Chapter 16: Ding, the income is 100,000

The explosive words of the English teacher blew everyone up and down again, and the people on the three floors inside and outside made a sensation.

"I'm Cao?! Really? I got a perfect score, English score? Is this still a human?"

"I can only say one word: Niubi (broken tone)!!!"

"666, brother pretended to be so compelling!"

"The ancients said, in the second half of high school, the dragons and snakes rise to the ground, the people are murderous, the world is repeated, there will be geniuses in large numbers, the ancients will not deceive me~!"

"Let me translate it: in the second half of the third semester of high school, awesome people are really going to be awesome!"

"I'm Cao, it seems that with my hard work, I still hope to take a test?"

"I am a salted fish, so I can only call 666!"

Everyone looked at Li Yun with admiration or admiration.

Few people think that Li Yun is plagiarism. After all, English composition can't be copied. The full score is definitely true!

"It seems that I won."

Looking at Zhou Xianming with a pale face, Li Yun smiled faintly, and did not urge the other party to pay a bet. He was anxious that Zhou Xianming would repay the bill so that the system could collect the money!

Li Feng glanced at the dean of teaching, his expression was very wonderful, the previous pride and contempt for Li Yun, now only the appearance of anger and shame, gritted teeth, looking like he wants to kill.

The teachers in the experimental class looked at each other, and they never thought that the students they taught actually lost to Li Yun.

"Congratulations, Li Yun!"

Fang Xue stood up and looked at Li Yun with a smile: "I don't think your grades are so good. Did you hide your strength before? Or did you catch up during the winter vacation?"

Either way, it means that Li Yun is extremely good, enough to be worthy of her (self-appointed), the lady of heaven.

"Xiaoxue!"

Zhou Xianming's face turned pale again. Not only did he lose the gambling game, he also made a fool of himself in front of Fang Xue. Today is a shame!

"Ahem."

The dean's expression returned to calm, and he said faintly: "Let's end the competition. Li Yun, you conceal your strength and bet with Zhou Xianming. Although you won, you are not very glorious.

Okay, everyone is gone! "

After all, he waved his hand at the surrounding classmates, completely ignoring the boos of those around him.

Xie Kang's theory is simply nonsense!

"I only know one thing, I would like to lose the bet." Fang Xue didn't look at Zhou Xianming, and said directly - she felt that she would spit out disgustingly when she looked at him again.

"What are you all gathering here for?!"

A majestic voice sounded, and there was a commotion in the crowd to make way for an old man in his sixties.

"Good day, grandpa principal."

Fang Xue approached intimately and took the old man's arm. Li Yun was a little surprised. He couldn't think that Fang Xue had such a good relationship with the principal.

"So it is!"

After learning what happened from Fang Xue, the principal gave a cold look at the dean of teaching: "Dr Xie, when did I agree to open the test paper? What a mess!"

"School. The principal, me, that..."

"Don't explain, you will explain to the teachers and students of the school when the meeting is held on Monday!"

Xie Kang shrank from being scolded, and the embarrassing expression on his face made everyone look very funny.

When the matter is here, it is basically over.

Zhou Xianming asked Li Yun's bank account with a gloomy face, and then left without saying a word.

After waiting for a while, Li Yun's cell phone rang.

"Account *9600 will deposit 100,000 yuan at 20:51 on September 25, the available balance....."

"This guy is really rich."

Li Yun blew a whistle, without much excitement in his heart.

His self-confidence has been established, and in the future he will have countless hundreds of thousands, millions, or even tens of millions!

Li Yun firmly believes that he can do it!
