

Godly Choice 1041

Chapter 1041: The village under the night (Part 1)

The night is gradually covering Hexia Village, but tonight's village is destined to have no one to have a peaceful dinner.

The villagers gathered together, holding flashlights and high-powered electric lights to illuminate the middle of the village. Everyone waited nervously. The uneasy commotion of the chickens, ducks, cattle and sheep surrounded by them increased. Make the scene chaotic.

"The dogs in the village barking?"

Li Yun looked at Wang Dakai: "In what direction is it called?"

Animals are usually more sensitive than humans. Snakes, rats, insects and ants move before earthquakes and heavy rain.

"Just facing the back of the village!" Wang Dakai pointed behind him.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Stay and help the villagers of Hexia Village to solve their problems, reward justice value +1000, experience value +1 million, all attributes +1000, purple gift bag*2, Shangguan spirit fairy favorability +1.

Option 2: Leave directly and reward Shangguan Lingxian with a degree of -3. "

Seeing the options given by the system, Li Yun didn't talk nonsense and chose one decisively.

Unexpectedly, the system would also issue rewards directly and cleanly, which surprised Li Yun. Could it be difficult to solve this trouble?

"Wang Dakai." Li Yun turned his head and told him: "You kill these two sheep and let the blood lead from the entrance of the village to the center of the village."

"what?"

Wang Dakai was surprised. Li Yun smiled and patted him on the shoulder: "What we are afraid of, our purpose is to let it come out. There are so many of us, and one person can burn it to death with a single fire. Didn't you still beat it last night? Did you withdraw that stuff?"

"But....."

Wang Dakai would like to say, don't all zombies grow rapidly, do they look the same every day? But Li Yun insisted on doing this, so he had to follow suit.

"No, no!" Song Xi looked at Li Yun as if asking for help: "Can my father's body be preserved intact? I still want to bury him again, let him..."

Wang Dakai and a few villagers were immediately dissatisfied, yelling that your father killed so many cattle and sheep in the village last night. Are you still protecting him now?

"rest assured."

Li Yun nodded solemnly, "Be careful, there is a problem in this house."

Shangguan Lingxian's heart was beating. Although she was already in the mid-innate level of cultivation, except for a set of self-defense swordsmanship, she could hardly learn the other martial arts. She would go to see medicine and learn when she had time. Herbs, etc., are not very good at martial arts of fighting for power.

Song Xi's several nursing homes were sent by Song Xi to follow Li Yun, and they were all tense at the moment, and the weapons in their hands trembled slightly.

"I'll go in first."

Li Yun whispered a word, then took out the silver-white Silvin pistol and walked into the almost dilapidated house step by step.

Shangguan Lingxian was a step behind Li Yun, holding a small dagger as a weapon. This dagger was not a weapon, but a scalpel that she usually used to cut clothes or blood clots on patients.

After entering the door, the two immediately smelled an increasingly strong rancid smell, like rotten dishes that had been left for three days, and the rotten smell came over their faces.

This dilapidated house seems to be the old house of the villagers. There are only two inside and outside. The outside is a living room and dining room, and the inside is a kitchen. The tiled house built in the 1970s is now extremely damaged and cannot live at all. .

If there is something to hide in the village, this is the best choice!

"inside."

Li Yun stared at the door inside, ready to deal with the rushing out...Master Song!

Li Yun can almost conclude that it must be Master Song zombie inside, because his divine mind has already sensed the faint evil spirit inside, and coupled with the rancid smell of death, it is not Master Song that it is Mrs. Song!

"Uh, uh." Shangguan Lingxian's teeth trembled, and she realized how unbearable she was in the face of danger, especially the unknown horror.

The inside of the ruined house was very dark, and the smell of decay rushed in. If it were not for Li Yun by his side, Shangguan Lingxian would not dare to enter if he was killed.

Even now, she couldn't help approaching Li Yun, and if it weren't for the defense of men and women, she would have been behind Li Yun's back.

"do not move!"

Li Yun suddenly stepped in. Although the zombies could not understand human words, he still subconsciously shouted out to strengthen his aura.

There was no one in the broken house.

Li Yun coughed awkwardly, and Shangguan Lingxian couldn't help but laughed. The beautiful smile with picturesque brows and eyes was particularly heart-warming.

Of course she didn't laugh at Li Yun. After all, her performance just now was terrible. The two now feel a bit embarrassed together, and they have a common little secret.

"wrong!"

Wearing a light on his head, Li Yun suddenly noticed something unusual, "Where does the rancid smell come from? Is the pyre piled?!"

There is a mess of wood in the house. It is estimated that the firewood used by villagers in winter. Shangguan Lingxian became nervous again: "Is he hiding in it?!"

"... Strange, how could the zombies hide so well?"

Li Yun wondered, female ghosts a little more advanced than zombies, that is, ghosts of Nie Xiaoqian's level, just barely maintain their sanity. A zombie like Master Song is still afraid of the sun.

At this moment, Wang Dakai's awkward voice came from outside: "Big brother, big brother, Aunt Wang said..."

Chapter 1043: All burned

After listening to this 40-year-old aunt's explanation in an awkward tone, Li Yun was full of black lines.

"You mean hiding the cow that died last night?"

"Yep."

Aunt Wang's face flushed with shame, "I think it's not good to just throw away a large cow like this, and maybe you can eat it... a cow is worth tens of thousands, and no one will pay us."

While she was talking, she looked at Song Xi with her eyes.

Master Song's zombies killed the cattle and sheep in the village. Will the Song family pay them money? Do you need to lose money?

"okay."

Li Yun waved his hand helplessly, too lazy to pay attention to her small movements, and said: "Wang Dakai, you ask people to go in and carry the dead cows out. Also, go and tell the villagers that if there are dead cows, goats, and chickens, they are all. Hand it over, otherwise I won't save you again if something goes wrong!"

Perhaps it was because Li Yun's words were too heavy, Shangguan Lingxian said in a soft tone: "Long-term exposure to evil will cause serious illness. According to medical records, it is better not to covet these cheap things."

"I'll tell you to go down right away!"

Wang Dakai became anxious when he heard that he would get sick if he was exposed to evil spirits. While asking people to drag out the dead cattle inside, he shouted at the villagers to take out all the hidden poultry corpses.

After a while, Li Yun was surprised to find that there were more than a dozen chickens, ducks, two dogs, and three sheep that were taken out of the hiding place by the villagers and piled up on the open space in the middle of the village, full of them.

"You guys!" The village chief blew his beard with anger and scolded them for a long time before turning around to please Li Yun and asking what to do next.

"It's all burned."

Li Yun directly ordered that these villagers were too pitted. If he hadn't discovered it by accident, these evil corpses would definitely cause great trouble!

"Mr. Li is right, it's all burned!"

The village chief cursed and directed the villager's officer, but Li Yun heard him mutter: "It's a pity, so much meat, enough for the village to eat for a month."

Li Yun: "..."

Li Yun called the village chief back again: "If you are not afraid of death, you can grill these cattle and sheep over a strong fire, expose them to the sun for a few days, then put them in a pot and cook for a few hours, and you should be able to eat them."

"Really?" The village chief's eyes lit up.

"If you are not too troublesome." Li Yun shrugged, he was completely speechless to these villagers.

"It's not troublesome, how can it be troublesome?"

The village happily ordered to go down, the villagers suddenly became excited, and a big fire rose in the middle of the village. The men began to deal with the corpses of chickens, ducks, cattle and sheep. The women began to pluck their hair. A group of children ran around happily. .

"Whee."

Shangguan Lingxian secretly smiled, and saw Li Yun's face dark, he smiled and said: "Li Yun, don't be angry, don't you think they are very happy? How happy it is, I like to see it the most. It's such a lively and happy scene, how happy~"

Li Yun smiled helplessly, "After all, you are a kind-hearted spiritual doctor fairy."

"Hate, don't come to make fun of me. Lingyi fairy and so on are all screaming by good people." Shangguan Lingxian said very modestly, but his beautiful face was full of shy smiles, reflected in the flames. A coquettish atmosphere was cast underneath.

Li Yun looked at her, Shangguan Lingxian also seemed to feel something, and turned his head shyly, "Li Yun, you..."

"boom!"

Suddenly, the fire exploded, completely interrupting the words Shangguan Lingxian wanted to say.

Chapter 1044: resurrection

The sudden explosion caused everyone to scream loudly, sparks splashed all over the villagers, and they slapped their bodies in panic.

"All back!"

Li Yun recovered from the ambiguity with Shangguan Lingxian, his divine thought swept around, and he immediately understood what was going on.

"Wang Dakai, let the villagers retreat, don't mess up!"

At this moment, a group of flames burst out of the fire, and accompanied by a sharp neigh, the flames fiercely slammed into the nearest Shangguan Lingxian.

Suddenly, I was ambiguity with Li Yun before, causing Shangguan Lingxian to have no time to react. He could only watch this strange flame hit her.

"do not want."

Shangguan Lingxian closed her eyes subconsciously. The next moment, she felt her slender waist being embraced by a big warm and powerful hand, and she had escaped the collision of the flame when the clouds were flying in the mist.

"Beast, you are dead, so what are you doing!"

Li Yun gave a cold yell, and if he disconnected the gun and fired, with a bang, the sharp and harsh sound made the noisy villagers instantly quiet.

They turned their heads and looked, and found that the monster rushing out of the fire was shot and killed. The sheep's head was completely smashed and flew out more than ten meters away.

Yes, the thing that exploded from the fire just now was the sheep that the villagers threw into the fire and roasted!

The flames fell in all directions, and in the blazing fire, the scorched but resurrected sheep lay on the ground, struggling with four legs before dying.

Everyone who saw this scene was stunned.

"Zombie, zombie!"

"Oh, it's a zombie sheep!"

"I, Cao, I really can't eat this stuff!"

"Throw it away!"

After the zombie sheep died, Shangguan Lingxian's mood gradually calmed down, and he looked suspiciously: "How can a sheep with evil spirits become dead after being roasted by flames?"

This is different from the record in the corpse poison theory that Li Yun gave her, or even the opposite!

Li Yun smiled faintly and looked in the direction of the entrance of the village: "Because something more evil is approaching."

"Something more evil...Ah!"

Shangguan Lingxian reacted, and subconsciously hid behind Li Yun with a cry of exclamation, looking at the direction of the village entrance with a frightened look.

The villagers shivered, because they felt a cold breath permeating, even if there is a bunch of flames still burning not far away, it can't stop the spread of this cold breath.

"Roar!"

A few cattle and sheep that were half processed by the village stood up. One even had a broken leg and its neck was chopped off, but it still stood up slantingly, a pair of bull eyes that had already turned grayish white. Looking at the crowd, water mist was continuously spraying from their mouths, and the horror made several young girls fall to the ground on the spot.

But what was even more terrifying was that on the village road, a figure jumped from a distance, and quickly jumped into everyone's field of vision.

At this moment, everyone in Hexia Village was in danger. Everyone forgot to breathe, watching the jumping...Master Song, a zombie.

He exhaled with his mouth open, his eyes blank, his shroud was dirty and covered with dried blood and soil, his fingers became sharp, his teeth protruding like canine teeth, and black and red blood covered them. It should be the blood of cattle, sheep, chickens and ducks that remained last night.

"A zombie, five cows and sheep, and—" Li Yun glanced at the ground with a calm gaze, "There are still twenty chickens and ducks."

Chapter 1045: Master Song

These poultry were infected by Master Song's zombie, and they all stood up swayingly, staring at everyone with their eyes like fisheyes, and there was a dull low roar in their mouths, which was louder than before.

"Lingxian."

Li Yun smiled slightly, and pointed a pistol at the zombie cows, sheep, chickens, ducks, "Go deal with them, and I will stop the zombie for you."

"what?"

Shangguan Lingxian was surprised, this was different from what she had encountered before.

In the past, even if there were any bad guys, the people around her protected her, desperately not letting the enemy approach her.

But Li Yun did the opposite, let her deal with these zombies first? !

"It's okay, go ahead."

Li Yun teasingly patted her shoulder and smiled: "Even if you are injured by zombies, I can save you back. These zombies are very weak. It's a rare opportunity to experience novel things. Do you want to miss it?"

Shangguan Lingxian is petrified.

She actually felt that Li Yun's words made some sense.

As for things like corpse poison, as a doctor, she has no reason not to understand them.

Animal zombies are very weak, and having someone as reliable as Li Yun by his side is a great opportunity to learn about corpse poison!

"Okay, let me go!"

Shangguan Lingxian nodded heavily, took a deep breath, took the initiative to take a step forward, nervously watching the animal zombies approaching.

The villagers behind him looked stunned.

In the light of the fire, a holy and gentle fairy in white clothes is facing a group of strange, terrifying and strange animal zombies. This scene will definitely make them unforgettable for the rest of their lives.

"Grass, the goddess doctor can fight, we don't dare to make sense!"

Wang Dakai felt deeply ashamed of his cowardice. He turned into anger, holding a torch in one hand and a big knife for chopping wood in the other, shouting that he would step forward to help.

"Don't move."

Li Yun waved his hand to stop them, and let Shangguan Lingxian fight these animal zombies first, but on the other side, Master Song couldn't stand it anymore.

It roared, and its already decomposed body jumped up. This jump was at least four or five meters high, like a rotten vulture falling down.

Shangguan Lingxian was fighting with those little animals and zombies. He was frightened after seeing this scene. He watched Master Song waving his sharp black and red claws against Li Yun's head.

"Prajna palm."

Li Yun was as steady as Mount Tai, waving his right palm, and the fierce wind howled, colliding with the dark and red claws of the zombie.

boom!

The impact was dull and thunderous, Li Yunwen did not move, but Master Song flew out several meters away, and the rotten flesh on his body dropped to the ground. Song Xi covered her mouth in the distance, and she saw in panic. My father's cheeks were rotten.

"So strong!"

Shangguan Lingxian's eyes flickered, and she wasn't like Li Yun had never seen someone like Li Yun, but you must know that he was facing rotten and smelly zombies.

Facing this dirty thing, he can still be calm and calm, this kind of aura is only seen in Shangguan Lingxian's life.

"Roar!"

A bull slammed into the Shangguan Lingxian, and its horns became sharper after death, and it could definitely pierce people when they pierce people.

"carefully!"

Li Yun shouted, Shangguan Lingxian's confidence increased, and smiled: "Don't worry, I'm not a vase either, hehe."

The soft little hand held a shiny dagger, and with a light wave, it cut a huge hole in the neck of the zombie cow, exposing the bones inside.

"Huh? Isn't it dead? It seems that the zombies have some ways."

"Well, let me see, zombie ducks seem to have their feet... No, all zombies are weak. They can't move without them. I'm so stupid!"

Chapter 1046: Not to mention

Song Xi watched sister Lingxian easily deal with the animal zombies, and his father was unilaterally beaten up by Li Yun, and for a while, he didn't know whether to cry or laugh.

"Burn it!"

After Li Yun beat Master Song over with a punch, the villagers straightened their waists one by one, lit the torches that had been prepared, and yelled at Master Song again and again.

"Yes, burned the zombies!"

"Haha, it seems that the so-called zombies are not very good, really weak!"

"Ergou, get out of me, if it weren't for Big Brother, would you think it's that simple?"

"Uh, that's right, Big Brother is really powerful."

The villagers came around with torches, and stared at Master Song who fell on the ground with bitter eyes. He killed so many cattle and sheep last night, and every household suffered a different degree of loss. It hurts too much for the villagers who are not wealthy.

"Don't, don't hurt my father!"

Song Xi stood up in a panic, stopped everyone, and hurriedly said: "I will give you money to compensate you for your losses. As long as you don't burn my father's body so that he can keep a whole body, I will compensate you in Hexia Village. Loss!"

The sentence of leaving the whole body for the father is a bit obedient, but the meaning is still expressed.

"What you said is true?" The villagers immediately became excited.

"Really, I will pay you one million, and these cattle and sheep are only a few hundred thousand."

Song Xi squeezed a smile, and suddenly, Li Yun pushed her away.

"carefully."

Master Song, who had fallen on the ground, stood up straight again, and rushed towards Song Xi with a roar, his movements and aura were much more fierce than when he fought Li Yun before, as if Song Xi was its enemy.

Shangguan Lingxian was surprised, "Does Master Song still remember his daughter?"

Song Xi was also surprised: "Father, could it be said that... is still alive?"

Master Song zombie roared at her again and again, a pair of pale eyes staring at Song Xi, his rotting mouth was wide open, revealing the hideous fangs inside.

Li Yun kicked it flying, shrugging his shoulders and said: "Do you think that people who have lost their cheeks and half their heads are still alive? It is probably its residual memory, so I am deeply impressed by you."

"But." Li Yun thought for a while, "It seems that zombies can remember the events of the past when they have cultivated to a high level, but whether they will treat you as a daughter or not, it is uncertain. Maybe I hate you more and want to kill. If you're dead but you're stuck in your heart, you may also accept your daughter."

"This..." Song Xi was at a loss.

"Don't think about it, it's impossible to let it continue to practice, how many people have to kill?"

Hearing this sentence, Song Xicai completely let go of hope, and his father is indeed dead.

"Li Yun, can you stop it?"

"Can."

Li Yun nodded, Song Xi no longer called him Li Yun's brother, but who told him to violently beat Master Song?

"Lingxian, come and help me."

"Okay." Shangguan Lingxian was eager to try. Now she wants to learn more about zombies, "What do you want to do?"

Li Yun smiled and said, "Aren't you dirty?"

The smell of Master Song's body was hard to describe, and some maggots were vaguely crawling inside. Apart from forensic doctors, it is estimated that few people can stand the smell.

"Do not worry."

Shangguan Lingxian proudly said: "I have met a lot of patients, and I have seen a lot of things that are even worse than this, Song Master——" She glanced at the zombie and said bitterly, "Of course. It's not a problem."

"Roar!"

Chapter 1047: Mrs. Song

The fallen master Song zombie yelled again and jumped up again. Li Yun thought it was going to attack again, but unexpectedly, Master Song turned around and fled, jumping towards the entrance of the village.

"Dad!" Song Xi was taken aback, and hurriedly chased him, the reaction was actually faster than Li Yun.

Li Yun and Shi Kilometers followed closely, Wang Dakai and Song Jiahuyuan also followed, leaving the village all the way into the mountains and forests shrouded in darkness, Song Xi's footsteps slowed down.

The mountain road ahead was rugged, and her hands could not be seen, and her father, or the zombie, jumped in front of him, the strange black shadow made his scalp numb.

Except for the three of them, the remaining Wang Dakai and others stopped after leaving the village. The outside of the village was really terrifying.

"Sister Hee, come with me."

Shangguan Lingxian stretched out his hand to support Song Xi, and took her to chase forward with ease.

Soon, the three followed Master Song to a shady place. There was a vague figure standing on a high ground, bathed in moonlight, and Song Xi recognized her at a glance.

"Mother!"

Song Xi yelled and was about to rush, but was held by Shangguan Lingxian, "Don't."

Li Yun stood still and watched Master Song return to Mrs. Song. He opened his mouth on the initiative, spitting out a small amount of blood from his stomach and spraying it for Mrs. Song to absorb.

All three were shocked by this weird scene.

After a long time, Mrs. Song gave a soft roar, and she reached out her hand and touched Master Song's cheek.

These two zombies actually looked like a couple of gods and goddesses. Although their faces were disgusting and they were full of rotten stench, the unconscious feelings between the two really moved people.

As if zombies also had love, Shangguan Lingxian opened his eyes wide and looked at them unblinkingly.

"so it is."

Li Yun looked complicated. "Mrs. Song was killed by Master Song, who was already a puppet at the time. She didn't come into contact with too much evil, so the speed of zombieization was much slower, so Master Song took her out of the coffin. Come out and keep walking, so there is only one person's footprint on the ground."

Song Xi sobbed again. These days, she went from being a carefree daughter of the Song family to a ruined family, her parents died tragically, her elder brother was accused by thousands, and her uncle coveted her fortune, if not for Li Yun, She didn't even know that her parents were killed by someone!

Shangguan Lingxian was so sad that she couldn't speak. She didn't want to see the sadness of joys and sorrows. Now this situation makes her more sad than the things she has encountered before.

Li Yun looked at the two zombies and said, "Lingxian, wait for you to help me control Master Song and try to keep the whole body."

Shangguan Lingxian wanted to help Song Xi up, but Song Xi didn't want to get up at all. Shangguan Lingxian had no choice but to look at Li Yun and asked bitterly, "Li, Li Yun, is there really no way?"

Song Xi knocked his head for the second time, and Li Yun said cruelly: "It's really impossible, don't think about it, it is estimated that the Holy Lord of the Hidden Sacred Valley has come, and they can't be saved!"

No, this is not about saving people, but a complete resurrection.

Li Yun stepped forward, no longer hesitatingly waved his palm, forced Master Song back, and slapped Mrs. Song away with another palm.

Song Fu had just become a zombie, and his strength was very weak, and he couldn't stand up anymore.

"Lingxian, come and help me."

Hearing Li Yun's words, Shangguan Lingxian's mood has never been more complicated. Even though he already knows that Li Yun is doing extremely correct things, his uncle and aunt have also become zombies.

But she actually wanted to help Li Yun control his uncle and auntie, let Li Yun get rid of all the evil spirits from their husband and wife, pull out the corpse poison, and let them sleep peacefully again. This weird choice made Shangguan Lingxian feel emotional. Very heavy and sad.

"Roar!"

Song Xi was desperate, but after hearing his father's roar, he couldn't help but raise his head. He saw his father copy his mother and rushed over, shielding her behind him, staring at the two people in front of him with a pair of white eyes. .

"dad....."

Song Xi burst into tears again, and fell softly to the ground, and kowtowed to Li Yun for the third time, sobbing and begging: "Brother Li Yun, if you have a way, just help me, please, brother Li Yun !"

Li Yun: "...I really can't help it."

He has many good things in his hands, but even with the Hongmeng Purple Qi fairy bracelet in the hands of the Fanqing Sage, there is no way to resurrect the dead.

"Ding, Song Hee was moved by the heart, and actively triggered the hidden option event, please choose from the host."

Me Cao?

Li Yun opened his eyes wide, and the system actually prompts him, and is it because Song Xi triggered the hidden selection event?

Chapter 1049: Ding, the elixir of nine revolutions

"Choice 1: Use two recovery pills, plus 20 million experience points, in exchange for two nine-turn elixir, resurrect Master Song and Mrs. Song, reward: Shangguan Lingxian favorability +10, Song Xi favorability full, justice value + 5000, colorful gift bag*1, extra reward: a random spell that the host can use at this stage.

Option 2: Ignore, still maintain the previous selection event, no reward. "

Li Yun's eyes widened in an instant, with a 10 favorability rating! Colorful gift bags! Spells? ! !

These three things made him very greedy, especially the spells. Li Yun was the most greedy. After all, he still had innate true energy in his body at this stage, and he still hadn't transformed into mana, so he could only see but couldn't touch the spells.

At least he will have to wait until his congenital perfection and martial arts are completed before he can turn to cultivating immortals, and his body's true energy can be turned into mana, so that he can soar into the sky and reach a new height!

"System, I choose option one!"

Li Yun made a decisive choice, but suddenly discovered that his mother's, his experience value is only 15 million! !

He has three recovery pills, but the experience points are due to the upgrade of Divine Sense and Human Emperor Heart Sutra, only 15.5 million are left.

"Ding, the host makes a choice, deducts two recovery pills, deducts 20 million experience points, and gets a reward: Nine-turn elixir*2."

Li Yun was shocked, is this okay?

"Ding, the host's experience value is insufficient. The current experience value: -4.5 million. The system automatically charges 3% interest every day. After one month of debt, the host's inventory will be forcibly used to repay the debt. If the host still owes the debt after one year, this All functions of the system will be unavailable."

Seeing this prompt, Li Yun looked embarrassed, this Nima can still owe debts, the system is really good for you.
