

Godly Choice 3171

Chapter 3171: Set off

Just getting in the car, Xianxian and the man sat in the car, and the intimate interaction that took place made Zhang Xiaoqing, who had met Li Yun the mysterious man for the first time, plunged into self-doubt.

Is her idol Liu Xianxian being coerced, or is she taking the initiative to like this man?

Because Zhang Xiaoqing secretly observed that since getting in the car and sitting in the back seat of the car, the man pointed to the corner of his lips, while the idol Liu Xianxian, without any disgust or dissatisfaction, directly kissed him.

Zhang Xiaoqing is very sure that even the most greedy man in the world will feel satisfied from the bottom of his heart.

But that hateful man is different!

He kept pointing at the corner of his mouth, and Xianxian seemed to be pressed some switch. He kept going to kiss, and kissed repeatedly. Zhang Xiaoqing couldn't even count how many mouthfuls Xianxian gave to that man. From the side of the Huangjiang River, All the way to Wuyi Avenue, then to Century Plaza, then to Grand Hyatt Mansion, and then to New Century Avenue, passing by the Garden Expo Park.

During this period, the traffic lights stopped more than ten times. It took fifteen minutes to say nothing. Adding to the traffic jam in the morning, it took another half an hour.

In other words, at least, for at least an hour in the car, Zhang Xiaoqing's idol Liu Xianxian, whom Zhang Xiaoqing has always liked since childhood, has been intimacy with her boyfriend in the back seat of the car, or put his arms around his neck, or lay on his lap. Or leaning comfortably on the seat, waiting for Li Yun to kiss her, closing his eyes and slowly responding to this loving intimacy.

Zhang Xiaoqing was deeply shocked.

She also had boyfriends in high school and university, and she also changed several boyfriends, but she never knew that there was such a strong emotional expression between men and women. In just one hour, Xianxian and her boyfriend had kissed more often than her. More than four years of university.

After seeing Xianxian actively cuddling with her boyfriend, Zhang Xiaoqing finally stopped struggling with the previous affairs.

After the stickiness between the two people, even if Xianxian and other women become the man's harem, Xianxian will never suffer any grievance.

This uninterrupted intimacy lasting for an hour is a emotional test for both men and women.

If there is no intimate relationship basis, at most one minute kiss will be tired, and will never kiss for one hour at a stretch.

This is enough to prove that Xianxian is living happily at the moment, and there is not much dissatisfaction with the women around her boyfriend, and the love between the two is enough to overwhelm the grievance.

"Bad guy, it's okay! Don't kiss me anymore!"

Liu Xianxian finally reached out to block Li Yun, because the airport was about to arrive. She had been on this road too many times, and at a glance she knew that there was about five minutes to the airport.

So we can't kiss anymore, or it will be bad.

"Husband~"

Liu Xianxianmu contains spring water, and the charming and charming appearance makes the index finger move.

Li Yun pointed at the corner of his mouth again.

Liu Xianxian laughed out loud and stretched out his hand to twist his face, "You are necrotic, and you want someone to kiss you again. Isn't it enough to kiss you just now? No, you can't kiss again, at least you have to kiss again at night."

It turned out that the fairy who fell in love was so soft and charming.

And at night, it's not just a kiss, right?

Chapter 3172: broker

Li Yun still didn't speak, still pointing to the corner of his lips, with a smile in his eyes.

"You... are necrotic!"

Liu Xianxian puffed up his mouth again and stared at Li Yun in embarrassment, but in the end he still couldn't slap him, so he puffed up his mouth again, and took a very hard bite.

"Ahhh~~~"

Liu Xianxian surrendered, holding his face with both hands, biting and biting, gnawing hard, leaving rows of fine teeth on Li Yun's face for three minutes before muttering, "Is it enough this time?"

Li Yun still laughed, opening his mouth wide and let out an "ah", indicating that he could not speak.

Liu Xianxian opened his eyes wide, thought for a while, and after another thought, he finally reacted: "Bad pervert, you are allowed to speak!!"

"call."

Li Yun pretended to breathe a sigh of relief, as if tired: "I'm suffocated to death, and finally I can speak. Sister Liu, your punishment is terrible."

Liu Xianxian: "..."

She shouldn't have said something stupid about forbidding him to speak before getting off the plane, but later forgot, which caused the bad guy Li Yun to take advantage of this and keep pointing at the corner of her lips, making Liu Xianxian think he wanted to kiss him. So I kept kissing him.

Don't talk about it and kiss a thousand times, right?

"Li Yun, you are necrotic!!"

Liu Xianxian used her small fist to express her embarrassment. Li Yun quickly grabbed her small pink fist and took the initiative to kiss her slightly red lips, "Okay, okay, my fault, and yours Wrong, good."

Liu Xianxian stared at him: "What is my fault?"

"Is that Li Yun's fault and Liu Xianxian's fault?"

"Why did you add a name on purpose? It was clearly your Li Yun's fault. I kissed me for so long and my mouth became swollen."

"Is it swollen? Let my husband come and have a look."

"Go go, don't want you to see, and want to kiss indiscriminately, don't give it~"

The two-minute journey passed in a flash. Zhang Xiaoqing parked the car at the airport and sent someone to drive back after the company.

But less than three seconds after Liu Xianxian got out of the car, he hid in the car in a panic and took out a small mirror to make up her makeup. Only then did her life assistant Xiao Qing react.

"I'm sorry, I'm sorry, Sister Xianxian, I forgot to remind you to dress up!"

Liu Xianxian and Li Yun kissed all the way, no matter how careful, the lips are full of traces of intimacy, and you will definitely be found when you get off the car and enter the airport.

Li Yun didn't care, he could use his mana to make the tooth marks on his face disappear, but Liu Xianxian couldn't do it.

"Why call me Sister Xianxian again, punishing you to move your luggage onto the plane!"

"No... this was originally my job."

After Liu Xianxian put on makeup, put on big sunglasses and a mask, Li Yun suddenly realized that the girl who had been intimate with him for an hour was really a big star who needed to hide her identity.

Being so concealed, Liu Xianxian successfully passed the confession without being noticed by anyone, and boarded the plane with Li Yun and his life assistant.

"No wonder you changed an assistant. You were afraid of being exposed?" Li Yun smiled. If I remember correctly, it turned out that Liu Xianxian had a life assistant named Wu Xiaolan next to him, and now he was replaced by Zhang Xiaoqing.

"certainly not."

Liu Xianxian took his arm and said, "Xiao Lan is going to be Li Feng's agent...ah."

Liu Xianxian covered his mouth and looked over miserably.

Li Yun's face was full of astonishment, "My sister's agent?"

"no no!"

Liu Xianxian waved his hand quickly, this matter was still a secret between her and Li Feng and could not be told to others.

Chapter 3173: Hengzhen

Li Feng wants to be a director in the future, but he also needs an assistant to be a director. So after knowing that her assistant has independent ideas, Liu Xianxian sent her to assist Li Feng in planning her four years of university.

Although it will take a year or two for Li Feng to shoot her own movies and MVs, Wu Xiaolan has no complaints, because she already knows Li Feng's identity: the sister of the dignified chairman of Baiyun Technology.

With this status, are you still afraid of lack of resources and funds in the future?

As long as there is a little bit of wind, whenever Li Feng wants to make a movie, a large group of celebrities will immediately send agents to sign up for the performance, and the pay is unbelievably low, just to get a little relationship with Baiyun Technology.

Yes, Baiyun Technology has nothing to do with the entertainment industry, but it has mastered massive resources.

As long as Baiyun Technology nods and agrees to a certain celebrity endorsing a certain product under its family, the celebrity will immediately fly to the branch as a phoenix and become an internationally renowned star in one fell swoop.

Even if you can't endorse Baiyun Technology's own products, you can still get the favor of those companies that want to get closer to Baiyun Technology. The identity of the * sister itself has too much operability.

"Don't speak out!"

Liu Xianxian looked at Li Yun strangely.

"Promise not to say!"

"No, you have to forget it!"

"I forgot."

"It's almost the same~"

Liu Xianxian understands the rules of the entertainment industry. Whether it is overt or dark, she knows that being famous too early, or having the aura of the sister of Baiyun Technology's chairman, is a benefit for Li Feng, but it is also a disadvantage.

The advantages are obvious, but the disadvantages are also very simple: if you disclose your identity, no one will dare to criticize her in the future.

Therefore, in Liu Xianxian's plan, Li Feng must at least win the domestic best director award before he can reveal his identity.

After getting on the plane, the two of them calmed down. Three hours passed by. After getting off the plane, the two got into a car sent by director Zhang Ke to pick them up. This time there were outsiders, Li Yun and Liu Xianxian. He didn't mess around like before, sitting quietly in the back seat.

About an hour later, the car came to a very characteristic town:

Hengzhen.

Regarding Hengzhen, there is too much information on the Internet. If one of the most famous towns in the country is selected, Hengzhen will definitely rank first, and no one can compare it.

"Langya", "Gong Lock", "Mi Yue", "Wu Mei Niang", "Stricken Heart", "Yongzheng King" and so on.

In the past two decades, a series of well-known movies and TV series, almost all have been filmed in Hengzhen, the first, second and third line stars gathered here, countless young people pursuing their dreams also came in, eating the crew of ten dollars. Box lunch, with a salary of one hundred and two a day, runs in the film and television crews one by one. Many people run for a lifetime, and they will be able to show up in the TV series and disappear after one or two lines.

This is considered good, and more people mix up for a lifetime, but passers-by A, B, C, D, and even no lines.

"One line can add three thousand yuan to the show fee?"

Listening to Liu Xianxianjin telling him about the shooting, Li Yun looked surprised.

"One-sentence lines are amazing."

Liu Xianxian said: "Ordinary runners are people with little education, and they don't know how to perform. Actors are not talking about being handsome and beautiful, but more of a temperament that needs to be imitated!"

Chapter 3174: Photogenic temperament

"Well, it's a kind of temperament that can be on the camera!"

Liu Xianxian did not know how to explain, "Many people are handsome, but they are not on the camera, because he has no characteristics under the camera, so that the audience can not remember you at a glance, and will not pay attention to you, let alone care about you, so this People are the hardest in the entertainment industry."

"I don't have this kind of lens sense." Zhang Xiaoqing, the co-pilot, couldn't help but said. She actually looks good, but she doesn't have any characteristics. No one looks at her when she mixes with a group of palace ladies, and she can't mix with the film and television circles.

"what about me?"

Li Yun joked.

Zhang Xiaoqing fell silent directly. She took a peek at Li Yun. Even if such a man is in a group of handsome guys with his appearance, people will still look at him at first glance.

This temperament is enough to conceal the difference in appearance, and he is not bad in appearance, and he can completely rely on his appearance in the entertainment industry.

"You~? Can't beat me!"

Liu Xianxian raised his chin proudly, "Many videographers have told me that you are the most photogenic person I have ever photographed. The lens feel is first-rate, and the cameraman likes my strong presence on the screen. The beautiful bubbling fairy~"

"You still brag about it."

"What boasting, I'm telling the truth~"

"If you have the ability to compare with your youthful plum, how about finding her a trick?" Li Yun grinned and said, "See if you can suppress the light of your heroine!"

Liu Xianxian's triumphant expression froze for a while, but quickly cheered up: "Even if the pigs come, we two enter the same frame, then I am also a princess, and she is just my cousin~"

The princess's cousin, the princess, is no better than her.

Li Yun smiled and said, "Then what if the Lord Saint appeared with you?"

Liu Xianxian was startled, and then hit Li Yun with a small fist, still pursing his mouth: "You badass, can the saint be the same? If I am a princess, no, it doesn't matter who I am, the saint is sure It's always a fairy, and it's not a mortal at all, right?"

She just imagined that if Saint Fan Qing appeared in the film lens, even if a large group of top stars with all appearances and temperaments were in the same frame with her, the audience's eyes would undoubtedly turn to her!

Even if she was stunned by Li Yun's kiss, Xiafei's cheeks were still full of immortality, and even her breath was as good as her temperament.

Mortals and fairies are incomparable.

It's just that Liu Xianxian thinks that the world probably likes mortals, and it's probably just an attitude of keeping away from fairies, right? Whee.

The complicated driver was an insider, but when he knew that Liu Xianxian had a boyfriend and the relationship was still very good, he was surprised.

As for the green plum in Liu Xianxian's mouth, and the so-called Saintess, he is also very curious, who actually has the temperament and face that is no less than that of the fairy sister?

Especially the Lord Saint, who can be called a fairy by the fairy sister, what is her temperament like?

Unfortunately, the two did not continue to talk about this topic, which could not satisfy his curiosity.

"This is Hengzhen?"

As the car drove into Hengzhen, Li Yun looked out the window and was attracted by the special-style architecture of Hengzhen.

It is not accurate to say that it is the special style of Hengzhen.

Chapter 3175: Pirated and genuine

As a small town famous for film and television shooting, Hengzhen is actually a mixture of the entire Huang Xuan country, almost all the architectural styles of the era.

Spring and Autumn·Tang Garden, Qin Palace, Ming and Qing Palaces, Qingming Shanghe Tu, Dazhi Temple, Dream Valley, Yue Street, Old Zhonghai City Street, Li Yun even saw in the distance the Republic of China Zhonghai similar to Gong Qingyu's bungalows The city's unique spire building made Li Yun, who often lived in the mansion, couldn't help but smile.

"Piracy meets genuine?"

Liu Xianxian also saw the bungalow and couldn't help laughing.

Gong Qingyu's house is the most authentic and authentic old-time bungalow mansion. The grand ladies, celebrities, and socialites of the Republic of China live in a mansion similar to Gong Qingyu's house. Of course, they are not even as good as Gong Qingyu's house.

Because that mansion No. 3 is definitely one of the mansions even if it was placed a hundred years ago. The colonists' diplomats lived there. The diplomats at that time had more powers than they are now. They dominated all the colonization of the Far East and had no status. Emperor Yayutu.

Li Yun smiled and said, "Next time you shoot a movie of the Republic of China, you can shoot directly at home."

"What kind of house, that is Gong Qingyu's house!"

Liu Xianxian disagrees with Li Yun's statement for the time being.

Although every time she goes back to Zhonghai City, she goes to the mansion more than she lives in Huangtingshan's home, but she can't just treat Gong Qingyu's house as her home.

"What does it matter? When we return to Huangting Mountain next time, I will reserve a room for you on the third floor, or together?"

The villa No. 36 that Li Yun bought in Huangting Mountain is too big. Although there are no more than 20 rooms on the third floor, it is perfectly fine to live in a dozen or so. Renovate Li Yun's master bedroom with a big quilt. sleep.

"...I won't go to your place."

Liu Xianxian retorted a little shyly, living together on the third floor, almost participating in Li Yun and Fang Xue's evening reservation program, for Liu Xianxian, who had not dated Li Yun, was naturally a little shy.

Li Yun wasn't too anxious. When the filming of this movie is finished, Xianxian's thoughts will also change, right?

However, not everyone can accept sleeping with a big quilt. If a girl next to Li Yun refuses to be together at night, he will not force it. From the current situation, Liu Xianxian should also accept it.

The one who is most likely to refuse may be Shangguan Lingxian. Her concept is very conservative. She might be very repulsive of sleeping more than a dozen girls in a big bed at night. Li Yun is ready to face her alone in the future.

"Arrived."

The driver parked the car in front of an ancient mansion. The vermilion gate, the mighty stone lion, and the writing "xx House" on the plaque all showed that this was an ancient mansion where only dignitaries could live.

"Why is * house? There is only one word?" Li Yun was stunned.

"Idiot, of course the * mansion is for easy replacement. For example, the movie we shot this time, this is King King Mansion! Understand?"

Liu Xianxian took off his sunglasses and jumped out of the car, showing a big smile to the people who came up: "I'm sorry everyone, I'm late, I haven't got the start ceremony yet, right?"

Li Yun followed and got out of the car, and after a glance, he noticed that many people came forward to greet him.

However, apart from Zhang Ke, who had a fate, a gray beard, and short silver-gray hair, Li Yun didn't know the rest.

Can only vaguely guess that these are mostly crew members, lighting artists, makeup artists, videographers, scenes, logistics, as well as some cream niches plus idols and so on.

Chapter 3176: Director Zhang Ke

A large group of people greeted him in a torrential stream, but if they were all enthusiastically rushing towards Liu Xianxian, Li Yun would have thought they were here to greet him.

However, Director Zhang, who is now in his 50s, came to say hello on his own initiative.

Li Yun smiled and said, "Director Zhang, am I not late, am I?"

"How come it's early!"

Director Zhang Ke is very enthusiastic. With a gray beard, he looks a bit of the bold charm of an ancient hero. He laughed and said: "The opening ceremony will do anytime, this time our shooting schedule has been directly set for half a year. The most important thing is time!"

"Half a year?"

Li Yun was a little surprised, "Isn't it over a month at most?"

"That is the estimated time. If there is someone in the crew who is inconvenient, you can stop work and wait, so there is a half-year buffer."

Zhang Ke explained patiently: "It took one month for everything to go well, but this time it took a few months to come out when the plan was made."

Li Yun thought for a while, he was unfamiliar with this matter, so he could do it whatever he wanted.

"Sure, I'll listen to your arrangements."

"Haha, although I am the biggest in the crew, if you ask for leave, Li Yun, it's okay. Just tell me, half a year is enough!"

Director Zhang Ke emphasized the shooting time this time.

Behind him, a group of crew members surrounding Liu Xianxian, as well as second and third line stars, actors, and several newcomers who had just debuted were all surprised.

What's wrong with Director Zhang Ke?

A film crew with hundreds of people earns hundreds of thousands of salary for a single day. For example, for the big star Liu Xianxian, her salary can reach more than 50 million, which will delay one day and lose a million to start.

Not to mention the money spent on renting venues, clothing, and props.

The crew was shut down for one day, and everyone was in distress. After three days of work stoppage, there would be rumors from the outside world. The reporters flocked to find out if there was any shocking big news in the crew that caused the crew to stop.

No matter how big a star is, he dare not stop the crew for a few days because of pomp, otherwise, the star will be blacklisted as the director, and the director with a bit of backbone will not invite him to participate.

Of course, with the exception of one type of celebrity, that is, the celebrities who bring money into the group.

Capital is always the passport to everything, and the star who brings money to the crew is one of the bosses of the crew, and the boss can do whatever he wants.

However, it is the celebrity's or her godfather's money that is lost due to the work stoppage. It is estimated that the celebrities who bring money into the group do not want to see the crew stop work.

Because of this, the crew and a group of little stars—at least lower than Liu Xianxian, a star who is a coffee star, all looked at the director in a daze.

"Director Zhang, our shooting time is actually half a year long?!"

The deputy director asked incredulously.

This movie is not a big production, and there are no difficulties in shooting the whole story. The script is silly and sweet, and it is all about the mess between men and women.

To be honest, including the assistant director, the screenwriter, the stylist, the actors, etc., anyone who has read the script does not know why Director Zhang Ke made this movie.

I don't even understand why the big star Liu Xianxian agreed to make this kind of little movie, whose subject matter is obviously love and ancient costume—ahem, the little movie refers to the production of small, few big stars, not secretly spread from the cherry blossom country. Little movie.

Chapter 3177: Crew

Zhang Ke's face sank, "I just said that unless it is necessary to ask for leave, everyone else is not allowed to ask for leave. Try to cooperate with people with a tight schedule to complete the filming task, but I didn't say that we will do this for the next six months!"

Everyone is dumbfounded again, what is the situation? Didn't you just say that it has been reserved for half a year?

Liu Xianxian smiled at Li Yun, took the initiative to pull him, and introduced to everyone: "This is the mysterious man you have been guessing. He is a freshman from China Overseas University. Well, he is also my classmate. The relationship is super good. kind!"

The crew actually noticed Li Yun a long time ago, but because Liu Xianxian walked in front and was too conspicuous, they ignored him.

Hearing what Sister Shenxian said, everyone looked at Li Yun one after another, with a bit of envy in their eyes.

Freshman of China Overseas University, young and handsome, he became a male first when he first entered the industry, and he was on the big screen (referring to movies, as opposed to small screens such as TV series), and he was also the male first in a film directed by Zhang Ke. Still paired with Liu Xianxian, and also a classmate of Liu Xianxian University, the relationship is very good.

A series and down, it is difficult to make a group of people not jealous.

"Li Yun, hello, I am the lighting engineer of the crew."

"Hello, I'm makeup...but I think our actor is very handsome and he is very photogenic without makeup."

"Go, you can flatter yourself, hello, I'm a stylist, and the makeup artist just helped me!"

"I am the scene, so I have the final say on how to arrange it, except for the director."

I have to say that Director Zhang Ke's ability to produce a series of award-winning films has a lot to do with the excellence of the team he leads.

An excellent team is usually very active. Except for respecting the director's choice, other times everyone is brainstorming to produce a more perfect work!

Li Yun introduced himself, and finally turned his attention to those people who were obviously different from the crew.

Liu Xianxian took the initiative and said: "These should be actors, right? Sorry, I don't really recognize them. I only know that these two seniors are Teacher Zhou and this is Teacher Zhao."

She was a little embarrassed. She should have been responsible for introducing Li Yun to Li Yun.

"Xianxian, you have been shooting overseas all the year round. I don't know that the situation in China is normal." Teacher Zhou joked. This is an old drama bone of more than 60 years old. He is not very popular in the entertainment circle, but his acting skills are absolutely nothing. That kind of role that the crew likes and is also liked by young stars: because they don't * their play.

Liu Xianxian is a very rare international celebrity who can be well-known overseas. She participated in the production of Haolaiwu when she was fourteen. She was the heroine who played an overseas film for the first time when she was sixteen. The kind-hearted and persistent girl acted vividly, and directly picked up the little golden man and won the post of the queen.

What is even more exaggerated is that she won again in the second year, and at the same time won the Grammy's best pop female singer, best newcomer, and best song three awards, which shocked the world.

Only after winning top awards, after reaching the peak of music and film and television, Liu Xianxian fell into confusion the following year, chose to take a leave of absence and travel, and finally met Li Yun unexpectedly.

Therefore, Li Yun's star girlfriend has a unique status in China. Even those first-class actors who have been recognized by the country, dare not say that the status is higher than her in front of Liu Xianxian.

Chapter 3178: Song Lini

After all, everyone knows that it is only a matter of time before Liu Xianxian will be awarded the country's first-level actor in the future.

"Sister Liu, you are here."

A mixed-race actress who looked at her in her early twenties, with a tall nose + slightly tilted chin, and a look of about seven or eight points, smiled and greeted Liu Xianxian. Li Yun didn't know her, but just vaguely watched it. After all, the star can't decide when it appears in your browsing information.

Liu Xianxian doesn't seem to know him either. "Everyone just call me Xianxian. Except for someone, you don't need to call me Sister Liu. I wonder if you are?"

"My name is Song Lini and I belong to Junhao Film and Television Company."

Song Lini was neither very enthusiastic nor too unfamiliar, and greeted Liu Xianxian like a normal colleague.

But when he turned his head to Li Yun, the smile on that beautiful face that seemed to be mixed-race was a little bit enthusiastic: "I don't know what company this Mr. Li Yun has signed with? I seem to have seen you, so familiar."

Everyone's expressions suddenly became ambiguous.

I'm particularly familiar with this sentence, which is already a very good word in social situations, and when it is put in the mouth of a female celebrity and said to a young and handsome man, it can be regarded as an initiative to show good, expressing thoughts. To further communicate the meaning.

Liu Xianxian felt a sour jealousy spontaneously.

"Familiar? It's probably because of my little fame."

Li Yun smiled and took the initiative to explain his origin, of course, it was about the college entrance examination.

"I'm going, it turned out to be Zhonghai's college entrance examination champion!"

Someone suddenly realized that, seeing that many people didn't understand, they explained Li Yun's origins. Suddenly, many people looked at him with different eyes.

This young man already possesses all the conditions to get on fire.

The appearance is not bad, the temperament is good, and there are resources, there is Liu Xianxian in the circle, plus the ability to establish a domineering personality, it is simply a perfect idol candidate!

"Li Yun, your grades are really so good?"

Song Lini's eyes brightened a bit, and she said with a three-point admiration: "I admire people with good academic performance the most. At the beginning, the college entrance examination tortured me a lot. Fortunately, I passed it in the end."

Li Yun asked, "Are you still studying? Sorry, I don't even know the age of the actress, but Senior Sister Song is only 20 years old. She should still be studying, right?"

Song Lini covered her mouth and smiled when she was called a senior sister, "No way, she wasted her studies after going to university, and now she applies to stay and graduate."

After staying and graduating, that means her age is about 24 or 25.

"Everyone, go in and talk again."

Director Zhang Ke greeted Li Yun to enter, and said with a smile: "Wait, I will tell Li Yun you how to make the film."

"Big director, have you forgotten who else is next to me?"

"Oh! I have forgotten, your daughter... You and Xianxian are classmates, hahaha, getting old and old, always forgetting things."

Female?

An inexplicable color flashed in Song Lini's eyes, and she looked at Li Yun seriously again. When she found that he was standing next to Director Zhang Ke, side by side with Director Liu Xianxian, she finally realized that it was wrong.

Director Zhang Ke mobilized a lot of people outside the palace, not the big star Liu Xianxian, but the college entrance examination champion, Li Yun!

The reason is also very simple. If Liu Xianxian is picked up, she must be the one who is closest to Director Zhang Ke.

But now it is Li Yun and director Zhang Ke who come together to prove that his status is higher than Liu Xianxian!

Chapter 3179: Large costume

A group of people entered the palace mightily. The antique mansion was supposed to be a group of talents wearing ancient costumes to fit the atmosphere, but now it is a group of people wearing modern clothes, carrying cameras or props walking.

The picture was so strange that Li Yun couldn't help thinking, what would Princess Yongning think if she saw this scene?

As one of the few palaces in the film and television base, this restored mansion from ancient times is naturally extraordinary. It covers an area of tens of acres, has numerous corridors, four gardens, and is planted with flowers. The pond is clear and the inside is clearly visible Schools of beautiful goldfish are swimming.

As Li Yun who has entered the ancient illusion and has been to Qinglei Valley, Tiandanmen and other ancient martial arts, he can be assured that even the real palace is not necessarily as strong as this one.

The ancient Wangfusheng has a stern atmosphere. In terms of the exquisite architecture and furniture, it is really no match for modern handwork.

"By the way, Xianxian."

Li Yun asked curiously: "What style will we shoot in this movie? What's the name? The script, show me."

Song Lini, as well as several old drama bones, looked over with weird eyes.

It was the first time they heard that someone participated in a movie, and he was still the number one male, but they hadn't even read the script!

Liu Xianxian seemed to be aware of this problem too. He was hurriedly trying to get the basics, but found that she was greedy for cheap when she went out. The script and everything were thrown in the space ring. Now taking it out will expose her as a "space supernatural person".

Director Zhang Ke waved his hand again, "I'll have a start-up ceremony before the filming starts today, and then just take a random shot. The others will wait for Li Yun to finish reading the script."

Teacher Zhou smiled and said: "Director Zhang, you are really casual this time, and yes, you can't always come on filming tightly. This period of time should be a holiday for everyone."

In fact, the contract has already set six months of shooting time, but if six months are not used, you only need to pay half of the money. No one will dislike this kind of money and easy work.

Many people have noticed that this Li Yun's male one is probably the boss of the crew, and Director Zhang Ke is to please him!

A group of people began to guess about Li Yun's identity.

"I can finish it at noon."

When he came to the palace, sat down in a hall and obtained a script from the staff, Li Yun flipped through it and nodded.

The script is not complicated, it is very silly and sweet. In a word, it is: The killer of the desperate rivers and lakes accidentally broke into the palace during an assassination of the court commander, and fell in love at first sight with the beautiful princess who was playing the piano and admiring the flowers.

The killer fell in love with the princess, hid in the palace, and became a guard.

The princess fell in love with the killer and secretly opened the window at night to let the killer leap in, take her out of the palace, and play in the capital.

After an extremely beautiful day...

Li Yun looked embarrassed, and said to Liu Xianxian who was sitting next to him: "Xianxian, is there a little conflict in this script? Doesn't it mean that conflict is the soul of drama?"

After reading the script, Li Yun had only one thought: What kind of * ending is this?

Liu Xianxian blinked, "No, it's pretty good. Our drama is: large-scale, ancient costume, serial, fantasy, martial arts, romance~~~!"

She said so many attributives in one breath, and finally she couldn't help laughing herself.

"Summarize in one sentence: Romance?"

"Right~~!"

Chapter 3180: Romance script

Li Yun is sure that Director Zhang Ke's original vision would definitely not be like this, but because of Liu Xianxian's insistence and his identity, Zhang agreed to shoot this martial arts film in this way.

However, this type of martial arts film seems to be completely different from the kind of martial arts film that Director Zhang filmed before.

This martial arts film with a high probability of being produced by Liu Xianxian, although the genre is not a comedy, but the ending is happy. In addition to the beginning, the process is also sweet and romantic, full of aesthetic style, perhaps it is also the genre that Director Zhang wants to be in the martial arts film. Trying to break through again, so I agreed to direct this slightly dogmatic large-scale martial arts action-romance film.

"It's all up to you."

Li Yun smiled at Liu Xianxian, who was in the midst of amusement, as if it was a holiday for the hard-working star. It's easy to film and fall in love. On weekends, Li Yun will give the crew a holiday, take her to have fun, and go shopping in Hengzhen. In the scenic spots here, Gong Qingyu and others will usually come to visit the class. It is easy to look forward to thinking about it.

This...wait.

Li Yun flipped through the script's name in surprise: "Why is there no name? What is the name of our crew?"

"Secret~"

Liu Xianxian's face blushed, and he refused to tell Li Yun the details and wanted to keep the secret till the end.

Li Yun looked weird, and then flipped through the script. The heroes and heroines in it were named after the "killer" and the "prince of the county", without revealing their names.

"Xianxian!" Li Yun looked at her, "You tell me, did you name the killer and the princess after us?"

He is sitting in the hall of the palace with Liu Xianxian waiting for the start-up ceremony. There are many crew members around who are busy setting up counters. After hearing Li Yun's words, they turned their heads.

Is the real name of the hero and heroine?

Although it is not without precedent, this is a love drama. If Liu Xianxian's name is used as the name of the princess, Li Yun's Weibo is afraid that it will be exploded by the fanatical fans of the fairy sister the next day, right?

"How is it possible!" Liu Xianxian retorted plausibly, "How could I do such a thing? Don't think about it beautifully!"

"In other words, you wrote the script?"

"Uh."

Liu Xianxian's big clear eyes and guilty conscience looked left and right, "I, I just made a small opinion to Director Zhang, um, yes, it's just a small opinion, okay, the name of the hero and heroine is not important, the important thing is Act well, perform well in front of Sister Liu, I'm going to dress up~!"

Fairy buns also escaped into her exclusive dressing room. Whether she was a coffee or heroine, it was necessary to find a room in the palace to give her makeup.

In contrast, in the play is the only male protagonist, and the absolute protagonist Li Yun who does not even have a male second, also has an exclusive dressing room and an exclusive makeup artist.

After Li Yun learned of this situation, he was quite surprised and asked the makeup artist who was waiting in the room: "Does the makeup artist have his own?"

A young brother of his makeup artist, with a short whip head, quite fashionable, was a little dazed when he heard the words, and explained: "The heroes and heroines have their own makeup artists, Mr. Li Yun, you did not bring a makeup artist, so I will give you special makeup!"

"I mean, don't you just put on makeup once? Oh, I see. Different scenes have different makeup styles."

Only then did the makeup artist react, and laughed: "No, no, I only have one look in a day, but there are countless times in makeup!"
