

Godly Choice 1021

Chapter 1021: Autopsy

"Ding, the host makes a choice, rewards a white gift bag*2, Shangguan Lingxian Favorability Degree +11, and additional reward: Shangguan Lingxian Favorability Degree +5."

After knowing the mystery, Shangguan Lingxian showed a big smile to Li Yun. The innocent and pure temperament was faintly visible in the pure white holiness, which was especially tempting.

Li Yun smiled slightly. The Favorability of Lingyi Fairy directly skyrocketed by 16, and the previous -10 was deducted. Now her Favorability has reached as much as 79.

"Then... Brother Li Yun." Song Xi asked in an expectant tone: "Did my parents be killed by the practitioners of the Six Demon Sects?"

"It can only be said that this is possible."

Li Yun glanced at Lin Tianle, who had returned after escaping from the living room. "The people of the Demon Sect can kill the acquired martial artist silently, just like I did just now, and even they can control the corpse to kill."

"Huh?" Song Xi covered her mouth in disbelief, "Then my mother was given to by the dead father's body..."

Li Yun nodded slowly: "I don't think anyone who is a husband will murder his wife cruelly unless the relationship between the two is extremely bad."

"No, no, my parents' feelings are very good!!" Song Xi hurriedly denied this possibility.

Shangguan Lingxian looked at Li Yun admiringly, and he could even think of this little suspicious point.

Lin Tianle's face was ugly, he was ashamed just now, and he couldn't lift his head completely in front of Li Yun!

But after being killed by Li Yun's spike, Lin Tianle now dare not speak easily, so as not to offend him. He didn't know how to die.

"Then what should we do now?" Shangguan Lingxian subconsciously looked at Li Yun and asked.

From the moment I saw Li Yun, he took the lead in a series of things that happened. This made Shangguan Lingxian reliant on Li Yun a little, and would not take the initiative to think about what to do next.

Song Xi also looked at him hopefully, and Li Yun pondered for a moment, and said: "There is a very convenient way to confirm whether our guess is the right way."

"What is it?" Shangguan Lingxian asked immediately.

"For those killed by monks using magic techniques, evil spirits will remain on the corpses. If they are buried right away, the evil spirits will accumulate in the tomb, causing some changes in the corpse. As long as I see the corpse, I can tell it immediately, Song Xi. Did the parents commit suicide or were killed by the monks!"

Li Yun's words calmed the surroundings. Lin Tianle sat in the distance and said coldly: "You are going to dig Master Song and Madam Song out of the ground again!"

Li Yun said indifferently, and when he glanced at him, Lin Tianle was so scared that he shut his mouth obediently. There was a scar on his head, which was especially funny.

"This....."

Song Xi was very hesitant. Huang Xuan people pay attention to going to the land for security, and the elders who have been buried in the tombs after funerals will be condemned by the heavens if they are to be disturbed.

Generally speaking, the corpses are removed only after a few years of burial, looking for good mountains and rivers, and burial again to protect future generations.

Li Yun said: "This is also to find out the truth of the matter. I think the spirit of the sky can understand Master Song and his wife, and more importantly, it is to give your brother and their son back their innocence."

Li Yun always thought that there was some grievance in Song Yuan's medicine on Shangguan Lingxian at the celebration.

There are two reasons. One is that the system also has related investigation and selection incidents. The other is that if Song Yuan really did those things, he should commit suicide in shame, rather than go into the evil way.

".....Ok."

Song Xi finally agreed.

Chapter 1022: Favorability is fast

But even if Song Xi agreed to dig the soil to open the coffin, Li Yun couldn't immediately go to open the grave of Master Song. He had to choose a good day, that is, to check the almanac and choose a day suitable for ground breaking before he could invite someone to dig the tomb .

Fortunately, Mr. Feng Shui quickly gave a day, that is, the day after tomorrow, there is an auspicious day, so the day is set on the day after tomorrow.

Li Yun and Shangguan Lingxian stayed at Song's house at night. The two chatted for one night. It was not until 12 o'clock in the night that after Lin Tianle broke in to remind them, Shangguan Lingxian was still in the mood to separate from Li Yun.

Only after she talked with Li Yun did she realize that he was also good at medicine, and he also knew something called Gu worms.

He is no stranger to Gu worm Shangguan Lingxian. Elder Huang had already promoted Gu worms a month ago, but on the one hand he was still writing articles, and on the other hand he could not produce any evidence. Watch a joke.

So the next morning, Shangguan Lingxian couldn't wait to knock on Li Yun's door, and went directly into his room to communicate with him.

Such an intimate behavior shocked Lin Tianle. Even in Tiandanmen, the senior sister had never had such an ambiguous action with a man.

At most two people will discuss medicine together until ten o'clock, and they will never cross the boundary, let alone enter the man's room and talk with the door closed.

"Senior sister won't like that kid, right?"

Lin Tianle was taken aback by this thought and shook his head quickly, "No, no, the second brother is such an excellent man, the senior sister is not interested in him, I heard that the senior sister likes the rough and bold heroes, but it is a pity that the second brother... This kid is pure and white, he is not the one Senior Sister likes at all!"

In Li Yun's room.

"Ding, the host makes a choice, rewards free attributes +500, blue gift bag*1, and Shangguan spirit fairy favorability +2."

One night's conversation brought Shangguan Lingxian's favorability to 85. This speed seemed a bit fast, but Li Yun could not feel any change in Shangguan Lingxian's attitude towards him, and there was no slight ambiguity.

Shangguan Lingxian is a pure angel who is dedicated to curing diseases and saving people, and does not consider the love between men and women at all.

So Li Yun simply didn't care, he would not take the initiative to catch up with the official spirit immortal and let the flow go.

He does have a little affection for Shangguan Lingxian, if he could get the love of this medical fairy, he would not refuse...

"Li Yun?"

"Li Yun!?"

Shangguan Lingxian reached out angrily and nodded Li Yun's forehead, and smiled reproachfully: "Why are you in a daze? Is it so boring to chat with me?"

Li Yun smiled: "Usually a man has only one possibility to be in a daze with a beautiful woman, and that is to be caught by her beauty..."

He closed his mouth in time.

This sentence is simply playing tricks on the fairy doctor, it will definitely shake the world when it is spread out, and it will cause a group of suitors of the fairy doctor to pursue and kill Li Yun frantically!

"Charmed?"

Suddenly, Shangguan Lingxian took Li Yun's words and said something that made her feel ashamed.

"me....."

Shangguan Lingxian lowered his head shyly, his beautiful and gentle face was blushing, and his shy and flowery appearance was particularly heartwarming.

At least Li Yun's heart was also touched by her pure white and holy beauty.

"Ahem, I'm just kidding."

Li Yun deliberately changed the subject, if it was someone else, he might make a joke along the way.

But it was obvious that Shangguan Lingxian was not that kind of woman, and couldn't bear to tease.

"Humph."

With a faintly unchecked snort, Shangguan Lingxian has a better affection for Li Yun. He is not like that...

Suddenly, a loud shout came from outside the door.

"No, it's not good!"

Chapter 1023: Villagers of Hexia Village

A servant ran by outside the door and yelled at the same time, making the two in the room a little strange. What happened to the Song family?

"Li Yun, let's go out and have a look."

The kind-hearted spiritual doctor fairy couldn't sit still at all. After calling Li Yun, the two quickly walked towards the servant, which was the direction of Song Xi's room.

"Miss, the big event is not good. The door was blocked by dozens of villagers holding shovel and hoes, so we asked the Song family to give them an explanation, otherwise we will report to the police to arrest someone!

"what?"

Song Xi was shocked when he heard the report, just as Li Yun and Shangguan Lingxian walked in, and she quickly looked at Li Yun with a look of help.

When faced with this kind of thing, Song Xi, who had a naive experience, didn't know what to do.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Help Song Xi deal with this matter, reward justice value +500, experience value +800,000, all attributes +1000, purple gift bag*1, Song Xi's favorability has greatly increased.

Option 2: Ignore, no reward. "

Is the justice value so high?

Li Yun expressed satisfaction with the reward, patted the servant's shoulder, and said, "The Song family's nursing home is okay to deal with some irritable villagers. Just be careful not to hurt people. Go, go and take a look at the gate first. Talk as you walk, what the **** is going on!"

The servant actually didn't know what was going on. He had just had breakfast in the morning when he heard the noise at the gate. When he went out, he saw a large group of villagers gathered, threatening to lose money in annoyance.

Usually in the discussion of villagers, the Song family belongs to the existence of a large family, just like a big rich man in ancient times. No villagers in the nearby villages or small towns dare to offend them.

But it is estimated that following the Song family's successive accidents, Song Changzhang was arrested again last night, causing the villagers to be bolder and dare to pick up the **** to trouble the Song family!

"These lowly villagers definitely want to squander money!" The servant itched his teeth with hatred, and looked down on the villagers from his heart, as if the ancient aristocrats were dismissive of untouchables.

Li Yun glanced at him. No wonder there is a saying that the big landlords divide property, the Song family is prestigious, and the wind assessment among nearby villagers is very bad.

A few people quickly came to the gate, and Li Yun heard a rant for a while before getting close.

"The Song family is great? Now the Song family cannot protect itself. You people will soon have to drink Northwest Wind!"

"Grass, that's right! So many people died in the Song family, they committed crimes!"

"I tell you, today we lost five cows and ten sheep in our village, plus chickens, ducks, cattle, and sheep. Your Song family must compensate, otherwise we will not be finished!"

"Yes! Lose money immediately, 50,000 yuan for a cow, 10,000 yuan for a sheep! The other chickens and ducks count you as 100,000, and you will lose at least 500,000!"

Song Xi's face was pale, and it was the first time she saw more than a hundred people confronting each other with sticks.

"Quiet!"

Li Yun let out a cold drink mixed with infuriating anger, leaving the villagers silent, buzzing in their ears, and couldn't help thinking, who the **** is this? The voice is so **** big!

"My name is Li Yun, and I am entrusted by the Patriarch of the Song family to come and ask what happened here?"

Li Yun said in a deep voice, "You choose a person who can talk, and you can discuss things if you have something to do. Don't shout!"

The villagers looked at each other a few times, and they all looked at a young man who was 1.8 meters tall and had a dark and sturdy body.

Chapter 1024: Cows, sheep, chickens and ducks are all dead

"What's your name?"

"Wang, Wang Dakai."

When he reported his name, Wang Dakai's tone was a little low.

He usually speaks openly in the surrounding villages and even in the county seat of Hengjia County. There are not many people who deserve to be afraid of him, but in front of the handsome young man of 1.8 meters, Wang Dakai is actually a little afraid!

"Wang Dakai?" Li Yun said faintly, "Okay, then you can tell us what is going on and why you villagers surround Song's house!"

"Humph!"

Mentioning this incident, Wang Dakai was very annoyed: "You Song family definitely did what happened last night!" He glanced bitterly at the thugs and nurses, "Among these people, there must be someone last night. Go to our Hexia Village to sneak around and make the village restless!"

"No, I don't know chickens and dogs, even cattle and sheep have been killed by them!"

Wang Dakai added another sentence, making the people around him very speechless.

Wang Dakai was so embarrassed that his black face turned red. It was terrible to have no culture.

Li Yun said calmly: "I probably understand. You lost a lot of cattle, sheep, chickens and ducks in Hexia Village last night. You suspect that someone from Songjia Village did it?"

"It's not just lost, but there are many killed!" Wang Dakai looked excited: "A bull in my family's prime of life died tragically in the bullpen. These **** knew that the bull would not go out at night, so they just killed it with a single blow and couldn't steal it. Then just kill it directly, it's **** it!"

"You bullshit!"

"Bullshit, your father wouldn't go to the bullpen to kill cows!"

"Yes, those stinking places, I disdain to go!"

"Stigmatize us? You **** want to die!"

The nursing homes are not vegetarians, and they all yelled when they felt that they had been slandered by Wang Dakai.

"Shut up."

After stopping another quarrel between the two parties, Li Yun said solemnly: "Everything must have evidence. You said it was the Song family who did it. Do you have evidence in your hands?"

"Of course there is, otherwise why would we come here?"

Wang Dakai took out a blood-stained brand from his pocket and displayed it in front of the Song family provocatively, "This is when I heard the bullpen movement last night, and felt something was wrong, got up and took out a shotgun, and shot it after going out. A hole was made in the bull thief, and this thing fell off. Tell me, is this your Song family?"

Last night, Hexia Village suffered a huge loss. The villagers were alarmed by gunshots and went out to check, only to see their cattle, sheep, chickens, ducks, and dogs, all brutally killed or stolen.

After discovering this, the villagers were filled with indignation, so they arrived at Song's house with farm tools angrily early in the morning!

Li Yun looked at Song Xi with a panic expression on her face. Li Yun looked at the surrounding nursing homes and found that they all closed their mouths.

"It seems that it is indeed the badge of the Song family."

Li Yun nodded and asked, "Is there a name engraved on this waist tag?"

Waist cards are a symbol used by some families in ancient times to mark the identity of their people, some have names, and some do not.

"This is a brand of jade, it doesn't have a name on it, but it must belong to the Song family!"

Hearing the word 'Jade Quality', Song Xi's eyes suddenly widened, and he took a step back in fright, his expression extremely frightened.

"Song Xi, who do you know about this brand?" Li Yun looked at her, Song Xi bit her lip and didn't answer. Li Yun asked again, but she shook her head to deny it.

"No, no, no, I don't know... I don't know..."

She backed away while crying, Shangguan Lingxian hurriedly comforted her, Li Yun couldn't ask, Song Xi's face was extremely ugly.

Chapter 1025: Hexia Village

"Do you Song Family admit or not?!" Wang Dakai yelled louder when he saw this, and the villagers behind him also yelled.

Song Xi tightly grasped Shangguan Lingxian's hand, and after a while, he said, "Okay, I will pay for it!"

"Huh, that's right!"

Wang Dakai breathed a sigh of relief and grinned, but the expressions of the Song family were opposite to him, head down dejectedly.

After going through a series of things, and then being chased by someone to collect debts, the Song family is like an old man who has lost his energy and energy.

Shangguan Lingxian was speechless. She didn't seem to be able to help much with these things. What Wang Dakai said did not seem to be false, and his waist card could indeed be used as evidence. The Song family could only lose money to him, and then find out the real thing. murderer.

Li Yun vaguely felt that something was wrong, and looked at Song Xi and asked in a deep voice, "Whose waist card really belongs to?"

Song Xi lowered his head and was silent for a while, still shook his head, and said bitterly, "I don't know who belongs to it, but only a few people in the Song family have the jade waistband. I, my uncle, and my cousin, and .....my brother."

"It's Song Yuan!?"

Lin Tianle took a breath, but then immediately thought that it could not be Song Yuan, and Song Yuan had no reason to come back to steal cows.

Li Yun thought of another person, and Song Xishao said his name. A bad premonition rose from the bottom of his heart. He turned to Wang Dakai and said in a deep voice, "Take me to Hexia Village. This matter needs to be investigated. get conclusion!"

"What else to investigate?" Wang Dakai wanted to refute, but when he saw Li Yun's serious face, he closed his mouth obediently.

"If you don't want your whole village in Hexia Village to be killed, just listen to my orders!"

Li Yun's indifferent words made the villagers look at each other, wondering what he meant.

Wang Dakai gritted his teeth, "Well, since you don't give up, then I will show you the scene with your own eyes!"

When he wanted to come, the Song family didn't dare to do anything in broad daylight, and it didn't hurt to take it to the village.

"Ding, the host made a choice to help Song Xi deal with this matter, rewarding justice value +500, experience value +800,000, all attributes +1000, purple gift bag*1, Song Xi's favorability has greatly increased."

Li Yun didn't really have any interest in Song Xi, and the system didn't indicate any specific favorability. It is estimated that Song Xi is not up to Bai Fumi's standards.

After making the decision, Li Yun and Wang Dakai went to Hexia Village together. Shangguan Lingxian Song Xi and a part of Song Yuan Guardian also followed to check what happened.

Hexia Village is not far from Song's home. After walking through a low hill, you can see a village at the foot of the mountain. There is a lake in the distance, reflecting a little bit of light in the morning sun.

A peaceful, tranquil, and orderly village.

"Brother Kai, it's okay, your daughter-in-law has a mad dog disease!! Hurry, come back with me!"

The visitor was also a villager from Hexia Village. He ran from the small road out of breath, and Wang Dakai's face changed drastically when he said his first words, "What? Mad dog disease?! What's the matter?! Why? I went out and she was fine. how.....!"

"Stop talking, go back first, it's too late!"

Everyone hurriedly ran towards the village. Shangguan Lingxian was the first one to sit still. She said, 'offended,' she grabbed Wang Dakai's arm and led him all the way.

"What, what? So fast!"

The speed and strength of the innate master gave Wang Dakai a feeling of flying through the clouds, and when he reacted, he had already arrived in front of the village entrance.

Chapter 1026: Mad dog disease

"Where is your home?" Shangguan Lingxian asked eagerly. She became very nervous when she heard of the mad dog.

Rabies, also called rabies, is a special disease that people get after being bitten by a mad dog.

It is not that you will get sick if you are bitten, but once you get sick, the mortality rate is 100%, and there is no possibility of being spared!

Shangguan Lingxian is also helpless against mad dog disease, but she still wants to try her best and try her best to treat the patient.

Li Yun kept up with her, and the three of them returned to the village chief's home, which is Wang Dakai's home.

This is a three-story building with a courtyard in front of the door. At this moment, the door is open. Many villagers have heard the news. When they heard it was a mad dog, they all shook their heads and sighed.

People in the countryside know that mad dogs are so bad, and the village chief's daughter-in-law seems to be suffering.

"This, here!"

After Wang Dakai heard that Shangguan Lingxian was a doctor with superb medical skills, he immediately respected her, crying and begged her to save his wife back.

When he arrived at Wang Dakai's room on the second floor, Li Yun felt some strange aura before he even entered the door.

The room was very dark, the lights were not turned on, the windows were blocked by black curtains, there was no sunlight coming in, and even the doorway was hidden.

"I'll give her a pulse. Go and prepare some hot water, towels, and, if you have herbs, bring them all."

Shangguan Lingxian calmed down to get the patient's pulse while giving orders, and then rolled Xie Lili's eyelids, and found that her eyes were pale and she seemed a little confused.

"It seems...something is not like a mad dog?"

Shangguan Lingxian was surprised. The rabies attack lasted for two or three days. The initial symptoms were fever, loss of appetite, nausea, etc. However, Xie Lili showed muscle cramps, chills, confusion and other abnormalities when she had just started to have symptoms.

Song Xi, Lin Tianle and others also arrived, and they stood at the door watching.

Li Yun looked solemn and said, "If it wasn't for rabies, then I probably guessed why she got sick, Lingxian, get out of the way and I'll show her!"

Lin Tianle was upset when he heard this, and yelled, "Hey boy, what are you talking about? Are you a doctor or my senior sister is a doctor? What are you pretending here, can you bear the responsibility if the patient dies?!"

Wang Dakai immediately glanced at Li Yun complainingly, "Don't disturb the doctor, or I will never end with you!"

Just as Li Yun wanted to speak, the system prompt sounded.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Let Shangguan Lingxian cure the disease, and reward no.

Option 2: Use a small detoxification pill to cure Xie Lili directly, reward experience value +100,000, Shangguan spirit fairy favorability +5, justice value +400, and extra reward medium detoxification pill.

Option 3: Use other methods to cure Xie Lili, reward experience value +500,000, all attributes +500, Shangguan spirit fairy favorability +5, justice value +400, additional reward: to be determined. "

Other methods?

Li Yun thought for a while, and basically determined what Xie Lili's cause was. At the same time, he also confirmed who was the murderer of the cattle stealing incident that happened last night!

"This is not a mad dog disease!" Shangguan Lingxian withdrew her pulse hand, and said in a serious tone: "It should be an unknown toxin that affects the patient's brain. She probably can only hold on for less than half an hour!"

Chapter 1027: Li Yun, do you have a way

Her words caused Wang Dakai's legs to soften and he slumped directly on the ground.

"Li Yun, can you cure her?" Shangguan Lingxian looked at him seriously.

If Shangguan Lingxian were to use her own plan for treatment, she had a hunch that the success rate would be less than one level, the toxin was too strong, and Xie Lili was too weak to use strong medicine at all.

There is no such condition to use strong medicine.

Li Yun stepped forward and Shangguan Lingxian took the initiative to give up his position, which was absolutely impossible before.

Fairy Lingyi has achieved great success in medical treatment five years ago. As long as it is for people to see a doctor, even the elders of Tiandanmen do not have the weight of her words.

But now in the face of this unknown and intractable disease, Lingyi Fairy is helpless, voluntarily surrendering the position of the chief doctor!

"Huh, does this kid know the art of medicine? Don't let the senior sister be ashamed of being put to death in vain." Lin Tianle sneered at the door again.

This time it was not Li Yun who attacked him, but Shangguan Lingxian.

The spiritual doctor fairy's expression is very serious: "Brother, I don't want to see anyone influencing the doctor when treating patients. This is a matter of life and death. You must not be frustrated at this time. If you talk about it again, I don't want to see anyone influencing the doctor. These words make me angry!"

Lin Tianle's face changed, and his expression was very embarrassed: "Yes, yes, what the senior sister taught is that I just don't speak."

Li Yun gave him a cold look. Lin Tianle has troubled him several times, and he is not even afraid of being shaved. It can be seen that there is definitely someone behind his back, otherwise he would not be so bold!

But now Li Yun has no time to clean him up, leaving it temporarily.

Turning his head to look at the nervous onlookers standing at the door, Li Yun asked: "Did the patient eat the cow that died last night this morning?"

Everyone was taken aback, an old woman in her sixties replied with tears in her eyes: "Yes, Xiaoli ate a cow killed by a bull thief. She said that the cow could not die in vain, so she took a knife and cut a piece of it. When the beef came back, she was going to make beef mixed noodles, but she didn't expect that she would just..."

It seems that the old woman is Wang Dakai's mother.

Li Yun nodded slightly, and quickly said to everyone: "Notify immediately. Don't eat the chickens, ducks, cattle, and sheep that died last night. Whoever eats may be poisoned. Tell them immediately, go!"

Everyone was shocked, and regardless of the specific cause of the poisoning, a few young people hurriedly rushed to notify each household-anyway, let everyone know this first.

"The bull thief is still poisoning the corpse?!"

Everyone was filled with righteous indignation, looking at Song Xi and the Song family's eyes more and more wrong, as if they could not wait to beat people.

Wang Dakai rushed to Li Yun's feet, hugged his thigh, and cried, "Brother, brother, please help me save my wife. I don't need money anymore, and no money, as long as you cure my wife, I promise you everything! Two babies can't live without their mothers, eldest brother, eldest brother, please!"

He was so terrified that he was talking in a mess.

Shangguan Lingxian couldn't bear it, she was kind-hearted, and she most looked down upon the parting of joys and sorrows.

"Li Yun, do you have a way?" Shangguan Lingxian looked at him with a pair of clear eyes, with hope and a trace of sadness in his eyes.

"Didn't I say it?"

Li Yun shrugged, "It's easy to cure her, Wang Dakai, get up and do what I said."

"Well, I'll get up right away, big brother, just tell me!"

"It's very simple, put your wife on, and move to the yard to enjoy the sun!"

Chapter 1028: Bask in the sun

Bask in the sun?

Everyone was surprised, what kind of cure is this?

"No, you can't bask in the sun!"

Wang Dakai's mother yelled and said quickly, "Xiao Li can't get some sun. She said she was uncomfortable when she was awake, and it was even more uncomfortable when she saw the light. She especially asked me to block the window, otherwise she kept trembling and her eyes were crying. ."

Shangguan Lingxian glanced at the room, and there was a reason why this room was so dark.

Wang Dakai hesitated, and Li Yun patted his shoulder lightly: "If you want your wife to survive, just listen to me, hurry up."

".....it is good!"

Wang Dakai gritted his teeth and agreed. Anyway, the beautiful and clandestine doctor said that his wife could not live for half an hour, and now he can only be a dead horse doctor.

It's just that Lin Tianle still mumbled: "If something goes wrong later, the responsibility is your kid!"

Li Yun stopped and looked at him coldly: "Lin Tianle, you have fought against me several times, and I wanted to ignore it, but you still jump like a clown. It seems that it won't work if you don't clean up your meal!"

Well, if I cure the patient this time, you will kneel and kowtow to me, and don't show up in front of me again. On the contrary, I will kowtow to you, just as far as you can! How about it, dare you to bet? "

"you!"

Being irritated, Lin Tianle responded directly and sneered: "Okay, just gamble. I don't believe in diseases that my senior sister can't see, and even a patient who can die within half an hour. Cure! You are just pretending, what a joke, what can I not bet on?!"

"Then you just wait."

Looking at Li Yun's back, Lin Tianle clenched his fists, as long as this kid got out, he would be able to complete the task assigned to him by the second brother.

"Junior Brother, you really disappoint me."

Shangguan Lingxian's voice was very soft, but to Lin Tianle it sounded like a lightning strike, staying on the spot.

"This kid!! Must die!!"

When he went downstairs, Lin Tianle glared at Li Yun with a pair of eyes, thinking about how to laugh at him when he waited.

Suddenly, Xie Lili struggling violently when exposed to the sun, she broke free from Wang Dakai's hand, fell to the ground and rolled back and forth, screaming in pain, like a madness, making everyone feel shocked!

"This... Sister-in-law Xie is crazy?"

"Oh my god, it's terrible!"

"Kids don't look, go quickly."

"Sheep epilepsy seems to be contagious? My Cao!"

Lin Tianle was overjoyed and yelled: "See? I said that this kid is not capable of medical treatment at all. The patients said that they could not be exposed to the sun. He just took her downstairs. Now he is powerless to return to heaven. Da Luo Jinxian can't save him. !"

"Wife!!" Wang Dakai cried bitterly. He called Xie Lili, who couldn't help being mad.

Shangguan Lingxian became more and more dissatisfied with Lin Tianle. Now the patients are like this. Not only did he lack sympathy, but he was also happy because he won the gambling. It was just a trifle to treat human life!

But Li Yun...

Shangguan Lingxian looked at him and found that Li Yun was still calm, watching Xie Lili go crazy with cold eyes.

"Am I seeing the wrong person?"

Shangguan Lingxian sighed. He didn't seem to be sincere to save people, he just wanted to...Huh? What?

Shangguan Lingxian was stunned.

Chapter 1029: Barbecue is average

This punch was truly shocking and powerful. It made Xie Lili bend over on the spot, and she opened her mouth to spit out a thick blood. The whole person collapsed and fell to the ground, no more madness.

Wang Dakai and everyone were dumbfounded, but the next moment, they heard a groan.

It is as if it is a barbecue, the charcoal fire roasts the skewered pork into golden and crispy, and the fat and oil slowly flow out with a sizzling sound.

In the blood that Xie Lili vomited, there was a group of dark unknown objects twisting and struggling, like a wriggling mass of maggots, extremely disgusting!

Moreover, the meat ball also exudes a light smoke, and the smell of the roasted meat is exuding.

Everyone was horrified back ten meters away, the weirdness of this thing is far beyond their understanding!

"Sister Xie spit out something?"

"It seems to be beef from the morning."

"My Cao, it's really beef, but why does it smoke and burn it? Wait, it was the sun that cooked it?!"

"Oh my God, what is this?!"

The villagers were trembling, and Song Xi and Song Jiahuyuan also looked pale, and they were frightened by the group of beef that Xie Lili spit out.

This beef was actually scorched in the sun!

"Wang Dakai."

"Wang Dakai!"

Li Yun called twice, and Wang Dakai recovered from the shock and looked at Li Yun stupidly, "Big brother, brother, my wife vomited out, is it the baby in the belly?"

"I'm Cao!"

Everyone was shocked again, Li Yun couldn't help but kicked him: "Fuck, have you ever seen someone spit out a baby?! Find me some live roosters, remember, they are alive. Those roosters that died last night are no good!"

"Oh, good brother, then my wife...?"

"It's okay for the time being, but we need rooster blood."

"I'm relieved if I have a big brother, I'll go right away!"

Wang Dakai rolled to find the big cock, his dark face was full of happy expressions, at least his wife has calmed down, and the big brother is really amazing!

After obtaining Li Yun's consent, Shangguan Lingxian stepped forward and held Xie Lili's hand, who was lying on the ground, still basking in the sun, and gave her a careful pulse.

"Huh? It really got better."

Shangguan Lingxian's eyes lit up, and Xie Lili's pulse indicated that her vital signs had stabilized, much better than before.

"This kid!" Lin Tianle clenched his fists tightly, actually allowing him to find a cure!

The big ***** was quickly found, and Li Yun directly told Wang Dakai: "Kill the ***** and pour blood on your wife."

Everyone was surprised, what kind of treatment is this? Why is it so weird!

"Hehe, it's such a nonsense!" Lin Tianle sneered: "It's just a punch in the stomach to induce vomiting, do you really think you will be cured?"

Wang Dakai also hesitated a bit. He showered his wife with the blood of the rooster, which looked weird.

"If you want your wife to get better soon, do as I tell you."

Li Yun's indifferent words surprised Wang Dakai, and he hurriedly said with a smile: "Big brother, I didn't mean that, I will kill immediately, I will kill immediately!"

After finishing speaking, he took a kitchen knife from others, and killed the rooster directly. The blood spurted out, and it all drenched Xie Lili who was lying on the ground no longer moving.

The shocking scene appeared again.

Chapter 1030: Wake up wake up

The blood of the rooster was poured onto a hot soldering iron, and a burst of water vapor evaporated in an instant, and the blood condensed on Xie Lili in blocks, as if she was wearing a red dress!

"This this this!"

The weird and terrifying scene made Wang Dakai's hand holding the ***** tremble, his lips turned white, and he looked at Li Yun in horror and waited for him to explain why.

Even Shangguan Lingxian was confused, and her eyes were surprised and uneasy. She learned medicine since she was a child, but it was the first time she heard that rooster blood had this effect!

"Kill one more."

Li Yun told Wang Dakai to continue, and at the same time explained to Shangguan Lingxian: "In fact, Xie Lili's illness is very simple. She ate beef with evil power, which caused her body to be corroded by evil energy. By inducing vomiting of beef, her condition can be relieved. But it's still not enough. This requires the blood of a yang-qi rooster to do the final elimination work, otherwise, it will be too late for the evil spirit to enter the brain."

After listening to the explanation, Wang Dakai felt a lot of peace in his heart, and killed another rooster: "Big brother, does the rooster only have yang energy?"

"A cow is fine, but are you willing to kill a cow?"

"Uh, hehe, brother is right!"

Li Yun stopped Wang Dakai until the rooster's blood was poured on him, and Xie Lili soon woke up.

"Old, husband?"

As soon as Xie Lili woke up, she was hugged by Wang Dakai, "Woo, my wife, you finally woke up, thank goodness, no, thank you brother! Come on, Xiaoli, let's thank brother for his life-saving grace!"

After Xie Lili expressed her gratitude to Li Yun in a daze, she realized that she was covered with blood, and she screamed in fright.

"Hahaha it's okay, my wife, this is chicken blood!"

"Wang Dakai!!! You got chicken blood on me? You owe it, don't you?"

"No, my wife, I'm treating you! Really, don't lie to you... forgive me!"

The husband and wife were noisy, and the swarthy, brawny Wang Dakai was not his wife's opponent. He was unilaterally hanged and all the villagers onlookers laughed.

"very nice!"

Watching the two arguing, Shangguan Lingxian's beautiful face showed a heart-felt smile, as if it was deliberately told to Li Yun, and whispered: "I really like seeing the patient stand up again. They Being happy can make me happy too. My master said I was born to work hard, hehe."

Li Yun smiled and said: "Some morbid psychology can not develop into abnormalities later... Forget it, what do I say, just kidding."

"Huh? Sick psychology? Me?" Shangguan Lingxian looked at him suspiciously.

"Nothing, don't worry about this."

Li Yun only thought of an animation he had watched. He said that a doctor, like Shangguan Lingxian, likes to treat illnesses and save people, but one day, because of a certain kind of stimulation, a dark thought in his heart breeds.

The idea of Yin Xie grew stronger and stronger, and finally the doctor twisted that normal people are sick, and only when they lie on the hospital bed and let him treat them are normal people!

I hope that the holy kindness of Shangguan Lingxian will not go to extremes.

"Li Yun."

Shangguan Lingxian fixedly looked at him for a long time, and suddenly smiled: "You are such a strange person." While speaking, she pinned the messy hair behind her ears with her slender and white fingers. This kind of action is the most Being able to show the charm of a woman makes everyone around including Li Yun and Lin Tianle dumbfounded.
