

Godly Choice 1731

Chapter 1731: The gunshot started

"I surrender."

Zhao Tianfeng simply retracted the Crescent Double Blade. Her strongest move was the Crescent Double Blade given to her by Li Yun. If this didn't work, then other moves would not be necessary.

Her father is the strongest in the Grand Master Realm. Zhao Tianfeng has used many powerful and easy-to-use moves from elementary school, but... Facing the Void Return Realm in a spell practitioner, Zhao Tianfeng doesn't think the consummation moves in the Innate Realm will do anything .

It only depends on what method Li Yun will come up with to deal with him!

"Let me do it."

Seeing the meaning of Zhao Tianfeng's eyes, Li Yun chuckled and took out a white-green pistol from his pocket leisurely.

"pistol?"

Everyone looked at him in astonishment.

There is no doubt about the power of modern weapons, but you want to deal with this kind of power with a pistol, you can only say... you want to be pretty.

"Amitabha Buddha." A smile appeared on Venerable Da Ri's compassionate face, "Sister Li, please do it!"

Li Yun smiled and said: "I have a total of five killer moves. If you take all of them and do not move one step under your feet, then even if I lose, I will worship Buddhism sincerely and practice hard from now on!

"It is very rare for you to have such enlightenment, Xiaoyou Li!" Venerable Da Ri was very pleased, as if he had seen the future picture of Li Yun following his own practice of Dharma.

"Please do it!"

Everyone stepped back a hundred steps, leaving enough room, each with wide eyes waiting to see what magical moves Li Yun had.

"boom!!"

The harsh gunfire sounded, and Wei Chao's spirit in the distance was directly tightened. He knew the power of Li Yun's special pistol!

One shot directly pierced the boulder hugged by five people, and it was as powerful as a small cannonball!

What's more terrifying is that Wei Chao actually heard gunshots one after another!

Boom boom boom boom!

After 16 shots in a row, the sound of each shot was clearly audible, and the bullets poured down on Venerable Da Ri, making everyone who saw him lose consciousness.

The old monk... unexpectedly did not retreat, he used his body to resist these 16 shots abruptly! !

"Isn't this taken for granted?"

Someone put forward his own opinion, "Don't talk about these magical immortal cultivators, even in the Grandmaster Realm, they can persist for a while in the face of submachine guns, let alone pistols!"

Everyone nodded, and after recovering from the shock, they felt that this couldn't be more normal.

After all, the old monk even easily resisted Zhao Tianfeng's move just now, and it didn't make sense that he couldn't receive a mere 16 bullets.

"This kid...no, is Mr. Li Yun in a poor skill?"

Someone wanted to scold the kid contemptuously, but immediately thought of Li Yun's previous scene of flying in the sky, and quickly changed his words.

Even if the Guizhou donkey is poor, it is a donkey in the realm of a master!

"Amitabha!"

Venerable Da Ri's voice was a little strenuous. Everyone looked in astonishment and found that a bullet had entered his palm abruptly, and was slapped by the old monk before it fell down with a snap.

"This.....?"

Everyone looked at each other, then thoughtfully glanced at the white-green pistol in Li Yun's hand.

Obviously, this gun is not an ordinary gun. It is so powerful that it can kill an Innate Realm Perfection in one shot!

"Master is good at it!"

Li Yun put away the pistol calmly, gestured a thumb to him, and directly took out a charm, and smiled at him: "Master, this is my second attack. Are you sure you can take it?" ?"

Chapter 1732: Nine Heavens Thunder

Venerable Dahi frowned slightly, and his expression sadly said: "The treasures on Donor Li really make the little monk look at him with admiration. However, if the little monk cannot do anything else, he will live a little bit older, and his practice can be considered a small achievement. Therefore, please let Donor Li take action. Bar!"

"Great master!"

Li Yun admired again, the old monk would speak some human words when he was not sick.

Being able to become a state of rebirth standing at the apex of the world, but still maintaining a humble state of mind, may only be such a mentality of Venerable Dahi obsessed with Buddhism and with strange brains!

"Then, I'll do it!"

Li Yun's expression became serious, and he pinched the Nine Heavens Thunder Talisman between his fingers, raised it to the sky, and sternly shouted: "Nine Heavens Thunder, descending from the sky, demons, demons and ghosts are all captivating!!"

This sentence is purely pretending, but not just for pretending.

Li Yun mixed the roar of the Azure Dragon in this voice. With the blessing of more than two million justice points, the sound of the Azure Dragon's righteous path became more and more awe-inspiring, like a sound of justice that penetrates the world, breaking through countless barriers in an instant. Into everyone's heart!

"Damn me!"

"Woo...I was wrong. I shouldn't steal sugar at the age of three, steal money at the age of five, and watch my auntie take a shower at the age of seven. When I was nine, I paid it back, I still..."

"I have sinned a lot, Junior Sister is already married, but I still..."

"I am guilty! I confess my guilt, I want to repent!!"

Most of the people present were crying, and it was even more exaggerated than the Buddha's voice yelled by Venerable Da Ri before. Except for Tokugawa Ryusheng, Zhao Tianfeng and Hu Xiaomeng, even Shangguan Ming shed tears, confessing whether or not. I should have let down so and so and made his teammate who was also crying look surprised, "The captain likes..."

Ryuusu Tokugawa gritted his teeth and insisted. He felt a vast force invade his mind, repeatedly washing in the brain, destroying something, and a cracking sound rang in his mind, and the Toshō Swordmaster was vaguely I feel that the so-called Miko, the so-called Amaterasu Omikami is nothing more than the same, he is dignified by the Shinobi, and he was named the general Zhengyi, why would he succumb to them? !

"No, it's wrong!"

Tokugawa Ryuusheng shook his head quickly and threw this terrible idea out of his mind!

Amaterasu Daimikami is the patron saint of the entire Sakura Country, and the Emperor Sakura Country is the descendant of Omikami. It can be said that all members of the Sakura Country are loyal followers of Omikami!

Even without the order of Lord Yuko, Ryuusheng Tokugawa would treat the Sakura Shrine with respect, and how could he feel disrespectful!

"This voice... is so terrible!"

Tokugawa Ryuusheng's face changed again and again.

Naturally, Li Yun didn't know that the Azure Dragon's roar that was fully exerted this time had accidentally caused so many things. While he shouted with compulsive words, he also poured all the fiery red essence of his body into the Nine Heavens Thunder Talisman.

Thanks to this colorful quality charm obtained long ago, so that Li Yun can use his true energy to infuse and cast Thunder, and he can also input true yuan at this time to make the power of the Nine Heavens Thunder Talisman even more powerful!

—The only pity is that Li Yun doesn't have explosive skills. He had previously obtained a real yuan explosion move. Unfortunately, this move only converts true energy into real energy, allowing people to temporarily possess the ability of the Grandmaster Realm. And Li Yun has now borrowed the land to suffocate the fire to purify his true qi, and naturally this trick is no longer needed!

"Om!"

The purple lightning appeared suddenly, entwined around the spell, sending out waves of infinitely powerful lightning.

At this moment, Li Yun really looked like a god, holding the blade of thunder high, and sending out lightning and thunder punishing resounding across the sky at the earth!

Chapter 1733: From the sky

The Nine Heavens Thunder Talisman was thrown up by Li Yun and slowly ascended into the sky. At the same time, endless thunder light radiated from the spell, and the purple lightning illuminated the area of the Yuwen family's mansion around a thousand acres!

"what is this?!"

The power of horror shocked everyone present, allowing them to recover from the influence of Qinglong's roar and flee for their lives!

It's terrible, this trick really hasn't been issued yet, but it gives everyone the illusion that the world is ruining the world, thunder is pouring down, and everything is melted!

"Amitabha!"

Venerable Da Ri's face became solemn, a golden Buddha light emerged from his body, and a huge ancient Buddha three feet high slowly condensed into shape.

The ancient Buddha is made of golden light, wears the Bodhisattva's head wheel, covers his right knee with his right hand, and touches the ground with his fingers.

The whole Buddha statue is golden and bright, emitting infinite dim light. It is three feet tall, but it gives people a sense of indomitable and infinite shock!

"Nine Heavens Thunder! Falling!!!"

Facing the ancient Buddha, Li Yun didn't have the slightest timidity. He stretched out his hand and pointed at the thunder talisman in the sky. The purple lightning converged, as if he was accumulating power. After a full pause of two seconds, he burst into infinite power.

"boom!!!"

The thick purple thunder is like a pillar supporting a building, running through the sky from top to bottom, thunder rumbles, and purple light illuminates all the dark corners of the earth.

The crowd looked up at the sky a few kilometers away, their minds empty. They saw that when the thunder was about to fall, the right hand of the ancient Buddha slowly lifted up, the fingers naturally stretched, and the palms up.

Buddhism, fearless seal!

Ancient Buddha Jieyin's right hand seemed to be slow, but it happened to block the way of the thick thunder, and the two collided in mid-air.

"boom!"

Unimaginable light burst out from the collision, and it was like a substantial spread in circles. Everyone closed their eyes subconsciously. The dull, rolling thunder sound shook people's hearts in panic, and rumbling resounded across the sky.

The gust of wind swept through, and the ground underfoot trembled fiercely. Everyone was so scared that they lay down on the ground, waiting for the aftermath of the collision of these two forces to dissipate.

At this moment, they all want to slap themselves twice, why didn't they run further before!

After a long time, the dust dispersed.

"Brother Yun!"

Hu Xiaomeng poked a small head out of Zhao Tianfeng's arms and looked eagerly into the distance. He breathed a sigh of relief when he saw the tall figure standing proudly on the ground.

"Brother Yun is the most handsome, and Brother Yun is the best!"

Hu Xiaomeng cheered again, and what happened today gave her a deep sense of shock. Last time she was not enjoyable enough to see the underground of the volcano. She has been hiding in the fairy house. This time she finally saw the strong fighting with her own eyes. What it looks like!

Zhao Tianfeng's face is not so good.

She could see that Li Yun had not defeated the old monk, and the ancient Buddha had been disbanded, but the old monk still stood in front of Li Yun with his hands folded, like an okay person, with a sad look on his face.

"Hey!" Zhao Tianfeng turned to look at Shang Guanming and the others, "Are you also prepared to be accurate? You have seen the strength of the old monk. If he is allowed to continue to destroy, he will destroy half of the capital!"

"Uh, good!"

Shangguan Ming feels a little at a loss. It is pity that he has been a mercenary abroad for nearly ten years and has experienced hundreds of life and death battles, but now facing this kind of extraordinary power who can resist missiles with personal strength, Shangguan Ming is No amount of combat experience will work!

"I will report to General Xia immediately!"

Shangguan Ming started to act, no matter what, Li Yun should not be allowed to fight alone!

Chapter 1735: Fate has not arrived

"Amitabha."

Venerable Da Ri interrupted Li Yun's thoughts. He folded his hands together, bowed to Li Yun, and sighed: "It seems that the bond between the little monk and Li Shizhu has not yet arrived. From now on... it will be difficult to have this again. Wait for fate!"

Li Yun laughed, the old monk said something human.

He was able to repel Venerable Da Ri now, and when he met him in the future, he could be crushed to death with a single finger. How could there be any "favoring method"!

"but."

Venerable Dahi said with a calm face: "This may also be God's will in the dark. Li Shizhu, you have a close relationship with my Buddha. Maybe you don't need to rest with the buddha beside the little monk. In the future, you can also go to the West Heaven for bliss. Be higher!"

The corners of Li Yun's mouth twitched, let alone Xitian Bliss, he had experienced the feeling of Xitian Bliss...in A Duo Mountain, in the hot spring hotel.

Cough!

Li Yun feels like a layman. As long as he is not short of money for the rest of his life, he can buy whatever he wants. There is no need to be afraid of anyone. There are beauties around him. In his leisure time, go shopping and travel, go to hot spring hotels, go to holiday islands, go to sea cruises, Go to historical sites, go skiing in the northern snow village in winter, go to the Antarctic and North Pole in summer, go to the prairie, go to the great desert, etc.

The world is too big, Li Yun just wants to play with the confidantes around him, which is already very "bliss"!

"maybe."

Li Yun retracted the sun-shooting divine arrow. This thing is a treasure at the bottom of his box. Once thrown, it can go up to the poor blue and fall down to the yellow spring. It will definitely hit the enemy and possess extremely terrifying lethality!

Now it seems that shooting the Sun God Arrow does have a strong deterrent to the Void Return Realm, and in the case of a sneak attack, it may be able to shoot it!

The only pity is that the sun shooting divine arrow can only be used once within three months, and it is only effective for evil people...Venerable Dahi, who is barely a demon monk, should be able to use it for him.

Of course, Li Yun would not try. Since this thing is the bottom of the box, it should always be pressed. It is best not to use it the day!

"Yeah~~~, Brother Yun won~~~!"

Hu Xiaomeng bounced over from a distance, and directly rushed to Li Yunli and acted like a baby. With a grin on his small face, he put his arms around his neck and just snapped a few times. The intimacy was abnormal.

Zhao Tianfeng was a little envious, but if she wanted her to do this in the public, she was unwilling to kill her!

It's already extraordinary enough in a hot spring hotel...

"Congratulations to Your Excellency Li Yun for defeating powerful enemies!"

Tokugawa Ryukyu came over, saluted Li Yun in a very respectful manner, and sincerely congratulated him.

This sentence actually offends Venerable Da Ri. He can't see how powerful this old monk is. He only knows that Li Yun won the battle.

After smashing a huge Buddha statue with a god-like thunder sent out by a god, he won a complete victory!

If Tokugawa Ryuu hadn't seen it with his own eyes, he would never believe such a thing!

Stronger than the Grandmaster Realm, no, it would be better to say that it completely crushed the Grandmaster Realm. The powerhouses of Huang Xuan Kingdom are indeed the fairy disciples in the legend, and all of them are too strong to speak.

"I don't know why didn't these powerhouses appear 70 years ago?"

Thinking of the war, Tokugawa Ryukyu was very puzzled, and then gave himself an explanation: the strong did not despise ordinary wars and had no idea of participating in it.

After all, the Sakura Country is also considered a Confucian cultural circle.

—Tokugawa Ryukyu is actually touched with honor in his heart.

"It's really time to let those domestic idiots see the power of Your Excellency Li Yun with their own eyes, so that they dare to oppose the friendship with Huang Xuan country again!"

Chapter 1736: Six-character true word

Li Yun held Hu Xiaomeng's soft head and kept the silly little girl from moving, he smiled at Venerable Da Ri and said, "Master, then we will go first, please!"

It stands to reason that with this old monk's behavior, he should be taken to the police station for interrogation, to see what his origins are, and what he wants to do when he comes to Yuwen's house.

However, the power of a Void Returning Realm... I can only think about it.

"Donor Lee."

The Venerable Dahi with a tattered robes looked everyday, and his eyes looked vaguely longing at Li Yun: "Does the little monk know why the Buddhist mantras you chanted before are different from what the little monk chanted in the past?"

"Oh?"

Li Yun did have some doubts. He had a lot of Buddhist knowledge in his mind, but the system inadvertently rewarded him. He really didn't know much about the original myths and legends of this world and Buddhist classics.

"What mantra do you usually recite?" Li Yun asked directly.

Venerable Dahi nodded, closed his eyes, and said solemnly:

"Weng!"

The voice was not loud, but contained inexplicable purifying power. Hu Xiaomeng's petite body trembled, and quickly hugged Li Yun from behind.

Tokugawa Ryukyu has experienced such things several times, but every time he feels it with his own eyes, he still finds it incredible.

The sound turned out to have such a powerful force!

"NS!"

"Hum!"

After three loud and solemn voices, Venerable Da Ri kept silent and opened his eyes and waited for Li Yun.

"It's over? Only three beeps?"

"Yes, just these three Buddhist mantras!"

Venerable Dahi looked respectful, and explained: "Although there are only three sounds, it contains the great power and wisdom of the Buddha, which can cleanse the soul, deter all monsters, ordinary zombie gu worms, and face the Buddha's name chanted by the little monk. , They can only be convinced, and don't dare to make a mess!

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry, Buddhism Mantra is a natural nemesis to demons and ghosts!

"I don't know what's wrong with you." Li Yun smiled faintly: "But as far as I know, there are actually six Buddhist mantras."

"Six Ways?!"

Venerable Da Ri's eyes lit up, which seemed to have something in common with the six gates.

Moreover, legend has it that there are six reincarnations in the hell, and there is also an unknown big Buddha living in it, suppressing those **** evil spirits!

"Yes." Li Yun nodded, and said directly: "They are: Om, Ma, Ne, Ba, Mi, Hum!"

"Om, are you tired..."

Venerable Dahi was shocked, and subconsciously repeated the six-character complete mantra.

At first, his chanting was bumpy and extremely incoherent, but then his voice became smoother and louder.

"Om, well, ne, ba, mi, hum..."

"Om, well, ne, ba, mi, hum..."

The majestic Sanskrit sounds are like waves one after another, the snails are humming together, the treasure elephants are numerous, the lotus blossoms, the goldfish, the white cover, and the glow are all sorts of visions. When I look closely, there is nothing, as if everything is an illusion.

The Mantra of Buddhism reverberated in heaven and earth for countless years, shocking everyone who witnessed this scene.

"Amitabha!"

All the voices were reduced to a Buddha's name, and Venerable Dahi burst into tears and shouted, "Buddha, I am enlightened, I am enlightened!"

Excited, where is there a shadow of a peerless powerhouse in the Void Return Realm?

Everyone was stunned again, watching Venerable Da Ri crying and laughing, and walking away one step at a time, leaving them with only two pieces of bronze...butts.

"Cough cough cough, hurry up and go!"

Li Yun said quickly.

Chapter 1737: Amaterasu

"Hee hee~"

Hu Xiaomeng jumped to the back of Zhao Tianfeng, acted like a baby and asked her to run with her back, just like when she was in a volcanic maze. He urged: "Sister Fengfeng, let's go quickly. Brother Yun broke the old monk's pants and exposed them. A large piece...hehehe~"

Everyone turned their heads, trying their best not to recall the scene just now.

A strong man who was countless times stronger than the Grandmaster Realm, actually ran away with his **** naked. This is really... Amitabha, sins and sins!

Li Yun scanned the crowd and saw Zhao Tianfeng dotting on Hu Xiaomeng like his sister, seeing the ruins of Yuwen's house in the distance, and the Jiang family who looked down and quickly bowed their heads in fear. With emotion.

"It's just that the successful battle of the Grandmaster Realm will razing a palace covering an area of one thousand acres to the ground. If there really is a war of returning to the virtual realm in the future, and even battles between stronger people, what will the world be like? "

The city is turned into wasteland, the mountains are flattened and turned into the sea, the strong soars into the sky like gods, and the weak can only crawl under their feet.

"Brother Yun, what are you thinking about? Go back soon~, for lunch, we will find a place to have fun in the evening~"

Hu Xiaomeng's words made Zhao Tianfeng's face blush, and she nodded a little on her smooth forehead with her finger, and said, "Don't be ashamed to talk nonsense!"

"Hey?"

Hu Xiaomeng was full of innocence and blinked with big cute eyes: "Sister Fengfeng, Xiaomeng just said to play, but didn't say where to play. Where did you think of it?"

"..."

Zhao Tianfeng squeezed her face in embarrassment, the first sentence of this little girl must be that kind of play!

Li Yun watched the two of them playfully, shook his head not to think about so many future things. It's useless to be sentimental, trying to improve your strength is the right way!

"Xiao Ming, we are going back, and I will trouble you with the rest."

Li Yun rushed to Guanming to say hello, making the latter's eyes widened.

"What do you call me? Hehe, isn't my sister..."

"Ahem! I'm gone!"

Li Yun got into trouble with his upper body, and Hu Xiaomeng was able to rush over, grab and pinch, and asked "Which vixen is Shangguanming's sister", "Brother Wuwuyun doesn't want us anymore" and so on.

Standing on the ruins of Yuwen's house, Tokugawa Ryuu was silent for a long time before he sighed and walked to the Beijing Airport without looking back.

He knew that even going to Li Yun would not help, he could only go back and report today's affairs like Yuko, and let her make a decision.

"Weird... Now I am a little bit resistant to obey Miko's orders again, what is this... why?"

Thinking of the beautiful girl in the impression of sitting kneeling at the Sakura Shrine, dedicated to worshipping Amaterasu Daimikami, wearing a red and white witch costume, Tokugawa Ryuu's feeling of separation became more and more serious.

On the one hand, in his memories at the moment, he was shocked by the beauty of the noble girl, and his love for her. Aside from the noble identity of the son, Ise Jin Sakuramoto is an exceptionally beautiful woman who is unique in the world.

On the other hand, in his instinctive memory, there is a deep awe of the cherry blossom shrine and the Yatayama mirror who represents the incarnation of Amaterasu Omikami, and he bowed his knees to the noble Mikami who served the god.

"Maybe...because I was affected by the power of those voices, I want to return to the Sakura Shrine as soon as possible, rest assured for a period of time, and get rid of the strange changes in my heart!"

After making the decision, Tokugawa Ryukyu quickened his pace and flew directly back to Kyoto, the country of cherry blossoms, and returned to the Sakura Shrine again...

Chapter 1738: Two ancient women

Zhonghai City, Airport.

The two beautiful women attracted everyone's attention. Many people who were waiting for the plane in the waiting room deliberately left their seats and lingered beside the two beautiful girls intentionally or unintentionally. Many of them had their eyes glowing and tried to move forward. To strike up a conversation.

These two beautiful women, a young girl wearing light blue antique knee-length skirts, are slim and slim, with a delicate neckline embroidered with pink lotus flowers, and the length of the skirt just reaches the knees, showing that it is too white. Yu's slightly pinkish round knees, a pair of beautifully curvy calves, dazzlingly white.

Her temperament is quiet and elegant, just like a lady who went boating and picking lotus in ancient times.

The only pity is that the pale blue girl did not wear shoes that showed her little feet, but simply wore a pair of canvas shoes, and did not seem to care very much about her dress.

"This beautiful lady..." There was a rich second-generation who thought she was good-looking and had some wealth in the family decisively approached him with a smile on his face.

But the next moment, his smile froze directly.

"Don't talk to me if IQ is less than two hundred!"

The pale blue girl with a beautiful face coldly interrupted him.

The quiet and elegant temperament disappeared suddenly, and he became extremely arrogant, as if he was disdainful of talking to a fool.

"Uh?"

The rich second generation was still in a daze, and the girl said: "The family assets are less than one trillion, the family history is less than a thousand years, there is no master state, no magical medicine, no talents, no boyfriend, all Don't talk to me!"

The girl looked forward, looked at the crowd of people who got off the plane, searching for a person's figure.

The rich second generation was dumbfounded.

With assets of one trillion yuan, a history of one thousand years, and what kind of master-level pill or something, what is this beautiful girl talking about?

Wait, there is no boyfriend...? !

"Yu'er! Be polite."

Standing next to the arrogant girl is another slightly mature woman who is seven-point similar to her. She is wearing a conservative one-piece dress with a corset around her waist, showing her figure perfectly, with a tall posture. Slightly taller than the girl next to her, the two stood together like sisters.

The same beauty, the same noble.

Moreover, the more mature women have a very elegant and dignified temperament, and a soft and graceful personality, which is perfectly in line with Huang Xuanguo's man's illusion of being a gentle lady and a gentleman!

"Huh~, you don't know Aunt Lian. If you refuse to be cruel to these people, he thinks he has a chance. Alas, I'm the most annoyed by the screaming of flies. I blame that bastard..... Ah!!!"

The complaining expression of the girl in the light blue antiquity skirt suddenly turned into surprise, her haughty expression disappeared, and her whole body like a cheerful bird, leapt through the mountains and long live, and plunged into the arms of a handsome-looking man.

Hold him tightly!

All the men who saw this scene were heartbroken, and the ancient girl actually had a boyfriend!

"Could it be brothers and sisters?!"

Some people still have illusions. After all, although the men and women holding each other do not look alike, the handsome women of the two men are beautiful, like golden virgins, and they are definitely believed to be cultivated by a family!

It's a pity that what the light blue antiquity girl did in the next moment broke their fantasy again.

"Um~~"

The beautiful girl stood on tiptoe and directly kissed the man herself.

It took five seconds for the kiss to part after the parting.

"Qingyu, I'm back."

"Well~~~Welcome home~!"

Chapter 1739: Welcome home

Gong Qingyu played a trick.

Li Yun said he was back, but she said welcome home, trying to subtly make him think that the No. 3 mansion in Zhonghai City is his home!

And she Gong Qingyu, and Aunt Lian, of course his family!

In this way, no matter how many beavers Li Yun had outside—yes, it was a beaver, he would return to his home in Zhonghai City.

awesome! I am proud of my IQ~~!

Gong Qingyu smiled triumphantly.

"Qingyu."

Stroking the beautiful face of the girl in front of him, and seeing her smiling like a flower, Li Yun was very moved.

In a city, there is a girl who has been waiting for you. What kind of happiness is this?

"what?"

Gong Qingyu's face blushed, and he glanced at the one standing behind him, and said, "The other one is still waiting for you, don't think about it!"

"I didn't mess around."

Li Yun was very innocent. After releasing her, he took her hand and walked towards the elegant and dignified beautiful woman. He walked straight to her. Li Yun stood still and looked at her. He saw the beautiful lady's blushing cheeks and a gentle smile. No longer, his expression was full of shame, and his eyes blinked and dared not look at him.

In the end, under Li Yun's funny gaze, this quiet and gentle beautiful woman opened her hands and closed her eyes, waiting for the man in front of her to embrace.

"woo woo woo woo!"

The rich second generation on the side was about to cry.

He thought it was just a young girl who had a boyfriend.

Unexpectedly! ! ! Actually two! ! All! There is it! !

And the boyfriend is still the same!

Sisters flower!

"I'm so sour!"

The rich second generation, like all the men around who saw this scene, was red with jealousy.

These two big beauties with first-class body and temperament, ordinary people have a high incense, but this man...he actually hugged left and right!

Angry! !

The rich second generation was so angry that his nostrils smoked, and he could not wait to replace him. He vowed that if he could have these two beautiful beauties, he would never go out and fool around!

"Ahem, let's go first, it will affect traffic."

Perceiving the envy and hatred of the people around him, Li Yun hurriedly left the airport with two golden flowers from the palace family.

If he stays any longer, he will become the protagonist of the small hot search on Weibo tomorrow.

"Li Yun, here."

Gong Lianyi led Li Yun like a caring wife, and when she came to a Lexus, she took the initiative to open the car door, her gentle appearance made those who were still looking in the distance more envious.

"Grass! How many good deeds did this kid do in his previous life to have two such good girlfriends?!" The rich second generation is still looking at this side sourly.

But when he saw the three of them enter the back seat of the car, the rich second generation was even more startled and opened his mouth: "I, Cao? The three of them sit in the back together? They really hug each other, no, this is exactly what Let the beautiful woman sit on his lap, I'm Cao!"

The door of Lexus was closed, but everyone couldn't help feeling envy and jealousy just thinking of the scene inside the car.

Especially when they saw that the driver was a young and beautiful girl, they knew how beautiful it would be in the car on the next road.

How can it be repaired! Jealous! !

Inside the Lexus car.

In fact, both outsiders imagined things happened, but not all happened.

"Qingyu!"

Li Yun had a bitter face, and Qingyu was indeed sitting on his lap, still holding his neck vaguely, with indescribable intimacy.

However.

Gong Qingyu smiled treacherously like a fox Xiaomeng: "In order to punish you as a villain, you are not allowed to move along the way! Hands, feet, legs, waist, no place, no place! "

Chapter 1740: Want you to look good

Li Yun missed "The heart is clear and the sky is falling" again.

In the narrow space of the back seat of the car, the driver is still Gong Qingyu's maid, her own. Next to him is another gentle and elegant confidante who will never resist. If Li Yun can bear it, he is a saint!

Especially after experiencing the A Duoshan Hot Spring Hotel and spending two days in the capital with two beauties.

"Snapped!"

"Ah! You bastard!"

Gong Qingyu tensed her body like an electric shock, a beautiful little face turned crimson, embarrassedly clutching the slapped part for a second, then decisively chose to counterattack.

"You dare to hit me! I want you to look good, I want you to look good...hehe, ohhhhhhhhhhhhhhh! Don't move after you say...well, badass."

Gonglian on the side smiled gently from the beginning, like a lady, don't see, don't speak, or listen to evil, and the one in the middle is at a loss, ashamed and dry, looking out the window as if he didn't see the car. The situation within.

As a result, seeing the two kissing intimately from the black car window made them even more shy.

In the end, she was pitted by Gong Qing and passively joined the battle plan against Li Yun's tyrant.

Trying to concentrate on driving Lexus's maid Spring Flower, watching the road ahead wholeheartedly, doing her best not to be affected by the three people in the back seat.

"Come on, you are the best! Gong Xiaochun, you can! Believe in yourself!"

The maid cheered herself up in her heart.

Her family has been a family of attached servants of the palace for generations and has been given a surname from the palace. In fact, Gong Xiaochun has already learned confidential matters from his parents. Everything seen in the palace is not heard. Will speak to outsiders.

The master—that is, Gong Qingyu, who she served, will not tell the master about all things Spring Flower, even if the old man and his wife ask about it, she will never reveal it.

This is the quality that a personal maid should have. Gong Xiaochun thinks that since he has enjoyed all the benefits a young lady has given her, rich money, carefree environment, etc., he should abide by it.

Therefore, even if Gong Xiaochun sees the young lady and grandmother messing around in the car, or even doing more excessive things, she will never speak out.

But but!

"Miss, the change is so big..."

Gong Xiaochun's face is hot. She already knows that Uncle Li Yun can spend the night on the third floor of the mansion. This is a treatment that all other men, and even no one else, do. Can only live in the rooms on the second floor.

The third floor has always been the private place of the young lady and grandma. The maids rarely go up there, let alone outsiders.

But knowing is one thing, seeing with your own eyes and hearing with your own ears is another.

Especially when she heard the subtle breathing of the lady when she was emotional, and the eagerness when she kissed Uncle Li Yun, Gong Xiaochun felt that it was really rare that she could keep calm and driving, and it was all because she was a very powerful maid. !

Gong Xiaochun didn't know how she drove the car back to Mansion No. 3. When she came to the gate, she rolled down the car window and looked at the guards "majesticly", and ordered the guards not to ask many people sitting in the back of the car with her eyes. who.

But the guards are also difficult to handle. My aunt had ordered that the mansion was under martial law and no one was allowed to enter or leave at will.

Seeing this, Gong Xiaochun only said two words: "Grandpa!"

"Understood! Open the door and let Miss Xiaochun drive in!"

The guard stood at attention and saluted, completely understanding what was going on.

There is an uncle in the car, and the young lady and grandmother went out to pick him up again, plus Miss Xiaochun's posture of guarding against being seen, should I ask anything more?
