Chapter 1871: Give a shark in five minutes

This voice is familiar to Li Yun, and he personally made it last night.

"...Well then, wait until you are finished."

Li Yun was about to hang up the phone, Qian Xiaohao finally made time, and while he was busy, he said unceremoniously, "Who am I talking about? Just tell me if I have something, I don't understand it?"

"My name is Li Yun."

"Li Yun? Haven't heard of it, you...hiss, wait, you are Li Yun?!"

"it's me."

"I'm Cao!" "Ah!" "Woo!" "Manager, you..." "Get out!"

There was a commotion on the other side of the phone, Li Yun vaguely heard the voice of a woman, and couldn't help but twitch at the corner of his mouth. Why did something happen to him when he was thinking about doing something? It was too torturous!

"Hello, Qian Xiaohao, Manager of Shark TV Live Broadcasting Department, for you, Mr. Li!"

Qian Xiaohao changed his impatience before, and his tone was similar to that of the hotel welcoming guests, not like a manager with powerful hands at all.

"I'm very sorry for what happened just now, I want to sincerely say sorry to you here, please..."

"It's all right."

Li Yun didn't bother to listen so much, and Qian Xiaohao didn't know what was going on. Does he really want to quit?

"I saw that you are a message, so I called you to talk about it. I will start the live broadcast at 9 o'clock. Is there any problem? I'll change to another platform if I have."

"No, absolutely not!"

Qian Xiaohao was taken aback, and quickly patted his chest as a guarantee. His humble tone made the female anchor who had spent the night with him very surprised. Is this really the manager of Shark TV? Isn't she coming to the wrong room?

"Mr. Li Yun, your room number is 750. From now on, this live broadcast room will be exclusively for you..."

"...I will send someone to communicate with you right away and let him assist you in opening the live broadcast smoothly."

"In addition, I will arrange for you a series of benefits such as homepage recommendation, notification recommendation, and pop-up recommendation for Mr. Li."

Qian Xiaohao cautiously pleased the chairman of Baiyun Technology.

Since he learned that Li Yun was coming to Shark TV to start live broadcast, he was so excited that he didn't sleep well during the two days of the college entrance examination. Last night, he finally recruited a female anchor to sleep with his arms around. She was comfortable and recharged for today. Prepare for the pomp.

As long as Li Yun successfully opens the live broadcast, Qian Xiaohao dare to conclude that this is definitely the biggest and most traffic anchor since the establishment of Shark TV.

Not to mention anything else, Li Yun has raised topics on Weibo several times and has repeatedly appeared in hot searches. This time he even claimed to challenge the country's number one.

These properly are big news, and can create a burst of high-traffic events!

"The arrival of Li Yun can make Shark TV successfully overwhelm other platforms. The president and the board of directors will definitely give me a promotion and salary increase. By then, marrying Bai Fumei is definitely not a dream. Female anchor!"

Qian Xiaohao's fantasies, the only pity is that, for various reasons, he can't promote Li Yun as the chairman of Baiyun Technology, nor can he promote that Li Yun once overturned the world's top hacker team and hacked into the satellite of State M in the fruit machine server. Fight with the creators of the Bitcoin virus, otherwise, the traffic will rise again by N steps.

"Besides!" Qian Xiaohao gritted his teeth and continued: "As long as Mr. Li Yun opens live broadcast on Shark TV, my Qian Xiaohao assures you that Shark TV will send you a shark bomb every five minutes!"

Chapter 1872: Six million a day, the female anchor cried

Every five minutes, send a shark bomb!

Qian Xiaohao's words were like shark bombs, which stunned the naked female anchor.

There was no look in her eyes, she looked at Qian Xiaohao in a silly way, as if she was asking: Why didn't the shark bomb be given to me? One is good, you don't even give me a shark bomb, but now you give one to someone else in five minutes...

What is the concept of a shark bomb?

In layman's terms, the value is 8888.

Others include triggering the whole website broadcast, giving away lucky draw boxes and so on.

A shark bomb is equivalent to a site-wide recommendation, which can attract thousands of people to watch the live broadcast room and participate in the lottery. If you are lucky, one or two thousand people can be turned into fans.

If the live broadcast content is excellent, it can even make the popularity soar, so attracting hundreds of thousands of fans in one breath is no problem!

Unfortunately, a shark bomb is too expensive. Even a second-line anchor may not receive one in a month. Even a first-line anchor can only receive more than ten shark bombs in a month.

Only top anchors can attract local fans and easily win dozens of big sharks a month.

But now Manager Qian said to a strange man, I will send you a shark bomb in five minutes...

One in 5 minutes, two in 10 minutes, 12 in an hour, twelve hours a day, or 144! !

The female anchor is dizzy, how much does it cost? Even if it's half and half...

"and!"

Qian Xiaohao once again released a blockbuster: "Today's live broadcast, Mr. Li Yun, all the gifts you received are yours. The website will not withhold a penny and give them all to you!"

Forget it now, the full amount is divided into 144×8888 , which is approximately equal to $144 \times 10,000$. A rough estimate is about 1.44 million minus 200,000, 1.2 million! ! !

After the calculation, the female anchor cried.

With so much money, it would be fine for her to divide it up.

"It doesn't matter, so be it."

After talking, Li Yun hung up the phone, which made Qian Xiaohao scratch his head and pondered over: "What is it indifferent? Is it satisfied or dissatisfied? Is it too insincere to invite a top traffic figure by one million? No, I have to. Go and discuss with the president, is it better to change to a shark bomb per minute."

Qian Xiaohao immediately got up and dressed, his hair was neither combed nor wiped, nor did he have time to pay attention to the female anchor, so he ran off the hotel and ran to the garage.

"One big shark in one minute... 120×56 million!!!"

"Six million a day!!!"

"Oh my God!!!"

The female anchor, she cried even louder.

...

Li Yun is really indifferent. He now has 1.9 billion in his bank card-the eighth red envelope from Hu Xiaomeng, 1.8 billion in money, and the seventh red envelope from Fan Qingsheng, 180 million in money.

This is not even the tens of billions of shares worth of Baiyun Technology.

Even if he doesn't make a penny now, so much money is deposited in the bank, and the annual interest is tens of millions. It is completely money rolling and can't be used up.

Therefore, Li Yun, who was too lazy to waste time in such a place, directly hung up the phone, as long as the live broadcast was arranged, the other shark bombs didn't matter.

After eating breakfast, wandering indoors, at 8:45, Li Yun boarded Shark TV again.

"Mr. Li Yun, hello, I am the person in charge of the technical department of Shark TV. I will give you special attention..."

Qian Xiaohao sent professionals to remotely assist Li Yun to open the live broadcast room. Li Yun is not Xiaobai himself. Don't forget that he is also a top hacker. So soon, Room 750 was successfully opened.

"It's finally started!"

Chapter 1873: I come to live the whole

"handsome!"

Li Yun satisfied with his handsome face in the live broadcast room, and then opened Weibo and posted a short Weibo:

"Shark TV, Room 750, the real battle has begun! [link]"

In the next second of the refresh, the melon-eating crowd occupied his Weibo.

"My Cao?"

"In the front row, I finally have some melons to eat."

"What do you mean by real fighting?"

"Old irons 666 buckle up! Ollie here, do it! Brothers!"

"Oh! You. Can you stop being so nauseous?"

"+1, say Ollie gave it a beat first, and then let him watch Ollie give it a hundred times."

The number of comments soared, and soon exceeded 10,000. Many netizens clicked on the link and were shocked.

At the same time, the words like this appeared on all the recommended positions of Shark TV:

I'm the national champion!

Do you dare to challenge one hundred college entrance examination papers in one day?

Look! Super genius brushes college entrance examination questions online! Blind your eyes!

Wait, all kinds of recommended texts that shock people's attention, people can't help but click in to see who dares to be so crazy.

"Returned to the national champion, are you an imperial examination for the college entrance examination?"

"What is 100 a day?"

"The college entrance examination is over, what are the college entrance examination questions? When you play in the second year of high school, don't hinder the master from watching the female anchors."

Many people clicked into the live broadcast room while cursing.

After a glance, they all fell silent.

"My Cao?"

Everyone saw that in front of the handsome guy on the screen, seven stacks of test papers were placed together, each stack containing at least ten sheets, seven stacks arranged together, giving people an extremely shocking sense of the picture.

2020 Comprehensive National Examination for Enrollment in General Colleges and Universities, Comprehensive Ability Test for Science, Volume I.

Ordinary higher education institutions in 2020..... Volume II.

Ordinary colleges and universities in 2020..... Volume III.

Ordinary colleges and universities in 2020...Beijing volume.

Ordinary colleges and universities in 2020...Jiangsu North Volume.

Ordinary colleges and universities in 2020... Heavenly Realm Volume.

...

In addition to the Zhonghai Paper, the college entrance examination papers of the seven examination areas across the country are all arranged on the table, like unattainable mountains, pressing on the hearts of the students in the live broadcast room.

"Get away quickly, don't show me this!"

"Lao Tie, be your own person! Just after the college entrance examination, you will broadcast the questions? Which high school sophomore of your school? Believe it or not, seniors, I will go over the network cable and beat you up!"

"What does the anchor want to do?"

"The anchor is crazy!"

"Don't worry about the anchor, isn't it good to be alive?!"

"This is the real battle? Blind my golden dog eyes."

"Ue, the anchor will pay for my pants!"

Li Yun watched the barrage screen quickly, smiled very satisfied, and looked at the time, 8:57, perfect!

"Dear netizens...No, old iron brothers!"

Li Yun changed his name to greet the audience in the live broadcast room, and the barrage was instantly filled with anchors, good study of God, and good study of God.

"Today is June 9th, the day when the college entrance examination is over. My name is Li Yun. I am an examinee from Zhonghai City. After taking the Zhonghai City's college entrance examination, I feel uncomfortable. In addition, I said before. To be No. 1 in the country, so just—"

Li Yun pointed to the seven test papers on the table with a total of nearly one hundred. "Come to the whole job and show everyone what kind of experience it is to scan the national college entrance examination paper in one day."

"My Cao!?"

"My Cao!!!"

"I'm Cao!!!"

The audience in the live broadcast room was so shocked that the barrage of the audience was so spectacular.

Chapter 1874: Hot start

"I, Cao, come and see! [link]"

"The guy in Longyang County is challenging to write the college entrance examination papers on live broadcast. He wants to write all the 7 college entrance examination papers across the country in one day!"

"He said he wanted to be No. 1 in the country, all full marks!"

In the Q group of the special class of Zhonghai Foreign Language Middle School, someone sent such a message, which instantly shocked the crowds of countless classmates in the class.

"Really? All 7 college entrance examination papers across the country must get full marks?"

"This guy is too crazy, right?"

"It's really live broadcast, my God, 7 papers!"

"Go and watch."

"I'm Cao, I have never seen such a crazy person! No, I just have nothing to do at the end of the college entrance examination today. I want to watch this guy while playing games. If I really get full scores, Wang Hao will call him a big brother in the future. ! Otherwise I have to scold this arrogant boy to death!"

There are many similar conversations on social networks. The number of people who come to Shark TV to watch melons has soared more than 100 times. Many people clicked on the Shark TV website for the first time, which made Shark TV's traffic rise to an unimaginable level. .

When Qian Xiaohao saw the real number of people online up to 5 million in the background, his mouth was cracked with a smile, and he quickly reported to the president.

"President, look at the proposal of a shark bomb in 1 minute...?"

"Exactly five million are online at the same time? And the data at 9 o'clock in the morning?!"

"It's true! Now the people in the live broadcast department are crazy. They keep increasing the servers so that they won't be able to bear it when there are too many people at noon."

"Okay! Great! Isn't it just a big shark in a minute? Here! Give it all! Hahahaha!"

After getting the affirmation, Qian Xiaohao immediately began to send someone to brush Li Yun with shark bombs to ensure that the bombing would not stop around the clock.

One minute per minute, one hour is 600,000, and one day is at most 10 million. Compared with 5 million online terrorist traffic, this little money can achieve such an effect. It is crazy to make a profit!

"Shark TV Super Tube No. 1 sent 10 shark bombs to the anchor! A small gift is not a tribute, I wish Yun Xueshen successfully won the first place in the country!"

"Shark TV Super Tube No. 2 sent 10 shark bombs to the anchor..."

"Shark TV Super Tube No. 3 sent 10 shark bombs to the anchor..."

Five minutes after the broadcast, Li Yun received the opening gift from Shark TV. The audience who sent the big shark to the live broadcast room for fifty consecutive times, and the audience who watched other anchors on Shark TV were dumbfounded, and they all came to watch what happened. Going on.

Many anchors couldn't help interrupting their live broadcasts, and came to take a look at the situation. After seeing fifty big sharks in a row, all of them were jealous with envy.

Half a million yuan was given out on the broadcast, which is simply the treatment of the top anchors!

Moreover, in the room of this live broadcaster who is brushing the college entrance examination papers, the amount of barrage is simply astonishing, and the popularity is as high as 300 million!

Looking at the anchor again, they all cried and went blind. This young man is too handsome, and his temperament is more sunny and stylish. Such a person can attract a large number of fans only by his appearance.

"Damn it, why aren't those fifty big sharks mine!"

"I want to see how this anchor will end up, and if you make a wrong topic during the live broadcast, you will be ashamed!"

A group of small anchors peeped at Room 750 with all kinds of malice, waiting to see him make a fool of yourself!

However, Li Yun will definitely disappoint them.

Chapter 1875: Such a simple question

"The first set of test papers, um, the difficulty of the national I paper is okay, a little harder than the II paper. But it is nothing to me."

Li Yun started his journey of sorrow, glanced at the paper, holding a pen in his hand, and said with a smile:

"As soon as I looked at the first question, I knew I would choose A."

"The second question, needless to say, choose B."

"Question three, take a look, um, it's you, D! Your handsome appearance, at first glance, looks different from other coquettish bastards!"

"For the fourth question, the C option is the longest. It must be right, so choose it."

"Question 5, reading comprehension is something, but it's okay, let me show you what a memory scanner is."

The audience in the live broadcast room where Li Yun began to write the test papers was stunned. There are four basic questions in front of the national I-volume Chinese. Although the investigation is based on the basics, it is equivalent to sending sub-questions.

But you just glanced at it and answered indiscriminately, so you don't put the college entrance examination questions in your eyes, right?

"ThisTM..."

"The anchor is not pumping?!!!"

"I'm about to start beating people, don't stop me from anyone!"

"No. 1 in the country? This is it? This is it?"

There was an angry condemnation on the barrage, and countless people brushed up the words scammers, making Qian Xiaohao, who had been following the live broadcast closely, sweating coldly.

"Brother Li Yun, are you playing with me?"

Qian Xiaohao was shocked in a cold sweat. If he knew that Li Yun was here to perform random test papers, he would not recommend anything to him, let alone brush the big shark!

If this one is not good, it is easy to cause the shark tv's reputation to burst, and it is completely finished!

Do you want to call him and ask him to write seriously? After all, even if you can't get the first place in the country, you only need to test 700 points or more!

"I'm Cao, this is written in ancient Chinese translation?"

After Qian Xiaohao's dazed effort, Li Yun skipped multiple choice questions and reading comprehension questions, and flew directly to the ancient Chinese translation!

No, you must call him!

Qian Xiaohao immediately took out the phone decisively, but before pressing the dial button, he subconsciously glanced at the barrage, and was shocked again.

"Didn't you find out? The anchor has done all the questions correctly. To be precise, like my answer, I am also a candidate for the National I Paper."

"The choice of the anchor and mine is the same, 9 consecutive questions are the same, 6666."

"Why is it different from mine? Don't wash it, do you want to say that this anchor can get the answer with a glance?"

"It's the same as mine. By the way, I have 700 points for triple mode."

"The anchor has something."

When Li Yun wrote poetry silently, the audience saw more things.

"Su Shi, Nian Nujiao, years, wine... I glanced at the key words, I don't have to say, the answer can only be: life is like a dream, and a statue is still a river moon. Ollie gives it to you, are you right?"

Li Yun smiled, and after writing the answer clearly in handwriting, he started the next question.

Then,

The people eating melons were surprised.

Especially for some national I-volume examinees, they certainly remember the Chinese test questions the day before yesterday, and they are even more familiar with Su Shi's reading of Nujiao.

However, the poem recitation in the college entrance examination has long been not the kind of question that only examines silent writing, but needs to be combined with poetry understanding before writing.

For example, in this question, the complete title is: In "Nian Nu Jiao", Su Shi used two sentences ____, ____ to express the sense of frustration that the years were vain and he could only drink his sorrows through wine.

Chapter 1876: Just a glance

When normal people see such a topic, they always recite from the beginning, that is, from "Going to the east, the waves are exhausted", and recite all the way to the end, so that the memory of this poem in their minds is fully mobilized, and the verses emerge one by one. Then choose two sentences that fit the meaning of the title from these verses.

However, the anchor only glanced at the key words: Su Shi, Nian Nujiao, Suiyue, Jiu these four key words, and immediately got the answer.

This is too ridiculous!

Four key words are indispensable. Su Shi is a poet and has written a lot of poems, and Nian Nujiao is the name of the lyric, not just written by him. The following years and wine will be more perfect. For the years in life, one (tong "bottle", wine glass) corresponds to wine.

Flawless answer!

"Anchor 6666!"

"My God, is this the strength of a genius?"

"I killed it, it turns out that a genius answered the question like this, what a terrifying association!"

"No wonder the anchor answered so fast in front of it, it's horrible, it's horrible!"

"I was wrong, the anchor slapped her face lightly!"

The style of the barrage changed in an instant, especially after seeing Li Yun's clear and concise, perfect print-like writings of every stroke, a large group of people fell to their knees.

Qian Xiaohao held his mobile phone in mid-air. After shaking for a long time, he slapped the table with excitement: "Super tube, give me 10 more big sharks!"

"But the manager, sixty shots have already been sent, and are they still sending?"

"Send! Of course! Hahaha, as long as classmate Li Yun is No. 1 in the country, what counts for thousands of shark bombs?"

Qian Xiaohao said domineeringly.

This is indeed the case. Although Shark TV is not a big company, it also invests at least 2 billion in advertising expenses a year, and the cost of signing top anchors starts at 50 million.

And what Li Yun is doing now is higher than the traffic brought by top anchors in one year. A few thousand shots of big sharks are nothing. 1

Sure enough, the president who had been paying attention to this matter immediately called and said: smash! Smash it hard! Kill him with a big shark!

What can the super tube say?

Damn it, anyway, Big Shark is just background data, it doesn't matter how much you swipe, just wait for settlement later.

"Shark TV Super Tube No. 1 sent 20 shark bombs to the anchor..."

"Shark TV Super Tube 2 sent 20 shark bombs to the anchor... combo x2"

"... combo x3"

A total of 100 big sharks were hit in 5 combos, and the onlookers were dizzy, their eyes were blood red, and they were all jealous and couldn't help but bring the rhythm by themselves.

"Fake? Maybe it's done by looking at the standard answer sheet, haha, you know where you can't see the camera."

"That's, who knows whether it's true or false across the screen?"

"Anyway, I don't believe it. It's so amazing. I already went to the Junior Class of the University of Science and Technology of China. I still need the college entrance examination?"

"This anchor is good at doing shows."

Suddenly, many skeptical audience members also started to send barrage, asking Li Yun to prove his innocence.

Qian Xiaohao was very annoyed and ordered the Super Supervisors to immediately catch those with rhythm!

"But the manager, it's not so good..." A superman hesitated. After all, he was in this line. He knew that even if he used the permission to ban, it would not stop the storm of public opinion in the live broadcast room. The ban would arouse the audience. Rebellion, let them frantically brush the barrage.

Especially now that the audience has reached 6 million, it is even more difficult to ban!

Chapter 1877: Soaring popularity

After listening to the explanation, Qian Xiaohao was speechless, and could only pray that Li Yun could slap those squirrels fiercely in the face with his strength.

What made him frustrated was that Li Yun had been looking at the answers on the test papers, and he didn't even know the rhythm on the barrage, and naturally he couldn't respond to the questions of those squirrels.

The only good news is that, because of Li Yun's good handwriting, the full score can be seen at a glance at the curling score, which gave reasonable audiences an excuse to refute.

"The sprayers just can't understand the genius, because they are stupid, so everyone is stupid!"

"That's right! Trolls never know the horror of genius, so to tell you, people with good memory can memorize a whole book of 1,000 English words in a day, is it horrible?"

"Hey, the gap between people is so big, accept your fate."

"Compared with those sprayers, just watch the anchor perform a show and it's over!"

"I dare not dare, is it difficult to move the camera?"

In the noisy barrage, the time came to 9 o'clock in the morning. The audience in the live broadcast officially exceeded 7 million, and the popularity soared to 500 million.

In addition to the two hundred big sharks given by the official shark tv, there are also many gifts from the audience, with a total value of more than one million yuan, which has raised the popularity of Room 750 by another notch.

"Brother~?"

Accompanied by the crisp and tender voice of the girl and the sound of pushing the door, a cute head came out from behind the door and glanced at the camera. Suddenly, the visible barrage in the live broadcast room was reduced by three seconds.

Quickly swiped the screen together.

"So cute and loving!"

"Woo, cute little sister, is this the anchor's sister?"

"Wow, the eldest brother-in-law will bring my sister to the camera!"

Without looking back, Li Yun smiled and said to his sister: "Caiwei, you guys got up? I'm writing test papers on the live broadcast. You go to have breakfast first. I made millet porridge."

In the barrage is another screen of "my sister's name is so nice". For students, the verse from the Book of Songs is familiar to the students.

"Well, brother, do you want to eat fruit? Caixia and I will bring you some." Of course, Caiwei knows what her brother is doing now. After all, she and Caixia went to print the college entrance examination papers last night.

It's just... She doesn't just want to bring fruit for her brother to eat, she has other purposes.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Eat fruit from my sister in the live broadcast room, reward green gift bag*3, intelligence +500, skill: Saohua (passive, can improve the ability of talking during the live broadcast).

Option 2: Reject, let the sister not enter the room, no reward. "

Li Yun was about to speak, and the system prompt that he hadn't seen for a long time finally sounded.

It's just that this reward is too stingy. Three green gifts...wait, who's the fruit?

Grape.....

Cheating system!

Li Yun cursed secretly, hesitated, but chose to say: "Okay, Caiwei, bring me a watermelon."

"Hehe, brother is waiting, I'll come right away."

The audience in the live broadcast room speculated about who Caixia was, her sister or her younger sister, whether she was cute or not, and so on. The number of people who followed Li Yun's papers fell by half.

"Ding, the host makes a choice, rewards green gift bag*3, intelligence +500, skill: Saohua. Additional rewards: Li Caiwei and Li Caixia's small plan is a big success."

"...?"

Caiwei and Caixia's plan?

Chapter 1878: Twin sister appeared

Soon, the two sisters appeared together, each holding a plate of fruits, and they were all kinds of melons and fruits after they were cut from the refrigerator.

Two large pots full of watermelon, grapes, cherries, apples, cantaloupe, lychees, etc.

"I'm Cao!"

The audience in the live broadcast room was already very excited when they saw "Taiwei" come in with a smile, but the next moment they saw another little Lolita who was exactly the same and opened the door and walked in.

Suddenly, the live broadcast room boiled.

"Twin sister!!"

"Anchor, I want to be your brother-in-law!"

"It's twins, my goodness!!"

"Cute, cute, ooh, big sister, I really want to hold one in one hand, do you hug these two cuddles and kiss each other~~ Come on, sister kiss one~mua~!"

"Big brother, I want to kiss one too."

"Go away, Luo Li will get rid of it!"

After Li Yun's twin sister appeared, the barrage in the live broadcast room was completely out of control, and there was a large swath flying past. Many girls wanted to fly onto the screen and hug the cute twins.

It has to be said that twins who look exactly the same are by no means as simple as $1+1$, but $1+1=10$, or even 100.

The twin sister and the ordinary two sisters are definitely different day by day!

"Brother, ah~~" Cai Wei blushed and picked up a frozen watermelon with her white hands, and trembling slightly, she brought it to Li Yun's mouth.

Shy, but looking forward to it.

"what!"

Li Yun, who was writing the test paper, didn't think much about it. After taking a bite, Cai Wei laughed happily, "Is my brother delicious?"

At the same time, she shyly stretched out her white tender little hand, wiped it against her brother's mouth, and wiped off the watermelon juice with her slender little fingers.

"It's delicious, of course it's delicious to eat watermelon in summer." Li Yun smiled.

"Hehe, brother will eat mine too!"

When Caixia saw this, she also picked up a sweet grape. Her slender, white and tender little finger directly reached Li Yun's mouth, and she personally fed it to her brother who was writing the test paper.

"..."

The live broadcast room No. 750 has become an old jealous warehouse, and countless viewers have expressed their opinions with indignant words.

"Damn it, why don't I have a sister!"

"This anchor is really beaten!"

"Dad, mom, I also want my sister, preferably one child with two."

"I'm so sour!"

"Who doesn't want such a cute and well-behaved sister?"

After sour calculations, the audience in the live broadcast room discovered something that shocked them.

The Xueshen anchor was eating the fruit that his twin sisters personally fed him while chatting with them. At the same time, he kept writing down the test papers with answers that were comparable to print!

Unknowingly, the anchor has finished writing more than half of the composition, and the final stage is left!

"How is it possible! How is it possible!! This is too exaggerated!!"

The audience opened their mouths in shock. As long as they have been to school and have written test papers carefully, they all understand how important it is to stay focused when doing test questions.

You can concentrate on doing the questions in the noisy classroom, but you can never talk to people while writing the college entrance examination mock papers!

This is beyond human comprehension.

"Hey! One mind and two uses! One mind and two uses!"

"I, Cao, is there really anyone in the world who can be distracted to do two things at the same time?"

"I'm split, how can I be so strong, oh my god, can this world not tolerate fools playing happily?"

Chapter 1879: Special battle

Q group of experimental class of Zhonghai Foreign Language Middle School.

"I'm stupid."

A student who had already received an admission notice from a TOP10 university in country M made such a sentence in the Q group.

Although there was no cause and effect, everyone knew what he was talking about.

"I can only say: awesome!"

"The gap between people is sometimes that big. This Li Yun's talent is even more exaggerated than we thought. The last time he lost was not wronged."

"Yes, such a person is simply a monster, he is not a human genius, but a monster!"

"Damn, before we gritted our teeth and wanted to beat him in mock exams and college entrance examinations, now think about it, we are all stupid!"

In the first mock test, Li Yun won the Zhonghai City champion with a perfect score. Many geniuses with nearly 750 points were still unconvinced and wanted to regain the championship in the next mock test.

But until now, they did not know one thing:

Li Yun was able to test 750 points because the full score of the test paper was only 750.

"so horrible!"

Someone finally sighed that they saw Li Yun finished writing the Chinese language of the national I volume, and showed the front and back of the test paper on the screen, and asked the audience to give him a score.

The beautiful handwriting in the test paper and the clear answers gave the students of Zhonghai Experimental Middle School a strong sense of shock. At first glance, they couldn't find any mistakes at all.

Perfect!

Absolutely flawless!

And this, only 45 minutes have passed since the live broadcast started!

One class time, complete the national I-volume Chinese subjects!

Another person in the group, Fang Hao, who had not dealt with Li Yun many times, was also a classmate of Gong Qingyu. He was watching the live broadcast at home at the moment, his eyes were fixed on the computer screen, and he could not tell for a long time. In one sentence.

"That guy was broadcast live? It just so happened, what an arrogant guy, he deserves to be my boyfriend."

A person named Qing Guo Meiyu suddenly bubbled in the group, making Fang Hao's heart sore, but helpless. He knew that he would never be able to catch up with Li Yun in his life, nor would he be able to win Gong Qingyu's love!

"Look, my Gong Qingyu didn't grow up eating garlic, wasn't it just a live broadcast? I'll come too!"

Suddenly, the students in the experimental class cheered. As the genius of their class, Gong Qingyu has the capital to fight Li Yun!

Although this is a battle between the couple, Gong Qingyu has lost once, but she is one of the few cards in Zhonghai City after all, isn't she?

The other card face is naturally Song Yidao.

Soon after Gong Qingyu followed the trend and started the live broadcast, Song Yidao also learned of the news. He didn't think much about it, and immediately asked his parents to help print the test papers, and open the live broadcast to brush the college entrance examination questions!

"My Cao?!"

As the news spread, netizens were shocked to discover that geniuses from all over the country have launched live broadcasts and launched a unique battle with Li Yun of Zhonghai City!

"I heard that the geniuses in Zhonghai City are crazy?"

"Live the college entrance examination questions in the Chinese Sea Roll."

"No one came forward to bully me in eastern Guangdong? Zhonghai rolls up!"

"I didn't even start talking in the capital, there is no such mad guy in the countryside."

Each and every genius put forward various battle slogans. After all, Li Yun claimed to be the first in the country, and he also broadcasted the national college entrance examination papers. How can Huang Xuanguo's geniuses tolerate it?

Zhonghai City Gong Qingyu, Song Yidao, Liu Ruorui, East Guangdong Mo Xuanqing, Beijing Ni Hongyu, there are Olympic mathematics gold medal winners, there are also super geniuses who won the first place in the genius challenge like Song Yidao, and even the junior class of the University of Science and Technology. Genius boy and so on.

A gathering of heroes, a showdown!

Chapter 1880: Surging

"Brother, many people have opened live broadcasts." Cai Wei, who was reading Weibo next to him, said in surprise. She clicked on the link and found out that there are talents in all major live broadcast platforms who have opened live broadcast rooms, just like her brother. .

And these geniuses pointed the finger at Li Yun one by one, and the target was him!

"It's okay." Li Yun smiled faintly, and even opened his mouth in free time to signal Caixia to give him another fruit, "Let them come, your brother, I will never lose to anyone!"

"Hehe, brother is amazing~~~ Come on, brother!"

Qian Xiaohao at the headquarters of Shark tv has a feeling that the world is in full control. No, it is not under his control, but Li Yun!

The geniuses of the whole country all responded and came together to fight, creating a spectacular scene of turbulent winds and torrential rains!

Of course Qian Xiaohao knows that there must be other indicator platforms behind this, but he is now inexplicably confident in Li Yun, and those native chickens are not worth mentioning!

"Super pipe, give me a hundred sharks and kill other platforms with money!"

"Yes!"

This time Super Tube did not hesitate and immediately started throwing shark bombs.

He certainly understands that even if other live broadcast platforms ask other geniuses across the country to open the college entrance examination live broadcast, the gifts they make are definitely not better than Shark TV and can only be overwhelmed!

Inside a high-end apartment in Zhonghai City.

After his parents printed the test papers, Song Yidao couldn't wait to start his own journey of writing test questions. As for the other 3 million live broadcast rewards, he didn't care at all.

He only needs to defeat Li Yun!

"Damn fellow, I didn't expect that he would win the champion in this way. No wonder he didn't go out early when he took the English test!"

"But you think you can beat me this way? Isn't it just writing 7 test papers a day? I can do it too!"

Song Yidao gritted his teeth and began to catch up, and the live broadcast room gradually had some audiences, but most of them were double-opened live broadcast rooms, and watched both the live broadcasts of him and Li Yun.

This unprecedented war of geniuses spread on the Internet at an unprecedented speed.

Q space, circle of friends, Weibo, Tieba, forums, BBS, NGA, Tianya, as long as there are people, there will be discussions about Li Yun and genius competition.

This battle even affected the real world. Many middle-aged and elderly people are chatting in the streets and parks, waiting to see which genius can win, so that their sons/grandsons can follow and learn as a positive example!

Admissions offices of major colleges and universities immediately followed up on this matter, ready to find the home phones of these geniuses who participated in the live broadcast, and call them directly to grab people.

—In previous years, the fact that major colleges and universities snatched students is not news at all. What's more, these senior high school graduates who dare to broadcast their test papers are all top geniuses, and many of them are popular candidates for champions in various provinces.

Li Yun finished writing the first language in a leisurely manner, and picked up the mathematics of the National Volume I, still maintaining a rapid answering speed.

"Set $M=\{\dots\dots\}$, $N=\{\dots\dots\}$, then $M \text{ intersection } N=\dots\dots$. There is nothing to say, choose C."

"The plural number z satisfies...it must be D, don't count."

"It's you, C!"

"At a glance, you know the answer is a, nothing to say."

The audience in the live broadcast room was stunned. At such a fast speed, even some rational audiences who had supported Li Yun before, now have some doubts whether the anchor is secretly watching the answer.
