

Godly Choice 1861

Chapter 1861: Campus carnival

Back in the classroom of Class 14, Li Yun saw Wang Houliang's group of animals yelling. Textbooks, test papers, draft paper, ballpoint pens, rulers, etc. were all scattered on the ground, trampled by these crazy guys. , These animals are still screaming.

"Long live, liberated!"

"Hahaha, I'm going to spend seven days and nights all night, it's cool enough!"

"Finally, I don't have to deal with the **** derivative cells of the Tang Dynasty and Ming Dynasty. I don't want to know why the rule of Zhenguan is so awesome. I don't even want to know why Xiaoming is going to save money. Can figure it out, hahaha!"

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry. He wanted to say, did you study hard for a day in high school? They are all bad students who sleep and skip class all day long!

"Brother Li is back!"

The prince's sharp eyes were sharp, and he saw Li Yun at a glance. All the people in the class rushed out. If it weren't for Li Yun's current identity, they probably wanted to give him a hard hug.

"Monkey, the college entrance examination is over, is it cool?" Li Yun asked with a smile.

"It's cool! It's so cool!"

Wang Houliang smiled straightly: "Although I decided not to go to college, I still graduated from high school. After a college entrance examination, my life is complete! Hey, Brother Li, are you right?"

"This is the end of life? You are too easy to be satisfied!"

"That's not the case for the college entrance examination! I have passed the test so awesome and difficult. It can be seen that my life will be smooth sailing in the future, everyone said, isn't it?"

"It's... blame it!"

Everyone unanimously said, laughing and cursing something, "You also pass the college entrance examination? Brother Li is the one who passed the college entrance examination!" "If Li Yun introduced you to work, you. Ah is the life of a car repair!"

"Damn it? I don't want face!"

Wang Houliang was furious, and scuffled with the group of animals, and the boys vented their youthful vitality to their heart's content.

After all, they all know that students in junior high and high schools will be the most important network resources in the future. It is too difficult and difficult to make close friends in society.

The students finally got rid of the state of the college entrance examination, and the campus fell into a carnival.

The whole teaching building seemed to be shaking. The students yelled, ping-pong-pong-pong-pong, and the third high school dormitory in the distance continued to have dinner plates, buckets, sheets, cups, bamboo mats, and so on. No one dared to pass by.

On the teaching building, countless snowflakes floated down-textbooks, test papers, and exercises were torn apart by those students who were confirmed not to participate in the repetition, and they were scattered on the ground like real snowflakes.

Even Fang Xue's top class was caught in a carnival.

Many teachers are yelling, let these students calm down, don't hit anyone!

Fortunately, these textbooks and test papers were **** after the college entrance examination. The students threw them downstairs instead of the trouble of cleaning aunty going upstairs and carrying them.

But Li Yun estimates that those who don't keep high school textbooks will probably regret it in the future. After all, this thing is also a memorable thing.

Especially for Chinese textbooks, it's good to use them to look through in your spare time.

The carnival for half an hour, until the head teacher came to the class, the crowd gradually stopped.

"Excited you guys."

The teacher in charge stood on the podium, but smiled in the face of the messy classroom, and the classmates laughed "ashamed".

"This is probably the only time you can sit in the same classroom at the same time, and the only time you can get together at the same time!"

Chapter 1862: Sister-in-law Fang Xue is here

With a word from the class teacher, the excitement of the classmates became a little heavier.

Indeed, once today, even if they are all from Longyang County, even if someone organizes a gathering in the future, they will not have the opportunity to gather at the same time, and everyone will be scattered everywhere.

Some people go to Zhonghai City, some go to the coast, some go to the capital, and some even go abroad to work, become seamen, and travel around the world with ships.

Even if you don't go to university, there are countless possibilities to make a splash in society, and you can also have a wonderful life.

It's just that the odds are very low.

"I know, you may not take it right now. You think it is no different from the previous winter and summer vacations, and even want my nasty old guy to finish speaking soon so that you can go to the Internet cafe to play in the karaoke hall."

The words of the class teacher made a group of bad students snicker. This is what they usually do!

"However, one year has passed, two years have passed, three years later."

The head teacher continued: "In some of the Q groups of your seniors and sisters, I don't know how many classmates are telling me that they miss high school life, miss this classroom, and miss the place where they sat for three years."

Classmates, look at me, and I look at you, as if you want to engrave everything in your mind, your eyes are very complicated.

"Unfortunately, time has passed like a white horse, and everything can't go back!"

silence.

silence.

The head teacher looked at Li Yun, Li Yun saw his eyes, chuckled, and said, "The memories are beautiful, but the future is also worth looking forward to!"

"well said!"

The head teacher looked happy, his eyes softened when he looked at Li Yun.

It has to be said that he has been teaching a bad class for more than ten years, but this year he unexpectedly came out of Li Yun as a champion. Not to mention the vulgarity of getting the bonus, even if he retires in the future, he will be able to compete with others. Uncles and aunts patted their chests and said: I have taught a champion! Since the start of the imperial examinations in Longyang County, the only champion for more than a thousand years has been my student, Li Yun!

Take a look, if you say this, it will save you face!

"You guys in the future, because we got a champion in our class, I believe you will have a bright face in the future, and you will definitely gain face when you go out to the society..."

Next, the head teacher boasted about Li Yun all the way, and Li Yun was a little fluttering, but the class 14 students took it for granted.

Brother Li can't overstate it!

"Uh, the head teacher, it's almost done!" Li Yun hurriedly called to a halt, and the head teacher slapped his lips still.

Unexpectedly, the class teachers also came together, and the head teacher couldn't ignore the class teachers, so they could only let them speak on the stage in batches.

Wang Houliang sitting not far away from Li Yun said in a low voice, "Teachers have benefited from you, Brother Li. I heard that, the principal will let you know, as long as Brother Li becomes the champion of Zhonghai City, the class teacher is 100,000 yuan. The teacher is 50,000 per person, the thief is exaggerated!"

Li Yun: "..."

What else can he say?

After the class teachers finished speaking, everyone breathed a sigh of relief, but soon they heard footsteps coming from the door of the classroom.

"The principal? The vice principal? The director of the political and educational office? The grade director? I'm Cao! Even my sister-in-law is here!"

Sister-in-law, refers to Fang Xue.

The tall, bright-eyed and white-toothed Fang Daxiaohua, followed the principal leaders to Class 14, walked into the classroom of Class 14 grandiosely, and walked directly to Li Yun under the gaze of dozens of pairs of eyes of class 14 students. Then, sit down!

Sit on a chair with Li Yun.

"Hee hee~"

Fang Daxiaohua smiles like a flower.

Chapter 1863: What about the college entrance examination agreement?

"Ah this."

Seeing Fang Xue who was sitting in the same chair with him with a smile on his face, Li Yun looked embarrassed.

It is estimated that the school leaders came directly to Class 14 after speaking in the top class, and Fang Xue naturally followed.

"Huh, move it over."

Fang Xue's delicate, fragrant hips moved, and Li Yun was forced to give up more than half to make this beautiful tigress sit more comfortably. He is now daring to be angry and not daring to speak!

The classmates around were dumbfounded, Wang Houliang didn't know whether he should say he was envious or he really deserved to be Brother Li, and it was over!

"Hehe, Li Yun, do you know."

The principal gave a speech on stage with a face full of spring breeze, but Fang Xue secretly smiled with Li Yun and said: "In fact, I have always wanted to transfer to Class 14 for the past six months. Unfortunately, the head teacher and the teacher said nothing to transfer me, and I was mad at me!

No way, I can only come with you in the last class, as compensation. "

Of course I won't transfer you from top class to poor class, is that fair?

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry, and was very moved in his heart. He held her soft little hand under the table and squeezed it firmly.

At this moment, Fang Xue looked very excited, and squeezed him backhand. The two intertwined their fingers, palms facing each other, and the principal on the stage seemed to be a proof of some kind of contract between the two.

"very nice."

Fang Xue didn't look at Li Yun, but turned her gaze to the podium and looked at the principal, just as she did during class.

In class, I was under the table with Li Yun, sneaking up and down, flirting with each other, and enjoying the excitement that the teacher and classmates could not find.

The only pity is that this class is already the best class in high school, and it will never be possible to do this kind of love affairs in high school classes in the future.

But there is also good news. She and Li Yun are about to go to the same university, and in the next four years, there will be opportunities to have classes in a classroom.

"What's so good?"

Li Yun smiled softly and looked at the principal on the podium, and whispered to her with a pointed voice: "It means that the college entrance examination is over, we can go to—"

"What are you going to?" Fang Xue asked subconsciously.

"Go to the hotel."

"you!"

Colonel Fang's beautiful face blushed with shame, the little hand under the table pinched his palm, and said in a low voice, "Do you **** want that kind of thing? It's not healthy at all!"

After several months of falling in love with Li Yun, he has been harassed and intimidated by various bad guys like Li Yun. Now the school flower of Fang Dao is a bit accustomed to such things, and even can say bold words such as unhealthy.

Li Yun scratched her palms with an innocent expression, "Isn't this our agreement? Besides, how can this matter be unhealthy, very healthy, very friendly!"

"Don't say it!" Fang Xue was ashamed and angry, this bad guy is really destroying the atmosphere, huh!

"At least, at least a few days."

After a long while, Fang Xuecai added a word in a low voice, which made Li Yun happy.

Of course, I can't speak too slowly now. The woman's heart is needled in the sea, and he may not know when his Xiaoxue will change his mind. Li Yun has time to date her, and will come in when she can't find Beibei. .

"Now, now, you must not think about it anymore!"

Fang Xue changed the subject in a panic. She agreed with Li Yun before the college entrance examination to dedicate herself after the exam. This made her feel a little flustered as she approached the college entrance examination, and a little afraid of that day.

But fortunately, Fang Xuean was able to take the exam by having a gentle boyfriend like Li Yun by his side to comfort her all the time.

Finally the college entrance examination is over, is she really going to...hotel with Li Yun?

Chapter 1864: goodbye students

"I wish you all a bright future and success!"

"At the same time, I also wish Li Yun to make persistent efforts and create more brilliant achievements! If you can return to your alma mater in the future, then all the teachers and students of our Zhicai Middle School will definitely welcome you. Our Zhicai Middle School has students like Li Yun. Proud!"

Happiness!

The headmaster's impassioned speech ended, and there was a lively speech in the classroom. The remaining vice-principals and other leaders were too embarrassed to take the stage again and could only have a cordial conversation with Li Yun off the stage.

When Li Yun was in high school, he was just a student in Zhicai Middle School.

But once he graduated from high school, Li Yun's identity became the chairman of Baiyun Technology, with a net worth of tens of billions and a pivotal position in society.

Entrepreneurs of this level are guests of leaders when they go to any city, and they cannot be overstated.

If Li Yun's company develops and grows in the future, it will be even more wonderful if he can give back some resources to Longyang County Hezhicai Middle School!

"classmates!"

After the leaders had finished talking with Li Yun, the head teacher walked up to the podium again. His eyes slowly swept across a group of class 14 classmates. After a long pause, he said in a heavy tone: "Zicai Middle School, 2017 senior year. This is the end of the last class of class 14."

Everyone is in a mixed mood.

"Teacher of the class, I once again wish you all good health, no disasters, and happiness in your future life!"

Wow!

The applause rang out more intensely than before, and it lasted a long time.

"get out of class end!"

Following the class teacher's dismissal, everyone consciously stood up and shouted in sincere voices:

"Goodbye, head teacher!"

"goodbye teacher!!!"

"Principal, goodbye leaders!!!"

finally.

ended.

"goodbye students!"

The class teacher and class teachers left one after another, and the leaders also left one after another. Some students who had a bad relationship with Li Yun also left, leaving only Wang Houliang and others who had participated in the "recruitment" before, still looking with expectant eyes. Xiang Li Yun.

"Let's go have fun tonight?" Li Yun asked with a smile, and immediately made everyone cheer. Wang Houliang couldn't wait to rush over, and the other party Xue Hehe smiled: "Sister-in-law, I'm sorry, I'll lend us another brother Li tonight. Tonight, I promise to return it to you tomorrow!"

Li Yun gave him a punch in the head, dumbfounded, "What's this all about?"

"Hey hey, the meaning is almost the same! We won't be drunk tonight, no, no, we won't stay overnight!"

What is the biggest hobby of high school students?

Ten people choose, eight will choose to go online, and the remaining two will choose to go online overnight.

This is enough to prove the attractiveness of Internet cafes to middle and high schools. Even though students now have computers in their homes, the popularity of Internet cafes is much less, but Internet cafes are still popular.

Fang Xue wrinkled her little nose and said, "Who said I would lend you Li Yun?"

"Uh!"

Everyone was speechless, and my sister-in-law had spoken, and they couldn't forcefully rob the men, didn't they?

"I want to go together too!"

"what?"

Everyone, including Li Yun, was shocked, and the school flower of Fang Daquan also went to play together?

But it's right to think about it. Now that you have graduated from high school, it's okay to go to play at night, at most, go home early and pay attention to safety.

"No?" Fang Xue was a little unconfident. "Don't worry, you can play, I'll stay with Li Yun...Isn't there a girl who has been there?"

She looked at the girls. There were more than a dozen girls in Class 14. Of course, they had gone out to play with boys, and some of them even went to the hotel a long time ago.

Chapter 1865: Celebrate together

It's just that it was the first time that they were with the girls in the top class, or went out with the school-level figures, and suddenly felt Alexander.

Li Yun smiled and said, "Let's go together, but since there are girls, let's play normally. Let's go to dinner first, then go to the karaoke bar and internet café. See what you like to play, but I want it before 12 o'clock. Send Xiaoxue home, and you will continue to play when that time comes."

"......also."

Wang Houliang and others could only agree, after all, Fang Xue couldn't stay with them all night, it was too shameful.

"Okay, okay, I'll go home at twelve o'clock, Li Yun, you send me, hehe~!"

As the eldest of the Fang family, Fang Xue was the first time she came home so late, but with Li Yun's assurance, her parents would have said something.

After all, she has graduated from high school.

When things were decided, everyone immediately began to take action, clearing up the mess and preparing to set off.

"Should I be called Li Feng?" Fang Xue, who was holding the phone, asked suddenly. Li Yun thought for a while, "Don't she want to play with her classmates?"

Fang Dahua is very cold. There were not many friends in the school before, and none of them could be called a bestie. That's why she ran to Class 14 to find Li Yun to spend the day when the college entrance examination was over tonight.

But Li Feng is different. She has a lot of friends. She is probably still taking commemorative photos with her classmates. In the evening, they are probably going to eat together before going back.

"Let's chant." Fang Xue smiled, "Anyway, we are crowded, so wait to find a better restaurant to have a big meal."

"Sister-in-law is mighty!"

When he heard that Fang Xue was going to entertain guests for a big meal, Wang Houliang and others cheered.

Who doesn't love big meals.

Not to mention that you can go to KTV and Internet cafes after the big meal. If you slap your sister-in-law's flattery, maybe your sister-in-law will cover all their expenses tonight!

"I'll treat, Li Yun pays, hehehe~" Fang Xue enjoys the flattering of Li Yun's little brothers, which makes her feel like a "righteous palace", hehe~.

"Also, no problem, wait, I'll call my sister."

Li Yun didn't have any comments. Even if Li Feng invited the whole school in and opened his stomach to eat, he could easily cope with it with his current financial resources.

Sure enough, when Li Feng's classmates heard that Brother Li was asking for a treat, they all clamored together.

So not long after, Li Yun saw Li Feng and a group of female students from Yingying and Yanyan walking together. Among them, a few of these female classmates' boyfriends also cheekily came to eat a meal with Brother Li.

"Damn it, these girls actually have boyfriends!" Wang Houliang and the other animals vomited blood, thinking that Li Feng's classmates were all big beauties and could take the opportunity to show their courtesy.

Unexpectedly, half of these girls with good academic records also have boyfriends.

Fortunately, there are still many beautiful girls who are still single, Wang Houliang and the others hurried forward to ask for contact information-as for the girls in Class 14, they are too familiar, but they are not interested in being together.

"Brother Li, are there too many people?" Li Feng's boyfriend of a female classmate, he naturally knew Li Yun, asked with embarrassment on his face.

"It's okay, it's just going to have a meal together, I have it!"

Li Yun didn't care, he waved all his hands!

Tonight is the day when the college entrance examination is over, isn't it just a happy one.

"Yeah, long live Brother Li!"

The crowd surrounded Li Yun, Fang Xue, and Li Feng to eat at a well-known restaurant in Longyang County.

As for why there are definitely seats, of course it is because this restaurant belongs to Fang Xue's house...

Chapter 1866: Fang Xue's Little Tangled (Part 1)

In front of the restaurant, a large group of students either rode bicycles, or drove electric cars, or simply took a taxi, almost frightening the restaurant manager who had been waiting at the door.

The meal invited by the eldest lady will cost at least 200,000 yuan. The key is that the restaurant manager has not dared to refuse. After all, he is rich and willful. He is only a part-time worker of the Fang family, and he does not dare to violate the future decision of the Fang family in power.

As a result, a group of students occupied the entire high-end restaurant in such a grand manner, making the originally quiet and elegant restaurant suddenly full of laughter and laughter.

"Come on, to Brother Li!"

"To my sister-in-law!"

"Also to Brother Li's sister!"

After a long period of noisy chaos, the enthusiasm of the classmates diminished a little and began to fight with food. Li Feng acted like a well-socialized celebrity lady, holding a juice cup with her classmates, and class 14 classmates. Clinking glasses one by one, smiling on her beautiful face, she was even more like a lady than Fang Xue.

Originally, Fang Xue, as the second generation of the rich, was the one who needed to open up the social circle more, but in the end she...

"Li Yun, I seem to have failed again..."

In front of Li Yun, Fang Xue didn't mind appearing lonely. She has always liked to compare with others recently, especially with the confidantes around Li Yun. The more she compares, the more she feels she can't compare to them.

"What's defeated?" Li Yun sat still, watching his classmates laugh and play, "Don't you have me? How could you be defeated?"

"Hate, I'm serious!"

Fang Xue turned her head to look at him, there was indeed a look of anxiety in her eyes, "The girls around you are all very good people, not to mention Liu Xianxian, that Gong Qingyu is also very good, even Li Feng... ..Also do better than me."

After contacting the girls around Li Yun, Fang Xue felt more and more ordinary, with no strengths at all, and sometimes felt that if it weren't for Li Yun, the bad guy is a big pervert, she might not look down on her.

"If I said not to compare with others, Xiaoxue, would you hit me?" Li Yun smiled and put a piece of pastry into her mouth.

Fang Xue opened her mouth to bite, and said angrily: "Yes!"

"Okay, but I still have to say, Xiaoxue, you are very good, don't compare with them!"

"But... I'm really ordinary."

Fang Xue's tone improved, her white teeth bit her lip, "I can't find any good points for me to compare with them."

Although he said that these were unsuitable at the party, Li Yun had actually seen Fang Xue's anxiety a long time ago, especially after meeting Liu Xianxian, she had been in a state of anxiety.

Now that the time is right, she can be enlightened.

"But Xiaoxue, do you know?"

"Um?"

"Xianxian has a pure temperament, a kind personality, good to fans, and also pays attention to the living conditions of disadvantaged groups in society, and also made a documentary specially. You must think she is a perfect girl, right?"

Fang Xue nodded sadly. Is Liu Xianxian not perfect enough? She took the Grammy at the age of sixteen, and took the golden man at the age of seventeen, becoming the queen of pop and the shadow queen.

Such a perfect girl could not be found in the world, but Liu Xianxian fell in love with Li Yun and robbed him with Fang Xue...

"But, Xianxian is a star."

"?What's the meaning?"

"Meaning, she is not an ordinary person, she is a complete star, from thought to character, she lives in accordance with the thinking of a star."

Chapter 1867: Fang Xue's little entanglement (part 2)

Li Yun's words were a bit contorted.

This is actually saying that Liu Xianxian is not an ordinary girl. She is used to living under the spotlight when she debuted as a child star, and she has long been out of the category of ordinary girls.

It's not that Liu Xianxian has a bad personality, but that she can't give Li Yun the feeling of an ordinary couple like Fang Xue.

What Liu Xianxian likes is excitement. She would rather go to make movies with Li Yun, go to Xia Weiyi on vacation, go to world-famous tourist attractions to take pictures, and post a Weibo by the way, leading a happy and exciting life all day long. Her great sense of freshness.

Of course, Liu Xianxian will not leave Li Yun when she gets tired. She is not the kind of girl who plays wildly. Fairy buns are very kind and innocent. If you look for a person, you will always follow him.

But at the same time, this fairy sister also likes to be a big star. She can't let go of her fans, and is willing to create better works to give back to fans.

Therefore, Liu Xianxian left Longyang County yesterday and returned to Zhonghai City again.

"In layman's terms."

Li Yun held Fang Xue's small hand, "For example, in class just now, you held my hand, and I also held your hand. This feeling is something Xianxian can't bring to me."

"...Wrong reasoning." Fang Xue said with a chuckle: "If Xianxian knew you were saying this to her behind your back, he would definitely pinch you, hehe~!"

Li Yun is not afraid of pinching, besides, he can also pinch back.

"Furthermore, my sister Li Feng." Li Yun said with a smile: "Don't look at her beautiful and beautiful outside, she is very lazy and sloppy when she comes home, and everything is picked up by picking."

"Hey? Xiao Fengfeng turned out to be like this? Hehe~"

"And Gong Qingyu, you know, I told you about her. Qingyu's personality is very arrogant, she doesn't bother talking to ordinary people, and doesn't like to go out."

"For another example, Shangguan Lingxian, she is known as a fairy of spiritual medicine, with a good hand and kind heart, but in reality? She is very stupid, very stubborn, and extremely rigid, and because of the good personality of the old man, a very serious consequence has been caused. —— Although the main reason is not her, she can't be blamed at all."

"There is no other Holy Brahma, our Lord Saint, not to mention her, the whole fairy who does not eat the fireworks in the world can not be guessed by common sense."

Li Yun solemnly said: "They have their own advantages, but they also have their own shortcomings. Xiaoxue, you don't have to be them, you just need to be yourself!"

Fang Xue fell silent.

Do those "sisters" have their own personalities? In other words, she and Li Feng are almost the few normal girls around Li Yun, and Li Feng is mostly the sister, which means she is the only normal girlfriend?

Fang Xue pursed her lips and smirked: "Li Yun, they know you are talking bad about her behind your back, they will really pinch you! Hehe, especially Xianxian, she... wait, who is Shangguan Lingxian?"

"Uh."

"Also, that saintly lady likes you too?"

"Uh!!!"

Li Yun wanted to cry without tears, he was exposed!

"Bad guy, bad guy, choke you to death and kill you... Yeah, don't hold me, many people are watching~!"

After arguing with her for a while, Li Yun finally let Xiaoxue return to her self-confidence.

In fact, he was right. Fang Xue was a very ordinary girl, or a very ordinary schoolgirl, even though her personality was a bit arrogant.

By Li Yun's side, Fang Xue was the only girl who could make him feel the love on campus, and he was also the first girl he liked.

Chapter 1868: Blame you

Fang Xue returned to her former self-confidence and began to try to integrate into the current atmosphere, and went to chat with her classmates with Li Feng, but instead put Li Yun aside.

Li Yun has always held a Ningquewan mentality for interpersonal communication, and does not deliberately pursue the so-called relationship network. Based on his understanding of the network, only if you are strong enough, the network can be called a network.

Otherwise, even if you have your personal mobile phone number stored in your mobile phone, will you be invited to come by a call?

Obviously impossible.

Furthermore, Li Yun does not need the so-called contacts at all now. He is strong enough to not need to ask others for help.

Unless the other party is Fan Qing Sheng, or Wan Qing concubine.

"I don't know how Qing Sheng is doing in the exam."

Li Yun leisurely leaned back on his chair to play with his mobile phone, allowing his classmates in the dining room to revel.

He first sent a message to Zhao Tianfeng. After learning that her college entrance examination was over, he went to the bar to drink with her fellow classmates, and Hu Xiaomeng also went to join in the fun.

"Sure enough, it's a big sister."

Li Yun shook his head and smiled bitterly, and asked about the current situation of Xia Gong Qingyu, and learned that she had returned home and was going to watch the animation that was updated at night, but had no idea of going out.

Standard dead house girl.

Finally, Li Yun called Qingsheng, and as usual, the little maid Qingzhu connected.

"Why?" Qingzhu's voice was full of vigilance, "You want to abduct Master Saint again? Tell you it's impossible! Master Saint said that you are tired tonight, and you should go to bed early!"

Li Yun: "..."

A mere college entrance examination, can you be tired of returning to the Void Realm?

Before he could speak, Qingzhu complained for a while: "Really, you badass don't know what you said to Master Saint, what college entrance examinations you are going to take, Master Saint cannot sleep, all night long. I've been tossing over and over again. I only slept for three hours the night before and got up to review it. Ooooo, I'm all to blame for you!"

"There is such a thing?"

Li Yun was really taken aback. Qing Sheng paid more attention to the college entrance examination than he thought. Li Yun heard that even class 14 students had insomnia the night before, which shows the power of the college entrance examination.

"Huh, I blame you!"

Qingzhu complained, and then said with a sigh of relief: "Fortunately, the college entrance examination is over, hehe, even I feel a lot easier, and I can sleep well tonight. Hey, you don't know, Master Saint After the examination room, she didn't leave right away. She and I strolled around the campus, and many people came to watch the lady.

Hee hee, I also heard that many people worshiped and called fairies~, but, I immediately corrected their name, and wanted to be called a saint! "

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry. He could imagine that the sensation caused by Fan Qingsheng and her maid at a middle school was absolutely empty, especially after the college entrance examination was over and the students had nowhere to vent their energy.

"Don't anyone come up to strike up a conversation?" Li Yun asked curiously.

"Of course there is!"

Qing Zhu is eloquent: "The saint is a fairy descending to the earth, the goddess is reincarnated, and mortals are naturally attracted to it, but with me, no one can get close to the saint, hum, all by me. Hit it!"

Li Yun wanted to vomit very much. Is the Lord Saint in your family a saint or a fairy, please make it clear!

Moreover, without your knowledge of Fan Qingzhu, I have already succeeded...cough cough!

"One of them is called Song Yidao the most funny."

"Huh? Song Yidao?"

Chapter 1869: The Peerless Grace of the Vatican

Li Yun heard Song Yidao's familiar name again.

"Do you know him? Hehe, that mortal is so funny, he ran to the Lord Saint and stammered and said, "I am willing to give up the scabbard university for you." This time the college entrance examination must be my champion, wait and see." I am absolutely worthy of the goddess you' wait, alas, I'm so ridiculous."

The lively little maid laughed happily, "Mortals will be ashamed of themselves in front of the Lord Saint. They don't even know what to say, and dare to try to interfere with the Lord Saint? Hmph, I slapped them in the end."

Li Yun was taken aback, "Are you going to kill him?"

"Do you underestimate me?"

Qingzhu let out a signature triumphant laugh: "I hit him in the ear, but the force succeeded in making him pee his pants. He stood there waiting for us to leave the campus for a long time, and he fell on his ass. Ground, hehehe~"

Li Yun held his forehead speechlessly, Song Yidao was too miserable. He was frightened by a magic practitioner who refines the realm. It is estimated that it will take several days to get out of the psychological shadow.

But who told him to confess to Fanqing Sheng, it was completely self-inflicted.

"You will be back after the first visit?"

"no."

Qingzhu said again: "We went back to the car and stayed for a while. The sage-sama kept looking out the window, only to see that the mortal students in No. 1 started clamoring and clamoring, and they could listen from far away. arrive."

Li Yun froze for a while, so that Qing Sheng was waiting in the car specially?

Well, it is probably the information she found on the Internet, knowing that high school students will have carnival activities after the college entrance examination.

It's a pity that Li Yun is not in Zhonghai City, otherwise I can go to play with her tonight.

and many more.

Can I ask Qingyu to go to her and let the two of them talk?

"Do you know what happened next?" Qingzhu little maid smiled mysteriously.

"...Qing Sheng got off the car?"

"Huh? How did you know?"

"Guess it."

Li Yun smiled slightly. In fact, this is easy to guess. Qing Sheng was originally going to experience the college entrance examination. At this time, it is normal to choose to get off the car and watch.

"Huh, you are good."

Qingzhu happily said, "After getting off the bus, the Saintess just stood at the door and looked into the school. As a result, hehe, the whole school was quiet!"

Li Yun could imagine the shocking scene at that time.

The key middle school of Zhonghai No. 1 Middle School, where countless parents spend tens of millions to buy houses and grab a degree before entering the school. There are the top students in Zhonghai City. Most of the Zhonghai City champions in previous years came from here. They are well-deserved. The proud son of heaven.

These outstanding students also fell into a carnival after the college entrance examination. The campus is full of excitement and youthful vitality.

However.

At this moment, a holy and noble fairy walked out of the car and stood tall and slim at the school gate, looking at it from a distance with a pair of cold beautiful eyes. In an instant, the lively campus fell into weird silence.

The students of No. 1 Middle School fell silent, for fear of disturbing the fairy, or for fear that they would show their ugliness in front of the fairy who can't eat the fireworks, adding to their jokes.

The most naughty and disobedient boys in the past did not dare to make a loud noise in front of Sage Fanqing.

The majestic elegance, the country and the city.

The beauty of Van Qing Sheng is enough to make this evaluation!

Li Yun is proud of having such a beautiful fairy.

"What are you in a daze? Let's go to KTV!"

"it is good."

Chapter 1870: Ready to broadcast

At 8 o'clock the next morning, Li Yun woke up in Li Feng's room.

Last night I played crazy with my classmates for a long time. I went to KTV and Internet cafes. Finally, someone suggested to go to the bar. The students who graduated from high school all drank in the bar to celebrate becoming adults.

It wasn't until midnight that Li Yun sent Fang Xue home, but after returning, he played with Li Feng until 3 o'clock.

During this period of time preparing for the college entrance examination, the two of them have endured until now, they are unavoidably a little crazy during their actions, and they almost crossed the line.

"After the college entrance examination, everything changed!"

Li Yun pulled over the thin sheets to block Li Feng's perfect figure while he was asleep, so as not to run away because of the "morning fire".

Before the college entrance examination, there was a thread that bound him, but now after the college entrance examination is over, the inner fire is getting more and more vigorous, and Jane has to break out, especially Fang Xue also promised him that he will be treated after the college entrance examination is over. It was even harder for Li Yun to offer it.

"I'm Cao, what am I thinking! How can I be impatient like a silk!"

Sitting on the bed, Li Yun patted his face to make himself sober. Sure enough, boys in adolescence are full of energy, especially when they have a girlfriend, they are...cough cough, hurry up!

Li Yun stood up and got out of bed, picked up the clothes on the carpet and put them on, went to the bathroom to wash and rinse, and glanced at the little princess in the next room. She was sleeping soundly, her petite body shrunk in the blanket.

The doors of the two sisters also showed no sign of opening—today happened to be Sunday, and they only went to school tomorrow, which meant that they had taken three days off.

"All of them are lazy pigs."

Li Yun shook his head and prepared breakfast on the next floor. He cooked millet porridge for himself and them, fried an egg by the way, served with some side dishes, and got a glass of milk and some fruits from the refrigerator.

With money, the breakfast is getting richer and richer. His two younger sisters have grown up very fast recently, both are almost 1.5 meters tall, from the petite and exquisite little loli to the appearance of a young girl.

Sitting in the restaurant, Li Yun was drinking millet porridge while watching the news on his mobile phone. His Weibo has achieved millions of comments. The netizens who got up early were screaming and letting Li Yun start the broadcast. They couldn't wait to eat Melon watching the show.

"Why are netizens more anxious than me?"

Li Yun was puzzled. He chose to start the broadcast at 9 o'clock for the reward of the system, but this group of melon netizens have been reviewing comments from 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon until now, and there are still people holding on at 3 or 4 o'clock in the evening, absolutely!

"Forget it, then get ready to prepare."

Li Yun turned off Weibo and turned on Shark TV, and a message immediately popped up in the background.

"Student Li Yun, I'm Qian Xiaohao, the manager of Shark TV. I have received your application for live broadcast. Shark TV warmly welcomes you to join. After you see this message, you can call me at any time to ask. I, Qian Xiaohao, and the staff of various departments of Shark TV, will definitely serve you wholeheartedly!"

This message was obviously not sent automatically in the background. After all, Qian Xiaohao's tone was respectful and even a little flattering. Li Yun even wondered if Qian Xiaohao knew that he was the chairman of Baiyun Technology and wanted to switch to Baiyun Technology.

After thinking about it, Li Yun still chose to make a call to him, so as not to make mistakes in the live broadcast and make jokes in vain.

"Who is it?"

The call was quickly connected, and a middle-aged man made a slightly impatient voice. After all, anyone who received an unfamiliar call early in the morning would be in a bad mood.

"Are you Qian Xiaohao?"

"It's me, hey, let me say you say it? I don't have time to talk now, so I can tell if I have something to do. I'm busy."

Busy?

Li Yun vaguely heard a certain voice.
