

Godly Choice 151

Chapter 151: Go to investigate

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Go to investigate the abnormality of the stick, reward justice value +300, experience +50,000, all attributes +500, and reward random master skills.

Option 2: Ignore, no reward.

Option 3: Take the stick directly, reward justice value +500, experience +10000, all attributes +1000, reward random master-level escape skills! "

Looking at the options given by the system, Li Yun pondered for a moment.

This stick is very mysterious, but all fools know that if it is snatched rashly, it will cause the big forces behind to chase and kill it!

Li Yun decisively chose 1, but unfortunately, the system did not immediately reward him, and he needed to draw a certain conclusion before he could complete the task.

In the afternoon, Li Yun took a half-day leave. With his current grades, asking for leave is just a sentence, and the teacher is open to it.

The purpose of his request for leave was first to prepare for the evening, and second, to meet Qian Hu.

"Boss Li is good!!"

When Li Yun saw Qian Hu and the others, they had already put on a black suit, dressed up like a dog, but they looked like office workers.

It's just that the temperament on them is still the same as that of the punks.

Li Yun waved his hand, "It's too stupid to call the boss, you can call me the boss in the future."

"Yes, boss!" Qian Hu immediately changed his mouth, with a flattering smile on his face, making Li Yun speechless.

"Okay, what are you looking for with me today? The company's affairs are settled?"

"Not yet." Qian Hu was a little embarrassed, and said quickly: "But I have found a way, and today I want to introduce someone to the boss. If you can subdue him, the boss will definitely be a great help!"

"What to subdue? It's so ugly, like a gangster!"

"The boss taught me!"

"Who is he?"

"I told my boss last time that the master who taught me a few tricks has a mysterious origin, and his skills are also very powerful. He can be called a crouching dragon!"

Qian Hu highly praised, "Moreover, he is currently in a bad condition. If you go ahead with the boss, you will definitely be able to subdue it... No, let him serve the boss!"

Li Yun had some interest, and he didn't expect that there were such people in Longyang County.

"Lead the way!"

"Yes, boss! Please get in the car!"

Qian Hu's so-called please get in the car is a motorcycle.

A total of six people, a total of three old motorcycles, drove towards the south of the city.

Arriving in an old city, Qian Hu finally stopped in front of a dilapidated two-story building, after a lot of spare time.

It is close to the outer suburbs, and it is no different from the countryside. There are even a group of chickens and ducks in the front yard, and they scream when strangers come.

Li Yun frowned, there will be Wolong here? Nonsense!

"Who is it?"

Hearing someone coming, a woman screamed from the house, and then came out a five or six-year-old girl with two pigtails and a very cute baby with a fat face.

"Mom, it's a group of uncles you don't know!" The little girl's words caused a commotion in the door, as if her mother was very afraid of being disturbed.

Qian Hu yelled: "Sister-in-law, I am Qian Hu. Today I am looking for Brother Guo!"

After waiting for a long while, Li Yun saw a middle-aged woman come out. She was not ugly, with virtuous temperament, quite attractive, and a slim figure. Of course, she couldn't compare with Fang Xue and others.

The only thing that caught Li Yun's attention was that her expression looked as if she had been shocked, and the smile on her face was reluctant.

Chapter 152: Looking for Wolong

"Xiao Lan, let them come up!"

A man's slightly tired voice came from the second floor, and the middle-aged woman's expression became much calmer, leading Li Yun and several others upstairs.

There was a living room upstairs. Li Yun looked around. The furniture was quite old and the decoration was poor.

The man sitting on the sofa did not stand up to greet him, but just glanced at Qian Hu and motioned for them to sit down.

Qian Hu did not dare to sit, stood beside Li Yun, and respectfully introduced Li Yun:

"Boss, this is Guo Xun, Brother Guo, this is my boss, Li Yun!"

Li Yun nodded slightly, stretched out his hand at the middle-aged man, and said, "Hello."

Guo Xun did not stretch out his hand, glanced at him coldly, and said indifferently: "I don't want to know who you are, nor what purpose you and Qian Hu have. I don't even want to know you, so please do it yourself! "

After speaking, Guo Xun closed his eyes and leaned on the sofa without saying a word.

No, it's not so much leaning on the sofa as it is slumping on the sofa.

Li Yun looked at him. Guo Xun's mental state was very poor. He was wearing short-sleeved shorts, not as if he was going to work—his wife took care of all the work at home.

"You are very arrogant, dare to speak to our boss like this! I think you are impatient!" Several of Qian Hu's men were immediately furious, and Li Yun waved his hand to signal them to retreat.

Qian Hu hurriedly finished the round, praised Li Yun for being awesome, and also hinted that Li Yun had a lot of money. He hoped that Guo Xun would think about it and come out to help Yunyun.

Guo Xun was silent, opened his eyes and looked at Li Yun, thinking for a long time, and then slowly shook his head.

"No, let's go!"

Qian Hu was dumbfounded, so please don't move?

"Damn, Brother Tiger, I don't think this guy has any abilities? Why bother to be so angry, let's go!"

"I think so, this guy seems to go to prostitution all day, causing his body to be hollowed out!"

"Hehe, shameless to face, what is it?!"

Li Yun frowned slightly after hearing the words of a few people, but didn't say anything.

Turning her head and glanced at the door, the little girl was looking over curiously, and after facing Li Yun's eyes, she shyly hid again.

Guo Xun's wife, Xiao Lan, walked in and apologized to Li Yun, saying that her husband did not want to serve anyone, and only wanted to live a stable life.

"A stable life?"

Li Yun nodded secretly. It seems that Guo Xun did have some experience, but since he didn't want to go out, Li Yun didn't force it.

Just about to stand up, the system prompt came.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Give up recruiting Guo Xun as a subordinate, reward experience +5000, random gift bag*3, wisdom +50.

Option 2: Do everything possible to recruit Guo Xun as his subordinates, reward experience +10000, random blue gift bag*3, wisdom +100, spirit +100, reward skills: advanced talent management, additional reward for a small recovery Dan After letting Guo Xun take it, he will gain a certain degree of loyalty (after he healed his hidden wounds, he will gain all the loyalty of Guo Xun!).

Note: After recruiting Guo Xun, the host has a chance to be angered by his enemies. "

Li Yun frowned slightly, the system gave him a difficult choice this time!

What is certain is that Guo Xun possesses good abilities, but it is also a time bomb at the same time. He may kill his enemies anytime!

In addition, Guo Xun's skill should be good, but he was seriously injured, and currently has no combat effectiveness.

Chapter 153: Conquer Guo Xun

The small recovery pill given by the system can only restore a part of Guo Xun's strength. Li Yun estimated that he would have to open a purple gift, such as the real recovery pill, to completely heal Guo Xun!

Do you want to find a way to recruit Guo Xun?

"Brother, brother!"

When Li Yun was thinking, Guo Xun's daughter, the five or six-year-old girl, took out an orange, shyly handed it to him, and whispered: "Brother, don't embarrass Dad, okay?"

Li Yun was stunned. The shy little girl in front of him reminded him of plucking when he was a child, and the softness in his heart was severely touched.

Forget it, it's not his style to be fearful, isn't it about recruiting men?

Li Yun made up his mind. After touching the little girl's head, he turned his head and said to Guo Xun, "You plan to sink like this forever?"

Guo Xun was silent.

"I know your origins are not simple, and I know you have the ability." Li Yun said with a flat expression and a sarcasm: "But you look at your home? Look at your daughter again!"

The little girl was a little frightened, and hid behind her mother.

Li Yun shook his head helplessly, "No matter how good you are, that's what happened in the past. Now you are penniless? Your daughter is going to elementary school soon, and will go to junior high school or high school in the future. What will you do to support your daughter? ?"

Guo Xun clenched his fists, his eyes revealed a deep look of helplessness.

The phoenix is plucked, and it is no different from a pheasant.

"Think about it." Li Yun said lightly, "I pay you 20,000 yuan a month. You help me protect my family. In addition, help Qian Hu do some things for me, mainly to teach them. You don't need you. Do it yourself! And, I promise that I will act absolutely decent, and will never do harm to the world, let alone illegal things!"

Although Qian Hu was full of enthusiasm and wanted to do a career with Li Yun, he couldn't change the fact that he was a gangster. If Li Yun counted on him, he would probably be unable to do anything!

"Twenty thousand?" The little girl cocked her hand and indexed twenty thousand. Her mother looked panicked and hurriedly stepped forward and grabbed her husband's hand. "Husband, no! Let's live in peace, okay?"

She knows the character of her husband, and being silent means that he already has the idea of coming out again!

Li Yun didn't speak, waiting for Guo Xun to make a decision, let alone anything that could cure him!

"it is good!"

In the end, Guo Xun agreed, and after comfortingly shook his wife's hand, he stood up and bowed slightly to Li Yun, shouting: "Boss, I will do it with you from now on!"

Li Yun smiled and nodded, "I believe that when you think about it in the future, you will be lucky to have followed me."

"Ding, the host has made a choice, and the reward (experience +10000, random blue gift bag*3, wisdom +100, spirit +100, reward skills: advanced talent management, an additional reward of small recovery Dan) has been issued!"

Li Yun was quite satisfied. He now has 65,000 points of experience, three green gift bags and three blue gift bags.

"I hope so." Guo Xun sighed helplessly. He could see that Li Yun was able to subdue Qian Hu, and he was probably ambitious.

"Don't worry, I can be the boss, so naturally I have some abilities!"

Li Yun pretended to find a pill in his pocket, but actually took out the small recovery pill from the inventory.

"Guo Xun, do you believe there is a genius doctor in the world?"

Chapter 154: Guo Xun regained his confidence

"Genius doctor?" Guo Xun looked at the pill in Li Yun's hand in confusion.

"good."

Li Yun's expression was indifferent, and he handed him the small recovery pill: "The magical pill that can heal your dark wounds. If you trust me, you can take it!"

Guo Xun took the pill and put it in his hand and looked back and forth for a long time, but he couldn't find anything abnormal.

"I don't have much value to deceive now!"

With a wry smile, he directly put the pill into his mouth.

Suddenly, a gentle force spread across his limbs, slowly repairing the severely damaged veins, allowing Guo Xun to recover some of his former strength.

When the effect of the pill was over, Guo Xun had not been able to recover except for the most important dantian, and the rest was actually destroyed, and his strength had recovered at least 30%!

"this is.....!?"

Guo Xun clenched his fists, feeling the strength of the body's recovery again, and was so excited that he couldn't help but screamed and slammed his fist against the table.

"boom!"

The glass table suddenly exploded to shreds, just like being blasted by a grenade at close range, the debris was flying, but Guo Xun had already controlled the direction of his strength and did not hurt anyone.

"Dad, daddy?" The little girl widened her eyes, not knowing whether she should be afraid or happy.

"Okay! That's great!"

Guo Xun was completely renewed, excitedly picked up his daughter and kissed fiercely, "Dad, I'm recovering again, and I will never let Xiao Xi suffer again in the future, my father promises!!"

What he said was extremely firm, which made his wife feel very complicated.

Her husband's face was red at the moment, and it was the best moment of energy and energy she had seen in the past few years.

This made her understand in her heart that her husband's heart has never been settled, just like a lion, even if it is licking its wound, it still waits for an opportunity!

Youyou sighed, "Husband, we have no tables."

"Uh?"

"Hahaha, it's okay!" Li Yun yelled at Qianhu, "Give Guo Xun an advance of 20,000 yuan. Didn't I spend all the money I gave you?"

"No, of course not!"

Qian Hu smiled wryly, feeling a bit complicated.

He knew that he was inadequate, so he had no choice but to introduce Guo Xun. I'm afraid it won't be long before his position in Li Yun's mind will be under Guo Xun's!

"Thank you boss!"

Guo Xun walked over and bowed deeply to Li Yun, and said respectfully: "The boss's great kindness, Guo Xun is unforgettable. From now on, as long as the boss tells me to do something that is not illegal, I will definitely do it!"

Li Yun smiled, "Don't say such things, you still have a wife and children, do you think they worry about you? Don't worry, it's all simple things."

Guo Xun nodded and asked his wife to make a pot of good tea. Li Yun also let Qian Hu's hands go and let them go, leaving only three of them in the living room.

Qian Hu was very excited, and being able to stay means that Li Yun already believed him!

"Guo Xun, have you heard of Feihumen?" Li Yun asked tentatively.

"Flying Humen in Zhonghai City?"

Guo Xun frowned slightly, "I understand a little bit, it belongs to the second-rate sect of Jianghu, there are eight masters of the innate stage, and the head is the real person of the nine tigers, and the strength of the later stage of the innate cultivation is extraordinary!"

Li Yun was very surprised, Guo Xun actually knew so much insider? It seems that the monthly spending of 20,000 yuan is really worth it!

"The boss has a conflict with them?"

"That's right, I tried to teach a deacon in Feihumen."

Li Yun briefly explained what Zhou Tian used. When he heard that Li Yun was teaching Zhou Tian used in the casino, Guo Xun secretly relieved. Fortunately, his new boss is not involved in ordinary vendettas, otherwise it will be troublesome. NS.

Chapter 155: sneak into

The more Qian Hu listened, the more frustrated he was. He couldn't put his mouth in what Li Yun and Guo Xun were talking about, sitting like a fool.

In the end, Qian Hu could only retire and go through the formalities of starting the company.

If he stays any longer, it seems that he is useless, it is better to do things!

After he left, Li Yun asked curiously, "Guo Xun, how did you know Qian Hu?"

"My wife and I went out to set up a night stand and were harassed by a few gangsters. It was Qian Hu who helped a little bit at the time, and then I taught him a few tricks."

Guo Xun's expression was rather helpless, Hu Luo Pingyang was bullied by a dog, and he was threatened by a gangster!

Li Yun nodded and asked in a casual tone: "I don't know what Guo Xun is capable of? Fighting, or collecting intelligence or something?"

This sentence is a disguised question of Guo Xun's past, and Li Yun dare not fully believe him to those who do not know the foundation.

Guo Xun also knew what Li Yun meant, he hesitated, and said cheerfully:

"Actually, there is nothing bad to say. I used to be a mercenary abroad, and I was quite good at firearms. Of course, I have done a lot of other things."

"Mercenary? It looks like Brother Guo was pretty good before!"

Li Yun sighed, but he didn't agree with it in his heart.

The mercenaries are desperadoes, but Guo Xun is unwilling to do illegal and criminal things. Obviously, his status as a mercenary is true, but secretly there are some other hidden things.

Li Yun didn't ask much, chatting with him casually, and indirectly learned a lot about acquired, congenital, and martial arts.

Guo Xun was a little surprised. His new boss should be good at it, but he doesn't know about these cultivators, or about the martial arts in Jianghu, so where did he come from?

Moreover, Li Yun also possesses a pill that can heal his hidden wounds. Although it is not a cure, it is still shocking!

In the evening, Li Yun left after eating a meal at Guo Xun's house and went to the market to buy some things.

He planned to enter the casino alone. Although Guo Xun was trustworthy, Li Yun still did not disclose his actions to him.

"Master-level sneaking skills are really strong!"

Li Yun took a picture in the mirror with satisfaction. He used some purchased cosmetics to completely hide his true appearance. The effect is called PS technology, and there is no trace of falsehood.

Master-level sneaking skills include disguising makeup, sneaking, tracking, hiding and other techniques. With this skill, Li Yun's concealment is greatly improved!

Even better, it also contains some camouflage techniques.

For example, now.

"stop!"

Li Yun came to the door of Xueji Casino again, and was stopped by two thugs and asked, "Who is your kid?"

"That, brother!" Li Yun pretended to be a little scared, but he was eager to go in and play cards, "I was introduced by Lao Huang and said that there are things to play here, so just..."

"Old Huang?"

The two thugs looked at each other. They didn't know who Lao Huang was, but there were too many people called this name. Li Yun's behavior was normal, so he didn't ask much, waved his hand and said impatiently: "Go in, play cards. Just play cards, don't make trouble, be careful I beat you!"

"yes, Sir!"

It's quite easy to sneak in.

Walking through the front yard of the quadrangle and entering the back yard, the field of vision suddenly opened up a lot.

The yard was blocked with a large shade cloth. The house and the yard were all filled with tables. Forty or fifty people were gambling and playing cards and mahjong, betting big and small, baccarat, stud, twenty-one. Wait.

Chapter 156: Crazy gambler

There are also a few slot machines on the walls of the corridor, and many idle youths from society are yelling around there.

Everything is normal.

Although Li Yun came to the casino for the first time, he knew that there was nothing unusual here, and he had to enter the lobby to take a look.

"Give me thirty chips."

Li Yun didn't rush in. It looked too eye-catching. He took out three hundred yuan to change his chips, found a table to sit down, and played stud with three people.

Unexpectedly, luck was good. The bargaining chip in his hand changed from 30 to 300, and then quickly became 600, winning 6,000 yuan.

"I won again!"

Li Yun smiled, drew all the more than one million chips in the middle in front of him, and looked at the other three with a little triumph.

"Grass, I'm lucky enough today, I'll change to another three hundred!"

"Give me a hundred too, and I'll be on the bar with you tonight!"

The trio started again cursing, but Li Yun suddenly noticed that the dealer on the left nodded, his heart moved, and the excitement dissipated.

Next, Li Yun lost one after another, and hundreds of chips returned to them.

At this time, Li Yun finally woke up, it turned out that he was caught in the trap!

This table of people is obviously a good one, deliberately pitting newcomers.

First give Li Yun a bit of sweetness, and then let him taste the taste of failure. After repeated several times, the average gambler will fall into a state of manic restlessness, and there is nothing else in his mind except gambling.

At that time, it will not be one thousand two thousand, but one thousand and twenty thousand bets, and the family will be ruined in the end, and the wives will be scattered!

Therefore, this is the truth that every gambling will lose!

A smile appeared at the corner of Li Yun's mouth. After winning three thousand yuan, he decisively closed his hand, replaced the chips with a larger amount, and left the gaming table.

"Grass, this kid doesn't know each other!"

"Hey, it's okay, he has tasted the taste of winning, and he will come tomorrow night!"

After Li Yun left the table, relying on his super hearing ability, he heard the three people talking about him just now.

"Huh." Li Yun was very upset, and decided to call the police to completely destroy this place after the investigation was completed!

After playing a few more randomly and losing all his chips, Li Yun finally walked into the hall.

There are a few more advanced gaming tables inside, and there are some wealthy people sitting there, and directly opposite the door is the table with the statue of Guan Gong.

"Grass, it's lost again!"

Li Yun pretended to be busy, and after walking in, he came to the statue of Guan Gong and worshipped him three times.

Guan Gong is the incarnation of the patron saint and the **** of wealth, and is enshrined in many shops.

While worshipping, Li Yun secretly observed the surroundings, and could vaguely see the stick wrapped in black cloth, but there was no abnormality other than that.

"Hey, kid!"

A capable thug came over, pushed Li Yun irritably, and shouted: "Get out of here when you are done, don't stay here!"

"Yes, okay, brother, I'm leaving now!"

Li Yun pretended to nod and bow his waist. This thug was the person in the video who followed Xue Ji to put the stick at night. He should now take care of the duty of guarding the stick.

This made Li Yun more and more puzzled, what exactly is the stick that Zhou Tianyong brought is hidden here!

"Call, I press three million!!!"

Just as Li Yun was about to leave, someone yelled at a card table in the hall, his tone was hysterical, revealing a sense of madness!

Li Yun turned his head in astonishment and found that the person calling was a fat middle-aged man.

Chapter 157: Vomit blood and die

The fat man dressed up like a boss, but in the weather at the end of February, he unbuttoned his jacket. He was sweating profusely, his face was twisted, his forehead was full of sweat, his eyes were blood-red, and he stared at Xue Ji on the opposite side.

"Boss Wu." Xue Ji lighted a cigarette and said leisurely: "I think it will stop here tonight. You have lost 300,000. It seems that you are out of luck tonight. You can't bet anymore. Use it, I can't get back to it!"

"Stop the **** nonsense!" Boss Wu slapped the table fiercely, yelling frantically: "I'm going to beat three million, this time I will win, dare you dare to follow!"

"Three million? Huh, boss Wu, do you have that much money?"

"I still have a few shops at Dongjiekou, all of them are pressed, is that enough?!"

Boss Wu's fat face was covered with greasy sweat, and he looked at Xue Ji stubbornly.

"Okay, that's what you said!" Xue Ji flashed a fierce color in his eyes, squeezed out the cigarette, and shouted: "Your store is trading three million chips, are you sure?!"

"Nonsense, change it for me!!"

"Hehe, I hope you don't regret it! Show your cards!"

The match between the two attracted a lot of people to watch, and everyone stared at both sides to show the cards.

"Huh, my hole card is an ace!" Boss Wu proudly flipped the hole card and threw it on the table, with an expression that I had already won.

"Right A?"

Li Yun frowned slightly and looked at Xue Ji's hand. There were no pairs, all clubs. In other words, there is a one-fourth probability of being a flush and winning boss Wu.

"Will it be a flush?"

Such questions flashed in everyone's mind, and Xue Jizhi smiled with a sure-going smile, and slowly revealed his trump card.

"Plum 4." Xue Ji smiled after showing his hole cards in front of everyone, "I'm sorry, I won!"

"It's a plum blossom!"

"Flush is bigger than A, hehe, boss Wu lost three million!"

"Awesome, I thought Boss Xue was pretending to be calm, but I didn't expect to be a flush!"

Li Yun looked at Boss Wu, his face changed drastically, his body trembling, and finally he yelled, "This is impossible!" 'And then fainted.

"Huh, pretending to be dizzy?" Xue Ji sneered and motioned to the thugs to wake up boss Wu. No matter what, he was about to set the three million!

Li Yun shook his head and walked out. Gambling made people crazy, and the bankruptcy was the next minute. He had never heard of anyone who made a fortune by gambling.

Even if you win money occasionally, you lose quickly, and only the dealer wins.

"Dead, dead?!"

Just as Li Yun stepped out of the threshold, the thugs shouted in panic, "Boss, Boss Wu seems...dead!"

The restlessness in the hall instantly cooled down, and a chill came from the soles of everyone's feet, chilling.

"died?"

"Just died like this?"

"Impossible! How can people die in such a simple way?"

Li Yun frowned deeply and watched at the door as Xue Ji and others shook Boss Wu vigorously, but received no response.

Boss Wu's lips were white, his pupils were dilated, and his breathing stopped. Xue Ji touched his heart without the slightest beating.

"God, it's really dead!"

Everyone rushed away, for fear that they might get some bad luck.

Before Li Yun left, he glanced at the stick behind Guan Gong's portrait. Coincidence? Or is there another reason?

After the death incident, Li Yun saw from the surveillance that the casino only stopped for one night and reopened the next afternoon. He was incredibly courageous.

Chapter 158: Xue Ji also vomited blood

But it's no wonder that a gambler dies at a gaming table, most likely because the heart can't stand the stimulation. Boss Wu's family is afraid of Xue Ji's revenge and dare not go into it.

It's just that people die like ashes, and Xue Ji can't get the three million store.

So on the second night, Li Yun came to this courtyard again after changing his makeup.

The noise in the quadrangle was still there, as if the death of the dead hadn't happened yesterday, Xue Ji was still playing stud with people in the hall, and the rest of them all played their own games.

Li Yun sighed secretly, the thinness of human nature can be described as vivid and vivid here!

This casino must be eradicated!

"Hey, brother, are you here again tonight?"

Li Yun wandered around in the casino, and the person playing cards with him came to say hello last night. Li Yun smiled and ignored the group of people.

After spending a hundred yuan to exchange a few chips, Li Yun came to the slot machine and played for a full hour before leaving with a hundred chips.

Well, yes, the reason why his luck is so good is because Li Yun secretly controlled this slot machine!

This machine is the same as the previous lottery machine in the game hall. It is controlled by a computer. Once someone bets that they can win more than 100,000 yuan, they will never win the prize!

Moreover, once you win more than 50,000 yuan, the next one will inevitably lose!

What's more cheating is that Li Yun also saw that the control program in the background has adjusted the probability of winning. It is estimated that Xue Ji will arrange some support from time to time to attract hundreds of thousands of gamblers to follow suit.

It can be said that the entire casino is full of traps. Once ordinary people come in, there is absolutely no way to get rid of it without losing everything!

"Grass!"

There was a scream in the hall, and Li Yun frowned. He came here for an hour, but three people had already lost everything. The first two were dragged out by the thugs, and the remaining one left his eyes blank when he left. It's similar to the walking dead.

Li Yun walked into the hall calmly, and after taking a look at the statue of Guan Gong, the stick was still there, nothing unusual, but Li Yun seemed to feel an invisible and strange aura.

"I don't believe me, I can't win today!?"

The man who lost everything was the exact opposite of Boss Wu yesterday. He was less than 30 years old, but he was thin and skinny with deep sunken eye sockets, just like an old lady who was about to die.

His thin face was full of excitement, he took out a car key, slapped it on the table fiercely, and shouted: "BMW 7 Series, twin turbocharged 530 horsepower, market price 1.8 million, I Just press 1 million and bet again!"

Xue Ji smiled triumphantly. He didn't know what was going on tonight. There were four people who were willing to press the family's assets. He won four million in less than two hours, which is a huge profit!

If he can win so many every night, his casino will surely grow rapidly, and he might be able to enter Zhonghai City by then and become the overlord of Zhonghai City's underground world!

Thinking of this, Xue Ji's eyes became frenzied, and he shouted: "Gamble, come, deal!"

What the two bet is a simple bet, and this time, it was the thin man who won.

"Ha ha ha ha!"

The man laughed wildly, Xue Ji's face changed uncertainly, he only felt a sulky gas in his chest, which made him finally couldn't help but "poof", opened his mouth and spouted a mouthful of blood, which stained the entire table red!

"Boss!"

"Boss Xue, are you okay?"

"Boss, hold on!"

Chapter 159: All crazy

Everyone was in a mess, and Li Yun was shocked, could it be that he was going to die again?

Fortunately, Xue Ji stabilized and gritted his teeth and said: "Come on! Don't just leave if you win, it's not that cheap!"

The thin man glanced at the surrounding thugs, and had to sit down in a daze and continue to play against Xue Ji.

"No, it's not right!"

Li Yun finally woke up.

Xue Ji won several million tonight, and he is the owner of a casino. It stands to reason that his psychological quality is not that bad. How could he vomit blood after losing one million?

If so fragile, Xue Ji would never have survived until now. He would vomit to death by vomiting blood!

"Could it be that stick...?" Li Yun looked at the stick with a serious gaze. If a dead person appears again, then this mysterious stick can no longer keep it anyway!

"Hahaha, good! I won this time!"

The two continued to bet against each other, almost crazy.

"Grass, lost again! Come again!"

"You are paralyzed, are you cheating?"

Li Yun watched for less than five minutes. Xue Ji and the thin man had won and lost several times, causing their emotions to become more and more excited. The two of them were flushed with thick necks, sweating profusely, their eyes widened, and their pupils were full. It was bloodshot, and looked like he would die at any time.

The final result was shocking. Xue Ji and the thin man, the winner fainted with excitement, and the loser yelled, vomiting blood, and fainted too!

When the matter reached this point, everyone could feel that there was a problem, but Li Yun was surprised to find that everyone in the hall was not affected. They continued to play cards frantically, shaking with excitement, as if they were a group of people fighting on the battlefield. The death squad, if you don't fight to death, you will never end!

In the end, after five more people became unconscious, the passion of everyone slowly cooled down, and they left here one by one, looking a little panicked.

On the third night, he came here again with makeup.

"This....."

Seeing the scene of people coming and going in the casino, even more lively than yesterday, Li Yun's bad premonition became stronger and stronger.

Seven or eight people were fainted last night, and I didn't expect these people to come here tonight without fear of death!

Are you crazy?

"I bet two thousand!"

"Call, twenty thousand!"

"Give me five thousand chips!"

"Today I was so lucky, who the ***** would dare to bet with me!? Hahaha!"

Li Yun frowned deeply. This kind of enthusiasm was no longer in the hall tonight, and even the people in the courtyard were affected. The entire courtyard was plunged into a manic, hot, and crazy atmosphere.

Moreover, Zhou Tianyong also came today, and there was a middle-aged man next to him, and Li Yun vaguely heard him calling him as Elder Shen.

"puff!"

In the hall, another person spurted blood and fell to the ground because of excitement. Zhou Tian's expression changed, and the elder Shen also showed a look of uncertainty.

Li Yun was a little surprised, don't they know the role of the stick?

Is this stick playing tricks?

"Xue Ji, stay calm, don't be affected!"

With strong hearing, Li Yun heard the conversation of the three of them. Xue Ji did not participate in the card game today. His face was pale, as if he had recovered from a serious illness.

Li Yun took a deep breath. Tonight, no matter what, he must find a way to get rid of this stick, and let it go, I am afraid that something big will happen!

"I won, I won, hahaha, I finally won!"

Accompanied by a frantic cry, a man went mad because he was too excited to win money, then he was dragged out by a thug and threw it out the door.

"What are you doing?!"

Chapter 160: Heroine debut

Just as the two thugs threw the crazy man out of the door, Li Yun heard a girl's voice that was crisp and sweet, with a stern questioning.

"What are you doing?!"

"where is this place?"

"Why treat this person like this? Are you bad guys?"

"Say! Tell me obediently, this heroine can spare you your life!"

Hearing the other party claiming to be a female hero, Zhou Tianyong and Elder Shen's expressions immediately became gloomy, as if they knew who the person was.

"Grass, do you little girl know where this is?"

"Hey hey, brother, don't rush her away, look at this little girl, she's really well developed, her lordosis is raised, her figure is probably D? It's big, hey!"

"I, Cao, it's true to hear you say that, I think at least there is E!"

The two gangsters on duty at the door joked and laughed. Then, Li Yun heard a scream. With the sound of ping-pong and screaming, the two thugs had already been taught by the big-breasted female fighters. Again!

"Someone is making trouble!"

"Get out and have a look!"

More than 20 thugs swarmed out, but none of them were the opponents of the well-developed female fighter. After a few efforts, all thugs had fallen to the ground and screamed.

"Huh! Grandma is right. The outside world is a mixed bag, full of sluts, big horns!"

"It turns out that you are a gambling shop here. No wonder it's so smoggy. Grandma my aunt is going to help the sky today and get rid of you here!"

The crisp girl's voice was getting closer and closer, and soon Li Yun saw a beautiful heroine walk in.

She is about fifteen or sixteen years old, holding a sword, is about 165 in height, wearing a tight-fitting apricot yellow ancient dress, with a jade pendant around her waist, and soft embroidered shoes at her feet. The smooth black single ponytail follows her rapid pace. It was swayed, and it was particularly eye-catching.

When she approached, Li Yun could see her appearance clearly.

The delicate face of Guazi is slightly childish, and the skin is fair and smooth, but what attracts the most attention is her well-developed figure.

Even wearing a thick ancient dress, people can still tell at a glance that the female hero is at least D above!

Have proud capital!

"Okay, awesome!"

The gamblers all around stared wide-eyed and stared at the front of the heroine without blinking. The squinting appearance was almost drooling.

Such a girl with a hot body and a slightly childish face is the most able to stir up the evil guy in a man's heart.

"Humph!"

The stunned woman snorted in annoyance, glared at the people around her, and exclaimed: "What are you looking at? Be careful, I dug out your eyes, a bunch of gangsters!"

Li Yun was a little embarrassed, his eyes were also attracted by the heroine, and the figure wrapped in strict clothes was really irritating.

Everyone quickly turned their heads, judging from the sword in the heroine's hand, she was definitely not easy to mess with!

"From Feihumen, get out for grandma!"

The woman screamed, the sword in her hand came out of its sheath, and the tip of the sword pointed straight into the hall, "I know you are inside, get out of me immediately, otherwise don't blame me for being polite!"

Li Yun, who was in the crowd, nodded secretly. It turned out that she was here for Feihumen. Could it be that she was looking for that stick?

Zhou Tian walked out with three gloomy faces, and Xue Ji's face turned pale again.

In less than a week, his territory was turned upside down by two groups of people. Who can stand it?
