

Godly Choice 3271

Chapter 3271: very happy

After half an hour.

Li Yun comfortably put Tang Anxi back on the bed, and pulled the quilt to cover her graceful body.

Looking further, I might have broken the defense again.

"Husband~~"

Tang Anxi stretched out her hands towards him, not wanting Li Yun to get up now.

"You rest first." Li Yun tucked her slender arms back into the quilt, "I'll buy breakfast for you. Today we are in the hotel and we are not going anywhere."

Li Yun was stunned when he saw Tang Anxi, but didn't think much, turned around and walked into the bathroom, washing in the bathroom of the luxurious suite of this five-star hotel.

After finishing, I asked Tang Anxi what he wanted to eat, then went down to the hotel restaurant, ordered two breakfasts and took them back.

"have you woken up?"

When he returned, Tang Anxi had already put on his clothes and sat on the bed. After seeing him, Zhanyan laughed.

"husband!!"

Tang Anxi rushed over and hugged him tightly, returning to the lake like a drowning fish.

"what happened?"

Seeing her excitement, Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry, "Didn't I say just to buy breakfast? He didn't leave."

"no."

Tang Anxi said boredly in his arms.

"no?"

"Hmm... I just feel very happy!"

"?"

"Because."

Tang Anxi nestled in Li Yunqin's circle and looked up at him: "The things I envied before have now all become reality. My husband is the best and most gentle man in the world, everything I want, I'm all satisfied, now I'm dead, and I'm satisfied too!"

"What nonsense."

"Hee hee~"

Tang Anxi stuck out her tongue, where there was still a half gloomy appearance, "I'm just telling the truth, ah, in fact, there is something unsatisfactory to say, that is, I envy sister Qingyu and the others. They can stay with her husband forever and stay there. In the building No. 3 mansion, every night, it's ridiculous until late at night."

Li Yun scratched her pretty nose, haha smiled and said, "Princess Anxi also wants to join?"

"think!"

Tang Anxi said without hesitation, "I want to serve my husband with her husband, sister Qingyu, Meng Xiao, sister Mingzhu, and every girl around her husband!!"

"Uh."

Li Yun was stunned. If she only said "want", it would just mean coveting the joy of the evening and liking the foolishness of the evening with him.

But if the latter sentence is added, Tang Anxi has unreservedly revealed her deep love for him, and she is willing to do everything for him.

"Wait tomorrow, I will take you back!" Li Yun responded to her love with actions.

"Do not!"

Tang Anxi rejected him, and said firmly: "I don't want to be a burden to my husband. I must do something that can help my husband. Only then will I officially enter my husband or sister Qingyu's home!"

Li Yun didn't know what to say.

Tang Anxi has always been a strong and inferior girl. She is sensitive and fragile, and proud and powerful. It is difficult to sum up her character in one or two sentences.

"I respect your choice." Li Yun rubbed her head, "As long as you don't do too damaging things, I will support you."

It is inevitable that people in mixed channels do illegal things. For example, Tang Anxi had a fight with others before, but as long as she didn't do anything outrageous, Li Yun could still accept him. He was not the kind of person with a completely upright and selfless personality. .

"it is good!"

Tang Anxi solemnly agreed, "Husband, don't worry, Sister Xiaomeng has already told me what she can do and what can't be done."

Chapter 3272: The daily life of the fairies

"That's good, wait, sister Xiaomeng?"

Li Yun looked at her in surprise.

Tang Anxi blinked, "Yes, Sister Xiaomeng! Isn't Sister Xiaomeng a member of the Fairy Club?"

Means, sister Xiaomeng is not your husband's confidante?

The corner of Li Yun's mouth twitched, "How old is Xiaomeng, how old are you now? Just call her Xiaomeng! Wait, that means you also joined the Fairy Club?"

"No!" Tang Anxi reacted almost instantaneously, and immediately grabbed her mobile phone and refused to show it to him.

Li Yun: "..."

walk slowly!

It seems that the Fairy Society is an extremely tightly defensive organization, from the leader Jin Liuli, to the think tank Gong Qingyu, to the consultant Xiao Mingzhu, the chief financial officer Xia Feiyao, the fighter Fan Qingsheng, etc., all refused Li Yun's prying eyes.

I have to find a way to penetrate inside and take a peek at the daily life of the little fairies.

"An Xi."

"no!"

"Listen to me, I will never tell anyone, you just take a look at your phone, nothing happened."

"Absolutely not!"

"Good wife, would you agree to a small request from your husband?"

"My husband, I can't promise you~"

Despite Li Yun's words, even feeding her breakfast personally, Tang Anxi smiled happily, but said that he would not give him the phone.

"Husband~"

Tang Anxi said pitifully, "It's not that my wife doesn't want to show you the fairies, but that it is filled with the secret chats of sisters, which is very shameful, so please don't read it, right? Princess?"

Everyone has learned to call Yongning the little princess, and it seems that she often chats in the fairies group.

Li Yun thought for a while, "Then you talk to the people in the group, just say that I am looking at your phone now, and I personally say hello to them!"

".....it is good."

Tang Anxi was very touched, because this was something her husband did specially for her. It was to prove that she had spent the night with her husband. She told her in a disguised form that she was already a true member of the Fairy Sisters. You can step into Mansion No. 3 at any time, or Li Yun's home in Huangting Mountain.

Sure enough, after Li Yun "bubbled", the little fairies in the group rang out in protest.

Fox Xiaomeng: "@安熙妹, absolutely forbidden! Sister Anxi, hurry up and shut down!"

Qing Guo Mingyu: "...@大坏蛋, come to see me again and I won't clean up you!"

Lady Saint: "[Good morning]"

Sister Shenxian: "@李云, you are a big badass, knowing that An Xi will not refuse you, so I asked for her phone?"

Pig: "Yes, he's a big badass! I'm ashamed to peek at the girls' chat?"

Pig: "Wait, how did the remark name in my group change?! @胖包子, you are also a badass! Change my name randomly!"

"not me."

"It's you!"

Little Pepper: "[Screenshot]"

Inside is a sentence from Qing Guo Mingyu: I was very comfortable last night and slept very soundly. It seems that it is good to come with you and that bad guy every three days.

This meant that Gong Qingyu felt that he would sleep with a big quilt every three days, and the women would slept around on that big bed of tens of square meters to sleep well.

Li Yun's eyes widened, Qing Guo Mingyu-that is Gong Qingyu, this guy still groaned against that day, but in the group he said he was satisfied with the happy life at night?

Greedy and dissatisfied little pepper: "

Chapter 3273: Lady Eighteen

The greedy and dissatisfied little pepper: "Wait, wait, why is it fat? Why did my remark name become this? Ah, I see, Gong Qingyu, it's you!!!"

Qingguo Mingyu: "It's not me. There is no silver three hundred taels here, and Qingyu next door hasn't changed it, nor is it me."

Fox Xiaomeng: "Hahahaha, the next door Qingyu hasn't changed. Sister Yu, are you going to laugh Xiaomeng to death?"

Lingxian: "No one changed mine..."

The Pearl of the Kingdom: "Look again."

The conservative Eighteen Lady Lingxian: "Huh?"

The conservative Eighteenth Lady Lingxian: "Ah? Why am I the Eighteenth Lady?"

"Ha ha ha ha."

"Now there are only a few...Wait, Li Yun is not allowed to watch it!"

"Brother Yun, come to the capital~~! Sister Tianfeng and I can't wait to get from Wen'ada Mountain Hot Spring. Let's play the King Game again. This time, Sister Tianfeng and I will let you be the king forever!"

"Hu Xiaomeng, shut up!!"

The last sentence was the voice of Zhao Tianfeng's roar. Tang Anxi didn't dare to show it to Li Yun any more, and hurriedly closed the group chat.

It's terrible, the topics discussed in the group must not be seen by her husband again, otherwise I don't know what hot topics will appear in the future!

Li Yun coughed "cough cough cough", "An Xi, let's have breakfast and ignore the crazy fairies. In addition, you can call Hu Xiaomeng as Xiaomeng from now on. Don't call it sister Xiaomeng, listen. It's awkward."

He now knows what the fairies are talking about daily, no wonder these beautiful fairies resolutely refused to let him see the chatting content. It is conceivable that the topics in the group were also very hot in the past.

"Oh....."

Tang Anxi obediently agreed that Xiao Meng was only fifteen or six years old this year, and it was indeed strange to call her sister.

"Eat breakfast, do you want to go out to play later, or stay in the hotel?"

"Hang out!!"

Tang Anxi said immediately.

Li Yun glanced at her and said with a smile: "Go back in the afternoon and take a break in the morning."

"Good~"

...

The matter was successfully resolved, and Li Yun accompanied Tang Anxi to stroll around the street for an afternoon, and then ran to the Huangjiang River for a stroll in the evening, only reluctant to part with it the next morning.

Tang Anxi still didn't want to live in Mansion No. 3, or even Li Yun's house.

She had already thought about it. Even if she wanted to go, she would secretly change her outfit and then secretly. She would never let others know that Sister Tang, the underground empress of Zhonghai City, was actually involved with Li Yun, or Xiao Mingzhu and others.

Yes, after a day and two nights of love, Tang Anxi is full of strong self-confidence. She believes that she can become the queen of the underground world and solve all the ugly things for Li Yun and the sisters!

"Husband, wait for me."

Li Yun returned to daily life.

For Tang Anxi, he didn't have a good solution either. If she was forced to take her home, Tang Anxi would definitely agree with her with some sickly obedient character.

It's just that this will wipe out her self-esteem, and Li Yun doesn't want to see Tang Anxi who is inferior and depressed all day long.

She wants to become a queen in the gray fringe area, so let her do it. With the support of the fairies of the Fairy Club, Li Yun doesn't worry that she will go wrong, and she has the strength to protect herself. It depends on whether Tang Anxi has the ability. It's just development forces.

This morning, Li Yun got up and saw Gong Qingyu and Su Muxin also get up with them. He was quite surprised, Su Muxin was okay, and he would go to class.

Chapter 3274: You do not know

But Gong Qingyu, a lazy pig, doesn't want to go to school anymore with the coming of winter. He wears a set of pajamas at home all day, not watching TV, chasing anime, or playing mobile games. From Tomorrow's Ark, Go to the original god, stimulate the battlefield, the glory of the king, all play.

Moreover, the rank is not low. Every time Li Yun plays the king with them, Gong Qingyu has to play a trumpet-her tuba is already the strongest king, and it is said that she is invited to play on behalf of the king.

Therefore, Li Yun was quite surprised when she saw her also getting up: "Qingyu, are you planning to go to class today?"

Li Yun has no opinion on Gong Qingyu's current life. He wants the girls around him to do something so as not to become a vase, but he does not mean that he has to go to work or achieve something.

Instead, let them not indulge in chasing dramas and tearing up Weibo, and become the kind of vulgar women who have no thoughts and will only scold at public articles.

Gong Qingyu's head is smarter than anyone else. She sits in Zhonghai City but can provide advice on the development of the Fairy Club of Penglai Island. In the past, most of the business of the Gong family in Zhonghai City relied on her.

So Gong Qingyu didn't need to show his face, she was already a military instructor who could stabilize the military spirit. She, Xiao Mingzhu, and Su Muxin were not the same kind of people.

"Don't you know it?"

Gong Qingyu, who was biting the spoon, glanced at him sideways.

"what do you know?"

"Exam this morning."

"I said why did you get up so early...what?! Exam this morning?!"

Li Yun was shocked.

He didn't know!

Su Muxin and Fang Xue looked at him with weird faces: "Don't you go to class every day? Qingyu knows how, but you don't?"

Gong Qingyu suddenly realized, "I see! I have probably guessed what you and Mingzhu are in class or at school every day. 80% of you and her are going to fall in love with her, and you didn't listen to the teacher at all, right?"

Li Yun was immediately embarrassed.

He and Xiao Mingzhu are classmates. Every day when they go to school, they get together and whisper together, or skip class to visit the campus. If the class leader is selected based on the standard of attending classes on time, Li Yun and her will both have to step down.

"Ahem, isn't it just an exam? Simple!" Li Yun said confidently.

Colonel Fang is jealous.

She should have transferred her major to the same class with Li Yun! !

Now I can only wait for the public class, and then go to class with him.

Regarding the final exams, especially the university final exams, there is really nothing to say.

Li Yun once heard a joke on the Internet, saying that the most painful torture in the world is to let a person with only a high school degree learn university knowledge in just one week. This torture is called the university final exam!

Although the joke is a bit exaggerated, it is enough to show that many people in college were messing around.

Fortunately, Zhonghai University sits firmly on the top 5 chairs in China. The students' enthusiasm for learning is relatively high. From half a month before the final exam, the library has been overcrowded. Even the self-study classrooms are full of people. You need to grab a place to get a place.

But to Li Yun, these are all clouds.

He used to hang out with Xiao Mingzhu every day in the school, or he would go to the Supernaturalists Association, instruct the members of the association's fighting skills, and get a group of supernaturalists to admire and worship, so he almost gave him and Xiao Mingzhu as gods. .

After the leisurely time expired before the end of his life, Li Yun learned the news of the final exam until two hours before the start of the exam.

Chapter 3275: Final exam

"My mate, do you know a joke?"

Xiao Mingzhu and Li Yun met, and after learning of his conversation with Gong Qingyu in the morning, he said to him with a strange expression on his face.

Old deputy = deputy squad leader = Xiao Mingzhu's nickname for Li Yun.

Perhaps it is because the screen names of the little fairies in the Fairy Society are constantly changing, which has led to the fact that Xiao Mingzhu's name to Li Yun has also been changing recently.

"What kind of joke?" Li Yun asked.

"that is."

Xiao Mingzhu endured a smile and said, "Before the college entrance examination for mathematics, people with Huigen will say, 'What, tomorrow I'll take the mathematics exam?'

And those who have become immortals will say, 'what, take the high score in one hour? '

Those who have reached the level of transformation will say, 'what, did you take a high score just now? Isn't it English? '"

Li Yun looked embarrassed and didn't know how to complain, "Anything else?"

"Yes!" Xiao Mingzhu said with a grin: "Out of the Three Realms, people who are not in the Five Elements will say, 'Eh, what kind of tree is the high number?'"

"...It's cold."

It's really cold. It's almost January. Although there is no snow in Zhonghai City, it will still be frosty in the morning and the cold wind will bite the bones. The students on campus are all wrapped up and walking with their heads shrunk.

Although Li Yun is not afraid of the cold, he also put on winter clothes. As for Xiao Mingzhu, he has already put on a down jacket. The beautiful face hidden in the plush collar is extremely petite and cute.

"Hehe, I think you are not among the five elements!"

"Nonsense, I am obviously able to become immortal, but the problem is not big. I will at least take the top ten this time!"

"Only the top ten? Oh, I see, you don't want to be popular."

The two walked into the exam room and sat down. Before the exam started, Xiao Mingzhu stretched out his hands towards Li Yun.

Li Yun consciously opened her coat and hid her hands in his arms.

"Hmm~"

Xiao Mingzhu leaned against him comfortably, squinting her eyes to look like a tailless cat curled up on the sofa: "The only advantage of having a boyfriend in winter is probably to warm your hands, right? Huh? , The Dragon God specially gave you a three-minute Xiao Mingzhu temporary boyfriend experience card, don't be greedy~"

"Dragon God?" Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry, "Dare to love that Xianxian told you about me and her."

Li Yun, who gathered the dragon balls, naturally got what he wanted and wiped out Liu Xianxian.

During those five days in Zhenbei Old Fort, Liu Xianxian probably didn't talk to Gong Qingyu and others about the Dragon God Seven Dragon Balls. It is estimated that Liu Xianxian told her good green plum Pearl after he came back. Other girls didn't know this. thing.

"uh-huh."

Xiao Mingzhu squinted and hugged him, but did not answer.

Li Yun was ready to move, but unfortunately, many classmates had already come in the examination room, and they were frequently seeing him. He and Xiao Mingzhu were still very famous at Zhonghai University.

"Mingzhu, can the temporary boyfriend experience card be saved first? I will not use it temporarily, and will use it when we go on a date!"

"Whoever has a date with you, go."

Xiao Mingzhu pushed Li Yun away and sat back in his seat.

Those girls only saw the scene when her hand was taken out of Li Yun's arms, and they were immediately envied.

They also want a boyfriend to help warm their hands! !

The boy and girlfriend are in an examination room, are they sure that it is not the president of the supernatural person who uses his private power?

"Preparation for the exam begins, all return to their seats."

The invigilator stepped onto the stage and yelled aloud, but when he saw Li Yun, he was stunned.

"You are... Li Yun from the Supernaturalists Association?!"

Chapter 3276: Powerful Exam

Li Yun nodded, indicating that he was indeed.

"Um... remember not to cheat with abilities!"

The invigilator pushed his glasses and hesitated for a while before he said vaguely.

A pair of eyes looked over at once.

The corner of Li Yun's mouth twitched, "Teacher, I am not that kind of person, besides, in terms of my strength in this exam, it is estimated that I can get the top ten in grade, no one can give me a reference."

"Am I not?" Xiao Mingzhu immediately disagreed, and pointed to himself: "I am also a top ten in grade!"

"Bringing no taxes."

"Then you too?"

"I am confident!"

"Pooh."

Seeing that the two men had developed flirtatiously again, the invigilator quickly stopped and said: "Well, I also vaguely heard about your deeds. The college entrance examination scores are among the best in the city, but recently you have skipped a lot of classes. I am also worried that your cultural class results have fallen!"

"Ahem." Li Yun sternly corrected the teacher: "How can it be called skipping class? Teacher, I'm going to teach the members of the Supernaturalists Association how to use supernatural powers. After all, more and more people have supernatural powers, saying Undecided for the next final exam, everyone will have to take an additional training course for supernatural beings."

A group of classmates looked at each other, or excitedly looking forward to it, thinking about the final exam for supernatural ability, it's quite new. I don't know how to take the exam then?

"Haha, President Li Yun, you are right."

The invigilator said humorously: "Maybe you will be the next semester to invigorate everyone to release their abilities!"

Li Yun thought for a while: "It reminded me that when the final exams are over, members of the association will also come to a quiz. When the time comes, rent a track and field field. The students will just come to watch and watch, just to do a superpower popularization activity. "

The invigilator's eyes lit up.

The other students in the examination room were also excited and cheered.

Even Xiao Mingzhu feels that this proposal is very valuable. It can not only test the practice results of the members of the association, but also popularize the knowledge of the supernaturalists, and even make it bigger...

"Li Yun, you made a good suggestion!!!"

Sitting in the corner of the classroom, Xiao Mingzhu gave Li Yun a white and tender thumb, and his beautiful face was also very excited.

"Yes, yes!"

"Super looking forward to it!"

"Exams for the supernaturalists?! Something to do!"

The classmates in the classroom agreed with the "President's Wife", and they were even more excited, as if they could not wait to finish the exam and immediately go to the track and field to watch the supernatural performer perform.

"Uh."

Seeing their enthusiasm, Li Yun, the proponent, was stunned, "I won't say anything for now. Let's take the exam first. I will discuss with several ministers."

"You must seriously consider it!" The invigilator looked forward to it.

Li Yun can only smile bitterly, why is it like waiting for a blockbuster movie?

However, this proposal is not bad, and I will discuss with a few ministers after the exam is over.

...

Li Yun, the initiator, would never know how fascinating this supernaturalist's exam was.

He leisurely finished the morning high school exam, went to the cafeteria for lunch with Xiao Mingzhu, and countless people asked him questions along the way.

"President, is it true that the test of the psychic is true?"

"I heard that you are going to take the test in the track and field?"

"President, is it 1 and 7? We finished the exam that afternoon!!"

"President, are there any Thunder and Lightning abilities in the Supernaturalists' Association, shouldn't we be careful not to rush to watch us at that time!"

"It seems that the ice system is particularly strong in winter, is it necessary to lose some points?"

"President, can we take the exam next year?!"

Chapter 3277: More and more outrageous

The more it passes, the more outrageous it gets.

When Li Yun first came out of the examination room, the classmates just asked if it was true, but they walked to the entrance of the canteen. After seeing him, the classmates who were eating inside were all concerned about when the supernatural person took the exam and what they had already tested. , I don't question the truth of the matter at all.

"President!!" Zhao Panpan also called, with a very eager tone: "We have an exam?! When?! Oh my God, I don't know! The president is so hard for me to hide it! What should I do? , I'm not prepared! What should I test? Do you want to take the test? How?"

"this....."

"President!!"

Just after hanging up the call with the chairman's secretary Zhao Panpan, Sun Yong called again, "We are going to take the test? What are we going to test? I can only test my body's hardness, hiss! Isn't the chairman personally hitting me? Bar?"

The presidents of several departments all called.

To Li Yun's surprise, none of these people questioned the exam. They all believed that he deliberately concealed it and made a surprise attack that caught the association's supernatural classmates by surprise.

In particular, they think that for more than a week, Li Yun has been going to the association to guide them to use abilities to fight, and the exam matter is even more conclusive!

"Wait until I think about it."

Li Yun pushed down all the voices with a single sentence, and did not dare to wait in the cafeteria.

As a result, in the dormitory, I met Fang Xue and Gong Qingyu again, and they all asked when the supernatural person would take the exam, and they also recommended themselves to be invigilators.

Given their initial ability to cultivate mana, it is more than enough to be an invigilator of supernatural powers.

"...I will think about it again."

Li Yun was completely driven to the shelves by the duck, and a joke turned out to be taken seriously by others.

There is no other way but to bite the bullet.

What happened next made Li Yun realize his own influence, or how powerful the influence of the China Overseas University Supernaturalists Association he led.

At noon that day, when Li Yun and a few female nests were eating in the dormitory, they called and asked, with a very excited tone.

"Li Yun, I heard that you are going to take a test for supernaturalists? Just now, I had a brief anger with several leaders. The leaders of our school all agreed to fully support your supernaturalists association!"

"...Principal, don't you think it's an exaggeration?" Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry. The principal, your decision was too fast.

"No, no, how can it be considered an exaggeration? It's just a sports meet, and it doesn't affect the students after the cultural class, isn't it?"

Besides, your Supernaturalists Association has just been established this semester, but it has already made countless contributions to protect classmates from outside supernaturalists, arrange for people to patrol the campus, remove newly born monsters, and even support them. Zhonghai Municipal Public Bureau, this support school can still come out! "

Li Yun: "..."

The principal said to patrol the campus, in fact, he asked Sun Yong to arrange a group of people to stroll around the campus every week, and to see where the monsters were more than one. A total of eight basketball-sized mice and a laboratory were caught. The experimental rabbits that were about to be demonized inside, a few chicken demon that jumped out of the canteen, a mummy that was about to become a corpse in the biological laboratory, and a sign was placed in front of a demon-like tree to prevent classmates from approaching.

In addition, I raised the wild boar demon bought by the school during the previous military training. Besides that, I basically didn't do anything.

Chapter 3278: Reclassification

However, Li Yun is not easy to shirk. He is the president of the Association of Supernaturalists, so he can show more performance, and he can get more sponsorship from the principal to give back to the members of the association.

"Sure, let's talk about it then."

"Don't be time!"

The principal hurriedly said again: "I and the school leaders first discuss and discuss how to do it, but you still have to come up with a plan. After we have studied it, we will decide how to support you. In the end, it is up to you supernaturalists to decide. Well, right? This time, it takes at least a few days. Can you go for the afternoon exam? It's okay if you don't, especially the ministers of some of your psychic associations, you can use the psychic test. Replace part of cultural classes! Just like sports students and art students!"

The back door opened... Li Yun didn't have to take the exam directly.

"It's okay, I can get it again at night, and I will post the content you want to take the exam tomorrow morning."

"Okay, then tomorrow morning, I will prepare first."

Li Yun didn't know what the principal was going to prepare, but he finally made him decide to take an exam for supernatural beings.

The news of the decision to test was sent to the qq group of the Ability Association. All of the Ability Ability classmates boiled and wailed. When Li Yun was in the class at Zhicai Middle School, the teacher temporarily announced the two classes. During the exam, the classmates were exactly the same howls in shock.

Then.

When Li Yun went for the exam in the afternoon, all the students in the school knew that after the exam was over, the Association of Supernaturalists would also have an exam.

Li Yunlian stated that this was not an exam, it was just a small final exam and there was no chance. The teachers and students of the whole school treated this as an official exam of the Association of Supernaturalists.

Li Yun couldn't figure it out. What do the teachers and students of the school think of the people of the Supernaturalists Association? How can it be more anticipated than the exams for physical education students and art students, and the school does not treat supernatural power training as a course!

There is a specialized school, but it is not a formal university. Globally, there is no university that offers a supernaturalist course.

Because in any case, there are still too few people with supernatural powers to become a specialized subject.

But with the trend of aura permeating, the future is really bad.

After the examination was over in the afternoon, Li Yun, Xiao Mingzhu, Fang Xue and others went to the Supernaturalists Association to meet with the six ministers, and after listening to the opinions of some members, the preliminary decision was made on January 9th. After the exams are over, the school track and field are rented again, and then members of the Supernaturalists Association will go up and perform.

Regarding the scoring matter, Li Yun also simply made a table to divide the inspection items into three categories: potential, actual combat, and assistance.

The level scores of the powers do not follow the general level 1-9, but are re-divided, from E to S, with the lowest E and the highest S.

The E grade is probably a level slightly different from that of ordinary people. For example, you can see an eye chart 50 meters away, which is a very simple super ability.

D-level is also very weak, and at C-level, he has at least a little combat power, which can deal with four or five adult men.

Level B is a very destructive superpower. The release of flames can engulf a person in an instant. It is difficult for ordinary people to deal with level B superpowers with a gun.

As for the A-level, it is already in the category of abnormalities, and basically it cannot be countered without relying on an elite special force.

And the S grade...

"This is probably the case for actual combat." Li Yun put down the file and looked at Fang Xue and Xiao Mingzhu's daughters: "As for the potential and the auxiliary part, you can decide."

Chapter 3279: Vice President Fang Xue

"Ah? Why are we?"

Fang Xue was still very confused, wondering why Li Yun suddenly handed this task to her.

Xiao Mingzhu has already understood: "Okay, I will ventilate with Liuli, and let her subordinates collect some information for us for reference, and set the potential and auxiliary assessment level as soon as possible!"

"OK."

Li Yun nodded.

Hearing Jin Liuli's name, Fang Xue suddenly realized that Li Yun wanted them to contact the Fairy Club. There were too many abilities, and their ability assistance and effectiveness could be used as reference materials.

But Xiao Mingzhu suddenly thought of it, but Fang Xue only thought of this after she had to remind her, which made her recognize the gap between herself and Mingzhu again.

Very discouraged, but had to be convinced.

"Okay."

Xiao Mingzhu saw Fang Xue's thoughts and smiled and said to her: "You will leave to Fang Xue to contact and organize documents. By the way, when we prepare the materials, we will discuss the division of these two projects. "

She said this to several ministers.

Sun Yong naturally had no opinion.

In this semester, four girls, including Xiao Mingzhu, Fang Xue, Su Muxin, and Gong Qingyu, have surrounded Li Yun and have a close relationship with the president. They have proven themselves with their strength and they all have good qualities. With energy, you can easily get a lot of monsters and beasts and so on, and it's arrogant to the extreme.

Therefore, although they did not hold any positions in the Supernaturalists' Association, their status was not lower than that of several ministers.

"Just do it."

Li Yun made the decision. In his opinion, this is just an ordinary performance, plus a small test, it doesn't need to be too troublesome.

"President." The head of the Propaganda Department is an intellectual beauty. She pushed her glasses, "When the time comes, I will find a few media to interview and record. What do you think? In addition, I suggest that you take the classmate Xiao Mingzhu, Or Xue Fang was appointed as the vice president to assist you in your daily work!"

After all, you don't care about the president all the year round, and if they have a position, they can be justified, instead of suggesting things as "the president's wife".

"Pearl, do it." Fang Xue evaded. Li Yun wants to set up a vice chairman, and he must also consider their feelings.

Of course, Qingyu didn't need it, she didn't even come to this meeting.

"No, you come."

Xiao Mingzhu smiled and said: "I have to go to the company, and I am also the monitor, so I am not the vice president of this guy."

Fang Xue looked at Su Muxin, who shrugged and said that she had no interest in the vice-chairman, and had nothing to say just now.

"That....."

Fang Xue looked at the six ministers inquiringly, "Should I be the vice president?"

"can support!"

"Student Fang Xue, if you are the president's wife, we will support it."

"Haha, you will contact the president in the future!"

Several people expressed their support, but Fang Xue became anxious, "I, I don't know if I can be a good vice chairman."

"What are you afraid of?" Su Muxin encouraged: "Even Xiao Liuli can be in charge of the Fairy Society, and the Supernaturalists' Association is not a problem!"

Sun Yong's ears were pricked up, and they had been listening to the president's wife talking about Xiao Liuli, and now they finally heard the name of the organization.

But, fairies? What organization is this?

"Ok, that's it."

Li Yun smiled and said, "I will be the shopkeeper again in the next few days. You can find more teachers or communicate with Fang Xue, and she and Zhao Panpan can notify me. The meeting is adjourned!"

Chapter 3280: Opening

Everyone is accustomed to the president's resolute and resolute character. If the meeting is over, then there will be no more than one second.

"I thought I was going to fall out of favor."

Zhao Panpan muttered, looking at Fang Xue who was a little embarrassed, and proactively said: "Then I will take the initiative to assist the vice president and assist the president to complete tasks together."

"Yeah, yeah." Fang Xue nodded. It was her first contact with formal work. Even if she knew something about the Fairy Club before, she just watched it from across the bank and never participated in it officially.

Fortunately, there is Li Yun by her side and the capable Bai Fumei, Mingzhu. She feels she can still do a good job.

"Is it gone?"

Xiao Mingzhu gave Li Yun a white look, "I thought there would be a meeting, but I didn't expect you to end the meeting so quickly."

Li Yun said: "Would you like not to have a while?"

The crowd sat back again.

"Forget it." Xiao Mingzhu stood up, looked at the ministers, and then at Zhao Panpan, and said, "Panpan, you will work harder later. Please organize a copy of the content of our discussion and send it to the principal first. Find a teacher over there to connect, let the leaders know our decision tonight, and we will have a meeting tomorrow afternoon to determine the content of mutual cooperation, and then improve it in the next few days. It is basically the same."

Fang Xue carefully wrote down Xiao Mingzhu's way of handling things.

Just now Li Yun just set the tone. His task as the chairman is over. The rest of the work is the coordination of several ministers and her and Xiao Mingzhu. The important thing is several ministers. They need to record the members. Our thoughts on the exam finally came to the results.

For her vice president, she should only need to coordinate, and the minister will do the specific work.

After thinking about it, Fang Xue's self-confidence has increased a lot!

In the next few days, the matter of the China Overseas University Supervisor Examination became more and more serious. Li Yun saw several pieces of information on the Internet, and they were all published on the front page of the website news. The comments below were also tens of thousands, which is enough. Many people are looking forward to it.

Fang Xue and Xiao Mingzhu didn't bother him too much. Even several ministers didn't come to him. Li Yun didn't know the specific result. After the exam, he had a meeting with them. After confirming the content of the assessment, everything All ready!

On February 9th, the so-called day of the first psychic exam finally came.

Li Yun arrived at the school gate in the car driven by Gong Xiaoqiu in the morning, and he felt an unusual breath.

"What's the situation? Cosplay?"

Li Yun clearly saw a strong man holding a machete, and a young man with colorful hair leaning against the school gate. The passing students were all looking at him, but because of the special day, no one came to interrogate him.

After entering the campus, Li Yun was taken aback by the grand occasion.

There are at least tens of thousands of people surrounding the track and field. There are people on the outside and people on the inside. The real canned sardines are full of people's heads trembling, and after seeing him, they all shouted:

"Look, it's the president of the Abnormal Association's coming!"

"President and President, we are from the school communications department, can I interview you?"

"President, we are the Voice of Spring on Campus..."

"Hello, Li Yun, we are today..."

A group of female classmates, as well as seven or eight carrying cameras, were obviously from the major domestic news media, and even the heavyweight reporters from China Central and Taiwan came.

Unfortunately, this CCTV reporter is still a celebrity, a very sweet and lovely beauty.
