

Godly Choice 2621

Chapter 2621: Epileptic

But the 20- or 30-meter-high building in front of you is deeply buried in the ground. After many years of time, it appears on the ground as if it has been swept away. The whole body is as white as jade, without a trace of dust and dirt. On it.

Similar to the photos of Biyou Palace on Penglai Island uploaded on the Internet, they are all dust-free and immortal.

Until now, no one dared to enter Biyou Palace. After some bold people approached and took pictures, they all wrote that the closer they were to Biyou Palace, the more they felt the strong pressure. Many people didn't wait to get close to the mountain gate. Tired to lie on the ground, need to crawl to leave.

The current reputation of Biyou Palace has spread all over the world, and everyone knows that it is the fairy residence of the Sanqing Dao Zun, and it must contain heaven-shattering treasures.

Therefore, the stone palace in front of him, like Biyou Palace, emerged from the ground, which made the people present feel particularly scared.

"Old, husband?" Tang Anxi looked at Li Yun nervously, and couldn't help but move closer to him.

The ancient palace located deep in the mountains hides unknown horror and danger.

"It's okay, go in and have a look."

Li Yun Shennian had already inspected the inside and outside of this palace, and apart from finding a special thing in it, everything else was just ordinary.

There is no one, and there is no so-called formation.

In addition, the system did not have more selection events, and it was still reminding him to search the most special things in this ancient city.

Under the gaze of everyone, Li Yun calmly stepped in, followed by Tang Anxi, with an extra dagger in his hand, and a hazy flame shrouded the dagger.

"Boss, wait for me!" He Shao didn't dare to stay outside and walked in.

"Let's go in too."

The old man solemnly ordered, so a group of people filed in, without encountering any obstacles, they walked into this jade-white stone hall.

Because of the previous murals sold for money, when He Shao passed the two huge white stone pillars in front of the door, he couldn't help but touch the exquisite patterns on them, and started with a gentler texture. This material is thousands of dollars higher than the jade shop in town. Yupei is even better!

"Don't mess with the contents."

Li Yun said lightly, He Shao quickly retracted his hand in fright.

Seeing this, the old man also ordered the four people around him.

"Pretend to be a * and play a ghost." The third uncle didn't believe in evil. He stretched out his feet and kicked the gate of the palace with a dark face, and cried out: "Not only does I want to move, I also need to..."

His voice stopped abruptly, like a drake quacking, suddenly pinched by the throat.

It was not Li Yun's hand, but a big invisible hand that stuck his neck abruptly, making him stay on the spot as if he had been caught in an evil spirit.

The crowd was so scared that they didn't dare to move. They watched the San Uncle's expressions, slowly transitioning from madness to extreme panic, and finally trembling all over, cold sweat coming out of their foreheads like raindrops.

"I, I, I... Gui Guigui kneels..."

A stiff voice came from the third uncle's throat. He seemed to have encountered some terrifying ghost in the illusion. He was so frightened that he fell to the ground. He pinched his neck with his hands and kicked his legs up and down, just like a goat's madness. of.

"Uncle!?! What's wrong with you?!"

"Little three!"

"The third brother?!"

This group of tomb robbers was terrified. Even the old man, who had always been steady and calm, stood in place at a loss and could only look at Li Yun with a look for help.

Chapter 2622: Tao Zu Tablet

"Soothe the nerves, calm the soul!"

Li Yun let out a deep yell, his voice was like a vast torrent, washing everything around, and the fox temple seemed to vibrate.

Tang Anxi's spirits lifted, and Li Yun's voice gave her an extremely strong sense of security and made her fearless of everything!

As for the third uncle, who was lying on the ground, he was shaken as a sieve by the loud drink, and foamed at the mouth again.

But fortunately, he stopped quickly, lying on the ground and gasping, as if he was fished out of the water, his hair was wet, his face turned pale, and his eyes were at a loss, as if he had lost his soul.

"how are you feeling?"

Li Yun asked.

Of course, he was not kind enough to help this person, but he wanted to know if his roar of the Oriental Azure Dragon could rescue him from the illusion. Facts have proved that the Oriental Azure Dragon is indeed the nemesis of all evil demons, pulling the soul of a person with a single voice. Came back.

The third uncle panted and glanced at Li Yun, then turned to look at the old man, that is, his father and others. He opened his mouth, but couldn't say a word.

"Sir, what do you want to say!" The old man shouted angrily: "What the * did you see just now? Tell you not to be reckless, you just won't listen, now..."

"Shut up, too." Li Yun interrupted him and pointed to the inside of the temple: "This is the solemn place of worship in ancient times. I speak loudly and be careful to bump into the gods inside."

Everyone is awe-inspiring.

"Uh, yes, sir, what he said is right, the old Zhou Dashan, on behalf of the unfilial son, thank you for saving his life.

With that said, the old man named Zhou Dashan stepped forward, slapped his bow left and right, punched the little third son out of gold stars, and cursed in a low voice: "Wake up soon, thank you sir?"

Li Yun waved his hand, only motioning for him to tell what he had just encountered.

As a result, the third uncle only said that he suddenly saw a few foxes rushing out of the hall. They had no flesh on their faces, all of them were skeletons. They bite at him frantically, so that he didn't know what was going on behind him, just holding them. He shrank his head on the ground and was bitten by the skeletal fox all over his body.

"Everything is careful."

After Li Yun threw a warning again, he formally walked into the hall.

Tang Anxi chose to keep up.

Inside the stone temple, there is a splendid color.

Almost everything seemed to be plated with a layer of gold leaf, which looked golden and shining so that people couldn't open their eyes.

There are not many things in the main hall. There is a gold table in the middle. A tablet is enshrined on the table with two characters:

"Taozu"

These two characters are still carved from unknown characters, but the strange thing is that everyone can know what it is.

Li Yun looked at it intently and found that the texture of these two characters seemed to contain some mysterious Taoist rhyme, but he estimated that his strength was too low to get anything valuable from it.

Only knowing that these two words are extraordinary, they were portrayed by a powerful person in ancient times.

"Here is someone...er, no, it's a stone statue!" He Shao couldn't help but said.

He felt that the atmosphere was too boring at the moment.

Although the hall is magnificent and dazzling, it looks like an ancestral hall that has been passed down for thousands of years, but here, it reveals a dense atmosphere of death.

They seem to have broken into a place where no creatures have entered for millions of years.

It's so quiet that people are full of panic and anxiety, and I can't wait to make a sound to break the quiet atmosphere and make this place a little more popular.

Chapter 2623: What fox

"Let you stop talking!" Tang Anxi glared at him, and He Shao suddenly closed her mouth, smiled slyly, and hid near the door, not daring to go inside.

Among the five tomb robbers, three felt almost the same as him, and the four of them stood guard at the door. Look at me, and I look at you.

"All come to pay a respect, after all, the Taoist ancestor is enshrined here... the background is not small."

Ignoring the kneeling female stone statues on the ground for the time being, Li Yun walked to the tablet engraved with "Daozu" and made the gestures of worshipping the ancestors at home during the New Year's Day: holding hands crossed, bowing, and worshipping the tablet. Three prayers.

What he said, Tang Anxi did what he did, and followed him for three prayers. Although her beautiful face was full of doubts, she felt that everything here was full of mysteries.

Even the bricks on the ground, she probably didn't know how they were fired. Everything in ancient times is a mystery.

"You all come here to worship, too!" Zhou Dashan gave an order, and the four people standing at the door hurriedly stepped forward and honestly followed.

It's just that the young man can't help complaining: "Grandpa, who is this Dao ancestor? Why should we worship him? I don't worship San Qing ancestor, who is this Dao ancestor...who?"

"You shut up!" Zhou Dashan's name is not very good, but the tone and demeanor of his speech is quite majestic, and a low voice scared the two grandsons.

"Taozu, is the ancestor of the Three Qings, and also the one who created the Dao Sect... Old God."

Li Yun didn't know how to explain to them the saints of heaven. They didn't understand the saints, neither did they understand the saints, and even those who became holy in the same way.

So simply call Daozu Hongjun an old god.

Li Yun is 80% sure that Daozu is named Hongjun, because there is a Biyou Palace on Penglai Island, which is consistent with the ancient myth.

It's just that Li Yun searched through the memory of the gods in his mind, but couldn't find out what the fox temple was.

There is a big difference between the ancient myths and the folk myths. The biggest difference is that the three Qing ancestors had an extra master named Hongjun.

In the prehistoric times, as well as in folklore and historical records, there is a very famous fox, that is, the nine-tailed demon fox that has troubled the Shang Dynasty: Su Daji.

Regarding her, Li Yun need not say much, even people in this world know her name.

In addition, the more famous fox demon is a fox demon from the cherry blossom country, named Yuzaopian, and the area where the two demon foxes gather, Qingqiu and Tushan, are also more famous.

But Su Daji has been killed by Jiang Ziya with a flying knife. Qingqiu and Tushan are just like that. They are not very famous at all. Besides, they are a hundred thousand miles away from Dao Ancestor. If these fox monsters want to worship, they also worship. Kunpeng, the ancestor of all monsters? Zulong? Taijun Taichi? , Or simply worship the demon clan's only saint Nuwa Empress.

There is no reason to worship Tao Zu Hongjun.

Taoist ancestors cannot easily go to worship. Except for his six saint disciples, there are only a few immortals who have ever heard preaching in Taoist ancestor Hongjun's Zixiao Palace, such as Hongyun (if not dead), Zhenyuanzi, and the Jade Emperor. , Kunpeng et al.

Only these people can worship.

The weak scum fox demon of Qingqiu Mountain and Tushan, they also want to worship Dao Ancestor? Seen by the decent defenders, it might be a flying sword falling down, destroying all the fox monsters all over the mountain!

"This person who worships Taoist ancestors can't always be the Nine-tailed Fox Yuzao in the Sakura Country?"

Li Yun muttered to himself, squatting down, holding the shoulders of the kneeling stone statue with his hands, slightly lowering his head, and looking at the stone statue's face.

I'm Cao.

Chapter 2624: Goodbye Nuwa

Li Yun seemed to be electrocuted, and quickly retracted his hand on the stone statue, with an expression on his face as if he had seen a ghost.

"Ah? What's the matter?" Tang Anxi was very nervous, because since she met Li Yun, she has always been impressed by him as a handsome, handsome, calm, and in control of everything, a unique man in the world.

It was the first time that she saw such an expression on Li Yun's face.

"Sir, who is she? Uh, no, who is this fairy?"

Zhou Dashan asked cautiously.

The stone statue kneeling on the ground facing the Taoist ancestor was obviously a woman with a golden hairpin on her head, which was turned into a dignified and beautiful fairy hairstyle, and she was wearing a gorgeous palace dress, embroidered shoes are small and cute, and she kneels on her knees. Put your hands on the ground as well, with your head parallel to the ground. The posture of this female stone statue is a standard movement of about to kneel and kowtow.

In addition, everyone saw the female stone statue about one meter and seven meters high. The figure was slim and graceful. Because of the kneeling motion, the clothes fit the buttocks, forming a graceful undulating shape, and the curve was graceful to the extreme.

In addition, the stone statue was carved from a whole piece of fine jade, and the skin was delicate and smooth, and the beautiful side face and the straight small bridge of the nose made people want to get up and kiss the face of the stone statue.

Undoubtedly, this is a perfect artwork that was meticulously portrayed by a top sculptor with one stroke!

Everyone can imagine how beautiful this woman was before her death, and how noble and elegant her temperament is, she is the best candidate for the goddess in the hearts of all men!

It was just because of the weirdness of this hall that everyone didn't dare to look at her too much. For fear that the stone statue would suddenly come back to life, a fairy sleeve would shoot all the people in the hall into meat sauce.

As a result, everyone could only look at Li Yun, waiting for his answer.

"She is..." Li Yun took a deep breath and exhaled two words from his mouth: "Nuwa!"

"Pouch."

Everyone in the hall looked at each other, but they inexplicably heard a looming laughter that seemed to be non-nothing in their ears, scared them to listen carefully, but did not hear anything, wondering if they had heard it wrong.

"Have you heard the laughter?" Tang Anxi asked, she didn't dare to ask Li Yun herself, and at the same time she helped Li Yun ask it out.

"It seems to have."

"I didn't hear it."

"It seems, uncle, are you laughing?"

"Put...P, I didn't laugh!" San Shu lowered his voice, not daring to speak loudly anymore.

"Quiet."

Li Yun said in a deep voice: "Regardless of whether anyone laughs or not, you treat it as if you haven't heard it. You are in an illusion or hallucination. The more terrifying!"

Everyone trembled with fright, and stood still in place with their hands and feet bound.

Tang Anxi asked: "Li Yun, are we still in the illusion? Or is everything in front of me an illusion?"

"Not necessarily, but in short, if you encounter a strange thing, you should not find it, and don't be afraid of it, lest your heart becomes more chaotic, and your mental resistance will be weaker.

Remember: if the opponent's strength is very strong Strong, then it doesn't need to pretend to be a ghost, just show up and kill you!"

Zhou Dashan couldn't help but admired: "Mr.'s words are good!"

It's like a tomb robber. Just tell yourself firmly: if there are no ghosts in the tomb at all, if there are ghosts and zombies, they would have jumped out to * human blood, why stay in the tomb?

Chapter 2625: Kneeling

Sure enough, everyone stood calmly and waited for a while, and no strange things happened. The hearts of a group of people suddenly relaxed a lot.

"Don't move around, don't touch it, let me see what's here."

Li Yun was also worried about the prompt given by the system, saying that there was one most special thing in the ancient city.

Li Yun guessed that 80% of this most special thing was in this fox temple, and in the fox temple, 80% was related to the stone statue of Empress Nuwa and the tablet of Taoism enshrined on the table.

Because of the illusion I saw in the gate of life and death, the Nu Wa empress in the illusion used a thick snake's tail several times, so Li Yun didn't dare to get close to the human-like Nu Wa empress even though she had a round snake tail. It has become a human slender and beautiful legs, without a huge offensive weapon.

Therefore, Li Yun stepped up to the consecration table, and reached out his hand to take down the Daozu tablet.

It made everyone behind him swallowed, thinking that he was too reckless.

But in fact, it makes sense for Li Yun to do so.

Now that he knows that this ancient city is weird and can make people lose the concept of time, and coupled with the system's prompts, Li Yun believes that there will be something special here, so sooner or later he will touch the things in the hall, so it is better to just click and take it. Just come down.

"one two Three."

After waiting for three seconds, nothing happened, and everyone's hanging hearts slowly relaxed.

Li Yun took Daozu's tablet in his hand and looked at it carefully, and found that the tablet was just an unknown piece of wood, very heavy, as heavy as an iron block, but it felt like wood.

In addition, it is an ordinary tablet.

This kind of tablet generally has two uses, one is the spiritual card of the dead, and the other is the magic card representing the gods, such as the * of the land, in the temple of the city god.

Dao ancestor was naturally not a dead man... Well, he was indeed a dead man, and the gods seemed to be dead.

But at that time, when the tablet was built, it was used as a magic card.

Can't Nuwa worship the Taoist ancestral card, right? Wouldn't it be that Nuwa is the daughter of Taoist ancestors? This is a spiritual card.

However, it seems that when apprentices worship the master, can they also use spirit cards?

Various thoughts flashed in Li Yun's mind, and finally put the Dao Ancestor tablet back on the table without intentionally returning it to its original position.

Still nothing happened.

What is the theory? If there are any people or monsters living in this hall, you should be angry when you see Dao Zu Tablets being treated like this. After all, Dao Ancestor Tablets are very important things and cannot tolerate being defiled.

But now there was no movement, which gave Li Yun a lot of confidence to judge that there was no living person here.

However, it might be necessary to completely smash the Dao Ancestor's tablet to make the final judgment!

"Daozu...Forget it, don't damage his tablet for now."

Although in the myths in Li Yun's memory, Hongjun has always played the role of villain, but he is also a saint master, spokesperson of the way of heaven, there is nothing to say.

Turning his head to look at the statue of Nu Wa kneeling and worshipping Taoist ancestors, Li Yun felt the more strange.

It's not that Nuwa looks weird, she is very good, and the carvings are perfect. It fully shows the beauty and dignity of the Nuwa empress, and even the respectful profile on her face is vivid.

However, Li Yun seemed to see a trace of guilt, apology, self-blame, and regret in the expression of Nuwa?

Chapter 2626: hatred

It's a pity that Li Yun didn't dare to turn the kneeling Nüwa statue over, and couldn't really see her expression-because it was too strange to turn it over, which would cause the Nüwa statue to turn all over the sky, which is nothing for a goddess. Ya to the extreme.

To blaspheme the Nuwa Empress is to be condemned by the gods!

"An Xi." Li Yun touched his chin and greeted Tang Anxi to come to him. The latter was obviously happy and ran to him in small steps.

"Do you think... who would carve such a stone statue? And put her here?"

What is strange about Li Yun is this!

Kneeling statues are rare. At least Li Yun only thought of one kneeling statue, that is, Qin Yan kneeling on Yue Fei, who could not stand up after kneeling for almost a thousand years.

In theory, this kneeling statue of Nu Wa is at least tens of thousands of years old, maybe even longer.

Of course, the statue of Nuwa is not kneeling at others, but kneeling Taozu. It is not a confession. If the tablet of Taozu is also replaced by a stone statue, the kneeling statue of Nuwa will have no problem, and it is very harmonious. .

After all, in the ancient mythology, Daozu Hongjun was the master of Nuwa, and it was only natural to accept the disciple's kneeling.

But the question still remains: Who made this statue of Nuwa, and for what purpose? !

"This....."

Tang Anxi quickly realized the difficulty of Li Yun's problem, there are too many possibilities!

"Don't worry, just guess!" Li Yun smiled.

"Is... Nuwa herself?"

After tentatively speaking, Tang Anxi quickly explained: "If the gods really exist and this is the place where the gods live, then I think only the person will make his kneeling stone statue. Other people are not suitable. "

Indeed, only this person is worthy to make a portrait of himself kneeling.

Of course, if it is confirmed that Nu Wa is dead, her descendants may also make such a stone statue to worship Tao ancestors.

Li Yun touched his chin: "Except for Nuwa... Niangniang herself?" He still added the word Niangniang, and he always felt groggy when calling the name of the saint.

"People who hate her." Tang Anxi replied.

"Huh? How to say?"

"Think about it, this kind of kneeling stone statue is inherently awkward. After all, after the stone statue is made, it will kneel for hundreds of thousands of years. Of course, people who hate her will feel happy when they see it, but because of Nuwa Niang Niang is the mother of our Chinese humans in myths and legends, so he dare not let Nu Wa kneel on her own, only let her kneel to Dao ancestor..."

The more Tang Anxi talked about it, the more he felt lost, she waved her hand and said, "I also guessed randomly."

"I don't think it's possible!" Zhou Dashan seemed to be very interested in this, and couldn't help saying: "Nv Wa Empress is the legendary righteous god. If this stone statue is really her, then only believe in Empress, and People who know some myths and legends that are different from ours..."

As he said, Zhou Dashan looked at Li Yun: "They knew about the Nuwa Empress, so they made this stone statue. Look at the entrance of this hall, the threshold is very high. It's not like people often come and go, so no one dares. Standing in front of the empress, this stone statue is not surprising here."

Do you know why Empress Nuwa made this stone statue by the descendants of Taoist ancestors?

Li Yun touched his chin. If the practitioners tens of thousands of years ago also knew the myths and legends, then what they knew would be different from what Li Yun remembers now.

At least Li Yun hadn't figured out why the empress kept kneeling in front of Dao Ancestor.

Chapter 2627: Abrupt jade pendant

Empress Nuwa is confessing? Regret it?

Of course, the prehistoric myth can't cover all the things that happened in the first place. Maybe in the myth, Empress Nu Wa did something that made Dao Zu very angry, maybe.

Li Yun said to herself: "If the empress really did something wrong, she would probably have to sit back and watch the demon clan's decline and not rescue the demon court, which caused her to suffer some taint."

An inexplicable sense of peep came from outside the temple, but unfortunately, no one noticed it in the hall.

Li Yun put his hand on his chest, touched his chin and said, "Of course, the demise of the demon court belongs to the change of heaven and the fortune. The Empress Nuwa is a saint. Even if she takes action, she can't save the demon court. The descendants of the demon clan hate it. , So I made a kneeling statue of Nuwa?"

It seems to make sense. After all, it is obvious from the murals of the demon fox drinking that this ancient city belonged to the demon clan before.

The inside and outside of the hall fell silent together, and everyone seemed to be thinking about something.

Sudden.

"Hey?" Tang Anxi yelled, pointing to the waist of the statue of Nuwa and said: "My husband, look at it, there is a jade pendant on the waist of the statue!"

Jade?

Li Yun had carefully checked the stone statue before. Where did the jade pendant come from?

"It's true!" He Shao looked over and said in surprise, his eyes became fiery: "Boss, this jade pendant is also an antique, let's take it away? It's more valuable than the mural!"

"Grass!" Sanshu cursed, but in the end he didn't dare to raise his gun to  it.

Li Yun glanced suspiciously at the waist of the statue of Nuwa, it seemed that there was no jade pendant.

After a second glance, he found that the waist of the Nüwa statue was indeed a white jade pendant, which was the same color as the Nüwa statue. No wonder it was not found.

But Li Yun still felt strange, and after offending him, he stretched out his hand and took off the jade pendant.

"Let's go."

After a weird silence, Li Yun let out a sigh of relief, put the jade pendant in his pocket, and smiled at them: "Everything here is the truth. It is the illusion that this jade pendant gives out. It is the key to everything. Let's go back here. There is nothing to look at."

"Ah? Have you finally solved the puzzle? Hmm, let's go back~" Tang Anxi took Li Yun's arm and smiled happily.

Zhou Dashan seemed a bit unwilling. After all, he did not get some funerary objects. This is a shame for him, the older generation of tomb robbers known as Chuanshanzhi.

But he didn't dare to disobey Li Yun's orders, so he could only walk out of the hall in a muffled voice.

Outside the door, the moonlight is dim, the stars are shining, and the sky is already night.

Everyone was not surprised, and wandered away from the ancient city.

When passing by the mural before, He Shao seemed to think of something. He walked over and lifted the soil covered during the day, and then re-installed it on the wall.

Li Yun vaguely felt strange, an indescribable strange feeling lingered in his mind. After seeing He Shao's movements, he asked, "What are you doing?"

"Hehe." He Shao patted the dirt on his hands, "Boss, we didn't seem to find anything, but only this mural?"

"Didn't we find a jade pendant?" Li Yun asked subconsciously with a jump in his heart.

"Jade pendant?" Tang Anxi looked at him suspiciously, "What kind of jade pendant? Aren't we going to come here again tomorrow and keep looking for it?"

"You found Yupei?!" The third uncle looked at Li Yun greedily, the gun in his hand was about to move.

"Nonsense, there is no jade pendant!" He Shao denied.

Chapter 2628: go back

As if influenced by these people's unequivocal words, Li Yun also nodded: "I didn't find anything today, I will come again tomorrow, by the way, An Xi, you will settle the wages of He Shao as a guide today."

"Yeah, good." Tang Anxi took out the phone and turned to look at He Shao: "I'll give you one hundred thousand, and I will do it again tomorrow."

".....it is good."

The group lost interest in talking, and took advantage of the moonlight to walk back to the town quickly.

"Ah."

The dilapidated ancient city was shrouded by the cold moonlight, and it became more and more ruined and decayed.

After returning to the town, He Shao went back home without saying goodbye. Li Yun and Tang Anxi stood on the street, staring at the people coming and going, for a long time in a daze.

"Unexpectedly, it took so long to come from the county seat!"

Tang Anxi turned to look at Li Yun, and asked softly: "Husband, shall we go to dinner first or book a hotel first? Or I will book a hotel, you go find a hotel?"

"Row!"

Li Yun nodded and watched Tang Anxi leave, only to find that the soles of her feet were covered with mud, and a small piece of leaf was stained on her black and smooth hair, as if she had traveled a long way.

After choosing a good-looking food stall on the side of the road, Li Yun stood in front of the boss who cooked the food and greeted him.

"Uh, guest?"

The boss stared at him for a while, his eyes were a little confused, and after a while he said with enthusiasm, "This is the first time you have come to Katsuura Town, right? Sit, order whatever you want, I'll quarrel with you right away! Now, how many of you? Would you like to drink beer? There are all kinds of beer here, including Qingdao, Snowflake, Yanjing, and Bai!"

"...Just two people, no wine."

"Sure, you sit down first!"

At 6:58 the next morning.

Li Yun and Tang Anxi stood downstairs in the hotel and called He Shao.

More than ten minutes later, a motorcycle drove up suddenly. After Li Yun heard this sound, a strange sense of familiarity rose in his heart again, but he couldn't remember where he heard the sound.

"Why get up so late?" Tang Anxi's gloomy face seemed a little irritable, and said coldly: "We made an appointment at 7 o'clock in the morning yesterday. See how long have you been late now?!"

Li Yun wanted to ask He Shao, didn't you set the alarm clock? But the inexplicable sense of familiarity prevented him from speaking, choosing to watch, waiting for He Shao to explain.

"Sorry, sorry, I was so excited last night that I couldn't sleep." He Shao repeatedly apologized.

"excited?"

"Uh, I received a text message last night saying that someone in the bank card suddenly transferred me 100,000 yuan..." He Shao scratched his head, looked at Li Yun and asked, "Is the boss you paid me in advance? The boss is really generous. Hey-hey!"

What he didn't say was that not only did it increase by 100,000 last night, but the account balance also increased by 100,000, a total of 200,000 extra money!

"What nonsense!" Tang Anxi replied directly: "I am with my husband, and I pay the wages. I have to trouble my husband for this little thing? Anyway, I didn't pay you, so you are late for this? "

"Forehead."

He Shao was in a cold sweat, and he didn't know why he was afraid of this beauty. She was just an unarmed, weak-looking little girl who had just graduated from high school.

Li Yun said: "Forget it, business matters. When the customer service comes to work at nine o'clock, you call the bank and ask who transferred the money to you."

Seeing He Shao seemed unhappy, Li Yun said: "Every bank transfer is recorded. If someone transfers it to you by mistake and you use the money, it is a crime, so I don't confirm it. The origin of this money, you can't spend it with peace of mind."

Chapter 2629: conflict

He Shao heard this, and then said dejectedly: "Well, I originally wanted to put the money for a period of time, to see if anyone from the bank will take it back... It's OK to call and ask customer service."

Li Yun didn't want to be out of line, but his weird feeling made him subconsciously choose to find the truth.

Instead of looking for a breakfast shop to sit down and slowly eat noodles and wontons, the three chose to buy buns and fried dough sticks at a breakfast stall on the roadside.

"The little girl is here to buy breakfast again?"

The breakfast seller was an aunt in her fifties. When she saw Tang Anxi walking over, she immediately took out the small bag and prepared to catch the buns. She smiled and asked, "Is it the same as yesterday?"

"Yesterday?" Tang Anxi frowned Liu's eyebrows, thinking that I was still at home yesterday, why...

"Yup!"

The aunt smiled and looked at Li Yun who was standing on the side of the road and looking at the mobile phone map: "I said, boy, you are ashamed to let your girlfriend buy breakfast every day? As a man, you should love your girlfriend a lot, although Your girlfriend is sensible, but you can't always stand on the side of the road and play with your phone, can you?"

Li Yun was taken aback, and subconsciously asked: "Every day?!"

"What?" The aunt was confused by this question.

"You mean, we came here to buy breakfast many times!?" Li Yun's voice became louder.

Tang Anxi looked at her aunt in surprise, He Shao stopped smoking, and looked at Li Yun suspiciously. Could it be that the two bosses have been in Shengpu Town for a long time? But why did he last night... No, he seemed to stay at home last night and didn't go anywhere.

But how did he meet the boss?

"Yup!"

The aunt grabbed a fan bun and a meat bun with a small bag, and smiled: "Young man, do you like these two kinds of buns? You also need a cup of soy milk and fried dough sticks. Little girl, you like two vegetable buns. It's clear!"

"What nonsense are you talking about?" Tang Anxi was a little angry, she hated this habit of being seen through, "We only came to Shengpu Town on the first day!"

"Little girl, what are you kidding?" The aunt was also angry. "Although the aunt is 60 years old today, she still has a good memory. She sells breakfast here every day. For these six days, which day is not 7 o'clock in the morning? Two people's buns? Oh, yes, he was more than two days ago."

Seeing her aunt pointing her finger, He Shao was taken aback and hurriedly said: "Auntie, don't be kidding. I have been eating breakfast at home these two days. How could I come to you to buy buns? Your buns are not delicious. I used to Have eaten!"

"What are you talking about?! My buns are not delicious?!"

The aunt was angry and quarreled with him.

Li Yun remained silent, observing the reactions of the people around him, and found that many people were watching, but they didn't stop it.

"Okay!" Li Yun clapped his hands to stop the noise of the two, and smiled slightly: "We may not have a good memory these days. Don't be angry, An Xi, buy breakfast and give your aunt a little more money."

"Good~"

What did Li Yun say, Tang Anxi did what she transferred to the aunt a thousand yuan, so that the latter's anger suddenly turned into embarrassment, and quickly said: "Hey, the aunt is not asking for your money. Give one thousand. What is it like? Give me the prestige of your phone, and I will transfer it back to you."

Tang Anxi naturally refused, and the two shrugged off.

Li Yun silently observed the reactions of people around him, then took out his mobile phone and made a call back.

The bell rang three times before someone connected.

Chapter 2630: Memory loss

"master?"

"Zhou Qi."

Li Yun's call was from the landline in the villa, so it was his housekeeper Zhou Qi who answered the call.

"Master, do you have anything to do? Do you need me to wake up Madam and Miss?" the butler asked respectfully.

"No, let me just ask, has there been anything happening at home in the past few days when I went out?"

"It doesn't seem to be. Madam always gets up at 12 noon. The three ladies will get up in the morning to run, practice swords or boxing, and then do their homework. In the afternoon, they will accompany the lady to play, or drive to Zhonghai City for a stroll. After dinner in the evening, I took a break and watched TV together. I followed the old man's instructions and reminded them to review their homework at 9-10.

Zhang's wife and young lady often come in the afternoon, and occasionally eat dinner with them in the evening. "

The butler's answer was seamless, at least Li Yun couldn't find anything suspicious.

After asking a few more questions, Li Yun hung up.

"What, how?" Tang Anxi's eyes were full of panic. After repeated confirmation just now, she finally believed that she had been in Shengpu Town for five or six days!

But in her impression, she and Li Yun only came to Shengpu Town yesterday, opened a room, looked for a restaurant, and then met He Shao, who had never left the town.

But the aunt who sells breakfast, she firmly said that Tang Anxi has been buying soy milk buns at her stall for several days!

This kind of weird and indistinguishable sense of chaos caused Tang Anxi's heart to panic, and she didn't want to leave Li Yun for a moment.

He Shao put away the phone, crying, and said with a sad face: "Boss...my mother said, I have been out early in the morning for three consecutive days...but I * sleeps until ten o'clock every day. ,how is this possible....."

Two pieces of his memory were dug away, one is the day before yesterday and the other is yesterday.

Li Yun rubbed Tang Anxi's head and smiled slightly: "Pretending to be a * is always pretending to be a god, fake is fake, as long as we calm down, these things can't hurt us!"

He Shao looked disapproving, "Boss, we seem to have hit the evil. What happened yesterday is forgotten today..."

Tang Anxi was also worried, but chose to get a little closer to Li Yun, looking at him with trust in her eyes.

"An Xi, what are we going to do today?" Li Yun asked.

"...To explore the ancient fairy mansion?"

"Well, then we will do the opposite and do nothing today!"

"what?"

Both of them looked at him in surprise, and Li Yun smiled and said: "He Shao, you can go back today. If you are not afraid of death tomorrow, you can continue to come, double the reward, 200,000 a day!"

Yes, Li Yun guessed that the extra 100,000 yuan in He Shao's account was transferred to him by Tang Anxi.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Find a way to leave Shengpu Town, reward: to be determined.

Option 2: Kill all the people in the town, shout that everything is an illusion, reward: to be determined.

Choice 3: Stay steady, find a way to find out the most important point of this strange thing, reward: to be determined. "

After a glance at the system bar, Li Yun found the other three options, but when he was prepared, he did not panic, only calmly turned off the display, thinking about the mystery inside.

"Old, boss, I'll follow you." He Shao looked eager to cry, "Now I can't tell the north, south, east, and west. I'm afraid that I will ride back and go straight into the ditch!"

"Well, let's go have some fun. What's so fun in the town?"

"Billiards? Game room? Or go to the Internet cafe?"

"Play billiards, An Xi, do you know how to play billiards?"

"Yeah, yes."
