

Godly Choice 2681

Chapter 2681: Bastard kid

"You, this, bastard, bastard, kid!!!"

Concubine Wan Qing (main body) gritted her teeth and glared at her: "I decided to take you back!!!"

Concubine Wan Qing (incarnation) did not show a scared expression, but smiled mysteriously, turned her head and said to the four maids: "You turn around."

"Yes, miss."

The four of them turned around before reacting: It was not the order from the young lady herself!

"What are you doing? Turn your head quickly and don't listen to her!"

"Asshole, don't come and pester me, let go!"

"You are the bastard, don't pester me!"

The young lady's voice sounded again, and the four maids hurriedly turned around, but they saw a **** pulse.

The two look exactly the same, both young ladies with naked bodies, are fighting on the red carpet.

Both of them were glaring at each other, both of them were holding each other's face, both of them were... clutching each other tightly with both hands and feet.

It was exactly like two snakes fighting together.

"Let go of me, you bastard!"

"You **** just let me go!"

"Eh? Which one is the young lady?"

"I, I am Concubine Wan Qing!"

"You are fake, how could I call myself Concubine Wan Qing?"

"You are a fake, you are an incarnation without a name, so I say that I am Concubine Wan Qing!"

"Ahhhhh, I am so angry! Little Green, Little Blue, Little Zi, Little Qing, all come over to help me suppress this bastard!"

"Little Green, I usually love you the most, come and help me!"

The four maids dropped their jaws directly to the ground.

The two young ladies scrambled together on the red carpet in the cave, constantly rubbing each other, the picture is very beautiful, but there is a hint of... funny?

Anyway, no one can beat anyone, sometimes it is the young lady who takes the avatar, and sometimes the avatar presses the young lady, holding her hands triumphantly.

—The four maids can't tell who is who at all. Anyway, it is the lady and the avatar.

"Miss....."

The four were at a loss. They didn't know what to do. They could only watch the two pure and beautiful ladies wrestling on the blanket, clutching each other with their four hands, tangling each other with their four legs, biting their teeth and pressing their bodies. All the moves that a woman can use in a fight are used.

"Ah, bastard, you... **** it!"

Finally, with a special defeating the town uniform, one Wan Qing concubine defeated another Wan Qing concubine, with a triumphant smile on her beautiful face.

The loser can only express humiliation to admit defeat:

"enough!"

The following Concubine Wan Qing resisted the shame, kicked her hard, and wanted to kick the avatar down: "I won't take you back, you get me down quickly!"

Concubine Wan Qing (the embodiment of victory) smiled triumphantly, "Concubine Wan Qing, you are exactly the same as me, but you are defeated, why?

Because you idiot won't take advantage of your own advantages at all, let alone face your deep desires, so you always look forward and backward when you do things. It seems that you are sitting behind and in charge of everything. In fact, you can't influence anything.

You think that you have a very good relationship with Li Yun, Wanfaxian, and even a few Lords, but in reality? "

Concubine Wan Qing's pupils suddenly shrank.

"You can't do anything, you are nothing in their hearts!"

Concubine Wan Qing (incarnation) pressed her shoulders with both hands, leaned forward, and looked at her with beautiful eyes exactly like her: "Concubine Wan Qing, I want you to look inside!"

Chapter 2682: The battle between body and avatar

After saying this, the avatar slowly lowered his head and bit on the shoulder of Concubine Wan Qing.

Teeth pierced into the snow-white skin, and a trace of blood flowed from the snow-white shoulder of the six-door saint, and was sucked and eaten by the incarnation of the demon who was exactly like her.

"You **** incarnation, actually... Damn it, ah!"

Concubine Wan Qing was ashamed and angry.

"I just... let you look directly at your inner desire. Hope!"

Soon, the two scuffled together again.

Only this time, the fight between the two was prolonged dozens of times.

Every attack, a punch, a kick, a blow, and a sword, the process is extremely slow.

Not fierce at all.

But it is very intense, containing the unique Taoist rhyme that belongs to the six-door saints.

And these two people can almost be called Concubine Wan Qing, they are also six saints, so the fight between each other seems particularly tragic.

They are the people who know each other best, no, the incarnation is exactly the same as the body, and even both sides can feel what the other side thinks.

Every time the two sides made a move, they were easily penetrated.

People, the hardest thing to defeat is yourself.

Concubine Wan Qing faces this problem: She wants to defeat her incarnation.

The four maids blushed and bowed their heads shyly, not daring to look at the war between them, the body and the incarnation.

This war seems to be related to the issues of who is the primary and secondary, strong or weak, attacking, and being used. Fortunately, Concubine Wan Qing was aroused with a strong eagerness to win, and quickly grasped the majesty that belongs to the body, and slammed everything about the incarnation Fight back.

Fifteen minutes later, seeing that the fight between the lady and the avatar did not stop, the four maids looked at each other and slowly withdrew from the cave, waiting outside for the lady to defeat the avatar, and master this rebellious avatar.

They are not fools, they have already seen that the incarnation split by the young lady is extraordinary, almost having the same strength as the young lady.

This also means that the power of the future lady is direct*2, plus the power that can be exerted by the combination of the two saints of the Void Return Realm, which is enough to make the Lord retreat for it!

"Sister Xiaoqing, will we be able to walk in the martial arts with our chest straight in the future?!" Xiaolu was very excited, although her hands and feet were soft and her blushing heartbeat because of the fight between the two young ladies just now, it does not prevent her from doing it now. Miss is happy.

Xiaoqing gave her a charming and charming eyes, "Can't we just walk straight now? If we have time to think about it, we might as well think about seeing Li Yun in the future...No, it's meeting...Auntie."

Xiaoqing's face turned red, and he muttered: "After seeing your uncle, you should think about how to face him!"

The three women were shy at the same time.

The two young ladies who are fighting in the cave are deeply rooted in Li Yun, and something will definitely happen in the future.

And they are the same as the young lady, and in the future, they will definitely marry the uncle and be his concubine.

"What's the matter with this!" Xiaolan endured his shame, biting her thin lip and said: "My aunt is very good, otherwise the lady won't like him, so let's relax. Even if the two young ladies do that, Uncle... Uncle will definitely not mind."

Thinking of this, the four women felt relieved.

It's just that they waited outside for two hours, and they still haven't seen the two ladies in the cave summoning them.

Three hours later.

The battle of primary and secondary in the cave finally ended, and Concubine Wan Qing finally defeated the reborn incarnation, confirming her majesty as the ontology.

Chapter 2683: Let go of the sea of knowledge

"Okay, I surrender, you will still be and be the main body in the future."

Concubine Wan Qing (incarnation) took a big breath, lying on the red carpet, her black hair, which was exactly the same as Concubine Wan (main body), scattered messily behind her head, and the charming posture made the concubine Wan Qing (main body) see her. All were slightly lost.

Even if I have been fighting nonsense with her for three hours.

"Huh! Do you know how good I am?"

Concubine Wan Qing (the body) snorted triumphantly, stretched out her hand to pinch the avatar's cheek, looked at her coquettish face, and said even more triumphantly: "It is indeed my avatar. She looks so good-looking, no matter how old or young you see me. Zhen Rong, I'm afraid you will be stunned, right? The fellow of Sage Fanqing can't compare to me!"

The avatar directly gave her a weak eyes, and asked in a hoarse voice: "Now you can face your own desires. Can you look at it? To put it bluntly, you just want to be with my husband!"

"Your husband?" Consort Wan Qing raised her eyebrows, "Are you referring to me?"

The two are now acting between the husband and wife, and Concubine Wan Qing admits herself to her husband.

"It's pretty beautiful. My husband is of course Li Yun!" Concubine Wan Qing (incarnation) said naturally. Her memories and emotions come from Concubine Wan Qing. It is natural to like Li Yun.

Moreover, she doesn't want to change this. Consort Wan Qing is her body, and Li Yun is her husband. These are the deep memories and emotions that are carved into her heart for survival.

"Do you want to grab your husband too?!"

After three hours of venting, Concubine Wan Qing was particularly capable of fighting, and wanted to subdue her incarnation.

"Don't, let me rest."

The incarnation stopped her, and Concubine Wan Qing sneered her lips, sat on her waist, looked at the face exactly like her, and did not speak for a long time.

"Heh." A smile appeared at the corner of the avatar's mouth, "I know what you are thinking, and you also know what I am thinking. Since you don't worry about me, come on, and I will show you the depths of my heart!"

At the same time, she also has to look at the deep inside of Concubine Wan Qing.

Concubine Wan Qing gave her a white look, but also knew that this avatar was unlikely to be taken back again, only to confirm whether she had a rebellious heart.

"Be happy, let me go into the depths of your sea of knowledge."

Concubine Wan Qing whispered, leaning down, pressing her forehead against the forehead of the avatar, and her nose against her nose. The two slowly closed their eyes at the same time, and released their respective seas of consciousness to let each other assimilate into.

boom!

The sea of consciousness of the two shook at the same time. If either side had a nasty thought at this time, as long as the thought moved slightly, they could seize the other's body and merge the two into one.

Concubine Wan Qing gained the incomparable power of the avatar, and the avatar was anti-guest. From then on, she was the only one, but there was no Concubine Wan Qing!

It's just that neither of them did that, allowing each other to swim in the sea of their own knowledge.

"..."

Consort Wan Qing felt that she was crazy, and the more she looked at this avatar, the more incredible she felt.

Why did she just practice a technique, but created a person who is almost exactly the same as her? !

This is even more outrageous than having a baby!

The child born will take more than ten years to grow up, but this incarnation of her has changed, and immediately has the same cultivation base and strength as hers.

Even more of her own power!

"Nine Nether Claws? The body of the demon? No, smelly girl, you have more spells in the world than mine!"

Chapter 2684: The goddess sitting on the lotus platform

Concubine Wan Qing opened her eyes and twisted her avatar's face furiously—because she didn't name her, Consort Wan Qing called her a stinky girl.

"Concubine Wan Qing, you really are an idiot!"

The avatar gave her a roll of eyes, and pointed to her smooth forehead: "Look again, I know that there is something in the depths of the sea, and the place that is different from you appears because of it."

"thing?"

Concubine Wan Qing pressed her forehead to her forehead again, the two of them breathed together, and soon the knowledge of the sea merged together again, and both sides could feel all the other's thoughts and memories.

Concubine Wan Qing went deep into the sea of knowledge, and finally saw a different place.

A woman.

In other words, a vague phantom of a woman.

To be more precise, it is a figure of a slim and slender woman sitting on a white lotus platform, looking very sacred and solemn, like a goddess!

"What is this?!" Concubine Wan Qing had a thought in her mind, received by the avatar herself, and gave her another thought: "I don't know, ask Li Yun."

"Li Yun? Why do you ask that guy?"

"You are so stupid. He gave you the incarnation of the demon. He also knows a lot about the demon. Who do you not find him? Find our master? It's not that I have her everywhere, she probably knows less than you. "

Concubine Wan Qing was so stupefied that she couldn't speak, and if someone scolded her, she had already had a thousand ways to shut her up.

But the avatar was almost identical to her, and the method that the avatar came up with was almost the best way that Concubine Wan Qing could think of.

"You don't trust Master?" Concubine Wan Qing sensed the implicit meaning in the avatar's words.

"Are you asking yourself? Or answering yourself?" The incarnation asked her back, making Concubine Wan Qing silent.

Naturally, her master can be trusted. Although the holy mother-in-law did not formally accept her as a disciple, she is the only one among the six gates who can let her put her guard down. Concubine Wan Qing can easily sleep in the other's hut without having to accept her. Fear of being attacked.

only.....

"Master has something to hide from us." The incarnation helped her and finished: "After taking the medicine that Li Yun gave, Master recovered from his injuries and became younger, but at that time you also confirmed one thing: Consort Wan Qing, you and I look very similar to Master!"

"We, probably her daughter, or her relatives, she must know about your life experience!"

"Stop talking!" Concubine Wan Qing yelled. The mysterious woman sitting on the lotus platform in front of her didn't know where she came from, so she went to investigate Master again?

"in addition!"

The avatar said word by word: "Our appearance is very similar to the saint of the Hidden Sacred Valley, the Sage of Fanqing, and more alike than our sisters. This is one of the reasons why you have not dared to appear in front of Li Yun with your true colors!"

"...Don't say it." Consort Wan Qing was already weak.

She looks similar to the Saintess of the Hidden Sacred Valley, the pretending to be noble and arrogant woman. This is simply the biggest stain on her as a Saintess of the Six Dao Sects.

Liudaomen told her since she was a child that you and the Saintess of the Hidden Sacred Valley are mortal enemies, and you can kill each other without hesitation when you see her in the future.

But what?

At the moment when she saw the Saint Fanqing, Concubine Wan Qing almost screamed out of form: The other party's face is too similar to her!

The temperament is completely different, but the looks are very similar.

Two natural rivals, but they look like sisters, how can Concubine Wan Qing accept it?

"Asshole girl, don't look at it!"

Concubine Wan Qing violently withdrew from the incarnation of Zhihai, leaving a sentence: "Anyway, it is the practice method that Li Yun gave me. It shouldn't be a problem, so be it!"

Chapter 2685: My name, Wan Qingya

Concubine Wan Qing (incarnation) had a successful smile at the corner of her mouth, and finally made her confess her trust in Li Yun!

The two withdrew from the state of soul mingling. Concubine Wan Qing called the maid outside the cave to come in, let them serve her and dress in the avatar, and said: "From now on, this guy is the same as me, and her words are equal to mine."

"what!"

The four maids were surprised, more surprised than seeing the scars left by the two girls dotted on the red carpet.

After all, the remnant is just a comfort between the girls, it's nothing, they also do these things occasionally, but the young lady (or incarnation?) doesn't this sentence mean that the two young ladies are the same from now on? !

"Ah for what?"

Concubine Wan Qing (incarnation) stretched out a comfortable lazy waist, did not care that her figure was exposed, and smiled and said to the four women: "From today on, this guy is the same as me. Her words are my words, and my words are still mine. If her words are different from mine, then my words are still mine. Don't listen to her!"

Talking...

The four maids fainted.

Concubine Wan Qing glared at her: "You should be talking about tongue twisters! I am the body, you are the incarnation. If you don't obey me, I won't teach you anymore!"

"Come on!" The avatar stood out provocatively, "I'm afraid you won't succeed!"

Concubine Wan Qing: "..."

Her head hurts.

It's as if you suddenly split into a person who knows everything about you and is still antagonizing you everywhere, too annoying.

"That's right." The avatar suddenly slapped his hands, "Since I am different from you idiot, then I should have a name too, right? Li Qingfei?"

Li, Qing concubine? !

The four maids were dumbfounded.

Isn't it that after an ancient woman married, she had the same family name as her husband?

"No!" Concubine Wan Qing refused decisively, "Since you are my incarnation, of course you have to have the same surname as me."

"what is it call?"

The avatar showed a sly smile that succeeded in scheming. She wanted to get a name.

"Just call... Wan Qingya!"

"Well, I will be called Wan Qingya from now on!"

In Zhonghai City, Li Yun received the prompt from the system, obtained the full favorability of Wan Qingya, and received a small red envelope.

At the same time, he said with a dazed expression: Who is Wan Qingya? Is it because the cheating system prompts an error, calling Concubine Wan Qing Ya?

Or to say that the real name of Concubine Wan Qingya is actually called Qingya Wan? !

Li Yun, who didn't understand the inside story, simply picked up the phone and made a call. The result showed that the connection was unavailable, and it seemed that he was no longer within the signal range. He had to give up and continue to swing with the twin sister and the little princess.

By the way, rest with Mrs. Li Feng in the evening.

"Wan Qingya?" The name Wan Qingya showed a sudden smile, "It turns out that Concubine Wan Qingya always wanted to be an elegant lady!"

"Less long-winded."

Concubine Wan Qing stood up faintly, Chiguo's jade feet stepped on the ground of the cave, but there was no trace of dust, her beautiful face showed the lazy posture of flowers after the rain, and the four maids were all dumbfounded. .

"Cloth me." Concubine Wan Qing told the four people. She didn't mind being seen by these four maids seeing her making the incarnation of Qing Ya and the three-hour process of enjoying Wan Qingya. These four people were firmly controlled by her. It is impossible to betray in this life.

Of course, their loyalty will be very strong even if they are not controlled.

"Yes, miss!"

Chapter 2686: Big incident

"What happened during my two months of retreat?"

Concubine Wan Qing opened her arms and let the maids Xiao Lan and Xiao Lv wait on her to put on complicated dresses. On her white jade-like body, the traces of fighting Wan Qingya had been cleansed by spiritual power, and she was restored to her beauty. appearance.

The same is true for Wan Qingya, her habit is very similar to that of Concubine Wan Qing, so Xiaoqing and Xiaozi dress her.

Not surprisingly, when the two are together in the future, the four maids will serve them separately. When the two move separately in the future, they will also bring two maids separately, and then through makeup, the two maids will continue to change Yan Yan, excuse the other two to do certain things, so that you can reach the point of being fake.

It is guaranteed that no one will find that "Wan Qing Concubine" is actually Wan Qing Ya!

"Uh, many, many things have happened."

The oldest maid, Xiao Lan, said, among the four maids, Lan Qing and Green Zi are two pairs of twins. Xiao Lan and Xiao Qing are eighteen years old, and Xiao Lu and Xiao Zi are only seventeen years old. All four of them are god-cultivating twins. The cultivation base from the early to mid stage of the environment.

"What's the matter?" Concubine Wan Qing asked casually after putting on the complicated and beautiful clothes, "By the way, is there anything about that guy in Zhonghai City? Have you killed a few people from six doors recently?"

When Concubine Wan Qing wanted to come, he would have been in retreat for so long, Li Yun would definitely clashed with Liudaomen, and his strength had grown so fast that he might have been able to contend with the strong in the Void Returning Realm.

Wan Qingya gave her a funny look: "Now you can rest assured that I will help you and don't worry that Li Yun can beat you."

"You? You like that guy so shamelessly, would you help me?" Concubine Wan Qing did not blame Wan Qingya for peeking at her memory. After all, she also checked Wan Qingya's thoughts and thoughts anytime and anywhere, and the two were almost indifferent. each other.

"Hehe, who is right? Maybe after I meet the little handsome guy, I will join hands with you to take him down, and then imprison him so that he can only be with us for the rest of his life. That would be great."

"...You are crazy."

Wan Qingya rolled her eyes and didn't bother to pay attention to her anymore, and continued to ask, "What has happened recently?"

"Yes, it's a very big thing!" Xiaolan hesitated.

"Hidden Sacred Valley is at war with us?"

"no."

"Could it be that Li Yun got the **** woman in the Hidden Sacred Valley?"

"...Miss, it's Penglai Island! Aura exploded on Penglai Island, and now people all over the world can practice!"

"!!!"

The dressed concubine Wan Qing and Qing Ya, two coquettish women who were exactly the same, showed shocked expressions on their faces that were as beautiful as fire and faintly smelled of innocence.

"Little Lan, are you kidding me?!"

"No, miss, now the whole world has spread, this matter is very, very big." Xiaolan said quickly.

"Yes, yes." Her sister Xiaoqing confirmed: "Miss, Penglai Island, the former Haowei Island, has become very large, and many small islands have risen in the Pacific Ocean. At the same time, it is spread all over the world. Inside, there are also many ancient relics emerging, and oh, there are also many super powers appearing, and some of them are no worse than the monks in the Qi Refining Period!"

Concubine Wan Qing was completely stupid, and looked at each other with Wan Qingya. Both of them couldn't believe that so many things happened during their retreat.

Enough to describe it as ups and downs.

Chapter 2687: Saint conspiracy

"Quickly tell me the detailed process!" Realizing that she was out of touch with the times, Consort Wan Qing said as she ordered, and walked out of the cave, ordering the two maids to clean up everything in the cave and prepare to leave here.

After listening to what happened, she and Wan Qingya couldn't recover for a long time.

"Smelly girl." Consort Wan Qing stood outside the cave, watching the setting sun, and said quietly: "The new era has arrived, what are you going to do in the future?"

"Call me Wan Qingya!" With her slender fingers, Wan Qingya picked up her hair tossed by the mountain breeze, showing a charming smile: "How to do it? Of course it is to turn the world upside down. I want to let those old monsters. , I regret showing that squinting expression in front of us!"

Concubine Wan Qing clutched her belly and laughed, tears almost streaming out, "You guy is even more arrogant than me... But, this place is where the blood soul ancestor lived in seclusion."

"Just take him for the operation?" Wan Qingya showed a bloodthirsty expression, her pink tongue licked the corner of her mouth, she couldn't wait to try the blood.

"It's awkward to say what to do or not to do." Consort Wan Qing looked disgusted. "It should be us, as saints, to give orders to the blood soul ancestors, if you don't follow-kill!"

"Hahaha, go quickly."

The four maids behind him were dumbfounded.

Two young ladies with beautiful faces and enchanting figures, flying side by side, intimately killed the blood soul ancestor.

The two Void Returning Realm powerhouses joined forces at the same time, and they are connected with each other, and they are practicing the techniques exclusively for the saint woman. How much change will the two of them bring to the six sects?

If the six Lords learn that the saint is divided into two, will they be scared?

The four women looked at each other, and there was obvious excitement in their eyes. They couldn't wait to see the day when the two young ladies came to the world and completely controlled the six gates! !

"Miss, Miss, wait for Xiao Zi!"

"Second Miss? Xiao Zi, tell me, who is the Second Miss?"

"Of course it's you!"

"Consort Wan Qing, do you want to spend another three hours in the cave?"

"I'm still afraid that you won't make it? But, are you afraid that Li Yun you love will be jealous when you know?"

"Hehe, you still don't know what that guy likes?"

The two young ladies are noisy and make the maids look embarrassed. Is this really a communion?

When Concubine Wan Qing and Qing Ya slaughtered the Quartet and conquered all the demons and ghosts, Li Yun enjoyed the blessings of the Qi people at home.

During the day, I took my twin sister, the little princess, Li Feng, and the ancient aunt, the young girl, to visit various attractions in Zhonghai City.

The eldest young girl played the most crazy. She wanted to try everything modern when she saw it. She ate two big buckets of popcorn while she was watching a movie.

But she was not useless. After learning about Princess Yongning's situation, she taught her a special set of cultivation methods. As long as Princess Yongning runs this technique, she can stay in a state of vigor for a period of time without being lethargic in the morning.

Of course, there will be some small backlashes in the exercises, which will make her need more sleep to replenish energy after it is over. When I go back at 8 o'clock in the evening, I almost fall asleep on the bed after taking a shower.

Li Yun had a feeling that Qingnv knew why Princess Yongning had such a weird performance, but she refused to say it.

Every time I ask her, I always talk about him, and Li Yun can only give up.

"Caiwei, I will report to the new school tomorrow, are you nervous?"

"Brother who is not nervous, sister Mingzhu has taken us to school a few days ago and met with the new teacher!"

"Well, go to bed early tonight, and my brother will drive you there tomorrow!"

"Hee hee, okay~~~ Brother, kiss and sleep again."

Chapter 2688: New article

Happy days always pass quickly.

On September 1, when the summer vacation ended, teachers and students from elementary schools to universities across the country returned to school. You could see students wearing school uniforms and carrying schoolbags everywhere in the streets.

Many people return to school after a two-month long vacation. After seeing familiar classmates and teachers, they feel as if they are separated from each other.

Especially the Penglai Island incident a month ago, and the supernatural beings and monster attacks that have been seen everywhere on the Internet this month, the first forest appeared in the North and South poles, the tropical rain forest has become a forbidden area for humans, and millions of small islands have emerged from the sea.

A lot of weird news from the past has been pouring out one after another. Even Huang Xuanguo's officials, from the capital to the local area, are propagating that the wild has become very unsafe, and the rate of animal mutation is getting faster and faster. Non-lethal plants have also begun to become aggressive, so people try not to go to the wild, even if they are traveling in scenic spots, they must go to scenic spots that have passed safety certification.

and many more.

A lot of news will make people around the world panic at the beginning, but after a month, everyone seems to be used to it?

At least life is still going on, and the mortgage must continue to be paid. The work is still 996. Except for occasionally heard that some people have gained abilities, they directly have the dragon group (full name: Huang Xuanguo Guardian Dragon and Reiki Recovery Research Group) established by the country. Except for getting rid of 996 life, the others are no different.

There are no monsters that destroy the sky and the sun, nor do you see supernatural beings making waves. If you live in a big city, you can hardly feel the change.

But 7.5 billion people all over the world also know that the earth has become different, and over time, it will become more and more different.

"Brother, hurry up and downstairs~~!"

Caixia in the lobby on the first floor of the villa made a trumpet with her small hands and shouted at the third floor.

Of course the little princess didn't get up, but as long as the door was closed tightly, this sound still didn't wake her up.

The only one who was awakened was the aunt who was sleeping on the second floor: Qingnv.

"Okay, OK, just come down."

Soon after Caixia heard the sound, she saw her brother bring her sister Li Feng and sister Fang Xue downstairs. The two sisters' charming and beautiful faces were red, and the eyes showed amorous feelings. You don't need to guess to know them. What has gone through.

"Bad brother, bully sisters early in the morning!"

Caixia's words made Li Feng and Fang Xue blush.

"Your brother is indeed a big bad guy, and he has been bullying!"

Fang Xue gave Li Yun a coquettish eye, and took Li Feng's little hand and walked out: "Go Xiao Fengfeng, ignore this guy, let's report!"

Li Yun is very innocent. He was a little greedy because he thought that he would not see Li Feng for a week. How could he be blamed?

Li Feng applied for the Directing Department of Zhonghai Theater Academy, which was different from Li Feng, Fang Xue, Gong Qingyu, Liu Xianxian, and Xiao Mingzhu who was waiting outside the door.

Later, Li Feng drove Fang Xue, while Li Yun drove Xiao Mingzhu's car. First, he sent the two twin sisters to the noble middle school to report.

Just going outside, seeing the silver-white car that Xiao Mingzhu drove, which looked extremely luxurious and extravagant, at least a luxury car that started in ten million, Li Yun showed a helpless expression: "Mingzhu, do you need such a grandeur? "

Chapter 2689: Start of school

Xiao Mingzhu and Li Feng greeted the two girls and watched them drive out of the villa first, then turned their heads and gave Li Yun a blank eye: "Do you think I want to be ostentatious? If Caiwei and Caixia go to an ordinary school, I will definitely not drive my car, just let your brother drive a car.

But the school you are going to attend is a foreign language middle school, and it is still a junior high school. I am driving a luxury car to support you! "

The two sisters were scared, how good is the Foreign Language Middle School? When they went to go through the enrollment procedures a few days ago, they didn't feel much about it.

Seeing that they didn't believe it, Xiao Mingzhu greeted them in the car and explained with a smile: "Foreign Language Middle School and High School have introduced some talented students from ordinary families, but every student in the Junior Middle School and Elementary School is from a good background. Zhonghai City has a net worth of hundreds of millions of dollars in real estate alone, and their annual income starts at tens of millions. The education they receive is completely different from that of ordinary families.

Some students will inevitably be arrogant, and they will ignore and reject you when they know that you are from a bad background. Therefore, your sister, I drove a luxury car specially to cheer for you, so that those little ghosts dare not despise you! "

Li Yun just understood now.

This matter must be done by Xiao Mingzhu.

Firstly, the Xiao family is one of the top richest people in Zhonghai City. Secondly, Xiao Mingzhu's reputation is also big enough. In the foreign language middle school, there is still a prestige of a senior sister. As long as she shows up, others will see Caiwei and Caixia's family background. I felt a sense of awe and didn't dare to laugh at the sisters anymore because of their possible behaviors.

It can be said that Xiao Mingzhu has been very considerate for the sisters.

"Thank you Sister Mingzhu!" x2

The twins thanked Xiao Mingzhu in a sweet voice at the same time: "Okay, okay, who made me owe your brother? Sit down, fasten your seat belts, and let's go!"

"Go~~" Caixia shouted happily.

Li Yun sat in the passenger seat, smiling as he watched Xiao Mingzhu drive the luxury car out of the villa gate.

"Why do you keep looking at me?" Xiao Mingzhu's beautiful face was slightly red, and her white hands grasped the steering wheel. The beauty of the luxury car complemented each other, making this beautiful girl who is all over the country more beautiful and noble at this moment.

"You look good." Li Yun said with a smile.

He and Xiao Mingzhu's friendship has reached 98 points now, let alone just a few words of teasing. Even if Li Yun hugs her and kisses, Xiao Mingzhu will not resist, but will be shy—maybe very enthusiastic. Acceptance.

Li Yun looked at the beautiful girl who was driving a luxury car and couldn't help but imagine that if he kissed her directly, how would Xiao Mingzhu react?

I have to say that men at work and Bai Fumei driving a sports car are great moments to attract the opposite sex. For example, Xiao Mingzhu now has nothing to do but simply drives Li Yun. Can't do it.

"Turn your head away, don't watch!"

Xiao Mingzhu's face became more ruddy, and Li Yun looked very shy.

Speaking of it, she did not get along well with Li Yun for a while.

After she came back from Penglai Island, she was busy going to the company for an internship. After all, school was about to start, and some summer work had to be handed over clearly.

Until today, she had the opportunity to be alone with Li Yun.

But Xiao Mingzhu found that she didn't have much complaint. It was not that she didn't like Li Yun, but that she was able to accept the girl around him, with Fang Xue, Li Feng, and even Gong Qingyu Xia Feiyao and others on Penglai Island. A good friend relationship.

Xiao Mingzhu can almost foresee the picture of himself officially becoming one of Li Yun's confidantes.

Chapter 2690: Mingzhu, you have changed

Li Yun smiled and glanced at Xiao Mingzhu, who was wearing a short skirt and showing a large piece of snow-white long legs. He was actually a little bit eager to move in his heart.

It's just that it's not the time, and he's not in a hurry. There will be four full years of college time in the future, so that he can manage his relationship with the girls.

Seeing him finally turned his head, Xiao Mingzhu's pounding young girl's heart slowly calmed down, her mouth couldn't help but evoke a smile, and finally he laughed out loud and muttered softly:

"Are my legs that beautiful? When you were on Penglai Island, you never left your eyes..."

Li Yun was startled and pretended not to hear.

But my heart was fierce again.

That's it!

Xiao Mingzhu must be punishing him, right? Knowing that the two of Caiwei were there, he didn't dare to do anything, so he deliberately said this sentence!

Li Yun took a deep breath, looked straight ahead, and slowly said, "Mingzhu, you have gone bad!"

"I'm bad? Humph, do you think I haven't talked with Feiyao and others on Penglai Island?"

"Uh?"

"Why don't you speak? After I learned about your deeds on the luxury cruise ship, I felt ashamed?" After the dot was broken, Xiao Mingzhu could finally be jealous: "You dude! You can't figure it out, a woman a day, A total of three days, and then the four of them were messing around together for the next four days. Fortunately, Xianxian didn't know...No, Xianxian must have guessed it, right?"

Li Yun could only smile, he didn't dare to say that in the future, he wanted to let the girls around him have a grand beach party together.

Well, it is the kind of sea and sky, feast.

The only hero is Li Yun, and the heroine is the many girls around him, that kind of party.

"Are you thinking about it again?" Xiao Mingzhu raised her eyebrows. After being pierced, this guy was not ashamed, but rather shamelessly looking at him!

"no!"

"Huh? Brother, what are you talking about?"

Caiwei looked strangely in the back seat, why the two of them were sitting tightly, their eyes were looking forward, but it seemed that there was a vague conversation coming from, and also heard the voice of sister Mingzhu with a smile.

You seem to be having a good chat? Does she want another sister-in-law?

"no!"

The two sitting in the front row quickly denied that Xiao Mingzhu concentrated on driving and stopped chatting with Li Yun, a playboy!

The more she talked, the softer her heart became, and she was about to fall into the capital.

...

Half an hour later, the luxury car drove to the door of the middle school of Zhonghai Foreign Languages Institute under the gaze of countless passersby.

In front of the Noble Middle School, it is like a grand luxury car exhibition, attracting many passersby who live in the upper class to watch. Every time a luxury car comes, there will be a cry of exclamation. Some car emperors are even more precious. General comments on various luxury cars.

"This is a 2019 Bentley Continental GT, three million! Not bad!"

"Wow, not long after school started, a McLaren P1, 12 million-class sports car came. Listening to the roar of this 3.8L, V8 engine, is there a feeling of enthusiasm?!"

"Tsk tsk, the next one is also very awesome, the well-known Rolls-Royce Phantom, nearly 10 million!"

"Wait, what kind of car is in the back? It looks very low-key and luxurious. The owner is...a big beauty?!"

Understand the words of Che Di finally stopped, because he saw a stylishly dressed, long-legged beauty wearing sunglasses, stepping out of this unknown luxury car, the tall figure instantly became the front of the foreign language middle school. The beautiful scenery has attracted the attention of countless luxury car owners.

Soon, someone pointed out the name of this beauty:

"Xiao Mingzhu!"

It was her!
