I also said that if you see me once, you will kill me once."

"I was so scared that I was sitting next to the car door, so I didn't dare to resist. But he even stepped up and leaned against me."

"The car stopped at Dongmao Plaza, and the little girl got in the car. I jumped out of the car and wanted to run, but..."

Chapter 916: Human complexity

I was still crying just now, and I cried directly now.

The shoulders were shaking, and the fear that was finally suppressed, surged again.

The city police hurriedly comforted, "Don't be afraid, don't be afraid, you tell the story clearly."

With that said, brought the girl to the police car, took out a bottle of mineral water, unscrewed the bottle cap before handing it to the girl.

"Come on, take a sip, speak slowly, don't worry."

The man controlled by another city policeman just wanted to get out, screaming like a ghost, "I'm going to the hospital, I'm going to be tested! Don't press me! I'm the victim!"

The wrist is just punishment by An Xialuo, twisting and dislocating, looking scary and small.

For small problems, find an orthopedic doctor to reset it in a few seconds.

The city police saw that the problem was not big at a glance, and it was even more humbling to see the other party yelling like this.

Drinking coldly, "Stop! Before I ask you, keep quiet!"

If you keep calling, you can't ask a good question!

An Xia's questioning is over.

He was praised by the city police, "Yes, little girl, you should say 'no' when you encounter this kind of thing. A legal society cannot tolerate such people."

"Come on, show me the ID card, don't worry, I just do a registration, it won't affect you."

ID card?

ID card in the team?

There is only one document on him.

The task is in hand, it is not convenient to take it out.

There is only one student ID.

Not in her hands yet.

"A certificate is necessary?" An Xia asked.

The city police nodded, "Didn't you bring them?"

"fine."

"Also make the ID number."

That's simple.

After reporting a string of numbers, the city police used a handheld terminal to inquire, and there was no problem with the identity.

But still can't go.

The driver has taken the city police to the car to retrieve the video.

You need to take out the video before you can leave.

Seeing An Xia's identity information column showed "student", the city police asked another question, "Is it here to work? Or to study?"

"Reading." Anxia reported the university name, "Changhai University freshman."

"Changhai City is very safe, but if you just came here, it's best to go out with friends. Try not to choose carpooling when you take a taxi, and pay attention to your own safety."

Started to exhort to prevent this kind of thing from happening again.

An Xia found out that Xia Guo's city police were quite nagging, and could compete with Ye Mu.

After checking the time, it was past two o'clock in the afternoon.

If you delay, don't even think about buying her car today.

"How long will it take to leave? I'm in a hurry."

"Soon, the video will be called out, you can leave after you confirm it."

The man went to the car to retrieve the video and began to pretend to be dizzy.

"I'm dizzy, I'm going to the hospital, you call me 120 soon."

"If you don't deal with my request, I will complain to you immediately!"

Pretending to be sick is not cooperating with the city police's questioning.

The girl has finished her questioning here, and asked with tears,

"Can I go? I have to send a contract to the client. I will have to deduct the bonus when I am late."

In a rush to deliver the contract, there were so many people who took taxis, and then they were worried about An Xia sitting behind, the girl who could have left, because she was afraid of pushing An Xia into the danger zone.

Because of self-blame, I chose to stay.

The complexity of human nature struggles with contradictions and sobriety.

An Xia understood why the girl sat in the front row when the man approached him.

I didn't blame the girl, but in the face of danger, I chose to escape as soon as possible. This was instinct.

Soon, the video came out.

The evidence is as strong as a mountain, but the man is still cunning.

"How could I assault her! She seduce me!"

"She wants to rent a house. I saw that it was not easy for her to go out as a girl. I said that I happened to have a room vacant, so I could rent it to her at a low price!"

"I'm obviously kind! I didn't expect her to say that I was insulting her!"

Chapter 917: Chemical castration, forever

In the video, An Xia didn't speak during the whole process, but he was very good at talking nonsense with his eyes open.

It's wrong to say more.

An Xia glanced at him and said coldly: "This kind of person, chemical castration, will never end troubles."

Cough cough cough...

The city police coughed unnaturally and explained, "There is no chemical castration in our country."

Is Xia Guo?

An Xia frowned, "You are law enforcement officers, and you have the right to make suggestions."

"He is a habitual offender, and he can still be cunning in the face of hard evidence. Today, I will teach you a few words without pain or itching. I will detain him for a few days at most and continue after he comes out."

"Leaving him alone will only hurt more girls."

When the man heard this, he jumped up and accused, "You girl, why do you have such a smelly mouth!"

"Looking at someone who is beautiful, his eyes are too bad! City police, you'd better investigate her!"

"I am beautiful, with bad eyes and many eyes. I heard that I have a room and seduce me, huh! He is willing to do some shameful deeds!"

Speaking is hard to hear, and it is personally attacked.

The city police scolded, "I didn't ask you anything! Stand still! If you make trouble again, it will hinder official duties and be punished severely!"

"I'm not wrong! Why can't she say that I can't say it?"

"The girls from these small places have no money or ability. They seduced men by their beauty and took the opportunity to make a fortune. She is blackmail!"

"Yes, she is blackmailing me!"

An Xia really wanted to beat him.

What are these people doing alive.

Chemical castration is cheap for him.

Ascend directly to heaven, don't leave the world to harm the world.

The girl who has been protected by the city police cried and said, "You spit someone! She didn't speak at all! You kept talking to her!"

"You still... still touched my thigh and threatened! You just assaulted us!"

I am brave to stand up and speak.

The city police did not give the man another chance to scream. They were still mildly enforcing the law. They warned that the man had not stopped three times and directly took coercive measures.

Hold the person backhand and scream, "Don't move! Don't move! Honestly! Hear you!"

"Come here, come here, the city police beat someone! The city police beat someone, ah! Ah! Ah, my hand broke."

"The city police hit someone! Come and take pictures and videos to help me collect evidence. The city police hit someone."

Beihua Avenue is a two-way six-lane road, and it is also the main road of Changhai City.

The traffic volume is quite large. Because it is close to the most prosperous business district, there are people coming and going on the sidewalks. The men shout so loudly, and there are really pedestrians holding up their mobile phones.

No longer staying, he escorted people into the car, the door closed, and it was quiet.

An Xia turned her back to the sidewalk and returned to the taxi behind the city police.

The scared girl also returned to the car.

Before the car left, the city police said to the girl: "If you encounter this kind of thing in the future, you can resist it in a crowded place. You don't need to be afraid."

"Study like this little girl, she is still a student, and she can resist bravely, so surely you can too."

"They are all girls, pay attention to safety when you go out at home, and call the police as soon as you have problems."

"Thank you, thank you, I know, thank you, thank you." The girl apologized with tears and red eyes. The mood at this moment is much better than before.

An Xia's city police also urged to pay attention to safety, and heard her ears become calluses.

"You are busy, I have to leave beforehand, goodbye." As he said, An Xia slowly raised the glass.

Seeing this, the city police smiled helplessly.

The little girl has skill, character, and personality.

The man wanted to bully her, and didn't slap him a few times, because the little girl was merciful.

An Xia didn't expect to slap at all.

Slap in the face, meaningless.

The man's hand is twisted and folded, and the solution is simple.

Chapter 918: Don't panic in case of trouble, make a ruthless shot

The car started and set off again to the destination.

The driver opened his mouth, "You told me just now, I don't know what happened."

"Master, do this kind of thing, bah! You can't beat that girl!"

"You really want to learn from this little girl, dare to be rude and kill him!"

The girl bowed her head when she said it.

"I was very scared at the time, I didn't think so much."

"What are you afraid of! I told you that this kind of man is bullying and fearing hard work! You stand up and resist, but he is afraid."

"The more you hide, the more he gets into his feet! When you yell, he is persuaded!"

The more the driver said, the more angry.

What's all this.

Carried a pervert!

The girl hugged her bag tightly, her eyes red again, turned her head, and apologized to An Xia, "Little sister, I'm sorry. My sister didn't mean it just now, I was too scared at the time."

An Xia raised her eyes and said calmly, "It's okay."

"I....."

The girl wanted to talk, but the driver interrupted, "Oh, it's not easy, you listen to the city police, try to go out alone as little as possible."

"Changhai is safe, but who knows if he will encounter a pervert."

"If you really want to run into it, don't be afraid. You can call someone or call the police. Nowadays, there are surveillance everywhere. I'm not afraid that they won't admit it."

"That thing was wronged by seeing the video just now! It also wronged the little girl. No matter how cunning he is, the video will be clear."

"I just don't know how to clean him up, put him in jail, and sentence him to three to five years before he is relieved."

How many years?

Certainly not.

It would be nice to be detained for a few days.

An Xia didn't want to talk more, so he reminded the driver, "Drive, pay attention to safety."

The driver didn't say a word until he got off the bus.

The girl also got out of the car, and then caught up with An Xia, bending down deeply, "I'm sorry, little sister."

"You..." An Xia thought for a while, and she said calmly, "Prepare an anti-wolf spray in your bag. Also, if you encounter this kind of person, find a chance to kick your crotch."

The girl was ashamed and was educated by a girl younger than herself, alas, how old is Bai.

"Be careful yourself, goodbye."

Hurry up and buy a car. If you have an existing car, you may be able to get it today.

The girl didn't catch up again, she whispered "Goodbye" and walked in the other direction.

An episode, An Xia was not at ease.

Follow the navigation and walk into her favorite sports car, and a salesperson will immediately greet her.

Don't look at An Xia's tender face, but the aura is enough for sales staff to dare not take lightly.

Those who sell high-end luxury cars have very strong eyesight.

Besides, there are many wealthy people in Changhai City. Don't look down on their clothes, they have money in their pockets.

The sales staff who flew over received An Xia politely and warmly, "Welcome, which car do you like?"

"If you don't like it, what is your price, I can recommend it to you."

While speaking, he handed An Xia his business card with both hands.

The surname is "Xu" and the single name is "Yong".

Very young, only about twenty-five or sixty.

The appearance is quite delicate, tall and thin, wearing work clothes, very refreshing.

Handing the business card over, he looked at An Xia and asked cautiously, "Is it convenient to know your last name?"

After he finished talking here, there were several low chuckles not far away.

It is three sales staff wearing suits and short skirts, young, about twenty-five and sixty-six, fair-skinned and beautiful, and more temperamental than sales staff in ordinary car shops.

That is, what I say is very sour.

"I'm really good at snatching, every time someone comes in, go immediately, it's not too tiring."

"Keep it down, people have the ability, you can't learn it if you want to."

"Cut, I don't learn it. Go up as soon as one comes in, wasting time."

"Please remember that the customer is God."

"Hehe, God is the one who can afford a car. Those who can't afford a car are here to relieve their greed."

I didn't dare to make a loud noise, I was afraid An Xia would hear it.

Chapter 919: I bought a car for more than 50 million

An Xia's ear power, the three of them lowered her voice by a degree, and she could hear it.

Without paying attention to them, Anxia's sight fell on the sports car parked in the center of the exhibition hall.

This month's town shop car models of the shop.

It can't be regarded as a limited edition, and the probability of driving out and crashing is extremely small.

Don't think An Xia is more casual, but in the car, she has a small habit and doesn't like crashing.

The crash is like a shirt, which is unpleasant.

Answered Xu Yong, "My last name is An."

To answer briefly, walk straight to the car, just two steps away, the sour sound from the corner came out again.

"Look, I was right, and it was another one who came over to relieve my greed. These days, if I can't afford to take a few photos and post a circle of friends, I thought it was my own car."

Speaking of this, An Xia raised her eyes, and the wind swept across her eyes coldly.

The voice stopped abruptly, and the faces of the three of them froze.

Fortunately, An Xia just glanced coldly, then withdrew his gaze without paying attention.

"I heard it, right?"

"How is it possible, a few meters away."

"Forget it, forget it, don't say it, in case you can afford it."

"Affordable? See what she is wearing, which one is personally custom-made? A pair of bad street goods, that pair of shoes, domestic low-end sneakers, up to 300 yuan."

She is the one who speaks the most sore, sour from beginning to end.

Partially, she is the prettiest one again, tall, slender, and beautiful, all occupied.

It's that mouth, even if it's good-looking, it's offensive.

But she does have eyesight.

The sneakers that An Xia wears are really only 300 yuan.

The clothes are also very ordinary. T-shirts and jeans have nothing to do with high order and private customization.

Production line, bad street.

But so what?

Money in your pocket!

Xu Yong, who was receiving her, didn't hear him, but when An Xia looked to the corner, he also looked sideways.

After seeing the three of them clearly, Xu Yong's expression changed slightly.

In a low voice: "Sorry, I will let the team leader go over and deal with it."

"Um."

An Xia nodded.

She didn't look into it or care about it, but it didn't mean that she continued to make them an eyesore.

Did not make An Xia wait too long, Xu Yong returned to An Xia within a minute, "I'm so sorry, our team leader has already dealt with it."

"Miss An, we have three price ranges, the highest price is above 50 million and below 60 million. The most cost-effective price is between 4 million and 8 million."

An Xia has something to love.

"It's it." Pointing to the matte black two-seater sports car that was blocked by a barrier and guarded by two security guards.

Then he asked, "How many units are there in Changhai City?"

Xu Yong didn't expect such a big customer to come!

In his mind, he still wanted to recommend several million-level sports cars in the store!

Unexpectedly, I had to get to the store this morning, only two new models!

Price: 55 million!

this...

Can you really afford it?

Unable to hold back, he looked at An Xia secretly, and answered politely, "There are only two, and one has been sold."

"That one is for reservations. This one is currently the last one in Changhai City. There are only six in China."

"You are very lucky. The high-end luxury cars are predicted in advance and will not be in stock."

"Our boss likes this car himself, so I ordered an extra one."

"When I arrived at the store this morning, several customers came to consult and all expressed their desire to buy."

Signaling the security to release the warning strip, Xu Yong said: "The only downside is that there is no test drive for a high-priced car, and you can't sit on it and feel it."

"You can take a closer look and I can introduce it for you."

Just buy a car, there is no need to be too complicated.

Chapter 920: Who would be troubled with money

Test drive?

She has never tested any of her private jets. She has seen photos, interiors, and performance, and ordered them directly.

"No, just it."

Anxia took out the card, "Swipe it."

Never thought of bargaining!

Xu Yong was now knowing that he really missed him.

Thought small and rich.

Unexpectedly, a lot of money.

But he didn't take the card right away, he still smiled and said, "Miss An, I'd better introduce it to you first. You listen to it before you decide whether to buy it, okay?"

There is a slight pause, and there is a slight nervousness in the smile, "You don't understand, I am afraid that you will not be satisfied at that time, once you pay the money, there is no way to refund this car to you."

It looked like a real person.

An Xia has never seen this car. Five years after she woke up after her death, the sports car had already been updated.

Seeing Xu Yong's insistence, An Xia said: "To make a long story short."

She also needs to buy another one.

Acting high-profile, how can a sports car be successful.

The second car is the start.

Three cars are the basis.

Seeing that she was willing to listen to the introduction, Xu Yong was relieved instead.

Very serious, responsible for introducing Anxia.

Among the security guards standing on both sides, one of them was very quick to act. Seeing this, he quietly left to look for the sales team leader.

"Really? I didn't ask Xu Yong to introduce him, so I bought it at a glance?"

The group leader was a little bit unbelievable. Just now Xu Yong called her, and she actually disliked Xu Yong's troubles in her heart.

But I also know that those female salesmen have performed well recently. He bought four tens of millions of sports cars for four rich women in half a month.

It's nothing more than saying that Xu Yong betrayed his hue and seduce the rich woman to sell the car to get a commission.

If so, that would be Xu Yong's ability!

Xu Yong is really capable!

The lady he received, she did not see that she was a rich master!

It costs a 50 million car to sell, and pays directly with the card without even looking at the price. It can be seen that he is a real money owner.

The security nodded, "Really, Xu Yong is honest. I was afraid that the lady would regret buying the car after getting the car, so I insisted on introducing it to her."

"He is responsible." The sales team leader smiled and was more satisfied with Xu Yong.

The salesperson below sells an extra car. As the team leader, she can get a little more commission.

Without sitting anymore, the sales team leader cleaned up his appearance and walked towards the exhibition hall.

After turning a corner, I heard that Qiao Sixiao, a salesperson in this group, was still sour and Xu Yong.

"Look at his fawning appearance, like a pug, and still spinning around the woman. It seems that the rich woman who has slept for a few nights is dissatisfied. She wants to sleep with a little girl, so her body smells bad."

Speaking of the other two salespersons, they smiled.

This time, the salesperson she was chatting with changed.

It was two female sales staff just now.

Now it is two male sales staff.

Although everyone is working together, the internal competition is fierce, superficially friendly, and privately used means to grab each other's customers.

Just now Xu Yong came over and said a few words to her, just for a short while, other sales staff had already been there to receive her.

It's not that the customer doesn't seem to be someone who can afford a car, and he didn't move in.

Stay and chat with Qiao Sixiao.

"Sister Si, Xiao Xu looks good, and the rich woman is willing to sleep with him. Whoever buys a car in my hands, I am willing to sacrifice myself."

"I would also be willing, who would be troubled with money."

Qiao Sixiao smiled and glared, "Then you can only envy Xiao Xu. If a parent is handsome, rich women and little girls love handsome."

"Hey, did you see how beautiful the little girl is. She likes Xiao Xu's handsomeness."
