Chapter 301: Stitch Monster

"The four of you are on guard around you, don't get too far away!"

"The forensic doctor first takes pictures and tries to preserve the traces of the scene."

"Be careful, this monster shouldn't be poisonous?"

"Collect some samples of meat and bones and wait for verification after returning."

Liao Hua ordered everyone to work in an orderly manner. Li Yun and Liu Xianxian had nothing to do and sat on a dead tree to watch the show.

Share your feelings by the way.

"Well, no."

Liu Xianxian shyly pushed Li Yun away, although she no longer objected to Li Yun's intimate behavior, and even liked it a little bit.

But after all, in front of everyone, she still felt very shy.

"It's okay, they are working and have no time to pay attention to us, besides, they are in the light, we are in the dark, you can't see it!"

The dim and dark environment is exactly the time for stimulation.

Li Yun deliberately said loudly, making Liu Xianxian more shy.

But then, Liu Xianxian felt that Li Yun's palm was pinched, and Li Yun showed her the information on the phone.

"Huh? Li Yun, you!"

Liu Xianxian looked at him in surprise. It turned out that Li Yun didn't want to be intimate with her, but wanted to...

"Hey, I like immortals too, of course, come on, one more fragrance~"

Li Yun deliberately kissed her smooth cheek, making a loud snapping sound, Liu Xianxian's body trembled, and her pretty face blushed, even though she knew that she was in acting, which was her best field.

But when Liu Xianxian acted, he had never acted so intimately with men!

"My fairy is so cute, come, give your husband a few more kisses~!"

"Xianxian, why are you so cute? I love my husband so much!"

"Xianxianxianxian, other people call you fairy buns and sister gods, I think it's very appropriate, soft cheeks, kisses like buns."

After being kissed back and forth by Li Yun several times, Liu Xianxian was extremely shy, and only felt that his face was hot.

She knew she was acting, but... Li Yun was really her boyfriend, and these words were also spoken from her boyfriend. The sweet love words and intimate behavior made Liu Xianxian who was in love for the first time unbearable.

Too shameful.

Liao Hua and the others felt very funny. Li Yun acted very calmly along the way, but he was still a big boy, and he would be different when he was with his girlfriend.

"Director Zhang!"

The two forensic doctors were brought by Director Zhang from Annan City, and one of them greeted Director Zhang and Liao Hua.

"what happened?"

"These bones, I'm afraid..."

The two forensic doctors looked at each other, and their expressions were filled with surprise and fear that could not be concealed.

"What happened to the bones?" Director Zhang asked hurriedly.

Annan City is his jurisdiction, but now that this happened, he would be punished by his superiors if he didn't handle it well, so he had to take care of it.

The forensic doctor gritted his teeth and said: "This bone is probably not a single person, no, not even three or five people, but the bones of a dozen people!"

The bones of a dozen people! !

Everyone was shocked, and even the alert special forces couldn't help turning their heads and glanced here.

"Correct!"

A forensic doctor showed them the bones in the sealed bag, and said solemnly: "This is the finger bone of a 20-year-old man, and this is the bone of a 30-year-old, acquired martial artist. This is 20 years old. A five-year-old woman, this, is a fifty-year-old man who often does physical work..."

Based on experience, the forensic doctor identified the bones one by one.

Following his words, everyone only felt a chill in the surroundings, making their scalp numb, and their hands and feet cold.

Chapter 302: Shadow

Judging by Li Yun's statement that many people died in the cave, this red sarcoma monster is composed of dozens of human body parts combined and sewn together! !

For a while, there was dead silence near the cave, and everyone was frightened.

The red sarcoma monster is made up of multiple human fleshy bones stitched together, which reminds people of the centipede in Western legends. That thing is absolutely disgusting beyond imagination. Those who don't know should better not understand. .

"Let's take a look in the cave!"

Liao Hua immediately decided that if it is confirmed that there are a large number of human remains inside, then the criticality of the incident will immediately rise several steps, requiring a large number of personnel to be called to deal with, and the remains will be carefully and properly classified and handled, and finally the family members will come and retrieve it. Just work.

Hearing these words, Liu Xianxian became nervous and looked at Li Yun with a worried look.

"Hey, it's okay, Xianxian, let's go into the cave, it's dark inside, just to have * with you!" Li Yun said 'wanting smile' with an indescribable voice.

"I hate it, it's not serious now!"

Liu Xianxian's face blushed, her reaction was purely subconscious, not acting.

But she didn't object, clutching the corner of Li Yun's clothes tightly, and followed him into the cave.

After a while, Liao Hua called from inside the cave: "You two also come in, we need manpower here!"

Hearing these words, the two special soldiers who had been on guard in front of the cave looked at each other and walked into the cave with doubts in their hearts.

It stands to reason that someone needs to guard the entrance of the cave when entering the cave, otherwise, the enemy will block the entrance of the cave, or even collapse, and the people in the cave can only wait to die.

The surroundings returned to silence. There was no light, and the moon was hidden behind the clouds. Near the cave of Oak Ridge Mountain, it was plunged into darkness, with no fingers out of sight, only the sound of crickets wafting and falling.

suddenly.

"Jie Jie Jie!"

Accompanied by a weird treacherous laughter, a thin black shadow passed the bushes from a distance and landed in front of the cave.

"Humph!"

The black shadow snorted disdainfully, "I said, who killed my stitcher, it turned out to be a group of officers and soldiers!"

"Moreover, there is a stupid kid who only loves beauty and doesn't know it when he is about to die, extremely stupid!"

He rushed here when the stitcher was killed, guessing that someone would definitely come, so he has been hiding in the mountains and forests.

I also saw the scene of Li Yun and Liu Xianxian flirting with each other |

"Jie Jie Jie, I can't afford to provoke the government, but you officers and soldiers, since you killed my stitcher, then you come to be my next stitcher's material!"

The dark shadow showed a triumphant look on his eerie and weird face, and then he took out a flag engraved with spells, shaking it, and chanting.

Soon, there was a response from a distance.

Seven or eight stiff figures rushed here.

Under the dark night, these jumping figures looked terrifying and scared anyone who saw them!

"what!"

"Who!"

The black shadow shaking the flag vaguely heard an exclamation, he immediately turned his head to look, and stared at that side with a sharp look.

"Hey!"

A crow was alarmed and fled in a panic. The shadow snorted coldly, feeling a little suspicious.

How can a group of ignorant officers and soldiers, plus a pair of wild mandarin ducks, see through his conspiracy?

"No. 2 and No. 3, you go in and block them, and the rest of the zombies will smash the cave for me and seal the hole!"

Chapter 303: Siskin behind

"Roar!" "Roar!" "Roar!"

A total of seven zombies uttered a roar, jumped into the cave all together, and began to smash the cave frantically, using their sharp claws and hard bodies to forcibly dig open the rock wall of the cave.

The black shadow stood with his hands behind his back and his face was very satisfied. He could already imagine how panicked the people in the cave were now.

There are two zombies entangled, and the situation outside is very critical. Coupled with the invisible pressure of the dark cave, this group of people is afraid that they will be frightened?

One second, two seconds, three seconds.

For five full seconds, the zombies that entered did not encounter any enemies, and there was not even a trace of living human existence!

"wrong!!"

"Bang! Bang! Bang!"

A series of gunshots sounded, and the black shadow's face changed drastically, and he hurriedly puffed up his qi in his body.

"puff!"

A bullet carrying a special power hit his left leg. In an instant, the bullet slammed into the thigh, and that power burst out violently, consuming as much as half of the dark mana on Sombra!

"I'm Cao Nima!"

Sombra no longer cares about his image, and directly yells at him.

This group of officers and soldiers didn't even enter the cave. Instead, they turned on the flashlight and walked in, then turned off the flashlight, walked out in the dark and hung around in an ambush, waiting for him to be fooled!

Huh huh!

Sure enough, several flashlight lights appeared all around, all shining towards the dark shadows.

Everyone saw clearly that the mysterious behind-the-scenes man was an old man with a thin body and a gloomy face.

"Surrender, or die!" Li Yun shouted sharply and pointed his pistol at him: "If there is any movement, four submachine guns can instantly twist you into twists!"

The four special forces brought four submachine guns plus a thousand rounds of ammunition. Moreover, Director Zhang and Liao Hua also held pistols, and even forensic doctors had learned how to shoot, and each had weapons to shoot.

With so many modern and powerful weapons, even the masters of the innate realm have to evade and dare not fight hard.

After all, Zhen Qi can resist a bullet, but it cannot resist the continuous shooting of a submachine gun!

"Who are you?"

The old man's tone was flat, he had already guessed that these people were officers and soldiers, just to delay time.

"We should ask you this sentence!"

Li Yun looked serious, "Immediately squat down with a headshot, don't want to let the zombies in your cave..."

"Little beast, look for death!"

As an old monster who has lived for more than a hundred years as a powerful magician during the refining period, how can he tolerate a little hairy boy who is still younger than him?

"Jiuyou Palm!"

Immediately, the old man volleyed his palm, and a black mist burst out violently, quickly spreading around him, instantly obstructing the surrounding field of vision.

Li Yun was taken aback. He could vaguely see the old man attacking him quickly from the side. Without even thinking about it, he immediately pulled the trigger with his finger.

"boom!"

The bullet from Fairy Bow Sylvin hit his right hand, which was comparable to the power of a blocking gun plus a destructive effect, and instantly stopped the old man's attack.

"Shoot and kill him directly!"

Liao Hua decisively ordered that it is no longer a matter of trying to catch alive. Everyone's lives are threatened and they have to protect themselves!

This mysterious old man is incredibly fast, and with all kinds of magical spells, it is too difficult to catch alive!

"Boom!"

A series of bullets sounded again, and the powerful firepower poured directly on the old man, making clanking sounds.

Chapter 304: Defeat the old man of Tianyin

Liu Xianxian was nervous. This old man could resist so many bullets. He should be an innate master.

What's more frightening is that this old man also possesses spells that the innate realm master does not have, making his combat power extremely powerful!

Fortunately, everyone had four submachine guns, and the old man was finally beaten back and had to retreat into the cave.

Before leaving, he glared at Li Yun bitterly, as if he couldn't get rid of his hatred without killing him!

Even Li Yun hadn't guessed that if he didn't have Silver in his hand, everyone would have been killed by the old man before he was killed by a submachine gun.

"What should we do now?"

Director Zhang couldn't help looking at Li Yun.

The appearance of the old man can be said to have subverted their three views.

If it hadn't been for Li Yun had been reminding them, everyone was afraid that they would be too shocked to react and would be killed directly by the old man.

Therefore, now Li Yun has a faint tendency to become the backbone of everyone, Liu Xianxian is very proud of this, because Li Yun is her South Pengyu~.

Li Yun pondered for a moment, and even Liao Hua didn't speak. He knew nothing about the old man's origins and spells, so he could only listen to Li Yun.

"The opponent's mana should be exhausted. We will make a quick battle and go directly in and kill him, otherwise, there will be endless troubles!"

Li Yun sternly said, everyone nodded quickly.

Since the old man ran away, it proved that he didn't dare to face it. If so, let's attack!

But unexpectedly, when everyone approached the entrance of the cave, the seven zombies in the cave rushed out with a roar.

When Li Yun and the others dealt with these zombies, the old man had already taken the opportunity to escape. Before leaving, he threw a very vicious word.

"The old man is Tianyin old man, boy, no matter what your origin, I will definitely kill you!"

"Not only to kill you, but also to kill all the people in the nearby villages. Wait!"

The vicious words seemed particularly terrifying in the night, Liu Xianxian couldn't help but shudder, and his heart was thumping. Fortunately, Li Yun was by her side.

Otherwise, she will be killed by the cloudy old man in the mountains this time when she shoots the documentary, or will be regarded as a ban by him.

The zombie has infinite power, its body is hard, and the bullet can only punch a hole deep in the thumb, which is so strong that it is abnormal.

But fortunately, the four special forces are not vegetarian either. They just brought hooks and a tough rope. After solving the four zombies, the remaining three were captured by them.

"Okay, that's great!"

Liao Hua and Director Zhang raised their eyebrows, and the two forensic doctors directly applauded.

Although zombies are terrifying, they can't break away after being  with a rope. They can only twist their bodies around. Not only is it not scary, it looks funny.

The capture of zombies means that you can experiment with them and come up with ways to deal with zombies.

Li Yun breathed a sigh of relief. He seemed to see these zombies being dissected by a large group of doctors in white coats, which must be very funny.

"Ding, the host made a choice to repel the Tianyin old man, and the reward (justice value +1000, money +1 million, all attributes +1000, experience value +500,000, random purple gift*2) has been distributed!"

When Li Yun was in ambush, the system gave a choice event to escape or defeat the enemy. Unfortunately, he failed to kill the Tianyin old man, otherwise the reward would be more.

However, the gain this time has greatly exceeded his expectations. Li Yun's current attributes are soaring, and he has directly come to Twelve Thousand+!

Chapter 305: Concubine Wan Qing with insufficient sleep

After confirming that the old man Tianyin had indeed escaped, Liao Hua took Director Zhang, two special forces, and two forensic doctors into the cave to search. After a while, they walked out with a serious expression.

"There are indeed a lot of corpses inside!"

"This matter is very important, and it should not be disclosed. Let's go back to Donggou Village. We can't keep it here. We will talk about it when I call someone to come."

"Li Yun, are you staying here or are you leaving right away tonight?"

What Liao Hua meant. Li Yun understood that if the old Tianyin still had a party, everyone would become very dangerous.

Li Yun was about to speak when the system prompt came again.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Assist Liao Hua to defeat the old man of Tianyin again, reward a certain amount of justice, a certain number of attributes, a golden gift bag*1, and an experience value of +500,000. It will be recognized at the national level and will be more beneficial to the future of the host.

Option 2: Leave, no reward. "

Li Yun paused, shook his head and said: "I will stay with you to deal with the old man Tianyin, see what he is capable of, and dare to say Tucun's words!"

"Li, Li Yun, I will stay too!" Liu Xianxian plucked up courage and expressed his thoughts euphemistically.

"Xianxian, you still..."

"No, I stay!"

Liu Xianxian was very determined, saying that none of the villagers had left. She believed Li Yun and also believed that Liao Hua would call more soldiers to deal with the enemy.

Li Yun had no choice but to agree. He actually wanted to be with the immortals and exchange feelings.

It was about 11 o'clock in the evening when everyone returned to Donggou Village.

But the work of Liao Hua and others will continue. Director Zhang wakes up the crew and lets them choose whether to leave overnight or wait the next day.

Surprisingly, Director Xia also chose to stay, saying that he wanted to see the big scene and prepare for future movies.

It is of course impossible for the video recorder to be allowed to use, and even everyone can not take pictures to prevent panic caused by spreading it out.

Liao Hua contacted the chief leader overnight to report the situation in detail. Let alone the others, let the soldiers from the three brigades come to protect the villagers.

"Can't the villagers evacuate?" Li Yun asked curiously.

Liao Hua smiled bitterly: "Even if it can be withdrawn, how many villages need to be withdrawn? How about Nanfeng Town? So I can only fight with him!"

With the firepower of the brigade soldiers, I believe that dealing with the Tianyin old man is not a problem.

However, Li Yun was still vaguely worried. It is impossible for the old man Tianyin to not know the combat effectiveness of the modern army, but he still dared to speak wildly. He should have full certainty.

There are no more prompts from the system, but Li Yun can't use the system either.

"Jingle Bell!"

After the phone rang for nearly a minute, he was finally connected by the other party.

"Concubine Wan Qing, it's me..."

"die!"

With a snap, the phone was hung up angrily by Concubine Wan Qing, Li Yun was stunned for a long time.

Liu Xianxian put his arms around his waist and leaned his head on Li Yun's shoulders. Seeing this, he asked curiously: "Concubine Wan Qing? Is the other party a woman?"

She is now very sensitive to the women around Li Yun, this may be due to a girl's instinct.

"Ahem, it's not what you think, Xianxian, do you want to go to bed first? It's almost twelve o'clock!"

After returning, he took a shower. Liu Xianxian insisted on pulling Li Yun with her, saying that he was afraid that he would not be able to sleep and he needed Li Yun to coax her.

As an international star and the core figure of the crew, Liu Xianxian's sleeping place is naturally different.

She bought a six-million-dollar "Amodiro Expedition Off-Road" RV, which was specially used for her rest while filming in the wild.

Chapter 306: Consort Wan Qing, I love you

There is a large space in the RV, with a kitchen with induction cooker, sink, refrigerator, bathroom, wardrobe, and double bed.

After closing the door of the RV, it becomes a confined space, safe and comfortable, and nothing will be heard from the outside.

Therefore, Li Yun is now sitting on Liu Xianxian's dedicated double bed, and she hugs her to make a phone call.

"Don't~"

Liu Xianxian's head rubbed against Li Yun, and he smiled and said coquettishly: "Tomorrow morning we don't have to get up early, we can sleep late, you can be busy, and then coax me to sleep~, tonight, you and I will sleep here~ "

She said these incomparably shameful words in a soft voice, even she herself felt ashamed.

It turns out that a girl in love can really say something sweet and crooked.

Li Yun was taken aback and looked at Liu Xianxian in disbelief. Could it be that she wanted to take the initiative to dedicate her life...?

"You, you must not be crooked!"

Liu Xianxian's face blushed, "I just think you are too tired today, so I want you to have a good rest... You can only hold me tonight, don't move your hands, otherwise, otherwise..."

Otherwise, she really doesn't know what to do.

Liu Xianxian knew that even if Li Yun wanted to do something with her, she would not object.

"Xianxian!"

Seeing the blush on her pure and beautiful cheeks, Li Yun's heart was hot, but he had to suppress the flame in his heart.

Liu Xianxian has deep roots in him and will not oppose his stubbornness, but Li Yun can't live up to her trust.

Because the time has not yet arrived, Xianxian is like a green fruit. Although Li Yun can eat her now, it is not the most suitable time.

The fruit is immature and it is not good for both parties to just eat it.

"Ahem, I will continue to call her, and I have to ask clearly tonight!"

"Good~"

Liu Xianxian hugged Li Yun, half-body lying on top of him, and took out his mobile phone to surf the Internet. She liked the comfortable atmosphere.

Li Yun is more miserable. Xianxian's figure is first-rate, as exquisite and elegant as a model. Coupled with a thin pajamas, Li Yun can almost feel the heat transferred from her soft body. With great strength, he suppressed the impulse.

"Jingle Bell."

The phone continued to call, and the other party was connected the next moment.

"Concubine Wan Qing, I..."

"Are you sick? You call in the middle of the night and don't know if the girl is going to sleep at night to get enough sleep?!"

"Tell you, dare to call again, I will stab you to death with a hairpin!"

Snapped!

The call was hung up by the angry Concubine Wan Qing.

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry, Liu Xianxian covered his mouth and smirked, and said, "It seems that this concubine Wan Qing knows how to maintain her, and lack of sleep is indeed a big taboo for girls."

Li Yun shrugged. He knew he would be beaten if he called someone at night, but he had to beat him. After thinking about it, Li Yun continued to fight.

"You want to die..."

"I love you!"

For an instant, Concubine Wan Qing's irritable voice stopped. On the other end of the phone, she repeatedly asked in an incredible tone: "What did you say?"

"Concubine Wan Qing, I love you!"

Li Yun's tone was flat, but the impact on Concubine Wan Qing was no less than that of killing the saint in the Hidden Sacred Valley with his own hands.

The saint who pretends to be aloof, arrogant, and always keeps a plain expression, Concubine Wan Qing can't wait to slap her a few times, let her show a look of resentment.

It must be very interesting.

This time Li Yun's sudden confession made Concubine Wan Qing, who had never imagined that she would be treated this way, directly stunned.

Chapter 307: We're friends

The Six Demon Gates, and many people who have seen her appearance after disguise, coveted her.

But those people have never confessed without confession, their greed and possessiveness towards her are all written on their faces, and they will not confess at all.

Therefore, Li Yun's "I love you" has an impact on Concubine Wan Qing no less than seeing the saint dying suddenly, or showing a shy look.

"Uh?"

Li Yun has a bad feeling. Concubine Wan Qing hasn't spoken for so long. Is it serious?

"Ahem, what I said just now was to get your attention, now I'm talking about business."

Liu Xianxian was completely stunned, Li Yun unexpectedly confessed to other girls in front of her!

It was not until Li Yun confided the reason that Liu Xianxian pinched his waist in dissatisfaction and complained: "You can't confess to girls casually, don't do this next time!"

Li Yun gave a wry smile, and quickly apologized to Concubine Wan Qing.

"Hehe, it seems you really want to die."

Concubine Wan Qing's face was indifferent, but her inner feelings were extremely complicated. It turned out that Li Yun didn't like her.

"Let's talk about business." Li Yun said sternly: "Do you know someone whose nickname is 'Tianyin Old Man'?"

"do not know."

Concubine Wan Qing's tone was so cold that she said, "If you call me late at night just for this boring topic, then you don't have to contact me anymore."

Li Yun could feel that she was not joking.

The current Concubine Wan Qing is her true character!

"He is a spell cultivator, that is, a so-called immortal cultivator!"

"Oh?"

"You can control zombies, you can use a trick to cover a ten-meter radius of black fog, and you can put dozens of human limbs together to form a red monster!"

Concubine Wan Qing fell silent, and Li Yun's tone was serious: "I think, you should know each other now?"

According to Li Yun's speculation, the people who can use spells come from the Hidden Sacred Valley and the Six Demon Sects, or there are some hidden sects, such as Maoshan School, or Miaojiang Gu Poison.

But according to Concubine Wan Qing's previous performance, she should be very familiar with these people.

"Why are you asking me?" Concubine Wan Qing asked suddenly.

"It's very simple, because I know you know something about these." Li Yun said frankly.

"Are you sure I can say?"

"Hey? Are you not my friend? Why don't you say it?"

"Are you serious?" Concubine Wan Qing asked, her tone changed slightly.

She grew up from the Six Demon Gates and has not had any friends so far.

Either using the relationship, or she was called by the elders in the martial arts, and everyone was screaming at each other. If she hadn't had a senior to protect her, I'm afraid she would have been coveted by some people in the martial arts who like beauty.

Of course, that was before, and now Concubine Wan Qing's strength is enough to make her stand firm in the six magic gates, and no one dares to ask her for service anymore.

"Of course, we are friends." Li Yun smiled and said, "Didn't we talk very well last time? Could it be that you want to be mine... ahem!"

He wanted to talk about his wife, but Liu Xianxian was by his side and had to shut up.

Concubine Wan Qing snorted coldly, "Wife? In the next life!"

But her attitude has eased a lot.

"I don't know the old man Tianyin. There are many old monsters hiding in the Six Demon Gates. Except for the assigned elders, no one knows these old monsters, and no one knows where they are hiding."

Concubine Wan Qing gloated, "I can only say that you are not lucky when you meet, wait for you to die!"

Chapter 308: Ding, Concubine Wanqing's favorability rate increases by 30

Concubine Wan Qing is waiting, waiting for Li Yun to ask her.

Being able to control zombies is definitely a very scary thing for ordinary people. She thinks Li Yun is scared and overwhelmed, so she came to beg her!

But Li Yun did not!

"Qing Concubine, don't mind if I call you like this?" Li Yun smiled.

"Whatever, but when there are outsiders, you'd better call me Saintess, lest you get into trouble."

"Master Saint..."

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry, you are a sage of hair, the witch is almost the same.

But he didn't get entangled. He continued to ask: "Well, I don't want your information in vain, as long as you are willing to reveal the weaknesses of some people like Tianyin Old Man, or what moves he will use, and how to crack it. I will give you some gifts!"

"Hehe, it's so funny, would you give me a gift?"

Concubine Wan Qing was very disdainful, "Do you think I care about gifts from mere mortals? Save it, because the methods used to deal with ordinary girls are not effective for me!"

Although his tone was extremely mocking, how could Li Yun hear another meaning.

Means, she is willing to be tempted by the means of treating unusual girls?

"This world is not only the Hidden Sacred Valley and the Six Demon Gates, there are many things you don't know."

Li Yun smiled mysteriously, "Maybe I can also bring you surprises, for example, some pills!"

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Give Concubine Wan Qing a detox pill, and reward Concubine Wan Qing with a degree of favorability +30.

Option 2: Give Concubine Wan Qing a medium-sized detoxification pill, and reward Concubine Wan Qing's favorability degree +20.

Option 3: Give Concubine Wan a small detoxification pill, and reward Concubine Wan's favorability +10. "

Me Cao?

Li Yun's face showed a surprised expression. This selection event was really hidden deep enough. The system only issued a reminder when he knew that he was going to trade with Concubine Wan Qing, which was easy to miss.

However, the complete Detoxification Pill was a golden gift, and Li Yun only had one in his inventory, and it was obtained by accident when he was on a mission.

The rest are small-scale detoxification pills or medium-scale detoxification pills, which are much less effective.

Send Wan Qingfei Detoxification Pill, does it mean she needs to get rid of the poisoning state now? Maybe it's a curse or something.

The system's detoxification pills have extremely powerful functions, which can not only remove all poisons in the world, but also cure curses, weakness, cancer and other physical ill conditions.

Different from the recovery pill, the recovery pill can live dead flesh and bones, and the broken limbs can be regrown, and the effect is extremely overbearing!

Is it worth using a precious detoxification pill to exchange the 30 favorability rating of the concubine Wan Qing?

"Pills?"

Concubine Wan Qing yawned, and said boringly: "In the six magic gates, there are piles of pill, and some can enter the body tempering state by eating one. It is easy to insist on eating, and even break through the innate. You said I still What pill do you want?"

If this kind of pill is known to other gangs in the martial arts, they will probably go crazy to seize these pill.

Entering the innate means that the titmouse becomes a phoenix and becomes the pillar of a sect. Many second-rate sects have thousands of disciples, but the innate has only a few people.

Li Yun smiled confidently: "If you say, can I give you a pill that can remove all the poisons in the world?"

"Huh, you treat me as a three-year-old kid?"

Concubine Wan Qing obviously didn't believe it.

There are too many swindlers in the arena, and even go to the streets casually. There are also many old Chinese doctors who claim that the combination of Chinese and Western medicine can cure all diseases.

But the facts have proved that they are all cheating.

Chapter 309: Concubine Wan Qing's Dream

Li Yun continued: "Not only can it remove the toxins, but it can also remove all curses and other bad effects. Consort Wan Qing, you need this kind of medicine, right?"

Concubine Wan Qing's heart was shocked, and her voice became indifferent again: "Who are you?!"

In her martial art, she has been sheltering her since she was young, and she is also the senior that Concubine Wan Qing most valued. It was because she was buried in the Hidden Sacred Valley thirty years ago, and was used by the valley owner of the Hidden Sacred Valley with the Heavenly Lightning Thunder.

Until now, the power of the sky thunder in that senior's body has been destroying her whole body, making her painful, and her strength can only be displayed by less than three layers.

If the pill that Li Yun said was so magical, the senior of Concubine Wan Qing would have saved it!

"I am your friend, nothing more!" Li Yun said lightly.

Concubine Wan Qing was silent for a long time, and said coldly: "I don't know who the old man Tianyin is, but according to your description, he is a master at least in the middle stage of refining God, which means that he can use the spirit of the body. The technique of..."

After obtaining the information he wanted, Li Yun nodded and said, "Thank you Qing Concubine for your generosity. After I kill the old man Tianyin, how about going to Zhonghai City to find you?"

"Casual."

Immediately afterwards, Concubine Wan Qing hung up the phone coldly.

for a long time.

Concubine Wan Qing hugged her knees, leaned on the wall and sat on the soft big bed. She didn't have the slightest sleepiness. After a long time, many people from the six magic gates were guarding her, but Concubine Wan Qing's heart was incomparable. Loneliness and sadness.

Only on a quiet night, when no one saw it, would Concubine Wan Qing show such a helpless look.

In the daytime, she will always be the cold-blooded and resolute six saints!

In other words, the six witches!

"Asshole, if you dare to lie to me, I will want you to be ashamed!!"

After violently cursing, Consort Wan Qing let out a long sigh, and then fell asleep deeply.

Inexplicably, she had a dream. In the dream, she put on a red wedding gown, a phoenix crown, and a gorgeous chiffon, and she sat nervously and shyly on the big bed with the word 'Happy'.

She waited for a long time, when the lively sound outside the door gradually disappeared, the door opened gently, and then Concubine Wan Qing saw her only friend come in.

The expression on his face was extremely gentle. Even though the red hijab blocked the eyes of 'Qing Concubine Wan', he still saw his loving movements.

When her only friend lifted the red hijab for her, Concubine Wan Qing clearly saw that she herself lowered her head shyly, and then the other party used her finger to lift her smooth chin.

"Husband~, tonight, please pity your concubine~!"

The next moment, Concubine Wan Qing woke up abruptly, her pure and beautiful cheeks flushed hot.

"I actually called him in my dream...husband..."

Li Yun didn't receive the reward from the system. It is estimated that he would really have to go back to Zhonghai City to detoxify her.

However, his goal has been achieved, and Li Yun has learned a lot about the practitioners through the words of Concubine Wan Qing.

Sure enough, as he expected, the practitioner is very strong, but at the same time very weak.

Every time they release a spell, they will consume a lot of mana, and this mana usually takes a long time to replenish. This is the biggest weakness of the practitioner!

"Consort Wan Qing, you are really generous."

Li Yun was in a complicated mood. Concubine Wan Qing's disclosure of this information was equivalent to telling Li Yun of her weaknesses, and she was full of sincerity.

Chapter 310: Men and women

When Li Yun woke up the next day, he felt a gentle and graceful girl's body, gentle and fragrant nephrite, and the beauty was smothering it. No wonder the ancients said that Wenrouxiang is a tomb of heroes.

With such a beautiful and lovely girlfriend by his side, who is willing to get up so quickly?

"Big lazy pig, awake?"

When Liu Xianxian heard the movement, he smiled and looked at her on his chest, his black hair hanging down, his pajamas were a little messy, and his eyebrows became more and more attractive.

The two of them faced each other, their eyes were full of tenderness and affection, and no longer said anything about this situation.

I don't know how long it took.

"Huh~"

Liu Xianxian lay on his chest softly and weakly, with a blushing face, and Xiao Xiang exhaled slightly.

Hao Tong was a little bit beyond her imagination just now. It turned out that it would really be like this between boys and girls when they have strong feelings.

However, it feels so good.

Li Yun stroked her waterfall-like black hair and smiled: "Xianxian, you said you couldn't sleep last night. After I finished the call, I saw that you didn't move!"

"Huh~"

Liu Xianxian bit her Zhu lip lightly, and said shyly: "I was a little tired yesterday, plus you gave me that sleep regulator pill. When I wanted to go to sleep, I fell asleep within three seconds~, hehe Hey, Li Yun, you are so kind!"

With that, he actively rewarded Li Yun with an intimacy.

Sleep regulation Dan is really great for her.

Li Yun nodded her little nose, "Because you are in an environment where you can sleep, and your heart is extremely relaxed, so you want to sleep."

"Yeah~"

"Well, let's get up, otherwise others will laugh."

Liu Xianxian got up obediently, and the two of them finished washing in the RV. Li Yun took the opportunity to dote on Xianxian several times, causing her to blush again and hammering his chest with a small fist to express his dissatisfaction.

Opening the car door, Li Yun and Liu Xianxian walked out.

"Morning, Brother Li!"

"Sister-in-law early!"

"Brother Li is all red, it seems that something good happened last night!"

"Brother Li, our fairy sister will leave it to you!"

There were still many people in the crew who didn't leave, and they made a lot of noise, just like making trouble in the bridal chamber, and shame Liu Xianxian too much.

Everyone saw her innocent and beautiful face showing such an expression, and they became more and more sure that this beautiful and innocent international star must have given his most precious first blood to Li Yun last night.

"I'm Cao, Brother Li, you are really... admirable!"

The men are not envious one by one, but compared to before, now they have only envy left.

Li Yun is worthy of Liu Xianxian, the two men are talented men and women, even men and women, both men and women, all of them are both talented and beautiful. They can be described as a couple of gods and immortals, which can only be envied and cannot be jealous.

Li Yun smiled and said nothing, these wretched guys didn't bother to care about them.

Li Yun was not afraid that they would reveal it and cause trouble to Liu Xianxian.

After all this group of people saw his methods, they were sure of being tight-lipped.

Besides, there is no official announcement, and no one believes them even if they say it out, as long as there is no photo leaking out.

After breakfast, Li Yun and Liu Xianxian went to Xiaomei's home again, but did not mention her father's affairs, but left a lot of things.

The money is also available, but it is paid every month, not all at once, so as not to encounter jealous people to grab it.

"Big brother, my dad..." Xiaomei seemed to have realized something, and asked this sentence. Seeing the silent expressions of the two, she didn't ask any more questions.

"I believe your father will find it!"
