

Godly Choice 1031

Chapter 1031: Corpse poison

"Ding, the host makes a choice, rewards experience value +500,000, all attributes +500, Shangguan lingxian favorability +5, justice value +400, additional reward: "Dead Poison" (limited to Shangguan lingxian). "

Li Yun looked at Shangguan Lingxian weirdly, and the system actually gave her a specific medical book, and the treatment was really good.

"Huh, what's so great about being lucky!"

Seeing the beautiful senior sister and Li Yun interacting closely, Lin Tianle couldn't help but said with jealousy.

For Shangguan Lingxian, Lin Tianle admired this beautiful and kind-hearted sister very much a long time ago, but he also knew that with his origin and talent, it was absolutely impossible to embrace a beauty.

So Lin Tianle took the initiative to seek refuge in the second senior brother and helped him to marry Shangguan Lingxian. As long as the senior sister stays in Tiandanmen, maybe he still has a chance in the future?

Married does not necessarily mean that there is no chance, and the second brother is sloppy. By then, the senior sister will have an empty boudoir, and maybe there will be the excellent reality of the first grade sister Fangfeng.

Therefore, Lin Tianle had a strong objection to outsiders approaching Shangguan Lingxian.

"Lin Tianle, it seems you can't wait."

A cold light flashed in Li Yun's eyes, and he looked at him coldly and shouted: "Don't you hurry down on your knees and kowtow to me?!"

"You!" Lin Tianle remembered the gambling, his face flushed with embarrassment.

"Why, confess to your bet?"

"Hehe, what are you!?"

Want him to kowtow to this kid? He refused to kill Lin Tianle!

He was born in Tiandanmen, and is the younger brother of the world-renowned spiritual doctor fairy, and Li Yun is just a diners of a mere palace family. He wants to have no status or status, so why should he kneel down?

Even if he has mastered something like Shennian, it is still hard to say whether he will win or lose against the innate master.

"You want me to kowtow to you? You are dreaming!" Lin Tianle sneered, "I just agreed casually, you are actually taking it seriously? Hahaha, you are really laughing at me!"

"You think it's funny?"

Li Yun's face was calm, and he took a step towards Lin Tianle, a powerful aura surged out of his body, and the surrounding villagers immediately felt the power that seemed to be solidified, and each one backed away in fright.

"Big, big brother is amazing!" Wang Dakai looked at Li Yun with his eyes full of admiration, and he was thankful. Fortunately, he didn't clash with his big brother before in the Song family, otherwise he would definitely die.

"Li Yun——"

Shangguan Lingxian wanted to say something but stopped, her clear eyes were full of unbearable, she wanted Li Yun to spare Lin Tianle, not to pursue this matter anymore.

This is not because she is biased towards Lin Tianle, if Li Yunzhi is not good at Xie Lili, she will also intercede for Li Yun.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Let Lin Tianle go and reward Shangguan Lingxian with +5.

Option 2: Keep it, reward experience value +100,000, white gift bag*1, justice value +100, Shangguan Lingxian favorability degree -20, there is a probability that her favorability to the host will plummet. "

Li Yun smiled faintly, is this still an option?

"Fairy Spirit Doctor, I'm sorry."

Li Yun walked towards Lin Tianle slowly, staring at him tightly: "It's a matter of justice to teach your junior and younger brothers. You are reluctant to educate him. Then I will cure him and do it for him to prevent him from embarking on an evil path."

Lin Tianle panicked, this kid really didn't care about the face of the senior sister, "Do you dare to do it to me?! You know me..."

"Snapped!"

Li Yun stopped talking nonsense and slapped it over with a slap. Lin Tianle couldn't avoid it at all. With a fiery pain on his face, he took two steps back from the slap.

Chapter 1032: A hard lesson

"The tiger doesn't show off, do you treat me as a sick cat?"

Li Yun took a big step forward and slapped him mercilessly, hitting the other half of Lin Tianle's face.

"you!"

"What am I? I'm not your father, because I don't have a son who has been ridiculing like you, but I still want to teach you!"

Snapped--

"I don't know what you are arrogant about."

Snapped--

"Do you think you have a very good background? You think you are proud? Or do you think you are an acquired martial artist to be arrogant?"

Snapped--

"Someone at Tiandanmen will support you? Haha, but I still want to teach you, let him trouble me, and see who gave you the courage."

"enough!!!"

Shangguan Lingxian yelled, clenched his pink fist, the mountains hidden in the thick skirt were up and down with anger, and said softly: "Li Yun, stop, the lesson has been learned, and my younger brother has also learned the lesson, I believe He dare not do this anymore!"

"I don't dare? I think he is quite daring. After I shaved his hair once, he dared to provoke me. What can't he dare to provoke me?"

Li Yun indifferently looked at Lin Tianle, who was blushing and embarrassed: "I accept my gambling and I will do what I promised. Kneel down and kowtow to me, and then roll as far as I can!"

"Kneel? Hahaha!" Lin Tianle's facial muscles twisted, staring at Li Yun fiercely: "Have the ability to kill me, let me give you this little..."

"boom!"

Li Yun kicked him into the socket of his leg, and the tremendous force made Lin Tianle directly kneel to the ground. The loudness made people doubt whether his legs were comminuted fractures!

"Li Yun!!!" Shangguan Lingxian shouted again, but did not stop him.

"Knocking, or not?"

Li Yun's indifferent tone revealed a fierce momentum, and he swears not to give up until he achieves his goal, finally making Lin Tianle scared.

This person can even ignore the plea of the senior sister, and can be so violent in front of a holy and beautiful fairy. If he does not give in, he will probably be killed on the spot.

"I, I, I knocked."

Lin Tianle's lips trembled, and she bent down with a trembling, and slowly pressed his forehead to the ground, his body motionless with fear.

"Are you wrong?"

"Know, I know it's wrong, your lord has a lot, please forgive me."

"Remember, don't get involved anymore, let the people behind you come and talk to me." Li Yun said lightly: "If you go against me again, you have to weigh how many lives you have."

Lin Tianle was silent for a long time before saying in a bitter voice, "Yes, I remembered it."

He did not expect that Li Yun had already seen someone behind him.

"Remember, just get out, don't show up in front of me again."

In the end, Lin Tianle stood up and left without saying a word. After one last glance at Shangguan Lingxian, Lin Tianle left silently.

"Ding, the host makes a choice, rewards experience value +100,000, white gift bag*1, justice value +100, Shangguan Lingxian Favorability -20, trigger event: Shangguan Lingxian Favorability plummets, and reduces it again by 30 points."

It plummeted by 50 points and directly dropped to 34 points, only maintaining a barely recognized level.

But Li Yun actually thought it was pretty good. She beat Lingyi Fairy's junior in person, and her favorability didn't drop to a negative level.

Without looking at the face of Lingyi Fairy, Li Yun probably guessed that she must have a dark face now, so Li Yun didn't care about her, and turned around to give orders to the shocked Wang Dakai and others.

Chapter 1033: Is it really it

"Shoot all the dead bodies of chickens, ducks, cattle, and sheep that died last night. Burn them in a fire, don't keep them!"

"In addition, let all the villagers who go out to do farm work come back, and don't leave the village until this matter is resolved!"

"Also, gather all the poultry in the village to prevent another attack."

Li Yun gave three orders neatly, and Wang Dakai directly stunned: "Big brother, I know how to burn the cattle and sheep, but why call the villagers back? Now the field needs watering, and I have to go down in the afternoon. Do farm work... well, okay, okay, I'll go right away, go right away!"

Wang Dakai still wanted to argue, but after meeting Big Brother Li's eyes, he immediately persuaded him.

The villagers were very uncomfortable about this, and they were clamoring about it. It was not until Wang Dakai's father, the village head, personally came forward to give the command, the villagers mumbled to do it.

Groups of cattle, sheep, chickens and ducks were driven to the entrance of the village and tied to a tree. The scene was so lively.

"Li, Li Yun."

Shangguan Lingxian took a deep breath, tried to calm his previous mood, followed his steps and asked, "Do you know who the poisoner is?"

"It can be said that I guessed it."

Li Yun answered her in a flat tone, and then took out a book and handed it to her: "You read this medical book first. If someone gets injured at night, you will be able to use it."

"Huh? What medical book?"

Shangguan Lingxian did not refuse, even though she hated violence very much and also hated Li Yun who had just used violence.

But for medical books, she never refuses. After all, this is related to human life. If she learns more knowledge, she may save one more person.

"Necroticism?"

Shangguan Lingxian looked at Li Yun in surprise, corpse poison? Was the corpse poison in Xie Lili just now?

Li Yun smiled, "Look at it first. I'll talk to Wang Dakai about something to pay attention to. By the way, Song Xi, you go home and ask your servant to leave the house temporarily, leaving only some people with dexterous legs and feet. Just keep it, you..."

Seeing the worried look on Song Xi's face, Li Yun patted her shoulder: "You guessed who came to Hexia Village to attack cattle and sheep last night, right?"

".....Um."

Song Xi nodded hard, tears overflowing again: "Brother Li Yun, is it really me...?"

"It may be, but rest assured, I will take care of it."

Li Yun touched her head and comforted: "Okay, let's go back. You will bring a few people with you when you are done. We will stay in the village at night and wait."

Shangguan Lingxian looked at Song Xi's back and bit his slightly dry lips, feeling very complicated.

Li Yun is not the kind of very irritable person. On the contrary, he has always done things in an orderly manner. Since his appearance, he is responsible for handling a series of things that have happened.

However, Shangguan Lingxian had a gentle and polite impression of him last night, but he did not hesitate to beat Lin Tianle a while ago. He did not care about her face, nor hesitated whether Lin Tianle should teach him or not. He acted cleanly and with a trace of madness. Breath.

It is difficult for Shangguan Lingxian to adapt to this kind of Li Yun, because in her previous medical career, no matter how cruel and fierce people were, she would become very docile in front of her. She even rescued a cold assassin in her hands. The lives of more than fifty masters.

But the assassin was eventually influenced by her, and he promised not to kill again in the future, and his indifferent expression became gentle.

But Li Yun is just the opposite.

Chapter 1034: reconcile

"Ding, the host has made the right choice, Shangguan Lingxian Favorability +20, Justice Value +1000, and an additional purple gift bag*1."

After seeing the system's automatic prompt, Li Yun was quite surprised.

It's not surprising that Shangguan Lingxian's favorability has risen again, but why is the justice value added?

It is estimated that the spread of medical books can benefit more people, so the value of justice is added.

Li Yun didn't feel sick to Shangguan Lingxian. She didn't take action to stop Li Yun from teaching Lin Tianle. It can be seen that she is still somewhat different from those disgusting Virgins. Shangguan Lingxian is just kind-hearted, but not too stupid.

"...Li Yun, I'm sorry."

Shangguan Lingxian chased him up and bowed to him sincerely and apologized, which made Li Yun feel very baffled: "Why apologize?"

"Because--"

A shy blush appeared on the delicate little face of Lingyi Fairy, holding the corpse poison theory in his right hand, and whispered: "I thought you were a person who doesn't talk about cleaning up, but in fact it is not. You are just, just..."

"It's just a bit rude?" Li Yun smiled, Shangguan Lingxian waved his hand quickly: "No, it's just the first time I saw someone like you, a little uncomfortable, but I believe you are a good person, really!"

Although the approach is a bit too rude.

"I'm sorry." Shangguan Lingxian spit out her little pink tongue. She looked very naughty and cute. She said in shame: "Maybe I should be more tolerant and understand you. After all, I have done something wrong. I shouldn't keep it. Protecting Junior Brother, he is always against you. In fact, I should warn him more severely. I shouldn't let the situation develop like that. I was also wrong, sorry!"

Fairy Lingyi apologized very sincerely, and Li Yun could see that she was from the heart.

"Is it because I gave you the medical book? So you came to slap me?" For some reason, Li Yun said this sentence.

—Perhaps because Shangguan Lingxian's purity and kindness made him want to understand her inner thoughts deeply.

"um, yes."

Shangguan Lingxian became shy again, but he still admitted: "I had a cold face to you just now, but you didn't turn your face with me. Instead, you took the initiative to hand this medical book to me for the sake of the villagers. This is enough to prove that Li Yun You are a generous and tolerant man."

She bowed her head embarrassedly, "It's my little belly, I'm sorry~"

A holy, white, kind and gentle fairy has sincerely apologized to you over and over again, presumably no man can blame her harshly.

"It's okay, don't take it to heart."

Li Yunfeng lightly exposed the matter, Shangguan Lingxian took a few serious glances at him before he was sure that Li Yun was really lifeless, he was relieved immediately, and his mood became more happy than ever.

She felt very uncomfortable during the 'cold war' with Li Yun just now, and chatting with him for half a night last night made Shangguan Lingxian have a lot of affection for him and felt that Li Yun was a rare friend.

For the lost and recovered friend, Shangguan Lingxian was overjoyed, wondering if he wanted to get closer with him and communicate more with him to understand each other.

If others know what she thinks, they might not be scared to death.

A woman actively wants to know a man, and even wants to get closer to him. This is already an expression of liking each other...

"Li Yun!"

Shangguan Lingxian was reading the medical book, and asked next to him: "What do you like to do? Do you like it? Or do you like to practice sword? Your sword skills seem to be good..."

Chapter 1035: Follower

Sister Gan became a follower of Brother Li Yun.

This is what Song Xi saw with his own eyes when he returned to Hexia Village. It is definitely not nonsense.

Brother Li Yun went to the smelly bullpen to check on the cattle killed last night. The smell of the rural bullpen was simply-Song Xiguang felt dizzy when he was close to five meters away, but the **** sister insisted on following in. Sister Gan also looked at Brother Li Yun with admiration and admiration.

It seems that the **** sister thinks that brother Li Yun will not hesitate to enter such a place in order to save the villagers, and admire her greatly.

Also, when Brother Li Yun went to command the villagers, the **** sister followed closely; Brother Li Yun went to talk to the village chief, and the **** sister followed; Brother Li Yun went to the bathroom, and the **** sister... waited outside the door. .

"Sister Lingxian...does she like Brother Li Yun?"

Song Xi came to the conclusion with surprise, and only cares about a person if he really likes him.

Thinking of this, Song Xi couldn't help losing a lot. It seemed that she and Li Yun had no fate. Sister Lingxian not only looked many times better than her, but also crushed her in other aspects and was much better than her.

"Song Xi!"

When Li Yun called her, he found that Song Xi was in a daze. He thought she was worried about her father, so he comforted her a few words.

"Well, I'm fine, Brother Li Yun."

Song Xi smiled slightly at him and let go of something in his heart.

Brother Li Yun is too good, she is not worthy of his brother, but sister Lingxian and him are just right...

"Everything is almost ready, and the villagers also took out shotguns to defend themselves."

Li Yun pondered for a moment and looked at Song Xi: "Let's... go to your father's tomb and have a look?"

Song Xi became nervous again, her eyes panicked, and she lowered her head to agree: "Okay, Brother Li Yun, you can be the master, and his father...the Spirit of Heaven will also agree."

After another half day of understanding, Shangguan Lingxian felt that the relationship between her and Li Yun had gone a step further, but she still felt very puzzled now, "Li Yun, don't we open the coffin for an autopsy tomorrow? Why do we bother my uncle and aunt today? "

Li Yun shook his head and did not answer her question.

Instead, Wang Dakai had already guessed something. He swallowed and said with difficulty: "Big brother, brother, are we really going to that place?"

After experiencing the weird incident of "Stealing the Cow" last night, and contacting the strange situation of Xie Lili just now, many people in the village have vaguely guessed something terrible.

Li Yun glanced at Wang Dakai: "If you don't go, would you like to see something coming to the village every night?"

Wang Dakai's body shuddered, and even this sturdy man thought this was extremely weird.

His father, the mayor of Hexia Village, was sitting on a rock and smoking dry cigarettes with a sad expression on his face. He said, "Mr. Li, do we really have a way to deal with that stuff? Both glutinous rice and black dog blood. It's ready, but we don't have black donkey hoofs—there is no donkey in the village at all!"

Shangguan Lingxian frowned slightly, these things seem to be the weapons against zombies in folklore?

Could it be that.....

Thinking of that possibility, Shangguan Lingxian opened his eyes wide and looked at Li Yun in surprise. The latter nodded slightly, causing Shangguan Lingxian to feel confused.

"Will the dead come back to life?"

For the first time, Shangguan Lingxian felt an absurd illusion. She was not suitable for dealing with these things, the more she didn't know what to do, so she could only follow Li Yun and take a step by step.

Chapter 1036: Uphill

3 o'clock in the afternoon.

"Go, let's go up the mountain!"

Li Yun greeted everyone and walked up the mountain first. Shangguan Lingxian, Wang Dakai, Song Xi and some of the Song family's nursing homes all followed.

The so-called mountain is actually a low mountain, near the Song family and Hexia Village. On the other side of the mountain, there is a cemetery where the old people of Hexia Village were buried after their deaths.

At the same time, there is also the place where Song Feigu, the former Song family master and Song Xi's father, was buried!

A group of people followed Li Yun with shovels and shovels, their faces were very solemn, and the whole team revealed a nervous and uneasy atmosphere. If it were not for the crowds, Li Yun estimated that they would not be able to walk.

"Mr. Li, Mr. Li!" A nursing home came up with a stiff smile on his face: "Doesn't it mean that a genius has raised his grave?"

"Things have changed."

Li Yun shrugged, glanced at the expressions of everyone, and smiled: "You don't need to be so nervous, even if you encounter those dirty things, there will be me and the spiritual doctor fairy on top, you don't have to act."

The House of Representatives was relieved.

Shangguan Lingxian didn't know what to say, and tried to take a deep breath to calm her mood. She might be terrified when encountering those things...

The cemetery is not far away, and the low mountain is not high. Soon, a group of people came to the vicinity of the cemetery.

This is the forbidden area of Hexia Village. The entrance is full of grave bags. Some tombs were dug out after being buried a few years later. After taking out the bones of the old people inside, the coffins were discarded everywhere, causing everyone to see a lot of tombs lying on the ground. , The coffin after the color becomes lighter.

—After the wind and sun, the original big red coffin turned almost grayish white.

"This ghost place!"

Wang Dakai swallowed, "There are very few people in our village during the day. I heard that some people have seen it in the evening..."

Snapped!

Without finishing a sentence, his father, the village chief of Hexia Village, gave him a slap on the head: "What nonsense is the brat saying now? No, it is forbidden to mention ghosts now, have you heard?!"

Talking about ghosts in a place full of weeds, messy coffins, and cemeteries full of dead people is really annoying to live.

Especially that weird thing happened last night!

"Song Xi, your father's—"

Li Yun looked at Song Xi, only to find that she was standing there blankly, looking at a place on the hillside with sluggish eyes, it seemed that she had seen something very unusual.

"Sister Xi, what's the matter?" Shangguan Lingxian asked softly.

"There....."

Song Xi wanted to say something but stopped, Li Yun said decisively: "Go and see!"

Using the ethereal footwork, Li Yun came to the half-hill from the foot of the mountain like lightning, and he saw a unique tomb at a glance.

Shangguan Lingxian followed closely, and when she saw the scene in front of her, she couldn't help taking a breath of surprise.

This tomb is very large, covering an area of hundreds of square meters, surrounded by a stone fence, and the ground is covered with pebbles. The luxurious cemetery is very different from those of the villagers in Hexia Village.

But what makes the hearts of those who saw this tomb is that there is a **** hole in the middle of the huge tomb bag that is five meters high. An adult can enter and exit from the hole. There is no bottom, and there are still residues at the entrance of the hole. With some footprints and messy slender traces, it looks very strange.

"Don't mess around!"

Li Yun stopped the turmoil of the villagers and looked at the Shangguan Lingxian and said, "Lingxian, pay attention to your surroundings and be ready to take action at any time."

"Good, good!"

Chapter 1037: Dig

Shangguan Lingxian's breathing was a bit short, causing the mountains wrapped in her skirts to attract many people's attention.

Li Yun walked onto the huge tomb bag of Master Song, calmly came to the entrance of the cave, first took a picture of it with the light of his mobile phone, and found that it was dark inside, as if it was connected to the coffin inside the tomb bag.

"Could it be that someone robbed the tomb?" Wang Dakai plucked up the courage to follow Li Yun up, and asked anxiously.

To be honest, the Song family must have a lot of funeral goods, but the Song family has not fallen, and the hundreds of people in the Song family are not far away. Unless the tomb robber comes from outside, it is absolutely impossible.

Li Yun didn't answer him, but knelt down and reached out to touch the dirt on the ground.

Wang Dakai also learned something, and immediately reached a judgment: "It's very fresh, it should have been dug up only yesterday."

He is a rural man. He usually uses a **** to open up fields in the ground. The next day, he will look at the soil. It is basically the same as now.

"Which tomb thief dares, dare to knock down Master Song's tomb?" Wang Dakai muttered and clapped his hands. Li Yun smiled, "Do you think it is a tomb thief?"

"Uh."

Wang Dakai shrank his shoulders, speechless.

Li Yun pointed his finger at the nearby soil that was turned over: "From the traces of the soil, it is not the way it was dug out with a shovel, and the distribution of the soil is also very strange. It is not like digging from the outside, but... .."

Wang Dakai's pupils shrank, and he shouted out: "Dig from the inside out!"

He was so scared that he fell to the ground and glanced at the dark lacquered hole extending from the tomb. His face was pale, and he rolled down the grave, shivering and holding his shoulders, "Quick, hurry, swindle. Go!! Master Song dug it out of the coffin!"

The villagers and the nursing home were all panicked, and they were about to flee in a swarm.

"Calm!!"

Li Yun drank a word, letting their riots gradually calm down.

Shangguan Lingxian wanted to say something but stopped, she was in a mess now, and she didn't know what to do.

"Even if the corpse is cheated, I still have a way to deal with him, why are you panicking?"

"What the big brother said!" When Wang Dakai heard these words, he was relieved a lot. He wanted to escape and returned to the villagers. He loudly advertised Li Yun's greatness to the villagers, but he himself refused to go to the grave bag. .

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Collect more information in the mountains, reward experience value +400,000, all attributes +500, purple gift bag*1, extra reward: Shangguan spirit fairy favorability degree +30.

Option 2: Go down the mountain and leave here, no reward. "

Seeing the prompt from the system, Li Yun stopped hesitating and turned to Song Xi and said, "Now I have to dig the grave. I can't wait for tomorrow."

".....it is good."

Song Xi was in a very bad spirit. Sitting on the rock next to him, there were several nursing homes around him to protect him, and their faces were also very bad.

"take a good rest."

Li Yun nodded to her, and ordered the sacrifices he brought up to be placed in front of the cemetery.

Regardless of whether there is Master Song's body, the ceremony is still to be done.

Arranged the roast suckling pig, fruits, water and wine, and lit a few sticks of incense. After everyone bowed, Li Yun ordered: "Dig out here!"

The villagers with shovel and shovel did not dare to move. Everyone looked at me and I looked at you. The **** in their hands just couldn't be lifted.

Li Yun was speechless, he had no choice but to do it himself.

Stepping forward, stretched out his hands and hugged the tombstone. Li Yun uprooted it in the eyes of everyone's surprise.

Chapter 1038: empty

"Boom!"

There was a huge tombstone full of height with the names of Master Song and Mrs. Song engraved on it, but now it was pulled up by Li Yun's hands abruptly, thrown aside, and then smashed into a big pit.

This thing is not needed anymore. If you rebuild the cemetery next time, you will need another tombstone, not the original one.

"Excavation!"

This time Li Yun gave the order, and everyone no longer hesitated, digging around the huge tomb bag in full swing.

Song Xi bit her lip and watched all this. No matter what, this is the cemetery of her parents, but now she took the initiative to dig it up, which can be described as unfilial.

But if the corpse is really cheated, she must retrieve the bones of her parents. In addition, if they did not commit suicide, digging up to find evidence is also a comfort to the spirit of the parents.

More than a dozen people waved their hoes and shovels in succession, and soon dug a path on the tomb bag—that is, along the dark hole, digging it up.

—No one dared to get in without digging.

"Dug it!"

Wang Dakai yelled, and the villagers stopped their movements immediately, but they had to stay away from the tomb immediately, too frightened.

Especially now that it is four o'clock in the afternoon, the mountains have begun to darken a little.

"It's not there yet, keep digging!"

Li Yun glanced at it. The entrance of the cave was at least one meter away from the center, but the group of people refused to approach it even if Li Yun said nothing.

Helpless, he had to do it himself, waving a shovel to dig up the remaining dirt, revealing the situation inside.

After seeing the situation inside the tomb, the temperature of the surrounding air seemed to drop to freezing point suddenly.

Inside the tomb, the burial objects were in a mess. A rectangular coffin made of bricks and stones was also violently beaten through at this moment. The two coffins inside were damaged. The corpses of Master Song and Mrs. Song were missing.

The tomb was empty and shuddering.

In fact, whether you see the corpse or not, this scene can make the most daring people afraid.

"There is evil spirit left."

Li Yun calmly stepped forward, inspected the coffin, vaguely heard a smell of corpses, after all, the corpse had been buried for nearly a month, and it was the time when it rotted badly.

But in addition, there is still a kind of evil power remaining around the coffin.

"Evil?" Shangguan Lingxian followed Li Yun and couldn't help asking: "Will there be evil after the dead are buried?"

"Will not."

Li Yun shook his head, "Generally speaking, only people with special constitutions die or are buried in places where yin qi gathers and are not conducive to burial. However, the amount of such evil qi is usually small and not enough to cause corpse transformation. "

"But." Li Yun paused, "If it is killed by a monk, and the remaining mana penetrates into the corpse, the amount of evil energy will greatly increase. It is very common for the corpse to change after being buried in the ground."

"Is it certain that my parents were killed?!" Song Xi asked eagerly. This is what she cares about most.

Disturbing the peace of her parents without authorization made her feel very disturbed.

Li Yun looked at the nearby terrain, nodded and said: "It should be certain. The geomantic omen here is very general. It is not a place where yin and qi converge, and it is not enough to make your parents corpses."

Song Xi's mood became ups and downs. She felt sad for the murder of her parents and thanked her parents for not having to commit suicide. At the same time, she was angry again. Why did the six magic gates kill her parents?

Chapter 1039: footprint

"Is it really a corpse?"

Shangguan Lingxian asked hesitantly, looking at Li Yun's beautiful eyes with a look of shock. She hadn't seen the so-called zombies with her own eyes, and she had never been sure about it.

I always feel too outrageous.

"Maybe, maybe not."

Li Yun clapped his hands, slapped the soil on his palms with infuriating energy, and said, "Let's look around, maybe we can find something."

The selection event of the system has not been prompted yet, which means that there is still other information to collect.

Everyone look at me, I look at you, and finally hug them into two groups, looking for the traces of Master Song's departure nearby-if it is really a corpse.

Soon, someone yelled: "There is a deep shoe print here!"

Li Yun hurried over and took a look, and found that it was a pair of cloth shoes, showing traces side by side, as if someone could press it out.

But there is only this pair of footprints around, and there are no other findings, which makes people very suspicious...

"Ah, there are also a pair of footprints here!"

Someone found another pair of footprints four or five meters away. Judging from the pattern and size of the shoe prints, the same person stepped on them.

But the distance is four or five meters, and the shoe prints are not in tandem, but in the same way.

It seems like a person leaping four or five meters away, and with his feet close together, presenting a stiff jump-like way of daughter...

"God, run away!"

After trying to understand how these two footprints appeared, Wang Dakai became frightened again, and ran away as soon as he threw the hoe, even Li Yun couldn't stop him.

After confirming that there was something dirty, the villagers all dispersed, except that the village chief's legs were weak and he couldn't move. Wang Dakai ran a distance and came back to carry his father down the mountain.

"These scams!"

Li Yun held his forehead helplessly, his face speechless.

No wonder the history books say that the peasants uprising. Eita is a mob that is vulnerable. The untrained team will be scattered in a small amount of movement, and it will not be possible at all.

The Song Family Nursing Home who was left was trembling and all looked at Li Yun, seeming to ask: Are we going to run too?

"Continue searching!"

Li Yun calmly ordered, and a group of nursing homes suddenly turned into bitter faces.

But they couldn't refuse. Even if Master Song became a zombie, they had to find a way to retrieve the body of the master, otherwise they would become a perfidious person!

So Li Yun and Shangguan Lingxian led the Song family to search around in the mountains and forests.

"When the corpse just turned into a zombie, I was still afraid of the sun."

"They need to absorb the power of human blood to strengthen themselves, until they become stiff, they can act freely without fear of the sun!"

Li Yun explained to them some knowledge of zombies, which was not correct, but it was enough for Shangguan Lingxian's current state of ignorance.

"So," Shangguan Lingxian frowned her slender eyebrows slightly and looked at Li Yun: "Zombies are not difficult to deal with. Can I deal with them?"

"Of course, don't underestimate yourself." Li Yun smiled: "After all, you are also innate strength, the vitality of life in your body is strong, and ordinary zombies dare not approach you."

"I am in the middle congenital period."

Shangguan Lingxian seriously corrected his statement, then opened his brows and laughed, two small dimples appeared at the corners of his mouth, very cute.

"Okay, well, it's the middle congenital stage, better than me." Li Yun's pretentious compliment made Shangguan Lingxian irritated. When Song Xi saw this, he felt that the two were flirting.

Chapter 1040: response

"Ding, the host makes a choice, rewards experience value +400,000, all attributes +500, purple gift bag*1, extra reward: Shangguan spirit fairy favorability degree +30."

The short mountain is small, and there are not many places where one can hide from the sun. Li Yun quickly found a pothole. After discovering that there was evil spirit remaining in it, the system quickly gave a reward.

"It will hide here during the day and tomorrow." Li Yun straightened up and patted the dirt on his hands. "Then he went to Hexia Village at night to kill the cattle and sheep in the village, bathe in blood, and strengthen his own strength."

"Father..." There were tears in Song Xi's eyes again.

Li Yun said: "You don't have to call him father anymore. The thing behind the corpse is not called a human, but a monster, but this monster grew out of your father's corpse."

Shangguan Lingxian tilted his head and looked at him: "It's like a fallen tree growing mushrooms?"

Suddenly, Li Yun's heartbeat slowed for half a beat, and the holy spiritual medicine fairy made such a charming gesture, and a black dyed blue silk was hanging down, which was really beautiful.

He coughed and answered her vaguely: "Almost."

"what?"

Shangguan Lingxian was surprised at Li Yun's performance, after thinking about it, suddenly his face flushed, and he turned his head away from him.

But she was a little bit happy in her heart. It turned out that Li Yun was also amazed by her beauty, not that she had no feelings for her.

"Brother Li Yun, what should we do then?" Song Xi was in a bad mood, did not notice the small interaction between the two, and looked at Li Yun and asked: "Are you going to find my father's body?"

"No."

Pointing to the burning clouds to the west, Li Yun shook his head: "Walking in the mountains and forests at night is very scary. I'm not afraid, but you just..."

The nurses were shocked and hurriedly urged to go back.

According to Li Yun, Master Song has no restrictions on zombies' movements at night, and Master Song frantically bit the cattle and sheep last night. It can be seen that this dirty thing is very eager for blood. They stay in the forest at night to find death!

"Go, go back."

Everyone no longer hesitated, and hurried back to Hexia Village.

The village was full of rumblings, and when he returned to the village in the evening, he shocked the young people guarding the village entrance.

"Be calm and don't go crazy."

Li Yun calmly pointed to the shotgun in the villager's hand. Several people hung their guns down in a hurry, and respectfully saluted Li Yun: "Mr. Li, are you back?"

"Well, how is the situation?"

"Everything is normal, but that stuff..."

A few people swallowed and looked around nervously, as if a ghost would come out at any time in the forest in the evening.

"It's okay." Li Yun waved his hand. "By the way, let Wang Dakai bring a few cattle and sheep to the entrance of the village."

"Cattle and sheep? There are not many in the village now."

Although the villagers didn't understand, they still followed suit. Soon, Wang Dakai and others led two small sheep over. After seeing Li Yun, the panic on his face relaxed a little.

"Mr. Li and Mr. Li, fortunately you are back!" Wang Dakai was so excited that he almost rushed to call his brother.

Li Yun frowned slightly: "What happened in the village?"

Wang Dakai looked ugly, and said in a low voice: "In fact, it's nothing, but the dogs in the village keep barking after nightfall, much like last night when that thing came!"

After learning that what happened last night was probably not human, Wang Dakai was so scared every time he recalled what happened last night, he almost ran into the dirty thing head-on!
