

Godly Choice 2481

Chapter 2481: Countermeasure

Li Yun didn't hesitate this time, and directly chose the third item and won several small pill awards.

"Tsk tusk, I have more and more pill now, I can't use it up at all."

Looking at the nearly 1,000 small, medium-sized, and golden-quality elixirs in his inventory, Li Yun felt that he would not be short of elixirs in the future.

The reason is very simple, the congenital Dao fetus is too strong, immune to toxins, immune to curses, and the resilience is a metamorphosis level, and the four medicines built in the basic Dan still have some effect on him.

But building the foundation... He is now in the Dharma birth realm, and the effect of this pill will only get weaker and weaker!

"How do you feel that some of the rewards in the system have reached the limit? It's useless for me." Li Yun said to himself.

It's all due to the fact that the congenital Dao fetus is too strong, which has caused him to be too impressed with ordinary rewards!

"Is it floating, or is the guy Wan Faxian too strong making me want to become stronger quickly?"

Li Yun smiled, his current strength and Soul Bright Realm definitely have a gap, but it is not too big to resist completely.

While flying fast towards Honolulu Island, Li Yun edited the information he had just received and sent them to several people.

Xia Ming, Shang Guan Ming, Xiao Ming Zhu and Fan Qing Sheng.

Xia Ming's reply was the fastest, and he called quickly: "Li Yun, you mean that we and the residents and tourists on the island have become hostages of Liudaomen?"

"Correct."

Xia Ming was silent for a long time, and Li Yun had nothing to do. The kidnapping case itself is more difficult, and you need to be careful not to hurt the hostages.

And now Wan Faxian shamelessly kidnapped 3 million people on the island. Once Li Yun goes to destroy the soul-refining tower or let a missile attack there, Wan Faxian will order the Liudaomen to carry out the massacre, and even he will personally dispatch it. Killing mortals.

This kind of shameless old monster, Li Yun really can't help him!

"In that case, our move to gather residents is to create better opportunities for them to hijack." Xia Ming said with a wry smile.

"No, not at all."

Li Yun denied: "Even if the residents don't gather together, the strong in the Return to Void Realm can move and kill thousands of people. The modern population is still too concentrated. There are thousands of people in a hotel."

"...Same." Xia Ming rubbed his forehead, stayed up all night, and concentrated on the intense work, making his brain a little confused now: "Then what shall we do now? Continue the staff gathering work? The other party will show the plan, but instead Let us not guess whether what he said is true or false. Moreover, the door of life and death is wide open, and we don't know what the consequences will be! Will it really open the door of the legendary underworld?"

"Nobody knows." Except for the system.

Li Yun said: "First gather people and gather them near the pier. If I find the stone monument and clear the fog, then you will immediately sail in and transport the people out. The Haowei Island has become unsuitable for people to live in. , At least not suitable for ordinary people to live!"

"Okay!" Xia Ming quickly reacted, "Then I will contact other countries to speed up the missile bombing of the sea, and try to clean up the monsters on the sea."

Li Yun nodded and hung up.

As a result, as soon as he hung up, Xiao Mingzhu's phone called again.

"Li Yun, where are you now?"

"I'm ready to return to Honolulu, what's the matter?"

"I'm back? Okay, great, nothing more, just—" Xiao Mingzhu took a deep breath, "I just feel safe."

Chapter 2482: Secretary

"Very safe?"

Li Yun smiled first, and then moved a little, "Mingzhu, haven't you been asleep just now?"

Lying on the soft bed of the five-star presidential suite, Xiao Mingzhu's face was reddened. She was embarrassed to say that she did not dare to fall asleep at all. She did not even take off her clothes and socks to prevent unexpected events from being too late to respond.

"Also, it's not that serious, I still slept a little bit."

Xiao Mingzhu reached out and hugged her sweet green plum, bit her lip and smiled: "Your superstar girlfriend slept very soundly by my side, and fell asleep as soon as her head touched the pillow."

Big star girlfriend? Xianxian!

When Li Yun thinks of Xianxian's pure and lovely face, she must be very lazy when she is asleep, right?

"Xianxian's mind is simple, thinking less, not as tired as you." Li Yun teased this noble birth Bai Fumei.

Mingzhu is very hardworking and smart, but smart people tend to think a lot, but they are not as comfortable as people like Liu Xianxian.

"Then I did something wrong to protect your superstar girlfriend personally?"

Xiao Mingzhu groaned, even she didn't realize how touching her current state of tenderness was, completely different from her vigorous, confident and cheerful appearance in the past.

"Well, it's my fault." Li Yun raised his hand to beg for mercy. He really has no time to flirt with Xiao Mingzhu, so he can only temporarily admit defeat.

"Huh~"

Xiao Mingzhu was in a much better mood, and told Li Yun about the things at the hotel. Everything was fine, and the lady of the saint fell asleep smoothly.

Li Yun nodded: "Then you should rest too, there will be no danger if there is a pure saint."

"Can't sleep, forget it, shall I get up and help you?"

"help me?"

"Be your secretary."

Xiao Mingzhu smiled slightly: "Your current unknown is very important. It is a bridge for cooperation between countries, but you often disappear and disappear, which makes people worry."

"I'm sorry to worry you about pigs."

"Which bead?! Hmph~, don't learn fairy buns!"

Xiao Mingzhu really wanted to chat with Li Yunduo again, but she also knew that it was not time to chat, so she could only change the subject by herself and said: "I will help you gather contact requests from various countries and some decisions made by Shangguanming and my uncle. If it's important enough to contact you, how about I think of a way to contact you?"

"Okay, there is a big beauty as a secretary, I can't ask for it."

Li Yun saw Honolulu Island.

"The secretary has something to do, nothing to do...Ah, why should I tell you this nasty joke, it must be broken by you, I, I will hang up first!"

Hanging up the phone, Xiao Mingzhu's face was red, why did she suddenly tell a color joke? Could it be that Li Yun and Xia Feiyao and their three daughters were messing around on the cruise ship for seven or eight days, which disturbed the heart?

As the saying goes... the young girl's spring heart is sprout

"Li Yun, I blame you!"

Xiao Mingzhu was biting her thin lip. She was also a young girl. After confirming that she liked Li Yun, she received the messenger information from the four people on the cruise ship, which inevitably made some random behaviors.

"If this incident ends quickly, you can try five people, no, six people play foolishly together."

Li Yun was a little itchy, thinking of Xiao Mingzhu, Liu Xianxian, Xia Feiyao and three daughters together, all sunbathing on the private beach together, five gorgeous and beautiful women in various swimsuits playing in the blue water, together Playing beach volleyball, the picture is really...

Fascinating.

Chapter 2483: Qingsheng, I love you

"Damn, what am I thinking about."

Li Yun patted his face, Xiao Mingzhu didn't have a 100% affection with him, and Liu Xianxian didn't reach the level of messing around with him. At least several dates were needed.

"The volcano of Honolulu...Where is the mysterious stele?"

Soon, Li Yun fell to the crater of Honolulu Island, standing on the edge of the volcano and looking down.

Honolulu Island is half a flat plain and half a hill with frequent volcanoes. However, there are not many active volcanoes. There are only three or four volcanoes that have erupted in the past two decades.

Li Yun jumped down, fell directly into the volcano, and searched for the limestone that emits slightly underground heat.

The volcano on Howeyi Island is undoubtedly much weaker than the last time in the Adushan volcano. At least this volcanic eruption will not cause much impact. It is estimated that the lava will solidify without getting out of the crater.

"The mysterious stone stele should have been buried deep in the ground and then erupted by volcanic geological activities. Otherwise, Wan Faxian would not be able to easily find it-unless he was lying about it all."

After searching here, Li Yun did not find the so-called stele, and flew up again, heading for the next crater.

He swears that if Wan Faxian dares to fool him, Li Yun will definitely turn around and smash the soul refining tower directly!

"Li Yun!"

In the distance, there was a faint sound of heaven, which made Li Yun who was flying in midair stunned.

"Li Yun, where are you?"

"Qing Sheng?!"

An excitement surged in Li Yun's heart, his figure flashed, and he flew in the direction of the heavenly sound.

A pure white and holy fairy figure flew out of the fog and came into Li Yun's eyes, making him seem to have stopped his heart.

"Li Yun."

Fairy's white skirt was dancing lightly in the air, his eyes were as clear as water, and there was a hint of tenderness, watching him, slowly flying towards him, and... Fairy took the initiative to open his hands.

"Qing Sheng!"

Li Yun couldn't hold back his excitement, and he almost teleported over, and forcefully hugged the beautiful fairy's body into his arms, and hugged her tightly.

At this moment, Li Yun's heart only had the sage of Sanctuary, who was cold as a fairy in his arms.

The confidantes around him are all very good girls. Fang Xue is as beautiful as a first love. She will be bitter, jealous, angry, and will accompany him through the best student years.

Gong Qingyu is like a proud rose, beautiful and thorny; Liu Xianxian is pure and kind, and her star halo makes her special; Zhao Tianfeng is like a Valkyrie on the battlefield, cold and strong; Hu Xiaomeng is a cute cunning little fox; the little princess of Yongning is Jinwu Cangjiao, and whenever Li Yun comes home, she will be obediently waiting at home like a daughter-in-law.

As for the three women who have just spent a few days with him on the sea cruise, they also have their own charms.

But even so, Fan Qing Sheng is still the most special existence around Li Yun.

She is powerful and born out of ordinary. She is the saint of the Hidden Sacred Valley with a noble status.

It is not that Qingsheng is a perfect existence, she also has many shortcomings, for example, her personality is a little weak, she is not good at speech, and she does not like to argue with others.

However, in Li Yun's mind, the Sanctuary of Vatican is still as beautiful as a bright moon.

Her heart is exquisite, pure and flawless, so that Li Yun can completely trust her, love her, and talk to her without scruple in any words-except for systematic matters.

"Qingsheng, I love you!"

Chapter 2484: Carrying wife

Li Yun kissed Fan Qingsheng. He was actually a little regretful. When the two embraced at sea last night, he should kiss her unscrupulously. It doesn't matter if anyone knows his relationship with Qingsheng.

Because of Qingsheng's Hong Feng, Li Yun was trapped in a siege called Wenrouxiang, and he wished not to be separated for a moment.

"Li and Li Yun, not when they kissed."

Sage Fanqing panted slightly and pushed him away with a plain white jade hand, his cold and peerless face was stained with a touching red glow because of the warm intimacy between the two just now.

Li Yun smiled and hugged her tightly. The saint was so angry that she couldn't even speak. It should be "this is not the time to kiss."

"Qing Sheng." He held her tightly and fully experienced the gentle and tender body of the saint. After a moment of tenderness, Li Yun asked her softly: "Why don't you sleep? It's better to say that I will come and explore alone. Yet?"

Fan Qingsheng shook his head and said softly: "Can't sleep, miss you."

Li Yun's heart was almost exploded by this love sentence.

Sage Fanqing is such a fairy with pure character. What does she say, she doesn't care about blushing and shyness. Ordinary girls may still tweak, but Sage Fanqing will say it directly if he thinks of him in his heart.

How can Li Yun not love such a wonderful person? He couldn't wait to hurt Fan Qing Sheng to his bones and not let this cold and unparalleled Nine Heavens Fairy be aggrieved at all.

"Miss me? Do you miss me, or do you miss what I am doing?" Li Yun asked, his forehead against the smooth and delicate forehead of Lord Saintess, their eyes were almost stuck together, their breath blended and gentle. The emotions are passed on to each other.

"Both." Fan Qingsheng looked at his eyes and replied. The noble little mouth that he couldn't bear to open in ordinary days exhales a soft breath. Li Yun couldn't bear it, and kissed her red and moist little mouth. Son.

"My sage is awesome!"

Li Yun hugged her dozingly, presumably Qing Sheng could not sleep on her left or right. She was worried about the situation on the island and that her boyfriend was in danger. In addition, the two had not seen each other for a long time, so after receiving the text message, she flew directly. I came to the volcano of Honolulu Island and searched for the lover's figure with a heavenly voice.

So, awesome.

Such a sage of Brahma, who can not love her?

"Qingsheng, you haven't slept? Come on, my husband will carry you!"

Li Yun's cheeky husband, who claimed to be a saint, squatted down and carried Qing Sheng on his back, letting her hug her wide back and let her lean on.

"No, I can fly."

"It's okay, my husband should love his wife, come up quickly and hold him tight!"

After being pushed halfway by the Holy Fanqing, Li Yun successfully carried his wife on his back, let her holy body lie on his back, and flew near the volcano with her on his back.

"Li Yun, I..."

Fan Qingsheng softened on Li Yun, his cheeks pressed against his neck, and his cold heart was beating at an unprecedented speed.

This feeling made her addicted.

"It's okay, just don't move, my husband is justified."

Li Yun couldn't see the tenderness on her beautiful face, thinking Qing Sheng was worried about him, so he comforted.

In fact, after establishing a relationship with Fan Qing Sheng, Li Yun realized that the Lord Saint's heart needs others to get close. On the outside, Qing Sheng is a nine-day fairy who is cold and unwilling to speak more easily.

But the more he understands her, the more Li Yun knows that Qing Sheng needs to be pampered more than anyone else.

Pet her like a little girl who just fell in love, trust her, and get close to her heart, only in this way can you truly own her.

"Um."

A beautiful voice rang in Li Yun's ears, and then the fairy's soft shuangfeng was printed on his cheeks.

"Li Yun, I love you too."

Chapter 2485: Cyan Stele

When the holy and cold fairy took the initiative to kiss his face, Li Yun's bones were crumbly.

Whether these facial features lick the dog or not is purely because the beauty around him is too elegant, so that Li Yun will be so excited when she gets her loving kiss.

"Qing Sheng, hold tight, we accelerate!"

"Yeah~."

Li Yun was very satisfied when he noticed that the Lord Saint on his back took the initiative to hug him, speeding up through the thick fog, carrying Qingsheng on his back, looking for goods in the volcanic crater of Honolulu.

"Li Yun." Fan Qingsheng suddenly pointed his finger somewhere: "There, I feel something."

"...Okay, let's go and take a look!"

Li Yun hesitated for a while before he agreed. With the blessing of the God-level Human Emperor Heart Sutra, his current divine aspirations have become able to cover a radius of one kilometer, but Fan Qing Sheng is a naturally holy body, isn't she right? Clean things have a natural sense.

Sure enough, it turns out that the body of holiness is stronger in sensing.

In a lake at the foot of a volcano, Li Yun found a large raised cyan stone, which was particularly eye-catching on the flat surface of the lake.

"This is the stele, right."

Li Yun carried Van Qing Sheng on the blue stone tablet. As soon as the latter touched the ground, he raised his hand to draw out her bell and shook it gently.

"jingle."

The bell jingle, shaking the water ripples, and then a huge roar, a huge catfish spirit sprang up from the lake, set off a huge wave, and rushed directly at the two people on the stone tablet.

Li Yun also took out the Leap Fire God Sword and pierced the catfish essence with a huge mouth open against this head with a sharp dense tooth.

This catfish essence is 17 or 8 meters long. After seeing the fiery red sword in Li Yun's hand, a trace of fear flashed in the eyes of the catfish, and the blue-black body actually twisted abruptly in the hazy mist.

laugh!

The sharp sword aura swept across its smooth body, and Li Yun was surprised that this monster had become so powerful!

After evading a blow, the catfish spirit fell to the surface of the water and threw a huge wave. With a twist of his slippery body, he wanted to dive under the lake and wait for an opportunity to move.

"Certainly."

Sage Fanqing shook the voiceless soul bell in his hand again and slapped his mouth lightly. The catfish fine figure who was about to escape immediately froze, and the catfish's eyes showed a confused look.

Li Yun took this opportunity and flashed over with his sword. A sword pierced the catfish essence's eyes. The sword qi skyrocketed, and the catfish essence's hard forehead was smashed, blood and brain marrow flowed to the ground.

"This catfish essence is very strong...Huh?" Li Yun wanted to return to the stone tablet, but after sweeping away his mind, he found something in the catfish essence's forehead that exudes spiritual fluctuations.

It's a demon pill!

Li Yun waved his sword qi, and quickly took the demon pill from the forehead of the catfish spirit, and checked it in the palm of his hand.

This demon pill is much larger than the demon pill he obtained from Zhenweihu last time in Taihuang Mountain. It is full of fist size and exudes a thick and * smell. A trace of the demon can be vaguely condensed into substance. Constantly flowing out of the demon pill, the stimulation made people chill.

—Youkai's monsters are inherently mutually exclusive with humans.

"Li Yun, demon pill?" Sage Fan Qing also fell down, looking at the * demon pill in Li Yun's hand, with a thoughtful look, and said: "The creatures in the lake received the stone tablet at close range. Spiritual energy, so it gains immense power."

Li Yun was a little curious: "Qingsheng, what level of monster is this?"

Chapter 2486: monster

Sage Fanqing glanced at him, and Li Yun vaguely saw a look of astonishment on the fairy's face after hearing a silly question.

Li Yun: "?" Did he say something wrong?

"The monsters are weak and difficult to raise. I don't know how the monsters divide their realms." Sage Fanqing said slowly, with a smile in his words. Li Yun was very sure, she just said this with a smile!

It's just that Qing Sheng never laughs, and rarely has other expressions, so he calmly said ridiculous words.

"Ok."

Li Yun patted his head, "I was stupid. Monsters were rare before, and it is reasonable to have no level."

Then, Li Yun said enthusiastically: "Clear Saint, why don't we classify the monsters? The lowest level is called monsters, which means that they have just mutated into monsters, which is equivalent to a monk in the Qi training realm; the second is called monsters. Preliminarily possessing some natal supernatural powers, possessing a certain degree of supernatural wisdom, out of the category of beasts.

The third is the Demon Pill Realm, just like the catfish spirit in front of you. Hey, what do you think? "

Sage Fanqing shook his head again, pointing to the * demon pill in Li Yun's hand and said: "This is a fake pill. I have seen in an ancient book that the real demon pill can escape from the body, and it can also transform the monster into a human form. It turns into a magic weapon of life, very powerful."

"Fake pill? That's right, the evil spirit in this demon pill is messy and violent, and has no inner meaning."

Seeing that Qing Sheng had no interest in the demon pill, Li Yun casually took it into the space ring and smiled at her: "That is still three levels. The first class is an irrational monster. No matter how strong the monster is, it can only be attributed to this. one type.

The second class is a formal monster, possessing a certain mentality and knowing how to seek advantages and avoid disadvantages.

The third class is to transform into a human form, a real monster! "

It's really not easy to use strength to classify monsters. Some monsters are huge in size. For example, the giant whale that Li Yun still stays outside of Haowei Island. It doesn't have much sage, but can crush those monsters with its huge body. A sensible monster—for example, a fox can be slapped flat with a single tail.

"Monster..." Saint Fanqing muttered to himself, as if thinking of some books he had read, but did not continue the topic, took the initiative to take Li Yun's hand, and flew to the blue stone stele with him.

This stone monument was only one meter high above the lake, about the size of a millstone, like a shark fin exposed on the surface of the sea. Before the shark emerged, no one knew how big the shark was under the surface of the sea.

The same goes for this cyan stele.

Li Yun mobilized the mana in his body and slapped it fiercely against the lake. A huge water wave was set off, and the rumbling noise echoed in the mountains and forests on the island, shocking countless mutated or mutated birds, birds and beasts.

The lake water was photographed at a distance of more than ten meters, and a dent in the upper part of the word "Peng" was vaguely revealed. There was no paint mark of any color on it. I don't know if it was originally there, or it was slowly worn away by thousands of years of time. NS.

"Uh."

Before Li Yun had time to take a closer look, the lake water poured back, and once again submerged the stone tablet under the water.

"It's difficult now." Li Yun spread out his hands and said helplessly to Fan Qingsheng: "My congenital fetus can make me enter the surface of the water unimpeded, but I can't bring Qingsheng in with you."

And...to bring the noble saint into the bottom of the lake and turn around the stele, is it fair to say?

If Master Saint's maid knew about it, Li Yun would have to be waited upon by her with blank eyes.

"You don't know how to spell?"

Sage Fanqing looked at him with some doubts.

Chapter 2487: Tao Yun

Li Yun gave her a strange feeling and impression.

At the beginning, he was still a very weak, but has made great achievements in martial arts, and the IQ is also very high. She feels relaxed and happy to get along with him.

But later Li Yun became stronger and stronger, and took the initiative to give her a treasure that can generate spiritual energy, and also took her into an ancient fairy mansion.

Until now, Li Yun suddenly said that he possessed the physique of innate Taoism, succeeded in entering Taoism with martial arts, and possessed mana.

But he didn't seem to have time to learn spell skills, just playing mana.

"have."

Li Yun didn't know Qing Sheng's inner thoughts, nodded and said: "I can control the spirit fire and burn an entire lake!"

".....Let me do it."

Sage Fanqing raised his plain jade hand and lightly pressed it against the surface of the lake.

The water of the lake seemed to be held down by an invisible wall of air, and the water surface in the distance rolled over without hesitation, but around the stone monument, the water surface was slowly pressing down.

On the invisible air wall, there was a gleam of thunder light, showing that the sage Fanqing cultivated the spell of thunder attribute. If this palm is not slowly pressed against the lake surface, but the lake surface is slapped hard, I am afraid The entire lake will be overturned!

In the end, the invisible air wall pressed down to the bottom of the lake 30 meters below, and settled, forcibly dividing the lake near the stone tablet.

Li Yun clapped his hands and said in admiration: "As expected of my sage, this trick is really powerful."

Sage Fanqing glanced at him, seeming to be enjoying the praise of his lover, his bright eyes narrowed slightly, and he said, "Don't be silly, go, go down with me and take a look."

Why did you suddenly speak in such a gentle tone? Could it be that Lord Saint is shy?

Li Yun laughed, and took the initiative to hold her small hand and dropped the stone tablet. The two of them hovered in the middle of the original lake bottom. With the lake water on all sides, they checked the stone tablet that suddenly emerged from the water.

The cyan stele was originally supposed to be buried deep in the ground, but it has only recently returned to the ground under the influence of some crustal movement.

Otherwise, there were many tourists here in the past, and this huge and mysterious stone monument has long been found under the lake!

"Is this a small seal, or a kind of inscription?"

Li Yun looked at the stone stele that was more than 30 meters away from the bottom of the lake. There was a huge hieroglyph carved on it. If he hadn't heard Wan Faxian say beforehand, Li Yun would really not recognize what the word was.

Xiaozhuan is the common script of the Qin Dynasty, while the inscriptions on gold do not refer to the Jin Dynasty, but during the Spring and Autumn Period and Warring States Period earlier than the Qin Dynasty. Those inscriptions carved on the bells, tripods and Yi vessels are called gold inscriptions.

But in the case of Li Yun's master-level archaeology, he has not seen this kind of text, and can only vaguely see that it is closely related to the Chinese characters of Huang Xuanguo and belongs to the same line.

"Qingsheng, do you recognize this kind of text?"

There are records of the pre-Qin era in the hidden sacred valley, and they also have records of the writings at that time, and maybe even the writings of the outside world were created by them.

Li Yun turned to look at Fan Qingsheng, only to find that she was looking straight at the magnificent word "Peng" with her eyes straight, as if she wanted to see something, floating in the air and looking at it.

"Qing, holy?"

Li Yun didn't dare to disturb her. After waiting patiently for a long time, Sage Fan Qing slowly closed his eyes.

"This word... has a rhyme."

Her voice trembled slightly, and she was obviously shocked by the artistic conception carried by the word "Peng", and she became uneasy.

"Dao Yun?!"

Chapter 2488: Sage Dojo

Li Yun looked at an unknown text again.

It was engraved on a huge stone tablet. Although the dents were already covered with dust and moss, it looked filthy, and the entire boulder was also the traces of weather-beaten and corroded by endless time.

But the stone tablet still stands proudly on the ground, with clear handwriting, and every stroke of it seems to be portrayed by a sword immortal, with the Supreme Immortal Sword.

After the writing fell, the stele gave off a dazzling brilliance, and changed from a piece of common stone to an existence comparable to an immortal treasure. Yongzhen is on this island.

Li Yun's heart jumped, thinking of a possibility, wouldn't he?

"Here, there are traces of seniors."

Sage Fanqing raised his head and looked at the top of the stone monument, his eyes seemed to have gone through the years and saw the figures of the cultivators who had stayed on this island.

Ten thousand years ago, this place must have been a prosperous place, with many powerful seniors, who opened a market here, traded immortal materials, and exchanged their cultivation experience.

But now, everything is gone, and the fairy trails are no longer there, only a stone monument is left to witness the beginning.

"It is indeed an ancient fairy."

Looking at this cyan stone stele full of traces of time, Li Yun also expressed emotion. He was sure that the ancient immortals he said and the "immortals" known by Van Qing Sheng were two different people.

"Well, it can leave traces of Taoist rhyme that has gone through tens of thousands of years. The person who painted the stele must be a legendary figure who is about to become an immortal."

Sage Fanqing nodded slightly, and reached out to touch the stone tablet with a small hand, wanting to feel the rhyme of the Taoist left by his predecessors at close range.

"do not!"

Li Yun hurriedly stopped her and nodded her forehead angrily. Saint Fan Qing didn't know why, and blinked a pair of innocent big eyes to look at him.

The innocent expression of the cold fairy is really...cute.

Li Yun said amusedly: "The origin of the stone tablet is unknown, so be careful to be pulled into the illusion. Moreover, the origin of the stone tablet is more powerful than you might think!"

"...You are right."

Sage Fanqing nodded, but still stretched out his little hand, touched the stone monument, and said: "But, the people of the six gates are fine, I am not afraid, let alone you."

Li Yun's eyelids jumped down, how do you feel that Master Saint is still stubborn?

Fortunately, it was okay. Fanqing's holy Bai Sujie's little hand pressed against the cyan stone stele and touched the stone stele that had been eroded by the years, and she didn't see any strange expression.

"Let me take a look too." Li Yun stretched out his hand, juxtaposed with the little hand of Fanqing Sage Yubai, and pressed them on the cyan stone stele together.

boom!

In an instant, the world turned around, and Li Yun once again came to an inexplicable place.

"Ah!" Sage Fanqing shrank his pupils and quickly withdrew his hands. He was about to pull Li Yun away, only to find that he had opened his eyes.

"Li Yun, what's the matter with you?" Fan Qingsheng's eyes were full of worry.

"...The gods pay homage, ten thousand immortals are coming!"

Li Yun looked at her steadily, and after a long time, he spit out eight words from his mouth.

"Gods, ten thousand immortals are coming?"

Sage Fanqing frowned slightly, touched Li Yun's cheek with his hand in doubt, and divine mind lightly probed his whole body to make sure that he was not possessed by something unclean, and then he was relieved and said: "Who His name? Wanfaxian?"

"..."

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry. After grabbing her little hand, he sighed and said, "Wan Faxian is a fart... Uh, Qingsheng, don't blame me for swearing."

Fan Qingsheng shook her head. She didn't mind the foul language. It was the same to her, as long as Li Yun said it.

"Here..." Li Yun took a deep breath: "It's the dojo of the saint!!!"

Chapter 2489: Difficult choice (part 1)

It is a pity that even if it is suspected to be the saint's dojo, this place has become ruins, occupied by mortals, steel ships are here to show off, and black-skinned and blond exotic people enjoy themselves here.

In the illusion, there are thousands of rays of light shrouded in the illusion, the immortals and monsters visit, the magnificent palace of the immortal island is now the property of foreign barbarians, the contrast between ancient and modern, absurd jokes, I am afraid that even if the saint is resurrected, he will cry after seeing this scene.

"What about the saint?"

Li Yun laughed and took the initiative to take Qing Sheng's little hand and flew on the blue stone tablet, and said to her: "Let the lake fall."

"Um."

Sage Fanqing nodded, flipped his bare hand, the air wall collapsed, and the lake water poured back again, slapped on the stone tablet with a loud noise, and submerged the stone tablet in the lake again.

Because of the isolation of the lake just now, a large amount of lake water gushed out, and now the stone stele is nearly four to five meters above the lake.

Li Yun looked at the stone monument submerged in the lake for a long time before shook his head and said: "I can't think of any way to stop this thing from releasing the mist. It... is too old."

There are almost no people in this world remembering it, except that Li Yun obtained records of ancient gods from the system, and people in this world have forgotten everything about the ancients.

"Ding, trigger a special life choice event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Relying on the congenital Taoist fetus, forcibly escape into the inner space of the mysterious stone monument, destroy everything, reward justice value +1, supreme treasure *1, and obtain the title: God Killer. Note: Unpredictable consequences are triggered. For example, the host will always trigger the selection event of becoming a fairy, and the host can no longer find certain things, and the special gift bag in the inventory directly becomes invalid.

Option 2: Let the Saint Fanqing take out the special treasures of the Saintess of the Hidden Sacred Valley, and sense the mysterious stone tablets, the gate of life and death and other ancient relics, reward evil value +1, colorful gift bags*3, can make the mist disperse, on the island People are saved, but it will cause a lot of spiritual energy to overflow, and some drastic changes in the world will also cause unpredictable consequences.

Option 3: Ignore, let the stone tablet continue to be buried deep underground, reward justice value +1, the destiny of Van Qing sacred jade and Wan Qing concubine are going to be unknown. "

Life special choice event! !

Li Yun was shocked, but there was no surprise.

The system gave him many memories of ancient gods, including the myths and legends of the East and the West, the Sakura Country, Asan and other regions. It also gave him a compact body that ignores the formation method: the congenital Dao womb, and now he has encountered these ancient secrets. , Then Li Yun can only break the game by relying on the system!

It's just that the justice value and evil value given out of the three options, as well as some weird hints, made him very entangled.

The three options are +1 for justice, or +1 for evil.

This also means that no matter what Li Yun chooses, there is no big right or wrong.

Choosing to destroy the stone stele by the congenital fetus and gain a little justice may make the unknown plan of the ancient immortal come to nothing and bury everything. From then on, he does not need to pay attention to these ancient mysteries, but it will also make him lose the possibility of becoming an immortal. ?

"Fairy? Only by leaving a stone tablet can I have the hope of becoming a fairy?"

Looking at the first option, Li Yun muttered to himself, thinking about the pros and cons.

People are not for themselves, and the earth will die.

To be honest, after seeing this prompt from the system, Li Yun did not want to destroy the stone stele. If he kept it, he also kept the hope of becoming an immortal—the stone stele and the gate of life and death contained the secrets left by the ancient gods.

Chapter 2490: Difficult choice (part 2)

In other words, the cheating of the system must allow him to contact these ancient secrets, solve some puzzles, and crack some mysteries, in order to trigger the option of becoming an immortal.

Otherwise, Li Yun could only go to university to start a company, become an ordinary CEO of a company on the planet, marry Bai Fumei, and embark on the pinnacle of life.

Without access to the secrets of the gods, naturally he cannot become an immortal.

Still the same sentence, people are not for themselves, and the sky thunders.

Li Yun was very tempted to become an immortal immortal, and to be at ease ever since.

By becoming an immortal, he can live forever with his confidantes around him, truly enjoy the happiness, can see the world after thousands of years, and even see human beings stepping out of the earth and entering the space age.

May I ask, how can such temptation not make people excited?

To live forever, become immortal, and rise to heaven has been one of the dreams pursued by mankind since ancient times.

"Qingsheng, what do you think I should choose?"

Li Yun looked at the only person around him who could give him advice with complicated, tangled, and troubled eyes. Fan Qingsheng responded to him with clear and pure eyes, and asked softly:

"What?"

"Oh, I think about how to tell you."

Li Yun sighed infrequently, stretched out his hand and stroked the smooth and beautiful cheeks of the lady, thinking in his heart.

Judging from the second option given by the system, the saint of the Hidden Sacred Valley masters a certain special treasure and can interact with the mysterious stone monument and the gate of life and death.

There is no doubt that the saints of the Hidden Sacred Valley and the Six Doors are not pure saints. They are in charge of something and have a certain mission and responsibility, so their status is so high.

"But from the fact that Wanfaxian didn't know that the Saint Wanqing concubine could sense the gate of life and death, and did not order her to come to Weiyi Island, it is estimated that the secret of the saint has also been lost in the two schools and has become a pure inheritance. Even Qing Sheng doesn't know that he can bring changes to the stele!"

Li Yun thought, looking at Fan Qingsheng, who really looked confused—well, to be precise, Lord Saint was still indifferent and could not see any expression.

"Since the stele cannot be destroyed, shall we leave?" Fan Qingsheng asked.

When she touched the stone tablet just now, she had already noticed that the cyan stone tablet was extremely strong, and it was difficult to destroy it.

"Qing Sheng."

Li Yun smiled slightly and said: "Now there is a very difficult choice. Do we save the three million people on the island? Or choose to make the world change. For example, the whole world can be filled with spiritual energy, and people all over the world can cultivate. Are all mutated, and mankind will enter a new era?"

Sage Fanqing frowned, why is there such a problem? Does Li Yun know the secret of the stele?

"In addition, we have another option, which is to destroy the stele and let all mysteries sink into the dust of history, so that we can never see the sun again, but it will cause us... unable to break through a stronger realm!"

Li Yun actually didn't want to say this.

Destroying the stele means that there is no chance to become an immortal.

However, if the Sage Fanqing chooses this, then Li Yun will also consider whether to destroy the stone stele, anyway, it is enough for the return to the virtual realm to live for hundreds of thousands of years.

"I have no idea."

"Uh? Uh?!"

Li Yun was dumbfounded.

He thought that Qing Sheng would also be entangled in doubts, thinking for a long time before making a decision. He didn't expect that this holy, cold, beautiful and powerful saint would directly say that he didn't know? !
