Chapter 1341: Zhou Chunyong

Two people wearing chef uniforms and chef hats greeted them.

One of them looked excited, striding like flying, and soon arrived in front of Li Yun and bowed deeply to him: "Later, Zhou Chunyong, I have seen Master Li!"

"Zhou Chunyong...? Oh, it's you!"

Li Yun finally remembered, and patted his head, it turned out that it was him.

A few months ago, when he first got the system, he was still working at a roadside stall. When he met Hu Xiaomeng to eat, he made a barbecue for her.

Unexpectedly, after Hu Xiaomeng ate it, he went back to show off and said that he had never eaten such a delicious food. As a result, the chef in her family, Zhou Chunyong in front of him, was dissatisfied, and went to Li Yun with Mr. Hu. At the booth where they were working at the time, the two had a contest!

Needless to say the result of the contest, Li Yun easily defeated Zhou Chunyong with his god-level cooking skills, his first god-level skill, and he was impressed on the spot!

"Senior Zhou, don't call me like that."

Li Yun smiled, "I said how old I am. Besides, it's all from the past, not worth mentioning!"

Zhao Tianfu's face is a little weird, what kind of master is the person in front of him?

Is it a master of magic, but Hu thinks that he has real ability? !

Although Mr. Hu has a high reputation, he is an older generation after all, and he has had too little contact with modern things... In this case, it is indeed possible to be fooled!

Master, a liar likes to call himself this way!

"Then... I'll just call you Mr. Li?" Zhou Chunyong was full of smiles on his face, "Mr. Li just called me Lao Zhou, you can't afford it, Senior Zhou, you can't afford it!"

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry. This old man was quite modest and studious. He was just about to say that I would call you Zhou Lao. The old man next to him who came with Zhou Chunyong and dressed as a chef finally couldn't stand it anymore. He shouted angrily and coldly: "Old Zhou, what are you fooling around!!!"

Everyone looked at him, and Mr. Hu frowned slightly. It seems that today is exceptionally unsatisfactory, and bad things always happen.

"Why am I messing around? Old Zheng, you have to be clear about this!" Zhou Chunyong also retorted with his neck.

This old Zheng was even more angry, pointing to Li Yun's face and shouting, "This is the master chef you are talking about? Haha, it's really funny. A dissatisfied twenty-year-old young man is a master. Zhou Chunyong, I think you're getting better and better. !"

"Zheng Xianyue, I advise you not to talk nonsense if you don't know!" Zhou Chunyong smiled triumphantly, "Master Li, no, Mr. Li's cooking skills are far superior to you and me, he can't be called a master, then you and I even call a chef. No, understand?"

"This kind of shame, you don't want to talk to me!"

Everyone understood that the two of them should have been colleagues before, both of whom were chefs at state banquets. They had both cooked dishes for foreign guests, but the relationship was not very good, and they could barely be regarded as acquaintances.

"So you are a cook." Zhao Tianfu's mouth was joking, and he glanced up and down at Li Yun, no one could see the disdain and arrogance in his eyes.

Especially the condescending title of cook made Zheng Xianyue dumb on the spot, but he did not dare to break out. Instead, Zhou Chunyong stood up: "What's wrong with the cook? The food you eat is not made by the cook? Without a cook, you can still eat well. Vegetables? Who are these people!"

"Humph!"

Zhao Tianfu sneered again and again, but in front of Mr. Hu, he didn't dare to say much.

"okay."

Old Hu said lightly to stop this little dispute, Hu Ying's heart jumped, what does the look in Grandpa's eyes mean? Could it be...dissatisfied with her new boyfriend?

Chapter 1342: Another state banquet chef

Looking at Zhao Tianfu, Hu said in a calm tone: "It's rare that you, Nephew Zhao Xian, have deliberately found a chef for me, and you are also a former colleague of Lao Zhou."

"No no, it's nothing."

Zhao Tian and Fu Junyi showed a smile on his handsome face, and said respectfully: "I know from my grandfather that you love to eat the dishes cooked by chefs at national banquets, especially the big Sixi meatballs made by chef Zheng Xianyue. I have a soft spot! So I specially invited him over to make this state banquet dish for Mr. Hu!"

"Hahaha, you still go to your grandfather to inquire about this, it seems that you are really interested."

"Of course, of course, Mr. Hu, you are the elders I have always respected. Of course the younger generations are attentive to this trivial matter!"

Li Yun's face was weird. Zhao Tianfu was still the cook who was a chef before, but now he cheeks and uses the cook Zheng Xianyue to please Hu Lao. It is estimated that in the eyes of such a'upper' person, Zhou Chunyong and Zheng Xianyue are just a small cook. .

Contempt you, but use you again!

"Big Sixi Meatballs..."

Zhou Chunyong's face changed a little, as if Zheng Xianyue's Big Sixi Meatballs really overpowered him, and he couldn't accept it.

but.

Zhou Chunyong turned to salute Li Yun respectfully: "Mr. Li is superb in his cooking skills, he must have studied the big four happy balls? I wonder if I am honored to be able to see the big four happy * made by the master with my own eyes!"

Everyone was taken aback, he was on the bar with Zheng Xianyue!

"Naughty!"

Mr. Hu was the first to speak, and his words were just a reprimand. Zhou Chunyong was taken aback on the spot, and he couldn't understand why Mr. Hu was angry.

It stands to reason that no matter how good Li Yun is, he is only a cook. In the capacity of Mr. Hu, letting a cook cook is a matter of course. Is it worthy of a loud rebuke?

"Mr. Li is the guest I invited, Lao Zhou, how can you let the guests cook?" Hu Lao Su said, Zhou Chunyong was dumbfounded. He had no idea that Li Yun had such a status and could be invited by Hu Lao himself. !

Now even Hu Xiaomeng is afraid of presumptuousness. When she waited at the school gate, she wanted to pester her elder brother and let him cook some dishes for her.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Choice 1: Bright hand, reward experience value +1 million, all attributes +1000, purple gift bag*1, Hu Xiaomeng favorability degree +3, extra reward: some useful clues can be found.

Option 2: Reject, reward the white gift bag*3.

Option 3: Swear something, turn around and leave, and reward Hu Xiaomeng with -30 favorability.

Seeing the first option, a strange color flashed in Li Yun's eyes.

Useful clues? What clues about?

"it is good!"

Li Yun opened his mouth and agreed, which surprised Mr. Hu.

"Old Hu." Li Yun said with a smile: "Didn't I say that last time. If I came to visit, I'll cook some delicious food for you. I promise you and--" He stretched out his hand and rubbed Xiaomeng's fox. Head melon, "and Xiaomeng are satisfied!"

"Okay, okay!" Hu Xiaomeng immediately clapped his hands and laughed happily, "Xiaomeng waited for the dishes made by his elder brother himself for several months... I hate it, elder brother messed up my hair."

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry, and then he realized, did you forget because you wanted to eat!

Seeing Li Yun really agreed, everyone's expressions were different.

Mr. Hu was naturally happy, and Li Yun's cooking was really good.

Chapter 1343: Lake Barbecue

State banquet chef Zheng Xianyue was full of disdain. If Zhou Chunyong had not been advocating Li Yun's cooking skills, he would not be on par with Li Yun.

But even if you don't say it, he doesn't care about this battle without gunpowder!

He has more important things to do!

Zheng Xianyue raised his head and glanced at Zhao Tianfu. There seemed to be a trace of questioning and nervousness in his eyes. Li Yun had already concentrated on all the movements around him, watching his small movements accurately.

"It would be great to see two top chefs duel!"

Zhao Tianfu smiled and said, "It's just that Mr. Hu, do you have enough kitchens here?"

"Of course there is a kitchen, and more than enough!"

Old Hu stroked his beard and said with a smile: "I have no other hobbies after retirement, just eat good, drink and sleep well, because there are quite a few places in this farm that specialize in cuisine, Li Yun, don't you use!"

"Yeah~~!" Hu Xiaomeng made a victory sign, and took Li Yun's hand to coquettishly said: "Big brother, I want to eat barbecue. Why don't we go to a special barbecue place in the farm? It is near a lake. It's great to have a barbecue while chatting~"

Mr. Hu has no objection, and Li Yun has no objection.

But Hu Ying's complexion has always been bad. Although Li Yun is a chef, he has a high status in the heart of grandpa, while Hu Xiaomeng has a close relationship with Li Yun!

After the decision, the group walked towards the lake.

Although it is called the farm, it is actually the place where General Huwei takes care of the elderly. Therefore, the farm is built to be comparable to a royal garden, not only has beautiful scenery and green grass everywhere, but also equipped with professional entertainment, medical treatment, fitness and other facilities.

It is conservatively estimated that there are at least hundreds of people serving all of Hu's diet, daily life and safety issues.

When he came to the lake, Li Yun glanced at the surroundings.

The lake is clear and the breeze is blowing. There is a small dining place on the shore. There are several wooden tables and wicker chairs, as well as parasols, charcoal stoves, and a small wooden house with refrigerators, TVs and other furniture, plus one In the kitchen, eating barbecue while looking at the lake scenery is really a kind of enjoyment.

"Grandpa, sit down."

Hu Ying took the initiative to do things. After asking her grandfather to sit down, she arranged for staff to bring the ingredients over, so that she could provide all kinds of drinks and food.

Compared to Xiaomeng, who only sells cuteness, her performance is really good.

Li Yun glanced at this strange little girl, it seemed that she didn't want to behave at all?

In a large family, the better the heir is, the more support and resource tilt can be obtained.

Especially the Hu family.

Mr. Hu has three sons and two daughters. Each of his sons and daughters gave birth to a group of grandchildren. The third generation adds up to more than 20. If you don't strive to show up in front of Mr. Hu, he might even drink soup. Not!

Therefore, before Hu Ying caught Hu Xiaomeng's mistake, she unceremoniously ordered her to go back and reflect!

But Hu Ying made a mistake just now, but Hu Xiaomeng did not fight back, and it seems that he doesn't care about these power struggles at all.

"Big brother, can you start now?"

Hu Xiaomeng rushed to Li Yun to act like a baby again, "Grandpa and I can't wait to eat the meat roasted by my big brother~"

The ingredients have been prepared, the charcoal fire has started, and the ingredients are all available. Zhou Chunyong smiled and said, "Mr. Li, please? Last time I only saw Mr. Li's stir-fried beef. This time I can see the master's barbecue skills. , Lao Zhou I am looking forward to it!"

Chapter 1344: Family status

"Old Hu, I'm looking forward to it too." Hu said while sitting on the wicker chair with a smile. He was accompanied by Hu Ying and Zhao Tianfu, just waiting for the food to be served.

"Please ask first, please, everyone can bake it together!"

Li Yun tied an apron, and threw one to Xiaomeng as well, "Xiaomeng, come and help me."

"Ah?! Ah~~? Ah~!"

Hu Xiaomeng opened his mouth and used three in a row to express surprise!

"Ah what!" Hu pretended to be aggrieved: "Isn't Xiao Meng unwilling to give Grandpa barbecue?"

"Hey hey, how come, Xiaomeng likes to cook barbecue for grandpa the most~"

Hu Xiaomeng smiled hehe, and quickly put on an apron, "Big brother, I'll help you~!"

With that said, she ran to the charcoal stove next to Li Yun, planning to fish in troubled waters, grab some barbecue grilled by her elder brother, and give it to grandpa~~ Hey!

"This girl!"

How could Mr. Hu fail to see his granddaughter's "treacherous tricks", he immediately laughed and scolded.

Hu Ying's heart moved, and she quickly stood up and said, "Grandpa, I'll go barbecue for you, too."

"Okay, Xiaoying, you are interested!" Hu Lao readily agreed.

"Okay, grandpa, you wait!"

Hu Ying left her seat, her expression on her face was more respectful, and she felt a bit resentful in her heart.

No matter how hard she tried to behave, her grandfather always loved Xiaomeng the most. Hu Ying still remembers that when she was fifteen years old, grandfather gave her many gifts, even including some company shares, so that she could only become an adult. Allocate the proceeds of these shares.

It stands to reason that it was enough, but when her sister was in junior high school last year, her grandfather gave Xiaomeng a copybook.

Personally written, a copybook that encourages Hu Xiaomeng to study hard!

This kind of special treatment directly shocked the Hu family and made Hu Xiaomeng's status unprecedentedly high.

"Damn it, where am I missing!"

The more Hu Ying thinks about it, the more she hates her. She has been extremely excellent since she was a child. Her cultural achievements, piano, calligraphy, equestrianism, martial arts, and all the things that aristocratic children often learn and play, Hu Ying can pat her chest and say that she is definitely not bad, absolutely better than Hu Xiaomeng, the  and shameless man, is much stronger!

But still can't please her grandfather.

Therefore, she decided to plan early and made a good boyfriend directly to make plans for her future development!

"Hmph, wait, I will definitely be more accomplished than her Hu Xiaomeng in the future!"

Although making good plans, Hu Ying will not give up the help of the Hu family, and strive to perform well and allocate more resources.

"Wow, big brother is amazing~"

"Big brother, big brother, it smells so good, Xiao Meng can't wait to eat it!"

"Woo, hurry up, after smelling the aroma of barbecue, Xiao Meng's stomach became so hungry..."

A trace of contempt flashed in Hu Ying's eyes when she heard Hu Xiaomeng's screaming. She won her grandfather's favor by selling cuteness. Just a little bit of the smell of barbecue, she just screamed, haven't you eaten... eh?

Hu Ying was taken aback.

"Good, good smell!"

She took a small inhalation with her nose, and suddenly, the rich aroma of food filled her nasal cavity, as if this kind of appetizing and appetizing aroma was everywhere!

Taking another breath, Hu Ying was not hungry, but suddenly felt her stomach growl, and her head was full of one word: Eat!

delicious!

I want to eat delicious!

"impossible!"

Zheng Xianyue's pupils shrank, and the three chefs started roasting meat almost at the same time, but the meat in his hand had just been heated over a slow fire. How could this kid's meat be so fast!

Besides, isn't this barbecue? Why does it seem to cook faster than fire? It's ready in the blink of an eye!

Chapter 1345: Different kind of barbecue

"Mr. Li deserves to be Mr. Li!"

Zhou Chunyong, who was grilling kebabs on the iron rack in hand, smiled and flattered, and looked at Li Yun with admiration in his eyes: "Mr. Li's barbecue is as superb as the fried beef!

You can control the temperature of the charcoal fire at will to achieve the wonderful state of instant roasting! Miao Miao Miao! "

"Impossible, Zhou Chunyong, are you crazy?"

Zheng Xianyue almost vomits blood!

"How could it be possible to have this kind of barbecue technique? It only took less than a minute at the beginning. Just put it in the pot and stir-fry with high heat. It's just a good fry, you..."

Zheng Xianyue tried hard to prove that he was right, but when he looked over, he was slapped severely in the face.

The kebabs on Li Yun's grill are obviously ready to eat.

Golden and crispy, sizzling oily, sprinkle with cumin powder and chopped green onion, and roll it again, and it will be out immediately.

"It's baked!"

Ignoring their strange eyes, Li Yun put the barbecue on the plate and handed it to Xiaomeng.

The girl took it in a daze. After a while, she screamed happily "Wow".

"Really, really baked?"

"Hmph, can you understand it if you eat it?"

"Well, just eat...Woo, it's still delicious, and the quick barbecue is also delicious. Grandpa, you can try it too. Big brother's barbecue is really delicious!"

Hu Xiaomeng formed a plate and offered it to Mr. Hu. After he cheerfully took a string, he took it in front of Hu Ying and said with a grin: "Sister, you can also eat a string. I promise you will pay for it. I want to eat~!"

Hu Ying tried to recover from the weird phenomenon that the barbecue was not ready in one minute. On the white porcelain plate in front of her, the fragrance of four or five skewers of barbecue made her unable to think about other things. She instinctively reached out and picked up one of the skewers and opened her mouth. bite.

Crispy and delicious, crisp on the outside and tender on the inside, leaving the lips and teeth fragrant.

This is the best barbecue Hu Ying has ever eaten. The previous barbecue tastes good, but there is a huge difference from the one in her hand.

Li Yun's barbecue is like a string of works of art, the color, fragrance, and taste are flawless and unparalleled in the world!

"Oh my God, how can there be such a delicious barbecue!"

When she came back to her senses, Hu Ying had eaten a whole bunch of barbecue!

"Hehe, elder sister, let me just say it? Big brother is the best cook in the world~, hehe, at least in the eyes of Xiaomeng, he is the best!"

Then Hu Xiaomeng held the plate and leaned in front of Mr. Hu: "Grandpa, grandpa, do you still want to eat it? Xiaomeng made it for you this time~"

"Well, grandpa eat one more bunch!"

Elder Hu was eating the barbecue, a hint of curiosity flashed in his eyes. How did Li Yun cook a skewer of barbecue in one minute?

Everyone had the same question, so when Li Yun was roasting this time, all the surrounding eyes were watching him carefully.

Everyone looked at it very seriously, but they did not see Li Yun's actions. They simply put the barbecue king on the shelf. The charcoal in the stove burned vigorously. In less than ten seconds, the barbecue sizzled, and then added the spices. With a touch of it, the rich fragrance suddenly radiated.

"how is this possible....."

Zheng Xianyue only felt that the three views were broken!

Such a strong charcoal fire didn't actually burn the barbecue, and it could still be grilled crispy and delicious, unexpectedly...

"I'll try it too!"

Zheng Xianyue was very unconvinced. He fanned the charcoal fire by himself, and the heat was rolling, and the barbecue was indeed grilled quickly.

But it scorches quickly.

Chapter 1346: Fire control

Within thirty seconds, the kebab in Zheng Xianyue's hand was completely scrapped.

The meat on the outside is scorched, but when you cut it open, the meat on the inside is not yet cooked!

"No, it's Mr. Li!"

Zhou Chunyong tried it too, and found that he couldn't make a barbecue like Li Yun at all, he couldn't even start, and he didn't even know how he did it.

So Zhou Chunyong was truly shocked this time, and even the tone of his speech became slightly trembling.

The hand of the master is really extraordinary!

"Big brother, how did you do it?" Hu Xiaomeng asked when he had any questions, and asked like a well-behaved, studious baby next to Li Yun.

"secret."

Li Yun showed a faint smile, glanced at the charred barbecue in Zhou Chunyong's hand, and said: "Old Zhou, don't waste your time. Well, to be precise, there are not many people in the world who can barbecue like me. Well, as for ordinary people... I guess they can't learn anything!"

Zhou Chunyong nodded quickly, "You are a master, a master in the world! An ordinary cook like me really can't learn it."

Zheng Xianyue's lungs exploded with anger. Doesn't this mean that he is also an ordinary cook? !

He Zheng Xianyue's state banquet chef, how many dishes he has cooked for the leaders of various countries, each one is praised again and again with thumbs up!

But in front of Li Yun, he looked like an apprentice just learning how to cook!

"I really didn't lie to you, this skill is not simply a cooking problem."

Earth evil sun fire power!

This is the secret of Li Yunneng's fast barbecue!

After obtaining this technique, he once tried to use the skill pill to raise it to intermediate level, but the system prompts that it cannot be used, and there is no flame in his body.

This flame is not an ordinary flame, but the fire of the earth evil, that is, a special flame that emerges from the depths of the earth.

It is not an ordinary volcanic fire, it needs to go deeper, inside some special volcanoes, to get this kind of flame!

"Cheating!"

Afterwards, after Li Yun carefully explored this technique, he could only sigh with helplessness.

The earth evil sun fire power is very strong, and the elementary level can control the ordinary flames around with his divine mind. After absorbing the earth evil fire, its power will be increased by ten times. If the top earth evil fire is absorbed, Li Yun can even provoke the horror with his hand. Powerful spells that are more common than volcanic eruptions!

The premise is to find the fire of the earth and absorb it into the body!

Otherwise, this magical skill can only be used to control ordinary flames, similar to juggling.

Just like now.

Li Yun can control the heat of the charcoal fire to heat the barbecue evenly, but he cannot produce flames out of thin air. It is fundamentally different from the little maid Qingzhu who can summon a flame bird by waving a flame banner.

In less than three minutes, Li Yun directly grilled thirty or forty skewers of barbecue and piled them on the table, which directly caused the two chefs, Zhou Chunyong and Zheng Xianyue, to be dumbfounded.

They are useless, they can only grill side dishes such as leeks and sausages.

"Oh, it's so delicious~"

Hu Xiaomeng's mouth is full of oil. Hu Ying was not accustomed to Li Yun before, but now after eating barbecue, she feels that Li Yun is particularly pleasing to the eye, and even became his girlfriend, giving up future development and eating it every day. The idea that a barbecue is enough!

"This bastard!"

Zhao Tianfu's eyes flashed with hatred when he saw the villain who was smiling at Li Yun by his girlfriend.

Although his origin is not bad, he is far behind the Hu family.

Chapter 1347: What is your origin

Not only does Hu's family have Mr. Hu in charge, his three sons and two daughters are also very good, and they hold important positions in various departments. If no accidents happen in the future, some people will even reach the national level!

Therefore, the pursuit of Hu Ying is one of his important guarantees for his future success, and there must be no one to destroy it!

"Chef Zheng!"

Zhao Tianfu looked at Zheng Xianyue and motioned to him with an inexplicable look: "It's okay to have this chef Li in the barbecue. You can go to the kitchen to prepare the Big Sixi meatballs. Remember, this is for Mr. Hu himself. Yes, you must show your true ability!"

"Yes, Master Zhao!" Zheng Xianyue stood up, with a slightly respectful expression: "Old Hu, please wait a moment, first have some side dishes, and the main dishes will be served right away!"

Having said that, he walked to the kitchen and picked up the backpack he had brought. It was estimated that there were some special ingredients in it.

Hu Xiaomeng looked at Li Yun with a smile, and was about to speak, but suddenly noticed his grandfather's expression. He immediately closed his mouth obediently and asked his grandfather to speak first.

"Nephew Zhao Xian." Elder Hu smiled at him, and Zhao Tianfu immediately asked respectfully: "I wonder if Elder Hu has any orders?"

"Nothing to tell, the nephew shouldn't be so nervous."

Old Hu waved his hand, "I'm just a retired old man, you don't need to be so restrained."

Zhao Tianfu's expression became more respectful, if anyone thought he was just an old man, he wouldn't know how to die!

"but,"

Old Hu changed his voice and said to Li Yun in a somewhat intimate tone: "Li Yun is not just a chef, Xiaomeng, Xiaoying, you will all be polite to Mr. Li in the future, especially you Xiaomeng! "

Hu Ying frowned, and Hu Xiaomeng was also shocked, and then quickly figured out, a smile appeared on her cute face: "Of course they have a good relationship with Big Brother, right? Big Brother~"

Li Yun laughed.

If Mr. Hu also had a system in his body, the style of painting would definitely be like this:

"Ding, trigger the option event.

1.: Mention the grandson of the deceased, so that he shall not sin against Li Yun, reward: justice value +xxx, experience value +xxx, lifespan +xxx

2. Ignore, no reward.

3. sneered and said: Mr. Li is also something you can afford to offend? And drove out Zhao Tianfu, reward:..."

Yes, what Hu Lao said just now seemed to be pointing to the two granddaughters, but in fact they were warning Zhao Tianfu not to offend Li Yun anymore, otherwise he wouldn't know how to die!

Zhao Tianfu's fists under the table squeezed loudly. He never heard the meaning of Hu's old saying.

But if he sighed down to a person of the same age, but also a person of unknown origin and a humble background, Zhao Tianfu couldn't do it!

"Humph."

With a soft snort, Zhao Tianfu turned his head to look at Li Yun, holding up a glass of juice in a seemingly casual manner. After taking a sip, he asked slowly: "Student Li Yun, I don't know where your parents are raised?"

Hu Ying's face was weird.

Generally speaking, in aristocratic schools, inquiring about the unit means reporting to the door.

Which department, which provincial hospital, which unit works, and if it hurts, what company is it, what is its market value, and what position it holds.

Generally speaking, if the background in the newspaper is not loud enough, others will not treat you as a friend at all, because you are not qualified to enter the circle of the upper class.

The children of the upper class drive sports cars, play famous watches, wear customized clothes, travel abroad on weekends and holidays, or visit some large companies, participate in a famous exhibition, spend tens of millions at charity auctions, etc.

Chapter 1348: Xia Ming's call

Without a certain amount of capital, they can't keep up with the pace of life of this group of upper-class people.

Hu Xiaomeng blinked and looked at Li Yun with big eyes to see how he would answer.

Regarding Li Yun's birth, she had also read the information after her grandfather's investigation, and she knew that his birth was not good. At that time, it was a real situation to work at a roadside stall.

But now Li Yun has been invited by his grandfather personally, and Hu Xiaomeng couldn't figure out how to think about it.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Beat Zhao Tianfu directly, reward justice value +100, experience value +50,000, strength +500, white gift bag*1, Hu Xiaomeng, Hu Ying favorability rating -10.

Choice 2: Lie, bullshit, say that you are of noble origin, reward evil value +1000, experience value +500,000, blue gift bag*1, sister Hu Xiaomeng's favorability score -1.

Option 3: Take the initiative to expose one's bad background, and the reward is to be determined. "

Li Yun's face is weird, and Hu Ying actually has a favorable impression level setting!

Forget it, for her, Li Yun is not tempted at all, so he is too lazy to take a look, this time he will absolutely not have anything to do with her, even if the favorability degree is 100!

If you want to come to a woman like Hu Ying, it is impossible to have a good impression of one hundred.

"Big brother's background... Xiao Meng knows!"

Hu Xiaomeng felt that Li Yun might not want to say it, so he said in an innocent and lovely tone:

"Big brother is very good at cooking, he is a real expert, hidden in the city, very powerful!"

"Oh? That's really amazing." Zhao Tianfu showed a sarcasm, "but Xiaomeng, do you know? Generally speaking, what is hidden in the city is a liar word! You and Mr. Hu have to be more careful!"

Hu Lao's face was as usual, without the slightest sign.

"I have no background."

With a calm smile at the corner of Li Yun's mouth, "I was born in an orphanage, and there is no father or mother in my family. Grandpa raised me. Fortunately, I have obtained various opportunities to achieve today's small achievements."

"Born in an orphanage?"

"good!"

Hearing Li Yun's affirmative answer, and Mr. Hu did not refute, Zhao Tianfu was indeed a little surprised, but he was quickly dazzled by the anger in his heart.

"It's a joke that I am born in an orphanage and dare to claim to be an achievement!"

Zhao Tianfu turned his head and said to Hu Lao: "Hu Lao, please don't be fooled by such a villain. You can show off because of your own cooking skills. You are still playing a gun in front of Hu's house. !"

With that said, Hu Ying also felt that Li Yun was too ignorant of admiration, and came to her Hu's house to dare to be so presumptuous!

"My gun is just and honest." Li Yun said calmly!

"Frankly? Huh, another joke, you are an orphan, where did you come from...!"

At this moment, Li Yun's cell phone rang.

Old Hu glanced at his mobile phone screen, his eyes changed slightly, and interrupted Zhao Tianfu's words: "Shut up first, Li Yun will answer the phone now."

As soon as these words came out, everyone was shocked again!

Without mentioning Mr. Hu's attitude towards Zhao Tianfu, he said that he actually ordered Zhao Tianfu to shut up in order to get Li Yun to answer the phone. This is simply... hard to express in words and totally unreasonable!

Hu Ying was stunned. She really couldn't figure out why Grandpa would be so respectful to someone about her age!

Li Yun smiled at Hu Lao and connected the phone in front of them.

"Uncle Xia, what can I do for you?"

Chapter 1349: Discuss with Li Yun

Hu Xiaomeng blinked big eyes. She did not see the caller ID on the screen of Li Yun's phone, but judging from her grandfather's behavior, this Uncle Xia's background is not small.

"Uncle Xia... the surname is Xia, and the only one who can let Grandpa treat him in an official manner can only be the deputy commander of the army, Xia Ming!"

Hu Xiaomeng quickly found a suspicious candidate, and he should be the only one who could make Grandpa treat him like this!

Her grandfather sat in the same position as Xia Ming's current position. The Xia family and the forces on the side of the Xia family are slightly better than the Hu family. Now Xia Ming is a deputy, and will be in the position in the next five years. If there is no accident, you can continue to stay in the Xia family for more than 20 years!

Although the Hu family has a grandfather, if Hu Xiaomeng's parents can't go further while the grandfather is alive, the power of the Xia family will be reduced a lot. In the power field, if you don't enter, I will enter, and win a life-and-death relationship of interest.

"Who is he?"

After trying to understand the various stakes in the blink of an eye, Hu Xiaomeng's gaze at Li Yun became more and more curious.

What kind of power does she have, the big brother she knew from the street food stall, to call characters like Xia Ming as Uncle Xia!

"Li Yun, have you eaten yet?" Xia Ming estimated that he was in a good mood, and his tone of voice was smiling.

"Isn't this eating? Why, Uncle Xia still wants to come over and have a meal with me?"

"Hahaha, I would like to have a meal with you and introduce some people to you by the way. Unfortunately, you are now in Longyang County of Zhonghai City, but I work in the Foreign Exchange Department of Beijing. Can wait a few more days."

"Doing things? It seems that you are very busy, Uncle Xia." Li Yun smiled: "What can I do for you?"

Old Hu coughed and said, "Li Yun, pay attention to confidentiality."

Old Hu was really surprised.

Xia Mingming, a deputy commander of the general army, how did he go to the Foreign Exchange Department!

And listening to Xia Ming's tone, it seems that there is still something to discuss with Li Yun. Of course, the close relationship between Xia Ming and Li Yun makes Old Hu unpredictable. It seems that it is not easy for Xia Ming to introduce Li Yun to the people. .

"Confidentiality?"

The three people on the side were stunned. Hu Xiaomeng absolutely couldn't think of the fact that Li Yun's matters need to be kept secret!

Li Yun nodded to Mr. Hu, his hands are now oily, and he just used a tissue to press the voice when answering the phone.

"Uncle Xia, I am eating barbecue right now. Does what you want to say important?"

"Um... Are you at Hu's house? That was Mr. Hu just now? Oh, then it's okay, and it's not important. Sooner or later, these things need not be kept confidential. I will ask your opinion.

"Okay, just say it."

Xia Ming's words surprised everyone again. Even Hu Ying, who didn't know who the opposite Uncle Xia was, could see the unusual taste!

"That's it." Xia Ming cleared his throat: "Now I am having dinner with some people, and I am going to discuss the negotiation with the delegation of country M, about sharing some things in the suspended pagoda."

Li Yun said that he understood, but everyone else found it inexplicable. What is the strange name of the Hanging Pagoda that actually caused the envoy of country M to negotiate. It seems...the people of country M attach great importance to this matter? !

Zhao Tianfu's face changed. He thought of a very bad thing. He couldn't help looking at the cabin kitchen. His lips moved, but he finally didn't speak.

Chapter 1350: Important

"I just want to ask, do you think we should negotiate with people from country M? If we want to negotiate, then how many things will be traded, and how valuable things will be returned!"

Xia Mingming said: "This matter has not been decided yet, and the negotiations have not yet started. The people of country M are just a few small characters. The Lord has not come. If you say not to talk, then we will immediately drive the people of country M back. , They want to fight, then we fight!!!"

Xia Ming's tone was firm, revealing an invincible and indomitable majesty, stunned Hu Ying, Hu Xiaomeng and Zhou Chunyong.

Hearing what he meant, the negotiation between the two countries still involves a great war? ?

For such a big matter, Xia Ming actually said that there is no need to keep it secret. This is simply... madam amazing!

What's even more frightening is that it is a major event related to the war between the two countries and even the world war. Xia Ming actually said that Li Yun should decide whether to fight or not!

The most unbelievable thing is that the matter was discussed over the phone, and the two parties did not even meet in person!

"The world is going to change."

Old Hu's face was solemn, but he easily said such a big event from Xia Ming. It can be seen that there are other things that he does not know temporarily that have caused this change.

For a while, everyone at the barbecue party by the lake fell into deathly silence, and the scene was audible.

They were afraid that what they said would affect Li Yun's judgment and lead to a war between the two countries.

Even Old Hu's expression became serious.

Einstein once said: I don't know what weapons were used in the third world war, but people in the fourth world war will only use wooden sticks and stones to fight.

It can be seen from this that modern weapons have developed to the point where they can wipe out human civilization, which is far from comparable to that of the Second World War a few decades ago!

"Negotiating."

As soon as Li Yun said these words, even Xia Ming was relieved, not to mention everyone present.

"It's just that the things we traded are all leftovers, which can give them some inspiration, but we need to maintain our technological advantage!"

"certainly."

Xia Xia Ming laughed: "Technical advantage is definitely needed. We used to beg them before, but now it's finally time for them to beg us, hahaha!"

Due to various historical reasons, Huang Xuanguo's technological strength is generally weaker than that of foreign countries. Although it has caught up or even surpassed it in some aspects, there is still a certain gap in general.

Therefore, by exchanging practice techniques and some messy practice knowledge, in exchange for some key technologies, this is a great benefit to Huang Xuanguo!

Taking into account the importance of the relationship, it is normal for Xia Ming to go to the Foreign Exchange Department in person. Li Yun estimates that besides him, there are a bunch of professors and experts who specifically list the science and technology that Huang Xuanguo lacks, so that he can negotiate terms with the people of M at the negotiating table. .

Li Yun thought about it: "The negotiation should last a long time. Taking advantage of this world, Uncle Xia, you can categorize those books so that you can understand them in the congenital consummation realm, or the grandmaster realm."

Li Yun didn't want to find a few people who know spells to help, but the practitioners in the Six Demon Sects and the Hidden Sacred Valley, which one is not a person with high eyes?

Little maid Qingzhu? Holy Brahma? Concubine Wan Qing? And the previous Hou Baichen, Li Yun didn't need to call to ask, knowing that no one would be willing to help.
