

Godly Choice 2661

Chapter 2661: I'm Chang'e's rival in love

With the influx of the power of the system, Li Yun's sea of consciousness changed drastically, such as the ebb and flow of clouds, and all kinds of perceptions rose to his heart.

The most basic change is that the sea of consciousness is stronger, and the ability to resist mental attacks is stronger.

And as Li Yun released the spiritual sense from his body, he felt the biggest difference between spiritual sense and spiritual sense!

"Live!"

Li Yun couldn't help muttering to himself, such as saying that the previous divine mind was only scanning like a radar, and then feeding back the scanned object, it was just a dead object.

The current spiritual sense gives Li Yun the greatest feeling that it has "lived"!

Full of spirituality.

In layman's terms, divine consciousness can only sense the appearance of creatures, and spiritual consciousness can feel the joys, sorrows, sorrows, and joys of creatures. Li Yun releases divine consciousness and immediately feels a breath of vitality from the surrounding forests and grasslands, and everything grows. , Withering, death, rebirth...

Li Yun even "saw" a brood of mice hiding under the soil. The mouse mother stood at the entrance of the cave, staring at him with thirsty eyes, as if waiting for the two humans to leave before leaving the cave entrance for food.

All sorts of mysterious and unspeakable sentiments made Li Yun stop, and after a long while, he was awakened by the young girl.

"strangeness....."

A look of surprise appeared on Qing Girl's face, "You kid can actually break through by walking? Well, it must be me who stimulated your sea of consciousness with charm, that's why you suddenly broke through, you kid is really lucky! "

Li Yun: "..."

Taking a deep breath, he decided not to go with this arrogant old woman...no, young girl, care too much.

However, since the young girl is not surprised by spiritual consciousness, it shows that this is a normal cultivation route. If you find some time in the future, let her point out the direction of cultivation, it will make a lot of money.

The two of them didn't speak in the next. Although the young girl kept talking about sorrows, and showed arrogant, arrogant, and arrogant appearance, Li Yun could feel that her mood had not been very good, and she seemed to always recall the past of her ancestors. , There is a tendency to self-destruct.

From the fact that she suddenly wanted to return to the ancient city inexplicably before, it can be seen that the young girl didn't care much about the changes in the outside world, and didn't want to get to know too many people.

But as long as it is a human or a god, all intelligent creatures naturally like creatures and have the need to communicate with people.

Therefore, the young girl used the charm technique for the people who entered the ancient city to make them forget about entering the ancient city. As long as the next group of people did not enter the ancient city, they would go to the ancient city every day.

Probably, it was because she was too lonely, right?

Thinking of this, Li Yun couldn't help but glance at the young girl who was slowly following him, and she was stared at him: "What?! I don't like short-term people, no, long-term people don't like it, I'm so bored. !"

Li Yun realized that her character was not an aunt at all, but rather like a free and easy, melancholic, and irritable woman in her thirties.

Half an hour later, Li Yun saw the light in front of him, his pace slowed down a bit, and smiled at the young girl: "Senior, the world now is very different from ancient times. Don't be too surprised if you wait a moment!"

"whispering sound."

The green girl was full of disdain, pointed her finger at the bright moon in the sky, and said arrogantly: "See what it is?"

"Moon." Li Yun answered honestly.

"Do you know who I am?"

"Could it be... you are Chang'e?"

Li Yun's voice did not change. She said that she was Nuwa now, and Li Yun was not surprised anymore.

"No, I am Chang'e's rival in love."

"Puff cough cough cough!"

Chapter 2662: Ancient Secrets

Li Yun almost couldn't catch his breath. Could this be a gossip from ancient times?

"To be precise," Qing Girl was quite proud. "It is the person Chang'e has a crush on, that is the guy who shoots arrows. He is crazy in love with me, so Chang'e regards me as a love rival. Every time he sees me, he always clenches his teeth. As soon as I went to the moon, she stood in front of the Guanghan Palace wearing a newly knitted dress, proudly showing off to me, it was so stupid!"

Archery guy? Hou Yi?

Chang'e is in Guanghan Palace, showing off to the young girl in new clothes?

Li Yun felt that he had heard something terrible, Chang'e, in the eyes of Huang Xuan, this fairy who was cold and graceful, as beautiful as the moon, had such a beauty-loving character?

Wait, there is a legend that Chang'e stole the elixir and flew to the moon. Is it because she loves beauty that she stole the elixir?

No, no, this simple reasoning is too unreasonable, even more unconvincing than God is a loli!

Li Yun took a deep breath, suppressed all the thoughts in his heart, and said, "Senior, what you said is really... I can't believe it! Have you been to the moon? However, in foreign legends, the moon **** is someone else. , Does the moon not only have the Guanghan Palace, but also the palaces of other gods?"

"What can't you believe in this?" Qingnv glanced at him contemptuously, "Gods are not as pure as you mortals think. They fight harder than anyone else, their desires are stronger than anyone else, and their personality is better than anyone Extreme, just a bunch of lunatics!

do you know? Zeus, that is, the main **** who was defeated by God's little bit, his wife is simply an extraterritorial demon, who forcibly tortured her husband's other women to death, Zeus is nothing but a genius, because a prophecy swallowed his wife, and the woman It emerged from his head and became a goddess. "

Zeus was defeated by God? !

Li Yun was shocked.

He had never heard of it.

Only know that Zeus's wife is Hera, which is the queen of **** Hera, she has become synonymous with jealousy.

The so-called prophecy means that a son of Zeus will overthrow his rule, just as Zeus overthrew his father's rule, so he was afraid that the prophecy would come true and Zeus would eat one of his wife.

As a result, the headache was splitting, and someone had to split his head with an axe, and then a radiant and graceful goddess jumped out of his head.

This goddess is one of the twelve gods of Olympus, and the **** Princess Alice now believes in: Athena.

"hehe."

The young girl mocked and said: "I see the bald part of the moon now, and I know that there must be no cultivator who can break through the restrictions of the earth and enter the starry sky. Do you still want to show off in front of me?"

"This is really... surprising!" Li Yun originally wanted to shock the young girl in the modern town, but he was shocked instead.

"Do you know how **** the ancient times were?"

Qingnv used a weird ancient adjective, Li Yun didn't quite understand what it meant, awesome? Still perverted?

"Yes, your old man is really good!" Li Yun actually wanted to say, you are so good, why are you still staying in the mortal world and not going to the immortal world?

Too hard to ask.

The two continued to move forward, and the green girl looked at the light in front of her, her eyebrows wrinkled and tightened: "What's in front? Why didn't I feel the spell fluctuations? But it's still so bright!"

Chapter 2663: Records of Young Girls (Part 1)

Li Yun did not answer, and continued to move forward. Soon, the two of them came to the outside of the town.

It is now more than two o'clock in the middle of the night, and there are almost no people in the streets of the town. There are only many cars, cars, trucks, motorcycles, etc. parked on the roadside.

In addition, the street lights are still on, and the colored lights of some shop signs are constantly flashing, so even in the middle of the night, the young girl can still see the modern feasting scene in Shengpu Town.

"This is an electric light." Li Yun smiled slightly, "As the name suggests, it is an appliance that uses the power of lightning to emit light. How about it, magical?"

The ancients would never have thought that the lightning from the dark clouds could be surrendered, and it was also used as furniture for daily use!

The young girl walked forward without saying a word, but her eyes couldn't help but look around, looking at a four-wheel rear-wheel drive truck on the side of the road, she also reached out and touched it, as if she couldn't think of how this thing was started, why It has to be made into four wheels, and they are also full of steel.

Finally, the green girl looked up and stared at the illuminator on the roadside for a long time, turning her head along the wire, and saw a long electric current coming from a distance.

"Senior, can you feel the current in the wire?" Li Yun asked.

He has experience with this picture. Before, Princess Yongning just woke up from a deep sleep and was taken out of the ground by Li Yun and came to the city. She also looked at the telephone poles on the side of the road for a long time. The little princess heard that there was something flowing inside the wires. After something like lightning in the sky, there was still an incredible look on his little face, and he hugged Li Yun's arm tightly in fright, fearing that the lightning would suddenly burst out of the wire.

Qingnv is similar to Princess Yongning. She has never seen modern power equipment, but she has incomparable strength. Naturally, she can see through the metal strips wrapped in wires, and there is a steady stream of lightning flowing.

It's like... These lightnings came from far away, just to make this iron lamp-like thing on the roadside shine? !

"What kind of magic weapon is this?" The young girl finally couldn't help but asked Li Yun.

"hehe."

Li Yun chuckled, "Did you always see us holding a mobile phone when you were in the ancient city? The mobile phone is the thing that shines in your hand and can read the map."

Qingnv gave him a white glance, "Isn't that a magic weapon you refined? Now this street lamp is placed here without protective measures, can it be the same!"

Li Yun was stunned. Although she just wanted to understand, the young girl thought that those who could enter the ancient city were all "strong people", at least the strong people in the spiritual world, who could refine the magic weapon of mobile phones.

As a result, she went to the outside world to see that it was so numb. The "magic weapon" for electricity was placed on the side of the road. It didn't look like a rare thing. It was a gadget that could be seen everywhere on the street.

And... people in this era have changed a lot from dress to architecture.

Among other things, the solid ground under her feet has been seen by the young girl for a long time. She knows the composition of the ground material is a mixture of some stones and dust, but the young girl does not know why they can solidify into a long way. .

People in this era are so extravagant to pave the way with such a solid and flat thing? Is this kind of road all over the world? !

The young girl was indeed shocked. This is more powerful than those guys who used to move mountains and fill the sea to build a whole city directly on the moon, and it shocked her!

After all, no matter how powerful the spell is, it is impossible, or it will not make the ground of an ordinary small market tidy, the house will become solid, and it is impossible to make the street light so bright!

Chapter 2664: Records of Young Girls (Part 2)

This ancient aunt, uh, should it be called an ancient woman, or an ancient god? Ancient monsters?

Anyway, although the young girl still looks like an aunt, she doesn't give the impression that she is an aunt, but a woman who has a mysterious origin and has lived for a long time.

A woman with a little melancholy and sorrow, but at the same time a carefree personality.

Li Yun smiled slightly: "Senior, when you arrive in the real big city, I am afraid you will be even more surprised. We will live here tonight, and we will leave tomorrow."

The young girl didn't answer, she continued to look at the wires, and suddenly said: "You said if I look at this long line, what will happen?"

"...Don't!"

Li Yun hurriedly stopped her, and the young woman took a look. It is not a simple look. It is probably to pull the wire directly, or simply let the current pass through her body, and personally feel what kind of lightning is that can make the roadside iron lamp shine. Kind of.

High voltage electricity is deadly to ordinary people, but to ancient monsters that can soar into the sky without fear of lightning and thunderclouds, it is like scratching.

—High voltage refers to the current above 1000V, but the volt of a lightning bolt can often reach more than 100 million!

"Let's go, don't be in a daze."

Li Yun called on the young girl and walked towards the hotel. It was too late to know if the hotel in the town was still open.

As a result, before approaching the hotel, Li Yun saw a familiar shadow, wandering on the street in front of the hotel, waiting for something alone.

"An Xi." Li Yun couldn't help calling her.

"cloud!"

Tang Anxi turned her head, and a pleasant smile appeared on her beautiful face in an instant. Ruyan swooped over as if returning to the forest, and hugged him tightly.

Li Yun was moved in his heart. When he left the hotel, he told Tang Anxi that he didn't need to wait for him. As a result, the idiot not only waited, but also waited on the street. If it hadn't been said earlier, Li Yun suspected that she would go to the town. Outside, waiting in the direction of the ancient city.

It's like a watchman's stone.

"Okay, I'm back, I'll talk to you later."

Li Yun gently pushed her away, Tang Anxi let go of her hand reluctantly, and quickly saw Tang Anxi standing next to her.

"Husband, who is this aunt...?"

"Mother!?"

The green girl's forehead bounced with blue veins, gave her a look that wanted to eat people, stretched out her hand to volley a little, and sent a wave of fluctuations into Tang Anxi's mind.

Thus, Tang Anxi also remembered what had happened in the past five or six days.

"Ah, you, you, you are... I have seen you, we are in the ancient city..." Tang Anxi stammered in fright. If Li Yun were not by her side, she would have to hide away.

The aunt in front of her had been talking to her in the ancient city for the past few days, but she didn't remember it at all!

Just like a person in a nightmare, suddenly appearing in reality can scare people to death.

"Humph."

The young girl was too lazy to talk, and she walked out towards the stairs of the hotel, and said, "This is the inn? Hurry up and call the shop Xiaoer to come out and open a good room for me!"

Tang Anxi was stunned, how about this old monster... Hey, it seems that her character is indeed like this, in memory, when she was talking to her in the ancient city, she was like this.

Li Yun shrugged and took Tang Anxi upstairs.

The hotel owner has already fallen asleep, but quickly got up under Li Yun's money offensive. Under the money offensive, he opened a room for the young girl without ID registration. The premise is that the boss needs Li Yun's three people by 8 o'clock tomorrow morning. Leave, don't make things happen.

Chapter 2665: Messy

When Li Yun used her mobile phone to pay, Qingnv kept watching his actions, seeming to wonder why this mobile phone magic weapon could be used to replace gold and silver.

She didn't ask, and Li Yun didn't explain too much. After taking her into the room, Li Yun wanted to teach her to use modern furniture, but she glared at him: "Don't think of me as a fool. I see these things. You can see how to use it!"

Li Yun thought for a while, and that's right. She has the spirit to explore, and she is flexible, and she can always find the way to use the furniture. After all, modern furniture is very simple, that is, it is a matter of turning the switch.

"Sure, you can try it slowly, senior. It doesn't matter if it fails. I will pay the boss tomorrow like it is."

Li Yun led Tang Anxi to flash people, leaving the young girl alone to explore the usage of the furniture. If you have anything to do, I will talk about it tomorrow.

On the second day, Li Yun regretted why he was so mean, why did he say the last sentence?

After he knocked on the door of Qing Girl's room, he saw a stunned scene.

The floor fan fell on the ground. The three fan blades were neatly split into three parts. The incandescent lamp overhead was shattered. The ground was full of debris. There was a large white substance on the wall that was emitting the fragrance of shampoo; the room was full of water. The sound of the leaking faucet was heard from the bathroom, and I knew it was running all night without looking at it.

And that mysterious origin, it is said that she had chased down and killed Nuwa Empress, who claimed to be Su Daji, or Chang'e's rival of love, was sitting on a chair with her feet upright, and there was a bucket of instant noodles on the table next to her. The fragrance of the noodles.

"What are you doing?" The young girl was a little guilty by Li Yun's eyes, she bit her head and said, "You can't blame me, you are so weird!"

Li Yun twitched the corners of his mouth, and pointed his fingers at the three-lobed fan blades on the ground: "What's wrong, you can tell that this thing is used for cooling off at first glance? Why did you break it..."

"Why is it broken? It's not broken!" Qing Girl cried, "Can't this thing be dismantled? I think these three metal leaves can be dismantled!"

Li Yun: "..."

"Really can't be dismantled?"

"No! Who can dismantle the fan leaf!"

"whispering sound."

The green girl turned her head and her face was a little embarrassed: "This thing buzzes when it's turned on, and it blows up my hair. It can't be turned off no matter what. It made me angry, so I just grabbed it with my hand. Stop, then tear it down!"

Li Yun was speechless, and put his hand directly into the rotating fan, not afraid that the fan blade would cut off all your fingers!

"What about these?" Li Yun pointed to the shampoo on the wall again, "What are you doing? How did you paint the shampoo on the wall?"

At this moment, Tang Anxi appeared at the door, and her eyes widened as she saw the scene behind the room.

"Shampoo? What do you use to wash your hair?"

The young girl was very surprised. She stretched out her hand to scrape the shampoo that hadn't solidified on the wall, put it on her nose and smelled it: "This thing isn't perfume? I smell it very fragrant!"

"..."

Li Yun and Tang Anxi looked at each other, dare you to smell this as perfume?

"But it's just perfume, you can't put it on the wall!" Li Yun was unable to spit out.

The green girl gave him a strange look: "Aren't there a lot of solidified perfume on the wall?"

"..."

Yes, she mixed the white shampoo with the paint on the wall, thinking they were all the same.

Chapter 2666: It's not that the enemy doesn't get together

The only surprise was that the young girl would actually eat bubble noodles by herself, which was far beyond their expectations.

When she asked, the young girl replied that she saw the dry and shriveled instant noodles, plus the aroma of food from three packs of ingredients, and she knew that she had to soak in hot water to eat.

Li Yun didn't know what to complain about, so he could only call the boss and pay him 10,000 yuan.

Originally, Li Yun and Tang Anxi were also going to have breakfast, but the young girl would not eat instant noodles after eating two bites of instant noodles. She said that she would also go and see what people now have for breakfast.

So I took her to the breakfast stall on the side of the road. This time I finally didn't have to eat buns and soy milk. Instead, I ordered a bowl of dumplings, three rice rolls, and stacks of side dishes.

"What? It doesn't seem to have changed much, compared to what I ate in the palace." Qingnv finally regained her confidence.

"The palace? Which palace?"

"Di Xin, from the Shang Dynasty."

"...You really think of you as Su Daji!"

Li Yun couldn't help but spit out again.

When Tang Anxi heard these words, she was surprised again, and looked at Qing Girl with a weird expression. She is the Su Daji who is said to be no worse than the four beauties, who is known as the head of the concubine of the harem of the country and the people?

This rough skin, this sturdy waist, this careless and cheeky character... No, it's impossible!

How could she be Su Daji, a nine-tailed demon fox who has brought disaster to the country and the people! ?

"boss!"

When Tang Anxi was suspicious of his Three Views, He Shao rushed to him on a motorcycle, got out of the car, and said apologetically: "I'm sorry, I was going to arrive at 7 o'clock in the morning today. I didn't know what was going on last night, I fell asleep very late."

"fine."

"Uh, boss, shall we set off to the ancient city now?"

He Shao had forgotten everything again, and his mind was still stuck on the night when he first met Li Yun and Tang Anxi, thinking that he was going to be a guide this morning and lead the team to explore the ancient city.

"Not going, I'll explain to you later."

Li Yun glanced at Qing Girl. It is estimated that she would not relieve He Shao from the spiritual hint. Last night, it was estimated that Qing Girl saw Tang Anxi hug him, so she took action to relieve Tang Anxi's charm. She retrieved the memories of the past few days.

"explain?"

He Shao was stunned for a moment, looked at the young woman, and subconsciously asked: "Boss, this aunt is new to you... Huh? What am I trying to say? Why am I here? Who am I? I am. What are you doing? Me, me!"

He Shao didn't finish a sentence, and was glared by Qingnv. He suddenly turned into a headless fly, and forgot his own name.

For a long time, He Shaocai froze his figure, and after a little recollection, his eyes were full of horror at the young girl.

"That's the explanation." Li Yun gave him a rough explanation of what happened in the past few days. He Shao stayed in place. A few days have passed? No wonder his bank card has hundreds of thousands more!

"Beauty, morning."

At this moment, five more people came to the breakfast stall on the side of the road. Not to mention, it was the five tomb robbers that Li Yun had encountered many times before.

It was the third uncle who hit up the conversation still, with a grinning expression, and the eyes looking at Tang Anxi were full of fire.

"Uh."

After meeting this group of people repeatedly, Tang Anxi, who had retrieved his memories, didn't know what to say at this time. She subconsciously glanced at San Shu's hands, there were still scars left on them that she burned with flames yesterday.

This is really... it's not that friends don't get together.

Chapter 2667: Fire abilities

"Beauty? Why don't you talk."

The third uncle walked straight to Tang Anxi's table, looking at her with a frivolous attitude, and his eyes lit up: "Beauty, look down on Big Brother? Haha, don't look at Big Brother's hands hurt, but somewhere Okay, how about it? Do you want to be with Big Brother and me... well, hehe!"

Tang Anxi's expression remained unchanged, but a murderous intent was vaguely brewing, and asked him: "Do you know how your hands are on?"

"Huh?" The third uncle was shocked, "My hands? Beauty, do you still care about me? Big brother, I'm so happy, but it's strange to say that even the big brother didn't know how I was injured. It seems that I was injured while sleeping at night. The boiled water is hot, and it feels hot and painful when I wake up in the morning!"

Tang Anxi smiled sweetly, and San Shu and the surrounding men were all stared at by the beauty.

"Want to know how it was hurt? Come, hold my hand, and I'll tell you again."

"What? Beauty, are you so proactive? Brother, I'm so embarrassed!"

Sanshu looked surprised, and hurriedly went to hold Tang Anxi's two weak and boneless hands, his eyes were full of excitement, and his mind had already imagined the stage of having a child.

However.

"boom!"

At the moment when San Shu's hands were about to touch Tang Anxi's little hands, a flame suddenly burst out, engulfing San Shu's hands in an instant, and the astonishing heat directly scorched his arms, causing San Shu to connect. I couldn't make any screams, and fell directly to the ground hard.

The sudden change shocked all four of the tomb robbers. When they reacted, Tang Anxi had already thrown out a flaming whip, kicked Zhou Dashan's ribs off his chest, and punched him again. The clothes were ignited, and by the way, the ammunition in Zhou Dashan's gun was detonated by itself, triggering a series of follow-up reactions.

"Give it all to me, kneel down!"

One more leg flew out, Tang Anxi's long, slender legs were enveloped in a circle of flames, swept out, and knocked the two young men down.

In less than ten seconds, Tang Anxi, who was angry, knocked all the tomb robbers to the ground. The breakfast shop owner didn't even have time to put down the oil bottle in his hand, staring blankly at everything that happened suddenly.

"Shemale?" Qing Nu raised her eyebrows and glanced at Tang Anxi who was full of flames.

"What a ladyboy!"

He Shao suddenly became very excited, and said loudly: "The lady boss is a legendary supernatural person! What do you aunt know?!"

"Shut up." Tang Anxi stopped him, and offended this ancient aunt, isn't he looking for death?

"Yes, lady boss!" He Shao quickly bowed his head respectfully, thinking of something, and said: "Madam boss, I can testify later, it was their hands first!"

"no need."

Li Yun took out the phone, and he had to find Liao Hua's relationship to wipe Tang Anxi's ass, or he would have to call to record the transcript, and don't want to get out for a few days without using violent means.

"I'm sorry, husband~." Tang Anxi changed from the imposing flame goddess to a well-behaved little daughter-in-law, and apologized honestly.

"It's okay, it should be a lesson to them."

Li Yun said helplessly: "I have told you several times, don't always say sorry."

"Hehe, yes, husband~"

Tang Anxi became happy, and sat back in the chair to eat breakfast obediently, waiting for the police to come and clean up the mess.

As for the third uncle who fell on the ground and burned both arms, she was too lazy to take a look.

Chapter 2668: opportunity

After busying himself, He Shao took the initiative to find a rope to tie up the four tomb robbers, and then took the initiative to explain to the police.

The crowd onlookers added to their jealousy that Tang Anxi is a powerful supernatural person, so several civilians and police did not dare to come forward and arrest them for a while. Li Yun was able to get away only after Liao Hua's layers of relationships were found. Quickly left Katsuura Town.

"Goodbye boss, goodbye boss, I will go to Zhonghai City after a while!"

He Shaoan's service before and after the horse, bought three tickets to the provincial capital, and bought something to eat on the road. It can be said that he did all the things that a subordinate should do.

Yes, after Tang Anxi issued the flame ability to defeat the five tomb thieves, and after learning about what happened in the past few days, He Shao gritted his teeth and decided to take refuge in the boss's hands and work for her!

Although He Shao's vision is low, he has always been in the small town, but the recent incident on Penglai Island has also made him feel that a sense of crisis is approaching, and the fear of the imminent end has been covering the town inside and outside.

He didn't have a choice before, and he had no money and no abilities. He could only be anxious. He went online to read the news on Penglai Island every day, and watched the reporter's report on how many psychics appeared today and what kind of animals had mutated. Scary monster.

But now, it's different.

Leaning on the ancient city that suddenly appeared outside Shengpu Town, He Shao seized the opportunity and took refuge in Tang Anxi's hands. There is a hint of change in the future!

He Shao thinks he can't find a better choice than the boss Li Yun and the boss wife Tang Anxi.

Not only are they rich and can hire him as a guide at a price of 100,000 a day, but they also have the ability to crack the secrets of the ancient city (although Major General He is suspicious).

The most important thing is that the two are not the kind of good bosses who don't look like people under their hands, so why not worry about being sold.

The combination of various reasons led He Shao to make a decision quickly and proactively proposed to the proprietress that he wanted to take refuge in the future.

Surprisingly, the lady boss quickly agreed, but only gave him a call.

"Yun, I'm sorry, I made the decision privately."

Tang Anxi who got in the car showed the cute and pitiful white lotus expression again. Li Yun helplessly rubbed her head and said, "If you want to do something, do it, whether it's to stop or go to Penglai Island. Continue to look for opportunities and do what you want. I can give you money if you want, and I can introduce you to the Fairy Club if you want someone. They should be happy to help."

Speaking of the Fairy Club, Li Yun couldn't help but smile. The girl Jin Liuli is now enjoying herself on Penglai Island. I heard that the Fairy Club has established a firm foothold and has established business relationships with many wealthy individuals around the world, specifically purchasing the spirits produced on Penglai Island. Fruit and monster meat, sold to the world's richest people.

Selling rich and expensive luxury goods, isn't the money coming in a rush?

"Husband, I love you~~"

Tang Anxi yelled sweetly with the most touching voice she could make. Everyone on the bus looked over. After seeing that this was a combination of handsome men and beautiful women, she could only envy and envy.

Tang Anxi took the initiative to throw into Li Yun's embrace, and her heart was full of happiness.

She thought that even if she didn't mention her husband's rescue, her husband is a gentle man who is rare in the world.

She was even rejoicing that the man named Wang Hao that night was lucky enough to have the money to order her to accompany her, so she met Li Yun...

Her first eighteen-year-old life was very hard, but God gave her a ray of light, and she happened to seize this opportunity to change her destiny.

Chapter 2669: Apply for a maid

If she hadn't met Li Yun, what would she look like now?

Tang Anxi, who was lying in Li Yun's arms, couldn't help thinking, probably she is still in ktv now, of course, she may also meet a disgusting boss who wants to buy her with money, and now she may have changed a job.

After she heard about Penglai Island, she estimated that she would treat it as indifferent news. For example, she was numb enough alive and didn't care about the end of the world.

Even if she wanted to go to Penglai Island, she didn't have the self-help of Li Yun at the time, and she couldn't afford the cost of a ferry ticket at the time. It was even more unlikely that she would go to Penglai Island to get the power, and then grab the Lingguo and sold it for 30 million US dollars.

Everything is because I met Li Yun!

"Okay, sit quietly and stop making trouble."

Patting his head in his arms, Li Yun chuckled softly: "Wait when we return to Zhonghai City, we will find another day to play to make up for what happened last night."

Tang Anxi blushed pretty face, and gave an inaudible hum.

Originally, after the matter was over, she and her husband had to take the last step last night, but because of the relationship between the young girl, naturally they couldn't proceed. They had to wait until the young girl was sent back.

"Husband~" Tang Anxi whispered, "Tell me about the family's affairs? Including my sister, Fang Xue, and the little princess. I want to know more...can you?"

"sure."

Li Yun agreed in one fell swoop. It would be good if she knew more about it, so as not to go to extremes afterwards, it would be best to become friends with Fang Xue and others, so that she could get along with each other in harmony.

The good relationship between the harem is something that Li Yun is happy to see. Of course, he has a little hobby, that is, he likes to watch two cute girls post each other, and the flowers bloom together.

Especially these two lovely girls are still his girlfriends. Li Yun can stand beside him, or know the "posting" relationship between them from various channels.

Finally join in.

This is more emotional, Li Yun not only does not object, but also strongly supports the mutual posting between girls.

For example, when Fang Xue and Li Feng were in Taihuang Mountain, they were reluctant to live or die at first, but they quickly surrendered under Li Yun's teasing.

For another example, Hu Xiaomeng and Zhao Tianfeng, the two of them are even more advanced than Fang Xue and Li Feng. They have already reached the stage of watching a movie together. Next time Li Yun is expected to see them meet in a hotel to rest?

Excited thinking about it, Li Yun showed a smirk, and couldn't wait to see the follow-up development of Xiaomeng and Tianfeng.

"what?"

Lying in Li Yun's arms while listening to his narration, Tang Anxi realized something and suddenly raised her head and looked at him with shiny eyes: "Husband, your house is now recruiting maids?"

"Yeah." Li Yun was a little surprised: "You don't want to apply for a job, do you? Or do you think someone chooses a recommendation?"

"...I'm going to apply!"

"Hehe, how about pretending to apply for the job and seeing them first?"

Tang Anxi was very excited, looking at him expectantly.

Li Yun thought a little, and quickly understood what Tang Anxi meant.

She originally wanted to make a little career before she officially went to Li Yun's house to meet the women, but it was probably because she wanted to meet the women and let her identity be exposed in advance, so she thought of acting as a maid first. He went to Li Yun's home as his identity, and waited for him to become more positive step by step in the future.

"Okay, let me make arrangements for you. From now on, your identity will be my personal secretary and the personal maid of the little princess in Villa 36 of Huangting Mountain."

"Yes~~Boss~"

Chapter 2670: Young Girl's Surprise (Part 1)

Personal secretaries are naturally different from ordinary secretaries.

Tang Anxi even made up for the shameful picture that in Li Yun's company in the future, she squatted to serve Li Yun while holding documents to give him a report.

Or in the small lounge behind the chairman's office...

The bus starts and goes to the provincial airport.

Li Yun saw a surprised expression on the face of the young lady in the seat next to him. He also looked at the position of the car's engine. It is estimated that Shenmin glanced at the sound of the engine's booming start. He felt that the iron box was actually "exploded". Isn't it surprising to act as the power of horses?

Li Yun thought a little amused that the modern engine is really amazing. The air and fuel continue to ignite and explode, but they remain in the equilibrium stage, thus pushing the car forward.

When the ancients knew the principle of the engine, of course they would be dumbfounded.

"Senior, she..."

Tang Anxi also found it interesting, and Li Yun and Li Yun observed the changes in the expression of the young girl along the way.

After the car entered the town's high-speed toll booth, the young woman focused on the endless road under the wheels of the car, staring at it unblinkingly. You don't need to guess that she must be quite shocked by the flatness. And such a long road.

Occasionally, the young girl will also ask some questions.

"These things called wires...Why is there so much lightning in them? A steady stream of them?"

"It depends on power stations... hydropower and firepower, or nuclear power plants, which use huge water currents as power to cut magnetic fields to generate currents... Do you know this principle?"

"...I can directly raise my hand to summon Thunder, it doesn't need to be so troublesome."

Qingnv rolled his eyes and made Li Yun smile.

Want to show off in front of the ancient monster, still a bit worse.

"How much money does it cost to spend a few hundred miles?" The young girl couldn't help asking again, making everyone next to her look at her with weird expressions.

Silver two? Where's the crew from, filming?

"You can only build half a kilometer a month."

"scare!"

The people around looked at Li Yun again with horror.

"A month's salary can build half a kilometer of highway?!" A young man with a mobile phone couldn't help it, and said sarcastically, "Do you know how much the cost of one meter of highway is? Your salary is probably even worse. You can't make it for half a meter, and you don't even brag about it!"

Li Yun said lightly: "What highway cost 10 billion a meter?"

Ten billion.....

Everyone was speechless. With a monthly salary of 10 billion, you still use this kind of bus? Isn't there a bodyguard to accompany you when you go out and a luxury car to accompany you? Even private jets can easily raise a few!

The young girl looked at the young man and asked him: "How much money can you make every month?"

"No, less than ten thousand." The young man's face was a little unnatural.

Nine thousand is less than 9,000, and three thousand is less than 10,000, but the gap is completely different.

Qingnv glanced at him and pointed at Li Yun: "I earn 10 million a month, and he pays me a salary."

"What are you kidding?" The young man was shaking all over with anger. His salary is less than five thousand six thousand a month. Now these two people are bragging about ten million a month?

Where do you go!

Li Yun smiled without saying a word, just took out his cell phone and made a call.

If I remember correctly, Baiyun Technology also opened a branch in the provincial capital of this province.

Three hours later.

When the car arrived, people in a car watched the bragging three people who were picked up by two luxury BMW cars worth five million, leaving a group of dumbfounded people.

The young man who mocked before had a fiery pain on his face.
