Chapter 2791: Absconding

The crowd dispersed, Li Yun stayed near the entrance of the village, staring at the distance for a long time.

"What did you think of?" Xiao Mingzhu stood beside him, there were only two people nearby, and the other classmates also entered the village.

Li Yun shook his head, "I just feel an inexplicable sense of disobedience."

"Sense of violation?" Xiao Mingzhu was taken aback. "It won't be similar to that ancient city. You said that you were trapped in the ancient city for several days? Don't scare me~"

"No, what do you think."

Li Yun rubbed her hair, making Xiao Mingzhu's very refreshing single ponytail a little messy, and a blush appeared on her face. After seeing no one else, Liu Yao twisted and bumped against Li Yun in protest.

Well, it's very soft.

Li Yun took the opportunity to hold her tender little hand, and the cheerful and generous beautiful girl struggled a little, and let him hold it.

"Say, what are you thinking about?!" Xiao Mingzhu gave him a coquettish eye, "I'm taking advantage of you, so let's say it soon!"

"It's really nothing."

Li Yun casually said: "It's just that there are too many people who died in Sanki Village. There are too many coincidences that seem strange. Moreover, even if it is Lin Huijian who kills, why should he throw away his mobile phone? Needless to say the importance of modern people to mobile phones. Right?"

Xiao Mingzhu put her little hand in his palm, frowned and thought about it: "Maybe he watched the TV series of the heavy case team and knew that he could use the signal to track his mobile phone?"

Li Yun shook his head, disagreeing with this statement: "It's a big deal to deduct the phone card, you should understand this."

"I think you are thinking too much." Xiao Mingzhu did not agree with him. "Maybe Lin Huijian just threw away his mobile phone and ran away in a panic, but he didn't ride in any car. It is estimated that he is still in Old He Town. Hidden in the mountains."

Li Yun smiled, "That's right, then we...huh?"

He looked back and found that behind a big tree on the side of the village entrance, a fourteen-five-year-old boy was peeping his head, and when he found Li Yun, he immediately retracted his head.

"Children came out." Li Yun said lightly.

After waiting for a few seconds, the boy walked out with his head down.

"What's the matter?" Xiao Mingzhu smiled at him, "Are you not going to school? It's not vacation time now."

"I stopped studying long ago, reading is boring!"

The boy sneered, his face was reluctant, and he stretched out his foot and kicked the stone on the side of the road.

His words surprised Xiao Mingzhu. It turns out that some rural children really only read primary schools.

Li Yun was not interested in whether he was studying or not, and asked: "Are you coming to us? Is something wrong?"

The young man was reluctant to say, standing drowsily on the spot.

"If you don't tell me, then we'll leave."

"Don't, don't don't!"

The young man said quickly: "I am really looking for you, because you are supernatural beings, and you are college students from other places, you are handsome and beautiful..."

"It's useless to flatter us." Xiao Mingzhu laughed.

"Although my girlfriend is indeed very beautiful." Li Yun said humorously, making the boy's face blush, and he was afraid to look down at Xiao Mingzhu.

After a while, he said: "It's impossible for my brother Huijian to kill the second sister-in-law, I can guarantee it!"

"Why?"

"Because he likes Ersao very much!"

The plot of dog blood is staged again, and the story of every small village can't be written in a million-word novel.

Li Yun said: "You can see that you have a good relationship with him. He also told you something, but you have also heard an idiom? It is easy for men and women to have hatred because of love."

Chapter 2792: Another truth

Xiao Mingzhu glanced at Li Yun, would she hate Li Yun?

Occasionally, hate this big flower. There are so many confidantes around Xingui.

But most of the time, Xiao Mingzhu and Li Yun will be very relaxed and safe together. Someone around them can rely on, talk about, and feel trustworthy, so that she can accept Li Yun's flower core.

Of course, this is also related to those sisters who are very good people, so that Xiao Mingzhu doesn't have to worry about being jealous of fighting for the wind.

"No, I, I have proof!"

The teenager became excited.

Li Yun and Xiao Mingzhu looked at him, and the boy immediately changed his words: "I am an eyewitness, I saw it!"

"What do you see?"

"I saw... I saw, last night, the village chief."

He hesitated and said, Li Yun asked: "Did you see the village chief killing someone?"

The boy shook his head immediately, "No, no, I saw him go home! In the middle of the night, it was more than 1:36, it should be 1:36!"

Li Yun and Xiao Mingzhu's faces gradually became serious, and their ability to remember the time clearly showed that his words had a certain degree of credibility.

"What about the details? Don't worry, speak slowly. If you speak badly or inaccurately, I won't tell others." Xiao Mingzhu's tone softened a little, making the young boy's face flushed again.

Young Muai, of course he admires this beautiful big sister from the city very much, but the identity gap is too big, so I can only think about it.

"Yes, that's it."

The boy lowered his head and looked around for a few times before he began to say: "I couldn't sleep last night. I was lying on the bed and playing games. It seemed that I had only fallen asleep after twelve o'clock, but suddenly I heard a voice outside."

Li Yun asked: "Your home is next to the village chief's house?"

"Yes, my home is the closest to and the place where the second wife died."

"Well, keep talking." Li Yun nodded and asked specifically: "When you hear the sound, just get up and see?"

"No."

The young man shook his head, but this made his words more credible, because if they were fabricated lies, they probably continued to follow Li Yun's words.

"I just woke up and thought I had heard it wrong and wanted to continue to sleep. I didn't expect that there was a crackling outside with a stick, or the sound of a whip pumping air, and some noises of being hit. I thought someone was using a whip to make a sound. Drive away the beasts, but soon woke up, opened my eyes and saw that it is dark now!"

The simple narration makes people feel immersive, especially when I just wake up, the vagueness is well described.

Xiao Mingzhu's breathing was short, and the young man in front of him was probably an eyewitness!

Li Yun suddenly asked, "What is your name?"

"Lin Huineng."

"Well, go ahead, then?"

Xiao Mingzhu glanced at Li Yun admiringly. He deliberately interrupted Lin Huineng's thoughts, and it was wield who confirmed whether Lin Huineng had lied.

"Then....."

The boy's voice trembled, "The first thing I thought of at the time was: Did the monster enter the village? I was so frightened that I didn't dare to turn on the lights. I secretly opened the curtains and looked out the window."

"See the village chief under the street lamp?"

"Well...Is it right? Where is the street lamp in our village?" The boy waved his hand. "It was through the moonlight that I vaguely saw a person walking by the village chief's house, and then saw him enter the village chief's house. "

"Oh, by the way, he walked in a weird posture!"

"What a weird way?"

"It's just... the shoulder is not moving, like holding something in both hands, without swinging your arms, that kind of walking motion!"

Chapter 2793: Weird walk

Lin Hui was able to make a pose, holding something with his hands hanging down, his shoulders still, and walking straight. This pose would be very permeating if viewed late at night.

Xiao Mingzhu's eyes shrank slightly, "Could it be that the village chief... was holding the club that killed his wife?"

Lin Huineng's movements suddenly froze, and he dared not imitate it anymore.

Li Yun put forward a different view: "In other words, you didn't confirm whether it was the village chief, and you didn't see if he was holding something in his hand, right?"

"...Yes. But I'm absolutely sure...Uh, at least 90% sure it must be him!"

Lin Hui can speak eloquently, "He has the motive to kill the second sister-in-law, because a little friend of mine told me. He accidentally heard the two scolding at home and throwing things at home. The second sister-in-law said angrily that he was going to Dasha sister-in-law's * who seduced a man was driven out of the village, and then the village chief slapped her with anger, and the two wrestled."

Li Yun started to have a headache. The interpersonal relationship in this small village cannot be clearly stated in one or two sentences. He would rather fight the monster beast for three hundred rounds than get involved in the mess in the countryside.

This is entirely a matter of investigation, the more entangled the information obtained, Zhang San and Li Si together, Li Si and Wang Wu, Wang Wu and Zhang San...

One word of chaos.

"All right." Li Yun raised his palm to stop Lin Huineng's narration, "I probably know, so let me call Captain Gao alone, and you can talk to him personally. Don't worry, he will definitely not tell you. Those who went out only said that there were villagers near the place where the crime occurred. They heard the tapping of clubs and saw someone walking towards the village chief's house, so that no one would know that it was your letter."

"...Successful." Lin Hui could hesitate for a moment, and agreed to deal with it this way best. The village chief didn't know he saw it.

Li Yun took out the phone and called Qiao Feilu to tell Captain Gao to meet in a hidden place.

After learning of this news, Captain Gao also fell into the air.

Lin Huijian, who fled in fear of crime on one side, and Lin Huineng, a sworn witness on the other, plus several people who died in Sanmu Village, the complexity of this case far exceeded his imagination.

Li Yun did not disturb Captain Gao in handling the case. He called Shang Ahua and led the team with Xiao Mingzhu. A total of eleven, no, plus Lao Lu, a total of twelve people walked towards the mountain together.

Their task is to find the monsters lurking around the village.

Originally Captain Gao and Qiao Feilu didn't report any hope for finding the monster, but considering that Li Yun and Xiao Mingzhu are both supernatural beings, they especially photographed the experienced Lao Lu to follow, plus the local Ahua, the safety should be able to Guaranteed.

"It turns out that the mountains are so big!"

Standing on the high ground, Wang Hao looked down at the entire lush mountain forest, and said with emotion: "No wonder that monsters are hard to find. In such a big place, it is too difficult to find a monster... Haha, don't find the monster, find and escape. Lin Huijian is good!"

"Difficult to find? It's not necessarily."

Li Yun looked at a cave halfway up the mountain and smiled slightly: "Maybe we will find it soon, everyone, get ready!"

"what?"

A group of people hurriedly took out their weapons: a few handed out guns, green faces full of tension, followed the direction indicated by the deputy squad leader.

Soon, they will have a big harvest.

In a cave halfway up the mountain, there was a thunderous pig cry, roaring sound.

A huge black boar two to three meters high rushed out like a roar.

Chapter 2794: Capture

After a chaotic battle was over, the students in the computer science class were so tired and out of breath, they were all sweaty, and some of the students even hung up on it. Fortunately, they were not very serious.

But everyone looked at the huge wild boar lying on the ground with excitement, their eyes gleaming.

They dare to slap their chests and say that the military training classes that can kill monsters across the country can definitely be counted with one slap!

So this group of freshmen took out their phones one after another, took photos first, and then posted them to Moments after they went out, guaranteeing to shock a large number of people.

Li Yun was also very tired. He felt that he was carrying a group of trumpets in the online game to brush the copy. The key is not to kill the boss by himself. The trumpet must kill himself.

Control the blood volume, protect the trumpets from being killed in seconds, remind them to move, and so on.

Anyway, after an offensive and defensive battle with the wild boars, Li Yun didn't want to take people anymore, so hurry back. It was too tired.

"That's it for today."

Li Yun clapped his hands and let the overexcited classmates look over, "This wild boar demon is definitely not the one that infested Miki Village. It is too big, but we can take it back and show it to the villagers and let them move to it voluntarily. Go live in the town and complete the final task of our military training."

Everyone has no objection, but this wild boar demon weighs at least several tons, and they can't resist it?

"Squad leader, don't you have spatial powers?" A female classmate looked at the squad leader.

Xiao Mingzhu's face was distressed. The space ring that Li Yun gave her was only 10 cubic meters. Now that there are many things stored, it must be impossible to put this huge wild boar into it.

"Yes, monitor, now it's your turn."

Li Yun blinked at Xiao Mingzhu, the latter understood, and gave him a roll of eyes, resignedly pulling Li Yun forward, and took away the huge dead wild boar.

"The monitor is great!"

The cheers of the classmates made Xiao Mingzhu blush. In fact, it was the wild boar that Li Yun took away. His space ring was 100 cubic meters.

"Successfully complete the task, let's go, let's go back!"

When Li Yun was about to greet the students to leave, he felt something, and looked back at the entrance of the cave.

Xiao Mingzhu also turned back, and after seeing clearly what it was, his eyes suddenly lit up.

Seven or eight pink and tender little wild boars appeared in front of the cave door with probes, making a slight hum of pigs, which was especially lovable.

I have to say that it is the nature of all creatures to love children and animals. When the girls saw these little guys, they all screamed in excitement.

"Look, it's a little wild boar!"

"Ah, it turns out that wild boars were so cute when they were young?"

"That's not it. I have seen the animal world. Wild boars looked average when they were young. They are completely different from these!"

"So... is it because of the monster child?!"

Ahua also said that he had never seen such a beautiful pink wild boar, so everyone started together, pounced into the cave and caught all these small wild boars, each holding one in his arms and playing.

It's strange to say that there is no peculiar smell on these little wild boars, which is a miracle.

Li Yun swept away his spiritual consciousness, nodded and said: "They have some faint demon aura. They should have been born after the wild boar demon mutated. They are relatively rare. It seems that someone bought them specifically?"

Li Yun looked at Xiao Mingzhu, and they understood this better.

Xiao Mingzhu smiled slightly and said, "In the earliest days, a wild monster child could sell for hundreds of millions. Many rich people and research organizations are rushing to buy it."

Chapter 2795: All get rich

Hundreds of millions!

The classmates in the computer science class, as well as Ah Hua and Lao Lu were dumbfounded. This thing is faster than grabbing money.

But then again, if it were not for Li Yun, they would definitely not be so easy to fight this wild boar demon, let alone catch its child easily.

"But now." Xiao Mingzhu thought for a while. "The average one is about 10 million, plus it's far from Penglai Island, so there is less aura. These little wild boar monsters are also weaker, so maybe it's only two hundred. Ten thousand up and down."

Everyone still expressed their amazement.

Even if one is one million, then they have eight in total, they can sell for eight million, plus the meat of the big wild boar demon itself, at least ten million, which is definitely a huge sum of money.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Distribute the income fairly this time, reward justice value +1000, purple gift bag*3, various spirit fruits below level 3*5, and the host's prestige value in Coban will increase.

Option 2: Distribute all the rewards, reward golden gift bags*1, various spirit fruits below level 5*5, and the host will increase its prestige at Zhonghai University.

Choice 3: Take it alone, reward: none. "

Li Yun was taken aback, the system unexpectedly prompted a selection event.

In the past month, a consensus has gradually formed across the world, dividing spirit fruits and monsters into levels 1 to 9, with the weakest level and the strongest level 9.

These divisions will change at any time. Once a monster or spirit fruit that is much stronger than level 9 appears, the original level 9 will be reduced to level 8.

Five-level spirit fruit, equivalent to a medium level, one can sell for ten million.

"Li Yun." Xiao Mingzhu asked with a smile: "How do you think these little wild boars are well divided? You contributed the most this time, but we also have the credit, you can't take it alone~"

She raised the issue of distribution in the form of a joke. After all, this is related to money. It is better to divide it as soon as possible to avoid complaints in everyone's hearts.

"It's the deputy squad leader and the squad leader." A female classmate stuck out her tongue. "We'll just make a soy sauce and divide it a little bit. Anyway... we believe in you!"

Other classmates also expressed their opinions. As for Ah Hua and Lao Lu, the two said nothing, nor did they do anything.

"I do not need."

Li Yun shook his head and said with a smile: "I recently went to a rich woman, so I don't need money, so I will give it to you."

The classmates laughed and looked at Xiao Mingzhu with the eyes of "I knew that the rich woman is the monitor".

Li Yun pondered for a while, "Let's do it, you guys here will split half of the money, and the rest will be given to the students who stayed in Laohe Town, as well as to the counselors, other students and the subject teachers. This is generally the case. The points can be discussed in detail. Anyway, there is no need to use the money for class membership fees."

Ah Hua was taken aback, "Me, me too?"

"Correct."

"No, no, I just acted as a guide and didn't do anything..."

Both Ahua and Lao Lu wanted to refuse, but the other classmates insisted on giving them a copy, and they only accepted it.

Lao Lu agreed to come down, but said that the money would be handed in and he didn't want it.

As for Ah Hua...I'm still in a daze now, at least I can get hundreds of thousands of yuan this time, and I suddenly become rich.

"Come on, let's go out."

A group of people walked out happily holding the little wild boars, discussing what they would do with money after they were sold, and whether to keep one as a mascot for the class, but they are students, they can't raise them, and they don't know where to raise them. Forget it.

Chapter 2796: One million per person

On the way back to the village, after receiving the signal, a group of suffocated classmates sent photos to Moments, Tieba, and the class group and grade group. The time attracted huge attention.

"I, Cao, actually killed a wild boar demon?! I knew I would also act with the squad leader!"

"God, that kid Wang Hao laughed to death of a traitor beside the wild boar!"

"What a big pig demon... I can't finish a meal."

"There are little wild boars? One can sell for one million??"

"Wow, the squad leader actually proposed to divide the money for us? Oh, squad leader and deputy squad leader, you are so kind, long live!!"

More than 50 students in the computer science class swept their screens with excitement in the class group. After learning that everyone had a sum of money to take, they were even more excited.

They didn't act with the squad leader and they didn't expect to have money. It was great.

Even the counselor, Li Xiaolan, was very happy to learn about this, but she also reminded Li Yun to pay attention to safety. She had to report the incident to the grade director and principal.

As a result, within five minutes, the counselor called and said that the school was willing to buy two small wild boars and raise them on the campus as "teaching materials" for the teachers and students of the school to learn and use.

For example, observe the habits of monsters up close, feel the breath of monsters, and so on.

As a teaching material, the price of a few million is not expensive at all. In the physical chemistry and biology laboratory, any instrument starts with hundreds of thousands, and there are tens of millions.

As the most popular wind direction in the world nowadays, a demon beast cub is as cheap as millions of dollars found in the vegetable market.

Wang Hao took a mobile phone while watching while walking along the mountain trail. He walked deep and shallow without paying attention. He also laughed and said, "The students in other classes are envious of us. Many people said that they will be transferred to the computer science class in the next year. Laughing to death... Some people say that the deputy squad leader deserves to be the president of the Supernaturalists Association. He won the first monster beast of China Overseas University just after starting the mission, and there are cubs to sell, in short, it is envy!"

Li Yun smiled helplessly, "You are the main ones, I'll just walk around, and walk well!"

"Hey, it's okay, I love to see other classes envy...Ouch."

With that, Wang Hao hit a tree by the side of the road, causing other students to laugh.

Xiao Mingzhu reported another piece of good news: "I just sent a message in the community group. They were all very interested. Someone was willing to pack all of them with 2.5 million, but I didn't agree."

"Ah? The price is doubled, why didn't the monitor agree?"

"Because someone paid 3.8 million to buy two, so I plan to auction it in the community group for more money."

Everyone understands that the community where Xiao Mingzhu lives are all rich people, they are rich!

In simple calculations, about three million each, plus two million to give two to the school, that is to say, eight little pig demon can sell for 20 million! !

They are divided into half, and one person can get a million! !

After understanding, everyone was shocked. After a long time, Wang Anna said, "It's no wonder that so many people run to Penglai Island. The early days of the Reiki era were just like the Steam Revolution era. There were too many opportunities to get rich overnight. Fortunately, we took the squad leader. And the thighs of the deputy squad leader also shared a little soup~~!"

For many students in the computer science class, it is not an overnight wealth, but it is definitely a huge sum of money, enough for them to live a smart life in the university for four years, and also improve their families.

For Ahua, one million is a life-changing opportunity!

As a result, the eyes of everyone looking at Li Yun were full of worship.

Chapter 2797: The person who scents (part 1)

Li Yun smiled slightly and didn't say much else.

He is very willing to help people around him get a good life. For example, in Longyang County, he also introduced good jobs to class 14 students. As long as they seize the opportunity, they can live a life comfortably in the future.

This trip to Sanmu Village happened to meet the cubs of monster beasts, so Li Yun pushed the boat along the river to help the students earn some money.

For most people, money is the most direct reward, and everything else is imaginary.

"We are in a daze, we go back to Sanmu Village, otherwise we have to spend the night in the mountains."

Li Yun glanced at it after five o'clock, the sky began to dim again, and how dangerous the night in the mountains would be, you can guess even if you haven't experienced it.

Especially in the age of Reiki, when there are not many animals in the mountains that have mutated.

Even though there are few monsters, maybe only three or five, they are enough to drink a pot.

Everyone stopped chatting, speeded up their pace and walked towards Miki Village under the guidance of Ahua.

They will stay in Sanmu Village for another night tonight, and I don't know if they can start the relocation work tomorrow.

When he was about to return to Sanmu Village, Xiao Mingzhu suddenly stopped, sniffed carefully with his little nose, frowned and asked, "What is this smell?"

"The smell of incense and candles." Li Yun replied, looking into the distance, Ahua quickly said: "There is the cemetery of the village. The dead in the village are buried there. Maybe some villager went to worship. Recently There are a lot of people dead in the village..."

Li Yun nodded, not paying too much attention to this matter.

Unexpectedly, Xiao Mingzhu suddenly asked, "Are Lin Dasha and his wife buried there?"

"Correct."

"Squad leader, do you want to pay a respect?"

"...Have this idea."

"Then go, it's very touching that Dasha Lin could die for his wife."

The crowd did not express any objections, so they turned to the graveyard, and it didn't take long for Li Yun to see a large mess of tomb bags scattered halfway up the mountain.

Some have been excavated, revealing the coffins inside. The bones inside were taken out and placed in the clan temple. The mottled colors of the coffins that have been blown by wind and rain make people feel a little panic.

Especially when the dusk is very dark, the sky is dim, and the mountains and forests are quiet, one person would definitely not dare to come here alone.

"Over there." Ahua pointed in the direction, "I and a few villagers dug the empty tomb for Dasha's wife, and later dug up and put Dasha's body in. The two were buried together. The funeral was very simple. There are only a few people from Dasha's family to attend...Oh."

Recalling what happened more than ten days ago, Ahua sighed again.

Everyone walked over with a heavy heart, but was surprised to find that three lighted incense candles were inserted in the tomb where Dasha and his wife were buried together, burning quietly, emitting a faint fragrance. "Huh?" Wang Hao was taken aback, "Someone actually gave Dasha incense...Ahua, aren't you Dasha always being laughed at in the village?"

Ah Hua was also very surprised, because even if he did not look down on Dasha, he would not give him incense for no reason.

"Could it be that someone came to incense the second uncle and burned one for Dasha by the way?"

Ah Hua said, turned around and looked around, and quickly found Lin Youcai's tomb. He was dead for five or six days. He was attacked by monsters while walking on the road in front of the ancestral hall. Only a pack of cigarettes was left at the scene.

A Hua trot over quickly, but there was no trace of new burning incense in front of Lin Youcai's tomb.

In other words, someone really came to incense the Dasha!

Chapter 2798: The person who scents (below)

Things got weird again.

Xiao Mingzhu squatted down, inspected the three joss sticks in front of Dasha's tomb, and touched the ground where the paper money was burned. He judged: "It has just burned, and there is a lot of heat on the ground. It should be five or six minutes ago, just before us. ."

This is even stranger.

Who would sneak out of the village after five o'clock in the afternoon, when the sky in the mountains began to dim, to burn paper money for Dasha to burn incense?

The time is not right, and the people are not right.

According to what Ahua said, Dasha really had very few friends. Everyone looked down on him, so how could he burn paper money?

And it came out sneakily.

However, it was also because Dasha's status in the village was too low that even if he had sympathy for Dasha, he dared not show it.

"It's also possible that it was for Zhou Qiaofang to burn incense." Wang Anna suddenly raised a possibility, looking at the text on the tombstone and said.

Everyone took a closer look, and a few words were written on the tombstone:

The tomb of Lin Youzhi and Zhou Qiaofang.

They didn't realize that Dasha was called Lin Youzhi and his wife was Zhou Qiaofang until they saw this tombstone.

Li Yun frowned. Is this joss stick for Zhou Qiaofang or Lin Youzhi? It's just pure fragrance?

A Hua thought of something, and suddenly realized: "Our village has a tradition of burying the dead for seven days before offering incense to the deceased. It is a bit different from other villages in Laohe Town, then offering incense after one month. Maybe someone thought of Dasha. That's why I gave him incense."

A male student from the countryside also said: "In fact, it is seven days, burning seven times in a row, which is the so-called 'burning seven.' However, there should be very few rural villages that still retain this tradition, and most of them are just burning for one day."

At this point, everyone was relieved, and they went forward to bow to the grave of the deceased Dasha, and left here.

Before leaving, Li Yun looked back at Lin Youzhi's tomb again, perhaps because of the graveyard here, the yin Qi in Dasha's tomb was condensed and not dispersed, he wouldn't be surprised if the corpse changed.

"It seems that in the future, the custom of burying on the spot in the countryside will have to be changed, lest a large number of zombies break out of the coffin."

A thought flashed in Li Yun's mind.

Back in Sanmu Village, Xiao Mingzhu wanted Li Yun to release the pig demon's body, scaring the villagers and asking them to agree to relocate to the town.

Unexpectedly, after seeing people, they found that they were all gloomy and sad.

When I asked, I learned that another person died.

"Someone died again?!"

Ahua couldn't believe her ears. From yesterday to now, three people have died in Miki Village, and six more have died in the past half month!

"Absolutely abnormal!"

This is a thought that has arisen in everyone's hearts, and there is a deep anxiety in the eyes that meet each other.

Regardless of the pig demon, Li Yun speeded up his pace and came to the house where the accident happened. Captain Gao was also there and told Li Yun about the past with a sad look.

Just after 3 o'clock, someone reported that Liu's mother-in-law hadn't seen anyone since the morning. They broke in and saw that Liu's mother-in-law had been dead in bed for a long time.

Captain Gao arrived upon hearing the news, and the forensic doctor found that there was no trauma at the scene. The preliminary judgment was that he had been frightened too much in recent days and died naturally.

Li Yun also learned from Ahua that the six mother-in-law was over sixty years old and could still go to the ground in the past, and she could speak with a mouth. Few people in the village dared to provoke her.

However, because of frequent cursing, her heart was not very good, she always had asthma and unstable heart rate. Her death made the villagers not accidental and felt very abrupt.

Chapter 2799: Cursed

"Youfu, where are you going?"

The village chief Lin Youde yelled, and everyone turned around to look. A single-row pickup truck drove out of the village. On it sat two panicked children and a middle-aged woman, as well as some boxes and furniture. , It seems that Lin Youfu wants to move away directly.

"Where? Do you need to ask?"

When the car stopped, Lin Youfu looked out from the driving position, his face was pale, his expression was very bad, his eyes were bloodshot, and the muscles on his face jumped and said, "The village chief, you should also take everyone to escape. There is no way to stay in this village. If you stay any longer, all will be dead. Wait, there will be more dead tonight!"

Lin Youde was angry: "What the * are you talking about!"

Everyone in Miki Village looked ugly, and died six consecutively, which was too evil.

"I'm talking nonsense? Humph, whether you believe it or not, there are evil things in Sanmu Village now. If you continue to live, you will only die. I saw it with my own eyes!"

Lin Youfu started the car again and said the last words to the villagers: "I have a car and can walk, haha, if you don't believe it, just wait and die!"

After speaking, the small truck drove away without stopping, seeming to be afraid of the villagers begging him to help carry people away.

The remaining villagers of Sanmu Village looked at each other with fear in their eyes.

Xiao Mingzhu looked at it and felt that there was no need to take out any more boar demon corpses. Tomorrow these people would definitely agree to move.

"This... Li Yun, what do you think?"

Qiao Feilu and Captain Gao have a headache. If it were before, they would definitely denounce this as superstition, so everyone should not believe it.

But since Penglai Island started the era of spiritual energy, it cannot be simply said to be superstition, but it is very likely to be true. Sanmu Village is really cursed by something!

Li Yun took a deep breath: "Tomorrow morning, Sanmu Village will officially move to Laohe Town. As for tonight, I will personally patrol. If there is any monster or the murderer who dares to commit the crime again, I will definitely catch him personally!"

Up to now, this can only be the case.

The villagers went home quickly, and it was still dark. Every household in Sanmu Village had closed the doors and windows, leaving only Li Yun and his party, and some gunmen police brought by Captain Gao.

An unprecedented sense of dignity deeply enveloped everyone present.

At 6 o'clock in the evening, a motorcycle roared into Miki Village.

And here it brought strong anxiety to Miki Village.

"It's not good, it's not good, there's a car accident, the big thing is not good!"

Everyone was startled. Li Yun, who was resting beside the tent, moved. In the blink of an eye, he appeared next to the young man riding a motorcycle, shaking him with fright. Then he saw that it was Li Yun, the foreigner. College students with supernatural ability.

"Big, big brother, it's you, scared, scared me!"

"What happened?!"

Li Yun asked in a deep voice, "A car accident? Is that small truck accident?!"

The doors and windows of the surrounding residential buildings opened one after another, and a group of villagers poked their heads out uneasy.

"Yes, yes, yes, when I came back from the town and passed by the muddy ditch, I saw a car fell into the ditch and crashed, and there were many people in the car."

The young man was in shock, "I was terrified, stopped the car and took a closer look. I recognized that it was Uncle Qi's family. After shouting a few times, they didn't move. Seeing that there was blood on their bodies and under them, I ran back quickly. Report..."

Chapter 2800: Die six at a time

Sudden news made the atmosphere in Miki Village more and more panic. Many men walked out of the door one after another. After learning the detailed information from the young man who had just returned, they were all dumbfounded.

Captain Gao's lips moved, but without saying a word, he turned and jumped into a car, and the other team members followed suit.

"Li Yun, you are optimistic about Sanki Village, I will personally check it out and see if there is such a wicked one!"

Throwing a harsh word, Captain Gao drove out of the village.

A group of villagers whose faces are hard to see to the extreme are left in a daze.

The young man who just came back swears: "What I said is true. It is not far from the entrance of the village, less than a five-minute drive away, that is the ditch with a lot of loach. If you want to see it, It's five minutes by motorcycle!"

Everyone wants to see it.

The young man still couldn't understand the atmosphere, and he pulled a villager and shouted, "Uncle Six, isn't your relationship with Uncle Seven? He has something wrong with you now..."

"Shut up!"

Uncle Six threw away his hand and stared at him annoyedly: "Can't you see it? Our village...something wicked, your Seventh Uncle was killed. Who dares to go out now?!"

In a word, the expressions of the people in Miki Village were a bit ugly.

"The village is cursed...I can't leave if I want to go, all of them will die here, all of them will die..."

"What should I do? All are dead!"

"Six deaths in a row, no, twelve deaths in a row, is Miki Village going to end?"

The villagers looked terrified, and the classmates in the computer science class wanted to say that this was just an ordinary car accident, but in today's situation, no matter how ordinary car accidents are, it has become unusual, not to mention the death of a family of six.

Suddenly a woman screamed: "I knew that * was not a good thing. Dasha was able to pick her up from the outside because she was driven out because she was in trouble in the original village!"

Everyone looked at this bloated woman in her forties in amazement. Ahua asked in surprise, "Sister-in-law, does this seem inappropriate?"

"Huh, what's wrong?!"

The sixth woman in the village sneered coldly and said: "How many men did that woman seduce in the village? She came to our village for three years, but she didn't give birth to a single fart. On the contrary, she made the village smug. She really Like Dasha? I think she just went out to sell it, and only came back after being discarded. As a result, it made our village like this again!"

"Okay!" Her husband Six Uncle yelled distractedly.

"You dare to drink me?! Lin Youfu, you have turned your back on you!"

Liusao screamed: "I have seen that you have a leg with that * woman, and I go to talk to her every day, consciously or unconsciously, you bastard, you..."

"Enough of you, shameful!"

"I'm embarrassed? You are not ashamed? Oh my god, I shouldn't have married to this horrible place. If I hadn't come, I wouldn't have met..."

"You're the * endless? Go back to me!"

The two of them walked home cursingly, and the rest of them remained silent.

Village Chief Lin Youde looked at Li Yun with hope suddenly: "Students Li and Li Yun, don't you have a supernatural power? Can you solve it for us... We promise that everyone in Sanmu Village will thank you for your help!"

Li Yun glanced at him lightly, "I have done everything I can do. As for the curse...I didn't see it anyway."
