

Godly Choice 27

Chapter 27: Farther and farther

After learning of the contradiction between the two, people in Class 14 and the experimental class were all talking about it, waiting for a good show.

"Who do you say will win?"

"You're not nonsense! Lu Shan Ran Xingzhi was only in high school for three years, do you think it's a rice bucket?"

"This Li Yun is simply looking for death! Forget about Pian Ke, dare to go find Lushan to compete in sports?"

"Lushan can run into 3 minutes in a kilometer, which is almost one minute less than the full mark. How can this be compared?"

"I'm going... wait for us to run with him, afraid that we will be pulled down two laps?"

The perfect score of one kilometer for senior high school entrance examination is 3 points 40. After entering high school, the score line does not drop, but rises to about 3 points 50.

Because in terms of flexibility, when you are in elementary school and junior high school, you are the strongest, but when you go to high school and college, it plummets.

Except for a few of the classmates who have made friends with Li Yun, the rest of them are not optimistic about him.

Comparing an ordinary student to a school bully, it's just looking for death!

"Humph!"

Lu Shan finished his warm-up exercise and looked at Li Yun who was standing still. He snorted and spit out severely, "Pretend to be forced, and wait when you cry!"

Everyone shook their heads, compared Lu Shan's developed muscle lines, and then looked at Li Yun's thin figure, not to mention Li Yun didn't put on professional sportswear, just an ordinary set of inch shirts and trousers, and not suitable for sports. To say that defeating Lushan is simply a dream!

"come on!"

Fang Xue's clenched small fist was raised high, and he swiped a fist at Li Yun in her class team. She looked very cute and didn't look cold.

Li Feng didn't speak, his eyes met Li Yun's, and both sides understood what the other wanted to say.

"Prepare!" The physical education teacher issued an instruction.

Lu Shan squatted down and made a standard starting movement, his strong heels pressed against the ground like nails, and the whole person was like a sharp arrow full of bowstrings, about to be launched quickly!

On the other hand, Li Yun still stood in place, just like ordinary people, without any professional starting movements.

"My Cao?"

Everyone was shocked. Although the one-kilometer start is not important, it is for ordinary people, and for professional people, every second is inevitable!

Does Li Yun want to give up directly?

"run!"

In the next second, everyone flashed before their eyes, and a thin figure had already rushed out.

After he ran several meters away, Lu Shan's strong figure followed closely behind.

"what?!"

Everyone realized that the first person to start turned out to be Li Yun!

"It's a good seed." The physical education teacher looked at Li Yun and thought secretly.

Being able to react in an instant, it can be seen that Li Yun's motor nerves are already comparable to American athletes.

"This kid!"

Lu Shan, who was following Li Yun, was shocked. Li Yun's reaction was beyond his expectation, but now he could only gritted his teeth and strode his legs desperately to make up for the initial disadvantage.

But gradually, Lu Shan discovered something shocking.

He was getting further and further away from Li Yun, no matter how he chased him, he couldn't bring them closer!

The ordinary classmates who were thrown a long distance opened their mouths in surprise as they watched Li Yun's wind-like speed.

"Actually..."

"Oh My God!"

"Mom, Li Yun actually dumped Lushan farther and farther!"

"Ah, ah, so handsome, Li Yun is so handsome!"

"Woo, so handsome, my boyfriend runs so fast~~"

"Go away, it's my boyfriend!"
