

Godly Choice 2601

Chapter 2601: Tang Anxi's first pot of gold

However, in the process of digging through Tang Anxi to find the first pot of gold, Li Yun could completely see how she was different from ordinary people.

Ordinary people, even if they accidentally gain abilities on Penglai Island like Tang Anxi, it is difficult for them to get 30 million dollars in return like her.

1. Ordinary people do not want to take risks, nor dare to take risks. Although they can avoid a lot of dangers, they will miss unique opportunities. Many accomplished businessmen have a little more adventurous spirit than ordinary people. They dare to work hard and catch them. opportunity.

Second, ordinary people will fall into ecstasy and excitement when they encounter unexpected things, such as when they encounter a spiritual fruit. They cannot be the same as Tang Anxi. When their minds move, they secretly fall behind and let others. The person with the supernatural powers will **** it, and she will take the last shot!

Third, many people do not know how to choose after grasping the advantages, leading to a defeat in the end.

Tang Anxi must have mastered the initiative at the time, but she only snatched three spirit fruits, leaving more than half to be snatched by the rest, in order to divide them.

Otherwise, if Tang Anxi snatched most of the spirit fruit, her teammates would definitely catch up with her desperately.

Ten million dollars. Gold is a spiritual fruit, who is not jealous?

In addition, Tang Anxi did not take Lingguo in the end, and decisively temporarily withdrew from Penglai Island to prevent people from being revenge. It was also a very sensible performance, which made Li Yun a little ashamed.

"Anxi...you are really, amazing!"

Li Yun sighed, stretched out his hand and rubbed her head.

"Uh, it's also average, right? Fighting with Yun you and those monsters, I, I'm still far away!"

This beautiful woman with a melancholy and gloomy temperament was so blushing with Li Yun's actions, but the corners of her mouth were raised, even more excited than she had sold Lingguo and her pockets became wealthy.

"Cloud~" Tang Anxi mustered up the courage again: "Do you want money? I still have a billion dollars in my bank card. If I want, I will transfer it to you immediately!"

Li Yun shook his head dumbly, "Why do I want your money? Don't you know that I started a company?"

Tang Anxi blushed and nodded, she just wanted to show her intentions.

"But you only have one billion? What about the remaining money?"

"...Acquired a small entertainment company."

Tang Anxi spit out her tongue, bowed her head and said, "Since I have decided to develop in the entertainment industry, instead of waiting to sign someone else's company in the future to compete for resources in the entertainment industry, I might as well acquire a company by myself and don't require development. , As long as you can provide me with resources!"

Li Yun was taken aback for a moment, but she could see clearly, the direction she chose did not waver, and there was no such thing as wanting to stand up because of her ability to gain.

"You don't want to go to Penglai Island?" Li Yun asked with a smile.

"Ah? No, no." Tang Anxi quickly understood what he meant. "I was just thinking that being a big star or company president is better than going to Penglai Island... I'm not afraid of Penglai Island, Li Yun, you give me After taking those pills, my physical fitness became very good, and it was because of this that I won..."

"Alright, alright, I just asked casually."

Tang Anxi was too inferior in front of him. Li Yun often just asked one question, and she answered a thousand sentences, wishing to show her heart out to Li Yun.

"Ladies and gentlemen, flight K144 to Xing'an City..."

The airport announcement sounded in the VIP room. Li Yun glanced at the message on the big screen on the wall, then turned to Tang Anxi and smiled: "Would you like to go on an expedition with me?"

".....what!?"

Chapter 2602: Half a million a ticket

Tang Anxi fell into a huge surprise, a pair of ecstatic peach eyes filled with water drops looking at him.

Li Yun laughed, "Of course I'm not sure, if you don't have a ticket, you can't follow it."

"there must be!"

Tang Anxi's tone was very firm, and she stood up and shouted to everyone in the VIP room: "Who will transfer me a first-class ticket? I'm willing to pay one hundred thousand yuan for it!"

Li Yun was shocked. This guy did things really... cleanly, and he could use every conceivable method to achieve his goal without hesitation!

Everyone was shocked by Tang Anxi's words, and they all looked at her at once, not knowing what to do.

"Two hundred thousand!"

Tang Anxi stretched out two fingers, her beautiful face was full of determined expressions, saying every word: "I am willing to pay 200,000 yuan to buy a first-class ticket to Xing'an City. Who wants to transfer it to me? "

Li Yun was a little wondering why she knew her destination. After a little thought, she realized that Tang Anxi had seen it from his act of reading the flight information on the screen just now.

"Three hundred thousand!"

"Four hundred thousand!"

When everyone was still at a loss, the price that Tang Anxi exploded soared, and in a blink of an eye it came to a terrifying price of 500,000 yuan. It can be said that in addition to the journey to Penglai Island, this price can already be used. Fly all over the world, but also enjoy the top-notch service.

"Uh, I said beautiful women." A young man hesitated, raised his hand and said, "It seems that there is a ticket for first class. You can buy it yourself."

Tang Anxi turned to look at him, her eyes slightly cold: "I don't need it, I just need a 100% sure ticket, do you have it? Go directly with me to refund the ticket and transfer it to me. I will pay 50%. Ten thousand to buy!"

Everyone finally understood what this beauty might be doing.

She must buy a first-class ticket to Xing'an City. In order to achieve this goal, she didn't want to go and ask if there was a ticket. Instead, she directly asked everyone in the VIP room and asked them to refund the ticket. Tang Anxi bought it immediately. You can get a ticket 100%!

In order to achieve the goal, do not scrutinize the means, this is the person who is talking about.

Of course, it can also be said to be self-willed.

".....Row."

The young man hesitated, pondered and confirmed that there was no scam before he agreed.

After all, 500,000 tickets can earn a hundred times the profit after reselling them. Who wouldn't be tempted?

Tang Anxi glanced at Li Yun apologetically, "Yun, I'll go buy a ticket first, you, wait for me for a few minutes, okay?"

"No need." Li Yun stood up, Tang Anxi was frightened suddenly, thinking that he was going to leave, he was about to cry.

"I'll go shopping with you."

"what?"

Tang Anxi smiled again and nodded vigorously.

She is such a great beauty, but she loves a man so humbly, making young people cry with envy. Who doesn't want a great beauty to love herself crazy, love to death?

But after the young man secretly compared the looks and figures of himself and Li Yun, he suddenly lost his envious mood-too much difference. The man loved by the big beautiful woman killed him in every aspect.

Moreover, they still have money, and don't put hundreds of thousands in their eyes. From the fact that he spent 500,000 on a plane ticket for his girlfriend, it can be seen that these awkward couples are the children of rich people.

The three came to the ticket office. After the young man refunded the ticket, Tang Anxi bought it immediately, and then transferred him 500,000 yuan from the bank card.

Chapter 2603: sorry

The young man looked at the account information in the mobile banking, his head suddenly became a little dizzy. His family is not short of money, but 500,000 is also a windfall for him. Is it so simple to obtain?

"Beauty." The young man asked again at the ticket office, turning his head and said to Tang Anxi: "In fact, there are still tickets, or I only want you to 10,000 yuan?"

"Need not!"

Tang Anxi had already held Li Yun's arm with a happy face, as tired of him as a little woman, "For me, it is worth buying a certain opportunity for 500,000 yuan! Just like that, Yun, Are we going to board the plane?"

The young man was hit by dog food again.

Li Yun hesitated for a moment, and said, "An Xi, do you think it is necessary to spend half a million... in exchange for a chance to walk with me?"

"...Huh?" Tang Anxi was stunned for a moment, and the happy expression on her face was frozen.

"Don't get me wrong, I just want to ask, because your approach is too extreme, I am more worried that you will become stubborn in the future." Li Yun looked at her: "Moreover, I just said casually at that time, if you really want to If you go on an adventure with me and you don't have a ticket, I can actually resign to the next shift."

Tang Anxi's approach is undoubtedly too paranoid. Li Yun is worried that her already distorted love will become jealous and crazy in the future because of the many confidantes around him, thus doing irrational things. .

"I....."

"Forget it, you don't have to answer, you know it in your heart, let's get on the machine."

Li Yun did not force her to deny what a person is doing now because of possible future events.

Tang Anxi did nothing wrong, she just... loved him too much.

Li Yun took her on the plane, and after sitting down in the first class, Tang Anxi used some other methods to move to the side of Li Yun, sat obediently, and kept looking at her.

"..."

"..."

"sorry!"

Tang Anxi blushed and lowered her head. She knew that Li Yun was embarrassed by her, which caused the atmosphere to become a little strange.

But she really couldn't help it. These days, she wanted to see Li Yun very much, and now she took the initiative to go on an expedition with him, making Tang Anxi still feel that she was dreaming.

"...Forget it." Li Yun sighed, feeling that it is necessary to give this poor girl more care in the future, lest she has been in a state of lack of love, and she is inferior and sensitive, leading to a psychological state of extreme desire for love.

"I'm sorry." Tang Anxi apologized weakly, as soft as a white rabbit.

Li Yun took a deep breath, "Tang Anxi, you have to change in the future!"

"what?"

"The first thing to change is your bad habit of apologizing all the time!"

"I'm sorry...well, yes!"

"Secondly, don't feel inferior, stand up and be a man!"

"Yes!"

Tang Anxi subconsciously raised her head and chest. This action caused her well-developed young girl's curves to appear in front of Li Yun. I have to say that Tang Anxi was able to become famous in KTV before, and her appearance and body are all the same. Waiting for a while, can greatly arouse the man's terrible flames.

"Third, to..."

Suddenly, Li Yun didn't know what to say. Even if Tang Anxi did what he said, it was just a puppet ordered by him, and it didn't come from her heart at all.

"Tang Anxi, tell it for yourself, is what I just said is right, what do you think about this?"

Li Yun changed his approach and let Tang Anxi change it himself.

Chapter 2604: Crazy in love

Li Yun knew that Tang Anxi was not a fool. She was able to review and be admitted to the Zhonghai Drama Academy in just a few months after getting the pill to improve her memory, which is enough to prove that her IQ is very high.

Being able to break into the name of Princess Anxi in ktv, but not being taken advantage of by men, also shows that her emotional intelligence is very high.

"Yun~~~" Tang Anxi's slender waist softened, her voice stretched long, and her eyes looked at him pitifully.

"Be serious, call me Li Yun!"

"Yes~"

Tang Anxi's tone became a little more playful. After taking a look at the surroundings, the plane had already taken off, and after everyone was reading their mobile phones and reading newspapers, she couldn't help getting up and rushing into Li Yun's embrace.

"Yun, Li Yun, I love you~~ I love you so much~"

Tang Anxi has become a clingy little white rabbit. If it weren't for kissing or doing other things in the first class, it would be inappropriate. She would have been like the last time she was in the Longyang County Hotel box, let Li Yun's hand... ...

"All right."

Li Yun patted her thin back to comfort her.

After enjoying for several minutes, Tang Anxi said quietly: "Yun, I actually know what you want to say, and I know that I may be too annoying now, and my personality has gone to extremes, but I..."

Tang Anxi suddenly hugged him tightly, raised her head and looked at his eyes seriously: "Li Yun, believe me, I am not jealous, nor will I become crazy. I know that I am from a humble background, and I can't talk to the women around you. In comparison, I am very envious of them, but I promise that I will never be jealous. The person Yun loves is also the person I love. Everything about me is Yun's! I am willing to do everything for you, only Please take a look at me..."

"You are too exaggerated." Li Yun said lightly.

"Yes, I know it's an exaggeration, but this is my true heart!"

Tang Anxi boldly grabbed Li Yun's hand and let him feel his heartbeat. The stewardess standing in the aisle pretended to be invisible.

The first-class passengers are all distinguished guests. As long as they don't take off their clothes on the spot or kiss them so passionately that they affect others, the stewardess will not say anything.

"Li Yun!"

Feeling the movement, Tang Anxi became shy and bit her lip. Fortunately, her heart was leaning against the window, and no one outside could see it.

"Now can you continue talking?" Li Yun's expression was indifferent, but he was feeling what her heartbeat was like in his hands.

"say what?"

Tang Anxi only feels that her body is not her own. She has been shaking. After a while, she will come back to her senses, as if she swore: "Yun, I love you, no matter how many women around you, as long as you like it. , I can accept it, and I am willing to be and be a part of it, without any jealousy or doing anything to hurt them, I am not a lunatic, I am not, I am not, I... only love you!"

After confessing with the fiercest words in her heart, she finally lost strength and softened down.

Out of the corner of the eye, the stewardess who has been looking at the handsome and beautiful couple has a suspicious expression on her face. Is this woman already that?

But this is too fast, right?

It hasn't been enough for a minute, even after taking that kind of medicine, it can't be so fast, not to mention that the two of them didn't remove their clothes at all.

"gentlemen."

The stewardess politely stepped forward and asked, "Do you need a drink?"

This is also a reminder in disguise.

Chapter 2605: Ability

Li Yun nodded: "Give me a glass, forget it, two glasses of juice, thank you."

"OK, just a second."

The stewardess replied respectfully, just about to leave, but her eyes saw Tang Anxi buried in Li Yun's arms. A dazzling crimson glow appeared on her crystal ears. This shameful blush is not just a confession of love and Will it appear after the end?

The stewardess blushed and left with her head down, leaving a very quiet sentence: "Please, please be careful."

The other passengers couldn't see it, but she saw it.

After waiting for a while with a cheeky, Li Yun put Tang Anxi back on her seat. On the plane on Penglai Island, 300 people misunderstood what he and Princess Alice were in the bathroom. As a result, he is still real. In the crowd, Jiang Tang Anxi felt her heartbeat.

Li Yun was actually wronged. He wanted to punish Tang Anxi, but he didn't expect that just a casual squeeze would make Tang Anxi, who loves him deeply in his bones, embarrassed.

"Cloud~"

Tang Anxi's pretty face was still blushing, and she put her small hand on the armrest and looked at him unblinkingly: "We... after getting off the plane, go and find a hotel to stay, okay?"

Hotel, a man and a woman, what do you mean?

"Shut up!"

When Li Yun glared at her, Tang Anxi shrank in fright, but quickly came over, like a puppy that couldn't drive away.

female.

"An Xi." Li Yun pondered and said.

"what?"

Tang Anxi looked at him tenderly.

"I have moved to Zhonghai City now, in Villa 36 of Huangting Mountain."

"what!!!"

Tang Anxi couldn't believe it. Li Yun told her about this, didn't he mean...

"Ah what?" Li Yun knocked her head irritably, "If you want to see me in the future, you can come to my house. You don't need to do those things. When you go back, you will fire the people at the airport and the train station. Did you hear that? "

"Yes!"

Tang Anxi was full of excitement, but soon fell back.

Li Yun thought she was worried, and said, "Don't worry, as long as you behave normally and don't actively fight for anything, they are all very good people."

"Well, I know... I just," Tang Anxi bit her lip and said, "I want to enter Li Yun's home as a student of Drama Academy and the president of Gong Entertainment Company and meet them."

"You decide for yourself."

Li Yun knew what she meant. Tang Anxi didn't want to use her previous identity as a ktv princess, but Li Yun believed that the more she struggled with this, the more inferior she felt in her heart. Even if she owns an entertainment company with a market value of 10 billion in the future, she can't get rid of it. This inferiority complex.

However, Li Yun also believes that after the speech just now, this sensitive and inferior girl can regain some confidence, and will not make the crazy act of asking someone to wait for him at the airport.

"Ding, the host has made a choice. In the next few days, he will be accompanied by a beautiful woman with a 100,000 affection degree. You can use it at will. Additional bonus book: "Guide to Advanced Use of Ability"

Seeing the rewards given by the system, Li Yun looked strange. He had always thought that the supernatural powers were the mutations of human beings under the aura, which belonged to instincts, just like animal mutations, and were temporary things that could not improve their strength.

From the prompts of the system, it can be seen that abilities can also be cultivated, and it is a method of combining science and spiritual power to make instruments to increase the level of the abilities!

Chapter 2606: Won't let down

To be honest, this system-rewarded book can bring no less impact than "Science Cultivation: Elementary School". In the future, if the human body's abilities can be systematically stimulated, the human physique will be earth-shaking. Variety.

The human beings in the future will be strengthened, as if the gene lock has been turned on and can...

There are too many, refer to science fiction movies, or directly watch movies of the Avengers and other supernatural wars, to know the terrible after scientific development of supernatural powers.

After thinking about it, Li Yunguang felt that this book was quite tricky.

But the system sent the book as a reward related to Tang Anxi, which meant that she would let her decide whether or not the book should be circulated?

"An Xi..."

Li Yun looked at her and after pondering for a moment, he decided to give this book to her.

Now that he has too many hole cards around him, this "Guide to Advanced Use of Abilities" is left to her to use, to see what tricks Tang Anxi will play with this book.

This feeling...It's like throwing a drifting bottle. You never know where the bottle will float in the future and who will pick it up.

"what?"

Holding the book Li Yun gave her, Tang Anxi fell into a daze again, and it took him a long time to understand Li Yun's intentions.

Actually let her decide?

After opening this book, taking a close look at the contents recorded in it, after knowing what it could do, a brilliant idea appeared in Tang Anxi's mind for a moment.

As long as she takes it seriously, she will have the possibility of becoming... in the future. This is definitely a book that will make her stand up and be a human being, and it will also help Li Yun in the future!

"I, I know!"

Tang Anxi held the book tightly in her arms and looked at Li Yun with tears in her eyes, "I will use it well and will not disappoint Yun's expectations!"

"?"

What does this deeply scheming patient want to use this book for?

Li Yun was a little curious, but didn't ask much. Seeing that she couldn't put away the book, he gave her another ring.

Therefore, Tang Anxi, who had misunderstood the proposal ring, was so moved again that she rushed over and hugged him, Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry, and had to explain what it was.

After realizing it, Tang Anxi blushed and put the ring on her slender middle finger, and even showed it to Li Yun to show that she was already in love~.

"Uh, um, great!"

Li Yun was really unable to withstand such a fierce offensive. If it weren't for the fact that he was on a plane now, I guess he could not bear to start kissing Tang Anxi for the last step. Bing Jiao, however, has a good impression of the girl he used to be very affectionate, and didn't mind putting her into the palace.

Now he is different from the last time he met Tang Anxi in Longyang County. After the college entrance examination, Li Yun, who is already a man, is very open about men and women, as long as he is a girl with good affection around him. , He doesn't mind going directly to the last step.

It just lacks an opportunity, Gong Qingyu, Gong Lianyi, including Liu Xianxian, Shangguan Lingxian are all, and there is one less chance to get along with Li Yun, anyway, in the next year, there will be opportunities.

"Old, husband~"

She seemed to see the fiery eyes in Li Yun's eyes that could swallow her in one bite. Tang Anxi's slender legs were folded together, her long and curled eyelashes flickered a few times, and she lowered her head, using a more intimate look. The voice whispered: "I, I will book a room online, so I don't have to look for it anymore. Yes, do I want to book a room directly in Xingning City? Or go elsewhere?"

Chapter 2607: Shengpu Zhen

Tang Anxi's art of speaking is here.

Do not ask Li Yun to agree or disagree, but to choose where to book the room for him!

Unfortunately, Li Yun's destination is not Xingning City, or even the county seat below Xingning City, but a small town below the county seat. Only from the small town can he reach his destination.

"There is indeed no online booking in the town..." Tang Anxi looked regretful, but still took the initiative to book a room, as if she was afraid that Li Yun would not agree to open a room with her.

Li Yun couldn't stand it again.

A beautiful and ill-feeling girl with a lot of affection took the initiative to open a double room in a hotel, and said that she wanted to be together, which man in the world could stand up to.

"Ahem, all right, let's talk about it then!"

Li Yun hurriedly interrupted her, and he couldn't control his terrible fire any longer. Tang Anxi's offensive was really fierce, and the key was that Li Yun had no need to refuse.

"Yeah~" Tang Anxi blushed and lowered her head, and the corner of her mouth biting her lip was filled with a shy smile. She had even begun to think about where the small town selling natural rubber items that prevent liquids from flowing in non-medicinal form would go Buy, how many more should I buy?

It seems that these things come in different models, what size does Li Yun use, or else buy ten of them all?

"Li Yun~"

Tang Anxi suddenly leaned in front of him and asked, "How old do you want?"

"what?"

"It's... what a balloon!"

"Balloon?" Li Yun was even more surprised.

"It can be blown into a balloon, the model of that thing..."

"?"

Li Yun watched it for a long time before he could understand that the blushing Tang Anxi stretched out the slender right index finger, and the left index finger and thumb were bent. After making an OK gesture, he used the right index finger to penetrate the OK circle, back and forth several times. Second, what does it mean in the end.

This guy is really...knowledgeable!

"Snapped!"

Don't get me wrong, Li Yun just slapped her on the head, causing the sick girl who made a nasty gesture to hold her head aggrievedly.

"Tang Anxi, this time we are mainly going to explore. What we have to do is to do it after we return from the adventure, and the adventure may be dangerous, you know?"

"Yes~~~"

Tang Anxi obediently agreed, but quickly said, "Why don't you do it during the expedition?"

"..."

Li Yun couldn't talk to the sick girl who was full of that. This reminded Li Yun of Su Muxin. After Xiao Chili tasted delicious things, he was on the cruise ship, including in the hotel. She was the happiest girl, and she couldn't hold Jin Liuli, who had excellent physical strength and a very soft figure, and said that Little Chili Sister was a big girl.

As a result, Jin Liuli was pushed on the sofa by the grinning Su Muxin again. The two women laughed and joked, and finally evolved into Liliu blossoms.

After stopping Tang Anxi's evil thoughts, the two got off the plane smoothly in Xingning City. After Li Yun and Tang Anxi had lunch, they drove down to the county seat, and then rented a van from Gaoqing County. , Heading towards Katsuura Town.

There is nothing to say about the environment of Katsuura Town. It is no different from an ordinary town. A national road passes through the town center. On both sides of the road are restaurants, hair salons, car repair shops, food stalls, hotels, mobile phone shops, and so on.

The size of the town is neither big nor small, there are all that should be there, and there is nothing that should not be there, and the buildings are not more than five floors, and it is impossible to enjoy the services of a three-star hotel.

However, Li Yun was inexplicably familiar with this small town, and always felt that he had been here before.

Chapter 2608: Familiar illusion

"What's the matter?" Tang Anxi saw Li Yun's confusion and asked him.

"nothing."

Li Yun shook his head and attributed this sense of familiarity to this small town, which had no characteristics, and was no different from the towns he had been to or had seen on the Internet. That's why he felt familiar.

"Oh, then I'm going to book a room?" Tang Anxi looked around and quickly found a nice hotel on the roadside.

That's right, because this hotel is a four-storey small building that is a hotel, not the kind of shop on the first floor. The second floor is a mixed type of hotels. The entire hotel is obviously more professional and the rooms are cleaner.

Li Yun looked up at the sky. The time was approaching in the evening, which surprised him a bit. It took five or six hours to travel from Xingning City to Shengpu Town by car?

After thinking about it carefully, it seems that when traveling from the county to the small town, the bus traveled through multiple towns and villages, taking on the transportation tools of the residents on the road, resulting in multiple stops and a one-hour drive. It was extended to two or three hours, which led to him and Tang Anxi not reaching the town until now.

"Well, go, I'll look for a better restaurant on the side of the road."

"Good~"

Tang Anxi promised, giving Li Yun a sweet smile, and walked quickly towards the hotel.

Li Yun glanced at her, and was about to turn around to find the restaurant, but suddenly noticed something:

There was a leaf on Tang Anxi's shoulder.

After going, there were mud residues on the shoes she was wearing, and her body seemed to be traces that would only appear after a long journey.

"Strange, all we walked on were cement roads, why is Tang Anxi..."

"Husband? What's wrong?"

When there is no one, Tang Anxi likes to call her husband Li Yun. People in the small town are attracted by Tang Anxi's beauty and have been paying attention to her secretly. At this moment, after hearing this beauty called her husband, they all face each other. There was a pity on the face.

"Nothing, go ahead."

Li Yun shook his head, suppressed the strange feeling in his heart, and went to find a better restaurant.

The facilities in the small town are simple, most restaurants are noodle shops and dumpling shops. A big bowl for seven or eight yuan is enough to fill your stomach, but if you want to eat and enjoy, this kind of restaurant is obviously not suitable.

Li Yun did not find the kind of restaurant with private rooms, or there are private rooms, but the menu is not suitable. In the end, he chose a food stall facing the street. This restaurant not only has complete cuisine, but also can order barbecue. It is a good one in the small town. A place to eat and enjoy.

After Tang Anxi came back, Li Yun saw a slightly suspicious expression on her face, and asked what was wrong.

"No, nothing!"

There was a smile on Tang Anxi's face, and she didn't mention that when she went to book a room just now, the waiter unexpectedly reminded her that she had already booked a room, and the deadline was five days.

"Maybe I booked the room on the phone. That hotel also posted information on the Internet, but it was harder to find."

Tang Anxi gave herself an explanation, and stopped thinking about it, and took the initiative to hold Li Yun's arm, as close as a couple.

"The young couple are here again."

The two came to the door of the food stall. The boss who was cooking the food greeted with a smile, and pointed to a table under the shade of the roadside with the cooking shovel, and said: "I specially reserved the place for you. Sit down." , I will fry you two immediately after ordering!"

"?"

Li Yun glanced at the boss strangely, and thought, the food stall bosses in the small town are so enthusiastic?

Chapter 2609: Food stall

Before Li Yun could ask another question, a group of people came outside. The boss was busy cooking and receiving food. He smiled at them and said, "How many brothers are here again? Or a box of beer?"

Li Yun glanced at the group of people who came in, and inexplicably felt that they were a little familiar, as if they had met somewhere.

"Boy, what are you looking at?"

There are five people in this group, all of them are men, one old, two middle-aged, plus two young, with dirt on their body, looking like a dusty servant. One of them, a middle-aged man with a vicious face, saw Li Yun look at them. , Immediately yelled at him.

Li Yun smiled faintly, did not care about this kind of person, and sat with Tang Anxi on a table in the shade of a tree by the road.

With his current strength, status, and status, this kind of little people met on the roadside, he didn't even care about them too much.

"Heh, you brat dare not talk nonsense, but Yan Fu is not shallow, there is such a beautiful woman to follow."

The middle-aged man did not give up, whistling to Tang Anxi, his eyes showed lewdness: "Beauty, do you want to join us in the table? I'll treat you and eat whatever you want!"

"You're looking for death!" Tang Anxi's gloomy face showed a vicious killing intent. She was a small white lotus in front of Li Yun, but in front of ordinary people, she was absolutely cold and gloomy without her disguise, and she didn't believe it. Anyone is full of spikes.

The food stall owner murmured: "Here again."

Li Yun frowned slightly. He wanted to stop Tang Anxi, but the inexplicable sense of familiarity surged up again, letting him suppress the desire to stop, and chose to quietly watch the development of things.

"Oh, the little beauty is quite arrogant!"

The middle-aged man stood there, pretending to be an elder, and scolded: "Dare to stand in front of your uncle and me, do you know what your uncle and I do? Watch out for me..."

He couldn't say anything behind him.

Because Tang Anxi raised his right hand, the five delicate fingers were entwined by the dazzling red flame, like a flame ghost claw, and grabbed the middle-aged man indifferently.

"Oh my God!"

The flames were raging and almost burned right in front of him. The middle-aged man was so scared that his fart was peeing, and he jumped onto the table of the guests behind. The food debris was poured all over him, and the plate fell to the ground and the sound of ping-pong-pong kept on.

Everyone was terrified by this scene, Qi Qi stood up and fled, looked at Tang Anxi in horror, and I did not know who shouted: "She, she, she is a supernatural person!"

Suddenly, everyone was quiet.

The story of Penglai Island spread all over the world. Even in such a backward small town, people naturally learned about supernatural beings and monsters through TV and the Internet. Therefore, the residents of the small town were shocked by Tang Anxi's Ability, but did not flee in fright, but looked at Tang Anxi's white and tender palms with fear and strong curiosity.

They couldn't believe that just now this big beauty actually evoked a flame from the palm of her hand.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Kill these people directly, reward justice value +5000, experience value +100,000, blue gift bag*3.

Option 2: Grab, ask them what they have done in the last few days, reward justice value +1000, experience value +100,000, purple gift bag*3, get some useful information.

Option 3: Give up temporarily, pay attention to their every move in the town, no rewards, and get some breaking information. "

Chapter 2610: I ask you answers

Li Yun glanced at the three options. The first two did not have much doubts. The justice value showed that they were not good people.

And the useful information is probably about the matter of the ancient immortal mansion, combined with the condition of this group of people's mud, it is estimated that they have already been to the place to investigate.

—Li Yun deliberately checked the news before he came. In the mountains outside Shengpu Town, an ancient ruin appeared in the newspaper. It was only because of Penglai Island that the residence of the suspected ancient immortal was not occupied by too many people. Concerned, not many people dare to go for the time being.

The first two options are okay, but the breaking information in the last option makes Li Yun puzzled.

Are these people the key to opening the Ancient Immortal Mansion?

This is too funny!

Li Yun thought about it for a moment, and said to them: "Come here, I will ask you something."

Everyone did not dare to breathe.

The handsome young man's overbearing tone was almost the same as that of a servant, and he couldn't refuse.

The five people with mud men on their bodies looked at each other for a few moments. The middle-aged man was still full of food residue, but after seeing Tang Anxi's face showing an unkind expression, he chose to endure his anger and stood still.

But quietly put his hand on his waist.

"I ask, you answer."

Li Yun didn't care about their little actions. He picked up the cup on the table and took a sip of warm water. After moistening his throat, Li Yun asked faintly, "Did you go to the ancient fairy mansion in the mountain?"

It has been more than a week since Penglai Island has risen, and the occurrence of the ancient fairy mansion in Shengpu Town has spread. It is not surprising that people who are eager to fish for it.

Even these people are very likely to be tomb thieves. The Ancient Immortal Mansion is also a tomb. It is normal to attract tomb thieves.

"Yes, so what?"

The old man among the five stood up and answered Li Yundao in a deep voice.

"What's the discovery?" Li Yun asked casually, not looking forward to asking anything from this group of people.

"Do you think we will come back if we find something? Besides, we are just here."

This old man seemed to be a person who had experienced major events, and he was able to calm down even in the face of a superb person like Tang Anxi that he saw for the first time.

Just what he said made Li Yun sneer, just came? It's obviously been here for a few days now!

"A few big brothers!" The boss stood up with a bitter face, "I beg you, okay? Don't make trouble here, I, I, this is a small business, I still want to make more money before the end of the world. Some money, buy some cans and save them for later use, you guys...I can't live anymore!"

The crowd onlookers laughed, and the boss was really pitiful.

"alright."

Li Yun smiled slightly and said: "You can pay for the boss's loss and you can leave."

"You... fuck!" The middle-aged man wanted to get angry, but from the corner of his eye he saw Tang Anxi's right hand raised again, so his anger was abruptly suppressed.

He was still a little worried about the supernatural beings mentioned on the Internet. Just now, the woman almost burned his eyebrows in a fire.

"Little third son, pay someone a sum of money to the boss."

The old man told the middle-aged man to choose to compensate the boss, but did not leave. Instead, he found a table not far away to sit down and continued to order food.

"Husband, do you want me to teach them?" Tang Anxi actively proposed.

"Forget it, let them eat."
