

Goddess 961

Chapter 961: Buddhism

How did you teach me at home!

No quality!

Forget it, forget it, don't talk to them, lower her status.

Holding the umbrella, Tian Mu caught up with Tian Xinyuan in a few steps, and said distressed: "Hurry up and hide under the umbrella, and I will go back to the hotel for a SPA, and then take care of my face."

The girl's face is so delicate, she can't get sunburned.

The electric door of the nanny car opened, and Tian Xinyuan, who was about to get in the car, didn't know what was wrong in her mind. After she helped Grandma Tian into the car, she turned her head, raised her chin arrogantly, and said to An Xia:

"Your family must be rich, without any background."

An Xia just walked to his car.

There was just a parking space between the two cars. Tian Xinyuan saw this, and then coldly snorted, "Get rich, stay away from this car! If it breaks, you have to sell the house to pay."

Tong Xiaoguan was so shocked that he couldn't leave, and said to An Xia, "Oh damn, everyone, I'm afraid you are a fool!"

The car has been starting, An Xia walked up to her, she even scared An Xia not to touch the car.

Girls who are still blind!

In the car, Grandma Tian said, "Nanny, ignore them, let them pay if you break them. If you don't suffer a little loss, they think they are amazing."

"The girl's family has no sense, and it will only embarrass her parents when she is outside."

"I want to take a taxi, but I don't know what to do while standing on the side of the road to take a taxi and running to the parking lot."

Grandma Tian was still chattering and preaching with her own right.

An Xia suddenly felt that to say a word with this family would be an insult to her IQ.

The door opened and An Xia got in the car.

Tong Xiaoguan laughed at Tian Xinyuan, "You are so stupid!"

The Buddha does not cross the false criticism.

Tian Xinyuan froze.

Inside the car, An Xia stepped on the accelerator.

"Boom! Boom! Boom..."

The unique throttle sound of supercars blasted, and the car drove far away with a "call".

And Tian Xinyuan, who froze all over, her face became colorful.

Just now, she made a fool of herself again!

She wanted to show off her car, but she didn't expect...

The running Jiwa who parked next to her car turned out to be the one who became rich!

Ahhhhhhh!

How is her car!

It's so expensive at a glance!

Tian Ma clenched the umbrella handle tightly.

Get rich?

I'm afraid it's not getting rich.

She doesn't understand cars, but that car is not cheap just by looking at it.

Father Tian is in a very bad mood, very bad, and has a temper, "Look at what you are doing!"

"I remind you to say a few words less, say a few words, even if the small ones are not obedient, what are you adults following!"

"This car, can this car be sold because it is rich?"

"Dad, I want to buy this car too! I want to buy a car that is exactly the same!" Tian Xinyuan was immersed in the car and did not hear what her dad said.

There is only one thought in her mind: She wants to buy a car exactly like it!

Grandma Tian doesn't understand cars, she only knows that her granddaughter is being bullied again.

Quickly said: "Buy, buy, buy, let's buy it for my daughter! Isn't it just a car? Our family can afford it!"
affordable?

Father Tian checked the price, and said with a black face: "More than 50 million units, two units in total length!"

"..." Grandma Tian said after a while, "I can spend money like this when I'm so young, what a prodigal! We don't learn, it's not good."

More than five thousand in case, the Tian family can afford to buy it, and after buying it, it will be tight!

Tian Xinyuan was unhappy, and cried, "Woo, I won't buy a house, a house, or a car, or a car. I'm not learning badly, I'm just unhappy, I'm not happy that I am being compared to others..."

The car door was closed, isolating Tian Xinyuan's cry.

On the other side, Tong Xiaoguan sat in the supercar, holding his mobile phone to take a photo.

Chapter 962: Happiness is to be infected

"Beautiful! Beautiful, so beautiful! My mother, so cool! So cool!"

The Tian family has been left behind.

Then asked An Xia, "Can I post to Moments? Can I post to groups?"

An Xia has always been indifferent to these things. In her eyes, a car is a car, and a very common travel tool is as common as a bicycle on the roadside.

Driving An Xia took the time to look at Tong Xiaoguan.

So excited?

Is this the same for peers?

She is eighteen, she has never had a color.

Bright and cheerful, you can vent your dissatisfaction loudly, or tell others loudly that she is happy now.

Happiness is to be infected.

An Xia felt the joy of Tong Xiaoguan.

She smiled and said, "Whatever."

"Hahaha, hahaha, great, I'll post it right away." Tong Xiaoguan was very happy and immediately entered the circle of friends.

"Damn! Jiugongge is not enough."

"The zodiac is right."

"Hahaha, it's okay, I posted twice."

"Happy and happy, I have also gotten in more than 50 million supercars, oh!"

He kept talking like a jar of words.

Hand it, quickly edit the circle of friends.

"Oh haha, I'm so happy today. A fairy roommate came to my dorm room. The first day the class group was established, the red envelope of the group was 20,000 plus. And now I, sitting in her super sports car of more than 50 million, together Go buy bedding and go back to the hotel to get clothes."

After sending out the circle of friends, Tong Xiaoguan entered the class group again.

The class group is still lively right now.

But it has become a group that recognizes fellow villagers.

Who's here, how close is who's home, who's traveled to who's home, can be very lively.

Then, a few photos were sent out.

Because there were all girls in the foreign language and German group, I couldn't get these photos first, until a boy appeared.

With a string of exclamation marks, he said, "This classmate, are you in An Xia's sports car?"

what!

Recognition of fellow villagers temporarily suspended.

Look at the photos.

Tong Xiaoguan was very happy, "Yes, yes, hahaha, I'll take a seat first. An Xia is driving!"

"Ah, envy, I want to sit too."

"Oh my God, you are moving too fast, I just had my roommate said, can we touch An Xia's car, and you are all in it!"

"Such a speed, you must be a master in high school queuing for food!"

"The picture is zoomed in! It is confirmed that it is a car I can't afford to ride."

There was a girl named Lin Yinya who bubbled up, Ai Tetong Xiaoguan, "Classmate, can you take a picture of An Xia?"

"Hahaha, yes, yes, no pictures, no truth."

"People have pictures and direct pictures, and I'm sitting in An Xia's car."

"What I'm talking about is, is it in Anxia's car."

"Oh, well, you won."

Tong Xiaoguan didn't immediately agree, Aitlin Yinya, "Do you want to see An Xia? Go to the tall building in the school to post, there are pictures of An Xia in it."

School high-rise stickers?

Where?

Lin Yinya immediately turned over the students' compliance, and reported that the seniors gave her some information about the school that day.

Soon she found the school forum.

When I went in and took a look, even though the two photos were not so clear, Lin Yinya recognized at a glance that An Xia was the An Xia she knew.

Can't be wrong!

"An Xia, An Xia, it's really you, it's really you."

Lin Yinya was very excited.

She actually met An Xia at school.

She was admitted to the same university as An Xia!

Tears flowed out all of a sudden.

She looked back at Ai Tetong and was so excited that her fingers were trembling when typing.

"Classmate, please ask An Xia if you know a girl named Lin Yinya."

Chapter 963: Hurry up, add friends

After all the students joined the group, they changed their real names and responded with their real names. Tong Xiaoguan knew what was going on.

She asked An Xia excitedly, "There is a girl named Lin Yinya in our group, do you know each other? Are they from the same high school?"

Lin Yinya?

Lin Yinya in the special education institute?

Is that Lin Yinya who was abused by her stepmother, repeatedly framed by the twins, and ignored by her father, and finally made a crazy move to put the twins in the room and set them on fire?

If it is her, know.

An Xia said: "I know someone."

It happened to be the traffic light, Anxia braked, and Tong Xiaoguan handed the phone to her, "I really know you! There is also a girl named Lin Yinya in our class!"

"Fate, you were admitted to the same university."

An Xia glanced at the phone, thought about it, and said, "Let her add me to send a friend."

"Ok, brother!"

Tong Xiaoguan executed immediately.

"Student Lin Yinya, An Xia is driving inconvenient to reply, she said, you add her as a friend."

Lin Yinya received the reply and immediately added An Xia, "An Xia, I am Lin Yinya. I am very excited to see you again."

The classmates in the group have added An Xia as their friends.

And left a message in the group, "Classmate, please tell An Xia, I have added her as a friend, please pass the fairy friend."

"The same friend has been added, please pass the fairy friend."

"I, I, I, I also added."

In fact, they are all added.

The only four boys in the class are sitting in the dormitory now, you look at me, and I look at you.

"Can you add?"

Asked a boy with a cropped head.

"You add it, and I add it too."

"Will it be too good? It's okay for girls to add it, but it's weird for our boys to add it."

"Let's add it, what if it doesn't pass?"

One sentence for you, one sentence for me, still did not discuss whether to add or not.

In the end, the flat-headed boy who spoke first said: "It doesn't matter, I added it first! It's just right to add friends now. Anyway, it's natural for everyone to be together."

"Let's add friends again, cough... it's not so natural."

After that, he added Anxia as a friend, and Zhixin introduced himself, "Hello Anxia, I am Le Jiayan."

The other three boys leaned over to look.

Really added.

Then, they also add.

Then, the three boys joined together.

"Hello Anxia, this is Guo Zihe."

"Hello Anxia, I am Wang Eryi."

"Hello Anxia, this is Zhou Wenwu."

All four boys are added, and it depends on whether An Xia will pass.

It doesn't matter if you fail, it's impossible for the four boys to fail.

It really only passes girls, and it doesn't matter if you don't pass boys.

Anyway, the four of them still have a companion.

An Xia didn't have time to look at her mobile phone.

Tong Xiaoguan became her eyes. Seeing a bunch of classmates add her to her, Tong Xiaoguan laughed and said, "Anxia has become the most popular student in our class."

"Lin Yinja has added you, and many classmates have added you."

"Good." An Xia nodded.

Tong Xiaoguan then went to the group to speak again, "An Xia already knows that you have added her, but she is driving now and has no time to look at her mobile phone."

Aitlin Inya again, "An Xia will pass you later."

"Okay, okay, I'm not in a hurry, you let An Xia drive well." Lin Yinya's gloomy eyebrows instantly became much brighter.

Lin Yinya, who has not been seen for half a year, looks sweet and pleasant, she seems to be covered with a thin layer of haze, and she looks very gloomy.

When she was in the special education center, she could still see the vividness and arrogance in her eyes, but now, there is only the cold silence.

Her dormitory is also six people.

All six people are here.

Chapter 964: Happiness and tragedy

Lin Yinya came to report yesterday and was the fourth girl to arrive in the dormitory.

But she did not communicate with other girls.

Even though the two girls who arrived today and the other three girls have already talked, she didn't even think about joining them in the chat.

It's all boring chats, boring.

The girls said theirs, she swiped her mobile phone, it was out of place.

Seeing this, the five girls did not take the initiative to chat with her.

Until, when she was in the group, Ai Tetong Xiaoguan asked her to ask An Xia if she knew herself. The five girls who were squeezed into a bed looked up and looked at her in surprise.

She knows classmate Shenxian.

"Ask?"

"You ask, I dare not."

"You ask, you ask."

A bold girl came out to ask Lin Yinya.

"You, you, hello, you... do you know An Xia?"

Lin Yinya squeezed her phone, turned her head, and answered bluntly, "Yes, something?"

"It's okay, it's okay, just ask, ask."

The daring girl didn't dare to say more, and quickly sat back.

very scary.

Just ask her why she is impatient at all.

I also want to ask if she and An Xia are in the same place and graduated from the same high school. She is so impatient that she dare not ask.

The girl sat on the bed again and whispered, "Yes, they know."

"Go out and talk, go out and talk."

"Okay, let's go out and say, this man is really weird, maybe he has autism."

"Don't talk nonsense, go out first."

All five girls got up and left the dormitory, leaving Lin Yinya alone.

Lin Yinya didn't care either.

She came here to hide quietly, but not to make friends.

The group was still chatting, Lin Yinya didn't look at it anymore, just knew who An Xia was.

Tong Xiaoguan didn't watch the group anymore. There was too much news to come over.

Many students also added her as friends, she passed them one by one, and returned an emoticon pack.

Some classmates also asked her, "Did you and An Xia know each other before?"

"No, I only met today." Tong Xiaoguan replied, "I'm familiar with it."

Some students also asked, "Did you go outside? The teacher allowed us to go out?"

"This, it should be possible to go out. We came out and met the counselor and didn't say anything."

Now I'm a college student, not a high school student. I don't need to go out to ask for leave or anything. Long live freedom!

There are other classmates who are emoticons, expressing polite greetings.

Tong Xiaoguan responded one by one.

Nowadays, everyone is unfamiliar and can't talk about topics that are too deep. Just say hello politely.

Finally, I looked at the circle of friends.

An Xia, who was driving seriously, heard Tong Xiaoguan sitting next to him, holding his mobile phone alone, laughing.

I don't know what to laugh at.

Tong Xiaoguan is happy to share her happiness with Anxia.

She said, "An Xia, my circle of friends is crazy with envy, hahaha, and my dad, my dad is so funny, let me read his message to you."

"Xiaoguan, go out and make friends widely, but you must do what you can, don't make friends who are too rich, you are not worthy! Understand!"

"It's really my dear dad! Say I don't deserve it."

An Xia bends her lips slightly.

It can be seen that the father and daughter are in a good relationship.

"Come here, read my mom's message to me again."

"My mother said, don't believe in the words of that bad old man, you can't make good friends with rich people, and you don't want to make friends with you. I really have no conscience."

After speaking, Tong Xiaoguan smiled again.

An Xia smiled without interrupting.

The native family is very happy.

"Hey, I have to join my family's group and talk to my dad for a genius."

After speaking, I entered the group at home and sent several photos to the group in a row.

Chapter 965: Can't afford to sell kidneys

This time Tong Xiaoguan really didn't have time to chat with An Xia, she had to chat with her parents.

The parents waited for the daughter to bubble up.

The photo came out, and Tongfu's voice came.

Shocked and said, "Daughter, you can have a snack! Can you sit in a sports car of more than 50 million?"

"You're going to break or smash. Your mother and I can't afford to sell your kidneys. Daughter, don't hurt your old father. You lose your kidneys at an age!"

When the voice was released, Tong Xiaoguan laughed and turned forward and backward.

And said to An Xia, "An Xia, my dad let me get out of the car, hahahaha, hahaha, he is afraid that I will damage your car."

People in Tianjin, regardless of gender, are talking about cross talk.

Quite interesting.

An Xia said: "I can tell your father and won't let you pay."

"Okay." Tong Xiaoguan immediately voiced his voice to an old father who was afraid of selling a kidney car.

"Don't worry, my fairy classmate said that I was knocked out, and he wouldn't let me pay. You two old four waists are safe and won't be cut out."

The voice of the virgin mother arrived.

"Guan, your mother has a heart attack, you are a big-maha who doesn't care about four or six. It's not that your mother is not rare. It's just that you are too rough with your dad. People's cars are more expensive than gold, and gold is more expensive than you. It's valuable, you should get out of the car."

The virgin mother was cleaning herself in the beauty salon. At this moment, she sat up with a face covered with black bath mud and spoke.

"Big girl, you can get out of the car quickly, don't sit, your mother is not good for beauty at the moment."

Tong's family is also a well-off family. There are three smoking hotels in the family, not to mention the big money, but the small money.

They really can't afford more than 50 million cars.

An Xia heard the voices of the father and mother.

So afraid that Tong Xiaoguan would bump into her car?

There is nothing to encounter.

The car bumped and knocked off the paint when driving on the road, which was normal.

Then, An Xia said, "Would you like me to talk to your parents?"

Tong Xiaoguan waved his hand and said, "No, no, my dad and mom just remind me to pay attention, don't look like a kid who has never seen the world."

"Hahaha, it's late! I really haven't seen the world."

The voice returned, "Your old voice, my fairy roommate has heard it!"

In a small group of three, there was silence.

Ma Li, the virgin mother who was more than 2,000 kilometers away, lay down and said to the beautician: "Come on, continue."

Ignore the worried eldest daughter!

After more than two thousand kilometers, her face was completely ashamed.

Father Tong is guarding the shop.

Don't talk anymore.

Alas, the daughter of someone else's family is an intimate little padded jacket.

My daughter's thin sheets are leaky.

I'm so upset!

Don't you know how to save some face for him as a father?

The two of them put their mobile phones for ten seconds, and then picked them up again to chat with their eldest daughter.

They didn't send their daughters to school, it was the first time the daughters grew up so far away from home, so they had to think hard!

An Xia drove the car quietly. Occasionally, Tong Xiaoguan's laughter attracted her and looked sideways.

About half an hour later, Tong Xiaoguan finally put down the phone, and An Xia said to her, "The relationship between you and your parents is very good."

"Hey, yes, my parents give birth to me. My dad wants to raise me as a girl, and my mom wants to raise me as a boy."

"Later they came up with a compromise. I would wear a skirt on one to three to five, and a pair of pants on two to six. Sunday is my personal choice. I want to wear what I want to wear."

"I didn't understand when I was a kid, I don't say, I choose not to wear it!"

"I really didn't wear it, and I walked around the house just barely. My parents were so scared that they took me to the hospital to see my brain."

"Fortunately, my mind is fine, otherwise, they will be sad."

Chapter 966: Open the door to a new world

The car drove into the underground parking lot and turned down.

An Xia heard the corners of her mouth keep rising.

"You are very happy." She said.

Tong Shuiguan said: "You are also happy, uncles and aunts must spoil you!"

I am willing to buy such an expensive car.

An Xia chuckled, but didn't answer.

Then she really hadn't lived the days of being doted by her father.

As far as I can remember, I will always see my father with a dark face, either criticizing or beating.

He threatened her every time.

"Emperor Domain never raises waste. If you can't be the first, just get out of here!"

"Why does the training result fall back! I will never pass the Emperor Domain into the hands of a trash!"

The insult faintly lingered.

Fortunately, thousands of kilometers apart, I finally stopped seeing that ugly face.

After the car was parked, An Xia and Tong Xiaoguan got off and went straight to the bedding area on the sixth floor of the mall.

Fifteen minutes later, the two came down with quilts, mats, pillows, duvet covers and other beddings.

Tong Xiaoguan stood by the car and looked at the things she and An Xia were holding. He looked at the car to the left and the car to the right.

She didn't find the rear of the trunk and asked An Xia, "Where to put this? Or, I hold it?"

Anxia opened the door and pulled out a carbon fiber suitcase from the rear left of the passenger seat.

Tong Xiaoguan smashed his tongue.

"It turned out to be here, hehe, I thought it was under the hood."

She almost had to lift the front hood just now.

I have seen it on TV that the place where some sports cars put things is under the hood.

The beddings are all vacuum pressure boxes, which just fit into the carbon fiber suitcase.

After the stuffing was done, An Xia took Tong Xiaoguan to Lefka.

Tong Xiaoguan secretly searched for "Lefoca" with his mobile phone, and then gasped again.

So expensive!

He asked An Xia, "How many nights did you stay? Did you just book a suite like the boss in the TV series? After going upstairs, there is butler service?"

Anxia entered the elevator and swiped his card to the floor.

Said: "Living on campus, you don't need to pack a suite."

"It's true, you live in school, you live in school, and you just live out occasionally."

It turned out that it was not for the whole year. The TV series are all deceptive!

The elevator goes straight to the 38th floor, and a personal butler is indeed ushered in.

"Miss Ann, welcome home."

What!

go home?

Tong Xiaoguan paused, and the eyes that looked at An Xia were shocked again.

Brother, don't you say that Lefka is your own hotel.

An Xia said to the housekeeper, "Pack up and I will check out."

"Okay." The butler did not ask the reason, and immediately called the staff on the intercom, "Vip Ms. An on the 38th floor is checking out, please come up and pack your luggage."

"Received, immediately arrange staff."

One presidential suite, one staff suite, a total of two suites were quickly arranged by the butler, and the hotel staff went upstairs to clean up.

Tong Xiaoguan walked into the presidential suite, and she said to An Xia sincerely: "Classmate fairy, I am a hillbilly going into the city, and I want to take pictures again."

Whoops!

Enter the presidential suite for the first time!

Don't ask why she knows this is the presidential suite.

Because, just now, she saw the homepage of the Raffles Hotel, driven by curiosity, clicked on the page of the presidential suite.

It's exactly the same as what you see!

An Xia let Tong Xiaoguan feel free, "You are free, I will take a bath."

Then he said to the butler: "Tonight's dinner, pack it up for me."

"Okay." The butler immediately contacted the kitchen and packed the dinner on the 38th floor.

There is no refund for the room rate tonight.

But the room rate for tomorrow night will be refunded.

After contacting, respectfully said to An Xia: "Ms. An, your room fee for tomorrow night will be returned to the original card, please check it carefully."

"Good." An Xia nodded and walked straight into the inner room to take a bath.

Chapter 967: What a shock

Changhai City is very hot, with only winter and summer in all four seasons.

In September, Changhai City became a hot stove, and today the temperature has reached 39 degrees.

An Xia takes a bath, and Tong Xiaoguan takes pictures with "Kacha Kacha".

This time, instead of sending it to the class group, she sent it to Tang Chuye.

"Sister Meng, look at the presidential suite where An Xia lives! Do you know what the price is for this night? You go to the Presidential Suite at Lefkacha, absolutely pleasantly surprised!"

At the beginning of Tang Dynasty, he was also curious when he saw the text messages.

Then, she used the official website of Lefka with her mobile phone, and then went into the presidential suite to check the price.

Not a surprise.

It's fright!

Thousands of nights!

Thousands of nights!

She returned to Tong Xiaoguan, "It scared me to death."

"Hahaha, don't be scared! I will stand here to take pictures and show you later."

Inside and out, even Cup Tong Xiaoguan took photos.

Cups and plates are all international luxury brands!

And the faucet, golden, like gold.

She asked the personal butler, "Miss sister, this... won't it be made by gold."

The personal butler service is very good, smiling and politely answering, "Yes, the guest, made of gold."

Tong Xiaoguan: "..."

For a moment, she had a very bad idea.

Steal the golden faucet!

I took photos to my father and mother.

The virgin mother pierced her daughter's careful thoughts at a glance, "Guan, although gold is expensive, this is a water faucet. You are a bit pursued. Don't steal the faucet. Your mother can't afford to lose that person. Thank you."

The father did not dare to speak, for fear that his daughter's rich classmate would be listening by his side.

Send a text message directly, "Guanbao, just look at it, don't steal. The steal is to be caught by the uncle of the police, and the file will affect your examination of civil servants."

My father's biggest dream is: my daughter will be a civil servant, an iron rice bowl!

Tong Xiaoguan said, "You two always don't know that the glass for drinking water in the presidential suite is thousands of dollars! I dare not drink water now."

I'm afraid of losing my hand and breaking the cup.

"Don't drink it, it's really not good, you drink tap water, the tap water thrown out of the golden water faucet should be more fragrant!" Tongfu suggested.

The virgin mother thinks that her husband makes a lot of sense, "Guan, you go and taste the tap water, and then tell your mother if it tastes good."

Well, on the advice of his old father and mother, Tong Xiaoguan decided to take a sip of the tap water thrown from the golden faucet.

Then, the personal butler told her, "Guests said, our water is all direct drinking water, you can drink it directly from a cup."

It was also very considerate to pick up a cup for Tong Xiaoguan, "There is still mineral water in the cabinet. If you want to drink hot water, you can directly voice it."

When An Xia came out of the bath, the private family also introduced Tong Xiaoguan to the high technology of their presidential suite.

Very attentive and patient.

What Tong Xiaoguan asked, she answered them one by one, very polite.

Finally, Tong Xiaoguan felt embarrassed.

"Miss sister, you are busy, you are busy, I am just curious to ask." I am embarrassed to ask, mainly because she can't afford to live.

The personal butler smiled politely, "You are Miss Ann's guest. It is our responsibility to serve every guest well."

Speak well!

Finally, Tong Xiaoguan made a circle of friends.

Not surprisingly, it was another bunch of comments.

Junior high school students, high school students, friends, relatives, college classmates, all came.

The university students were very enthusiastic and left a message asking, "Is An Xia's presidential suite?"

"Presidential suite, does An Xia live in it? Tall!"

The high school student joked, "Tong Xiaoguan, have you joined a certain micro-business? Have you started to learn to pose?"

There were also people who followed Tong Xiaoguan's circle of friends and came to the hotel.

Chapter 968: I want to meet An Xia

Someone wants to meet An Xia by chance.

Sitting on the large curved sofa of the hotel, with his hands spread out on the back of the sofa, the whole person is very lazy, sitting on all sides.

He is a frequent visitor to Rafflesia.

Sitting, the past hotel staff will stop and nod slightly to greet him.

Obviously, most of the staff in the hotel knew her.

A staff member stepped on high heels and walked in front of him swayingly, "Hello Mr. Chang, please..."

Before he finished speaking, he waved his hand lazily, "I won't stay in the store today, and wait for friends."

"Good Mr. Chang, if you need help, please feel free to contact me or our staff, we will serve you wholeheartedly."

This is the chief foreman of the presidential suite, Mr. Chang Fan, who is the VIP black card guest of Lefka.

Usually there are five or six days a month to stay. During the summer vacation, as long as he is in Changhai City, the booking is a week or even a month.

More than 60,000 a night, booking starting a week or staying a month, I really can't afford to burn without a little money.

Chang Fan was indeed waiting for someone, but he was also meeting by chance.

The phone in his hand vibrated, and Chang Fan waved back from the foreman, opened the text message and took a look.

coming.

Standing up, Chang Fan walked towards the elevator. Someone came out of the elevator. Chang Fan smiled and hugged her.

We talked for about three minutes, respectively.

Then, walk to the exclusive elevator that leads directly to the presidential suite.

On the 38th floor, An Xia was standing at the elevator door wearing sunglasses, waiting for the elevator door to open.

"Ding--"

When the elevator arrived, Jian Liang's mirror-like elevator door opened, the personal butler leaned slightly, and the service was attentive to block the elevator door with his hand.

Leaning, "Miss An, please. Miss Tong, please."

There are also before and after, and the details are fine.

Tong Xiaoguan did not notice that there was a difference in treatment, and he felt very good, "Thank you, thank you."

And An Xia, who had been used to it, only slightly nodded in thanks.

After the two entered the elevator, two staff members who carried the luggage for Anxia entered the elevator, and stood sideways after entering, so as not to disturb the guests with their breathing.

The personal butler came in last.

Tong Xiaoguan looked at the three suitcases and asked An Xia in a low voice, "How do we...how do we get them back?"

Can't put the car down!

More than 50 million luxury cars——

Kekeke, I couldn't fit three suitcases.

Inexplicably, I instantly felt that the luxury car was a bit unsavory.

Her family's 700,000-dollar SUV can pile up three people's self-driving luggage in the rear trunk.

Sure enough, the old man said nothing wrong, flashy!

An Xiadan said, "They send it."

...

Sorry, I'm embarrassed again.

Tong Xiaoguan scratched his head awkwardly.

call--

In the world of the rich, she still uses mortal eyes to judge less.

That was a height she couldn't reach.

What kind of life above a height is like, and what kind of rules it is, she won't even want to figure it out in this life.

Follow An Xia honestly, don't talk!

Although the sound is light, the elevator space is so big that the housekeeper and staff can hear it clearly.

No one said anything, keep smiling, no change.

The guests' guests are also their guests.

The elevator arrived at the hotel lobby on the 13th floor and stopped. The butler said to An Xia: "Sorry, Miss An, there are still guests on board."

An Xia did not respond.

No response means that she knows, she doesn't mind.

Only if you have a response do you mind.

Tong Xiaoguan also remained quiet and did not speak.

The closed elevator door opened again, and a tall young man, good-looking, handsome, and cynical of a rich kid.

A second ago, I was still standing there, seeing someone in the elevator, immediately straightened his body, and instantly his temperament changed from cynicism to seriousness.

The fast switching made Tong Xiaoguan amazed.

Chapter 969: I have to protect you

This man changes his face faster than girls!

Come in, the boy stands at the forefront.

He seemed a little uncomfortable to stand in the middle position. After moving left and right unnaturally, the personal butler who turned his head and said: "Hello, can you change the position?"

The sound is nice, clean and refreshing.

He was very polite, and Tong Xiaoguan couldn't help but glanced at him in secret.

The butler smiled, "Okay, sir."

She also knows this Mr. Chang.

The VIPs of the presidential suite and all the eight butlers in charge of the presidential suite all know him.

But there are other guests, so it is not convenient to just call "Mr. Chang."

Some guests pay great attention to privacy and don't like the staff to tell their surnames in front of outsiders.

It is safest to be collectively called "Mr. and Ms.".

The boy stood in the position of the housekeeper, as if he was relieved, and the whole person relaxed a lot.

Tong Xiaoguan found the clue.

She tugged at An Xia's clothes and motioned An Xia to look at the man with her eyes.

"Keychain, our souvenir of Changhai University, he is the senior of our Changhai University."

Those who can get souvenirs must be seniors, and freshmen need to be sophomore to get it.

An Xia didn't look at it.

The first second she walked into the elevator from the other party, her gaze swept him from head to toe.

Including the keychain he fastened to his waist bag.

The elevator stopped directly, and the butler took the lead to go out, blocking the elevator with one hand, "Miss An, please, Miss Tong, please. Sir, please."

The boys were not the first to go out and stand still.

Lady first.

An Xia led Tong Xiaoguan out, and then the boy came out.

After everyone walked out, Tong Xiaoguan found that the boys who were in the same elevator were still walking with them.

Be vigilant.

No way, run into a stalker?

After all he had practiced Taekwondo, Tong Xiaoguan's whole body was tight, and he was on the verge of breaking out at any time.

The boy was also a little surprised. He glanced at the housekeeper, then at An Xia, and then said: "My car, parked in front."

The butler smiled, "Please."

The boy looked at Tong Xiaoguan and sighed, "Beauty, I didn't follow you, don't be nervous. You are nervous, making me nervous."

...

"I, I, I didn't, no, you misunderstood." Tong Xiaoguan was embarrassed instead.

That...

cough...

She thinks too much.

Ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha.

Really embarrassing!

No, thinking that An Xia is so dissipated, so rich and beautiful, and a little bit of trouble, she feels so nervous.

I feel that everyone who approaches them is a kidnapper.

It's up.

It's tiring to be a rich man.

All day long, I have to worry about whether I will be kidnapped.

Look at An Xia again, the eldest brother is the eldest brother!

This style, this calmness, this calmness, not afraid at all!

Hearing this, the boy smiled, and his pace quickened.

Seeing this, Tong Xiaoguan, who was on the top of the social ceiling, had the urge to find a hole in the ground.

So embarrassing, so embarrassing.

God, let her flash someone.

An Xia didn't feel any embarrassment at all. Seeing Tong Xiaoguan's uncomfortable expression, he said calmly, "Very vigilant, not bad."

Ahhh!

Praised by the eldest brother.

The uplifted Tong Xiaoguan smiled, "It must be strong, I have to protect you!"

An Xia has been classified as a weak woman in need of protection.

Later, she was scared by An Xia's skill and did not speak for three days.

Over there, the boy had come to his car, and he was stunned when he saw two hotel chefs standing beside the car, still holding the packing bag in his hand.

He stunned and said, "I didn't want to pack, are you making a mistake?"

Chapter 970: Be a man, know enough

The chef was stunned by what he said.

This is not the guest's packing.

Fortunately, the butler made a timely relief, "Excuse me, sir, it is our guest who packed."

"..." The man just stood there, blushing visible to the naked eye, and finally said, holding back the words, "No...I'm sorry, I made a mistake."

Get in the car quickly!

Pull the car door and get in the car quickly.

Three seconds later, he quickly got off the car again.

Sorry, sorry, this is the co-pilot seat.

Make a mistake, make a mistake.

Tong Xiaoguan was amused by his series of misoperations, making her laugh very hard.

Hahaha

Hahaha

Are the rich kids so funny?

Looking at the look so cool and uncomfortable, it turned out to be a second ha.

Hahaha!

Hahaha!

It's so funny.

Suffocating her face flushed, she said to An Xia: "Good senior of sand sculpture."

An Xia's mouth was slightly hooked while wearing sunglasses, "Well, it's very sand sculpture."

An Xia also learned some of Xia's new internet vocabulary in the past two days.

Tianshu said that if you want to integrate into the world of your peers, it is better to understand their common language first.

Before that, he sent her a document of common words used by young people on the Internet.

An Xia spent more than an hour reading it and remembering it.

At this moment, learn and use.

After the boy entered, sat down, exhaled a long breath, then waved politely to An Xia and the others, the car door lowered to isolate everything.

The moment the car door was closed, the boy who was still embarrassed and unnatural the moment before showed a cold smile.

It's not particularly easy to talk to.

You have to think of a way.

Here, the butler has put Anxia's luggage on their hotel special car, and the chef also put the packed dinner on the car, and respectfully said: "I wish you a happy meal."

"Thanks for your hard work."

An Xia leaned back to thank you slightly.

It's five o'clock in the afternoon, and I can go back to school.

In my ears, there was the sound of boys starting the supercar, and the sound of "boom" blasted the entire parking lot.

A few seconds later, An Xia started the car, bent over to send it off with the butler, and left the parking lot.

Tong Xiaoguan sat in the car and said with emotion, "The dreamy afternoon is over."

The aftertaste remains, and the aftertaste can be recollected.

An Xia asked her, "Reluctant? I will take you to live next time."

"No, no need." Sober Tong Xiaoguan said with a smile: "This is not our life. We just have to take a look. If we don't have the strength, we don't want to participate. It's easy to get problems."

Parents often teach her to live as much money as she takes. Those who have it, and those who don't, don't think about it!

Take a hundred dollars, you want to live a million days, dreaming of you.

She was sober and refused to enter a life that did not belong to her.

An Xia raised her eyebrows, a little surprised.

"I will take you, and you are not willing?"

"I don't want to." Tong Xiaoguan kept smiling optimistically, "You take me, it's your life, I'm a bystander, if it's a bit ugly, I'm just a drinker."

"When you graduate, we'll go our separate ways. Who am I going to do?"

"And, by that time, can I still adapt to the standard of living that should belong to me?"

"It must be difficult, people, who doesn't like to enjoy it, but you have to enjoy the life you are blessed to enjoy."

"Big brother, your life level is too high, I just see it occasionally, open my eyes, I am very happy."

Don't think that Tong Xiaoguan's family are all comedians, but ah, Sanguan is very righteous, one step is not allowed, what should not be won, even if it is a great blessing, you can't ask for it.

Who knows if there is fate, is there any fate?

To be a man, to know enough, to keep one's duty, to be sober.

Only then can we live well in old age.
