Chapter 941: Earl of Winsell

Girl's skull?

Vic has a little interest.

He got up, walked to the girl with the skull, and looked at the hair that was processed the day after tomorrow.

Landiffan gently shook the red wine in the skull, and continued with a smile: "Every time you taste a sip of red wine, you can hear the cry of a girl in your ears."

"Red, girl, cry, Mr. Vic, don't you think it's wonderful?"

There is not the most perverted, only more romantic.

Vic was moved by what he said.

Pick up another skull cap filled with red wine.

Only when I held it in my hand did Lan Tiffin say that the bones had been treated specially.

Very white, with a thin coating around it, like a transparent material melted with gold powder, it feels very comfortable.

It's like touching the delicate, smooth skin of a girl.

As the red wine swayed, the gold powder shone brightly, and even the wine juice revealed a thin layer of golden light.

Brewed by a witch in the forest, it can make people never grow old. It is full of magic wine, beautiful and dangerous.

Vic bowed his head and took a sip, with an aftertaste on his face.

"Indeed, it's wonderful."

Landifen held the skull and held it up, "Cheers."

"Cheers." Vic toasted together, the two head caps touched, the bright red wine shook, and the wind blew by, and it seemed that the girl's cry could be heard in his ears.

Vic laughed and drank several cups in a row.

Landiffan was also laughing, he was tasting slowly, playing with the bones in his hands from time to time.

In those eyes that had been smiling, there was a devilish cruel in the depths.

More morbid than Vic's exposed brutality.

Above the snow-capped mountains, there is white snow, and under the snow, the forest is quiet.

Inside the villa, I don't know how many people are about to give up their lives.

About ten kilometers away from the jungle villa, in the jungle manor privately owned by individuals, there are also people standing in front of the large French windows where the snow-capped mountains can be seen, gazing over the distant snow-capped mountains.

He was a very handsome young man with a face of Ossi, and his facial features were so handsome as if he had carved it by himself. No matter which angle he had, he was so perfect.

He also has a pair of azure blue eyes, which are brighter than the sky reflecting the snow-capped mountains.

Standing in front of the large French window with medieval aristocratic costume, his upright posture exudes an innate noble temperament. The long legs are wrapped in boots, making his legs straighter.

He was holding an ancient saber in his hand. It was a saber that could only be possessed by the head of the Winsier family. It has a history of hundreds of years.

This person is the Earl of Winsell.

He was very worried, standing in front of the window where the snow-capped mountains could be seen, motionless, half an hour away.

"Master Earl."

A servant came in and paid a royal gift.

The Lord Earl turned, but it was just a turning motion, so graceful that there was no flaw in it.

He is the head of the Winsell family and the Lord Earl of Winsell.

A young earl who pursues perfection and does not allow himself a little aphasia in his appearance and appearance.

Azure eyes locked the servant, "Where are they?"

The voice is low and thick, like a violin playing.

With the aristocratic aura that cannot be offended, the servant bends over and bows his head, extremely respectful.

He replied in a low voice, "Xia Guo, the four of them went to Xia Guo."

"Xia Country? That ancient and mysterious ancient country in the East, how could they go where?" Earl Winsell frowned slightly.

The servant replied, "The four of them left in secret, and they haven't found it on the emperor domain so far."

"Help them prevent the emperor domain from discovering it." Winsier ordered in a cold voice, and then said again: "I'm going to Xia Country, right now."

Chapter 942: Love that is too late to say

The servant was surprised.

The face didn't show up, he kept bowing his head and respectfully said: "Master An Mo and Miss An Qian will arrive tomorrow, don't you want to see them?"

"Heh." Winsier sneered, and his handsome eyebrows were arrogant. "A dirty illegitimate girl is also worthy to stand in front of me."

"It's really unworthy." The servant agreed.

Not following the words, but all the servants who served the earl think so.

The noble Winsier family, their Lord Earl has the noble blood of the oldest nobleman flowing in his body, how can an illegitimate person be defiled!

But...

The loyal servant and the steward of Winsell, Adolf, continued to respectfully: "Your uncle has been very upset recently. In only thirty days, he has seen Lord Anmo four times."

"My lord, you need to beware of him. Your uncle, he has been coveting you as an earl."

Winsier's uncle is a very ambitious guy.

When the old Earl of Winsell's father was still alive, he was a little more at ease.

When the old Count died, he began to jump out and tried to take away his nephew's position as earl.

Fortunately, the lady of the old earl was very capable. She defeated the younger uncle who wanted to possess everything and made her son the Lord Winsell.

However, he did not let this ambitious guy give up.

After so many years, he is still trying his best to occupy the Winsell family, become the head of the family, and become the earl.

Winsier stroked the hilt with the precious jade with his fingers, and a chill burst into his blue eyes, "My sword will definitely kill him."

Covet the position that belongs to him, look for death!

"After I leave, continue to keep an eye on my good uncle. If I can, I don't mind when I come back, what I see is his grave."

"Okay, Lord Earl." Adolf smiled, and he didn't mind killing a guy who wanted to become an earl.

Earl, only his Earl of Winsell.

"You tell An Mo now that I'm sick and don't want to see anyone, including his daughter, Miss An Qian, who can't get married."

The arrogant Lord Earl has never given the current lord of the emperor domain An Qian a good face.

Even if An Qian's mother came from the royal family, in his eyes, An Qian was born outside as a filthy illegitimate daughter who would dirty his eyes.

Adolf responded one by one.

The old Mr. An Mo is no longer young, and now he is faint and disgusting.

It would be great if Emperor Anxia was still there.

His Lord Earl will confess to Emperor An Xia, will marry Emperor An Xia with the most century-old gift, and will spoil her as the happiest lady in the world.

pity...

The Adolf butler, who leaned to leave, sighed silently in his heart.

Unfortunately, Lord Earl had not had time to understand his thoughts on Emperor Anxia, the cruel Emperor Anxia left like this.

When news of his death came, Lord Earl, who had just finished the operation, was so sad that he vomited blood on the spot.

Dragging the weak sick body, regardless of the anger of the old countess, she insisted on taking a special plane to fly to the crash site of Emperor Anxia.

It's in a wood.

The crashed plane burned into black scrap iron, with parts scattered all over the floor.

When the Lord Earl passed by, some parts were in blue smoke.

Small pieces of the woods were also burned down, thick trees were hit to break large pieces, and some parts were hung on the trees, and occasionally swayed when the wind blew.

The Lord Earl who arrived at the scene shouted the name of Emperor Anxia.

Now even after five years, he still remembers the expression of Lord Earl at that time.

Chapter 943: Pick up your saber and compete with me

He screamed in disbelief, and the wound was cracked after the operation, but he didn't find it.

His face was even more sad that he had never seen before, so full of tears that even a servant of him shed.

Lord Earl didn't believe that Emperor Anxia died in this way.

Crazy, he moved the wreckage of the plane hard, shouting the name of Emperor An Xia, "An Xia! An Xia! Come out for me!"

"Have you heard! I order you to come out immediately! Come out!"

The followers were shocked.

They had never seen the noble Count Lord so gaffe.

Completely disregarding the image, roaring like a madman, carrying the wreckage.

Everyone blocked.

"Master Earl!"

"Master Earl!"

"Master Earl!"

...

Their Lord Earl had injuries on his body and had just finished the operation, his body couldn't withstand the strong movements.

But they can't let others know that Lord Earl is injured, and will let those enemies hiding in the dark corner take the opportunity to assassinate Lord Earl.

"roll!"

"Get away!!"

"Get out of here!"

No one can stop the madness of the Lord Earl. He kept screaming and moving, and the wounds were cracked and blood was flowing, which did not stop his madness.

"Anxia, get out of me! Did you hear that! I order you to get out of me immediately!"

"How could you die! Lie to me, you are lying to me! I know you must have lied to me, because you dare not face the next competition and are afraid of losing to me, right? Isn't it!"

"Get out! Get out! Pick up your saber, and now, now, compare it with me!"

"Adolf! Give me the saber! I want to defeat the guy who thinks he is very powerful, has a bad temper, and is always a headache!"

"Damn it! Did you hear me talking, don't hide it anymore, get out of me!"

Lin Zi is the angry roar of Lord Earl.

He yelled until his throat was hoarse, and at the end he was completely silent. Finally, I heard the search and rescue personnel yelling, "Found it! God, we found it!"

The gloomy eyes of the Lord Earl who couldn't hold it in front of him suddenly burst into bright light like the sun.

"I found An Xia? I knew that this nasty guy must have hidden himself."

"Too disgusting! An Xia! You finally got out of me! I knew you must be alive, you must be alive."

"Lord Earl, we found the badge of Emperor Anxia, please have a look."

The search and rescue personnel handed over a rubbed badge with black charred remains.

This is a badge of identity.

It is the most supreme of the emperor domain, and only the emperor can be equipped with a badge.

The joyful earl heard the words, and his handsome facial features were instantly distorted like a devil, and he was fierce like a devil.

"What did you say? What did you say just now!"

He roared dumbly, and with all his last effort, he roared out his anger.

"Master Earl, please take care."

The search and rescue personnel had a heavy expression and said sadly, "A total of 27 people on board, including the captain, were spared and all died."

"boom....."

Lord Earl, who had not reached out to pick up the badge, fainted.

"Master Earl!"

The followers were shocked.

As a housekeeper, he, on behalf of Lord Earl Winsell, took the badge of Emperor Ansha and escorted Lord Earl away from the scene of the accident.

Emperor Anxia is indeed dead.

Died in an accident.

Yes, those people said that Emperor Anxia died in an accident.

Only their Lord Earl firmly believed that it was not an accident, but a murder.

Someone killed Emperor Anxia with missiles.

Chapter 944: Dirty people don't deserve to show up

For the next five years, Lord Earl has been investigating the death of the emperor to find the murderer.

He also tried to protect the old ministry of the emperor and prevent them from being brutally attacked.

He even stepped back for this, requesting Master An Mo to release the four Heavenly Guards of Emperor An Xia on the condition that she agreed to Miss An Qian's takeover of the Imperial Domain.

The two brothers Tianshu and Tianxuan, and the two brothers Tianji and Tianquan.

The four were free, and Earl Winsell made his first decision against his will.

Nodded and agreed to Miss An Qian to take over the emperor domain.

Then, Lord Earl no longer set foot in the imperial realm.

Even if Lord An Mo contacted Lord Earl countless times, Lord Earl did not allow Lord Earl to re-enter the imperial domain for discussion.

With silent rejection, the Winsier family gradually broke away from the imperial domain.

But he didn't expect that Master An Mo became more shameless every year.

He even ran up to the old countess and proposed the idea of letting Miss Ansie marry the Lord count.

God!

Hurry up to accept such shameless people and go to heaven!

The illegitimate daughter he gave birth to, who was destined to be annulled forever, wanted to marry the noble Earl of Winsell!

OMG!

What a terrible joke.

Adolf the butler thought in his heart, and ordered all his followers to pack their luggage, "Seal everything up, and you must not leave any personal belongings of the Lord Earl."

"Sheets and pillows need to be sealed up and destroyed."

Lord Earl has a habit of cleanliness, and the only time he didn't care about dirt on his body was the only time he looked for Emperor Anxia.

He still doesn't like the things he used to go out, which makes him very uncomfortable.

Miss An Qian will come over tomorrow, and I don't know if she will hide the personal belongings of Lord Earl as before.

What an inelegant lady with no sense of shame!

It was also because of her why Lord Ann Mo came to disturb Lord Earl's vacation.

It was she who begged Master An Mo to bring her over.

She also begged the old countess, crying that she only wanted to see the Countess.

It's ridiculous!

The old countess did not agree to the marriage, and the father and daughter did not have any shame. They came to Dray Snow Mountain and wanted to meet the Lord Earl in person.

None of these servants want to meet Miss An Qian!

For such a person, every inch of land she stepped on was disrespectful to the land.

Lord Winsell, how could she have come to see herself.

It's good to go to Xia Country.

You can relax.

By the way, take a look at Tianshu and the others, why on earth came to Xia Guo.

Did they find something?

Adolf handled everything in the villa as quickly as possible. In the evening, Earl Winsell left by private jet.

The plane passed over from Villa Lin, Landifen and Vic were competing in the lawn to shoot arrows.

The two looked up at the darkening sky at the same time. Vic smiled and said, "Tomorrow, we should also leave."

"I hope we can cooperate happily." Lan Tiffin retracted his gaze, raised his bow and arrow, with a barbed steel arrow, and aimed at the girl standing five meters away...

Target, the apple on top of the girl's head.

The sky was dark, her eyesight was blocked, and the girl with her eyes closed trembled slightly.

In the next second, a steel arrow broke through the air.

"Well..."

After the muffled screams, the girl who was still alive fell to the ground.

And her throat, the steel arrow quivered slightly.

Has been resolved by Landifen.

"what!"

The girl who went with her was frightened, screaming and throwing away the apple held above her head, and fleeing quickly.

Vic "hehe" grinned weirdly and raised his bow and arrow.

"call out-"

The steel arrow broke through the air, and a few seconds later, the running girl also screamed and fell to the ground.

Chapter 945: School days with headaches

They spent a few days with the two of them, knowing many secrets they shouldn't know.

This is a secret belonging to only Vic and Landifen. How can a third person know it?

As night fell, the sound of mud shoveling came from the jungle manor, and finally disappeared gradually.

The spouts in the lawn spouted water from the snow-capped mountains, and the mist spurted, quickly washing away the remaining blood stains.

The sin is covered up, and no one is looking for the truth.

With a six-hour jet lag, An Xia sat in the dormitory, looking blankly at a pile of textbooks.

These are all textbooks that need to be taught.

Dozens of books large and small.

She had never been to school before, but she went back to school alive.

Staring at the textbook, An Xia fell into the water-based pen that her roommate had just given her for free.

Write the name.

She said that all new textbooks should have their names written on them.

"Nanny, you'd better change to the lower bunk. Sleeping on the upper bunk is too dangerous. It would be terrible if you roll down and get hurt."

"Yeah, yeah, good girl, listen to your mother, let's start with the lower bunk. The upper bunk is too dangerous, and you will definitely get hurt if you fall off."

"Yunnan, eh, be careful, be careful, don't crawl around. Ouch, Xiao Liu, hurry up, hurry up and help you. Ouch, oh, my heart is scared and painful."

For a while it was mother's voice, another was grandma's voice, and another was father's voice.

Now it was changed to the voice of the domestic servant again.

"Miss, slow down, but step on it firmly, don't fall yourself."

"Oh, you are so annoying, I don't know how to fall, Xiao Liu, come out quickly, don't move, I will go up by myself."

Xiao Liu is their servant, cleaning in the bathroom now.

Hearing the call of grandma, he hurriedly came out to help others.

Girls who don't know which city they come from do not count as self-reporting, but grandma, mom, dad, and servants accompany the report.

From entering the dormitory to the present, the family has been talking endlessly, without stopping for a moment.

Hearing Anxia's forehead twitching pain.

The dormitory is a six-person room, very spacious, the upper bunk is a bed, and the lower bunk is a bookcase and desk, which is very convenient.

But obviously, it does not meet the requirements of this family.

The bed is the top bunk, no, it's dangerous, it needs to be replaced.

The question is, the six integrated beds in the dormitory are all top bunks. Who can change them?

From the moment I walked into the bedroom, I was picky.

The floor is too dirty and needs to be cleaned.

The bookcase is too dirty and too old to work.

The bathroom is too dirty, so wash it quickly.

There are cobwebs on the ceiling, no, get rid of it quickly.

Instead of letting my family do it, my grandmother directed the girl in the dormitory to get rid of it quickly and said, "Oh, haven't you noticed it after coming in for so long?"

"Spiders are poisonous, don't you know it, if you get a thread, you will get red bumps on your body, don't you know."

"Why don't you see such a big net? Oh, you guys quickly get it. My daughter is very afraid of these little things."

If it's not for arrogance, and of course telling girls to work, grandma's distinctive accent is quite nice.

The instigated girl didn't want to move, who is not the charming girl in the family!

Why let her work.

Seeing that she hadn't mobilized people, grandma was unhappy, "Oh, now the little girl has to do it, she doesn't know how to help each other."

"It's nothing more than a small spider web. It's not a big deal, so I can't move it."

"If I hadn't gotten older and had inconvenient legs and feet, I would have done it myself."

The immobile girl also had a temper, rolled her eyes and left.

There is another girl who has a softer temper and a much thinner face. After hearing this, she blushed and obediently followed.

Clean up the spider web.

Chapter 946: Picky family

The grandma was also afraid that the girl might not clean it up, and said, "Wipe a few times and be sure to clean it up, oh, don't use it so hard!"

"My daughter's skin is tender. If you rub it so hard, beware that the net floats up and gets on my daughter's skin. That's terrible."

Grandma wore a cheongsam, very beautiful.

The hair bun is also very retro, and a silver hairpin with emeralds is not attached.

When talking, the falling emeralds flickered, reflecting the green of the secluded lake.

She also wore a jade bracelet on her wrist. The color was water green. An Xia didn't understand jade, but she also saw that it was expensive.

She raised her hand, and while directing, she dismissed the girls for their imprecise work. When it came to the girls, she was annoyed and embarrassed to get angry.

After finally wiping it clean, the grandma instructed the girl to help pick up the pot of hot water.

The reason is also very simple.

"Little girl, the walls of your dormitory are too dirty, go get a pot of hot water to cool off, add some toilet water, and wipe the walls."

"My daughter's desk also helps to wipe it. There is too much dust and my daughter is allergic to mites."

This time, the girl won't do it no matter how good the temper is.

Saying "You are always waiting", walked to An Xia and asked in a low voice "Do you want to go out together".

An Xia stared at the desk and shook her head.

The girl said: "Are you ready to write your name, do you have a pen? I will give you one if you don't have a pen. The new textbook requires the name to be written, and I will write it later."

Give the pen to An Xia to confirm that An Xia will not leave. She left the dormitory amidst the urging of her grandma.

Hit hot water?

Sorry, no time.

In the end, there was only An Xia in the bedroom.

An Xia has been sitting at her desk, motionless like a sculpture.

The family behind him kept talking and didn't let her move.

When grandma saw her granddaughter not wanting the servant Xiao Liu to hold her back, she was so scared that she clutched her chest, and said in shock: "How can you climb up by yourself, hurry up, Xiao Liu, help her."

He criticized his daughter-in-law again, "Is there anyone who is like you as a mother? Nun and nun don't pay attention to safety, so you don't want to remind you."

"Mom, Xiao Liu will watch, don't be nervous. Nuns, be good, don't worry about grandma. Don't crawl anymore, Dad will go to the dean of the department and see if he can get you a lower bed."

The mother also spoils her daughter for fear that her daughter will suffer.

When Dad was the same, he heard the words and said solemnly: "It's really not possible. Let's buy a lower bed by ourselves."

It is impossible to ask the school to change a bed for her daughter alone.

It's probably ok to change one by yourself.

Grandma was unhappy when she heard that, "The school hasn't done it well, so why let the parents of the students pay for it. If it doesn't work, just find the school to change."

"Students' safety is so important. It is the school's responsibility to take good care of the students. They have to change beds for their parents."

My mother persuaded: "There are so many students in the school, and many of them want to sleep and make their beds. If we set a precedent for us today, the school would not be easy to do."

"Husband, let's just buy it ourselves."

Grandma is very unhappy.

The girls who climbed onto the bed were also a little unhappy.

He pursed his mouth and complained, "The lighting is not good, it will affect my study."

"The lighting is not good?" Grandma's attention suddenly shifted, and she walked around the dormitory for a week, and finally locked in An Xia.

An Xia's bed was leaning against the balcony, with good lighting.

She was the second to report to the dormitory, and she didn't choose, she chose the bed by the balcony.

An Xia, who leaned down on the table and wrote her name, stopped writing, turned around, and glanced coldly at the old man who was about to reach out and pat her shoulder.

Grandma was shocked.

"Oh, little girl, don't you be so scary, turn around all of a sudden, I'm scared."

Chapter 947: There are always so many top products

An Xia glanced at the old man and sat upright again, ignoring it.

Grandma patted her chest to suppress the lingering palpitations.

Seeing that An Xia didn't say a word, her face was displeased, "Little girl, why are you so rude? You scared me just now, don't you know."

"I was scared by you, won't you apologize to me?"

"Oh, forget it, forget it, you little girls are just ignorant, and the adults in the family won't teach you this."

"Little girl, I'm going to talk to you about something, my daughter, she is not in good health, and usually needs you to take care of her."

"I think you are very healthy, and you must be very healthy. You can take care of my daughter and change the bed."

"Come on, grandma will take the book to you. You sleep in the same bed as you are now."

I have reached out to move books to An Xia.

An Xia raised her hand and pressed her hand on her book with a "pop", staring at the old man with cold eyes.

He said coldly, "Go away."

Having been sitting in the dormitory, An Xia heard everything the family said from beginning to end.

Including, of course, instructing other girls to do work.

Now it's natural to come to her again, but it's really going to look for things.

With such a cold "go away" grandma, she was taken aback.

It took a while to react and became angry.

"How do you little girl talk? Why don't you have any quality? How did your parents teach you? Don't you know how to respect the old and love the young?"

"Speak to you well, you are still running sideways! How did the school recruit students like you without a tutor?"

When my father heard the movement, he gathered around and said in a deep voice, "Little girl, don't be so irritable when you go out. The old man is in poor health and you are mad at you. Can you bear the responsibility?"

"If you don't feel well, lie down at home." An Xia is not a vegetarian, and went back coldly, "Run out, in case there is something short and long, do you want to corrupt people?"

Facing the case, turn over the class and write down your name.

No matter how troublesome student status is, I have to adapt.

Let's start by writing the name in the textbook.

The two behind them are very popular.

This is the first time I have met a young man who dared to talk back to them like this!

Grandma was so angry that her face changed, "You, you, how come your little girl's mouth is so poisonous!"

"What's your name! I'm going to find your mentor!"

"It's not at all polite, it's so arrogant, you can't share a dormitory with my daughter! You have to change the dormitory!"

Just as confident as if the school was a private school run by her family.

An Xia clicked on her name with the tip of her pen, "Here is the name, please."

"One more sentence, do you group of old and young people have anything to do with me? I need to respect an old or young one who has nothing to do with me?"

"If you want to change the dormitory, you can change it yourself."

When they said something, An Xia stunned, and never left behind.

Grandma was so angry that her face was pale, she screamed pain in her chest, "Ouch, oops, fangs, so uneducated!"

"mother!"

Dad was anxious when he saw the old mother clutching his chest and groaning.

Angrily yelled at An Xia, "Listen to me, the old man will be * off by you, I want to make it look good!"

The mother hurriedly supported her grandma and glared at An Xia, "You are a little girl who is really poisonous! It's all about helping her classmates, and bullying an old man!"

"Husband, call the police and hand it over to the city police."

It became An Xia's fault.

The girl who was pampered by the whole family quickly crawled straight from the upper bunk, and Xiao Liu, the servant who took care of her, turned pale in shock, "Slow down, slow down, little ancestor, don't fall."

Chapter 948: Three adults bullied her and a girl, so scared

At this moment, the girl who can't lift her shoulders or hands, is very proud of the delicate girl.

A stride rushed to An Xia, one pointed at An Xia's nose, and shouted, "You immediately apologize to my grandma!"

An Xiashun picked up the textbook in his hand and flew away the finger that pointed to her nose.

Sensually hostile, "point to me again, and use your finger."

The textbook was drawn heavily and hit the girl's wrist fiercely.

Immediately, the girl's wrist flashed red.

"It hurts, it hurts!"

The girl cried out for pain while covering her wrist, and she shed tears even after she said it.

The grandmother was anxious and annoyed. She couldn't care about her chest tightness and shortness of breath, who was distressed by her granddaughter, so she quickly checked her granddaughter's wrist.

At first glance, it's incredible!

It's all red!

"Oh, it's terrible, terrible, there is a black boss in the dormitory, who scolds and beats, and her wrists are swollen by her! Hurry up, call the police, call the police!"

"The school should also contact, come quickly and see what students they recruit!"

The short of breath grandma was shaking all over.

The girl nestled in her grandmother's arms and wept in grievances, "Grandma, my sister's wrist hurts, oooooo...it hurts, it hurts."

"Don't cry, don't cry, grandma blows, blows."

The old man coaxed his grown-up granddaughter like a three-year-old child.

An Xia will live a long time to see you.

After two lives, it was the first time I saw an adult being coaxed by an adult as a three-year-old child!

As for the elderly, they will live a long time.

It was the first time in her life that she was treated so rudely by a little girl.

Isn't it just to let her and her daughter change their beds, and they all shouted to beat them and kill them.

He hugged his granddaughter while yelling at his son, "What are you doing in a daze, haven't you seen the nun being bullied?"

"I don't know which wild child from the village, there is no room for people! You can't let her stay with the nun, don't take the nun out of it!"

Mother is checking her daughter's wrist.

Seeing a lot of red on my wrist, I feel distressed.

The daughter is the little ancestor of the family, and the whole family is just such a baby, all pampered in pain, and can't bear to move a finger of her.

Today, I didn't expect to be beaten by a wild girl in the village.

"To call the police, you must call the police. Let the city police take her away! Lawless, she dared to bully the nanny while we were still, we are leaving, she can't beat the nanny every day."

An Xia heard a sneer, "Look at your daughter, don't point here! It's your daughter, not our daughter!"

"You, you, you, why are you so unqualified! My nanny is weak, you don't know how to let it go?" Mom, like grandma, was already trembling with anger.

"Your daughter is weak, what does it matter to me?" An Xia has a long experience.

The family entangled so arrogantly, superb!

Dad is contacting the school here, "Yes, girls dormitory 503, my daughter was beaten. Yes, I have to be injured! Very serious! Very serious!"

The wrists are red, quite serious!

Grandma added, "You can't come here anymore. I have a daughter and a short story. Your school is waiting for the news!"

The girl's nanny cooperated with crying and yelled that her throat hurts, "Grandma, Mom, I'm so painful, oooooo, it hurts, is it a broken bone, Dad, I'm scared... I'm so scared..."

An Xia: "..."

Never been so speechless.

Raise the voice, pretending to be afraid, "Teacher, you can't come anymore, I will be driven to death by this wonderful work!"

Pretend to be weak, who won't?

She will too.

Three adults bullied her and a girl, she was so scared!

Use magic to defeat magic, and sure enough, the girls forgot to cry for a while.

Staring blankly at An Xia, who suddenly looked terrified, she didn't shed tears.

Chapter 949: It's the girl they can't afford

When Tianshu came in, he saw their emperor surrounded by his family, and he looked like he was bullying the emperor!

The calm temperament instantly kills him.

He straightened up and said coldly: "Get out of the way!"

Murderous, slashed like a big knife.

The father who was about to call the police bluffed his heart, turned around and looked at the man with foreign faces who came by.

He opened his mouth and asked, "Who are you, how did you break into the girls' dormitory without permission, stop, and you are not allowed to come over again!"

A man's instinct for danger made the father vigilant.

Instinct told him that the foreign-faced man who came in was not easy to provoke.

The one who is really not easy to mess with is An Xia.

But they have already gotten into it.

Tianshu walked over, piercing the middle-aged man with a knife-like gaze, until the other side couldn't help but give in.

The grandmother hugged her granddaughter tightly, and stared at the strange man who suddenly came in with a vigilant look.

The mother opened her arms and protected her grandma and daughter behind her.

Seeing Tianshu walking towards her, the frightened mother snorted, "What are you doing, I'm not welcome anymore!"

Who is this!

How can a cold face make people feel so scared!

Tianshu did not look at them, walked to An Xia and handed over the house contract, "Miss, the procedures have been completed, and all the furniture is in place this afternoon. You can move in at any time."

I bought all log furniture, so I can move in with ventilation, so I don't have to worry about excessive formaldehyde.

After my mother heard the words, Yu Guang glanced at the document handed over by the strange man.

When she saw the words of the house contract, and then saw the name of the real estate, her mother's breath was tight.

This property...

Then, mother quickly scanned An Xia's dress, her face changed again.

Just now, I just organized the things of my daughter and daughter, and didn't pay attention to the girl who was sitting all the time and didn't say anything.

At this moment, I found out that she was full of international luxury brands.

Clothes, pants, belts, and shoes are all luxury brands.

"Mom, let's go in and out." The arrogance was lowered a lot.

The grandmother didn't understand, so she winked at her daughter-in-law. Although she didn't understand why, she still did.

Also, just now, she heard the strange man call the country girl who didn't know the manners "Miss".

Miss?

Could it be that she missed her eyes?

Not a country girl from a vulgar background, but someone with good family conditions?

"Husband, go, go out first."

Mom reminded her husband again.

Soon, a family of four walked out of the bedroom.

After leaving the dormitory, my mother pressed her throat and said softly, "The man is giving a house contract. I just took a look, Jun Hai Zi Mansion."

Dad's breath tightened suddenly.

Only grandma didn't know about Junhai Zifu, "What's wrong with Junhai Zifu? Isn't it just a house? Our family also has it! I bought one for my daughter."

"Mom, Junhai Purple Mansion, 400,000 square meters, all houses are above 280 square meters." The daughter-in-law's voice became even lower, "every family has its own swimming pool on the balcony, and the top floor is a private aeroplane."

Grandma held her granddaughter tightly and stopped talking.

400,000 square meters, all houses are above 280 square meters, and one set is hundreds of millions.

Although their Tian family also has money, they still don't have the ability to buy a set of hundreds of millions of luxury.

Therefore, the little girl just now was not a wild girl in the countryside at all.

Like her family, she is also a lady who is being served by others.

No, it's more expensive than 囡囡.

"Husband, let's go buy a bed for my daughter and daughter now."

Without waiting for the teacher to come to deal with it, let's go.

The girl whispered, and the name Tian Xinyuan pouted her lips, looking very upset.

"Dad, I also want to buy Junhai No.1, you can buy it for me."

Chapter 950: Compare

She didn't want to be beaten by her roommate.

She has never been compared since she was a child.

Going to college, but being beaten by a roommate.

The house of 120 square meters is not fragrant anymore.

She wants to buy Junhai One too!

Father Tian really didn't have the ability to meet this requirement.

Sighed: "You are good, don't make trouble."

"I don't, I don't, I want it, I want it!" Tian Xinyuan had a little temper, and begged her grandma, "Grandma, my daughter and daughter will also live on Junhai One."

"Junhai No.1 is so big, the nun can still live with grandma. Grandma, please, please help me persuade my father to buy me the Junhai Purple Mansion."

From childhood to adulthood, as long as she makes her little temperamental and acts like a coquettish, grandma will ask her father to pick it off for her, even if it is the moon in the sky.

This time, as long as grandma nodded, Dad would definitely find a way to buy it for her.

Grandma was embarrassed.

The Tian family is rich, but the Tian family can't afford a 100 million house.

Stroking her granddaughter's hair, grandma persuaded her, "My daughter, please wait until your dad makes more money, then buy it for your daughter, okay?"

"Not good, not good, not good at all. I'm thinking now, Grandma, don't I hurt me?"

"Ouuuu, grandma doesn't hurt her, she's so sad."

Started fake crying.

The counselor who came in a hurry recognized who the family was. Seeing Tian Xinyuan crying, her heart sank.

Is it really hurting people?

Then you have to go to the hospital quickly.

Wiping sweat, ran to the front.

"It's Xinyuan's parents, how is Xinyuan now? Do you want to go to the hospital?" The counselor said, looking at the crying girl.

The girl wore a light goose yellow floral skirt, with the petite and gentle temperament of a woman from the south of the Yangtze River.

She is also exquisite and delicate, with pale skin, slender limbs like small flowers in the rain, delicate and weak, very inviting and affectionate.

After looking at it from head to toe, no injuries were found.

The counselor breathed a sigh of relief.

There doesn't seem to be a fight.

It is a bit exaggerated.

Dad is the head of the family. He came forward to solve the problem at this time. Dad originally contacted the school.

"Thank you for a while, the child was fine, but was a little frightened. We thought she was hurt, and we couldn't help but become anxious. Please forgive me."

When the parents said that, the counselor became lighthearted.

She was really scared by the call just now.

I thought I was bleeding and I needed to be sent to the hospital quickly.

"It's okay, it's okay, can understand, can understand." The counselor smiled and said: "After seeing Xinyuan, I am reluctant to leave her parents, so I won't bother you. If you have anything to do, please contact me at any time."

Have to go to 503 to ask about the situation.

Tian Xinyuan was crying in front of her, her mood was not very good, and she might not be in the mood to answer her when asked.

Tian Mu just didn't want to talk to the counselor too much, she didn't know how to explain what happened.

Then, he immediately said: "Okay, you are busy. Let's take the nun to the furniture store. The nun can't go to bed. We plan to buy one to get out of bed."

What?

The counselor who was about to leave was stunned, "Buy a bed?"

Did she get it wrong?

Yes, Grandma Tian said, "Teacher, it's too dangerous to go to bed. It's the first time for my nanny to live in the dormitory. I'm so worried that she will fall off the bed."

"I want your school to change beds. Her dad said it's impossible, so let's just change it ourselves."

I can't change it myself!

The counselor couldn't laugh or cry, "The school has a uniform package, and students cannot change without permission. You don't need to worry, Xinyuan is now a college student, and is already an adult, and she will definitely adapt to dormitory life."

Wake up, it's not a three-year-old kid anymore, there's no need to treat it so carefully!

In order to change the bed, the counselor explained for a long time, but Grandma Tian thought it was deliberately embarrassing her family.

At this time, the counselor was also a little angry, "Grandma Tian, this is the school's regulations, and no student can be special."

"Grandma, look, look, the bed can't be changed, I will definitely fall down. But my father wants to buy me Junhai No. 1, so I can sleep on my own bed, you don't have to worry about me falling off."

This was a family affair, and the counselor did not stay to explain.

It is faintly understood that what Father Tian said on the phone before was 100% exaggerated.

But the counselor still went to the dormitory to understand the situation.

Tianshu was about to leave.

"Take care, if you have something, you can contact me directly."

With that said, he wrote a line of English in his notepad with a pen, which probably means, "Beware of the phone being monitored."

An Xia nodded.

She had thought of this a long time ago, and was cautious every time she contacted Tianshu.

Tianshu and the others are also very cautious in contacting themselves. They have always been "Miss An" and would not call themselves "Emperor."

By the way, there is one more thing.

"Where's the medicine? Get it?"

Tian Shu said: "I have already got it, but I didn't bring it back this time."

"Bring it here next time." An Xia finished talking and talked to Ye Mu again, "Since she is suspicious, pay more attention to it. I will ask someone to ask what the poem means."

"Take good care of her, especially the Ye family. They must not let them find her."

"Understood." Tianshu leaned slightly, and suddenly, he tilted his head slightly, looking towards the door.

Someone is here.
