

Godly Choice 29

Chapter 29: Ding, Fang Xue's favorability has risen

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Reject Lushan's basketball competition and reward a random gift.

Option 2: Yes, and completely defeat Lu Shan on the court, rewarding random intermediate martial arts, strength +100 points, agility +100 points, physique +100 points, several general experience points, and Fang Xue's favorability +15.

Option 3: Propose another test method, reward some general experience points, and give a random gift. "

"My Cao?"

Seeing the options given by the system, Li Yun exploded in his heart. This reward Nima is too exaggerated, right?

Not only does it have intermediate martial arts, but also has 100 points of strength, agility, and physique. What's more abnormal is that it also rewards experience points!

More importantly, also add Fangxue's favorability?

Li Yun took a thoughtful look at this beautiful schoolgirl. It seems that she likes heroic characters. The more Li Yun is in the limelight, the more she likes it.

"How is it? Dare to follow me to the basketball court!?" Lu Shan continued provocatively.

"What's not to dare."

Li Yun showed a mocking smile, and said: "If I can beat you once, I can beat you twice, three times, countless times!"

"you!"

Lu Shan was so angry that his nose was crooked. Regardless of the teacher's dissolution, he grabbed the basketball placed aside with his big hand and sneered: "As everyone knows, playing basketball is inevitable. In the N~A and C~A professional competitions. The same goes for me, Li Yun, do you dare to pick it up?"

He used the radical method, how could Li Yun not know what he meant, and directly responded.

"Li Yun!" Wang Houliang was a little nervous, and whispered: "This Lushan likes to hit people with the ball on the basketball court. He once knocked a boy into the hospital for a month, but he also said that he had said good things beforehand. , Now he wants to do this again!"

"I know, don't worry, I will use the way of a person to treat the person's body."

Hearing what Li Yun said, Lu Shan gave a disdainful smile, and thought viciously in his heart, if this is the case, then I will be more ruthless when I start!

Li Feng was very nervous, but Li Yun insisted on taking the challenge, so she could only agree with her biting her lip.

Seeing Li Yun's generous and powerful back, Li Feng thought in a daze that her younger brother had grown up and had become a man of indomitable spirit.

"Come on, Li Yun!"

When he came to the basketball court, Fang Xue shouted at Li Yun excitedly, and made a horn with both hands to make her voice louder!

Wang Houliang watched enviously. After the school flower fell in love, the arrogance and coldness before Fang disappeared completely and she became a little girl who likes to be clingy. Li Yun can have such a girlfriend, which makes people envy and hate!

Of course, Fang Xue would only show the appearance of a little girl in front of Li Yun. In front of other people, she was still the school girl from the previous cold, unchanged.

Li Yun stood on the basketball court, facing Lushan. There were no less than a hundred onlookers on the periphery of the court. They all looked at them with curiosity and expectation.

"One-on-one bullfight?"

"One to one."

"Whoever shoots and gets 10 points wins, you serve first."

Lu Shan smashed the ball to Li Yun, and the basketball roared with great strength. People who are slightly weaker might not be able to catch a ball.

But Li Yun took it steadily and patted casually.

"Very sure of winning? It seems a little bit less."

Onlookers talked.

"Huh, it's not surprising that Lushan stands on the field!"

"What's the meaning?"

"Don't understand? Lu Shan is the overlord on the court, the overbearing overlord!"
