

Godly Choice 1721

Chapter 1721: Six Word Proverbs

"I remembered?"

The more Li Yun smiled, the more ugly the face of the thousand soul ancestor opposite, he did think of something!

Before, Li Yun had been chasing him with the Leap Fire God Sword, and the addition of the Golden Dragon Sword, which caused the thousand souls ancestors to forget that the last time he played against him, Li Yun once...

"Since I think of it, open my ears and listen carefully. It just so happens that I have become more proficient in this trick recently!"

Li Yun's face was calm, and after taking a deep breath, in the horrified eyes of the thousand souls ancestor, he opened his mouth and shouted:

"Om (ōng)! Ma (ma)! It (nī)!"

The mighty voice of the righteous way suddenly sounded, and the sound spread for ten miles, deafening, and the people who were disturbed by the screams of the wrong souls were all shocked, and they looked at the sky above the sky like a * in disbelief!

"Amitabha!!"

Venerable Da Ri, who closed his eyes and meditated, suddenly opened his eyes, and his turbid eyes burst out with a burst of light. He looked at Li Yun in the sky with a very excited expression: "Li Shizhu said that he did not understand Buddhism, but actually He and my Buddha have the same root and the same origin, and he is born with Dharma, and he is practicing the Buddha's teachings in his words and deeds. Okay, that's great!"

Poor Li Yun only used the six-character Buddhist mantra to use the Buddha's six-character proverb to use the Dragon's roar skill, without considering that there was another old monk who was staring at him at the scene!

However, the roar of Qinglong + Buddhist motto seems to have a real bonus. The combination of the two makes Li Yun's loud shout even more righteous. After only three loud shouts, the souls who escaped from the corpse got rid of the thousand souls ancestors one by one. The control slowly dissipated, and completely disappeared between heaven and earth.

I don't know whether it was the soul flying away, or flying into the underworld, reincarnation.

"Okay, so handsome~~~ Sister Fengfeng, Brother Yun is so handsome!"

Hu Xiaomeng looked at Li Yun with big eyes shining brightly, and his eyes were full of admiration. Zhao Tianfeng couldn't help but nod. Her boyfriend yelled, and overwhelmed thousands of souls, allowing them to regain freedom, and The weird atmosphere brought by the screaming scream before was swept away.

This feeling...It's like a ray of sunshine in a cold winter day, shining on everyone's face!

"Oh my god!"

Shangguanming was so scared that he opened his mouth wide. He knew that Li Yun and his sister were ambiguous. Originally, he wanted to beat up this little bastard, but after an airplane kidnapping incident, his mind changed a little.

Now that he saw Li Yun showing his power and sweeping Yuwen's house again, Shangguanming had to consider whether he should let his sister come quickly, so as to settle the relationship as soon as possible, so as not to be preempted by other women!

Where can I find such a powerful brother-in-law?

"The ancestor, do you have any other moves?"

Li Yun took out a pill in front of the thousand souls ancestor and took it, and a trace of pale face returned to ruddy, so angry that the thousand souls ancestor's nose was crooked.

—Yes, Li Yun did this deliberately in front of him! He has already shown the existence of two superb magical instruments and space rings, and the people of the six gates will probably guess what he inherited from the ancient immortal gate.

"Don't be proud."

After all, the ancestor of the thousand souls was in the Void Return Realm. He quickly calmed down and looked at him with gloomy eyes: "If you can escape from the old guy this time, then next time, I will want you next time. die!!"

After all, he closed his eyes and Yuwen Fu's body fell straight down.

Chapter 1722: Stick to the heart

"Um?"

Li Yun was a little surprised. The Thousand Souls ancestor walked simply, and even the Soul did not leave Yuwen Fu's sea of knowledge, and directly chose to dissipate itself without leaving a trace of residue.

"This old guy who plays with human souls is afraid of what means I have mastered to control the souls, or does he know that I have several methods to kill the souls of the Void Realm, so he didn't choose to escape?"

Last time Li Yun directly shot the escaped Thousand Soul Ancestor with a Silvin pistol. This time, Li Yun has already taken out the pistol and prepared to give him a few more to taste. As a result, the Thousand Soul Ancestor walked away. So simply!

"Ding, the host makes a choice to kill the Thousand Soul Ancestor clone, rewards justice value + 30,000, experience value + 5 million, all attributes + 5,000, golden gift bag * 2, extra reward: aura value * 10,000."

Seeing the prompt from the system, Li Yun nodded slightly. The Thousand Soul Patriarch is indeed gone.

This time, it was rewarded with 10,000 spiritual aura points. Although it was good, Li Yun's current demand for auras was completely bottomless.

First, his fairy mansion needs aura to warm flowers, flowers, and grass, and maintain its vitality. Second, the earth fire in the soul furnace by the lake of the fairy mansion also needs to replenish aura at any time. Li Yun needs to replenish it when he runs out. Third, it is the snack food of Black Feather Butterfly. The evolution six days ago at least swallowed more than one hundred thousand aura values. It is still sleeping, and it is estimated that it will take more than one million to evolve next time!

In addition, Black Feather Butterfly's subordinates and pets and mounts You Eye Toad, use more aura.

"Forget it, why do you think so much? Use as much Reiki as you like. If you don't have enough, you can only be hungry, save it!"

Li Yun shook his head and smiled, looking at Yu Wenfu who was falling down.

He is not dead yet.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Save Yuwenfu, reward justice value +1000, green gift bag*5.

Option 2: Don't save, reward justice value +50,000, purple gift bag*3. "

Li Yun laughed dumbly, saving Yuwen Fu has justice value, and there is justice value even if it is not saved, this choice is interesting.

"If you don't save Yuwenfu, kill the people, and reward more, but I just don't do it!"

Li Yun thought of the very special choice given by the system before. This cheating thing is obviously...wait!

A question flashed through Li Yun's mind.

The choice of cheating the system, was it made unintentionally or deliberately?

"It was deliberately shown to me to make me doubt it, or I knew that I thought so, so I did it... Damn! Melaleuca dolls are really cheating!"

Li Yun cursed secretly and leaned down, like a goshawk catching its prey, and when he reached out, he grabbed Yuwen Fu in his hand.

In any case, he decided to consider his future choices based on a principle:

Stick to your heart!

The choice this time is also based on this point of thinking, and the conclusion is drawn.

If you don't choose the system's messy rewards, Li Yun will save Yu Wenfu with a high probability.

After all, modern civilized society was established on the basis of order, and Yuwen Fu was guilty of heinous crimes, but there were also courts that tried his crimes.

What Li Yun has to do is to hand him over to Xia Ming to deal with, just like a seriously injured murderer with many crimes. Even if the police know that the subsequent trial is 100% death sentence, they will send him to the hospital at a cost. Rescue him and submit it to the court for trial.

This is not a question of wasting money, but a kind of justice and truth.

No one can decide the lives of others, only the law can judge crimes.

Chapter 1723: Ding, hit the whip

So much has been said, but Li Yun does not abide by this axiom 100%, and occasionally kills cleanly.

He enjoys some "privileges" brought by his strength, but he is upholding the idea of equality for all and the supremacy of the law.

Because only in this way can this society be healthy and orderly. Li Yun is not the kind of abnormal neuropathy in which the chaotic the world becomes, the happier he is. Naturally, he does not want to see the world become chaotic.

"Ding, the host makes a choice to save Yuwenfu, reward justice value +1000, green gift bag*5, extra reward: justice value + 1 million."

"Ding, congratulations to the host for reaching two million justice points, and rewarding special treasures: hitting the whip*1."

Li Yun was shocked, and let go of his palm, causing Yuwen Fu to fall to the ground and a dog chewed on mud.

Justice value plus one million...No, it's not right, it's not a matter of justice value, but...shocking the whip? !

In myths and legends, this thing can be said to be thunderous and bullish!

It is on the same rank as the Conferred God List, and it is a... magical weapon that specializes in the gods of the heavenly court.

"wrong."

Li Yun touched his chin. Although he was famous for hitting the whip, it was actually quite powerful. As its name said, it could only deal with the gods of the heavens. It could not beat the immortals, nor the people. It was even more for the demon clan. It is helpless.

In fact, this thing... is tantamount to a deterrent, just like a Shangfang sword.

The Shangfang sword was used as a weapon, it was an ordinary weapon, but no one dared to underestimate it.

Why?

It's not because there is a supreme being standing behind Shang Fang's sword!

The same is true with the whip.

"This stuff...I'm going to play ball! The spiritual energy is declining, and the gods retreat, how can there be gods to play for me?"

Li Yun shook his head and smiled bitterly, glanced at this thing, and was speechless.

"Hit the whip (fragment)

Special effect: Can flog the sinful  in the heavenly court, and it is invalid to the rest.

Explanation: According to legend, in ancient times, the gods walked on the earth, and the earth was turned upside down wherever they passed, and the souls were wiped out. The kind gods felt guilty, so they made seven treasures together to frighten the gods.

In ancient legends, combine five treasures into one, and you can get a powerful god!

Skills: None. "

After reading the equipment description, Li Yun just wanted to scold again: cheating system!

Beating the whip is a legendary treasure, only the fragments are given, and there is no bird to use, even the skills are empty, it is better not to write it down.

There are five kinds of skills in his Leap Fire God Sword!

What hurts deepening, breaking evil, burning, flying flames, etc., looks very strong.

But this fragment of the  whip was nothing.

"The only role... is to read the story."

Li Yun focused his attention on the explanation. The ancient secrets recorded here are a bit interesting, and they are not the same as the legends of the gods in his memory.

The magic whip is made by the gods, and there are as many as seven. The magic whip can actually be combined up to become a powerful treasure.

These descriptions are too strange, no wonder the system has to add a sentence in front: pass on.

"Fighting with the whip can flog the gods of the heavenly court, so the other six pieces correspond to the gods of the other gods?"

With such thoughts in his mind, Li Yun laughed blankly, threw the thing into his inventory, and didn't bother.

"Li Yun!"

Zhao Tianfeng rushed to Hu Xiaomeng with Hu Xiaomeng, followed by Shangguanming and others, as well as... the children of Yuwen's family!

Chapter 1724: Victory to build a seventh-level Buddha

Yuwen Fu is already mad, and his sea of consciousness was previously occupied by the thousand soul ancestors. The dissipation of the thousand soul ancestor's soul has a great impact on him, no less than a slash on his soul, Li Yun can see Come out, even if he is sent to the hospital now, it will not help.

Unless Li Yun rescues him again, use golden quality recovery pills to rescue him.

But this is not Li Yun's original intention. Even if the cheating system sends out event triggering prompts on the spot to reward him with ten or eight peerless treasures, Li Yun also...consider!

"Do you have any last words?"

Glancing at the Yuwen family, Li Yun asked Yuwen Fu on the ground casually.

He didn't let Yuwenfu fall to death before, but he just made a casual move, like seeing a stranded fish on the beach and throwing it back to the sea.

But now that Li Yun is required to give him the precious recovery pill, Li Yun thinks he can't do it, and he doesn't want to do it. People like Yuwen Fu will die if they die, and it's not worth the effort to save.

"Protect Patriarch!!!"

A group of Yuwen family finally no longer feared Li Yun's threatening power, and rushed over to protect the family lord.

Zhao Tianfeng frowned and wanted to do it with dissatisfaction, but he still glanced at Li Yun.

"Ah."

Li Yun smiled and said, "I didn't want to kill him, your Patriarch is dying, I just asked casually... Believe it or not, if this happens, you Yuwen family is on your own!"

The Patriarch was dying, the elders destroyed more than half, and the Yuwen family mansion was turned into a sea of flames.

Everyone turned their heads subconsciously and saw that Yuwen's house, which used to cover a thousand acres of land, had been in ruins, and the smoke was billowing. It was almost impossible to see a complete building.

Vaguely, Yuwen's family saw some sneaky figures walking among the ruins. They wanted to come to those people from the rivers and lakes or the courageous guests from the capital, searching for Yuwen's legacy!

"These bastards!"

The Yuwen family's children were furious and extremely sad. Li Yun watched all this coldly, and there was no wave in his heart.

As mentioned earlier, all of this is theirs!

"Ahem, ahem!"

Yuwen Fu, who was so angry that he spit out a gulp of blood, struggling to look at Li Yun, his eyes were extremely complicated, resentment, regret, sadness, and a trace of anger and desolation.

Li Yun glanced at him lightly and said, "Yuwenfu, what else do you want to say? Want me to save you? Haha, I can't, maybe you can ask him."

Li Yun pointed to the Venerable Da Ri who walked step by step with his hands folded, kind eyebrows and good eyes.

Many Yuwen family members also looked at him, with hope in their eyes.

Li Yun smiled and said to the old monk: "Master, what do you think is the so-called saving one life is better than building a seventh-level buddha?"

He is not so kind to want to save Yu Wenfu, but wants to consume the mana of this old monk. After all, it is almost certain that there will be battles next!

Unexpectedly, Venerable Da Ri was shocked, looked at Li Yun in disbelief, and asked in shock: "Sister Li, what did you just say?"

"...?"

Li Yun's eyes moved slightly, and he said again: "Saving a life is better than building a seventh-level buddha. What, is there any problem?"

"Hey? What picture is saving a life to win~" Hu Xiaomeng repeated this sentence once, and looked at him with admiration: "Brother Yun, this sentence is so handsome~!"

Li Yun was stunned. Didn't this word appear in this world? It was the knowledge of the gods that the system gave him again!

"Amitabha, benefactor, you are destined to my Buddha!"

Chapter 1725: Yuwen's family was removed

Venerable Da Ri once again declared the Buddha's name, looked at him kindly and enthusiastically with a pleased look, and saw that Li Yun's heart was straight. This old monk shouldn't be... that what!

"What is the secondary picture?" Zhao Tianfeng looked curiously, still holding the two murderous crescent double blades in his hand, the silver-white blade with blood, which made people shudder.

"It's the Buddha, the floating floating, the massacred, this is a foreign word."

Li Yun simply explained: "The meaning of the Buddha statue can be understood as a pagoda. Building a Buddha pagoda is regarded as a matter of building merit. Therefore, what I just said means: The merit of saving a person is more than seven. The level of the buddha is even bigger!"

Everyone was silent, Yuwen Fu vomited another mouthful of blood, making everyone in Yuwen's family panic.

Li Yun looked at the old monk again: "Aren't you going to save him? The merit of building a seventh-level Buddha statue is in sight!"

Although the old monk has always been compassionate to the heavens and humans, inexplicably, Li Yun felt that the threat he brought was stronger than that of the thousand souls ancestors and Baihe Taoist.

"Donor Li has the roots of wisdom, and I have a predestined relationship with my Buddha."

Venerable Da Ri put his hands together, glanced at Yu Wenfu condescendingly, and shook his head: "This person has no relationship with my Buddha, and I can't do anything. I can only recite the Mantra of Rebirth to him after his death, and send him into reincarnation as soon as possible."

The hidden meaning is that he has a way to save, but the price is too great, and it is not worth saving Yuwenfu.

Tokugawa Ryuusi stood aside, glanced at the old monk with his eyes, and wanted to say in his heart that His Excellency Li Yun is not related to the Buddha, but the person whom the Great God has appointed to meet!

"Cough, cough!"

Yuwenfu coughed out a mouthful of blood again, as if returning to the light, staring at Li Yun steadily: "I, I have a word to say!"

"Say it."

Li Yun doesn't mind listening. Now Yuwen's family has been completely abandoned, and there are still three to four hundred people left. Among them, there are a few innate realms guarding them. It would take a lot of money to catch them all. Hands and feet.

"Everything in the past is my sin!"

Coughing up blood every word, this sentence is almost said with blood!

Li Yun was a little surprised. People are about to die, and his words are good. This Yuwen Fu has a sense of being a hero. He wants to fight against all the sins of the Yuwen family. Unfortunately, he is too ambitious and has too little ability to know the magic of the six doors. The method was rushed into contact, and was generally used as a puppet by the thousand soul ancestors, and then thrown away when used up.

Li Yun guessed that when he broke through the realm of the Grandmaster, he was already invaded by the consciousness of the thousand souls ancestors, so he became so arrogant, intending to offend all walks of life in the capital, and set off a storm in the capital of Huangxuan country!

What does the immortal thousand soul ancestor want to do? !

"Patriarch!!!" Everyone in Yuwen's family wept bitterly, compared with the arrogance and domineering before the funeral, plus the horrible condition of the Yuwen's mansion now, which made people feel embarrassed after seeing it.

"Just beg, beg...cough cough cough cough!"

Yuwenfu's breathing became hurried, panting with big mouths, reaching the final limit. Li Yun saw the unwilling look in his eyes, nodded and said: "I know what you want to say, I can call the shots: Yuwen The family has since been removed from the name, and Yuwen is forbidden to use as the last name for a hundred years!"

All the Yuwen's children were shocked. In this case, wouldn't it be...

".....it is good!"

After getting this answer, the eyes of the Yuwen Family Patriarch gradually dissipated, and he exhausted his last strength and said to the tribe: "Observe, Mr. Li, the order, from then on... the surname is Jiang."

According to legend, the leader of the tribe surnamed Jiang was called Emperor Yan because he knew how to use fire to obtain the throne.

Yuwen's surname changed to Jiang, which is not considered as forgetting his ancestors.

Chapter 1726: evil creature

After Yuwen Fu died, everyone was silent for a while.

Even if it was an enemy, Yuwen Fu was a Grandmaster Realm and the Patriarch of the Yuwen Family after all, and his death was worthy of everyone's attention.

Li Yun is basically satisfied with this result. The most important thing in a family is cohesion. Being tough to let them change their surnames will allow Yuwen's family to fall apart and separate.

Of course, if Yuwen's family is really united, then it can be changed back to Yuwen's surname again in a hundred years!

It's just that what happened at that time has nothing to do with Li Yun.

"You Yuwen...no, the Jiang family listen."

Li Yun's words made everyone in Yuwen's family glared at him, as if they were trying to copy the guys desperately at any time.

Li Yun smiled faintly, and continued: "This time your family's disaster is all because of your own misfortune. First, you arrogantly and domineeringly came to me for trouble, and then you took refuge in the six gates and was controlled by the thousand souls ancestors. Confronting the country with the strength of a family, and being used as a chess piece by the thousand souls ancestors to disrupt the situation in Beijing, if you are not dead, who will die?"

The Jiang family was speechless.

Li Yun said in a cold voice: "All clean up for me, go to the police to deal with follow-up matters, if there are other criminal acts, honestly confess the guilt! Don't try to run away, otherwise, when I take the action personally, don't blame me for not being affectionate. noodle!"

The Jiang family lowered their heads, no one dared to speak, Li Yun waved, "Let's all go, I don't want to see you again."

I ignored these people and left it to Xia Ming to deal with.

Li Yun turned his head to look at the last trouble, his face calmly said: "Venerable Da Ri, do you want to go by yourself, or should I give you a ride?"

Zhao Tianfeng also turned his sharp gaze at him, clasping both crescent blades in his hands.

There was also a group of soldiers in the distance focusing their guns on the old monk. Although they didn't know who the old monk was, what Mr. Li Yun did not go wrong!

"Amitabha."

Facing the unfriendly eyes of everyone, Venerable Da Ri declared the Buddha's name, his kind face unchanged, and he looked at Li Yun and said, "Li Xiaoyou, do you still miss this world?"

Li Yun smiled without saying a word. The most important thing to talk to this kind of master is not to enter their way, otherwise you can't say anything about him!

"Oh." Venerable Da Ri sighed with a sad expression, "It seems that you haven't fully understood Li Shizhu, I thought you were seeing Yuwen's house--" He reached out and pointed at the devastated Yuwen's ruins, "Prosperity and decline. After the prosperous ending, you can comprehend some Buddhism based on your enlightenment ability of Donor Li, but I didn't expect you to still be obsessed with enlightenment!"

"Never mind." Venerable Da Ri looked at Zhao Tianfeng and Hu Xiaomeng, with no sorrow or joy in his eyes, "Lao Na will remove the evil obstacles around you for Li Donor, so that you can experience life and death, make a great enlightenment, and understand all the things in the mundane world. , It's just a passing moment."

"Smelly monk!"

Everyone was shocked, Hu Xiaomeng directly cursed softly, and his big eyes were full of disgusting expressions: "Is your head without hair broken? You dare to say that Sister Fengfeng and I belong to Brother Yun... I think you are the wicked barrier! Go to hell!"

Zhao Tianfeng frowned. The bald-headed monk in front of him was even more weird than the two people he had met at the bottom of the volcano. He was saying just and awe-inspiring things, but what he did was incredibly evil.

But it's hard for outsiders to tell whether the old monk deliberately pretended to be stupid or did he think so!

Chapter 1727: On Zen Preaching

"Monk!"

Li Yun defined this Venerable Great Sun in his heart.

The so-called demon monks focus on the word "monster". They are both righteous and evil, acting strangely, and it is difficult for ordinary people to figure out the psychology of such characters.

In addition, this old monk has learned Buddhism, but he has just misunderstood, and his thoughts have come to a fork in the road, and he is even more dead-headed!

"I have something I want to chat with you, Master."

Li Yun remained silent, as he was about to speak when the system prompt came.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Regardless of the means, kill the Great Sun, reward justice value +5000, experience value +30 million, all attributes +20,000, colorful gift bag*2, random five martial arts skill upgrades, additional reward: aura Value*300,000.

Option 2: Talk to Buddha|Zhan, persuade him to leave, reward experience value +10 million, all attributes +1 million, colorful gift bag*1, skill: smallpox (passive, make it easier for people to believe the host's words, and perceive the truth of the great road. Note: Based on the host's strength, the better the effect of this skill).

Option three: escape! No reward. "

Thanks for the cheating system!

Li Yun gave the system a thumbs up in his heart, and inferred from the system's prompts, he could completely guess what kind of person the Venerable Da Ri is.

First of all, Venerable Da Ri is very strong, because the system uses the four words excluding means, implying that Li Yun may not be able to kill him with all the means, and must rely on the power of the country!

Secondly, the justice value after the kill is very low, indicating that although the demon monk is a demon, but usually does not do anything evil, the justice value is not high after killing.

Finally, the demon monk can be persuaded!

Li Yun had to sigh with emotion that the existence of the system is equivalent to opening an omniscient plug-in for him, and in many cases he can be the first to know who the enemy is.

Although this information is hidden, it takes a bit of brain to think.

"Li Shizhu, please say." Venerable Da Ri said with a compassionate expression, keeping his hands folded.

"What is a Buddha?"

Since he wants to discuss Zen with Buddhism, Li Yun will come to a big one and ask directly from the root cause. He is confident that his eloquence is okay, and he can put people alive to death. In addition, he has acquired a lot of Buddhism from the system. Knowledge is unreasonable, but this old monk!

"Amitabha is a Buddha."

With a smile on his face, Venerable Da Ri replied directly.

"Where is Amitabha Buddha?"

"Essence in the West!"

"Where is Western Bliss?"

"This is the kingdom of the Buddha, also known as the Pure Land of the West, the Pure Land of Anle, and the Pure Land of Amitabha. The people in this world are all born of lotus in the Seven Treasure Ponds, born arhats, and great benevolent people." Venerable Dahi said with great desire : "Therefore, there is no pain and sorrow in Western bliss. People live peacefully and comfortably, they are at ease, and they have great magical powers!"

Everyone—Zhao Tianfeng, Shangguan Ming, Wei Chao, Tokugawa Ryusheng, and some Jiang family members who have not left, frowned at hearing, completely incomprehensible.

Even Hu Xiaomeng frowned. She didn't know anything about Buddhism, and she had never read Buddhist classics!

Li Yun smiled again: "How to become a Buddha?"

Venerable Dahi was silent for a little while, perhaps because of the consideration of language, or perhaps he was unable to become a Buddha in pursuit of a hundred years, which made him afraid to speak easily.

After a while, he replied: "Praise my Buddhist scriptures, follow my Buddhist teachings, practice hard, and when the opportunity comes, I can become a Buddha by myself!"

"you are lying!"

Li Yun looked at him with indifferent eyes.

Chapter 1728: Hinayana saves oneself, Mahayana saves others

Venerable Da Ri lowered his eyes with his hands folded for a while, and said, "Don't hesitate to enlighten me, Li Shizhu!"

Zhao Tianfeng and Hu Xiaomeng looked at each other. The eyes of the two women were very complicated. They knew that Li Yun's mouth was powerful, and it was powerful in every sense, and could kill people alive.

"You have lived a long time?" Li Yun asked back.

"...Lao Na's book is not clear." A touch of emotion appeared on Venerable Da Ri's face. He had lived for so long and never became a Buddha. Every day and night, he asked himself, what on earth was he going to go to the Western Bliss. You can see Shakya Tathagata.

"I just remember that when Lao Na was young, he broke into the capital and filled the city with armored men, sending my physical parents in this life into reincarnation."

Look at this term, in this life, physical parents, reincarnation, and Chuangwang are all extremely pretending words!

Li Yun complained in his heart, but it was not too strange. He had long been accustomed to the lifespan of these immortal cultivators. Apart from anything else, Yu Lisheng had planned for decades to cultivate a Gu worm. This patience was remarkable.

But he is used to it, and it doesn't mean that others are too.

"Chuangwang!?" Hu Xiaomeng opened her mouth exaggeratedly, and said aloud: "This happened almost four hundred years ago in the late Ming Dynasty!"

Everyone was shocked, their eyes widened.

Tokugawa Ryukyu was even more shocked. He couldn't imagine what it would be like if there was a sakura countryman who lived from the Sengoku period until now.

"Huang Xuanguo... there are really immortals!"

Tokugawa Ryukyu is no stranger to the history and culture of Huang Xuanguo. After all, a hundred years ago, the characters they used were all Huang Xuanguo's Chinese | characters. It is impossible not to know the history and culture here.

For the fairy who can call the wind and call the rain and travel thousands of miles every day, Tokugawa Ryusheng has only deep awe in his heart-even in the master realm, in front of the fairy, he is nothing more than an ordinary mortal.

"Could it be that Mr. Li Yun is also..."

Tokugawa Ryuu was completely silent.

"It's been a long time. Then first!"

Li Yun raised a finger and smiled slightly: "Have you worked hard to preach Buddhist scriptures?"

"Old Na never forgot!"

"Oh? I still don't believe it. If you really do such a thing, then why are my girlfriends?"

Li Yun stretched out his finger to Zhao Tianfeng: "I have never heard of your name, and have never studied Buddhist classics?"

Venerable Dahi replied: "They have no relationship with my Buddha, so naturally..."

"No, you are still wrong."

Li Yun interrupted him, "Buddhism is divided into Mahayana and Hinayana. The Hinayana saves oneself and the Mahayana saves others."

"The Hinayana saves oneself, Mahayana saves others!?"

Just like when he heard the sentence that saving one's life is better than building a seventh-level Buddha, Venerable Dahi once again shook his whole body, eager to ask the difference between Mahayana and Hinayana.

I have pity for him to study Buddhism for many years, but he has never heard that Buddhism has such a difference, and it seems that they are all the supreme magic methods that can lead to Western bliss!

Li Yun ignored him and continued: "You are following the Mahayana route. You want to influence the world and spread the Buddhist scriptures, but you don't know what you have done for four hundred years. The whole day is so muddled that the world has never heard of it. Your name is completely ignorant of Buddhism!"

"I!"

Venerable Dahi recalled all sorts of things in the four hundred years in an instant.

In the first 50 years, he was displaced and practiced Buddhism for a hundred years after joining the Six Taoist Schools.

After coming out of the mountain, I was confused and didn't know where to go. In the next two hundred years, I traveled around the world to search for traces of Buddhism. Until now, I heard from the thousand souls ancestor that Li Yun had a magical instrument related to eight dragons, and came here.

What has he done all these years...?

Chapter 1729: Fate has not arrived

"This is the first. The second!"

Li Yun continued: "The Buddha said to put down the butcher knife and become a Buddha on the spot, but your Da Ri Venerable has the butcher knife in his hands, killing life and death. Do you follow the teachings of the Buddha?"

Everyone looked at him in surprise. Li Yun also said this with some guilty conscience. He was really afraid that the old monk would turn into anger, and he was ready to make a sudden move-as long as the old monk turned his face, he immediately took out the Nine Heavens Thunder Talisman to greet him!

Fortunately, the dignified Void Returning Realm powerhouse has now been brought into Li Yun's rhythm, has been fooled, and the whole person is stuck in place.

"Third, you said you worked hard to cultivate, but apart from your strength reaching the border of the Void Return, how much do you know about Buddhist classics? Is there any study of the Prajna Paramita Heart Sutra?"

"...The little monk reads every day, don't dare to forget!" From Lao Na to the little monk, Venerable Da Ri's heart has undergone some changes.

"What about the "Vajra Prajna Paramita Sutra"? Ksitigarbha Sutra, Pharmacist Sutra, Yuanjue Sutra, Langa Sutra, etc. Have you ever read these?"

"This!" Venerable Da Ri opened his eyes wide in surprise, "Except for the Vajra Prajna Sutra, the little monk has never heard of it, but only vaguely saw some records in the scriptures...Do these classics really exist?!"

Li Yun smiled at the corner of his mouth: "If you believe in it, you will have it, if you don't believe it, you won't have it. If you don't believe it, you will have it, and if you don't believe it, you won't have it!"

Awesome!

Li Yun wants to give himself 100 points. Don't you Buddhism like the thing about fate? I will use fate to prevaricate you. If you insist, you just don't talk about fate and there is no Buddha in your heart!

Hu Xiaomeng was dumbfounded, thinking that Brother Yun was really bad~!

Everyone on the side also has nothing to say, they don't understand too much at all. They know what fate is, but what is fate?

Venerable Dahi's hands trembled slightly, and his lips moved, but he couldn't say anything.

"Let's go back."

Li Yun said lightly: "Go back and think seriously about what I said today, and spend three to five years thinking about it. When you get the idea, come to me again, and then I will give you another scripture."

Three to five years...Hu Xiaomeng almost broke his belly with a laugh. Brother Yun is really too bad~!

Everyone is not aware of it, so is it like this to repel a person with the six magic doors?

"Amitabha!!"

Venerable Dahi suddenly pronounced a Buddha's name. Unlike before, this time the Buddha's name revealed a strong majesty and sacredness. The voice spread all over. The people in the rivers and lakes who were thief in the ruins of Yuwen's house were shocked. A sense of shame arose, and trembling, he took out all the things he had stolen from his body and returned it back, kneeling down and panting limp.

"Master!?" Li Yun raised his eyebrows, and another charm appeared in his hand. He gestured to Zhao Tianfeng and Hu Xiaomeng with his eyes, so that the two of them were ready to enter the fairy house at any time.

An angry Void Returning Realm is far from the Yuwen Fu Neng who was controlled before.

Once a battle occurs, it is not impossible for the mountains to be flattened to the ground!

"Donor Li is so savvy, I have only seen it in the life of a little monk!"

Venerable Da Ri seemed to have recovered, and his face calmly said: "This further strengthens the little monk's previous judgment. Li Shizhu, you must practice the Dharma together with the little monk. In the future, it will definitely become the key to the prosperity of Buddhism again!"

The corner of Li Yun's mouth twitched.

So he doesn't want to talk to these "brain-disabled" and "brain-deficient" people. No matter what you say, these people can lean to the side. They have their own way of thinking. Even if they see the sky falling, they will only talk. It's a total solar eclipse, I don't believe it at all.

"Well, I still have to fight in the end!"

Chapter 1730: Ask female donors to take action

Li Yun lighted the Nine Heavens Thunder Talisman, and looked at him indifferently: "Since you are stubborn, then just use your fist to say it and see if I have a relationship with the Buddha right now!"

Ryukyu Tokugawa not far away: "..."

He was actually a little grateful in his heart. Fortunately, when he was in the palace, he was worried that the one in the capital did not have a strong mover, otherwise it would be hard to say whether he could stand now!

"It's so good!"

Venerable Da Ri said with satisfaction: "Let's do this, the monk is compassionate, Li Shizhu, you just take action, as long as you can make the little monk move one step, it means that Li Shizhu you and my Buddha have not yet reached the Dharma. Go down to the world and practice Buddhism with me!"

step?

"it is good!"

Li Yun agreed, with a sneer at the corner of his mouth. This old immortal support was so big, he wanted to see how strong the Return to Void Realm was!

"I'll come first!" Zhao Tianfeng stepped forward, still holding her two gleaming weapons, and said: "I am his girlfriend. Of course I can't watch him become a monk with you. I will also give it a try. , Master, won't you object?"

"Please don't hesitate to do it!"

Venerable Dahi smiled like a flower, and didn't care about it.

"Humph!"

Zhao Tianfeng snorted coldly, and a cold light flashed in the beautiful Ruifeng's eyes, and the crescent blades in his hand were immediately cut off. In an instant, thousands of sword lights suddenly appeared in the eyes of everyone.

The nearest Tokugawa Ryukyu's heart trembled fiercely, and he felt that this move was as powerful as his Tosho One Sword Stream!

It even surpassed the swordsmanship he had been immersed in for fifty years! !

"Unbelievable, what kind of weapon is this!"

Tokugawa Ryu watched this suddenly blooming knife light, a silver-white crescent knife light, like a crescent moon hanging high on a clear summer night, with a trace of coldness in the beauty, strangling everything in the world!

Looking at this side from a distance, everyone in the Jiang family who was waiting for the loss, their faces paled in shock after seeing this move.

If this terrifying long-legged woman used this trick just now, I am afraid they will all die under this blade of light!

"Boom boom boom!"

After the silver-white knife light fell, Zhao Tianfeng, after mastering the killing mind, became more comfortable with this move. Every crescent moon was precisely controlled by her and hit the old monk's neck in the same place!

"Amitabha."

Facing the whistling crescent moon, Venerable Da Ri's expression remained unchanged, but he announced the Buddha's horn, folded his hands together, and shook slightly.

boom!

A faint golden brilliance bloomed from him, and in an instant, all the crescents that flew towards him cracked and turned into thousands of tiny sword qi cuts on the ground, disappearing without a trace.

"!!!"

The crowd was shocked. From the fragmented ground, like the horror after being bombarded by hundreds of grenades, they could infer how powerful Zhao Tianfeng's move was!

This is definitely a power comparable to the full blow of the Grandmaster Realm, but it is actually...!

"Da, Sun, Lord!"

The Shangguan in the distance opened his mouth clearly, unable to return to his senses for a long time.

Li Yun has already described the power of the Void Returning Realm, but it is not until today that Shangguan Ming has such a real feeling, and he has a deep awe of the power of the Void Returning Realm!

This is definitely not something that can be solved with one or two missiles. If you really want to deal with a strong man in the Void Returning Realm, terror can only use...nuclear bullets!

Moreover, it is still necessary to use a large number of nuclear bombs to carry out a devastating attack on an entire city the size of a place, before it is possible to kill a peerless powerhouse in the Return to Void Realm!
