

Godly Choice 2251

Chapter 2251: The captain whose head is flooded

"Hehe, the current liar is really stupid, and I don't know my working hours before calling!"

A sneer appeared at the corner of the first officer Fein's mouth, and his fist was clenched tightly. He waited for the liar to be found next, and punched him directly!

But before finding the liar, Fein endured it and continued to ask: "Captain, is your phone broken?"

"Correct."

Fein sneered again, this liar wouldn't even look for excuses, he was so stupid!

"I'm Captain Davis. My phone and head are flooded. This is my new phone."

".....what?"

Fein was stunned, the phone and head were flooded? How does it feel like scolding the captain...

The liar continued solemnly: "You will use this phone when you contact me in the future. By the way, I suddenly thought of something and wanted to ask you."

"Captain, please speak."

Fain suppressed the doubts in his heart, glanced at the real captain, and said respectfully to the microphone.

"Today, the cruise ship called in the country and delivered some goods from the port. Do you know which warehouse it is stored in?"

In an instant, Fein's pupils widened, and he asked sternly: "What do you want to do?!"

In the cabin of the cruise ship, everyone was taken aback by his voice, and even the engineer who was controlling the steering wheel looked over.

"Do you dare to talk to me like this?! I am the captain whose head got in the water!" The liar's voice was majestic and shouted: "Although my head got in the water, I am still the captain!"

".....you!"

Fain suppressed his beating heart, turned his head and glanced at the captain quickly, and whispered: "Where are you now? What do you want to do?"

"I'm in front of the warehouse." The liar's voice turned flat, "You come here now and take me to find where the warehouse is, faster."

"Okay, I'll come right away!" Don't worry, I will bring someone here!

A trace of fierceness flashed in Fein's blue eyes, no matter what the other party's purpose was, this liar would not survive tomorrow!

"Fin, what about the liar?" Captain Davis asked in a deep voice.

"Captain, the liar hung up the phone. He wanted to know what was stored in our warehouse. He probably wanted to steal some valuables."

Fein took the initiative to ask: "Captain, I will take the captain's security to take him down now, you can just wait here!"

Davis frowned, and nodded slowly after a while, "Go, bring the liar to see me, and be careful not to make too much noise, there are many distinguished guests on board!"

"Yes!"

Fein strode out of the wheelhouse, took out the walkie-talkie to call the two security teams on board, and slammed directly to the bottom of the cabin.

Captain Davis continued to check today's voyage diary. For the liar, although he wondered why he was going to steal ordinary items in the warehouse, he was more relieved that Fehn would go to solve it.

Unexpectedly, three minutes after Fehn left, a beautiful woman rushed to the cab.

"Mate, shall we go to the warehouse to catch the thief?" After receiving the order from Fein, the security captain on the ship was puzzled.

How did the thief go to the warehouse?

Generally speaking, the things stored in the warehouse are very common, even if there are some relatively expensive items, they are very heavy, and a few people can't move them!

"Stop talking nonsense, just follow me!"

Fein looked gloomy, speeded up his pace and ran to the bottom of the bilge, and said viciously:

"The thief is bold enough to pretend to be the captain. I have obtained the captain's permission. You can shoot him directly!"

Chapter 2252: search

Fein, the security captain, and dozens of gun-mounted security guards in blue and white sailor suits rushed to the warehouse on the ground floor and looked around on alert.

This huge warehouse is more than 3,000 square meters and is divided into rooms. When you walk into the warehouse, the lights are dim, the passages are narrow, and some air-conditioning from the cold storage makes the temperature of this huge warehouse seem very low. .

There is a gloomy feeling.

"First Mate Fein, is the other party really still inside?" the security captain holding a small pistol asked in a low voice.

Fehn stood at the gate, looking at the dim environment inside with uncertain eyes, signalling everyone to be quiet, and he shouted inside: "Captain, I am Fehn, I am coming, where are you?!"

No one answered, the huge warehouse echoed his shouts, and it became more and more unusual and strange and quiet in the warehouse.

The security captain screamed secretly. This warehouse has doors and locks, but because of the need to come in frequently to fetch things, the doors are usually not closed, which gives the liar a chance.

However, there are still locks in the rooms in the large warehouse. If you don't have a special key, you can't steal anything, so it's safe and sound all the time.

Unexpectedly, something went wrong today!

"A group of three, go in and search!" Fein decisively ordered: "Captain, you guard the door, you, you, and you follow me!"

He took the three of them that he had pointed out and rushed into the warehouse without hesitation.

The security captain was taken aback for a moment. Why did his three subordinates leave with the first officer without asking his opinion?

Although the first officer Fein is the second person on the ship and has a higher position than the security captain, he is also the captain of the security team!

And the expressions of his three subordinates were rather impatient, and they seemed to be very anxious.

"Deputy Captain, take people in and search, and Beman and I are at the gate." Depressing the doubts in my heart, the security captain ordered.

"Yes!"

More than a dozen security guards were divided into several teams, searching back and forth between warehouses, and everyone felt an inexplicable strange atmosphere.

This warehouse is really too big!

More than a dozen people walked in and couldn't get over any waves at all, and soon lost contact with other teams. They could only hear their own footsteps, ticking echoes.

I didn't think there was anything weird before, but now if they know that a liar might be hiding in the warehouse, everyone feels nervous, for fear that someone will suddenly come out from somewhere.

"captain?!"

The security captain guarding the gate looked at the captain who was approaching with a dark face in astonishment, "Why are you here?"

"Where is the chief mate?" Davis asked in a low voice.

"Take someone in to find that liar!"

"Let's go in too!"

"Uh, yes!"

The security captain hurriedly followed, and he discovered that there was a noble and yellow girl next to the captain. Even in terms of white aesthetics, this girl could be regarded as beautiful and elegant. An extremely rare beauty!

"What's wrong? I always feel that tonight...a bit unusual!"

Fein took three security guards with guns in his hands, and walked quickly to the gate of the F3 warehouse. He didn't stop or search at all on the way, and walked straight here.

"First officer, there is no sign of being pried open at the door!" A security guard took the initiative to check, and quickly concluded that the lock is still intact.

Chapter 2253: Tease

Fein, and the other two security guards with guns glanced at each other, and they all breathed a sigh of relief.

"The goods are fine."

A person's voice suddenly sounded, and a security guard nodded repeatedly: "Yes, yes, fortunately the liar didn't find here, otherwise...who?!"

He suddenly reacted, "Who is talking?!"

Fein's hearts were shocked, and they hurriedly pointed their pistols around, but the dim corridor was empty. The voices were layered on top of each other, and it was impossible to find where the sound was coming from!

"Yes, luckily the goods are fine."

At this time, a lively girl's voice sounded, frightening these people into panic again.

"Who?!" The security asked loudly again, but the two suddenly sounding voices ignored him, and started chatting on their own.

The male voice said: "The goods that were quietly moved in the country were stored in the F3 warehouse. Some people were so scared to bring people here when they learned that someone was spying here."

"Yes!" The girl nodded in agreement: "He took people straight to here as soon as he came. Obviously, we were caught by accident. The important thing is to protect this warehouse from being pried open!"

"Tsk tusk, Xiao Liuli, you are very smart, you even thought of this."

"Hate, when did I say I was a stupid? You are stupid!"

The voices of a man and a woman echoed in the warehouse. What's even more disturbing was that the man actually translated the conversation between him and the girl in English from time to time, so that the four of Fein could understand what they were talking about!

"I was puzzled before. Even if the goods from the country were let by customs officers and passed the inspection smoothly, how could they be taken away by the robbers? Thinking about it now, I really figured it out! Xiao Liuli, did you think of it? ?"

Fein's face was extremely gloomy, and he tightly held the pistol and asked, "Who are you?! Come out, I promise by the name of the first officer of the Ocean Princess, I will never hurt you! If you have something, you can talk slowly!"

"Tell me I'm not a fool!" The female voice murmured, "It's no need to think about it. It must be the first officer colluding with outsiders so that the robbers can get the guns smoothly. Oh, yes, these three people are also suspicious, obviously Together!"

"Hey, the inner ghost can't die, Xiao Liuli, don't do such a thing when you grow up!"

"Go to hell!! If you don't have anything to say, don't say it, be quiet, you are the ghost!"

"Hey, idle and bored, by the way, Xiao Liuli, how old are you this year?"

"..."

"Have you eaten? Would you like to have a supper later?"

"By the way, do you want to watch a movie to deepen the emotional exchange?"

"..."

Not only was Xiao Liuli speechless being ridiculed, Fein's faces were as dark as the bottom of the pot.

"who are you?!"

Fein yelled: "Come out, come out!"

He was walking around and searching around with a gun, but the hundreds of warehouses here formed a maze-like terrain, and it was too difficult to find two innate realms.

"game over."

Li Yun's flat voice was clearly heard by everyone in the warehouse. Fein was puzzled at first, but his expression quickly changed.

He heard a rush of footsteps—the thief could not have so many people, the only explanation was that the ***** thief told the captain!

"you!"

Fein was frightened and angry. The gun in his hand was tightly gripped. He vowed that if he saw the ***** thief at this time, he would shoot without hesitation and kill him!

Chapter 2254: conflict

"I really thought I was a fool?" Li Yun smiled, "I called you, but I just wanted you to tell the captain to come. I showed him what the cargo was on the spot, and it happened to catch you as a ghost. You said it was a coincidence?"

Jin Liuli blinked her eyes. It's annoying not to understand English, but she didn't want to learn it, so she didn't learn the language of foreign devils!

If you really want to communicate, just have a big satyr by her side, she doesn't need to learn~.

Fein's face became more gloomy, and the worst thing was that the rapid footsteps in the distance were getting closer and closer, and the captain came with the captain's security guards. By then...

"I, I surrender!"

Fein paled and said hurriedly: "Mr. Thief, no, this gentleman, I surrender, I am obsessed with the smuggled money, please forgive me! Don't you want money? I'll give it. I will give you all the millions I have earned as the first mate over the years! As long as I keep my job, I will be your most loyal subordinate from now on!"

"Hehe, tell your captain these words."

With a chuckle, Li Yun slowly walked out of the darkness, with a slightly playful look in his eyes, looking at the gun in his hand.

"Be careful!" Jin Liuli's eyes widened and she couldn't help yelling.

But it was too late.

"Die to me!!"

The moment he saw Li Yun, Fein looked grim and ecstatic, raised the gun with both hands, and squeezed the trigger viciously.

boom! !

The harsh gunfire sounded in this huge warehouse, and the repeated echoes shook people's scalp. The security guards who came with the captain took refuge. The captain's face changed in shock and was about to talk, but the stunning girl who followed him turned. Quickened his pace, his figure rushed towards the place where the gunfire sounded like a gust of wind.

"Be careful, Miss Xiao!"

Captain Davis ordered to keep up, lest the wealthy lady from Huang Xuanguo suffer accidents.

When Xiao Mingzhu arrived, she saw a surprising scene: a black-clothed and masked man stretched out a finger to block the bullet. Standing opposite him was the cruise ship chief officer with terrified expression. The gun in his hand was trembling, obviously. He was frightened by his finger blocking the bullet.

"stop!"

The captain arrived in time to stop the possible conflict, his majestic face looked very ugly, "What's the matter?! You are the thief who sneaked into the warehouse? Immediately raise his hands and surrender!"

A group of security guards pointed their guns at Li Yun, who was still masked.

"The captain, whose head is in the water, meet again."

Li Yun took off the mask and greeted Davis with a smile. The latter's face was even more ugly: "It's you!"

Two days ago, Li Yun and Xiao Mingzhu went to report that someone on the cruise ship was preparing to hijack the ship. He did not believe it at the time, and now he does not believe it even more.

"What on earth do you want to do?!" Davis sternly asked, "What do you think of my Ocean Princess? Surrender immediately, otherwise I will be welcome!"

Jin Liuli appeared, stood with Li Yun, glaring at the captain-she could not speak, but could understand.

Xiao Mingzhu's face is weird. What are Jin Liuli and Li Yun in black tights doing? Chivalry and righteousness?

"Calm down, calm."

Li Yun pressed his hands down and said with a smile: "Captain, I helped you catch the ghost on the boat-Mr. Chief Officer, you should thank me."

Davis opened his mouth to scold, and Li Yun preemptively said: "Don't believe me? I will ask Miss Pearl to inform you to come, Captain, you never think that I pretend to be you as an idiot, is it an idiot act, right?"

Chapter 2255: Hands-on

The slurred words made a group of people stunned for a long time before they figured out: This guy actually called him an idiot in front of the captain? !

"Why should I believe you?"

The captain glanced at Xiao Mingzhu. Indeed, shortly after Li Yun called to pretend to be the captain and cheated the first officer, Xiao Mingzhu rushed to the cab and reported that Li Yun was in the warehouse.

"Still don't believe it?"

Li Yun shrugged, "Forget it, I don't expect to persuade you, the captain who has gotten into the water, to open this warehouse door——" Li Yun pointed to the F3 warehouse door, "There should be something very interesting inside. thing."

"Captain, don't believe him!" First officer Fein recovered from the shock and immediately stopped loudly. At the same time, the gun in his hand tremblingly pointed at Li Yun again, "You, you devil, I can't kill you if I don't believe it! "

After speaking, he continued to pull the trigger.

boom!

The gunfire sounded, and the bullet flew over Li Yun's head. Jin Liuli was furious, reached out her hand and fumbled around her waist, directly took out a slender soft whip, and hit the gun in Fein's hand directly with a whip. past.

Crackling!

The whip broke through the air, Fein let out a scream, his hands were severely painful, and the tightly held gun flew out and landed on the ground more than ten meters away.

"Dare to shoot?" Jin Liuli once again whipped Fein on the waist, hitting him directly on the spot three times and fell to the ground, then snorted and looked around the crowd fiercely: "Who dares If I shoot, I will break his neck!"

"Others don't understand you." Li Yun said.

"I want you to take care of it! Humph~"

Jin Liuli's face blushed, and he snorted proudly, "It's almost the same! These foreign devils don't understand what I mean when they see my whip?"

Xiao Mingzhu couldn't help but couldn't help but turn his head to say a few words to the captain in fluent standard English, let him control the situation and stop shooting lightly.

"You guys, put down your guns first!"

Perhaps it was Xiao Mingzhu's distinguished status that played a role. Davis endured his anger and gave orders to the three security guards who were still holding guns. At the same time, he ordered Fein to stand up: "Open the warehouse door first. Personally verify whether there are any illegal goods in the warehouse!"

The three security guards with guns glanced at each other, squatted slowly, and placed the guns on the ground.

The captain coldly looked at Li Yun and Jin Liuli in night clothes: "You better pray that your information is correct, otherwise, I will take you back to Country M and try your crimes personally in Haoweiyi! "

Li Yun shrugged, "Before that, I advise you to worry about the security guards around you."

"what!?"

"Do it!"

The three security guards squatting on the ground yelled and jumped up at the same time. They flew at the captain who was less than three meters away, their faces were extremely hideous, and the guns in their hands were aimed at the captain's head without hesitation.

"First officer, we can survive by catching the captain!"

"catch him!"

Everyone was stunned by the actions of the three security guards, and Captain Davis was even more stunned, watching one of the security guards fly in front of him, and his right hand viciously grabbed his neck.

"you!"

"Hahaha, I caught the captain!" The security guard shouted sharply: "Everyone listens, put down my weapons, otherwise...ah!"

Before he could finish a sentence, a sharp wind struck, and with a stabbing sound, he directly chopped off one of his arms.

It's Xiao Mingzhu!

Chapter 2256: Catch them

Everyone looked at the **** dagger in the hands of this noble and stunning beauty in horror, and inexplicably felt an absurd feeling in their hearts: a rich daughter from a noble background is actually a skilled beauty agent? !

The security guard whose arm was chopped off screamed in pain and retreated in horror. Then, Xiao Mingzhu's figure flashed, and the dagger in his hand waved one after another, two cold lights lit up, and the guns in the hands of the remaining two security guards were directly broken into two pieces.

The two security guards backed away in horror, their hands holding half of the gun trembling non-stop. When Xiao Mingzhu looked at it coldly, the two of them lost half of their guns in fright and knelt on the ground begging for mercy.

"Catch them for me!!"

The captain roared in anger, and suddenly, a group of security guards behind him rushed forward like wolves, and captured all the three security guards and First Officer Fein.

"Captain, spare your life, spare your life!"

"Captain, we are wrong, we shouldn't be fooled, we are wrong, please let us go!"

Several people were crying and begging for mercy. Needless to say, the truth of the matter is no longer necessary. Everything is as Li Yun said, there are real ghosts on the ship, and these ghosts are really planning to hijack the cruise ship!

Davis coldly looked at the four people kneeling on the ground and ordered: "Open the gate of the F3 warehouse, I want to personally inspect the goods inside!"

The warehouse keeper in a cold sweat stepped forward and opened the warehouse door. Fehn's face was pale, knowing that he could not hide it, and he took the initiative to report: "Captain, I was wrong. I shouldn't collude with the customs of those countries in Southeast Asia. , Smuggling the goods to other countries to make huge profits, but I guarantee that I have absolutely no idea of hijacking the cruise ship. What these people say is false!"

Everyone looked at Li Yun, their expressions very complicated.

The chief officer relied on the right to control the warehouse and colluded with some corrupt elements in the customs of various countries to steal the smuggled goods. They did not notice it, and they found it through an outsider!

Li Yun smiled slightly, walked into the warehouse and looked around for a week before answering Fein's question: "Are you sure you're just smuggling goods, not secretly colluding with outsiders, carrying guns and ammunition into the ship, and preparing to hijack an entire cruise ship. People?"

The security guards, as well as Captain Davis, looked ugly after hearing these words.

Hijacking a cruise ship, this incident will cause a sensation in the world just by spreading it out!

Fortunately, fortunately nothing happened!

"I don't, you don't slander people here!" Fein flushed, "I have worked with those customs people for seven or eight years. Could they lie to me!? This time, there are only some spices and ivory made in Laos. , Where are the guns?!"

"Smuggling ivory?"

Xiao Mingzhu glanced at him blankly, "It's not too much to shoot a person who poached precious wild elephants ten times.

Fein was so speechless by her that she stubbornly said, "Anyway, I have no idea of hijacking a cruise ship. I am the chief mate on the ship. I can get money from smuggling much faster than robbery. Why am I taking this risk? Don't slander me!"

Comparing cruise ship hijacking and smuggling, fools can tell which one is lighter and heavier.

"That only shows that you are too stupid."

Li Yun pointed his finger at a metal box in the warehouse, and said, "Open this box."

"I come!"

Jin Liuli stepped forward excitedly, flicking the whip in his hand cleanly.

With a snap, the fist-sized lock broke, and the security guard behind him trembled.

The strength of this girl is too scary!

Chapter 2257: This is the evidence

The iron box was opened, and the security guards flashed the light with flashlights, and everyone gasped for a sigh of relief.

Full of arms!

AK47, magazine, grenade, Uzi submachine gun, blasting device, timing device...

It's not an exaggeration, so much explosives are enough to blast the Ocean Princess into a big hole, so that the Titanic deeds of the last century will repeat itself in this century!

"How can this be!"

Fein trembled with fright, and then he was slapped severely by Captain Davis, and his cheeks became red and swollen with great force, and he fell to the ground like dirt.

Everyone felt terrified for a while, but fortunately, the arms were discovered in time.

Otherwise, once they fall into the hands of gangsters, the lives of the people on board will be seriously threatened immediately!

"It's not over yet."

Li Yun pointed to three boxes separately, everyone was shocked, and what else?

Jin Liuli threw three whips excitedly and successfully obtained three boxes full of arms!

Everyone who saw this scene was stunned.

One box of munitions is enough to arm about a hundred people, and there are four boxes in total. Doesn't it mean that 400 gangsters came on board the cruise? !

This is too exaggerated!

"Fern!!" The captain trembled with anger, pointing at him and shivering non-stop: "You still smuggle arms. You, you, you are dead!"

The nature of smuggling arms and smuggling general goods is completely different.

When this kind of news spreads, basically the mission of the Ocean Princess as a cruise ship will end-no one will board a smuggled arms ship to travel.

"No... I don't, I really don't, I..."

First mate Fein glanced at the four arms boxes, and now he seemed too weak to defend.

With so many arms, there is no other possibility except smuggling.

"Huh, now you know that we are right?"

Jin Liuli triumphantly patted the whip in his hand, and the security guards took a step back in fright: This whip is more powerful than a submachine gun, one whip and a big lock, if it hits a person, it can directly break the person in two!

"Happy tonight?" Li Yun asked her with a smile. The little heroine finally had the addiction of being a hero.

"Hee hee~"

Jin Liuli looked down and smiled embarrassedly.

"Ding, meet the girlfriend's request, sneak into the warehouse with a face mask, and find evidence that Yan Jingyi is about to hijack the cruise ship. The reward is justice value +50,000, all attributes +4000, experience value +10 million, golden gift bag*1, additional rewards: Golden gift bag*1, Xiao Mingzhu's favorability +1, unlock more poses."

Li Yun glanced at Jin Liuli with a weird expression. Could it be that the last reward is for her?

The system is really...definitely a good system to help him reach the pinnacle of his life!

However, why did Xiao Mingzhu's favorability +1?

Li Yun turned his gaze to her, but Xiao Mingzhu gave him a playful look and winked at him.

"?What's the meaning?"

The second monk Li Yunzhang couldn't figure it out, and he didn't tease Xiao Mingzhu. Why did her blink of an eye look a bit reverse to tease him? Is it an illusion?

What he didn't know was that Xiao Mingzhu glanced at Jin Liuli with a slightly envious look.

When she first received a call from Li Yun and asked her to go to the captain to explain the situation, Xiao Mingzhu really thought about it and couldn't figure it out. Why didn't Li Yun go to the captain directly, but sneaked into the warehouse to do such a sneaky thing!

Chapter 2258: Ask Mr. Li to help us

But seeing the two in night clothes, especially when Jin Liuli's soft and petite body was wrapped in tight black clothes, Xiao Mingzhu understood!

Li Yun deliberately wanted to satisfy his girlfriend who was born in the Jianghu school, and wanted to be a hero, so he cooperated with her to sneak into the bottom of the cruise ship and staged a good show of catching ghosts in person!

"This playboy..." Xiao Mingzhu glanced at Li Yun with a complicated mood, and secretly said in his heart: "No wonder there are so many girls around him, but they can get along with each other friendly. There is such a gentleman who cares about himself. Friends, they must be very happy, right?"

For a while, Xiao Mingzhu became more confused the more he thought about it, and he had a little more affection for Li Yun.

"Fern!"

The captain sternly asked the first officer, "The only way you can atone for your sins now is to tell who the gangsters on the ship are, and who are these weapons given to use!? Say it!"

"This, Captain, it's wrong!" Fein was crying without tears, "I really didn't know that there was arms inside, and I never thought about hijacking a cruise ship, let alone colluding with outsiders!"

"You still refuse to say? Take them away, put them in his room, and guard them closely!"

"Yes!"

Fein and the three security guards were taken away, and Fein kept screaming wrong.

Li Yun touched his chin and looked at the four people who were taken away. "Mingzhu, do you know how many years will be sentenced for smuggling and kidnapping?"

"Smuggling. Smuggling is basically indefinite in China, but abroad..." Xiao Mingzhu showed a playful smile on her delicate face: "It depends on the lawyer you hire. Excellent lawyers can pay bail and go home directly. It is not impossible to persuade the jury to be acquitted or sentenced for a misdemeanor."

"The power of capital." Li Yun smiled at her. This Miss Xiao Mingzhu obviously also belongs to the capital.

"Yeah~"

Xiao Mingzhu raised his tone and continued to say in Chinese: "I know what you are thinking about. It is indeed suspicious that the three security guards directly attacked the captain after the incident was revealed. The double charges of kidnapping and smuggling are enough to make them live in prison. lifetime.

Unless, they knew from the beginning that they were going to be sentenced to life imprisonment! "

In other words, they are the ones who really collude with Yan Jingyi!

Jin Liuli's eyes widened. Is that so?

Then, Xiao Mingzhu spoke to the captain in English. The latter's face changed slightly. He glanced at Li Yun, and after hesitating for a while, he walked forward: "Mr. Li Yun, thank you for your contribution to the Ocean Princess! Ocean Princess! All staff on the Princess will remember your contributions!"

Li Yun smiled and said nothing.

Thank you, but thank you, but no matter how you look at the face of the captain whose head is in the water, it doesn't seem to be thankful.

Xiao Mingzhu showed a faint smile and warned in a stern tone in standard English: "Captain, you may not know that Li Yun has already got a lot of information about the criminals on board. If you want your cruise ship to be safe and sound. It's better to ask my friends for help politely! This is my advice!"

Talking to foreigners is to be direct, condemn the other person's arrogance and wake him up!

"This....."

Davis's complexion became difficult to look at. After a while, he bowed deeply and said sincerely: "Please help us, Mr. Li, so that the Ocean Princess can successfully complete this trip. There are more than 10,000 tourists on board, and Four thousand staff members will deeply remember your contribution! Mr. Li, please help us!"

Chapter 2259: Thanks, goodbye

Li Yun withdrew his smile, his face was not wavering, and said: "Since I have boarded this cruise ship, naturally I will not stand idly by. However, I also solemnly warn Captain Davis here: you are behind this group of robbers. The energy is far beyond your imagination. It is definitely not as simple as catching them!"

"This..." Davis was extremely helpless. Although he didn't understand, he could also hear that Mr. Li Yun wanted to obtain the command of the cruise ship.

Therefore, he had no choice but to bow again: "Mr. Li saved the lives of the people on the ship, and I am willing to cooperate with all your decisions!"

"It's better."

Li Yun was not polite, and directly took over the "command authority"-although he could not command the security of the ship, at least he could command the captain.

"Humph." Jin Liuli muttered, relying on the foreigner's incomprehension, "These foreign devils are really ignorant. I don't know if all six gates have reached the door!"

Unexpectedly, Davis turned his head to look at her and said in blunt Chinese: "This lady with the whip, six, Dao, the door is...?"

Jin Liuli was startled, "Do you understand me? I, I didn't say anything!"

She hid behind Li Yun pretending that nothing happened. Xiao Mingzhu laughed and laughed. The girl next to Li Yun was too funny, right?

"Leave here first and talk about it." Li Yun said.

The temperature in the bottom of the bilge is still a bit low, and it won't be good for a long time.

The captain nodded, pointed to the boxes of weapons and asked: "Mr. Li Yun, these weapons...?"

"Move to another place. In addition, it is best to send someone to check all the goods to see if there are any hidden fires in other places."

Li Yun had found these boxes with divine consciousness before, but he only guaranteed that they would be found in this warehouse room, and he could not guarantee that there would be no arms in the other warehouses.

The captain showed a look of embarrassment. It was not because of the heavy workload, but if he wanted to open the cargo for inspection, he needed to get the consent of the owner of the cargo, otherwise it would be very troublesome.

"Send someone to handle the warehouse." Seeing the captain's embarrassment, Xiao Mingzhu suggested: "Anyone who enters and exits the warehouse must be carefully checked, especially the goods out of the warehouse, to prevent the criminals on the ship from getting guns."

"I will immediately arrange personnel on duty!"

Then there was nothing wrong with Li Yun. He called Shang Guanming and told him what had happened just now, so that he could continue with the news about Yan Jingyi, to prevent the other party from jumping over the wall when he knew about it.

"You are leaving like this?" Xiao Mingzhu glanced at Li Yun with a weird expression, and then at Jin Liuli, as if he understood why he was anxious to go back to rest.

"Otherwise?" Li Yun smiled slightly: "I'll talk about it tomorrow. You can't arrest Yan Jingyi's gang directly tonight, right? Wait for the captain to contact his boss and say, if the cruise ship is decided to dock directly, then we will be on this trip. End directly."

Xiao Mingzhu's eyes widened: "It's over like this? Isn't there any other conspiracy in Six Doors? You..."

"I can't manage that much."

Li Yun shook his head and left with Jin Liuli, leaving Xiao Mingzhu in a daze. When Li Yun walked to the corner, he whispered: "I don't know if you call me to help tonight, I don't know how to thank you."

"..."

Li Yun stopped and said to her, "By the way, thank you Mingzhu for your help tonight!"

"...Hmph, no thanks."

Xiao Mingzhu's face was red, and this guy could hear it so far away!

Chapter 2260: jealousy

"Ding, the host made the right choice. Before capturing the culprit, he received the full support of the captain of the Ocean Princess cruise ship. Rewards: Justice value + 200,000, experience value + 50 million, all attributes +1 10,000, golden gift bag* 4. Medium recovery Dan*20."

"Big pervert!"

After completely far away from Xiao Mingzhu's sight, Jin Liuli gave him a roll of eyes, which made Li Yun quite puzzled, "Why call me a big pervert again? I haven't done anything yet? And it's eleven o'clock, shouldn't I go back to rest? "

Jin Liuli's face turned redder, and going back to rest means that she wants to...

"Who, who told you to be so gentle!" Jin Liuli hugged his arm violently, and his big round eyes were full of jealousy: "Look at the last words of Xiao Mingzhu just now, and hum."

"Huh? What?" Li Yun said he didn't understand.

"Big idiot! What do you think is said by someone of her kind?"

Jin Liuli said in jealousy, "It's not because she has a good impression of you that she shows her side as a girl!"

Li Yun opened his eyes wide, "You are too sensitive, too? And, Xiao Liuli, you actually thought of this layer, isn't the lively and lovely Lier in front of me?"

"Humph~~"

Jin Liuli proudly didn't answer. What she said was a girl who was in love. Isn't it natural that she is sensitive to this kind of thing?

The two returned to the door of the room. For some reason, Jin Liuli deliberately walked to the door of Su Muxin and Xia Feiyao's room, and took a closer look at their door. She didn't know if she wanted to knock on the door, or if she wanted to see if they were asleep.

Li Yun stood at the door of the opened room and looked at her with a smile, seeing that Jin Liuli's face was flushed, and then reluctantly snorted, strode into the room, and said, "No, no Just stay with you big pervert for one night? What's so great! If you dare to move, I, I, I will use a whip to get rid of your bad things!"

Li Yun's eyes widened in surprise: "Xiao Liuli, you actually know the secret of a man? The last time you went to the tomb with you, you were still a healthy and pure girl! Why now... you are bad, Xiao Liuli!"

"You have only become bad, no, you are a big bad guy!"

Jin Liuli's face flushed red, especially when she saw Li Yun shut the door and locked the door in front of her, her blushing became even more intense, and she said, "I, I... my mother taught me before going out. , Don't think of me as a kid who doesn't understand anything!"

"Not a kid?" Li Yun pretended to squint at her: "In other words, tonight is okay~~~~? Huh? Hey, is that okay?"

"Big big... big pervert!" Jin Liuli screamed.

"Huh, that big pervert will show you a pervert!"

Li Yun caught Jin Liuli who wanted to escape, and those who were sleazy and smiling were nothing but that, anyway, all kinds of perverts, prostitutes, and perverted special methods all came out. After the end, Jin Liuli directly Ruan Chengyi Beach water.

"Well, let's take a shower first, together."

Jin Liuli's face was flushed with dissatisfaction, she bit her lip, looked at him with blurred eyes, and finally nodded gently.

But he still didn't admit defeat, and stammered: "You, don't be proud, I just saw you behaved well tonight, and worked hard to please me, so I promised you tonight... Anyway, my mother said Yes, you usually end in five minutes, and you won't have to wait for too long..."

five minutes?

Li Yun feels sad for Gu Yuqing, her husband who has been dead for many years is too... mediocre!

In his case, time must be multiplied by at least 100.
