Chapter 17: Fang Xue's thoughts

After Fang Xue confirmed that Li Yun received Zhou Xianming's money, her happy eyes narrowed. She knew that Li Yun's family was a bit poor and could get one hundred thousand yuan. If you fall in love with her in the future and go on a date together, don't worry. He has no money.

I have to say that Li Yun first helped Fang Xue with gentleness, and then showed his charm and strength. In just one afternoon, this cold school freshman had a deep affection for him.

"Zhou Xianming really gave 100,000 yuan?"

Seeing the information on Li Yun's phone, Li Feng covered her mouth in disbelief. The 100,000 yuan is too important to them!

With so much money, her brother does not have to work so hard, and she does not need to distribute flyers on weekends, and a family of four can lead a normal life.

"Don't worry." Fang Xue comforted: "Zhou Xianming has money in his family, and 100,000 yuan is nothing to him. Of course, he will inevitably be scolded by his father when he returns home."

After a pause, Fang Xue said confidently: "But with me, don't worry!"

With the gambling that she personally witnessed, forgive Zhou Xianming not to regret it!

Li Yun smiled slightly and Fang Xue expressed his gratitude, saying that she would invite her to dinner if she had time. Fang Xue immediately opened her eyes and smiled, and made an appointment with Li Yun, and went there when she was free on the weekend.

Li Feng's expression became more weird, and this Fang Xue... seemed really interesting to her brother?

"Sister, let's go home!"

"Huh~, go back and clean up you! I got full marks without saying a word, and kept your old sister from me!"

Li Fengjiao snorted, and after bidding farewell to Fang Xue, he reached out and dragged Li Yun home.

"One hundred thousand..."

Zhang Dong, who was onlookers in the crowd, looked at the back of Li Yun leaving, a greedy look flashed in his eyes, and he took out his mobile phone to contact those elder brothers who were mixed with society.

"I've never seen so much money, hehe!"

When I get Li Yun's money, he can eat meat, and he can also mix it with soup!

Li Yun didn't rush to buy vegetables, but took Li Feng's hand to the bank and transferred 50,000 yuan to her bank card in front of her.

"Sister, you take the money."

Li Yun turned his head and smiled at her, "You are a housewife. You should spend this money on grocery shopping or buying some daily necessities. Of course, don't save too much. Buy some clothes you like, and I will make money for your brother in the future. more money!"

His firm tone made Li Feng's heart tremble, and the beautiful eyes that looked at Li Yun were full of touch.

"Li Yun~"

Li Feng called his name directly, with a shy face, looked left and right, stood on tiptoe and quickly printed a lip mark on his face, and said softly in his ear: "About you and Fang Xue, My sister has no objection~, hehe~"

Li Yun's heart was shaken, and his face was innocent and said: "What are you talking about, Fang Xue and I have nothing. I only met her at noon!"

"Humph!"

Li Feng twisted a hand on his waist, both as a woman, how could she not see Fang Xue's meaning?

Back home, the two did not tell the twin sisters about the bet, but Li Feng gave the sisters 1,000 yuan each to buy their favorite things, spring clothes, or mobile phones.

Caixia and Caiwei are very happy. Their sister has money to give them, which means that the family's economy will gradually become more abundant and the future life will gradually improve.

After dinner, Li Yun rode Caiwei's bicycle to the place where he worked not far away.

He plans to quit his job tonight and say thank you to his boss.
