

Godly Choice 2271

Chapter 2271: Three days later

Leaving the captain's room, the sea breeze rushed towards his face. Xiao Mingzhu reached out his hand to close the tossed blue silk hair, turned his head and showed a bright and bright smile at Li Yun, and said: "What you mean is that you want to pass the powerful public relations of M country. Ability to find ghosts in the customs system of various countries?"

Because of Nielsen's **** hacker, customs in various countries have secretly added many illegal immigrants in recent times. These people are likely to be the cannon fodder of six doors, similar to Yan Jingyi and others.

Li Yun smiled and said: "You can't just rely on us? The other party's target may be Hao Weiyi. Isn't country M taking it for granted?"

"Hahaha, indeed!"

Country M is currently the most powerful country in the world. There are eleven aircraft carriers in active service and 35 retired aircraft. If there is a war, the power that can be mobilized is enough to rival the world!

This is the greatest guarantee that country M dares to claim to be the world's police!

If they were to personally investigate the customs of various countries, it is estimated that no one in those countries in South Asia would dare to object, and they would all have to cooperate.

"It's weird." Jin Liuli looked at Li Yun, "Why don't you just hand over the list to them? Didn't the hacker Nelson have all the personnel?"

"Will you cherish what you get for nothing?"

"Um... that's right, hehe."

Jin Liuli couldn't help laughing, "Then shall we wait? Shall we also arrest people?"

"Just play if you want." Li Yun teased her with a smile.

"Hate, they don't want to play, they want to be a hero, right? Feiyao~"

"Um."

Xiao Mingzhu looked at the three of them, to be precise, the three girls next to Li Yun.

They really get along very well, they don't mean to be jealous with each other, just like three simple girlfriends hanging out with a man, without any intrigue.

Xiao Mingzhu also noticed that Li Yun really took good care of them. He spoiled Jin Liuli. Although the daughter of the Su family was somewhat reserved in front of her, Xiao Mingzhu could also look at Li Yun occasionally. Discover a taste of dependence and happiness.

"No, no, maybe it's just this three-person room. If they are with other girls, they might not have such a good relationship!"

Xiao Mingzhu tried his best to convince herself, but... Su Muxin and Jin Liuli are completely from two worlds, they can get along well, let alone other people.

Li Yun, this playboy... really annoying!

"Oh, what am I thinking about, I don't bother to care about him!"

For the next three days, Xiao Mingzhu tried his best to avoid seeing Li Yun again, and even Shangguanming invited her to go out for dinner and rarely agreed. Every day, he stayed in the suite, read a book and played on the mobile phone, and had a good rest.

Originally, she was not only traveling, but also planning to visit and study her father's branches in various countries, but she fell through because of the kidnapping. In addition, her two girlfriends got off the ship early, and she could only live alone in the room.

"Feiyao."

At noon that day, Xiao Mingzhu couldn't help but send a text message to Xia Feiyao, poking her and asking: "You guys played last night... until two or three o'clock in the evening?"

Although he did not "deliberately" ask, Xiao Mingzhu can infer from Xia Feiyao's work and rest time, how happy Li Yun had been with them in the past three days.

Every night until two or three o'clock, or even all night, only get up at noon to eat.

Then go sunbathing in the afternoon, or catch some gangsters hiding on the cruise ship, take a walk after dinner in the evening, and go back to continue playing.

Chapter 2272: Fashion show

Xiao Mingzhu couldn't imagine what was so fun about that kind of thing, so that they and Li Yun could play tirelessly for a few days, isn't it just that?

According to the information that Xiao Mingzhu "occasionally" checked the day before yesterday, the average time for men of this kind of thing is only ten minutes, and the stronger one is half an hour. Beyond this time, they take a strong yang medicine, and eating too much can cause various problems.

Even if Li Yun's innate level is stronger, but Xia Feiyao, Jin Liuli, and Su Muxin also have three people, and they can't beat him?

This **** dude, who can not rest all night, is really... amazing!

"Um~ [shy]"

Xia Feiyao sent her a shy expression. Not only did Xiao Mingzhu think in her mind, last night... Xia Feiyao must have spent time in shyness and coquetry, right?

"Does He Muxin still have that golden colored glaze?"

"Um."

Seeing this affirmative answer, Xiao Mingzhu suddenly felt dry and dry, took a sip from the water glass on the table, and couldn't help but smile.

She has also reached the age of a young girl thinking. Chun, especially when she has a good impression of Li Yun, and heard him and three confidantes messing around. One of them is Su Muxin, whom she has known for many years, and the other is about her new friends. Down.

In addition to the relatively closed environment on the cruise ship, she couldn't help thinking about it.

"Calm down, Xiao Mingzhu, you are not the kind of person who can't control yourself!"

"What's so good about that guy Li Yun? Isn't it just a little handsome, a little capable, and a little better for girls?"

"There are so many confidantes around him, why have to get in there!"

Depressing the "bad" thought in his heart, Xiao Mingzhu's slender legs overlapped, leaning on the sofa to continue chatting with Xia Feiyao.

"Mingzhu, do you want to know the process? Well, I can tell you very briefly."

"Ah? No, no, no, no!" Xiao Mingzhu hurriedly refused, asking about those things that were out of line just now, and asking more questions, doesn't it mean that she is really interested in Li Yun?

"It's okay." Xia Feiyao sent her a shy smile again, "Mingzhu, you have been changing your way to ask me in the past few days. I know you are slightly interested in this... so it doesn't matter if you tell it to you. , Keep it secret~"

Xiao Mingzhu was dumbfounded, is she really inquiring all the time? It's impossible, she doesn't know herself, and doesn't believe that she will do that!

Absolutely impossible!

At most, I asked five times a day at most, no, I chatted with Xia Feiyao five times...

"Would you like to listen?" Xia Feiyao asked again, "Sister Mu Xin also agreed. I will just say something briefly to satisfy your curiosity, Mingzhu, hehe."

"Uh....."

A ghostly messenger, Xiao Mingzhu replied: "Yes, I want to listen!"

Well, it's just one word!

"Hehe~ [sneer laugh]" Xia Feiyao continued to message her, "We, we played a fashion show last night."

"Fashion show?"

Xiao Mingzhu suddenly thought of many things.

It was nothing more than Li Yun that playboy, let Su Muxin and the others put on all kinds of nice clothes to please him... right? For example, professional skirts, evening gowns, flight attendants, nurses, etc.-Xiao Mingzhu is a normal girl, and she still knows a little about these hobbies.

Probably, at most, it's like wearing good-looking cos clothes and then falling off. Anyway, the kind of fun.

Just thinking about it, Xiao Mingzhu felt hot on her face and almost wanted to stop chatting.

Chapter 2273: I understand

But inexplicably, she just wants to listen, maybe everyone has a voyeuristic idea?

"How, how to play?" Xiao Mingzhu boldly guessed: "You guys showed him Cos in the room?"

"Yes, nor is it."

After exhausting all night, Xia Feiyao, who was going to have lunch, continued to send messages and Xiao Mingzhu with a slightly red face to explain the key: "There is something different."

"Different?"

"Well, how do I put it, a carpet is spread on the floor, just like a fashion show, from the innermost changing room to the balcony."

"Hmm, then what?"

The more curious Xiao Mingzhu's face became, she could imagine the scene.

Because she is very familiar with fashion shows. After all, she is also a top Bai Fumei. When she was seven or eight years old, she even performed the children's version on stage. At that time, her mother took her with her, but the organizers wanted to please her. Home, arranged for her to appear temporarily.

Therefore, Xiao Mingzhu has a sense of substitution for the fashion show, as if she is on the scene. Last night she also performed with the three daughters of Xia Feiyao.

"Then the husband sits on the balcony, facing the sea."

Xiao Mingzhu can also imagine that scene, her suite also has a big balcony!

Wait, why is it facing the sea?

Xiao Mingzhu frowned, thinking hard, why did Li Yun face the sea! Wouldn't he lose sight of the fashion show?

"So, my husband doesn't know who will come out next."

"!!!"

Xiao Mingzhu was so startled that he almost threw the phone away. It turned out to be like this, was it like this! ! !

Sure enough, those of you who are in love can play, it's awesome. jpg.

Xia Feiyao continued: "We will go out for about five minutes to perform, and then fight with our husband again. If we lose, we have to pretend to be a kitten and walk back to the locker room. Well, that's probably the case."

Kitty walking? Model catwalk?

No, no, it's not a catwalk, but specifically when a cat is walking.

As we all know, humans are higher animals that walk on both feet.

In an instant, Xiao Mingzhu, a clever and wise man, figured out everything. It turned out to be like this...

At that time, Li Yun was sitting on the balcony facing the sea, in the king's new outfit, while Xia Feiyao and Su Muxin walked out along the carpet for five minutes to perform the fashion show. By the way, the loser had to dress up. Walk back as a kitten.

"I understand." Xiao Mingzhu took a deep breath, "It's amazing!"

She can only be described as powerful.

"Did you understand the details?"

"Well, I understand it all!"

"Hehe, Mingzhu, you are as smart as you always have been, well, okay, I'm going to eat, do you want to go together?"

".....it is good!"

Xiao Mingzhu agreed. She now especially wants to know what kind of attitude will they look like at noon today after experiencing last night's fashion show, and will they be more charming, charming, and sentimental?

Xia Feiyao pursed her lips and smiled.

She deliberately told Mingzhu this, the purpose is very simple, is to help a bunch of husbands, let Mingzhu like him.

After these three days, Xia Feiyao felt very happy, and Xiao Mingzhu had a special affection for Li Yun, which can be seen from the fact that she has been secretly asking about what happened in the past three days.

Therefore, although Xia Feiyao is a little jealous, after all, Mingzhu is really beautiful, and she will definitely lose some of her husband's attention after she becomes a sister.

But she was still willing to help her husband and bring Xiao Mingzhu into his home, hehe.

Compared to seeing the bright sunshine and beautiful face of Miss Pearl, falling in love. After the river, surely it will be very interesting, right?

Chapter 2274: start to act

Xiao Mingzhu was disappointed.

Although Xia Feiyao and the others looked a little tired and happy, they didn't show any strange expressions at all.

It's right to think about it. After all, they are completely different during the day and doing fashion shows at night. The husband and wife are in a secret state at night, and it is normal not to see them.

If you want to see, you can only join them and become a member of the sisters...

"What am I thinking!!!"

Sitting at the table and having lunch with Li Yun, Xiao Mingzhu took a deep breath again, wiped his mouth elegantly with a tissue, and said with a faint smile: "Is it time to close the net today?"

You **** also played for three days, have you done business? !

Xiao Mingzhu cruelly complained about the **** Li Yun inside!

Of course, she couldn't see any abnormalities on her delicate and unparalleled face, just the difference between Xia Feiyao and their day and night.

I have to say that everyone can act, everyone is a movie queen.

"According to our previous information, there will be changes tomorrow, and the Internet should indeed be closed." Li Yun nodded, without the slightest doubt, and didn't know that this beautiful and fashionable girl in front of him was actually in his heart. Secretly scolded him.

"Go and catch Yan Jingyi directly!?"

Jin Liuli's eyes were slightly excited: "Yesterday we caught 30 of his accomplices and they were all locked up, presumably that guy is almost the same as the scared bird now, right? Hehe~"

In the past three days, through the efforts of Shangguanming, the captain, and Li Yun and Xiao Mingzhu, the bandits who had boarded the boat from the countries of Laos and Vietnam were arrested for seven or eighty eight. A total of more than one hundred people were arrested and imprisoned in a certain place. A room temporarily used as a prison cell.

Now Yan Jingyi and Yu Shengnan next to him should have no more than 30 people.

And he has been monitored by that black man, Doris, and Shangguan Ming, all his actions are under observation!

"Let's rescue Nelson first." Li Yun smiled, "That guy is almost at his limit now, and he won't be able to withstand the pressure unless he is rescued."

The women laughed at the words.

Nelson has been with Yan Jingyi as an undercover agent and worked so hard to provide them with all kinds of information. In the current situation where such personnel are constantly being arrested, he is suspected of being a matter of course.

But Yan Jingyi still didn't do anything. There was a hacker from Nielsen on the ship, and no one controlled the cruise ship if he caught it, so Yan Jingyi could only go to the dark.

Without thinking about it, he knew that his expression must be as black as the bottom of the pot now.

"Then save him now, no, catch him?" Jin Liuli was eager to try. After playing for a whole night, she happened to go to activities in the afternoon, and in the evening...I still want to continue playing.

After experiencing the fun of four people playing together, Jin Liuli, who had been arrogant before, has changed very quickly, and now she does not reject it, and even some likes to go to the evening repertoire.

Anyway, I told Sister Little Chili that no one else knows about the things on the cruise, so just have fun~.

By the way, let the big satyr taste the sweetness.

—Unfortunately, what she didn't know was that Xiao Mingzhu, who was sitting across from her, was also someone who knew the inside story and process of their jokes!

"go."

"Hey wait, husband."

"what happened?"

"I want a cup of milk tea, drink while walking, hehe." Xia Feiyao glanced at the weather outside the restaurant and said with a smile: "The weather is so hot, husband, I want to drink iced drinks~"

"Brother Li Yun, I want a drink too~!"

"I also want!"

"Li Yun, give me a glass too, juice will be good."

As a result, Li Yun was forced to order five glasses of juice, which he distributed to four beauties, big and small, and took a glass himself.

Taking a walk on the cruise ship at noon in the summer, it is really more comfortable to drink an ice drink!

The only pity is that Su Muxin's affairs last night, plus she only has acquired cultivation level, which is not as good as the three of Li Yun, so after ordering a drink, she kissed Li Yun on the face and ran back to rest with a smile.

Chapter 2275: Nielsen's Happy Life (Part 1)

On the eighteenth floor, inside the Ocean Princess Casino.

This casino is luxuriously decorated and fully equipped for gambling. Croupiers from all over the world can be found here. It is guaranteed that tourists on board can enjoy the pleasure of gambling tables with huge ups and downs.

On weekdays, this casino is closed.

The reason is simple. In most countries, gambling is illegal.

But it is precisely because this ocean princess is traveling in the ocean, so when the cruise ship comes to the high seas—that is, it does not belong to any country's sovereign jurisdiction and dominance, gambling will become a legal act!

—After all, no one is in charge, of course it is legal.

"Three million? I followed!"

"Stud, all 100,000 chips are stud!"

"7! 7! 7! Yes, I won! Hahahaha!"

"Hey, is anyone here to play mahjong?"

Inside the casino, there are a lot of people, and it can be called the most popular repertoire on cruise ships.

Many people who were banned from gambling in the original country played it here, hundreds of thousands, millions, or even tens of millions, just like this thrown on the cruise ship.

This is not an exaggeration, nor is it that these people are rich, but the evil attraction of the casino itself!

Many savvy bosses in the country have a net worth of several hundred million, but after accidentally going to Las Vegas or South Asia's new homes and other countries, they lost everything in the casino, and decades of accumulation were all in vain. .

This is not someone making the game, but just an impulsive decision made by these bosses who were infected by the atmosphere of the casino.

In layman's terms, it's up!

When ordinary people come in, it is indeed easy to be attracted by the hot atmosphere of the scene. Here, a millionaire can barely get started. It is not too much, and hundreds of millions are not uncommon.

It seems that money is no longer money, but just a bunch of things for entertainment, which can be obtained at hand, and discarded at hand, values will be greatly impacted.

Therefore, if you have money or no money, you should never enter the casino!

But for Nelson, who is constantly making money from energy and making money very convenient, the casino is like drinking an afternoon tea. Even if he loses all of it, he can easily earn it back online.

"Dare to follow? I won again! Hahahaha!"

"Wow, Mr. Nelson, your luck today is really good!"

Nelson was surrounded by two big blonde girls who were naked in their clothes. They hugged his arms and looked at the pile of chips on the gaming table with their eyes shining brightly!

It is conservatively estimated that this pile of chips is at least 30 million!

And it's U.S. dollars!

"Because you two great beauties are by your side!" Nelson was in a good mood. He gave a nasty smile, grabbed a handful of chips, and stuffed it directly into the open white place in front of the beautiful woman on the left, and then, he laughed and slapped it. Snapped: "Installed, these are Lucy's yours!"

"Really?" The beauty Lucy was extremely surprised, clutching her chest so that at least one of the 300,000 chips in it could not fall out. She worked hard and cautiously kissed Nelson's face, her face flushed with excitement. .

"Mr. Nelson~~~" The beautiful blonde woman on the right quit, she put her arm around him coquettishly, and also kissed him on the cheek.

"Hahaha, of course you also have Nina!"

Nelson comfortably grabbed a handful of chips and stuffed it to the place in front of her. Now the beauty on the right was happy, and kissed again, and in a very ambiguous tone, she said straightforwardly: "Honey, wait. After the ride, the three of us will go to watch a wonderful movie together, or go to the deck to blow the sea breeze, what do you think?"

For the money, three are three!

Chapter 2276: Nielsen's happy life (part 2)

These hundreds of thousands of dollars are equivalent to their two-year salary, enough to let the two **** girls in the casino put down all their reservations and do their best to please Nelson.

The pile of chips stuffed in their murder weapon is like a lot of irresistible candies, so fascinated, that there is only this handsome man in the eyes!

Even if Nelson looks like a dead nerd, his hair is messy, his beard hasn't been repaired for a month, and his eyes still have black rims, but these!

All is not a problem!

This, even the charm of money!

"Hehehehe, okay~" Nelson squinted left and right, and kissed the two big blonde beauties hard. After causing the two blonde girls to laugh, Nelson burst into anger. , Grabbed a bunch of chips directly, and threw it towards the sky:

"Throwing coins! Spending coins!"

Numerous gambling ghosts in the casino made a sensation. Many of them are losing their chips today. Now they see a pile of money falling to the ground, just like a wolf that has been hungry for three days and sees a flock of sheep, and swarms like crazy. snatch.

"this is mine!"

"Cool! I grabbed a one-hundred-thousand-dollar bargaining chip!"

"F*ck! This is mine!"

"Don't **** it, it's all Lao Tzu's!"

The casino security hurried over to maintain order, lest the crowd even **** the pile of chips on Nelson's table.

"My dear is so generous~" Lucy, the beautiful blond girl with her arm around his left hand, looked at Nelson with a pitiful look in her eyes, and said softly: "I want~ more~ more~~~"

The blonde beauty on the right was taken aback. They already had a lot of bargaining chips. How dare this woman ask for it?

A yellow-skinned young man sitting opposite Nelson, his face was as black as an asphalt road, these chips are like cars running over his face on the asphalt road!

"Well, you have it too!"

Regardless of the person who lost the opposite, Nelson, who had won, went crazy today. He grabbed a lot of chips and squinted to the place where Lucy, the blonde girl, had piled up chips.

But unfortunately, even though Lucy has the proud capital of D+, she still can't put down so many chips, and she fell one by one, and even smashed her original chips down. She was so anxious that she was about to cry!

But she can't grab it with both hands, otherwise, she won't be able to get a penny if she makes her "darling" around her angry!

As for her feet, a group of gambling lunatics snatched chips like a group of wild dogs, shouting with joy, shouting with excitement.

Not to mention, this pile of chips started with 10,000 U.S. dollars, and grabbing a piece was equal to one month's salary for the security guards here, so even they couldn't help squatting down and stealing a few.

"Ten Thousand, Thirty Thousand, Fifty Thousand... So much money, why are you throwing it away? No, no, no, don't throw it!!! This, this is a bargaining chip of one hundred thousand!!!"

Crying without tears, Lucy finally couldn't help it. She leaned down and opened her mouth, biting a bargaining chip worth one hundred thousand dollars that was about to fall from Nelson's finger, her eyes looked like a poor little one. The rabbit generally looks at him.

"Hahahahahaha!"

Nelson was so dismayed. Lucy, the blonde and beautiful girl, was biting a bargaining chip worth 100,000, just like biting something, and it was still in the public. It feels... cool! Stimulate!

"My dear, I also want to~" Another blonde beauty couldn't help it, she finally realized that the dear next to her is a big local tyrant who has been rare for ten years and played very freely!

What's more rare is that this local tyrant doesn't care about money, only cares about playing high or not!

As long as you take care of him, after tonight, maybe they can become millions, no, even multi-millionaires!

Millions are too few. In their D+ capital alone, they have at least 300,000 chips. If you bite a few 100,000 chips, aren't they millionaires?

Chapter 2277: Want to go

"Good, good, all, all!"

Nielsen doesn't care about the money at all. Besides, he won the money tonight with "lucky luck". It doesn't hurt to spend it. It will please the beautiful women. Have a good time tonight, and then meet the fate that may come tomorrow. Day, isn't it happy?

"Here, this is yours!"

Nelson grabbed a 100,000 bargaining chip and handed it to Nina's mouth with a smile.

"woo woo woo woo!"

Lucy on the left whimpered that she still wanted chips!

"Hey hey, here it is, you have it too!"

Two yuan, three yuan...

Nelson spent a million, a total of ten chips, to make these two beautiful blonde girls turn directly into a hamster, with bulging cheeks and all money in it!

As a result, the two beauties don't even talk, they can't even whine, their saliva keeps flowing out, and they look embarrassed.

but!

A half-million bargaining chip is just not spit it out, biting it in the mouth.

As long as my dear show mercy and let them be free, the half a million is theirs!

So, you have to hold on!

"OMG, I really know how to play!"

"I'm Cao!"

"The gameplay of the rich is beyond people's imagination!"

"Damn it, who will bet on Stud with me?! I have to win money too!"

The people in the casino did not despise these two blonde girls, but looked at them with envy. Some of the beauties in the casino are even eager to try and want to challenge what it feels like to be a hamster mouth.

The manager of the casino smiled bitterly. The casino was originally very formal, and there would be no such way of breaking through the lower limit.

But now, under the charm of Nelson's bargaining chip frenzy, even the security guards listened to him, and the guests in the casino cheered wildly. If he stepped forward to stop him, he would offend people, and today's casinos are likely to end up like this.

You know, cruise ships are not able to operate on the high seas every day. One day less business will make tens of millions less. He cannot afford this loss!

Fortunately, Nelson's goal was only for the blonde D+, and the casino manager reluctantly accepted it without putting chips underneath.

"Go, Lucy, Nina, let's take a good bet tonight~"

Nelson laughed. "The bargaining chip is our own clothes! Hehehe~"

The men and women around all have an expression that I understand this, and one loses one piece at a time. This kind of gameplay is very common.

The two blonde beauties showed a look of resentment in their eyes, which means that they have to bite these chips and walk to the room to truly get the 500,000 in their mouths and the 300,000 on D+!

"Want to go?"

Just as Nelson lifted his foot to leave, the young man sitting opposite him shouted in a gloomy, suppressed anger: "Nelson, if you dare to go now, I will dare to break all your legs!"

The scene suddenly cooled down, and many gamblers who took advantage of Nelson looked at the young man with unkind expressions.

"boom!"

"What's the matter?" A black man who grabbed a hundred thousand chips slapped the table hard, and directly cursed: "You have a watch, and you want to lose money at the casino?! F*uck dare to say something again try?"

"Sir!" A security guard who picked up a piece of fifty thousand chips that fell to the ground also reminded: "We are a regular casino here, come and go free! I know you are annoyed to lose money, but you can't restrict others. Freedom. If you want to play again, you can ask the people present to see who will play with you again."

Chapter 2278: not that simple

"Fools play with this kind of person!" Another white man with a tattoo sneered, and everyone agreed and ridiculed loudly.

"Hehe, Nelson, you can go back now, try whether I dare or dare not break your leg!" The young man looked at Nelson, who was hugging left and right, with a murderous intent.

"you!"

"I'll bet with you."

A tall and handsome young man walked in with three beautiful women with different temperaments.

After he appeared, there was another moment of silence in the casino, all attracted by the four beauties around the young man.

Especially among the three noble and elegant beauties, the peerless girl with a sunny smile attracted the attention of most people present.

"God... it's you!!"

Nelson's pupils shrank and he opened his mouth to call out that you are coming. Fortunately, he changed his mouth in time. The expression on his face changed from surprise to surprise, and finally became embarrassed. He released his arms around the two beautiful blonde girls.

"Hi, long time no see."

The one who came with the three beauties was naturally Li Yun. He first greeted Nelson, then looked at the one on the other side, smiled slightly and said, "A few, it's a coincidence."

Qiao*horse!

The person who gambled with Nelson and lost nearly 30 million US dollars is naturally the young master of the Yan family from Zhonghai City, Yan Jingyi!

"Don't stare, everyone is Huang Xuan, and they all come from Zhonghai City. Why do you look like you're dead and alive?"

Li Yun leisurely occupied a chair at the gaming table, ignoring Yan Jingyi's gaze to eat people, and greeted Nielsen: "Are you the legendary hacker? Haha, I have heard about it, come, sit down, and keep coming. Play with me!"

Nelson looked extremely embarrassed, and wanted to say that in front of you, the almighty god, what kind of black Satan I am is a scam, and you are the true legendary hacker!

But Nelson didn't understand the meaning of God for a while, so he waved his hand to let the two beautiful blonde girls step aside and chose to sit next to him. The expression on his face didn't know whether to please or pretend to be angry.

Two blond women Lucy and Nina, who had five hundred thousand dollars in chips in their mouths, stepped aside wittily, the chips in their mouths also spit out, and greeted, a waiter took the chips with a plate and went to wash it. Return it to them after it's cleaned.

After the two beauties took out all the chips from D+, at a glance, they really have almost eight hundred or nine hundred thousand dollars, which is equal to their five-year salary!

"...Men are all perverts!"

Jin Liuli had a panoramic view of the two beauties just now, and couldn't help but mutter, her small cheeks were slightly red, but there was not much expression.

Compared to four days ago, she has grown a lot now, so it's no wonder she is.

The same goes for Xia Feiyao, only her face flushed and a little bit shy.

After all, in the past few days, even last night, she has done the same "hamster" thing to her husband as the two beauties, and even the things in E+ are similar, and they all have things similar to the bargaining chip.

It's all weird husband!

"So... I'll have fun too?"

Xiao Mingzhu sat on the other side of the gaming table and sat opposite Li Yun, her delicate face full of smiles.

But even if she smiled more optimistically, everyone still smelled an unusual meaning.

These people are here to find fault!

"There is a good show!"

Most of the people in the casino were actually attracted. After all, the previous behavior of throwing coins, Yan Jingyi's strong retention, plus the noble temperament of Xiao Mingzhu, the typical white and rich beauty, is almost the image of a princess in the minds of all men. !

These add up to make this gambling game that hasn't started yet to become a lot of people's attention!

Chapter 2279: Gamble

The dark-faced Yan Jingyi took a deep look at Xiao Mingzhu. In the past few days, the people he brought have been missing. No matter how stupid he is, he should know that his actions have been completely mastered!

In addition, Xiao Mingzhu was also involved. What's even more hateful is that she got mixed up with Li Yun!

"You, one by one, **** it, die!"

Squeezing this sentence from his teeth, Yan Jingyi looked around with sullen eyes in his eyes, and the crowd of onlookers was actually frightened and stepped back several steps, shocked by the terrible aura on his body.

A trace of surprise flashed through Xiao Mingzhu's bright eyes. Yan Jingyi in this state was obviously incorrect, similar to Song Yuan, who had been enchanted by rumors a few months ago.

Did he do anything in the three days when he was forced to desperately?

Xiao Mingzhu glanced at Li Yun, and after seeing his calm and composed expression, the anxiety in his heart subsided a lot.

Li Yun smiled jokingly: "Yan Jingyi, do you gamble or not, just one sentence? You see Nelson didn't leave to stay with you, how about it, don't you?"

"Did you ignore me?" Xiao Mingzhu gave him a roll of eyes, and Li Yun was shocked, then touched his nose and smiled: "Indeed, there is a big beautiful woman with us. Take a gamble?"

"Pervert!"

Jin Liuli whispered, full of jealousy, Xia Feiyao gave her a funny look. The most enjoyable one in the past three days is Xiao Liuli, who is also called the husband of the big pervert.

After thinking about it, Xia Feiyao walked behind Xiao Mingzhu, stood with her, and let Jin Liuli stand behind Li Yun.

"Just play, but!"

Yan Jingyi said coldly: "What are you going to play? It's just a few hundred million to go back and play with your mother, dare you bet a bigger one?!"

"What are you betting on?" Li Yun's tone was flat.

"Bet, fate!"

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Gamble with Xiao Mingzhu, Nelson and Yan Jingyi, and strictly abide by the rules of the table, reward experience value of +1 million, all attributes + 100,000, colorful gift bags*3, peerless treasures*1, Xiao Mingzhu is good Sensitivity is to be determined. Note: After the host loses, the system will leave unconditionally.

Option 2: Reject, no reward.

Option three: bet on other, reward to be determined. "

Li Yun raised his eyebrows, and the system actually gave an ultimate choice-he named it himself.

If you win, the reward can be said to be against the sky, and you will get a peerless treasure that can be compared to the Hongmeng Purple Spirit Bracelet.

If he loses, he will lose the system directly, and he will no longer hang on from the outside. He can only practice by his own efforts!

I have to say that the rewards are very tempting, and the results of failure are also unbearable.

Everyone looked at Li Yun and gambled on their lives. This kind of thing that has only been seen in the movie and has never been witnessed by anyone in reality actually happened before their eyes!

The casino manager was taken aback, no, no? Really want to bet on this stuff! ?

crazy!

"Li Yun, what is your choice?" Xiao Mingzhu couldn't see the slightest inner thoughts on her beautiful face, and there was a faint smile on her mouth.

This sentence made Li Yun almost doubt whether she knew that she had a systematic thing!

"Xiao Mingzhu's favorability is to be determined?"

Seeing her beautiful smile, Li Yun vaguely grasped something and said directly: "I am willing to bet, but I will not make a decision for you, depending on your willingness. Of course, if I win, you will be the Pearl... "

"Of course, my life is also yours!" Xiao Mingzhu interrupted him and said with a smile.

But immediately, one of her face was red.

Chapter 2280: Ding, 94 favorability

My life is yours...

Isn't this a disguised confession? !

Xiao Mingzhu felt the unprecedented shyness that he had never experienced in her previous life. A young girl's heart was pounding, as if she wanted her chest to jump out of her throat.

Everyone was attracted by her shy beauty, Xiao Mingzhu's flawless face appeared blush, like a delicate flower being touched, shaking slightly, the beauty revealed at this moment is enough to make anyone look dumbfounded. live!

Li Yun's heart suddenly paused.

Xiao Mingzhu's beauty is absolutely as beautiful as Gong Qingyu and Fanqing Sheng. The bright and cheerful girl's fatal charm exudes when she is shy, and people can't help but want to bow down under her pomegranate skirt.

"This..." Li Yun turned his gaze, "I have the confidence to win the final victory! You decide whether to play or not."

His waist started to hurt again-it was pinched by the jealous Xiao Liuli.

Xiao Mingzhu smiled, "Then I believe you too, isn't it just a gamble? Just gamble!"

She and Li Yun have the absolute initiative and are born invincible, why not bet?

She hesitated just now because she didn't want her decision to be controlled by others, and Li Yun asked her opinion, which moved Xiao Mingzhu very much.

As an independent new era Bai Fumei, her dream boyfriend is a man who fully respects her, understands her, and shares a common language with her.

He may not be handsome, he may not have money, he may be sloppy, his personality is worse, and he has more shortcomings, but for Xiao Mingzhu, her future boyfriend must be someone who can fully understand her, trust her, and at the same time she trusts her incomparably. !

Only in this way can Xiao Mingzhu dare to give his heart to the other party.

"Huh, just bet on it? Just bet on a good bet!"

Yan Jingyi sneered, clenched his teeth, and said fiercely: "Come then! Gamble!"

Inside the casino, the atmosphere became serious. Gamblers from multiple countries and races are now all looking at the four people sitting at this table, waiting for a good show to be staged.

"Sorry, four guests." The hotel manager politely stepped forward and said solemnly: "We are a formal casino, and gambling is not allowed. This is a matter of fate!"

To be honest, he has worked in a casino for 20 years, and he gambled for his life the first time he met him.

Other gamblers, no matter how crazy they are, they only become restless after losing a lot of money. They are like the four of you, they will gamble their lives as soon as they come up!

Do you want to die?

Uh, these people are really desperate!

The manager glanced at Xiao Mingzhu pityingly. It would be a pity that such a beauty would have lost his life like this.

Li Yun was taken aback, not allowed?

"Ding, the host made a choice and gambled with Xiao Mingzhu, Nelson, and Yan Jingyi. Due to casino reasons, the reward for this choice has been changed to: experience value + 10 million, all attributes +1 million, Xiao Mingzhu's favorability degree +5, and get gold Equipment: Bingling Sword."

"Bing Ling Sword

Special effect: ice cold into the bones (every time you attack an enemy, a certain amount of cold is added to slow down the opponent's actions).

Skills: Thousands of Ice Ling (2/2).

Description: An ice magic weapon made from ice-attribute materials, ordinary but classic. "

Ordinary but classic golden artifact!

A smile appeared at the corner of Li Yun's mouth. It is rare for the system to directly reward golden weapons. Wait, Xiao Mingzhu's favorability is increased by 5, which means...

Favorability 94! !
