

Godly Choice 3101

Chapter 3101: Rich world

"Yeah~"

Shan Xiaoxiao hugged her mother and babbled generally: "Mom, you have changed."

"Huh? What has changed?"

"Before you didn't blame Xiaoxiao, but now you blame Xiaoxiao for being playful, so my mother has changed~"

"Uh, this."

Shan Ruqing was a little flustered and wanted to explain that she was not changed, but...

"I know."

Shan Xiaoxiao looked up at her mischievously: "Mom thinks that Xiaoxiao should also be disciplined strictly because Xiaoxiao has more love from his father, right?"

"...No such thing!"

"Hehe, Mom, actually Xiaoxiao likes her mother to discipline me, but the previous mother doesn't like it."

"what?"

"The previous mother, um, was too fake, and forced Xiaoxiao to be a good boy, Xiaoxiao, and still like... the current mother."

Amidst the babble, the daughter slept soundly in her arms, leaving Shan Ruqing fixedly looking at her small face without moving for a long time.

A daughter needs a father, and she also needs a man to rely on.

only.....

The next day, Shan Ruqing brought her happy daughter, mother and daughter to the French concession. Looking at the rows of houses and mansions in the last century, Shan Xiaoxiao was surprised: "Mom, live in Are all the ladies here?"

Shan Ruqing almost fell, "Where did you know this word?"

"In the China Beach TV series, aren't all the ladies living in these houses?" Shan Xiaoxiao was so innocent that she didn't know how to answer, so she could only say vaguely: "Maybe these houses are rented out. For others, it is used as a place for clubs and leisure gatherings. After all, it takes a lot of repairs every year."

Shan Xiaoxiao recognized this statement. Many courtyards in Beijing are also rented out. They can only live in, and they cannot renovate and change the layout of the courtyards.

But when the mother and daughter came to Mansion No. 3, they realized that the situation was completely different.

After the iron gate was slowly opened, the car drove in. The mother and daughter saw a garden with a strong personal style. In the middle was a mansion. From the decoration, traces of life, and several maids walking and chatting in the garden. Look, this is entirely personal, not state-owned.

In addition to being unable to remodel the appearance and overall layout of the house, the owner of the mansion completely owns the house, which is different from the rented courtyard.

"Welcome to Miss Shan."

Several young and beautiful maids walked out from the gate of the mansion, bowed to them, and instructed a servant to drive the car into the garage without the secretary's own driving.

"Uh, uh, I actually, that... can drive."

The secretary lady was completely stupid, stammering speechless.

She is not a local bun, and she has followed President Shan in and out of top business circles, and she has also seen many billionaires with wealth.

But compared with the owners who lived in the French concession mansion, the bosses who were worth tens of billions of dollars and were very proud of their speech and behavior suddenly became upstarts.

The owner of the mansion has yet to show up. Just these well-trained maids and this cultural relic house, which is worth not knowing how many billions, or even sold at all, is enough to crush those luxury cars that they have bought in style. Show how many tens of millions of rich people.

This is the real wealthy family, hidden in the most prosperous but also the most low-key mansion. Ordinary people are not qualified to see them at all, and can only meet with these wealthy men.

Even those rich and powerful are all under the wealthy family with a long heritage, it is not impossible!

Chapter 3102: Mansion

Led by the four beautiful maids, the three of them entered the mansion.

The expected magnificent furnishings did not appear. The lobby in the mansion was unexpectedly ordinary, much lower-key than the mansions where the secretaries had been.

But when she noticed that the painting was hanging, it was a painting of a deceased celebrity who was known for painting shrimp and was regarded as a master by most of Huang Xuan's people, her eyes suddenly widened.

Then, the lady secretary keenly perceives the difference in the furniture in the mansion, as if they are all very old, but a closer look shows that there is a simple and atmospheric sense of age in the old, which is well integrated into this Building with a century-old mansion atmosphere.

Taking a closer look, Miss Secretary sucked in a cold breath.

The tea sets on the table all seem to be antique!

In other words, the house is full of antiques? !

This is too exaggerated!

"Hello."

A gentle woman's voice came from the spiral staircase, and the lady secretary looked up and was immediately surprised.

The woman who walked down was wearing a lavender cheongsam. The slit was very conservative. It was between the calves, but the excellent figure was perfectly presented by the close-fitting cheongsam. A touch of pure white calf skin was faintly exposed when the cheongsam walked around. Dignified and elegant, like the expensive ladies of the last century, walking towards them gracefully.

"You, hello."

Not to mention Miss Secretary, even Shan Ruqing was shocked.

The French concession hidden in the central area of Zhonghai, and the foreign-style house mansion in the center of the French concession, there is such a beautiful intellectual woman in the mansion, this kind of low-key wealthy aristocracy, even in the capital where the power and the nobles gather. Not much.

The owner of the mansion did not deliberately show off their wealth, but this ubiquitous specialness—something that ordinary people would never have access to, has raised their status to a new height.

"Hello two young ladies, and hello this little lady."

The elegant cheongsam woman smiled gently at them, then leaned down and said hello to the little Lolita.

It can be seen that she is a person who likes children very much. The gentleness and maternal brilliance on her face are not much worse than Shan Ruqing, who is a real mother.

"Hello, sister~~~"

Shan Xiaoxiao shouted sweetly, and then curiously asked: "My sister is so beautiful, my name is Shan Xiaoxiao, how should I call my sister?"

"Hehe, my little sister is so cute~, um, my name is Gong Lianyi, Cailian is dependent on each other."

Gong Lianyi chuckled, her beautiful and dignified appearance made the secretary even more nervous.

"I am Shan Ruqing, the mother of this child."

"Well, sister Ruqing, I heard about you last night, oh yes, don't stand, come up, they are all waiting for you on the second floor."

In the somewhat formal expressions of the two of them, Gong Lianyi invited them to the second floor.

Anyone who has been to the villa as a guest knows that the higher the floor, the closer to the owner's residence, and the invitation to go up will prove that you are close to the owner of the villa.

If you are only invited to sit and chat in the living room on the first floor, there is no doubt that the owner of the villa just treats you as an ordinary friend and has no idea of letting you touch his daily life area.

Shan Ruqing, who was called Ruqing's sister by Gong Lianyi, felt very complicated.

On the one hand, I felt a little surprised and a little bit happy because I was recognized.

Chapter 3103: Sister Ruqing

On the other hand, the name "Sister Ruqing" gave Shan Ruqing an uncomfortable feeling of being persecuted.

Only when they became their sisters will they be called Sister Ruqing and Sister Ruqing, but there is really no certain relationship between Shan Ruqing and Li Yun, the two are just...just having a good opinion of each other.

She admits that she does have some special feelings for Li Yun, or it can be said that it is the affection between men and women. If Li Yun really pursues her, she might be confused for a while, or consider that she is very small for her daughter. Heat agreed.

Even though there are many confidantes around him, Shan Ruqing has seriously considered what he promised to pursue.

But Li Yun didn't seem to show what he meant for her.

The first few handshakes were all to comfort her or to help her block Mu Yongkang. It was not out of love for girls that she held her hand.

But now?

Not only were the four beautiful daughters very enthusiastic about her yesterday, they took the initiative to call her sister Ruqing.

Even in this mansion that I came to today, I saw a cheongsam woman who was suspected to be the owner of the mansion. She was like Li Yun's "right wife". She also called herself sister Ruqing.

It is equivalent to saying that almost all the women around Li Yun recognized her identity, and went smoothly... No, this seems to be more appropriate to be bizarre.

It is hard for Shan Ruqing to imagine why there are so many women who can accept her without too much jealousy. Is it possible that these young ladies have been brainwashed by an evil man, such as Li Yun?

But judging from the performance of these wealthy daughters, they still maintain the appearance of elegant, noble, intelligent princesses, and have not been brainwashed at all.

She was not brainwashed, but she accepted her cleanly—at least on the surface, Shan Ruqing can only think of one possibility:

Li Yun is very good to them, so good that they are willing to accept more sisters for him, and they don't want to embarrass Li Yun too much.

They understand the person they love and are willing to believe that he will not mess around outside. It is only because of compelling relationship-such as Shan Ruqing's current situation that she provokes other girls.

"Sister Ruqing, what's the matter with you?" Gong Lianyi looked at Shan Ruqing who was standing under the stairs slightly surprised. Is she afraid of seeing the "sisters"?

"Mom?" Shan Xiaoxiao also called her.

"I, I'm fine!"

Shan Ruqing let out a sigh of relief and walked up calmly.

No matter what you see or face next, as long as your daughter is healthy and happy, that's fine.

Since my daughter likes Li Yun and Li Yun also likes her, then... it's not impossible to let him be a little dad.

Shan Ruqing made an excuse for herself, but two red clouds quietly appeared on her cheeks, which surprised the secretary who followed carefully.

On the second floor, there is nothing special about the ground covered with high-quality red carpets, and even the large number of antique decorations around it is nothing to surprise.

What really shocked the secretary lady was that in the large living room on the second floor, there were seven or eight beautiful women with their own characteristics.

There is a classic girl with an emerald green skirt and a haughty look, with a slight amorous feeling between the eyebrows; there are wealthy daughters with a charming face, a cheerful and bright temperament, and a sincere smile; there are Xiaojiabiyu, and a childlike beauty, and two The twin girls who look exactly the same sit next to each other and are beautiful.

Chapter 3104: Gathering of Beauty

The whole room of stunning women was divided into small groups according to the sofa seats to chat with each other, but they were all different in temperament, but they merged together so magically, forming a big family centered on the man in the corner.

The secretary was completely shocked.

Those rich men who pack a few small honeys are utterly vulgar in front of Mr. Li Yun. Any of these stunning girls is countless times stronger than the unbearable little honeys combined. There is no room for comparison at all.

But this Mr. Li Yun owns a full house.

The secretary lady was about to be frightened. What was it like seeing nearly ten fairy-like fairies gathered together? She can easily answer: If you are a woman, then the first time you see it, you have already been taken up by shame.

If it's a man... I'm afraid that when you see this scene, your eyes will be red with jealousy.

"Sister Ruqing, are you here? Come sit down, oh yes, where's Xiaoxiao? Come in sister Su's arms~"

Su Muxin changed into more elegant clothes today, and she no longer dresses casually like before, but in front of acquaintances, her personality is still so easy-going, and a few words can resolve Shan Ruqing's uneasy psychology.

The secretary obediently found Zhang Xiaostool and sat behind the president, listening respectfully to the conversation between the president and these wealthy daughters.

What Mu Yongkang is no longer worth paying attention to.

Every beautiful girl here has a terrifying background. Mu Yongkang is not worth mentioning. What's more, the energy formed by nearly ten girls gathered together is even more terrifying.

Sure enough, the girls didn't mention Mu Yongkang at all in the chat. They first had a fight with Shan Xiaoxiao-mainly Su Muxin, who was called Xiaojiao by the girls, and she laughed the most and happily.

Next is a person called Xiao Liuli. She is always deliberately serious, but every time she is provoked by Xiao Chili, she will expose her active and playful nature and play jokes with her.

Shan Xiaoxiao is like a fish in this environment, and she also has a restless heart, and her sister's screams are unambiguous.

After the fun, these beautiful girls talked about Penglai Island again.

The secretary pricked her ears to listen.

"Xiao Liuli, have you encountered any problems recently?"

"Trouble? No, hehe, I have asked my subordinates to buy a large piece of land, as the resident of our Fairy Club, currently there seems to be... Feiyao, how many of us do we have?"

"There are more than three thousand five hundred people with supernatural powers, over two thousand acquired and congenital warriors, and some Western people who claim to be magicians also want to join. Sister Mingzhu said that she can open a branch called the Valkyrie League. Sister Feng expressed objection, saying that she would give it to her husband...well, too much."

"Haha, I agree with Tianfeng's statement."

"Last week, we organized the hunt for an eighth-level monster and obtained a bone, a very magical bone. I will bring it back to you when we have time."

"Beautiful country recently wanted to find us to cooperate, but I turned it down and gave too little money."

"A maiden from the Sakura Kingdom also seems to be looking for us. It is the person behind the Grandmaster Realm that Li Yun defeated in the capital before. It seems to be called Ise Shenzakura, she looks very beautiful... um, don't let him go!"

The secretary was shocked.

Chapter 3105: Hu Wei is my grandpa

Will fairies be so good on Penglai Island?

There are many people with supernatural powers in Penglai Island, but there are more than 3,000 people in an organization with supernatural powers alone, and two thousand warriors...The organization's power is already comparable to a trillion-dollar company.

After all, the supernaturalists are also powerful people, and the resources required to hire them are too many. One month's salary may be 100,000 yuan.

—What the poor secretary lady didn't know was that not only was the salary of the psychic of the Fairy Society only a little over ten thousand yuan, but it also had to pay back: The fairy would use the cheats that can be practiced to sign a contract with many psychics, and one sign is ten. The kind of twenty years.

Coupled with letting powerful supernaturalists act as middle-level leaders and supernatural powers managing superhumans, the top of the Fairy Society is a group of beautiful and powerful girls, and behind them is the mysterious Li Chaoren.

The strength of the Fairy Society is conceivable. Many people with supernatural powers are proud to join the branch of the Fairy Society. They look forward to rising up and meet Li Chaoren, who saved Penglai Island and opened the global Aura era. .

Unfortunately, Li Yun didn't even want to go to Penglai Island. At least for a long time, before he gained the power to enter the Biyou Palace, he went to Penglai Island to play with his confidantes around him.

"Let's contact Tianfeng." Xiao Mingzhu took out a computer notebook and put it on the table, made a call first, and soon included the video.

Another beautiful girl appeared on the screen. Shan Ruqing was already numb. Even if she saw another younger girl approaching the screen, she was not surprised.

He was just a little shocked at Li Yun's taste, he wanted to be indifferent like a Valkyrie, and Lori, who was fifteen or sixteen, did not refuse.

"You are the only granddaughter of Mr. Shan, Shan Ruqing?" The younger Lori recognized her. Shan Ruqing looked a little gloomy and asked, "Yes, are you?"

There are not many people who know her grandfather in the capital, after all, grandfather has been dead for more than ten years.

Knowing little Lori means that she is also from the compound.

"Hu Wei is my grandfather~"

Hu Xiaomeng grinned and said, "Don't worry, your grandpa is my grandpa's old subordinate. As long as I tell him, Mu Yongkang...is that name? Humph, that guy will die!"

Hu Wei!

have invested several billion yuan with venture capital. In recent years, they have also made a lot of money. , Forming an ever-increasing interest chain.

It was so simple that Mu Yongkang was crushed to death, and the secretary didn't quite believe it.

"it is good."

But her president Shan nodded earnestly: "I will give you some information, Ms. Hu, Ms. Mingzhu, about Mu Yongkang's violation of laws and regulations, and... some of the vicious behaviors he has done, including--"

She took a deep breath, looked at Li Yun inexplicably, and said slowly: "Including the embezzlement of my single family assets eight years ago."

Eight years ago, when she gave birth to Shan Xiaoxiao.

What happened at the time was indeed not simple. Mu Yongkang was probably deliberately approaching Shan Ruqing for profit.

"Good~"

Hu Xiaomeng smiled and said, "It's like sister Qing, you, the victim, come forward, so the general trend will become."

Xiao Mingzhu glanced at her on the screen with a weird expression, and said, "Fox Xiaomeng, it seems that you know more than I do."

In modern society, it takes a lot of effort to crush a person, let alone crush a family.

No matter how bad Mu Yongkang is, he must be famous if he wants to beat him. Otherwise, he will be messed up. Even if he can be defeated successfully, it will cause protests from countless people. The risk is far more than that of defeating Mu Yongkang. .

If you want to fight honestly, you need to be famous and let the onlookers know that Mu Yongkang himself did the death, and that he provoked someone who shouldn't be provoked. He took the initiative to make mistakes. Hu Jia Zhao Jia took the sword of justice. A sword chopped off his dog head.

The famous teacher is the general trend in Hu Xiaomeng's mouth.

As long as the momentum is over, then this thing will be done.

Hu Xiaomeng, the little loli, didn't talk about any specific methods of attack, but was only responsible for gathering momentum and casting the sword of justice, and naturally someone would solve Mu Yongkang for her.

This method of controlling the chess game behind the scenes is a bit stronger than Xiao Mingzhu. Among the girls around Li Yun, only Hu Xiaomeng has it.

Jin Liuli didn't interrupt during the whole process, she knew Hu Xiaomeng's methods.

After all, almost all of the development direction of the Fairy Society was decided by Hu Xiaomeng long ago in the Fairy Society. Along the way, it completely verified what Hu Xiaomeng seemed to say casually at the time.

Chapter 3107: family

This is also the reason why the girls knew that Hu Xiaomeng was very young, but they didn't stop her from wanting to go with Li Yun to a hot spring like Adu Mountain for a few days.

Don't look at Hu Xiaomeng, but in the Fairy Club, she is a proper military commander, responsible for the adjustment of the Fairy Club's general direction. Next is Xiao Mingzhu to arrange the route, and then next, it is Jin Liuli, the Fairy Club. Long work.

In the terminology of the company, Hu Xiaomeng is the chairman of the board and usually does not take charge, but she decides all important matters.

Xiao Mingzhu is the executive director, and she does many of the usual things.

Jin Liuli is the president and does everything.

As for Li Yun, it is the company's protective cover. With him, the company does not need to worry about the ups and downs from outside, as long as it is hard enough to develop smoothly.

"Okay, so be it."

Hu Xiaomeng smiled at Shan Ruqing, turned his head and yelled for Brother Yun to show up. He wanted to have a video chat with Brother Yun.

Miss Secretary blinked. She seemed to have heard a word before the frequent word before the chat. Is it an illusion?

"what?"

Shan Xiaoxiao also came over.

"Don't mess around!"

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry. There was a Jin Liuli beside her and she was messy enough, but now he adds a little ghost-sized Shan Xiaoxiao, and the house is even more lively.

Looking at Shan Xiaoxiao's fat little face, Hu Xiaomeng suddenly thought of something and asked her: "Xiaoxiao, how old are you this year?"

"Eight years old, where's Miss Sister?"

"Hmm, my second year!"

Hu Xiaomeng's eyes flickered, and he didn't know what he thought of.

A strange excitement that couldn't be said made her eagerly want to fly to Zhonghai City and get together with Brother Yun, it is best to be with Zhao Tianfeng.

"Next time."

As if seeing what Hu Xiaomeng was thinking, Li Yun said apologetically to her and Zhao Tianfeng.

Hu Xiaomeng wanted to protest very much, but he was too embarrassed to say in front of so many people. He could only hum for a long time, saying that he would fly with Sister Tianfeng to see him some weekend, and that he would have to make time to come.

This is actually meant for all the girls, who usually accompany Li Yun. If she and Zhao Tianfeng fly to Zhonghai City on the weekend, it should be their turn.

"Hehe, do you mind if I'm together?" Su Muxin smiled with a blushing face.

Zhao Tianfeng pursed his lips, his face flushed, and walked away.

Hu Xiaomeng blinked, whispered something, picked up the phone and chatted with her alone, the girls didn't know what they were talking about.

Fang Xue and Li Feng looked at each other, then looked at each other with Gong Qingyu, and they all knew what Xiaojiao was thinking.

Su Muxin seemed to be the leader of their sisters, opening up the relationship between the various small groups.

For example, Su Muxin and Fang Xue and Li Feng, or Xia Feiyao Jin Liuli, and Gong Qingyu Gong Lian Yi, etc., all spent time with Li Yun. She seemed to be a bridge to communicate with the girls, so that everyone should not be so shy. .

Vaguely, the women also recognized this approach, but shyness is inevitable. It may take a long time for everyone to truly let go and accompany Li Yun to make mischief.

"Ahem, let's eat."

Li Yun turned his head and said to Shan Ruqing. Gong Lianyi stood up and smiled and said, "Unless you have lunch ready, such as sister Ruqing, Xiao Xiao, and the secretary, let's go and eat."

She only calls these three people because the others are family members, so there is no need to be polite.

Chapter 3108: A luxurious meal

The dining table in the bungalow mansion is very large. When the secretary sits at the luxurious and luxurious table in a TV series or a detective movie like a mansion of the last century, she almost feels nervous and can't hold her chopsticks firmly.

She is almost ready to be embarrassed. She wants to come to this kind of rich family-an oval luxurious dining table can seat more than a dozen people, just like a round table meeting. The formal lunch will be many rules, and the ceremony will be full, and the atmosphere will be full. A rather solemn banquet.

For example, mistakenly treating the water used for washing hands as drinking, or treating the water used for warming wine as washing hands, this is a mistake that can be ashamed of digging into the ground.

But when she really sat down to eat, the secretary discovered that the owners of this mansion, Gong Qingyu and Gong Lianyi, didn't care about etiquette at all.

The very cold daughter of the palace family took out the iPad by herself and put it on this large table made of pear blossom wood. He was eating while watching anime. Because of this, Gong Lianyi talked about it. The young lady confided in her mouth and continued to watch anime.

The others are not much better.

The most stable-at least the secretary seems to be the most stable Xiao Mingzhu. This one of the most beautiful girls seems to have an extraordinary background, but she also took out her mobile phone at the table and seemed to be contacting someone.

And Su Muxin, Su Tengyun's daughter, had been chatting with Jin Liuli Xia Feiyao happily, and they also stuffed her with each other's food they didn't like.

The so-called food and sleeplessness have never been seen in this special big family.

Everyone at the table is very relaxed, just like an ordinary family.

Even the four beautiful maids who stood by and waited on the table were invited to the table by the host of the house, but they were solemnly rejected by the maids, saying that they could not do this in front of outsiders.

"It turns out that the giants are like this... Well, it must be because there are no elders present. I'll just say that everyone is young and it is impossible to have the elders."

After the secretary was nervous, she began to enjoy the food from the big family. It was just the simplest requirement that the color, aroma, and taste were just the simplest requirements. Many things the secretary couldn't taste at all, just thought it was delicious.

She began to burst into tears. I am afraid that there is no one meal for these things outside of 100,000 yuan, or even hundreds of thousands of meals, I am afraid that I can't taste it once.

But here seems to be just a daily meal. It is conceivable how wealthy the palace family is.

"Woo, sister Qingyu, this caviar is delicious." Shan Xiaoxiao said happily holding a spoon.

Gong Qingyu's expression froze for a moment.

The maid behind immediately understood what the lady was trying to say, and hurried forward to explain: "This seems to be a fairy who will be transported back from Penglai Island. Well, it was the supernatural player who killed a large salmon and got several catties of fish eggs. It's quite cheap. If you want to eat, Xiaoxiao, you can take a few kilos with you."

A few catties of fish eggs...monster salmon.

Miss Secretary is really bursting into tears this time, dare you to feel that all the things on this table are monsters or Lingzhi? !

She originally thought that this meal might not cost hundreds of thousands, but now it seems that this spoonful of fish eggs is worth a million when placed outside. The things produced by monsters are too expensive, let alone fish eggs. This kind of thing can breed the next generation of monster cubs.

But the palace family...no, the fairies of the Fairy Club just used them to eat! ! !

The degree of luxury has broken through the horizon.

Chapter 3109: product release

If the ladies of the Fairy Society know what the secretary thinks, they will laugh out loud.

Monster meat is very precious to outsiders, but it is not very valuable on Penglai Island. Fairies will have channels for selling monster meat, and they can transport monster meat back at a price close to the price of cabbage.

The actual cost of this meal is only tens of thousands of yuan. Although the price is still much higher than that of ordinary people, it is not too expensive for a rich man, and it is only a minute of money.

After lunch, everyone did not continue to talk about Mu Yongkang. Instead, they went to the third floor to rest and gave the secretary a guest room, indicating that she could also take a nap here. The secretary was very frightened about this, and she didn't expect to be here. Taking a nap in a place, I am afraid she will remember it for a long time in the future.

But the secretary was surprised. After thinking about it, she took it for granted that the president and the lady were invited to the third floor, which was more private to the owner of the villa.

It is foreseeable that in the future...the president should be unavoidable.

"Oh, it's not bad actually. Living in this kind of place, the young ladies have such good tempers. I want to join and I'm not so lucky."

With such a heart in mind, Miss Secretary took a nice nap. After getting up at 1:30 in the afternoon, she left for the legendary headquarters building of Baiyun Technology, which has attracted the attention of countless people around the world.

When she really stood in this fifty-story building after being bought by Baiyun Technology, the secretary felt like a mountain standing up.

Obviously she has seen a lot of tall buildings, but there has never been a building that can give her such a sense of awe of looking up intelligently.

Describe in a simple sentence: Baiyun Technology is a giant company that has greatly influenced and changed the global technology industry!

Miss Secretary still remembers that when Baiyun Technology announced that it was about to launch artificial intelligence, the stock prices of global technology, automotive, home furnishing and other companies and companies were all green.

Compared with this, Black Friday in history is actually too kind.

The example is that Guoji's 20 trillion market value has shrunk by half. If it hadn't been for the beautiful country to come forward and talk to Huang Xuanguo, the two sides reached a series of unilateral unequal treaties. After the unequal treaty against the beautiful country, Guoji. Wait for the stock price of technology companies to stabilize.

The content of the agreement can also be summed up in one sentence: Baiyun Technology cooperates with global technology companies to jointly launch next-generation technology products.

So far, the stock market has stabilized without a direct crash.

Artificial intelligence that transcends the age is too terrible, and it crushes contemporary technology companies mercilessly. If it weren't for Huang Xuanguo's decision to focus on human development due to the uncertainty of the Aura era, he would cooperate with global technology companies. Otherwise, I would be afraid of the light. Relying on Baiyun Technology Company is enough to search for global wealth and make Huang Xuanguo the hegemon of the whole earth in one fell swoop.

"President, are we here to participate in the product launch conference of Baiyun Technology?"

The secretary looked at Shan Ruqing and asked anxiously.

It's true that President Shan owns a company with a market value of 50 billion. But compared to a giant like Baiyun Technology and the big guys who will come to Baiyun Technology to participate in the product launch today, the market value of 50 billion is no different from Xiaoxi Mi. , I guess I don't even have the qualifications to be an off-site observer.

Chapter 3110: Big guys gathered

This is not an exaggeration at all, because she has already seen many business leaders who only met in the news before, and they come from all walks of life, from technology to people's livelihood, from retail to e-commerce, from manufacturing to service industry.

In any industry that Miss Secretary can imagine, business leaders in their respective fields have all gathered together.

For example, this group of imposing chairman and president who walked into the Baiyun Science and Technology Building. They belong to the real estate industry. The leader is Xiao Tianyuan, recognized by the secretary, the richest man in Zhonghai City and the owner of Wanyuan Real Estate Group. The big guy of the big guys.

There was a dad sounded in front of Miss Secretary. She turned her head in amazement and found that Miss Xiao Mingzhu called it out. Wait, Xiao Mingzhu, Xiao Tianyuan, could it be...

"Mingzhu, you are here too, sure enough you want to join in the fun."

Xiao Tianyuan in a suit and leather shoes walked over with a smile on his face, followed by a group of colleagues in the real estate industry, who greeted Xiao's daughter one after another.

However, Xiao Tianyuan didn't greet his daughter immediately. He turned his head and smiled at his "son-in-law": "Li Yun, you can count as seeing you today!"

Strictly speaking, Li Yun and Xiao Tianyuan had not met each other, but under the indirect introduction of Xiao Mingzhu, the two had already met.

"Don't dare, uncle laughed, it's a kid I always wanted to visit you, but I didn't have this opportunity!"

Li Yun hurried forward to meet his prospective father-in-law. He didn't expect to meet Mingzhu's father on this occasion.

The group of real estate tycoons following Xiao Tianyuan were all dumbfounded.

Who is this young man?

How do you feel that Xiao Tianyuan, an old fox, doesn't seem to have an attitude toward a junior, but rather respectful, stepping forward to greet him instead of waiting for the junior to come up.

This small detail of interpersonal communication is enough to prove that this young man's status is not simple.

"Hahaha, you are a busy person after all." Xiao Tianyuan said wittily, "When I am free, come to my house for a meal. Recently, Mingzhu is always talking at home."

"Dad!" With a cheerful personality like Xiao Mingzhu, he couldn't help but blush on his face.

When Xiao Tianyuan was about to say something, another group of people came in the distance. The headed man, the secretary lady glanced at it, and his whole body froze, as if... the big people who are often seen in the news and are very familiar are finally in reality. See the same.

"Dad~"

There was another girl's voice next to her. The secretary was stunned for a moment. When she saw a girl named Su Muxin walked out of the daughters beside Li Yun, she realized:

Yes, Su Muxin said before, she is Su Tengyun's daughter!

It's just that I said before, and I really see it now, there are totally two different feelings.

Su Muxin was holding Su Tengyun's arm with a coquettish expression, and the impact was too great.

Su Tengyun didn't say much to his daughter either. He turned around and smiled at Li Yun: "My son-in-law, I haven't seen you for a long time. After today's press conference, my father and I will have a chat. You can come and talk about virtual technology. make a decision!"

A group of real estate tycoons, and a group of technology tycoons are confused.

Only a few people who have paid attention to Li Yun long ago showed a thoughtful expression.
