Chapter 921: Buying a car equals buying cabbage

Speaking cool and sour, and listening to it, Qiao Sixiao became more enthusiastic the more he said it.

Leaning against the wall, his slender fingers casually fanned the wind, laughing again and again.

"Maybe, I just came here for Xiao Xu's handsome guy. I can't afford a car. Look at the free handsome guy. That's a profit."

When the sales team leader heard this, he sneered and interrupted, "Xiao Xu is handsome, Si Xiao, you are also good-looking, why, you used to sell cars because you were beautiful to sell them?"

The other two salespersons hurriedly turned sideways, and did not say anything with their expressions of restraint.

Qiao Sixiao was embarrassed by the connotation, and said coldly: "Group leader, you are too towards Xu Yong."

"I just talk about it casually, what do you mean by me here? I sell cars by my ability, not like Xu Yong, who welcomes everyone, and I am not afraid of tens of millions of cars being scratched."

The sales team leader said Shen: "Let's worry less about other people's hearts. With this leisure time, it's better to contact customers more and sell more cars."

The two male salesmen hurriedly responded, "Yes, yes, you are right, team leader, we will contact the customer immediately."

"Go here, go now. I have a tight hand recently, so I can quickly sell a few more cars."

After speaking, the two left Qiao Sixiao and left quickly.

Qiao Sixiao's sales performance is also good, Xu Yong is the first and she is second.

The performance is good, and he can stand proud in front of the team leader.

They left, Qiao Sixiao stayed still, folded his arms and sneered with slanted eyes, "Sister Wang, you still go and see Xu Yong."

"A customer made an appointment with me to come to see the car at four o'clock. If nothing happens, he will buy the car for the full price."

"In case it is going to be scratched, someone has been seated in advance, and the customer will not buy in annoyance. Who do you think will bear the responsibility?"

After finishing the words, Qiao Sixiao stepped on high heels and walked arrogantly after twisting his waist.

Sister Wang, who is the sales team leader, darkened her eyes when she saw this, then she laughed and said nothing.

When the car was sold, it was not too late for her to say Qiao Sixiao.

If it is not sold, it depends on whether Qiao Sixiao's customers will buy it.

Xu Yong has probably finished the introduction here.

Asked An Xia, "Ms. An, you don't understand anything, you can ask me at any time."

"Okay, when can I pick up the car?" There are no other questions. When is the big question to pick up the car.

An Xia said again: "I don't have a car now, it's very inconvenient."

A taxi can also be a carpool.

Xu Yong said: "I need to go through the formalities for picking up the car tomorrow afternoon at the earliest."

Can't buy and withdraw now.

Before buying a car, Tianshu introduced her to her. Today, I told Tianshu that I could see the current car almost the next day.

Then tomorrow.

"The sooner the better." An Xia finished speaking, and gave the card to Xu Yong again, "Swipe the card, don't introduce it, waste time."

I bought it quickly, and she has to go to school to report.

This time, Xu Yong accepted the card, "You go to the VIP room to rest, and I will let the finance come over immediately."

There is no need for customers to go to the financial room to swipe their card, and their own financial staff will come to serve in person.

Sister Wang came over and saw Xu Yong holding a bank card in her hand, leading the customer to the VIP room.

Smiles piled up on his face.

It's done!

"Xiao Xu." Wang Group greeted him and said with a smile: "You go and go through the procedures for the client, and I will receive the client."

Xu Yong didn't refuse, and said politely: "That's hard work, Sister Wang."

He also introduced An Xia, "Miss An, Sister Wang is our leader, then I will go through the formalities for you now."

I feel relieved to hand An Xia into the hands of Sister Wang.

Sister Wang is more satisfied.

This little Xu did not have as much thought as Qiao Sixiao.

Qiao Sixiao hid her client for fear that she would * it away.

Chapter 922: There is no small money, only big money

Sister Wang was very enthusiastic, and when she arrived at the VIP room, she served tea and fruit again, and the service was especially thoughtful.

An Xia didn't like this kind of enthusiasm.

The expression is always cold, "I just sit alone, you go and work."

Sister Wang has been in sales for more than ten years, and she can figure out a customer's temper in just a few words.

Hearing this, I knew that Miss Ann in front of me was a temperament who didn't get close to strangers and didn't like other people's active contact.

He smiled and said, "Okay, then you can take a look at our high-order car. Next time you need it, please feel free to contact Xiaoxu."

Wipe the tablet used to watch the car with a sterile paper towel before handing it to Anxia.

After speaking, he walked out of the VIP guests.

Without leaving, after closing the door, he stood at the door and waited for An Xia's instructions at any time.

An Xia held the tablet and flipped through it with her slender fingers.

One brand of vehicle is ready to go, and the other vehicle is purchased at the next place.

The finance side came over soon, and Sister Wang whispered: "To make a long story short, she is a noble master who doesn't like contact with people."

"Okay, I see." Finance nodded, with a reminder, he knew what to say.

Xu Yong thanked Sister Wang, "Sister Wang, thank you for your hard work."

"You are polite." Sister Wang smiled, "Good job, this month's sales champion won."

Naturally, the commission is also considerable.

After speaking, he asked again, "Did Miss Ann make any request?"

Xu Yong replied softly, "No, just buy the car. There is no counter-offer, and no maintenance is asked."

"I didn't even ask about gifts or the like. I didn't say either."

Intuition told him that these Miss Ann didn't care.

She only needed a scooter, and she bought it after seeing what she wanted.

More than 50 million cars are like buying cabbage.

Sister Wang pondered for a few seconds, and told Xu Yong, "I have a little background, keep it, and send her a photo as soon as the new style comes."

"Well, I will." Xu Yong glanced at the closed door, "Let the finance collect the money first, and you will teach me if you have any problems."

Compared with Qiao Sixiao's arrogance, Xu Yong is much more humble.

Naturally it is a lot likable.

Sister Wang glanced at him deeply, and her approval was deeper in her eyes.

Not dare to let An Xia wait too long, the three of them filed in.

Xu Yong needs An Xia's information in order to go through the formalities of picking up the car and insurance.

Finance only needs to swipe the card and check the amount.

Sister Wang checked various information for An Xia.

The division of labor between the three, with the reminder of Sister Wang, did not say any more passionate words.

"Ms. An, this is what you need to know when buying a car. You confirm that there is no problem and sign here."

"This is a car contract, an insurance contract, please confirm and sign it."

...

Talking low, there is no nonsense.

An Xia scanned several lines at a glance, and signed her name without any problems.

Anxia, who did not have an ID card, called up the digital ID card information, confirmed that his finances were correct, and confirmed other contracts and other information. Then he opened the terminal and entered a series of numbers.

Anxia confirmed the amount and entered the password immediately.

There is no limit on the card limit, but within a few seconds, tens of millions will be swiped away.

When Tianshu received the text message, the first thing he worried about was that the emperor had no money.

To Tianquan said: "Send another sum of money to the Emperor's Card."

After An Xia brushed his forefoot more than 50 million, a few minutes later, another huge sum of hundreds of millions of dollars arrived.

After completing a series of procedures, from seeing a car to buying a car, it took less than an hour to resolve.

Before four o'clock, Qiao Sixiao looked at the dust cover of red gold velvet fabric covered by more than 50 million sports cars, and said that the car had been sold.

The whole shop was alarmed.

Chapter 923: Send beautiful customers home

"Is Xu Yong's client again? That little girl just now?"

"No way! I bought it so soon?"

"More than 50 million in full at one time! That little girl, just look at it..."

Brake in time for the latter words.

I can't see that I can afford such an expensive car!

Qiao Sixiao was so angry that the nails broke.

Before her client came, Xu Yong sold the car!

"Sister Si, Xu Yong is lucky again, alas, Sister Si, come on next month!"

"Sister Si has always been the sales champion in our store before. Xu Yong has only been here for three months and won the sales champion for the first time."

After only three months, he became the sales champion. What's next?

Isn't it even more powerful?

When someone flattered someone would step on their feet, Qiao Sixiao's arrogant temperament was unpleasant, and it was normal to be stepped on.

In the face of the colleague's rants, Qiao Sixiao's face was gloomy, holding a shelf, and fighting back, "I've won several sales champions anyway, what about you? What else can you do besides being greedy?"

"Ho! Now there is Xu Yong again, you guys don't want to be the sales champion!"

After speaking, Qiao Sixiao turned and left.

Want to step on her?

no way!

The anger in my heart still didn't disappear.

Especially seeing sister Wang and Xu Yong coming out together to send customers out of the store, Qiao Sixiao, who looked gloomy, was so angry that her heart hurts.

Before that, she said that the client couldn't afford it, and she was beaten in the face in a blink of an eye.

Seeing at a young age, no more than twenty years old, the shot is so proud, more than 50 million cars say you buy it!

She saw the girl too!

After hesitating for a while, Xu Yong was taken the lead.

The more Qiao Sixiao thought about it, the more angry his face became.

The eyes of Xu Yong and Sister Wang were full of resentment.

Don't dare to watch An Xia more, the rich lord, even if the boss comes over, he has to smile.

At the door, Xu Yong asked An Xia where he lived, "There is an idle sports car in the store. If you don't dislike it, you can temporarily drive it for two days."

Sister Wang glanced at Xu Yong and won the sales champion in just three months, not out of thin air.

It's going to happen soon, can the customer feel unhappy after hearing him say this!

Also said: "Yes, if you don't dislike it, I will let Xiao Xu drive over."

Three or four million old cars are also stored, and it's not bad to make customers happy.

An Xia said: "Don't bother, I'll go and have a look next door, you guys are busy."

Two high-luxury sports car shops were adjacent to each other. She said she would go to the next door and check again. Sister Wang's eyes became hotter and brighter in an instant.

Next door is also a tens of millions of sports cars!

This Miss Ann, even wants to buy it!

"Then I will let Xiao Xu accompany you. Xiao Xu knows cars. If you have any questions, you can ask her at any time."

After that, before An Xia nodded, he said to Xu Yong: "Xiao Xu, you accompany Miss An to the car, and then accompany Miss An to have dinner, and the company will reimburse you."

Really rich big customers must be served well.

Xu Yong did not respond, and asked An Xia politely, "Do you need me to accompany you to see it?"

An Xia is also used to taking people out. Hearing this, he glanced at Xu Yong faintly and nodded, "Yes."

Sister Wang smiled and sent the two away in person.

After I couldn't see An Xia, he stayed in the same place for a while before returning to the exhibition hall.

As soon as I came in, a few salespeople gathered around.

Asked one after another.

"Sister Wang, Sister Wang, did the noble owner buy the car by himself?"

"Sister Wang, do you know where she lives? She is very face-to-face. I must have never been to our store before."

"Are you a local? It doesn't look like it looks like it's a bit of a tone, it's a bit like just coming back from abroad."

"Sister Wang, where's Xu Yong? It's not to send beautiful clients home, right?"

As soon as the words fell silent, several people laughed.

The laughter is quite meaningful.

Chapter 924: One is not enough, you need two

I didn't say it, but everyone understood it.

You will laugh when you understand it.

Sister Wang said with a cold face, "It seems that I have been too loose to control you recently, even customers dare to cancel at will!"

"I'm telling you, the owner who just left is a big customer! After leaving our shop, I turned around and went to see the car next door!"

"While there are no customers, come here to gather for a small meeting!"

The black face, stern, the sales staff gathered around were agitated, and cried out in secret.

Also envied Xu Yong's luck.

"Damn, that kid's eyes are poisonous enough, so many of our old salespeople can't even do him a novice!"

"Don't be sour, people are more popular than others. This is their ability, eye poison, quick start!"

"Hey, I bought one and another. A car worth tens of millions is as worthless as cabbage. The rich are really rich.

I have been working in luxury car shops for a long time. I have sold millions of cars from my own hands, and I have come into contact with expensive owners who are not rich or expensive. Under the influence of the ears and eyes, these sales staff have a lot of eyesight.

Over time, I have the illusion that I am also a rich man.

Qiao Sixiao is one of them.

Knowing that Xu Yong's beautiful customer turned around and went to the next store to see the car, Qiao Sixiao broke a few pieces of manicure again.

They are all girls, and they are not bad at birth. As a result, others spend tens of millions a day without blinking their eyes.

As for myself, selling cars for a living, laughing with self-esteem, can't make tens of millions a year.

Otherwise, how can you say that people are more angry than people.

Over there, Xu Yong accompanied An Xia in work clothes, and the sales staff of the high-end luxury store didn't change their expressions and greeted them with smiles.

This time, An Xia didn't even need to talk.

On the way, Xu Yong already understood Anxia's needs.

Well, there is no demand.

The lines look good, red, with two different demands.

Price, unlimited.

Xu Yong spoke on behalf of Anxia and reported models that Anxia might like.

The price is around 26 million.

As before, Anxia also made a quick decision.

The speed at which she said just buy, surprised the salesperson who received her at the store.

"I don't have a car. I place an order now. It will take about 15 days to arrive at the store. You can pay a part of the cash. After the car arrives, we will come over and collect the full amount. How do you think?"

There is no need for An Xia to come over again, and the store will arrange personnel to come directly.

The service is thoughtful and considerate.

Xu Yong stood there quietly, no longer interjecting easily.

Fifteen days, the time is not long, An Xia can wait.

So, another 5 million deposit was paid in advance at the fastest speed.

After the car arrives, the full payment is paid, and the car is picked up on the same day, no need to wait any longer.

Xu Yong watched Anxia swiping his card without any pressure, his eyes moved slightly.

Two cars in one breath, nearly 80 million, how much is she worth?

Hundreds of millions are considered less.

At least one billion or more can be consumed in this way.

While An Xia checked the information with the finance side, the store salesperson asked Xu Yong in a low voice, "What price did this master buy in your store?"

Xu Yong lowered his eyes and answered truthfully, "The most central position of the exhibition hall."

Here...

Saying the position is the same as saying the bidding position!

The sales staff of the store was excited, and the eyes looking at An Xia were even hotter than before.

Xu Yong smiled softly, without saying a word, as the salesperson walked around Anxia.

"You still need to sign on this side." The financial officer pointed to a place and waited carefully. "You need to sign two places."

After An Xia brushed the sign, she heard the financial staff say: "Here, your address needs to be written down. At that time, we will send the car directly to you."

There is no need for Anxia to come to the store to inspect the car. The store will send a car to install the car, and Anxia will inspect the car on site.

Leave the address of the school.

Chapter 925: A lot of zero, a lot of money

After reading and writing, the store's finances and sales were all taken aback.

student?

student! !

Still a student!

Xu Yong was also stunned.

student?

Miss Ann turned out to be a student?

Can students control tens of millions of cash transactions so freely?

And, don't you need an adult to accompany you?

It is not uncommon for students to come to buy a car. Every winter and summer vacation, or a few days before school starts, there are always parents who bring their newly-adult children to buy a car.

It is not too expensive to choose, a car with a size of several million is a common choice.

There are also cars that have bought tens of millions of dollars, but they are rare.

But it's not like the Miss Ann in front of me, who placed two orders directly by herself.

this.....

The sales staff of the store glanced at Xu Yong and found that the other party also had a somewhat shocked expression. He knew in his heart that he was the same as himself, and only then knew that Ms. An was a student.

Xu Yong took a step forward, taking a big risk, and asked in a low voice, "Ms. An, do you know about your car purchase?"

"Huh?" An Sha, who put down the pen, looked at him puzzledly, "What do you mean?"

Do you still need to tell your family to buy a car?

Xia Guo's rules for buying a car?

When Xu Yong heard it, his scalp was a little taut, and the sales staff and finances next to him were the same, their expressions condensed.

At home, don't you know?

For a while, the atmosphere became a bit tense.

Xu Yong bit his scalp and explained his words clearly, "You ordered two supercars at a time, worth nearly 80 million. Did the elders in the family reward you?"

It's quite euphemistic and implicit.

An Xia knew it as soon as he heard it.

He grinned, took out his mobile phone, and handed the text message sent by Tianshu to the three of them.

"The card will remit 300 million yuan to you. If you need to buy large items, please feel free to contact us. If the money is not enough, we can remit immediately."

...

The three of them were silent after reading the text messages.

This, there are hundreds of mines in the house.

After buying 80 million, immediately remitted 300 million.

A lot of zeros, a lot of money...

The financial response is quick, the POS terminal is connected, it is a five million deposit, swiped the card, and said: "Ms. An, please enter the card number and password."

What are you doing in a daze, do business quickly!

If you say you want to remit three hundred million, you will remit it, and if you say that the money is not enough, you will remit it immediately.

Golden Lord Overlord!

Hold your thighs tight!

The sales staff of the store secretly rubbed the trembling little heart, feeling a little unreal.

He met a lot of rich people.

Such a rich person who supports his own children to buy, buy, and buy without restraint at all, forgive him for not knowing, and see you for the first time.

The world of the rich is indeed not understandable by mortals like them.

Xu Yong also breathed a sigh of relief.

He didn't want to make any mistakes, and the order of 50 million was in vain.

The text message of the card swiping was sent to Tianshu's mobile phone again. After reading it, Tianshu was a little worried whether he had lost the remittance.

With the consumption power of the emperor, it is not uncommon to consume hundreds of millions a day.

This is buying a car. What if the emperor mainly buys a private jet?

The money in the card is only enough to pay a deposit!

Let Tianquan send money again.

The bank card they gave to Anxia has no restrictions on remittance, remittance, payment, etc. After five million is swiped, the next remittance of hundreds of millions is remitted to the card.

In other words, Anxia bought two cars, and the money in the card was not less, but more.

After coming out of the store, An Xia declined to give it away, and said to Xu Yong, "After finishing the procedures, I will come directly to pick up the car and drive away tomorrow."

In a word, another salesperson secretly pouted.

The shelf is big enough.

I bought a supercar that cost more than 50 million yuan, and let customers pick up the car in person. This service, tut...

Really bad!

Their store is so much better.

There is no need for the customer to come back to the door again, and the car will be transported directly, so that the customer can enjoy a more distinguished service.

Chapter 926: Have golden veins at home

There is no sarcasm.

At any rate, it is also a supercar salesperson who has to be polite and not let customers feel that they are petty.

Contempt it with your eyes.

Xu Yong said: "Before three o'clock tomorrow afternoon, you will definitely be able to pick up the car smoothly."

Set a good time, Anxia took two contracts and took a taxi to leave alone.

The sales staff of Landian waved their hands until the taxi was completely out of sight.

With emotion, "A real person doesn't show his face, and he came here in a taxi to buy two supercars. I will see you for a long time."

What's the matter, it is also a private car.

This Miss Ann is quite informal and very talkative, buy it if you like it, there is no requirement, and it will flash after the order is placed.

He was so cool that he was ashamed of a man.

Alas, she was not as good as her.

He doesn't have hundreds of millions in his pocket to buy or buy.

If the purchase is not enough, some people will remit money immediately.

This person, some people are born as masters.

There are precious and blessings that others can't earn for a few lifetimes.

Xu Yong didn't chat with the salesperson who was with him, but also the counterparty. He nodded slightly, said "goodbye" politely, and turned to leave.

"Hey, so dragging? No wonder the tens of millions of cars are sold, and customers need to pick them up in person. Xiao Xu, the service attitude in your store should be changed quickly."

"Where there is a demanding customer, just your kind of service will definitely run away from the popularity."

Xu Yong did not speak, but moved forward, leaving a calm and upright background for his competitors.

When a business is done, why arguing with others and affecting your mood?

When Xu Yong returned to the store, two salespeople who had a good relationship with each other came around.

Asked in a low voice, "Why have you been there for so long? It's not that I bought a car over there, right?"

"No, it's impossible. You are chatting with the beautiful lady."

For the sake of a good relationship, Xu Yong rubbed his forehead like a headache, and Qingjun's face showed a trace of helplessness.

"Don't think about it, Miss Ann ordered another supercar next door just now, I just accompany her to get the contract done. After buying, Miss Ann took a taxi and left by herself."

"Oh shit! Bought another one?"

"How much? Ten million? Millions?"

"More than 26 million." Xu Yong said: "The background is small, you should pay attention to your words."

He didn't tell An Xia that he was still a student. After finishing speaking, the colleague who was ashamed and shocked, went to the pantry to take a sigh of relief.

As soon as I arrived at the pantry, I heard several surprises in the exhibition hall.

"Bought another one! My mother! That adds up to nearly 80 million!"

"Almost there! Good boy! This is also awesome, without blinking!"

"I guess there is a golden vein at home! Spend money with confidence."

Qiao Sixiao had just explained to the customer on his mobile phone, and when he came out, Xu Yong's customer bought another supercar with more than 260,000 yuan next door, and there was sour gas in his stomach again.

She still murmured to the client to accompany her. The girl younger than her bought another supercar in the blink of an eye.

Good reincarnation, as long as it is enviable.

At this moment, An Xia was sitting in the luxurious seven-seater car that took a taxi, and received a message from Luo Zhong.

Ask her if she has been to school.

An Xia replied, "No, I will arrive at school in about forty minutes."

"Okay, pay attention to safety." Luo Zhong sent the text message, and the second text message came immediately, "Do you really need a car? I just looked at it. The car is very new and very good."

An Xia did not speak, and directly took photos of the two contracts.

When the photo came, Luo Zhong muttered, "What's this?"

Open the photo and take a look...

"Hey!"

The phone dropped.

Chapter 927: A lot of zeros

The unprepared blow made Luo Zhong shocked that his phone dropped to the ground.

Picking it up quickly, without even wiping the dust, clicked on the photo again and zoomed in.

The pupils contracted, and his breathing was choked.

Supercar!

Two! !

Trembling.

This one, what does the family do?

Is it too rich?

Zooming in on the picture, Luo Zhong counted zero earnestly, "One, two, three... six, seven, eight eight eight eight eight... one..."

Eight zeros!

One, ten, one hundred, one thousand, ten thousand, one hundred thousand, one million, ten million! !

Ten million! !

Since he was separated from An Xia for less than two hours, she, she, and she have bought two tens of millions of supercars.

The fingers trembling when sending text messages, "An Xia, may I ask, does your family know?"

No wonder she has a car.

No financial support is required.

original.....

It's really not necessary!

For a moment, I feel that the millions of sports cars are not fragrant anymore.

Steady, can't be corroded by eight zeros.

An Xia returned to him, "I know."

"Then you go to school now?" Luo Zhong quickly replied, "Today Friday, there will be traffic jams during the rush hour soon."

An Xia looked at the increased traffic flow outside, leaned on the back of the seat, and entered the navigation system to check how far it was from the school.

Luo Zhong's text message has not been checked yet again, "In the past, the staff on duty at the New Student Reception Center may not have enough staff."

so what?

An Xia replied a question mark and then a text message, "Go tomorrow?"

"It's okay." Luo Zhong glanced at the traffic that had already started to block up. "There is our guest house near the school. I will arrange it and you will go directly."

Then there is no need.

An Xia returned to him, "I will solve it myself. I will pick up the car at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and go there."

Since she is not in a hurry to go to school, she can go shopping in the business circle.

Then, Anxia searched for several international brands that he was familiar with.

Focus on Mingyi Square, which is 16 kilometers away, and ask the driver to change the destination and go to Mingyi Square.

Next to Mingyi Plaza is the only seven-star hotel in Changhai City, the Raffles Hotel.

Global Hotel is also one of the hotels where Anxia used to stay.

The room was booked but handed over to Tianshu.

An Xia never worry about trivial matters.

After the positioning was sent to Tianshu, An Xia didn't even want to talk about it. Tianshu immediately understood what the emperor needed him to do.

Three nights in a luxurious presidential suite with sea view.

Then I contacted an image designer, from head to toe, dressing and matching clothes all in one hand. When An Xia arrived in Mingyi, several people were already waiting.

The pomp of the emperor has always been there.

There is no need for An Xia to worry about everything, she only needs to look at it.

"Ms. An, hello. I am your personal image designer, and I will be responsible for providing services to you next. If you have any needs or questions, you can ask me."

Introduced three other entourages to An Xia.

It is responsible for checking whether there is a problem with the item.

Responsible for packing and sorting.

It is also responsible for finding the way in advance and telling the store manager in advance to be ready to meet.

An Xia just nodded slightly, got out of the car, and nodded to thank the professional driver who had been stunned. With the support of several people, she entered Mingyi.

The driver of the special car just watched the group of people leave, and didn't react until the car behind honked the horn.

"Good boy! Which celebrity did I fail to carry?"

Patting his forehead, the driver of the special car took a look at the order information, and drove away with "tsk tusk" in his mouth.

If Luo Zhong was present, he must have come to say "a wicked capitalist."

But these are all Anxia's daily routines when he wandered around in the past.

I'm used to it, and I don't think it is abrupt.

Chapter 928: Emperor's pomp

In the last life, An Xia had very little time for herself. Four or five days in the four seasons of the year were all An Xia's time.

At other times, it's all running around.

After finally squeezing out some time, Tianshu naturally had to arrange everything properly to ensure that An Xia could spend the only private time very comfortable and relaxed.

With Tianshu's arrangement, An Xia's next purchase only needs to enter the store and sit in the VIP room, and the personal image designer will select samples for her. She is responsible for nodding and shaking her head.

Skirts, pants, leisure, light luxury, sports, everything!

An Xia didn't like the necklace, so she chose a few small flying knife bracelets for embellishment.

Bags and shoes are also complete.

Enter Mingyi at 5pm and come out at 9pm.

There are so many things that there is no way to screw them in their hands. The shopping mall arranges personnel to install them one by one with a hotel-style cart and push them to the large sea-view suite on the 39th floor of Lefkas.

For dinner, An Xia used some small snacks in the store, and in the room, special dishes of Changhai City were also prepared.

Entering the room, it is An Xia's private space.

Everyone left in an orderly manner.

In the suite next door, the image designer packed all the clothes, shoes and socks, bags and other dust-proof bags for An Xia, labeled them, and put them neatly in the suitcase.

Several people work together. Except for occasional low-pitched words, the rest of the time is silent.

"This one is placed here to match this pair of shoes and bracelet."

"Xiaomi, you give me the 35cm dust bag."

"Xiaoya, the white gloves are dirty. Give me the right pair."

Has been busy until eleven o'clock, a few people finished sorting out.

After finishing the work, the designer took photos and sent them to the person who contacted her, that is, Ashu, the butler of Miss An.

Tianshu used Ashu's connection to contact the designer.

After seeing the photo, Tianshu paid an expensive fee and told, "You don't have to disturb my lady, you can rest in the room."

The suite next door to the presidential suite is meant to give rest to the staff accompanying the guests. The grade is very comparable to that of the presidential suite, but it is not bad.

With two beds, four people, and a sofa, I can barely sleep for one night.

The designer did not refuse.

It is indeed a little tired, and it's not too late to take a rest and leave tomorrow morning.

"Thank you." After the SMS was forwarded, no reply was received.

When Xiaomi, the designer's assistant, learned that he could sleep, he fluttered directly on the bed and cheered.

"Great! Staying in a seven-star hotel suite for free, this life will not be shocked."

In exchange for the eyes of another assistant, Xiaoya, "Is it a good idea? The presidential suite next door is our lifelong pursuit."

"Don't think about it, I can't afford to live." Xiaomi hugged a soft pillow to keep the world awake. "For sixty-eight one night, I live in six hundred and eight is too expensive."

Miss Ann, who is staying next door, is not bad for money!

You can buy a small apartment of about 70 square meters in Changhai City for the purchase tonight!

Designer Ina glanced at the two of them, and smiled helplessly, "Work hard, and you may live in the presidential suite in the future."

"We have to rely on the boss. The boss takes more orders and we work more to try to get everyone into the presidential suite as soon as possible."

"Come on, boss!"

Aina is a well-known private designer in Changhai City. It is difficult to make appointments. Tianshu supports three times the price, so she is willing to sacrifice her personal time in the evening to receive An Xia.

In the presidential suite, with her current qualifications and the speed of making money, it is not a problem to live more than ten nights a year.

And Miss Ann next door, she can live for a year without burden.

Work hard, invest well, and realize that living in a presidential suite for one year will be stress-free as soon as possible.

Chapter 929: Born to be different

At six o'clock in the morning the next day, Aina left with her assistants.

A group of four people stood by the elevator, waiting for the elevator to arrive.

Two minutes later, the elevator door "Ding Dong" opened, and the four of them saw Miss An, who they had received last night, walking out with sweat on her face in sportswear.

This is.....

Exercise is back?

So early!

"Good morning, Miss Ann." Aina leaned slightly to greet her.

An Xia recognized several people from the designer team who purchased for her last night.

"Morning." The clear voice seemed to be touched by the coolness of the morning, and there was cold in the falling sound.

Last night, Aina and the others saw how indifferent An Xia was.

Sitting without talking, watching, they are more imposing than anyone they have received before, and still the kind of imposing imposing impossibility that allows people to meet up.

I really want to speak, with a cold voice, like a cold knife just pulled out of the refrigerator, everyone will listen with ears, for fear of misheard half a word.

A strong momentum, a cold voice, and a sense of distance that is not easy to serve and cannot be close all over his body.

Fortunately, everything is an illusion.

As long as they don't talk nonsense, Miss Ann is still very easy to get along with, and there are not so many demands.

Responding to them now, including Ina, felt flattered instantly.

Stepping out of the elevator, An Xia saw that the four of them didn't mean to enter the elevator. He thought that something was going to be looking for her, so he asked, "You are looking for me? What's the matter?"

"No, no." Aina smiled, "Goodbye Miss An.",

"Goodbye." Nodding slightly, staggered and left with the four of them.

The four people entered the elevator and waited for the elevator door to be delivered. Xiaomi grabbed Xiaoya's arm and shook his throat in excitement, "It's so beautiful! Why is it so beautiful!"

"I didn't dare to watch more last night. Just now, I had the courage to look at it secretly and hit it beautifully! It's so beautiful!"

Xiaoya was dazzled by her, "Don't shake, don't shake, I have low blood sugar. I will be fainted in the next night."

"Is it beautiful? Isn't it? Isn't it." Xiaomi is still a newcomer, full of curiosity and interest in everything, and likes to share what he thinks.

Xiaoya has followed Aina for two years, and Alan, and he has three years, and the two of them have a lot of temperament.

Not so much impetuous.

Aina spoke with a serious voice, "Xiaomi, you cancel three outings and you will deduct a one-month bonus."

The elevator became quiet instantly.

Xiaoya and Allen bow their heads.

They knew that Aina was already a little angry from the second when Xiaomi jumped on the bed and rolled around last night.

Now, Aina is angry.

Customers, how can they comment on it at will?

Have you forgotten what you are?

An Xia didn't know what happened in the elevator.

She was waiting for Tianshu to come over.

Tianshu rushed to the early flight from the capital, arrived at Ming Laifoca at 10 am, and went straight to the 39th floor.

"Emperor."

Upon entering, Tianshu saluted.

An Xia is searching for information on the Internet with the newly bought notebook.

After that, I clicked on a few pictures and asked Tianshu, "Have you seen these new drugs?"

They were all new medicines Luo Zhong showed her yesterday.

Tian Shu raised his eyes slightly, and quickly swept across.

Replied, "I have seen it."

"Where is the source? Are there any clues?"

The national police need to find the man behind the control of the students, and An Xia tends to find the source of these things directly.

Sweep it clean.

Tian Shu lowered his head, his calm voice was a little more disturbed, "There is no clue, after you leave...Miss An Qian is in charge, immediately clean up all the people around you."

Chapter 930: Eccentric like a sword

But just to say something, An Xia's always strong heart was slightly aching again.

Without the support of her father, how could An Qian be on top!

Even to clean up the people around her, it must be the father's tacit approval, and he might even help!

Hand, clenched into a fist, nails deeply sinking into the flesh of the palm.

Tianshu suppressed, using a calm voice, telling the wind and rain of that year.

"Miss An Qian's mother even transferred from their country's royal family and arranged to enter the imperial realm."

"The four of us are marginalized, and many things are no longer handled by us, and they are all arranged by Miss An Qian."

An Xia's face turned black when she heard it.

Since she was bombed to ashes by missiles, Emperor Yu has undergone earth-shaking changes.

It was no longer the emperor domain she was familiar with.

In other words, she never wanted to use the power of the emperor domain.

Ah!

She lived, and she became a polished commander.

With a cold face, he said solemnly: "An Qian, didn't she pay attention to this?"

"No." Tianshu said, clenching his fists lightly, "Emperor, the four of us even suspect that Miss An Qian is conniving these things in secret."

An Xia was angry and sternly shouted, "Presumptuous!"

Tian Shu directly knelt down, "You are not surmised by our speculation, but the figure of Ou Xi's biggest poisonous head once came out in the imperial realm."

"Tianxuan personally hit her eyes, and Miss An Qian's ground guard commander personally sent it off."

The close guards around An Xia are called "Heaven Guards", and the guards around An Qian and other brothers and sisters are called "Earth Guards".

This distinguishes identities.

However, the 'Earth Guard' next to An Qian is now the 'Heaven Guard'.

An Xia's eyes were gloomy.

These things are not contaminated by the Emperor's Domain, and once discovered, the elite will immediately be dispatched and directly wiped out.

What kind of poisonous figure, daring to enter the imperial domain, must let them go without returning!

And the commander of the Earth Guard next to An Qian actually received him personally!

Closed her eyes slightly, An Xia pressed her anger, her voice was thin and sharp, as sharp as a knife, "Where is my father? Didn't you come forward to stop it?"

Speaking of the old emperor, Tianshu didn't know what to say for a while.

"Say!"

In the room, An Xia's hostile voice curled up with a murderous intent, and rushed towards Tianshu.

Tianshu looked down and said slowly: "The old emperor is very conniving to Miss An Qian and never restrains Miss An Qian from acting."

...

Suddenly, there was a fine tingling pain in the heart that had been numb.

It seems that there are tens of thousands of fine needles sticking to the deepest and softest part of the heart.

The pain, the pain that I haven't experienced for a long time, swept through the body again.

Father...

Sure enough, he was partial to An Qian.

Since childhood, he has always been partial to An Qian.

When An Qian completes five points for any matter, his father will praise and even reward.

What about her?

If the tenth thing is not completed to the twelfth minute, there will only be endless scolding and beating.

"You are the emperor in the future, and if you can't do a small thing well, how can you lead the emperor domain?"

"I have high hopes for you, how do you return me?"

"Look at your sister, she can do it better than you casually. As the eldest daughter, you are not as good as your sister. Give me a good reflection!"

"An Xia! If you don't want to become the master of the emperor domain, I will fulfill you at any time!"

"An Xia, take care of your personal desires, you, this life belongs to the emperor domain! The emperor domain does not need an emotional emperor!"

"An Xia!"

"An Xia!"

"An Xia!"

The accusations came from all directions, and An Xia's fists were clenched tighter and tighter, until the knuckles "chuckled".
