Chapter 2191: The incomprehensible Saintess

"My Lord Saint, come, kiss and open your mouth~" Li Yun chuckled into the phone. Even though he was thousands of miles away, he seemed to be able to see Saint Fan Qing obediently do it, with his ruddy and graceful lips open. Waiting for him to kiss.

Such a sage of Brahma is extremely beautiful.

When Li Yun dated her last time, she did such a thing in front of Li Yun's eyes.

"Come on, my saintess, dear~"

"Dear~"

The calm voice of Saint Fanqing had some ups and downs, like a piece of sweet petals floating in Li Yun's mouth, soft and soothing, intoxicating.

In particular, the sound of "dear" can almost make people's bones soft.

Time seemed to freeze, the two were thousands of miles apart, but they opened their mouths slightly, silently communicating warm emotions.

Until Fan Qingsheng said: "Okay, I will kiss next time."

"Um!"

Make an appointment, hang up the phone, Li Yun lies on the chair with his hands in his head, dreaming about what happened just now.

After thinking for a long time, I didn't think of what Fan Qingsheng thought. She said she has no emotions, but her actions are more sultry than any confidante beside Li Yun. The bones are all three pounds crisp.

Speaking of emotions, his Lord Saint can speak such intimate love words without blushing and breathless. Li Yun estimated that even if she mentioned sleeping with her, Lord Saint would just nod her head gently and say something. Um.

Then he unzipped his belt wide, just like the last time he went out on a date, Qing Sheng changed his clothes directly in front of him.

There is no shame of ordinary people.

"Damn, what do I want to do so much? I just want to know that just ask Qingsheng directly, she will not deceive at all, what can I say!"

Li Yun sat up with a carp, just picked up the phone, and suddenly thought: "No! Even if I ask her, she doesn't necessarily know her heart, even Qing Sheng himself doesn't know why she did it!"

Thinking of this, Li Yun couldn't help but shook his head and smiled bitterly. Qing Sheng was his nemesis. Even if it was 100% favorability, he couldn't figure out what Qing Sheng was thinking.

Maybe, she just didn't want anything, she simply liked him, so she wanted to kiss him?

"Hey, I can't imagine my charm is quite big!"

"Laughing so disgustingly early in the morning, I must be thinking about something bad!"

Jin Liuli, who was wearing a tights, walked out, rolled his eyes and kicked his chair by the way:
"Get out of the way, I want to practice sword!"

"Sword practice?"

"Of course, I practice swords every morning and evening! My name is Jin Liuli's genius, but I have all practiced it!"

"Uh, okay, I see you practice, keep it quiet, they are not awake yet."

Li Yun glanced at the room, but found that the two women had woken up, one was lying on the bed playing with a mobile phone, and the other was getting dressed.

"satyr!"

Jin Liuli snorted, stretched out her hand to take out her saber from the space ring, and began to dance in a decent way.

The screaming sound of sword air caught the attention of Su Muxin who was lying on the bed. She walked out wearing a silk pajamas, ignoring the possibility of her figure being exposed—anyway, it was them and Li Yun.

"It's so good-looking, so handsome."

Su Muxin looked at the girl dancing sword on the balcony with envy on her face.

Jin Liuli, wearing a tight-fitting practice uniform, has an incredibly soft body and a small waist, as if his hands can be closed. The graceful posture moves around, and the golden soft sword in his hand is shining in the sun, which is impressive. Can't help but be dazzled.

After the end of a set of swordsmanship, a scent of sweat appeared on the bridge of Jin Liuli's little nose, and she turned her head to look at Li Yun and Su Muxin triumphantly, as if she was waiting for the praised little girl.

"Xiao Liuli, so amazing!"

"Hehe~"

Jin Liuli was finally satisfied. After eating the breakfast delivered by the waiter, she took the initiative to pull Xia Feiyao out of the room.

Chapter 2192: today Tomorrow Day after Tomorrow

"Big pervert, you are not allowed to follow, humph~!"

Leaving Li Yun a grimace in the eyes, Jin Liuli and Xia Feiyao left.

At first, Li Yun thought she was fooling around again, but his Yaoyao really left with him, only then did he realize that something was wrong.

"they....."

"Hehe, Brother Li Yun~~~"

When the two women left, Su Muxin rushed into his embrace, her beautiful little face flushed, she held his neck for a moment, her voice was full of charm: "Today, Brother Li Yun will accompany him. I~~where~ I am not allowed to go~~!"

Her eyes were full of tenderness and honey, and there was a stunning smile on the corner of her mouth, which was self-evident.

Li Yun was shocked.

"Little pepper, dare you to discuss it secretly last night?"

"What to discuss? People don't know anything~~"

Su Muxin smiled crookedly, she kissed the corner of his lips shyly, "Brother Li Yun, you will play with me the next day~"

"Then... what about tomorrow?"

"Hate, I haven't had it today, Brother Li Yun is thinking about tomorrow!" Su Muxin glanced at him with a grimace, and Li Yun quickly apologized before coaxing it off.

"It's Feiyao, and the day after tomorrow is Xiao Liuli. But," Su Muxin said with a coquettish smile: "She didn't promise to say that she must be with you. You have to work hard, Brother Li Yun~"

"I start working hard now?"

Li Yun smiled, "Little Pepper will help me persuade her, right?"

"Humph~, it depends on your performance, Brother Li Yun."

"Performance? Of course it's top-notch."

"I don't believe it~"

Su Muxin's beautiful eyes were filled with water-like tenderness, and she eagerly leaned forward to be intimate with Brother Li Yun.

"..."

"Is it here?"

"No, no, go to the next suite. Here, leave this to Feiyao and the others..."

Li Yun hugged Su Muxin, whose eyes were blurred, and hugged her out of the door in a princess hug. Just stepping out, he ran into a waitress cleaning the house.

"Ah~"

Su Muxin let out a small exclamation, her cheeks flushed even harder.

And the waitress, seeing her two postures, knew what was going to happen, bowed her head and walked back.

But before leaving, she couldn't help but look up at Li Yun and Su Muxin. The handsome and handsome couple of men gently hugged their girlfriends in a princess hug, their eyes full of spoiling.

And the girl with her boyfriend's arms around her boyfriend is so beautiful, she has a good figure, and has a noble and charming temperament. She is one of the few big beauties that waitresses see. I'm afraid it was just the one who came up at the pier in Zhendong City yesterday afternoon. Peerless beauty can be compared with her.

"This couple rests in broad daylight? Oh~ I'm so envious! I also want to have such a handsome and rich boyfriend!"

The waitress burst into tears, and before she left, the two entered another room and disappeared completely before her eyes.

The waitress waited for a while, couldn't help but took the opportunity of cleaning, walked to the door and overheard. Although it was impossible to hear any sound, the feeling of blushing and heartbeat made her especially excited.

noon.

Jin Liuli and Xia Feiyao came back for lunch. They had already guessed something after seeing that the waiter had not delivered the meal to the room. After seeing Su Muxin appeared, they suddenly realized that the two women looked at each other and blushed together.

Chapter 2193: Hacking Technology (Part 1)

Su Muxin sat down with Li Yun's support. The two women saw her wearing pajamas, with messy hair, faintly visible hickeys between her neck, her expression lazy and charming, her eyes were like water, her brows were full of spring, and she was full of the wind. After the rain. The charming charm of her, like a flower in full bloom, has a charm that is completely different from that of four hours ago.

"This... Sister Mu Xin, are you... okay?!"

Seeing that she couldn't even walk, Jin Liuli was frightened and at a loss, but she didn't see her one morning, Sister Mu Xin was no longer that Little Chili Sister, she became the real Big Sister Muxin!

The young girl's youthfulness faded away, and she became mature all at once, from a little chili pepper to sister Mu Xin!

"Hehe~."

Fortunately, sister Little Chili's expression of covering her mouth and snickering was the same as before, which made Jin Liuli feel a little more relieved, and she didn't seem so inferior. She always felt that she was especially inferior in front of her current sister Little Chili!

"Slightly... overplayed a little bit."

Su Muxin stuck out her tongue. She didn't have to be too shy in front of the two sisters. After looking at Li Yun, she lowered her head and smiled with a flattering smile: "Brother Li Yun is as good as ever, well, I'm worried about the afternoon... ..Or, you guys too?"

"I do not want it!"

Jin Liuli hurriedly refused. After eating in twos or twos, she fled back to her room-the room originally allocated to her.

"Hey?"

Su Muxin was surprised to stop her, but Jin Liuli had already left the door and entered the room where she and Li Yun had been tossing all morning.

Su Muxin's eyes widened suddenly, she hadn't let people clean up the remaining things inside...

Xia Feiyao thought for a while before trying to understand why, her face blushed, and she hurriedly lowered her head to eat, not daring to think about it anymore.

"what!!!"

Sure enough, after three seconds of shock, the little wild cat's scream rang out next door.

With the bang of the door, Jin Liuli fled back like a burnt butt, but seeing Li Yun and Su Muxin's funny eyes, a little face turned red and fled again.

"Big pervert big pervert, you villain, you, you...!!!"

In that room, there were terrifying pictures and smells that Jin Liuli would never forget for a lifetime. It was, yes... it was amazing!

"All right, Xiao Liuli don't be shy, it's your turn in two days..."

"I don't want it! I don't want it!! I don't want it!!!"

Lunch was spent amidst the noise of the little wild cat. After it was over, Jin Liuli hurriedly grabbed Xia Feiyao's little hand and continued to go to the cruise ship. She didn't dare to stay here again, lest she be swallowed by the big bad wolf!

Asking the waitress to clean the next room and change the sheets, Su Muxin nestled in Li Yunqi again and said sweetly: "Brother Li Yun, shall we continue?"

"Aren't you tired?" Li Yun has been with her all day today, and he is getting more and more energetic, but Su Muxin... almost.

"It's rare that someone can monopolize Dad today~"

Su Muxin changed her name, she shrank in his arms, and said sweetly: "If Dad wants to rest, others can do it~, but well, people want to see Brother Li Yun's superb hacking skills, but I haven't seen it for a long time. Dad looks handsome~"

The two knew each other because of computer technology, so Su Muxin is now especially looking at Li Yun operating the computer, and the scene of the wind and rain on the Internet, she must be very handsome!

"Hacking technology?" Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry. "What do you think... Besides, I don't have a target to invade now. I can't invade the White Palace website of Country M for fun, right?"

Chapter 2194: Hacking Technology (Part 2)

It's not that Li Yun said, his god-level hacking skills are enough to make him a * in the network, and no defense system on the earth can prevent his invasion-even satellites in outer space!

"Okay, okay~" Xiaojiao is typically not too big to watch the excitement, and now she wants to rest and fight again, and even more wants to see her dad showing off his superb hacking skills and invading the most important website of country M. So, She hugged Li Yun's neck happily, leaned forward and took a bite, begging coquettishly:

"Dad, go there, go to invade the website of the White Palace."

Little Pepper's eyes glowed, "Then, write on it: God's sanctions and the bright red pepper are here~~, hehehe~."

"No, I don't agree with this name."

After Li Yun defeated the gang behind the Bitcoin virus last time, the Western news called him God sanctions, but how did Li Yun, an Oriental, get a Western name?

So he refused. He really wanted a nickname. It should be from the East, such as the Jade Emperor's sanctions.

"Besides," Li Yun said helplessly: "I really want to take action. No one on the Internet can stop me, and no one can find me, but country M must know that I did it. They sent a letter of protest directly to the embassy. Then come to trouble me."

The Bitcoin virus incident quickly lost its influence among the ordinary people, and most of the online reports also concealed Li Yun's name. After all, this incident is not very glorious for Huang Xuanguo and the West.

But in the high-level Internet security circles, Li Yun's name has always been well-known, and the black Satan Nelson has been at large. During this period, he did not know how many networks he invaded, disrupted public cameras, security bureau systems, aerospace systems, and even invaded. The network of international police officers erased all criminal information about him.

It is precisely because the escaped Nelson caused such a terrifying destructive power that Li Yun's deeds of defeating him and the demon hacker army behind him in one fell swoop made it even more legendary!

"Well, that's what I said."

Su Muxin's face collapsed, and she said excitedly: "Ah, yes, let's just invade the cruise ship? Use the camera to monitor the entire cruise ship to prevent Yan Jingyi from secretly doing something behind!"

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Monitor Yan Jingyi, reward justice value +5000, experience value +5 million, all attributes +1000, golden gift bag*1, extra reward: after success, get special reward from Su Muxin, small recovery pill*5, medium recovery pill *2 (recommended to be given to Su Muxin for use).

Option 2: Give up, continue to play other things with Su Muxin, and reward a small recovery pill*1.

Choice 3: Give her a laugh, then beat her to reward a small recovery Dan*2. "

Li Yun twitched the corners of his mouth. Why did he feel that the rewards of the system were so evil?

Although he is indeed planning to use a small recovery pill for Su Muxin...

"How about it, dad~" Little Chili started acting like a baby again. This time she was more proactive and cast a charming look at Li Yun: "If Li Yun promises to others, they will give Dad rewards later~"

Yes, what else do you think, just do it, choose one!

"Hehe, Brother Li Yun is so nice~"

Su Muxin snapped another kiss. After making sure that the next room had been cleaned up, she pulled him back. In this way, she and Brother Li Yun could play hacking while playing others.

Chapter 2195: Old Acquaintances (Part 1)

Generally speaking, the more advanced the residence, the more professional the waiter.

Although Li Yun and Su Muxin messed up the room in the morning, the waitresses on the cruise ship should not be surprised. They changed the sheets, scrubbed the floor, replaced the pillows, sprayed air freshener and perfume, and quickly restored the room to its original state.

Of course, these services are not free, and the house damage fee will be included when you check out.

"Hey, wait!"

After calling her, Su Muxin took out a few red banknotes, handed them to the waitress who had been serving them, and said in Chinese: "Are you from Huang Xuan country? This is a tip. I will trouble you to clean it in the next few days. Remember not to tell others~"

There are tourists from all over the world on this international cruise ship, and of course there are attendants from all over the world. There are both yellow and black races. If there is no special designation, attendants are assigned according to nationality.

"Thank you, thank you Miss for your generosity!" The female service was flattered. After all, Huang Xuan people usually don't have the habit of tipping, and her salary is higher than that of other countries with tips. Su Muxin's money is considered extra money.

"Miss, please rest assured!"

The waitress couldn't help but glanced at her handsome boyfriend, and promised: "We all have professional secrecy measures, and everything we replace is destroyed uniformly. Apart from me, no one will take over what was just now. !"

This ensures secrecy, and if something goes wrong, it must be her responsibility.

After the waiter left, Li Yun and Su Muxin closed the door again.

"Little Chili, you are quite thoughtful."

"Hmm, how can I say that I am also the president of Baiyun Technology in the future, and of course he will buy people's hearts~"

Su Muxin couldn't wait to take out the computer, then took off her nightgown in twos and threes, threw it on the sofa, and urged Li Yun: "Hurry up, let's start!"

"Ahem, do you want to seduce me with these words?"

"Hee hee hee, not now, wait a minute, I will assist Brother Li Yun and start to attack the city!"

Su Muxin was so bold that she was naked, humming and sitting in front of her laptop, and skillfully opened various hacking software, ready to assist him.

Li Yun glanced at her perfect figure, followed by sitting at the table, and smiled: "You help me? Don't use your messy software. I will pass you a few, all of which I wrote in my spare time. Yes, the functions are all complete, scanning loopholes, injecting data, seizing control, anti-intrusion, etc.!"

"Wow, God's brother's software? Give it to me quickly~"

God sanctions + Li Yun brother = God brother.

Li Yun was speechless, wouldn't he become God's father if he went on?

After receiving all kinds of intrusion software as secret weapons, Su Muxin became courageous, and offered her one to operate, and let Li Yun sit behind her.

Rear in various senses.

"I'm here~, Brother Li Yun, help me invade the mail and cruise ships... um."

Su Muxin blushed and sat with Li Yun, to be precise, only Li Yun was sitting on the chair.

Taking a deep breath, Su Muxin patted her stomach and squeezed her small fist. Her beautiful and gorgeous face showed an expression of excitement and excitement: "Brother Li Yun, what do you do? The first step is to find Yan Jingyi's IP address? Hmm, Brother Li Yun, don't move, I can't sit still."

Chapter 2196: Old acquaintance (part 2)

"Hey, this is the time to test your skills. While being disturbed, you can complete the network intrusion."

Li Yunshu sighed, resting his head on Su Muxin's head, looking at the laptop screen in front of them, and said: "In fact, you don't need an ip address. You used to invade the network control center on the cruise ship from the LAN. You only need to master all the devices that are connected to the network. , You can find Yan Jingyi's computer and mobile phone!"

The cruise ship is equipped with a signal tower. Except for the direct use of the data network, all wifi and computer networks transmit data through that signal tower.

"Oh, it turned out to be like this... Is it to click this button? Hey, it's the software written by Brother Li Yun, just click it, and the intrusion succeeded?"

With the hacker software written by Li Yun himself, Su Muxin was simply the  of the network, the God of Congshen, and instantly invaded the master control network center and obtained the link information of a total of 15,612 devices of various types on the cruise ship.

"Well, slow down, let me see what's in the network... Cruise control system? Weather monitoring system? Thunder, radar system, ah, international radio contact, turbocharging, cabin door control... Oh my God!"

Su Muxin screamed, and she was shocked to find that she had obtained all control rights of the cruise ship after just a few random clicks!

In other words, she can now make the cruise ship turn, stop, accelerate, and close the bottom hatch, making the crew in the bottom compartment of the cruise ship unable to advance or retreat. Unless the captain personally orders to switch to manual control mode, she can control everything on the ship. !

"If Yan Jingyi took control of the cruise ship, the consequences would be unimaginable... ah!"

Su Muxin bit her lip, turned her head and gave Li Yun a look that is not allowed to interfere with her, biting her silver teeth, and continued: "Fortunately, fortunately, the cruise ship is not equipped with a self-detonation device like in the movie. Otherwise, how terrible the hackers will control it!"

Li Yun smiled, "Where is there a cruise ship with self-detonation devices in the world, and nuclear submarines? Okay, don't worry about it, look for Yan Jingyi's room in the tourist rating system, and find his computer! Hmm, Next comes the challenge. I will interfere with you and see if you can concentrate."

Su Muxin blushed and tried to look at the computer screen, insisting not to be affected by the interference.

She is a big hacker and president in the future, how can she be scared by a little torture!

"Registration system... Yan Jingyi, ah, I found it!"

"Room 056 on the 15th floor, click and click to go in?"

Su Muxin tried hard to suppress the discomfort. She wanted to do this. She couldn't blame others, but she wanted to reward Li Yun brother, so she did it.

"Well, hack into his network directly!"

Li Yun decided to speed up. Su Muxin tried her best to look up and down at the screen, and her little hand trembled slightly and clicked the mouse.

Huh.

A picture immediately appeared on the screen.

"Huh? It was really successful."

Li Yun looked at the screen, the interference slowed down, Su Muxin sighed in relief, pursed her lips and smiled: "How? I succeeded, right? Hehe, Yan Jingyi just turned on the computer, and his camera was not physically isolated. The method was sealed, allowing me to gain control of his camera!"

"Very good, I'll give you some rewards, let me fragrant one."

"Hehe, wait a minute."

Su Muxin turned her head and kissed him. She continued to look at the screen and manipulated the mouse and keyboard with her trembling hands. She said, "Yan Jingyi doesn't seem to be at home, but the notebook is open. I can see his room...Huh? In his room. How come there is a man!?"

Chapter 2197: Black satan

"man?"

Li Yun was shocked, almost thinking of something bad, and after a glance outside the window, he confirmed that it was daytime, not night.

Well, after all, what he and Su Muxin are doing now is to engage in network virus intrusion. Of course, this happened at night.

"Huh? Huh?? Huh!!!"

Looking at the screen, Su Muxin became more and more surprised. She tried to stabilize her figure by holding the table with both hands, leaning forward to look at the screen, and exclaimed in surprise: "Brother Li Yun, look, the person inside seems to be Nelson!"

"What Nelson?"

Li Yun turned a deaf ear, speeded up and didn't take it to heart, how beautiful Su Muxin is now.

"That is, the boss of the demon legion you defeated last time!"

What Su Muxin tried to say made Li Yun finally pick up some interest. After slowing down, he motioned for Su Muxin to come by himself, and he leaned in front of the screen and looked at it.

"It's really him!"

"Yeah! I just said it was him!"

Su Muxin nodded affirmatively, her body moved like a nod. Li Yun was quite surprised and smiled: "Last time at the press conference, the Bitcoin virus released by this guy was blackmailed to my company's computer. After being defeated by me, I didn't pay attention. , I heard about the global escape being chased by international policemen?"

"Yes, yes!" Su Muxin continued to work hard while looking at him admiringly: "After Brother Li Yun took the shot, Nelson's identity was exposed and he was wanted worldwide. Unexpectedly, he also appeared on the Ocean Princess and also colluded with Yan Jingyi. We are together! Phew~"

After sitting firmly, Su Muxin sighed and sighed: "So it seems that Yan Jingyi does have the idea of hijacking the cruise ship. They want to control the cruise ship's automatic navigation system? It doesn't seem to be reasonable."

"indeed."

Li Yun nodded, put his arms around Su Muxin's waist, and clicked with the mouse to search for Nielsen's laptop signal, only to find that this guy was like a frightened bird. He didn't use the cruise ship's network, but used Gugou's global wifi.

Gugou is a world-renowned super giant company with a market value of the top five. It put forward a plan ten years ago: launch a hundred signal satellites to build a global public wifi network, so that the world's Everyone can surf the Internet for free!

It is a pity that free is fake, and it is true to promote their advertisements and conduct some military infiltrations in country M. This so-called global free network finally failed. After three months of opening, the free channel was closed.

But some of the remaining networks still give people like Nielsen the space to surf the Internet at any time: safe surfing, not intrusive.

"Then what to do?"

Su Muxin couldn't help stopping her action, "Yan Jingyi has someone now and Nielsen who is familiar with hacking techniques. Even if he doesn't know how to control a cruise ship, he can still understand the basic navigation and can use this to threaten the captain. Then it will be troublesome.!"

"It's okay, keep moving, I will solve it!"

Li Yun was so bold, looking at Nelson on the laptop screen, he laughed, "I say hello to my old friend, I believe he will be quite pleasantly surprised!"

"F*ck, let me work on the cruise system. There are so many data and viewing systems for this stuff that are outrageous. I am a hacker, not a captain!"

His messy curly hair was even more messy after being grabbed by the irritable Nelson a few times. It looked like those otakus who stayed at home for ten and a half months without going out and bathing. No one outside can see that he is that. The instigator of the Bitcoin killer who has frightened millions of people in major technology companies around the world:

Black Satan.

Chapter 2198: Nelson's escape career

It's just that this black Satan, who used to call the wind and rain on the Internet, has been unsatisfactory in recent months, and can even be said to be quite bad.

He was jointly wanted by dozens of countries, and all countries sent an elite team to join the International Police Officer Center, and he did not hesitate to travel thousands of miles to jointly pursue him.

It can be said that wherever there are airports and terminals in the world, the portrait of Nelson is hung!

Fortunately, Nelson is the world's top hacker. In this modern society that is inseparable from the Internet, he simply opened a plug-in and easily escaped countless hunts.

Infiltrate the network of the International Police Center, install a Trojan horse in the background, and gain insight into all the secret plans to hunt him down.

At the very beginning, Nelson could even hug the beauties and drink red wine in the presidential suite of a five-star hotel while listening to the meeting of the International Police Center. After they made a decision, they could leave the hotel slowly.

A few ignorant and ignorant blonde women were left behind, and they were slammed on the ground by a group of belated elite police officers.

Unfortunately, some members of the Satan Army were arrested later, and in turn helped the international police officers round up him. Nielsen had to repeatedly change positions and successfully escaped by hacking into the customs management systems of various countries and forging various ID cards and customs clearance information.

Although as long as he is careful, it is impossible for anyone to follow him.

But Nelson is a man, not a god. After contacting for three months of escape, his spirit finally couldn't stand it, and he began to contact some big figures in the dark world to seek refuge.

The poison king of the golden triangle is his chosen object of refuge.

As a result, the Golden Triangle was so messy that even if the international policeman found him, he did not dare to chase him rashly.

Then, he is the only hacker in the Golden Triangle, who can help them establish a reliable secret network for trading, while avoiding the tracking of global police officers.

"F*ck! I said earlier, I'm a hacker, not a captain! Wang Xianneng, that * guy, must send me here!"

Nelson is about to be driven crazy by the messy control information of the cruise system. It is not difficult to invade, but it is difficult to sort out the mess in it, which simply turns him into a cruise ship captain!

he! Black Satan! I don't like being a captain at all!

What he likes is sitting in front of the computer to control the global network, while hiding behind the scenes, while embracing wine, beauties, and food, he is not interested in these messy ghost things, Captain!

"Forget it, don't care, as long as it is controlled, burn the manual control switch, so that the cruise will become an automatic driving state and can drive to the designated location!"

Nelson knew well that King Xianneng, the poison king of the Golden Triangle, must have made a big move in ordering him to come to this cruise ship this time. Apart from anything else, the invasion of a cruise ship alone was enough to turn this place into a center of global attention.

but.

Nelson had to do this. He really didn't want to face those * international policemen. The left and right were dead. It would be better to die on the cruise ship and die with the beauty!

"Finish, as long as those people use physical means to destroy the manual control facilities, I can directly..."

As Nelson breathed a sigh of relief, Yan Jingyi's computer in the room suddenly started playing a song at full volume:

"You are my little apple, how can I love you too much... the fire that lights up my life, the fire, the fire!"

"F*ck! whatthell...Oh, NO!!!"

Chapter 2199: God is coming

Nelson was about to smash the computer violently, but suddenly thought of something:

Generally speaking, hackers like to control the camera, speakers, and screen of a computer in order to show off their achievements and warn the other party.

It is impossible for the computer to ring suddenly for no reason. This thing is not because the clock has been set for the time, so the only possibility is that the computer has been hacked!

Yan Jingyi's computer has been set up with a special firewall. In theory, it is impossible to be hacked directly without warning.

unless.....

"OMG, OMG, God is coming, God is coming!"

Nelson shivered, walked up to the computer with trembling legs, only glanced at it, and his face suddenly turned pale.

I saw a line of words appearing on the screen that had turned black and white:

hi, Howareyou? Fine? Thankyou? hahahha, do you know who I am?

Nielsen doesn't think that this kind of bad English is because the other party doesn't understand English, but the other party specifically named his identity: Huang Xuan countryman!

The pale white on Nelson's face faded, showing a pleasing expression to the camera, he typed quickly and said in Chinese: "God, my...loyalty, yes, faithful, I am very faithful to you, please let me be faithful to you! "

"...You can speak English if you don't know Chinese."

"Yes, God, you are omniscientandomnipotent, you are the only light!"

"Fuck me, I can't understand your words!"

Li Yun laughed and cursed. This guy didn't know how much Chinese he had learned. He spoke half a foreign language and looked as disgusting as those sea turtles.

"Little Chili, are you here to talk to him?" Li Yun smiled at her, and wanted to move. Little Chili came just to free his hands and let Li Yun hold her waist.

"Uh, uh, let me ask this famous hacker!"

Su Muxin took a breath, put her slender hands on the keyboard, and crackled a bunch of English.

With a good background, she has dedicated teachers from England, France, Algeria, Germany and other countries since she was a child. Communication with foreigners is not a problem at all.

"...God, can you not answer?"

After reading the question of "God", Nelson wanted to cry without tears. He is now on the thief ship. If God destroys this action, he will undoubtedly die.

unless.....

"Yes, if God wants me to answer, then let me take refuge in you, and you send someone to pick me up, so I dare to answer God your question!"

Su Muxin turned her head to look at Li Yun, and went up to kiss him: "Dad, how should I answer him?"

"Then promise." Li Yun said indifferently: "I can see him at some time. It is always more convenient to have an internal response than to monitor Yan Jingyi's mobile phone."

"Okay~, yeah, slow down."

Su Muxin frowned her pretty willow eyebrows, and tried her best to put her hands on the keyboard to continue typing, but she inadvertently typed a garbled code.

"I promise you, but you have to remember that I will only help you get out of this incident, not help you solve your problems. You must agree, because you have no choice! Now, tell what you know sdjw1 %..."

"What?"

Seeing the garbled code behind this sentence, Nelson thought it was a hint from God at first, but after thinking about it, he couldn't figure out what it meant with his top hacker head.

Chapter 2200: God's realm

Then he realized that this was played by God indiscriminately and seemed to be disturbed.

No, it's not right.

The tone of this speech is completely different from God's previous joking and confident tone. If God said it, it would probably just say: ok, good. This kind of half-English  English teased him.

"This is God's woman, or child... No, no, God is only eighteen years old, so of course it is God's woman!"

After guessing what God and his woman were doing, Nelson wanted to cry without tears. He was performing the Global Escape, but God was playing with beauties on a leisurely vacation. This is the gap between him and God!

Nelson couldn't help thinking, if God becomes in the same situation as him, God can probably control the global network to threaten countries not to pursue it anymore?

Unfortunately, with the realm and height of a god, he would never put himself in such a dangerous realm!

"Meet at the Insia restaurant at six in the afternoon? Okay, I will definitely go there!"

After the agreement was made, Nelson was so excited, like a loyal fan about to participate in an idol meeting, blood was pouring all over his body.

God! He wants to meet God!

Nelson clearly understood that God is the chairman of the rising giant monster company Baiyun Technology, and he must have some extraordinary status in Huang Xuanguo.

If God is willing to speak, let him enter Huang Xuanguo to seek asylum...hehe, hehe!

Nelson smirked. He didn't wait for the afternoon, but now he just left his work and couldn't wait to rush to the restaurant to wait.

As long as you take refuge in the gods, what a golden poison king!

After waiting for a full five hours, at 6:15 in the afternoon, Nelson finally saw the * who walked out of the light, handsome, omniscient, omnipotent, the only light, the only hope, saving the world and suffering.

"God, you are finally here!"

Nelson took a swoop and rushed over. Regardless of the surprised gaze of the people around him, he hugged Li Yun's thigh and started crying: "God, save me, God, I can't live anymore. "

The gazes of the people around became more surprised, but no one wanted to inform the security guard. After all, Nelson's performance was too exaggerated, and it didn't look like he had been kidnapped.

Li Yun twitched the corners of his mouth and kicked him. Unexpectedly, the foreigner with messy hair rushed forward and continued to hug his thigh and cry.

"Okay, stand up for me in three seconds!"

"God you promise me..."

"one."

"Stand up now!"

Nelson quickly got up and stood upright in front of Li Yun, but his face still had a meanly flattering smile, which looked weirdly disgusting.

"Go in and talk about it."

Li Yun walked into the restaurant first, and Nelson noticed that there were three beautiful women beside God, one of whom had an exploding figure, the other was noble and elegant, and the other was lively and lovely, just like Nelson's dream. Candidate for your yellow girlfriend!

"It seems that God is playing with them in the afternoon. It's amazing, as he deserves to be a God! He is still full of energy now!"

Nelson quickly showed a pleasing smile when the three queens looked at him curiously.

Xia Feiyao withdrew her gaze at a glance, and continued to hold Li Yun's arm, but Jin Liuli was very interested in him, and she wanted to say a few times before she wanted to ask anything.

A few people entered the restaurant, and when Li Yun was trying to find a suitable corner to sit down and eat, a bright young girl's voice came from behind him:

"Li Yun?! Mu Xin?!"
