Chapter 2411: Slap fly

"Mortal, who are you!?"

"court death!"

A group of Hidden Sacred Valley disciples showed off all kinds of weapons, or brilliant swords, or mysterious and extraordinary charms, or pinch of immortals, they wanted to summon thunder and fireworks to kill this damned mortal on the spot!

—In their eyes, all the people they don't know are mortals. After all, it is impossible for the people of the magic door to get close to Lord Saint, so Li Yun must be mortal!

"A group of so-called frogs at the bottom of the well."

"Mortal" said indifferently, stretched out his palm, and the wind was surging in an instant, and the massive spiritual energy around was disturbed and gathered in the palm of this mortal.

"boom!"

A mortal named Li Yun shot out with a palm, and the violent wind suddenly appeared with the flames, like a billowing wave swept over, shot more than ten disciples in the spirit of refinement more than ten meters away, fell to the ground, piled into a mountain of human flesh .

There was silence along the coast.

Everyone could hardly believe their eyes. Just now, a group of extraordinary people who appeared to be quite arrogant and rude were slapped flying by the palm of Mr. Li Yun. More than a dozen people did not even resist, and they piled directly into a mountain of meat. The sword fell all over the place.

The humming, shouting, and scolding were endless, and he was in a mess.

When these Hidden Sacred Valley disciples got up from the ground and wanted to take up their weapons and scold them to find their face, Sage Fan Qing finally screamed:

"enough."

The voice was cold and majestic, and contained an irresistible force, making these Hidden Sacred Valley disciples stand in place one by one, not daring to say anything more.

The angry Lord Saint, is also an angry Void Returning Realm powerhouse at the same time!

"Your business has nothing to do with me." Fan Qingsheng said coldly: "Go back to Elder Wu. Li Yun, let's go."

When she turned her head to look at Li Yun, her tone had recovered, and there was obviously a trace of disappointment in her eyes, disappointment with these disciples!

"it is good."

Li Yun nodded, and was about to say goodbye to those Alice, when the phone bell suddenly rang.

"Xianxian?"

"Li Yun Li Yun, ah, no, it's not good, my side..."

Liu Xianxian's tone of panic and horror came from the phone. Li Yun's expression changed and interrupted her: "Where are you?! I'm in Honolulu now!"

"Are you in Honolulu? Oh, great, I'm here at Waikiki Beach, Alohirani Hotel, Li Yun, you, when can you..."

Liu Xianxian's voice is getting weaker and weaker, and she also knows that the island is all messed up now. She even saw on the Internet that it was speculated that at least 100,000 people died in the attacks of bandits and monsters.

Although Li Yun is very powerful and has a very powerful power, but... with so many monsters, can he come?

"Waiki Beach...in five minutes!"

After a quick glance at the map and finding the location of Waikiki Beach, Li Yun made a promise: "I will be there within five minutes, Xianxian, wait for me!"

"Um~, I'll wait for you."

In the hotel room, Liu Xianxian, who closed the door tightly, was full of sweetness in his heart. The previous anxiety disappeared and he became extremely expectant.

Xiao Mingzhu's face is weird, she is really Liu Xianxian, she is on Haowei Island!

"Sage!" Li Yun turned his head to look at the lady of honor: "I will save people first, please protect Mu Xin Feiyao and the others!"

Qingsheng? !

A group of Hidden Sacred Valley disciples looked at him angrily. What is the origin of this bastard, and he has such a good relationship with Lord Saintess!

Sage Fanqing shook his head.

Chapter 2412: The Faith of Athena

Upon seeing this, the leader of the Demon Squad, Yu Zishi, the cultivator of the gods who was shot flying by Li Yun before, said tauntingly: "What are you? How dare you let Master Saint help you look at your woman? , I think you don't know how high the sky is!"

The words of your woman made Feiyao and the women blush, and even Xiao Mingzhu felt a little hot on her face. She has no right to speak now, and can only follow Li Yun's arrangements.

This feeling of powerlessness really made her unhappy.

"Well, my fault."

Li Yun ignored him, patted his head, and smiled at Fan Qingsheng: "You shouldn't be so polite to Qingsheng, I will save people first, Qingsheng, you will come later."

Others could not understand the meaning of Fan Qingsheng. As her boyfriend, Li Yun naturally understood at a glance what she meant by shaking her head just now.

Sure enough, Sage Fanqing nodded his head this time, and his eyes were faintly smiling, and his soft, water-like appearance made people's heart fascinated.

"it is good!"

When Li Yun was about to leave, he saw Alice and the others from the corner of his eye, stopped again, and finally reminded: "The mist on the island has a psychedelic mind...that is, it is hallucinogenic, like a drug.

Alice, you let your people strengthen their beliefs in their hearts. Don't be confused by what your eyes see and what your ears hear. If you can't resist and get into trouble, just squat down and wait, don't shoot randomly! "

"Faith?" Alice didn't quite understand this Huang Xuanguo word. After thinking about it, she said, "Does it mean the belief in GOD in her heart?"

"Roughly the same."

"That's great!"

Alice put the trident on the ground, held her hands together on her chest, and prayed devoutly: "I believe in the beautiful and wise goddess Athena, Li Yun, do you know which * Athena is?"

This was the goddess she knew by chance from an old priest in a ruined temple. Alice felt that Athena represented wisdom, and that ruined temple was full of mystery, so she worshipped it.

"Of course." Li Yun smiled: "The daughter of the god-king Zeus, one of the three goddesses of Olympus, the goddess of war and wisdom, Athena!"

"...Huh? Virgin, God?"

Alice was shocked, but Li Yun knew the Western goddess better than she did? Is Athena the * of the east? It doesn't make sense... The * name Athena is obviously from the West!

Unexpectedly, the princesses of the Western great powers do not even know the name of Athena, and the Olympus * system has also declined.

This thought flashed through Li Yun's mind, without further explanation, and walked towards Waikiki Beach.

"Hehe, just leave it on foot? When will..." Yu Zishi, who is in the realm of spirits, was about to ridicule and vent some of the frustrations in his heart, but the next moment, Li Yun's figure slowly became transparent.

One step, two steps, three steps!

As if losing the color, Li Yun's body disappeared in front of everyone!

"what!?"

Everyone rubbed their eyes, but still couldn't find Mr. Li's shadow. He seemed to disappear out of thin air. It only took less than two seconds from walking out to disappearing in front of them.

Just disappeared like this!

"how is this possible....."

Yu Zishi opened his mouth wide, his spiritual thoughts didn't even notice how Li Yun disappeared, as if he was a ghost coming and going without a trace. No, no, for the practitioners, those exuding evil spirits. On the contrary, the ghost of Qi Qi is extremely conspicuous, and you can know where it is hiding by sweeping the spirit!

But Li Yun disappeared in a way he didn't know at all!

Chapter 2413: Tongyou

Yu Zishi subconsciously looked at the Lord Saint, and found that her eyes were also vaguely confused, and she didn't seem to know how Li Yun left.

"Who is this Li Yun... on earth?!"

Yu Zishi was terrified. He didn't even know if Li Yun was hiding around him. If the other party wanted to kill him, he could really kill him by raising his hand!

At this point, Yu Zishi was finally convinced.

Just now, Li Yun slapped them with the palm of his hand, not because they took advantage of the chance that they didn't react, but because the strength was far beyond the Refining God Realm, and the Void Return Realm like the Lord Saintess, so he was able to take the heavy lifting and teach them!

"I actually offended a Void Returning Realm powerhouse!"

Yu Zishi and these disciples from the Hidden Sacred Valley were all sweating coldly. Everyone became honest and followed the Lord Saint, not daring to disobey the order any more.

At least before this incident is over, they dare not leave the Hidden Sacred Valley...

The skill Li Yun used naturally came from the passiveness carried by the congenital Taoist: Tongyou.

After his previous Spirit Turtle Breathing Technique was upgraded to the * level, he also gained a new passive called Tongyou, which enabled Li Yun to ignore the formation to a certain extent, his body turned into nothingness, his actions were silent, like a ghost.

At that time, Li Yun felt that the faculty of the Spirit Turtle Hidden Breathing technique was simply too strong, and it was with it that Li Yun was able to play with the White Crane Taoist in the Void Returning Realm on the Adu Mountain volcano, and also put him in a lot of hardships. The spirit weapon that was collected and built in the first year was snatched away.

But now, after he obtained the Supreme Treasure Body Congenital Dao fetus, he realized that his true ghost communication ability was 10,000 times stronger than the spiritual turtle hiding technique!

As soon as his mind moved, Li Yun's body turned into nothingness, and the ability of the innate Taoist fetus seemed to be innate, silky and smooth, without any hindrance.

Immediately afterwards, Li Yun entered a mysterious state.

His soul floats in the sky, escapes into the gap of space, from an unknown distance, looking down at his body that has turned into nothingness, manipulating his body through obstacles.

Trees, soil, walls, steel bars, glass, cars, hotels, gas stations, hospitals, gangsters with guns laughing, people screaming and fleeing, raging fires...

Can't stop him!

Li Yun's physical body seemed to be separated from the world, with nothing related to each other, and the mundane things could no longer hold him back!

There is nothing to stop the true heaven and earth.

"It feels... it's like playing a game from a third-person perspective, and it's a full-map view-at least the perspective of a map with a radius of one kilometer!"

Li Yun looked at his running flesh without waves in his heart. He is now in a state of a mixture of the third person and the first person. A divine mind controls the flesh, a divine mind is suspended in the sky, and everything in a radius of a kilometer is collected. fundus.

Screams, wild laughter, running footsteps, the action of the bandits changing their magazines, the residents of the island let their children run first, leaving behind the scenes of facing the bandits trembling with a fruit knife.

and many more.

All of them can't escape his divine gaze!

"Hahaha, don't blame me, blame you for offending the devil! We are under the devil, * will invade the world, and the future belongs to the Satan army!"

These mercenaries who came here from all over the world also had a period of fear when they learned that monsters had attacked the island.

Chapter 2414: Fierce Fans (Part 1)

But they quickly figured out that the big man behind the scenes who had instructed them to come here before was clearly the mastermind of this monster attack!

As a result, this group of heaven and earth are not afraid, the only thing they are afraid of is the mercenaries who have lives and no money to spend, and they began to burn, kill and looting on the island.

Even if the mastermind no longer pays them later, they will not be given the opportunity to join the mysterious organization, but as long as they take advantage of the opportunity to grab a little more money when the mist covers Weiyi Island, and then find a place to bury it on the island. stand up.

When the matter is over, they will return to Haowei Island and they will be billionaires immediately!

As a result, these mercenaries started frantically burning and looting on Haowei Island. They killed people when they saw them, smashed windows when they saw them, drove heavy trucks on the streets, and ignited numerous buildings with a can of gasoline. The gas station directly detonated and rushed into banks, jewelry stores, and top luxury brand stores to  rampantly.

All that can't be robbed, smashed and burned!

When you see a beautiful woman, you will fall down, and you will drink when you see a good wine. The evil power contained in the mist seems to corrode their reason little by little, and gradually become a lunatic who only knows about destruction!

Affected by them, some hidden unstable elements on the island, or simply criminals who fled here, also fled to the streets to commit crimes.

The entire Haowei Island, a total of eight islands, all fell into a state of madness and chaos.

"Hey, I recognize you!"

When Li Yun passed by a group of high-end beach villas, a group of young people armed with guns broke in. After finding a family of three who were on vacation, a young man with guns blew in a whistle:

"Isn't this our big entrepreneur Buster? Are you on vacation? What's the matter? Where's your bodyguards? Are they all gone, or are they all killed? Hahahaha!"

Li Yun paused, not because he knew the big entrepreneur Buster, but because there was a very cute little girl in the family of three. She was hiding in her mother's shadow in fear, watching with big fearful eyes. Against these bad guys.

"Please don't hurt us, I have money, I have a lot of money! I will give it all to you, do you need to transfer money? I will transfer 5 billion to you immediately!"

The host, Buster, stood in front of his wife and children.

"I said a big entrepreneur, did you make a mistake? Now you think we are still short of money? Several hundred million and several billion are the same for us!"

A young man in the lead laughed. "Well, we are not the wives of big entrepreneurs. Tsk tsk, your wife must also come from a big family... well."

The rest of the story stopped abruptly, and it was never possible to say it.

His head... fell straight to the ground, blood splattered out, his face was confused, his mouth opened, but he couldn't say anything.

When he realized that his brain and body had been separated, it was too late.

"what!!!"

Accompanied by the screams, the heads fell, and finally, a flame burst out of thin air, igniting these young people.

The strange scene stunned the Bust family of four people. They didn't react until the flames spread, and hurriedly avoided, letting the flames swallow the corpse and this luxuriously decorated room.

—— Money is no longer important, as long as he can spend this terrible nightmare night, he is willing to pay any amount!

"Husband, this, what's going on?!" The wife was in shock and touched her white neck. Now only the touch can make her feel that she is still alive.

Chapter 2415: Fierce fans (part 2)

"It's Superman Li from Huang Xuanguo!"

After calming down and confirming that his head is still there and there is no sudden flame in the air, Buster quickly answered his wife's question excitedly:

"It's definitely Superman Li! Haven't we watched the video? He killed those monsters with a flying flame sword on the Ocean Princess! Now he must have come to Haowei Island. Clean up the monsters on the island! We are saved!"

Regardless of the future outcome, Buster must give his wife a hope of survival, otherwise he doubts whether his wife's spirit can last until tomorrow.

Monsters encircle the island, dense fog, gangsters raging, and hundreds of thousands of well-trained soldiers from Li Jian. And this terrible disaster that countless modern weapons can't stop has brought unimaginable pressure to ordinary people!

"Superman Li!!!" The little girl called out suddenly: "Mom, Superman Li is here!"

"It's him, it turned out to be him...Li Chaoren."

The beautiful woman's eyes gradually lit up, and suddenly she thought of something, she quickly took out her mobile phone and took a photo of the unburnt corpses: "Husband, we will spread the news, and those people on the Internet are still slandering Huang Xuanguo's Li Chaoren. , Saying that he will definitely not help our country, now let's see what those * say!"

"Yes, Li Chaoren is our benefactor, we have to rectify his name!"

Buster quickly contacted his domestic subordinates and immediately sent news to publicize the matter.

By the way, it also brings some comfort and hope to those who are anxious on the island.

Although Booth and a group of netizens have never seen Li Chaoren's real appearance, only a photo of the back of a giant whale standing far away has spread to the world.

"Sure enough, husband, Li Chaoren used flying swords and flames to kill monsters and those gangsters on the road. At least five people have already proved that they were rescued!"

"We are saved! Li Superman is not only Huang Xuanguo's Li Superman, he is also the world's Superman!"

"Wow!" The little girl was so excited to hear that she clapped her little hand and shouted: "Dad, I will grow up to be Superman's wife!"

"?what?"

"Mom, didn't you say that you must marry someone if you adore him? I am going to marry Superman Li, not the Super-man in the movie!"

"Uh....."

Like a killing wind swept past, all those within a kilometer of a kilometer holding guns and doing evil were beheaded by Li Yun, who was passing by. His figure was hidden in the void, and everyone often only saw a fiery red sword air out of thin air. Flying out, a few heads flew up.

Those creatures that mutated and went crazy on the island were all killed by Li Yun. The way they were sparks with lightning, sword qi stretched for dozens of kilometers within a kilometer.

"Huh~huh!"

Li Yun, who came to Waikiki Beach, appeared in shape, panting, and was exhausted. He quickly took out a recovery pill and ate it.

The pill from the system combined with the horrible resilience of the congenital Taoist fetus has allowed Li Yun to absorb the spiritual energy at an exaggerated level. The rich spiritual energy around him forms a whirlpool into his body. If it is seen by other practitioners When I arrive, I don't know how many people's jaws will be shocked.

After a few steps out, his mana has been restored!

"Congenital Dao Ti... is a hundred times stronger than I thought!"

Li Yun exhaled. If it was not for the ability to communicate with the secluded, it would consume some mental power, and there would be obvious fluctuations when he shot, and he needed to get out of the state of communicating with the secluded. Otherwise, he would be invincible.

Chapter 2416: International star

As long as you sneak to the Void Returning Realm, raise the sword in your hand, and click on the head again!

Of course, the real situation is that the moment Li Yun starts his hand, the Void Returning Realm powerhouse will definitely be able to detect it. As long as they reflect in time to urge the body protection magic weapon, it is almost impossible for Li Yun to succeed in a sneak attack.

But even so, Li Yun, who attacked first, still had a huge initiative!

If one is not good, it is not impossible to return to the Void Realm with a few direct strokes.

"Xianxian, I'm on the beach, where are you?"

Li Yun dialed Liu Xianxian's phone again, but her cell phone kept indicating that the line was busy and could not be connected.

"Xianxian... don't have any trouble!"

Li Yun got nervous and turned his vision eyes, letting his eyes look through the fog-shrouded ground, seeing the scene hundreds of meters away, floating in the air, moving quickly on the seaside avenue, searching for the location of the hotel where Liu Xianxian was located!

Alohirani Hotel.

When the city was locked in dense fog, the hotel had closed the door and declined all visitors.

Later, he received a warning from Liu Xianxian, a well-known international filmmaker, and the hotel strengthened security to guard against anyone who wanted to rob in the fog.

Unexpectedly, the person who robbed the last did not wait, and waited for the news that the eight big islands of Weiyi were all attacked by monsters, which made the Alohirani Hotel near the beach panic.

Fortunately, this is the inland sea, which is equivalent to a port area. The location is superior. If monsters want to come in, they must pass through the narrow sea entrance in front. It turns out that the hotel site was chosen to prevent guests from being attacked by sharks on the sea. Saved the hotel's life again.

However, the luck of everyone in the hotel did not last long. A group of gangsters came under the hotel with various guns and weapons, and several shots killed security guards who dared to resist, and forcibly controlled the entrance and exit of the hotel!

"Gentlemen."

The hotel manager from the Netherlands, who was in danger, dressed in a suit and bow tie, stood calmly in front of the group of gunmen, saluting and saying: "I am the manager of the Alohirani hotel chain. If you can raise your hands and let me go In the hotel, I promise that I will not pursue it afterwards, and I will transfer the money to you immediately, which can be transferred to the Swiss bank account, and I guarantee that it will not be found out afterwards!"

A group of security guards and waiters paled with fright, squatting on the ground with their heads in their hands, not daring to look directly at the culprit.

"Manager, what are you talking about?"

A young man dressed in a gentle manner, looking at the Asian origin, was playing with the heavy pistol in his hand, and said with a smile: "Don't look at my companions, all of them don't look good. In fact, our brothers are very peaceful, you Seeing that none of us killed anyone, did we?"

The hotel manager can only laugh, and believe it or not.

However, this young man looked only twenty-five or sixteen years old, but he could completely control this group of mercenaries with different skin colors and different races. It was enough to show that his methods were so advanced. The kindness he showed now was just to catch up.

Prepare for the madness down.

"Don't believe me, my brothers and I love classical music on weekdays, especially Liu Xianxian's songs!"

"Uh."

The hotel manager is in a cold sweat. Where is Liu Xianxian as a star of classical music? She sings pop music...

The purpose of these people is self-evident.

Sure enough, the young man turned his head and shot the pistol directly on the table in the hotel lobby, and said loudly: "I heard that the fairy is in your hotel? Just so, my brothers like her to look like a fairy. I like her song and her movie too!"

Chapter 2417: Trouble

"Correct!"

A strong black man standing behind the young man with a submachine gun grinned and said, "I was her fan three or four years ago, the manager, call her out soon, and my brothers and I will listen to her singing live, hehe , It's better to take off your clothes...Ah!"

The young man grabbed a decorative bottle on the table and smashed it against his head. The glass bottle shattered on the forehead of the strong black man, but no one was injured. It can be seen that this strong man is not only strong, but also has dark skin. It is also very thick, ordinary people come to fight him with seventeen or eighteen, and it is estimated that even the black skin can not be broken.

"Hold!"

The young man laughed and scolded in Huang Xuan's national dialect, and then scolded in English: "Nigger, why are you so vulgar?" Is a big beauty like Liu Xianxian the kind of bar girl who dances and dances?"

"Uh, yes, boss, you are right."

"A fairy like Liu Xianxian should wear a bathing suit and run happily on the beach~" The young man was intoxicated, his voice seemed to be singing a hymn: "The beautiful laughter came into our ears, we just watched and watched. As she laughed and ran, the waves flew up and wet her swimsuit, giving the immortal a perfect figure...Ah~, how wonderful!"

A group of subordinates burst into flames when they heard it, their eyes widened, and it really made Liu Xianxian run happily on the beach in a swimsuit. It's best for them to...then what.

"Fuck!" The strong black man also cursed in Huang Xuan's national dialect, and said with fiery eyes: "You still know how to play the boss, hehe."

"Yes, let Liu Xianxian wear a swimsuit!"

"The best three-point kind!"

"I object, Liu Xianxian's kind of person is best to wear Siamese style, this is pure and lovely!"

"I choose to have them all, let the immortals change one by one in front of us, hehehe."

"Hahaha, this is too cool? Turn your back to us, or face it?"

A group of mercenaries with guns laughed wildly, and everyone in the hotel lobby was frightened again.

These people are not only cruel, but also infected by their boss's neurosis, and they also fall into madness. Once they are angered...the consequences are unimaginable, I am afraid that the entire hotel guests will be killed by this group of people!

"stop."

The young man raised his palm, and all his men suddenly closed their mouths.

"Manager." The young man showed a faint smile: "I'll give you one minute and contact Liu Xianxian immediately. After one minute, we will kill one person every half minute!"

"This....."

"You have no choice."

All the guns were aimed at the hostages squatting in the hall. The gangsters all smiled. As long as the boss said a word, they would shoot and kill, making the hotel hall bloody, with severed limbs everywhere.

Just the same as before.

"Okay, I will contact Miss Liu immediately!"

The hotel manager, who has always been prudent, also panicked at this moment. What he saw in front of him was not a simple gangster, but a group of gangsters with mental problems!

One minute later.

"Start killing," the young man said.

"what?!"

The hotel manager with his mobile phone was startled, "Isn't it still, half a minute!?"

"Do you believe the bad guys?" The young man laughed, and the gangster standing in the front laughed loudly and did not hesitate to pull the trigger of the submachine gun.

"Etc., etc!!!"

The hotel manager shouted, "Xianxian has come down, she, she is on the elevator, she, she said..."

"Say what?" the young man asked.

"Say...I would rather die than let others die because of her!"

The hall fell into a moment of silence.

Chapter 2418: Xianxian, sing me a song

After a while, the young man clapped his hands and sighed: "It really is the Miss Liu Xianxian I like. Okay, don't be afraid, everyone. I'll chat with Xianxian later, listen to her live singing a few songs, and then leave. ."

Everyone breathed a sigh of relief, and the strong black man yelled in dissatisfaction: "Boss, don't we want Liu Xianxian to wear a swimsuit?!"

"When did I say it?"

The young man looked at him suspiciously: "Is there something wrong with your ears? Xianxian is my fan. Does wearing a swimsuit suit her?"

"Boss!"

There are still people who are not reconciled. Liu Xianxian has become famous internationally. Even the beautiful women on Weiyi Island are not as famous as her.

Besides, she has good figure and good skin. When she sings beautiful songs with confidence in the MV, she looks like a goddess.

"What I say is what."

The young man's eyes became extremely cold, and a pair of sharp eyes swept across his hands. These hands were soaked in blood, they ran around the world to commit crimes, and even dared to rob the golden triangle poison. The international mercenaries who committed crimes were all scared Dare to speak again.

"Of course." The young man's face showed a gentle smile again: "I said that Xianxian should not be allowed to wear a swimsuit, provided that she did not lie to me."

The hotel manager was taken aback.

"The elevator is coming soon, too? In ten seconds, I want to see Xianxian! Nigga, count."

"Yes, boss!"

The strong black man laughed grinningly, and shouted at the crowd with his gun: "10!"

The hotel manager raised his throat with a heart.

"9!"

"8."

"Stop!!!"

The elevator entrance slowly opened, revealing a beautiful oval face inside, pure and kind, and his beautiful big eyes were full of stubbornness and anger.

"Xianxian!"

The hostages squatting on the ground exclaimed in their hearts, and their inner feelings were extremely complicated.

These gangsters came for Liu Xianxian, and they also suffered a disaster.

However, Liu Xianxian is a guest of their hotel, and they have the responsibility to protect the guests. They can't blame Liu Xianxian for this matter!

It can only be said that the world has become so ridiculous that even the world-famous tourist resort of Howui Island has fallen into disaster.

"very good."

The young man slapped his palms and stood up with a smile on his face, which affected the international star who walked out of the elevator. He also gave her a gentleman's ceremony and said in Chinese: "Miss Liu, you are my idol, since ten years ago Until now, it has always been!"

"I'm sorry." Liu Xianxian's bright eyes were full of indifference, and he replied in English: "I would rather not have fans like you. The songs I sing and the movies I play have always been the theme of love, but what you do now What is it?!"

The hotel manager and the hostages were all dumbfounded, and even the gangster with the gun was very surprised.

Is this beautiful and innocent star in front of me afraid of them at all? Even dare to accuse their boss, really impatient!

"I'm not afraid of you!"

Liu Xianxian put his right hand on the jade pendant hanging on his chest, with a stubborn expression: "My boyfriend is coming, he will definitely teach you a lot!"

Boy friend? !

Everyone was shocked again. They didn't think that the big star Liu Xianxian actually had a boyfriend!

"You are right." The young man smiled warmly, "I really don't deserve to be your fan, but I like you very much, what should I do?"

Liu Xianxian looked at him coldly, without saying a word.

Behind her, the elevator opened again, and her agent Zhang Jie saw this scene and was frightened at a loss.

"Well, Xianxian, you sing a song for me, and I'll leave right away."

The young man made his request with a smile, Liu Xianxian stared at him indifferently for a long while: "I can..."

"Xianxian, sing to me too."

Chapter 2419: Seven Steps of Song Composing (Part 1)

A man with a smile came from a distance, and everyone was a little surprised. After the gangsters reacted, they immediately aimed their guns at the door of the hotel.

However, Liu Xianxian's pure and beautiful face burst with a smile that could eclipse Hundred Flowers in an instant, and shouted in a crisp and melodious voice: "Li Yun, come and save me~!"

In her consciousness, it was normal for her boyfriend to come to rescue her. She was happy to be petted by Li Yun and enjoyed the happiness and security that Li Yun brought her with peace of mind.

Of course, Liu Xianxian will also return all his passionate, passionate love.

What Liu Xianxian did not expect was that Li Yun's figure gradually appeared from the void, stepped across the open beach in front of the hotel, and walked directly into the hotel lobby!

"what!"

Everyone was startled, a gangster even dropped his submachine gun to the ground, staring at him in disbelief.

"Xianxian."

Seeing her pure and beautiful oval face, Li Yun breathed a sigh of relief and smiled at her: "I finally arrived, are you okay?"

"It's okay, hehe." Liu Xianxian looked at the phone, blinked and said, "It's so fast, it's only three minutes later, weren't you still at the port just now? Wow, Li Yun, the way you played just now was so handsome. Thinking of the movie shots, next time I add your actions to the movie, okay? Well, it's not right, don't enter the movie, Li Yun, you are my great hero, you must be shot in the MV for a lifetime Remembrance, um, just use real people to perform, you come and perform with me in person~, hehe."

She said many things in one breath, making the people present speechless for a while.

Unexpectedly, the big star Liu Xianxian looks like this after falling in love, and her boyfriend is actually...

"It's Superman Li!?"

Someone yelled subconsciously, and the hostages responded, all looking at Li Yun in surprise.

The yellow race appeared in a weird way, and his surname was Li. Wasn't he the same Li Chaoren who stood on the giant whale on the Ocean Princess? !

"Hehe~, Li Chaoren hug me~" Liu Xianxian ran to Li Yun with a smile on his beautiful face, trying to plunge into his embrace.

Just after walking a few steps, the strong black man pointed at the submachine gun and shouted, "Don't move!"

Suddenly, all the gunpoints were aimed at Liu Xianxian and Li Yun.

"what?"

Liu Xianxian stood miserably on the spot, tightly holding the jade pendant on her chest with her right fist, showing a pitiful expression to the person she likes and the person who can protect her: "Li Yun, save me~"

The hotel manager almost covered his face. The big star Liu Xianxian, who had acted bravely just now, turned into a little woman in a blink of an eye, seeking protection from her boyfriend.

"Come here and sing me a song."

Ignoring those gunpoints, Li Yun smiled and beckoned to her, "Why didn't I expect you to sing to me alone. As a boyfriend, I have never enjoyed this kind of treatment. How can I be affected by anything else? The man snatched it. By the way, there were seven steps to compose poems in ancient times. Today my immortal will come to compose songs in seven steps at a time, how about it?"

"what?"

Liu Xianxian was surprised by Li Yun's suggestion, but soon felt extremely exciting again.

Under the guns of so many fierce and evil gangsters, she walked towards her lover step by step.

While walking, singing songs, it was like seeing death as home, an arrogant white swan desperate for love, and finally was stained with blood, and the white dress (though she is now wearing a khaki gown) was like a red peony in full bloom In the arms of his lover.

Die.

Die with your lover.

Chapter 2420: Seven Steps of Song Composition (Part 2)

"A long, long time ago, there was a beautiful white swan~, living in a beautiful and fragrant garden."

Looking at Li Yun with his eyes, Liu Xianxian forgot everything around him, humming softly, and the beautiful singing voice came into the ears of everyone present.

"It is elegant and noble, but it has its own rise."

"It loves the big geese that fly through the sky every year... year after year, year after year, but it doesn't have the courage to fly high and catch up with the high-flying geese."

"One day, the wild goose landed in the garden unexpectedly..."

Liu Xianxian's singing is full of happiness, but in happiness, there is also a faint anxiety, with a bitter voice, making the people present full of contradictions, not only moved by the love between the white swan and the unexpectedly landed geese, but also Worried that after the geese fly high again, the white swan will be left alone in the beautiful garden.

Depressed.

"The swan and the geese danced together in the lake in the garden. The geese told the swan that the journey was wonderful, and the swan made a crown for the geese with flowers from the garden..."

Liu Xianxian walked towards Li Yun step by step, from the side close to the elevator, past the hostage in the middle, to Li Yun's side.

She sang and looked at Li Yun's eyes, filled with sacred brilliance—the kind of yearning and pursuit of steadfast love made her look pure and sacred, just like someone singing love on the battlefield and letting people let go Chastity of weapons!

With a smile on his face, Li Yun stretched out his hands to Liu Xianxian, but slowly curved a finger on his right hand and pointed it at the mercenaries who raised their guns.

The mercenary's finger pulling the trigger is slowly exerting force.

"The wild goose flies high, hovering over the garden over and over again, and the loving encouragement cry spread throughout the world of white swan."

"She finally spread the wings she had never used before, flapping the water, rushing to the sky, and flying with her lover!"

"But... a sharp arrow passed through the neck of the white swan."

Boom boom boom! !

Countless bullets leaned out and called at the wild geese and white swan. Everyone couldn't help exclaiming, watching everything with their eyes wide open.

Why did the sharp arrow penetrate the neck of the white swan?

Will the same be true for bullets? !

However, reality is different from fairy tales. A powerful flame flew out from Li Yun's fingers, and it swept out in an instant, and the blue flame flooded everything in front of him.

Everyone was stunned. The flame that popped from Li Chaoren's fingers actually melted the walls of the hotel. A dozen mercenaries and their submachine guns were all blown off, flying dozens of meters away and turned into ashes.

"The white swan fell into the arms of the wild goose and fell back into the garden."

Liu Xianxian, ignoring everything happening around him, came to Li Yun and hugged him tightly around his waist. His graceful body was almost obsessed with him, his eyes filled with sad tears, and he looked up at Li Yun from her. The sound of the beautiful singing voice is full of bitterness and sadness, and the eyes are full of deep prayers, singing:

"The swan prays to the wild goose: I flew into the sky, my love, can you kiss me?!"

The wild goose kissed the white swan.

Li Yun also kissed Liu Xianxian.

Under the dumbfounded gaze of the hotel staff and security guards squatting on the ground, the two kissed tightly, and the lingering love made everyone who saw it couldn't help but shed tears.
