

Godly Choice 121

Chapter 121: Absconding

For example, the standard answer is ‘the poet is sentimental, what is he,’ and Zhou Xianming changed it to ‘the poet has a lot of emotions, what is he,’ or simply use a synonym!

This is completely plagiarism!

"Where's the dean?!" In the meeting room, Principal Wang roared to the school leaders: "Tell him to get out and see me! How does he supervise the test papers?"

Several vice-principals and leaders also turned pale and were frightened.

I originally thought this was a great opportunity for Zhicai High School to let more people know about their private middle school.

Unexpectedly, there are indeed many people who know Zhicai High School, but it is not a big chance, but a catastrophe!

This incident cannot be dealt with individually, I am afraid that the entire school's leaders will be removed, even in private middle schools, they will also be under the control of the Education| Bureau!

"School, principal!"

The director of the logistics department held the phone, cold sweat: "I, I can't reach the dean of education, he seems to be turned off..."

Shut down?

Bad thoughts flashed through everyone's hearts.

It stands to reason that the school leaders are responsible to the students, even if it is turned on at night and during holidays, but now the dean is turned off?

"Call his family!" The principal calmed down.

"Yes!"

After the director of the logistics department dialed the phone, his mouth opened wider and wider as he listened, and immediately afterwards, the mobile phone fell to the ground with a clang.

"The principal, the wife of the teaching director said that he has packed his luggage and is missing..."

"Ran?"

"Fearing crime and absconding?"

Everyone was dumbfounded, and the principal slumped on the chair. After a long time, he said, "Go, go to the police."

——

"Snapped!"

Zhou Kangwei slapped his son fiercely, causing Zhou Xianming to turn around three times. There was a five-fingerprint on his face and he fell to the ground, his head buzzing.

"Bastard stuff!"

Zhou Kangwei was still uncomfortable, and gave Zhou Xianming a kick again, cursing: "You rubbish, you are so old for nothing, I can't wait to kill you myself!"

Zhou Xianming was stunned by the beating, but he didn't dare to fight back. He knew the consequences of cheating.

Punishment or being dropped out of school are just trivial matters, the key is Fang Xue!

With Fang Huyu's self-respectful personality, he would never let his daughter make friends with a person who cheated on an exam, and he might even turn his face and deny him, and completely broke up with Zhou's family!

The loss of the Zhou family to the Fang family means that the fox has lost the tiger. How can the fox fake its power?

"We, we simply don't admit it." Zhou Xianming whispered: "I was not caught cheating on the spot anyway, they have no evidence!"

Zhou Kangwei gritted his teeth and thought for a long time, and said bitterly: "That's the only way, you will cause trouble for me!"

But what the father and son did not expect was that something that someone broke the news next made them completely desperate!

"Student Li Yun, do you have anything you want to say now?"

"Student Li Yun, can you express your opinion?"

"Student Li Yun, did you get 749 points by cheating?"

On Monday afternoon, when school was over, when Li Yun just walked out of the school gate, a large group of reporters who had been waiting for a long time crowded around frantically.

There are Luanfeng News Network, Penguin Entertainment, and some professional reporters from well-known newspapers. They all want to swarm Li Yun and get first-hand news.

Li Feng and Fang Xue were a little frightened. Fang Xue hid behind Li Yun subconsciously, pinching the corner of his clothes tightly with her little hand.

Chapter 122: I did not cheat

"Quiet!"

Li Yun gave a cold shout, like a thunderous explosion, and stopped the noisy reporter paparazzi.

"I don't know much about cheating." Li Yun said lightly, looking around for a week, "but I dare to say with certainty that I did not participate in cheating, and all the answers were written by me stroke by stroke. of!"

"I don't want to accompany you!"

After speaking, Li Yun took the two women away, leaving a group of reporters staring at each other.

This group of journalists who have experienced many battles and have seen many celebrities were actually drunk by a high school student, which is really shameful.

"Huh!" A reporter snorted coldly, and said disdainfully: "He didn't cheat? Only a fool believes it! Okay, I will post your words on the Internet intact, and let the majority of netizens comment!"

Many reporters nodded again and again. They came for the purpose of blogging. Now that the purpose is achieved, there is no need to keep it!

Immediately, the reporters left in a swarm.

Not long after Li Yun had finished his dinner, he learned from Caixia that everyone on the Internet had lowered his reputation again, saying that he did not repent, and that Zhou Xianming's cheating was all stoned and he was still holding on!

Li Yun smiled at this, but he didn't expect that soon after, a news broke on the Internet that made him feel a little surprised.

"The whole story of cheating by the dean of Zhicai High School!"

This piece of news, which started to circulate from nowhere, contained the chat records of the dean of education, Zhou Xianming, and other wealthy classmates.

It is recorded that Zhou Xianming spent a full 50,000 yuan in order for the instructor to send the test paper to the gunman.

In addition, other students also spent 10,000 each as an initial investment.

And all of this is a drill to be able to cheat smoothly during the college entrance examination!

In addition, there were also chat records between Zhou Xianming and the gunman, as well as conversations between some other classmates and the gunman, all of which were revealed.

For a while, the entire network became a sensation!

"Oh my god, you have been involved in such a big cheating?"

"Hehe, Zhicai High School is really amazing, no wonder there are two people who are close to full marks!"

"The most ridiculous thing is that Li Yun still refuses to admit it!"

"In Area D, it is most annoying for Xianxian to be deceived by such a person!"

"Hehehe~"

In a luxurious apartment room, a girl in a pink pajamas smiled happily, her eyebrows curled up and she was obviously very satisfied with her results.

"Hmph, tell you * to cheat, see how you deal with it?!"

The girl in the pink pajamas smiled triumphantly, tapped her slender finger on the keyboard, and erased all traces of her intrusion into the teacher's cell phone and computer.

Yes, this 19-year-old girl named Su Muxin is the hacker behind the scenes who broke the news of the dean's cheating!

Speaking of her being involved with Li Yun, there is a quite dramatic relationship between her and Li Yun.

When she went to a classmate's house to play the dungeon together, Su Muxin didn't check it for a while, causing the game account to be stolen, and she was so angry that she was so angry.

Because her father is the chairman of a top domestic technology company, she has learned computer knowledge since she was a child.

She wrote her first game at the age of six and became a hacker at the age of ten. Since then, she has been regarded as the great * among the great gods by countless hackers, nicknamed the bright red pepper.

Unexpectedly, Su Muxin actually stumbled in the hands of the hacking account. How could this make her tolerate?

So, she began to track down who the hacking gang behind it was.

After checking, Su Muxin was finally surprised to find that these hacking gangs had been eliminated first!

It was Li Yun who eliminated the hacking gang!

Chapter 123: Bright red pepper

To be precise, the hacking gang was an anti-plug-in software called 'Pioneer Strike' written by Li Yun, and it was inadvertently eliminated!

It is difficult for Su Muxin to describe how shocked she was when she saw "Pioneer Strike". Even now, she still admires this Pioneer Strike software, and she wonders if it was written by Li Yun.

However, Su Muxin has already talked with Li Yun's classmate Wang Houliang, the first disseminator of the software, that this widely spread anti-theft software was made by Li Yun!

Because she was shocked by Li Yun's hacking skills, Su Muxin had a strong curiosity about him, and couldn't help but understand his information and learned a lot about Li Yun.

For example, I made the song "Zhengjianghu" in the vegetable market, such as betting with people, saying that the mock test should get full marks and so on.

All kinds of glorious deeds, coupled with Li Yun's excellent hacking skills, made Su Muxin's feelings for Li Yun deeper and deeper, and she couldn't help but collect information about him every day, as if she was a young girl looking up to her admiration. .

However, just when Su Muxin's curiosity about him was about to turn into a strong love, news of Li Yun cheating in the exam came out, which made Su Muxin irritated and turned into anger. The original affection for Li Yun all turned into anger and crazy thoughts. Go to expose Li Yun's evil face!

"Huh, cheating, cheating, cheating, you * is so talented, why do you want to cheat?"

Su Muxin poked the phone screen fiercely, and Li Yun, who was used as a lock screen pattern by her, said with a hatred of iron and steel.

The girl's heart was hurt, Su Muxin felt very wronged and mentally calculated, and once wanted to delete Li Yun's photo.

After hesitating, she finally did not delete it.

"Hmph, just give you a chance. If you admit your mistakes, I will treat you as a boyfriend... an idol."

Su Muxin, who was wearing pink silk pajamas, flushed all of a sudden, she didn't dare to say the three words for her boyfriend.

"Wei~~?"

"Xianxian?"

Listening to Liu Xianxian's hesitant questioning tone, Li Yun quickly thought of her purpose of calling, "You want to ask, did I get 749 points by cheating?"

"No, it's not!"

Liu Xianxian on the other end of the phone waved his hand quickly, bit his blushing lips, and said, "I believe Li Yun, you will not cheat! Because you are willing to come out and help me, and you can write chivalrous songs. It is absolutely impossible to do it. That kind of thing happened!"

After a pause, Liu Xianxian said again: "I just want to ask about your current situation, will it be very stressful?"

Li Yun was moved in his heart and comforted her a few words. She learned that Liu Xianxian was in the mountains now. She was going to walk through several closed villages in the deep mountains, trying to bring some help to the poor villagers.

"Xianxian, what you have done is more meaningful than I am now!" Li Yun praised sincerely, and Li Yun was deeply honored to be loved by Liu Xianxian, who means kindness, innocence and beauty.

"Hee hee~, Li Yun, you are also very good. If you get a high score in the exam, you will become a person who will contribute to the society in the future. Isn't it very good?"

After Liu Xianxian said playfully, he spent half an hour on the phone with Li Yun before hanging up.

Just after hanging up, Li Yun received another call from Hu Xiaomeng.

"Big brother, have you cheated?"

"No." Li Yun replied lightly.

"Really?"

"Fake."

Chapter 124: Shocking composition

"Hey? Big brother is really annoying! Okay, waiting for your good news~"

Sitting on the school golf course, Hu Xiaomeng hung up the phone, with a cute smile on her mouth. She was increasingly looking forward to the moment when the truth was revealed.

A handyman on the street, after getting to know her, suddenly became a master chef, and then made a popular song.

Then, I got a score close to full marks!

All this made Hu Xiaomeng's interest in Li Yun greater than ever.

"Little Meng, come and see! Li Yun's test paper has been posted online!"

Hu Xiaomeng did not expect that the truth was revealed so quickly that Li Yun's test paper was quickly posted on the official Weibo of Zhicai High School, which instantly aroused malicious curses from countless netizens.

"Junk stuff!"

"Hurry up and find out the evidence that Li Yun colluded with the dean. Is it useful to post this now?"

"I want to wash it now?"

"The Fairy Boys come to gather and scold Li Yun as a cheating sex!"

"Chinese to Chinese again?"

Hu Xiaomeng's classmates yelled while reading the comments, and soon attracted many aristocratic children who were practicing golf to come and watch.

Yuwen Huayu sneered, "These test papers should have been temporarily changed by Zhicai High School, right?"

Hu Xiaomeng looked at him and blinked. Although he didn't say anything, he knew what Yuwen Huayu was thinking like a mirror in his heart!

"I want to see what is written on Li Yun's test paper, and he actually scored 749 points!"

A classmate yelled, but when they saw Li Yun's test paper, they all fell silent again.

After a long while, someone spoke.

"There is something in this handwriting!"

"It's neat, and it's different from the standard answer."

"Clearly organized, how do I feel that the translation of ancient texts is more trustworthy, elegant and expressive than the standard answer?"

"Where did Li Yun hire the gunman, he has such a strong writing skills, I am afraid he is not from the literature department of a top university in China?"

"The math test paper is also good, the proof looks very concise!"

Everyone praised Li Yun's test papers, and Hu Xiaomeng muttered, "Could it be that Li Yun really got 749 points on the test?"

"My Cao!!!"

Someone screamed, their eyes rounded, and shouted: "Awesome!! You guys go and read Li Yun's Chinese test paper composition, it's amazing!"

Everyone gave him a contemptuous look. He was very etiquette in the aristocratic school, and he blatantly swore. If he was caught by the teacher, he wouldn't be good.

"My Cao?"

"Writing in ancient Chinese? What kind of fairy composition is this?"

""Qinggemanwu"? His, the title of this composition has something!"

"Since Zhou founded Liyue, the "Daya" of "The Book of Songs"...I went, just using entertainment to make propositions. He actually started writing from ancient times?"

"This composition...is awesome!"

Hu Xiaomeng no longer cared about the exclamation of the classmates around her. She carefully read this article carefully and relied on good ancient prose to recuperate. She could understand this article and clearly understand its meaning.

But because of this, Hu Xiaomeng became more and more surprised!

This composition has gone far beyond the scope of composition and has become an essay about the origin, evolution, and development of music theory, as well as exploring elegant and popular music.

Its high level of thinking, Hu Xiaomeng believes that it is no less than the ideas expressed in some excellent ancient texts in textbooks, and it is by no means inferior in writing!

Chapter 125: Singing and dancing, hot

After everyone had read Li Yun's "Song and Man Dance", everyone shut their mouths obediently, and no one doubted whether Li Yun was cheating.

Just kidding, how can a master who can write such an article be a gunman?

Yuwen Huayu's face was pale, this article was really licking his face, making his cheeks red and painful!

"Big Brother is amazing!"

Hu Xiaomeng innocently clapped his hands and showed a very happy smile, as if he was really happy for Li Yun's performance.

"This cook!!!"

Yuwen Huayu squinted his eyes, and a dangerous light flashed in his eyes. He took this account down!

The style of commenting on Zhicai High School's Weibo changed in an instant.

"It makes me feel dizzy, so come a boss who knows ancient Chinese to help translate?"

"Except for knowing that he quoted the Da Ya and Xiao Ya of the Book of Songs at the beginning, he couldn't understand everything else!"

"Call a Chinese teacher to start a class to translate ancient Chinese! [狗头]"

"If you don't understand, just ask, why is it impossible for Li Yun who wrote this article to be cheating?"

"LS, use your brain to think about it. If someone who can write this excellent ancient essay is willing to be a gunslinger? I'm afraid it is not necessary to invite a professor of literature to come!"

"Awesome, goodbye, goodbye, I won't eat this melon!"

Zhicai High School.

Principal Wang watched the Weibo comment completely reversed, and he was so happy that he slapped his thigh fiercely and shouted: "Sure enough, true talents can't be faked anywhere. Leaders, I have decided. The commendation ceremony will be given to Li Yun. Double the scholarship, what do you think?"

The leaders kept nodding their heads in agreement, they still want to rely on Li Yun to stand up.

As long as one champion is cultivated, the rest is easy to say!

After Li Yun reposted the Weibo of Zhicai High School, there were many more people who came to apologize in the comments below.

"Brother, I was wrong, you are really awesome!!"

"6666, write in ancient Chinese, blogger, do you want to go to heaven?"

"I can't understand, I can't understand, it's amazing, my brother!"

"Well, I, Li Aotian, admit that you are an opponent worthy of my all-out efforts! [狗头]"

"I am majoring in ancient Chinese literature, and I have read this blogger's article three times carefully, but I still haven't found any fault. I don't understand why the teacher only gave 59 points!"

While watching the comments on Weibo, Caixia jumped and jumped happily, and finally kissed Li Yun on the cheek with joy, and said softly: "Brother is amazing~"

Caiwei blushed and made the same movements as Caixia, and then Li Feng gave Li Yun a sweet face.

"Ahem!" Li Yun was itchy in his heart, pretending to be reprimanding the sisters and said: "How old are they, and kiss my brother!"

Li Feng gave him a roll of eyes. Not only did she kiss her cheek, but also other places.

Caixia lowered her head embarrassedly, but Caixia leaned over with a smile, and kissed her again, "Is it just an expression of admiration and affection for her brother, isn't this all right?"

The four of them stopped after a while. Li Feng panted slightly, leaning on Li Yun comfortably, and lazily said: "Brother, many people have turned your article about you, and they are all celebrities."

For example, a blogger certified on Weibo as "Professor of the Department of Literature of Beijing University" commented:

"I woke up to read the news this morning, and when I saw this "Qing Ge Man Wu", I really didn't believe it was an article that a high school student could write.

But after reading it carefully, I had to admire the little author's literary skills. "

Chapter 126: Slapped tens of millions in the face

"Li Yun pioneered the evolution of the music and songs in The Book of Songs, using less than two hundred characters.

Immediately afterwards, I elaborated on the poems of the Tang Dynasty, focusing on the thought of "Qi Di gentleman, come to swim and sing, with the sound of the arrow"...

In summary, Li Yun's article has reached the level of undergraduate thesis graduation, and his high level of thinking is even more so that ordinary doctoral students would not have it! "

Many netizens looked stunned.

A professor of literature at a top domestic university praised Li Yun, who would dare to question that it was written by a gun?

This writing has already become popular, so why bother to be a gunner?

And the comments of famous artists from all walks of life also highly praise "Qing Ge Man Wu".

"Trustworthy only saw this article today."

"Writing can be imitated, but the author's discussion of poetry, musical instruments, and entertainment is beyond my reach!"

"The wide range of knowledge of the young author is impressive. There are as many as 25 allusions in the whole article. From the Han Dynasty to the Republic of China, the span is impressive."

"The only pity is that the composition is only more than a thousand words long!"

On Weibo, I asked, the big Vs on the front page news have spoken, confirming the excellence of this composition, and completely blocked the mouths of those who suspected that Li Yun invited the shooter!

Several middle schools in Zhonghai City posted it, and the master and the bar worked together to delete all the previous posts that questioned Li Yun, and also put an apology on the top.

Solemnly apologized to Li Yun, saying that they were not the ones who could not afford to lose.

The people in the first middle school, third middle school, and the experimental middle school have been crushed by Li Yun in their grades. If they make despicable behaviors in morals, they can't forgive themselves!

Foreign language middle school, special class.

"Qingyu," a classmate said carefully to the quiet and beautiful girl, "it seems that Li Yun really scored 749 points."

In other words, the peerless genius Gong Qingyu of the Specialty Class was indeed overwhelmed by Li Yun and only won the second place!

Gong Qingyu shook his head lightly, holding a thick book called "Literature Overview" in his hand, and said, "It's not 749, it's a perfect score of 750."

The classmates were taken aback for a moment, and then they laughed bitterly.

After reading Li Yun's test papers, no one doubted that Li Yun could get full marks. Zhicai High School was purely creating chaos. With a reason of 'protecting students', it killed the first genius in Zhonghai City to get full marks!

If the next mock test can no longer get full marks, I don't know when someone can get full marks next time... Uh, that's not right.

Everyone looked at Gong Qingyu, she was also a peerless genius with the potential to get full marks.

And also a quiet and elegant classical beauty!

"Qingyu, when you read literature, do you want to face Li Yun in the next test?"

".....Um."

Gong Qingyu nodded slowly.

She believed that her talent was never weaker than anyone else, and she was extremely unconvinced with Li Yun.

Next time, she must take the full score!

Everyone started to breathe quickly, Gong Qingyu gave up the paintings she liked, and tried her best to improve her literary literacy, and wanted to write a composition with perfect scores.

For a moment, everyone seemed to see two peerless geniuses fighting each other in the air, their moves were smashing into the air, and the momentum went straight into the sky. The talents of these two people could be called shocking the ancients!

The next mock test will surely be the stage for these two geniuses!

Later, Li Yun's speech on Weibo confirmed the opinions of the people in the special class.

"There may be some people who don't believe me, but it's okay. The real can't be fake, and the fake can't be real.

In the next exam, I will get full marks again! ! "

Chapter 127: Friendship soaring

"Ding, the host makes a choice and rewards (35000 experience points, justice value +10, a random purple gift bag, additional Liu Xianxian favorability +1, Hu Xiaomeng favorability +15, Gong Qingyu favorability +60, Fan Qingsheng's favorability degree +65, Su Muxin favorability degree +90) has been released!"

When Li Yun saw the reward purple gift, he still laughed from ear to ear, but when he saw the extra reward behind, he was completely dumbfounded.

Let's not mention that Liu Xianxian and Hu Xiaomeng's popularity has soared steadily, or who these "Gong Qingyu, Fanqing Sheng, Su Muxin" are. What Li Yun wants to know is:

Why does the system give him the favorability of girls? !

"Ding, these beautiful, beautiful, excellent girls with a good family background are all important contributions to the host's future'becoming CEO, marrying Bai Fumei, and reaching the pinnacle of life'. They have developed a good impression of the host, please meet the host If you get to them, you must seize the opportunity!"

Looking at the explanation of the system, Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry.

Dare the system think that he has to be a little white face to reach the pinnacle of life?

Is he not that bad? ! This system is really inferior to others! !

"Gong Qingyu, Fanqing Sheng, Su Muxin..."

Li Yun touched his chin and made a thoughtful expression.

The names of these girls sound very good, presumably they are also big beauties, if you can have so many unique beauties, experience the feeling of hugging right and left...

"Ahem, I already have two now, so I can't think about it anymore!"

Li Yun hurriedly put away his slanderous thoughts, besides, Hu Xiaomeng was only in junior high school, and he is not an animal|beast, how could he start with her!

"But, who is Su Muxin? He actually has 90 favorability for me, and Hu Xiaomeng only has 85!"

Li Yun was quite surprised, is it a nympho?

At this time, the * hacker, known as 'Bright Red Pepper' Su Muxin, was rolling around holding the quilt excitedly.

Her idol proved her innocence, which made Su Muxin, who had already admired Li Yun so much, like him more.

"Woo, what to do, I really want to talk to the idol in person, I really want to see him with my own eyes, it is best to hug him, let me teach me some hacking techniques, or some other... shame!"

Su Muxin's head was about to emit steam, and under the shaking of her head, the two ponytails happily flicked, revealing the vitality of the young girl vividly and vividly.

On Thursday, the commendation meeting.

Because of the leaked test papers, the conference that was supposed to be held on Monday has been postponed to the present.

"...A special commendation to Li Yun who won the first place in this mock exam, with a scholarship of 200,000 yuan!"

As the principal's words fell, there was enthusiastic applause in the auditorium, and everyone enviously watched Li Yun take over the red display card representing 200,000 yuan, and salivated one by one.

Originally it was only a 100,000 yuan scholarship, but because of Zhou Xianming's incident, it became 200,000 yuan!

"Brother Li has made crazy money this time!"

"Are you stupid? Brother Li made a crazy profit during the college entrance examination. He has to be rewarded at least 500,000 yuan, right? That's the top prize in the college entrance examination!"

"Brother Li is really awesome! The college entrance examination champion, we have never been in Longyang County!"

"Ge Li is about to make history!"

On the stage, the principal took a photo with Li Yun kindly, shook Li Yun's hand, and said apologetically: "I hope you can forgive the school, Li Yun, this time the school has done something wrong!"

Chapter 128: Scholarship, 200,000

After a pause, the principal continued: "Originally, your "Qing Ge Man Wu" was able to get full marks, but the school deliberately reduced it to 59 points for various considerations. I apologize to you on behalf of the school!"

Li Yun shook his head faintly, saying that it was nothing, anyway, he won the first prize, and the system rewards and school rewards were also obtained.

"But I promise that the next time the mock exam, the teacher will approve the papers in accordance with strict rules and regulations, and will never be partial, and will never pressure points!"

Li Yun smiled, "Then I also promise that next time I will learn with real talents and get full marks again!"

"it is good!!"

Principal Wang yelled happily, gave Li Yun a thumbs up, and praised: "This is the arrogance of being a genius. You are not afraid of floating clouds to cover your eyes, and you are at the highest level!"

He quoted a poem in a poem, praised Li Yun, and finally said: "As long as Li Yun can get full marks next time, there will still be so many scholarships!"

All the leaders sitting on the stage stared wide.

This Nima's, the principal is afraid that he is not confused, right?

A total of 400,000 scholarships were issued twice? And it's a mock exam, not a college entrance exam?

Principal Wang smiled happily. Others didn't know, but he could clearly understand how important Li Yun is to Zhicai High School now!

If Li Yun gets a full score again next time in the mock test, then his genius name will be confirmed and his popularity on the Internet will be further expanded.

If 200,000 yuan is used for publicity, the fart will not be able to publicize anything. Rewarding Li Yun is a super cost-effective thing!

Li Yun smiled, not feeling too excited. He now has nearly four million, and he has long put hundreds of thousands in his eyes. In the future, there will be more ways for him to make money.

At the end of the commendation meeting, the ups and downs of this mock test have also come to an end.

Zhou Xianming now hides in the house without even daring to show up, and Lu Shan hasn't seen him. Without these two people, Li Yun would be happy and quiet, and he didn't care too much.

After the second get out of class in the afternoon, Wang Houliang found Li Yun with a mobile phone in his hand and looked over with a weird expression.

"What's the matter?" Li Yun smiled and said, "Monkey, you are constipated?"

"Grass!"

Wang Houliang exploded and said with a gloomy expression: "I just admire you, Brother Li, before I even showed up, I was fascinated by one of my little girls in the game!"

Li Yun looked at him suspiciously, "The little girl in the game? The one you used my vanguard to beat last time?"

"Yes!" Wang Hou nodded and said without tears: "I met her in the game, and then added a button. Seeing that the photos in her daily space are very beautiful, I want to develop into a boy and girl friend with her. Unexpectedly, she insisted on seeing you!"

Li Yun was speechless.

A little beauty wants to see her? Is it because I think it's good to use Vanguard Strike, so I want to get to know him?

"No." Li Yun shrugged, "Nothing to see, you can use the software, there is no need to see me, I don't have time to play games now!"

Wang Houliang was taken aback, "Brother Li, the other party is pretty, I think it's no better than Fang Xue...Oh, well, I get it! Hey~"

He laughed lewdly, and Brother Li is also a person who is afraid of his wife!

"Then I went to reply to her?"

"Go ahead."

Li Yun didn't bother to care about this hormonal monkey. He didn't skip class and surfing the Internet all day long, he was thinking about where to go to play. Fortunately, the conditions in his home were pretty good, otherwise he wouldn't scold his parents to death!

Chapter 129: Billion investment

"My Cao!! One billion?!"

In the third class in the afternoon, the physics teacher was lecturing on the podium. The students in the audience were drowsy, but a burst of foul language made the class 14 students wake up instantly and looked over with an expression of watching a good show.

"Wang Monkey!!"

The physics teacher's face turned black, and he patted the podium with the pointer, and said angrily: "What is your ghost name in the classroom? What is a billion?! Haven't woke up after playing the game last night?"

The classmates roared with laughter, but Wang Houliang had not recovered from the shock. He looked sluggish and said to everyone at a loss: "No, I mean, someone wants to spend a billion to buy Li. Brother's software..."

In an instant, the entire classroom fell silent.

Billions? !

Buy a piece of Li Yun's software? !

real or fake? !

Because it was too shocking, there was a ten-second silence in the classroom, and everyone did not recover from this shocking news.

"Brother Li's software...that pioneering attack on anti-theft account?"

The classmates who often play games immediately wake up, they also got the anti-theft software from Wang Houliang, and they are also using it, a very practical and convenient little software.

But now Wang Houliang said, this gadget can sell for one billion? !

The physics teacher pushed his glasses, and recovered from the shock: "Who are you talking to and what are you talking about?"

Wang Houliang has been playing mobile phones in class. He knew this a long time ago, but he didn't want to control it. Except for Li Yun, the students in this group of 14 classes would not take the college entrance examination.

It's just that the amount of one billion is really shocking!

He has worked so hard to teach for 20 years and earned only about 2 million, while Li Yun sells a song for 3 million, and now he has written a piece of software that sells for 1 billion?

"Fake, fake?" A boy swallowed hard.

Fortunately, three million is still acceptable to everyone. After all, the classmates of Class 14 are not bad at home.

However, one billion is far beyond the imagination of everyone, and it is completely at the level of the Arabian Nights!

"real!"

Wang Houliang stood up excitedly, holding his mobile phone and said to Li Yun: "The girl I met in the game, she said that she would spend one billion to buy it, ah, that's not right, it is to invest one billion to start a company with Brother Li. , To promote this software together!"

The classroom was quiet again.

Then, Qi Qi gave Wang Hou Liang a middle finger, "Cut!!"

"I'm Cao, I thought it was a billion in the news, it turned out to be a game!"

"Monkey I rough you! It made me so excited for Brother Li!"

"Paralled, monkey, you can't play games and play silly? That girl must be saying that it spends one billion game coins, which is 2500 yuan in conversion, understand?"

"Hehe, 2500 is about the same, a small software can sell for this price, and Li can do it!"

Wang Houliang was anxious, "What the  is true! The little girl in this game is so beautiful. Judging from the photos she posted, she has swimming pools, gardens, and rockery at home. She often goes abroad to play during her vacation. , It can be seen that her family must be rich!"

"Even if you have money, it is impossible to spend a billion to buy a piece of software!"

The physics teacher shouted with a black line: "Monkey Wang, you stand behind the classroom and forbid you to play with your mobile phone!"

The classmates laughed gleefully. Li Yun didn't speak the whole time, but he couldn't help laughing when he saw Wang Houliang's reluctant grievance.
