

Godly Choice 1881

Chapter 1881: Absolutely

"really?!"

"It's too fake. After writing 12 multiple-choice questions on the college entrance examination in three minutes, why don't you go straight to heaven?"

"Cheating should also be professional, okay?"

"Do you really think you are learning God? No? No? No?"

The rhythm of the barrage was completely out of control, and a large number of viewers protested and refused to believe this outrageous thing!

No matter how talented the genius is, you still need to write and draw on the draft paper to do the question, but the anchor is now completely nonsense, just glance at it, faster than copying the answer!

"Brother, it looks like..." Caiwei finally couldn't help but said, her little face full of worried expressions.

"Oh?"

Li Yun raised his head and glanced at the computer screen. After seeing the frantic scrolling on the bullet screen, he shrugged indifferently: "Well, since you don't believe me, then I'll write a little bit of ideas. Interested audiences can follow me. To answer the question, and see if you can answer it."

The audience just barely recognized it. After all, there are too many ways to cheat, but if they have ideas, they can follow along to verify whether it is correct.

"The following is the fill-in-the-blank question, the first question: curve...there is nothing to say, the first question of the fill-in-the-blank question is to send points, simply use the tangent equation."

"The second question, hehe, this question is even simpler. As long as you review the question, you will know that you are investigating the middle term application of the geometric sequence, and the answer is $121/3$."

"The third question, probability, are incompatible with each other. Just set the formula. There is almost no calculation. What needs to be noted is..."

"The fourth question needs to have auxiliary lines. Well, if you have a strong spatial imagination, you don't need to draw on the draft paper. Connect the AD and BD points, and you will have new discoveries."

In the live broadcast room, the volume of barrage has decreased in a way that is visible to the naked eye, but the number of online users has remained at 7 million, and even slightly increased.

After Li Yun wrote the third question, the audience finally figured it out.

"I'm Cao, the second question is really the middle term!"

"I'm in tears. I am the National Volume I. The fourth question was tangled for a long time, and I couldn't open my mind at all. Now I have listened to the anchor's reminder to make it out."

"This, this, this! The great * is really a great god!"

"Auxiliary line skills are absolutely perfect, I actually made the fourth question!"

"What about those who say that the anchor of learning God is not good? Stand up and take two steps?"

The audience closed their mouths one by one when they saw Li Yun writing out the answers like flowing water while solving the questions.

Even the most discerning audience, after seeing Li Yun's clear and clear problem solving process, were convinced to play a barrage: awesome!

The other small anchors on the Shark tv platform were still not convinced, and brought up the rhythm, saying that Li Yun is rich, he must have memorized the answer last night, so he can answer quickly.

Li Yun's new fan retorted, saying that it is completely unnecessary to do so by the means of learning God. The two sides clamored, and Superman finally made a move.

"Fang Zha has been permanently banned."

"Jiuyuetian has been permanently banned."

"The cow-herding mountain baby has been permanently banned."

The super-tube Thunder method frightened many people, and the rhythmic ones finally closed their mouths, and the quality of the barrage was greatly improved.

Twenty minutes later, Li Yun finished writing the college entrance examination papers and began to write...the essay.

"???"

"Isn't it?"

"This is fine too?!"

"Oh my god, the anchor can do both arts and science?!"

"I, Cao, it's no wonder that the amount of writing in this essay is too exaggerated when I said that I will broadcast it for one day!"

"I can only say: Xueshen anchor is awesome!"

Chapter 1882: I gave up

After writing the essay and the rationale, the audience became numb, and they all became the ruthless 666 machine, and Li Yun had a new nickname:

Yunxueshen!

On the barrage, all kinds of Yunxue gods are awesome, Yunxueshen asks for blessings and so on, and even the seniors and seniors of many famous universities, such as the University of Science and Technology, Western University, China University, and TV University, come to join in the fun.

But what is strange is that after seeing Yun Xueshen finished writing the essay summary, they did not pick up the English of the National Volume I, but chose the language of the National Volume II, and started the journey of brushing the questions again.

"Is it because English is too simple, so I plan to keep it till the end?"

"It's also possible that when you want to do English, relax your mind by the way."

"English is the simplest, no doubt!"

As the audience increased, time passed by minute by minute.

Many people who eat melon jump back and forth in the live broadcast of the geniuses, and compare each other to see who is the fastest to solve the problem.

In the end, the whole network reached a consensus: Yunxueshen won by an absolute advantage.

However, Yun Xueshen's beautiful handwriting like regular scripts, not to mention his two lovely sisters in the live broadcast room, just because Yun Xueshen did not write drafts in one hand, he directly calculated the results in his mind, and won the shock of countless audiences. .

Niubi is the only word they can think of.

and!

In Yun Xueshen's live broadcast room, it was the only live broadcast room where outsiders were present, and he was also chatting with his sister while studying the topic on the live broadcast.

"Yun Xueshen bless me to be admitted to a key high school!"

"Yun Xueshen bless me not to be a subject."

"Yun Xueshen bless my second child is a daughter."

"Yun Xueshen bless me to win the lottery ticket!! I must come to vomit!"

——Something strange was mixed into the barrage.

Half past 11.

"I gave up."

On the Zhuzi live broadcast platform, a genius from Jianghai province dropped his pen and fell into a chair panting in a paralyzed state. There was a hahaha laugh on the barrage, of course, mixed with some comforting words.

Half a day later, the genius sat up, rubbing his temples, complaining to the audience: "It's too horrible to do test papers continuously. I only wrote half of Chinese, mathematics and science synthesis. I really didn't want to write it later. I was crazy just now. Tinnitus, body trembling, chills, I don't even want to write the simplest 1+1!"

In other words, his brain has reached its limit, and he is violently resisting the behavior of continuing to use his brain!

The two hours just now is more tiring than a whole day of physical work!

After resting for a long time, he clicked on Li Yun's live broadcast room, took a look, and the corners of his mouth suddenly twitched.

"The second college entrance examination question is almost finished? I can only say that it is amazing. I admit that I lost."

"However, even if Li Yun can keep writing at this speed, he will not be able to finish it in a day!"

"Think about it, a college entrance examination question has a total of 4 subjects, even if it only takes 2 hours to complete all of them, 2*7 takes a full 14 hours."

"I'm Cao? Li Yun is still doing theory and essay synthesis? It's even more impossible to finish writing in one day, I'm sure it will never be!"

After this kind of remarks spread, Li Yun's live broadcast room also has related barrage.

Through the sisters Plucking, Li Yun learned about it.

"It's a bit difficult, but people, it's just to challenge the impossible, right?"

"Yes... blame it!"

The audience expressed their disbelief, and Li Yun smiled mysteriously: "After I finish eating, you will see the most incredible things in the history of the college entrance examination, so look forward to it!"

Chapter 1883: Lemon extract

By twelve o'clock at noon, more than 90% of the geniuses who read test papers on live broadcast have given up. It is one thing to be able to get out of the examination room within an hour, and it is another thing to be able to do high-intensity test papers for three consecutive hours.

The geniuses who gave up all said: Continuous use of their brains is simply not something that humans can do!

Even an hour's rest for five minutes is not enough, and the brain can't turn around at all.

Many spectators who were diverted went back to Shark tv750 room again, and they wanted to see how long Yun Xueshen could last!

"Husband, Plucking Caixia, have lunch~"

At a quarter past twelve, a small head emerged from the door again, and the audience in the live broadcast room was suddenly crying and howling.

"Wow, it's little Lolita!"

"The cute little loli, in pajamas!"

"Woo, this little Lolita is like a princess, her skin is white and tender, so good!"

"This is also Yun Xueshen's sister? It's unreasonable!"

"Wait, the little Lolita called her husband just now?"

"Birds. Beasts! Yunxue * Jinwu Cangjiao is too much!"

Seeing the barrage, Caiwei quickly got up to block Yongning's little princess, preventing her from appearing under the camera in the live broadcast room in her pajamas. Because the little princess was always sleepy, she wore pajamas most of the time at home.

Although the pink one-piece pajamas are not exposed at all, they are not good at all, and they are detrimental to the royal dignity!

Li Yun nodded, "Caiwei, please bring me the food, I'll write the questions as I eat."

"???"

The audience was shocked, did you fight like that?

But Li Yun did not write test papers while eating. Instead, he ate at the computer desk and played the college entrance examination English listening comprehension in the speakers.

The audience seemed to understand something.

"Want to remember all English listening and answer the questions later? A good way!"

"Hahaha, I've heard a story saying that someone was late for the English test, but he walked from the school gate to the test room unhurriedly. The English for the college entrance examination was broadcast on the radio. As a result, he started to write listening after sitting down. All right!"

"666, Yun Xueshen 6 turned over!"

"I'm the only one who noticed that the anchor is surrounded by girls? There are a few calls in the middle, and they are all girls..."

Many viewers have indeed noticed that when Li Yun was eating, there were four beauties, two twin sisters, a cute little princess with sleepy eyes, and a gentle eldest sister. She was obviously in charge of cooking just now.

It's just the scene in the dreams of men!

"Don't be sour, if you have such a genius as Yun Xueshen, you can hug left and right."

"...Yun Xueshen received a few million for just broadcasting the present today, right? It's sour."

"I am a lemon."

"I am Green Orange."

"It's not that many. Now if the Shark TV pits, it would be nice to get three hundred for a thousand rewards."

But soon, a shark bomb information was swiped.

"I am the president of Shark TV, and I solemnly announce here: Yunxueshen's income from live broadcast today is all owned by Yunxueshen!"

Seeing this message, there was another 666 on the barrage, and the audience seemed very happy to see Yun Xueshen get a gift.

During the meal, Li Yun took a moment to glance at the bullet screen and smiled: "Cai Wei Caixia, the live broadcast income will give you one million each. Spend whatever you want, buy clothes, buy bags, top up games, or anything else. After all, today You also have a contribution to the live broadcast!"

"Yeah! Brother is the best~!"

Caixia cheered, her sister smiled shyly, and did not refuse.

Li Feng said slowly: "What about me? I'm cooking for you."

"Haha, Sister, of course you have them too. Is two million enough?"

"Huh, it's almost~"

"Husband, me and me too."

Chapter 1884: Song Yidao lost

Zhonghai City.

"Son, do you want to rest?"

In Song Yi Taoism, his mother opened the door with a worried look and walked in.

The child has been fighting for four hours, even after eating a couple of mouthfuls, he came straight back to continue to write test questions on the live broadcast. As his mother, Mrs. Song is of course very worried about the current situation of her son.

"No, I, I can continue!"

Song Yidao's voice trembled a little, and Madam Song sighed, walked over and took the test paper in front of him directly.

"Mom! Me, give it back to me!"

"Okay, son, you have already lost."

Mrs. Song has a kind of noble lady's temperament, she is obviously a kind of pampered person, and there is no shortage of money in the family.

She directly clicked on Li Yun's live broadcast on Shark TV, and said to Song Yidao: "Look at what you want to defeat, son, do you think you can compare with this kind of person?"

Song Yidao subconsciously looked at the screen with bloodshot eyes, shaking his whole body suddenly.

He saw two slender and powerful men's hands on the screen, writing quickly on two test papers.

"Howmuchistheshirt?"

The scary thing is that the college entrance examination English listening comprehension is still playing in the live broadcast room, but those two hands are writing the theory comprehensive and literary comprehensive examination papers, and every word is clearly identifiable, although it is not as neat as a printed book, but It's definitely better than the characters written by normal people!

"how is this possible....."

Song Yidao muttered to himself in shock, looking at the owner of the two hands. The handsome face of the young man had a faint smile. He was confident, handsome, and sunny, as if one mind and three things were just for him. It's as simple as eating and drinking.

Yes, it's three purposes!

One handwritten essay summary and the other handwritten theory summary. While listening to English listening, write down the listening content and questions so that you can use it when writing English papers.

"how is this possible!"

Song Yidao said these four words with difficulty, and he felt that something collapsed in his mind, and the whole person lost his energy.

He always thought he was a genius, the world's top super genius!

Even if he occasionally fails and loses to someone else, as long as he works hard to deal with it, he will definitely do better than others next time!

But now, at the moment when he saw Li Yun doing three papers with one heart and three uses, Song Yidao was completely defeated.

He knew that he could never surpass this person, he could only look up to him forever!

"Gong Qingyu also gave up."

Mrs. Song put her hand on her son's shoulder, gave him a little comfort, and said softly, "Son, don't compare Li Yun with him. He is obviously not an ordinary person. In terms of memory, thinking, and physical strength, he They are all too strong.

but. "

As soon as the conversation turned, Mrs. Song smiled slightly again: "Even if you have a very quick memory and thinking, you may not be able to make a career! You will enter the world's top universities to study and become a Nobel laureate. Accept the teaching, you are still uncertain about who will achieve higher future achievements, so don't be discouraged! Come on, mother will always believe in you and support you!"

Song Yidao was silent, shook his head lightly, and nodded lightly.

"Mom, I'm tired and want to rest."

"Son you..."

"I'm fine, I'll go abroad in a few days."

"Don't wait for the college entrance examination results?"

"...No need, the result is already out."

Chapter 1885: Explosive increase in strength

The results of the 2020 college entrance examination have indeed come out.

At least the champion has come out.

Li Yun, a senior high school graduate of Zhicai Middle School in Longyang County, Zhonghai City, ranked first with a total score of 5730 (750*, including a full score of 480 in the Jiangsu North Roll).

This special test with 10 million spectators as the invigilator, people from all walks of life, including university professors, newspaper editors, reporters, famous university students, Mandarin masters as the teacher, and the examination room as a camera + own room, was held at 9 o'clock in the evening. The curtain finally came to an end.

For twelve hours of non-sleeping scanning test papers, Li Yun's perseverance, strong willpower and ingenuity have deeply shocked everyone!

In the end, tens of millions of people looked at it with the eyes that are as thin and delicate as the bones of an egg, and they unanimously gave Li Yun full marks for all seven test papers!

"The result is out, Yunxueshen's general subject is perfect!"

"Awesome, is this a genius? I'm already I'm now"

"I declare that Yunxueshen will be the only God for the exam in the future!"

"The genius with the highest IQ in human history: Li Yun!"

"I'm a good boy, I'm stupid. Really get full marks in all subjects?"

On Weibo Post Bar Forum, all the people who followed were repeatedly discussing Li Yun's achievements. Some people who didn't believe originally went to Li Yun's Chinese test papers to look at them. After seeing seven beautifully written and clear writing essays, also fell silent.

No one has come before, and no one will be able to achieve such an achievement in the future.

"Ding, the host made a choice and won the first place in the national college entrance examination! Reward: experience value + 20 million, all attributes + 20,000, colorful gift bag * 2, aura value + 100,000, additional rewards: 1 skill improvement below the master level class."

Li Yun, who put down his pen, immediately became full of expectations. All the skills below the master level were upgraded by one level. This reward is too exaggerated! Far better than two colorful gift bags!

"Ding, the martial arts passive skill Reinforced Iron Bone has been upgraded to a master level."

"Ding, martial arts active skill killer serial dart is promoted to master level."

"Ding, congratulations to the host, the Longming Sword Art has been promoted to a master level and gained a new passive: Longwei (with dragon power, shock the enemy's mind.)"

"Ding, congratulations to the host, Shennian has been promoted to a master level, and a new passive: Shenhun is separated,"

"Ding, congratulations to the host, the earth evil sun fire power has been upgraded to a master level, and a new passive: flame incarnation (you can attach the spirit to the fire).

"Ding, congratulations to the host, the blue dragon roar is promoted to the master level, and a new passive: the power of the blue dragon."

"Ding, congratulations to the host, the Human Emperor Heart Sutra was promoted to a master level, and a new passive: Refining the Heart (The Human Emperor Heart Sutra can be used to assist others in cultivating spiritual thoughts).

"Ding, the skills in life are vaguely promoted to master level."

"Ding....."

A series of prompts sounded so fast that Li Yun couldn't see through his eyes, only feeling one after another powerful force instilled into his body, causing his strength to rise rapidly.

In particular, several powerful skills have all been promoted from advanced to master level together, which surprised Li Yun.

"Brother, are you tired?" Caiwei started to stay in a daze when he saw his brother broadcast, and immediately walked over with anxiety. Putting two small hands on his brother's shoulders, she said obediently: "I'll squeeze my shoulders for my brother. Right, brother worked hard today~~"

"Hahaha, so good, she deserves to be my sister!"

"Hee hee~"

Caixia was not to be outdone, "Brother, I'll beat your thigh~!"

The two sisters went together, but the little princess Yongning and Li Feng also came to join in the fun. Four of them served one of them, making Li Yun comfortable.

"Look at skills or something later, now is the time to enjoy, hehe!"

Chapter 1886: The soul is out of the body, the trust of Yongning

June 10.

For Li Yun, the college entrance examination is officially over. After a tiring day yesterday, fortunately, the rewards were generous enough to make up for the hard work of yesterday.

"Divine Mind, Master Class, the new passive is Divine Soul Departure!"

Li Yun, who got up early, did not get up directly, but put his arms around the little princess who was sleeping soundly, and checked his harvest these days.

Divine Soul Separation is a unique ability of Refining God Realm. Li Yun's first contact with Refining God Realm was in Donggou Village. The cloud cursed at close range.

That incident gave Li Yun a great sense of shock, and it was the first time he knew that a person's divine mind can be attached to another person and control the other person as a puppet!

"Now I also have Divine Soul Departure, which means that my spiritual power has reached the requirements of the Divine Refining Realm?"

Li Yun is now at the limit of the innate realm, and there is still an unknown distance from the so-called fetal movement state, but now he can already use the spirit to separate the body, and can also control the earth fire. In a sense, Li Yun is now halfway. A spell practitioner!

If he can enter the fetal movement state, I am afraid that no one will be his opponent under the Void Return Realm and the Martial God Realm.

"Yes, very good, hahaha! Let me try what it is like to be out of the body!"

Li Yun was lying on the bed, beside him was the petite and lovely little princess Yongning with a sweet fragrance. Li Yun looked at her with a chuckle, and then showed his spirit away.

The next moment, his soul left his body, and Li Yun immediately felt the difference between the soul and the soul, which is a wonderful sense organ between the soul and the soul. Through the soul, he can do more things. Instead of observing the outside world like divine mind.

"Possessed!"

Li Yun controls the soul, no, it can't be said to be manipulation. His current main consciousness is on the soul. It should be said that Li Yun directly attached to the little princess's petite body, acting cautiously, for fear of hurting Yongning.

Theoretically speaking, simply possessing spirits will not cause harm to the possessed person, provided that the other party releases the sea of consciousness and allows the spirits to enter.

"Husband, husband?"

In the sea of consciousness, the sleeping little princess was awakened and asked subconsciously in a blank voice.

Li Yun observed her soul world, and found that the little princess's sea of consciousness showed a bright golden yellow, and a brilliant colorful light appeared from time to time, which looked extremely strong, completely different from her fragile body.

If he intrudes hard, Li Yun's spirit strength may not be able to penetrate it.

"it's me."

As Li Yun passed a divine thought, the resistance of the little princess instantly fell apart, and the sea of consciousness became calm, allowing Li Yun to come and go to visit.

"Uh, trust me so, you really deserve to be my little princess."

Li Yun was moved a little, and then moved his soul into the world of knowledge of the sea in Yongning.

In an instant, a feeling of warmth, laziness, tiredness, happiness, and sweetness surged.

These are all from the feelings of Princess Yongning at the moment, and they are fully accepted by Li Yun!

"I'm going...it feels weird!"

Divine consciousness entering the sea of knowledge of others is completely different from divine soul entering.

Divine Mind is equivalent to a guest, entering the sea of knowledge of others and going out after just walking around, while Divine Soul is a robber, looting everything in the sea of consciousness frantically.

Li Yun guessed that if the soul directly enters the sea of knowledge of others, it is equivalent to a desperate refugee trying to kill the owner and occupy all the property.

"The soul invades, and can control the opponent to become a puppet; the soul invades, you can completely seize the house!"

Chapter 1887: Sliding beard and marathon relationship

After personally experiencing the feeling of the divine spirit being separated from the body, Li Yun left Princess Yongning's sea of consciousness, and the divine spirit returned to his body.

"My little Yongning is so cute!"

Seeing the cute appearance of the little princess still sleeping, Li Yun couldn't help but leaned down and kissed the forehead of little princess Lori's shopping.

"Um~~."

The little princess made a vague response. Li Yun thought she would shrink into the bed and continue to sleep, but she did not expect that the little princess stretched out her slender white arm from the bed sheet and just wrapped his arms around his neck.

"Dear, dear, husband~"

The delicate and soft voice made Li Yun stunned. At this moment, the little princess of Yongning was like a chick waiting to be fed, with her mouth open and waiting for intimacy.

"Husband, Yongning wants to kiss~~"

The little princess said vaguely again, Li Yun...satisfied her request, leaned down, and slammed the little princess's cherry mouth.

Recklessly.

As a result, three minutes later.

The little princess fell asleep again, with a satisfying smile on her delicate and lovely face, and she could sleep comfortably until noon this time.

"Uh!"

Li Yun made a confession statement with his hands on his forehead.

He is guilty.

He shouldn't have broken the little princess! !

The little princess Jinwuzang, he really deserves to be sentenced to three years starting with the highest death sentence! !

"But... Yongning is an ancient person. In ancient times, I could get married at the age of fourteen or five. Moreover, Yongning was betrothed to me by her father himself. What's wrong with my fiancée? I am upright! I am reasonable, reasonable and legal! "

Finding an excuse for himself, Li Yun kissed Princess Yongning's little mouth fiercely, and got up contentedly.

Although Hu Xiaomeng and Yong Ning are about the same age, they are completely two types of girls.

Hu Xiaomeng is a strange girl, and Li Yun often treats her as a peer, while the little princess is ignorant and even younger than a primary school student — she has been learning the pinyin taught in kindergarten every afternoon. The little princess who sleeps 16 hours a day, God knows when she can finish the elementary school courses.

Lazily through the morning after the college entrance examination, at two o'clock in the afternoon, Li Yun rode on the recently bought electric car and headed to the high-end villa area in Longyang County.

When this small broken electric car appeared at the gate of the villa area, it attracted the onlookers of many morning exercisers. When they saw that the security guards did not stop it and let it go directly, everyone was shocked.

"Don't make a fuss, don't you see who he is? He is Li Yun!"

Li Yun!

As soon as the name came out, everyone had the feeling of seeing a big star.

Li Yun's current fame can be described as thunderous, especially in Longyang County, and everyone knows it.

The national champion, can he not be famous?

Li Yun, who came to Fang Xue's house, was warmly welcomed by her family.

"Li Yun is here!"

"Oh, our Fang family son-in-law is finally here!"

"The national champion, my niece and son-in-law are really good!"

"Not only the national champion, our niece is also Chairman Li of Baiyun Technology, hahaha, Xiaoxue, but you have found a golden turtle son-in-law!"

Not only Fang Huyu's parents are there, but also her grandparents, uncles and aunts, cousins, and so on.

The Fang family seemed to know from Fang Xue that Li Yun would come in the afternoon, so they all waited at the gate of the villa, ignoring the hot sun in the summer, and patiently waiting for Li Yun's arrival!

So when I saw Li Yun, this group of Fang Xue's relatives all rushed forward, licking the relationship, flattering and flattering relatives, everything is available!

Chapter 1888: Flattering relatives

Li Yun naturally understood the thoughts of Fang Xue's relatives.

The Fang family has been wealthy for three generations, and the interior is stable, and Fang Xue's father and grandfather are also alive. It is absolutely impossible for the Fang family to fight for greater benefits from the Fang family. They can only drink a sip of soup and want to eat. Meat is impossible.

But the appearance of Li Yun broke the tranquility of Fang's family. He is not only the chairman of a company with a market value of 100 billion yuan, but also coincidentally, this company is still located in Zhonghai City!

That is to say, as long as the Fang family cooperates with Li Yun to enter Zhonghai City, these people in the Fang family will follow the charge trap, and they will naturally get a bite of the meat to try!

"Ahem, uncles and uncles, aunts and aunts, hello!"

Li Yun showed a smile on his face, greeted them one by one, and then said: "I came to visit Fang's house today, kid Li Yun, but I don't know that all the uncles and aunts are here too, I didn't even have a present ready!"

"Hey, what gift is not a gift!"

A glamorous lady in her forties was full of enthusiasm. "What gift my family said, it's not plausible. Walk and go in. From now on, Fang's family will be yours. You can come to have a meal and talk about the family at any time. , Isn't it? Xiaoxue."

Fang Xue can only nod her head, what else can she say in front of the elders?

Li Yun followed into Fang's villa, and just about to step into the threshold of Xiaoxue's house, the system prompt came!

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Choice 1: Conquer the Fang family, make the Fang family happy up and down, happy father-in-law and mother-in-law, happy grandpa and grandma, and successfully embrace the beauty, reward experience value +5 million, all attributes +5000, golden gift bag*1, Four medium-sized medicinal herbs*3, additional reward: Ningxue Divine Art (innate realm technique, only used by Fangxue).

Option 2: Treat them coldly and let these blood-sucking relatives get out! Reward experience value +10 million, all attributes +8000, golden gift bag*2, a small probability will make father-in-law and mother-in-law disgusted.

Option 3: Turn around and leave, no reward, break with Fang's family, suggest that the host take Fang Xue directly away. "

It's okay to kidnap him directly, but does the system treat him as a robber?

Li Yun cursed inwardly, his face was calm, and he stepped into the Fang's house steadily.

There is nothing to choose for this choice event. Choose the first item and it's over... I'm Cao!

Li Yun was taken aback. Yesterday, it was broadcast live for a day, and I am now full of online language. This is not good, it is too vulgar!

He is also a special refining  + congenital extreme powerhouse now, plus the identity of the national champion, he has to be a little demeanor, right?

"Nie-in-law, what kind of tea would you like to drink? I remember that there is the best Tieganyin at home, and I asked your aunt to bring it for you!" said a middle-aged man who looked a few years older than Li Yun's father-in-law with a big smile on his face.

result.

"Fang Long!" Grandpa Fang Xue was so angry that he blew his beard and stared, "My Tieganyin is something you used to please the younger generation? A fool! Do you want to make a face?"

Li Yun was stunned, his father-in-law Fang Huyu still has an older brother? It seems that the inheritance of the Fang family is based on ability, rather than orderly growth.

"Dad, what is a junior? Li Yun is now the son-in-law of our Fang family, and he is also the chairman of Baiyun Technology. What is the status of the niece now? What does a pot of Tieganyin count."

"you!"

"It's alright, brother, don't be angry, I think Fang Long is right!"

The talking was an old lady in her sixties, who looked to be Fang Xue's aunt and grandpa Fang Xue's younger sister.

Chapter 1889: Take everyone to make a fortune

Sure enough, all the Fang family came.

The villa was too lively, Li Yun and Fang Xue sat together and watched the group of relatives clamoring, they looked at each other and smiled, their smiles filled with helplessness.

"My uncles and aunts."

Li Yun hurriedly stopped their argument, "Ordinary tea, everyone can treat it as an ordinary Fang family son-in-law, no special treatment, right, Xiaoxue?"

As a result, Fang Xue pinched his waist again.

"What is the son-in-law of the Fang family? I haven't agreed yet..." Fang Xue's little face was red, and the Fang family's family gathered together, which had already made the Fang family's intentions clear.

Li Yun smiled and didn't say much.

"What does ordinary tea look like!" Grandpa Fang Xue turned to the servant and said, "Aunt Zhang, go get my Tieganyin."

"Yes, Master!"

The master is Fang Huyu, he is now at the helm of the Fang family, and Grandpa Fang Xue can only be the eldest master.

In the end, he drank the best Tieguanyin, which made Li Yun dumbfounded.

After everyone drank a few sips of tea, they chatted, and I don't know who brought the topic to Li Yun's Baiyun technology. The Fang family immediately began to praise Li Yun, what is young and promising, smart, smart, talented, and the future is Baiyun. Technology will surely grow into a top global company and so on.

Li Yun was annoying.

"Uncles and aunts, can I say a few words?"

As soon as Li Yun spoke, the Fang family calmed down and looked at him with eager eyes.

"I know what the elders mean, and I am also happy to take everyone to make a fortune."

The Fang family breathed a sigh of relief again, with surprise expressions on their faces. They worked so hard for most of the day, isn't it just for these words!

Although Li Yun is the son-in-law of the Fang family, when it comes to interest issues, not to mention the son-in-law, even the son may not be useful. Besides, they all know that Li Yun is not only Fang Xue a woman, and can't even drink soup unless he hurry up.

Baiyun Technology is too big for the other side!

Especially after Baiyun Technology recently launched a world-renowned technology, the Fang family's eyes were red when they saw it, and they couldn't wait to rush up and open their mouths behind Li Yun, waiting for some meat foam to fall off.

"but!"

Li Yun's next sentence made Fang's family nervous again.

"I'm happy to make a fortune with everyone, but the so-called making money is a good way, I think uncles and aunts should also be clear."

Li Yun glanced at them with a smile, and continued: "I don't know much about company management. It's now in charge of Wu Ke. If you want to cooperate, you can try to be an agent. I think whether it's technology licensing or new type of lithium. Batteries require many subsidiaries to cooperate."

That is the second-level dealer, yes, the Fang family knows this too well!

"Great!"

Everyone is ecstatic. As long as you are not a fool, you know how much benefit the new lithium battery will produce. When the time comes, the wealth of everyone in the Fang family can easily be doubled. It is not a problem!

"But." Li Yun said again: "I don't want to say anything ugly. Everyone can make money together for a long time. Anyone who breaks this premise, I don't think Xiaoxue will be polite."

"Me?" Fang Xue was stunned.

"Yes, you."

Li Yun smiled and said, "Xiaoxue, won't you help me? I can't manage so many things."

"Can!"

Grandpa Fang nodded and looked at Fang Xue with a wise gaze: "Xiaoxue, you can manage the cooperation between Fang's family in Zhonghai City and Baiyun Technology in the future. Anyone who does not follow the rules will directly run him out of Zhonghai City. Too much polite!"

Chapter 1890: Tens of billions to practice hands

Fang Xue wrinkled her long and slender eyebrows when she heard what Grandpa said. After thinking about it for a while, she understood what Grandpa meant.

Li Yun is willing to let Fang's family have a drink together, and in the future will become a secondary distributor of Baiyun Technology, responsible for authorized agents in some provinces.

For example, with the latest lithium battery technology, in the future, Baiyun Technology will authorize a company established by Fang's family, and then Fang's company will negotiate with other companies to earn intermediate benefits.

Secondary dealers are very common in business. Usually, their complex is sales in some remote areas and has little to do with the head office.

Strictly speaking, this category is a first-level agent, but Li Yun can't make so many Fang's family members a first-level agent. He first authorizes Fang Xue's company, and then Fang Xue authorizes Fang's family.

In this way, Fang Xue can control his family to prohibit them from committing any violations of laws and regulations. Fang Xue can directly cancel his agency rights without the consent of Baiyun Technology.

"I... can I?"

Fang Xue was very nervous. Although she was trained by her parents as the future leader of the Fang family, she was only a senior high school graduate, four years before graduating from university. Originally, she wanted to get in touch with these again when she was in her senior year. .

The Fang family looked at Li Yun one by one, seeming to say, if Fang Xue can't, she can find them!

Before Fang Xue graduated, they were happy to be first-level agents.

Even Fang Huyu and Grandpa Fang didn't speak, feeling that Fang Xue had taken on this kind of burden too early.

Li Yun shrugged and smiled: "What's the matter? If it's a big deal, you will screw it up and waste tens of billions of power as a hands-on practice. No one will do it at the beginning, right?"

"Ten billions...practice!"

The Fang family members were stunned.

Don't look at Fang's assets in the tens of billions, but when the children reach adulthood, it's good to give them 10 to 20 million as a starting capital. If Fang Xue cannot stabilize the situation within five years of graduation, he may be removed and replaced. The Fang family who can take over.

But Li Yun is now directly saying tens of billions to practice hands...

At this moment, the Fang family realized what a gap is.

"This is what you said!" Fang Xue gritted her teeth and agreed, "I will..."

She is still a little worried.

"Do not worry."

Li Yun held her small hand, "You set up a company and ask your dad to recruit a few people for you to interview. Then you choose a professional manager. As long as you grasp the power of cooperation with Baiyun Technology, you will not be afraid of the people underneath. , They need to rely on your relationship with Baiyun Technology, understand?"

Fang Xue seemed to understand, it seemed that the emperor was holding the power of the army, as long as the power of the army was in his hand, the undercurrents and conspiracies of the people underneath actually didn't need to care about it.

"The power of cooperation with Baiyun Technology..." Fang Xue muttered to herself, and immediately understood something: "Isn't it just the relationship with you!!? You bad guy is still talking around the corner!"

"Hahaha, yes, your husband, I am supporting you!"

"Hate, I won't please you, huh~"

The fight between the young couple surprised the Fang family. The better the relationship between Fang Xue and Li Yun, the higher the profits they can make!

After learning that Li Yun was going to eat at Fang's house in the evening, Fang's family immediately got busy preparing for the dinner. All kinds of fine wines and food were delivered, and Li Yun was lucky enough to drink the legendary Lafite of 82 years.

After three rounds of wine, Fang Huyu, who was drunk red, finally took Fang Xue's hand and placed it in Li Yun's hand, and solemnly said: "Li Yun, Xiaoxue will leave it to you. Treat her well! Otherwise, my family will not agree to it up and down!"

"Yes!"
