

Godly Choice 3281

Chapter 3281: Abnormal Conference

Seeing this famous CCTV hostess who uploaded a video with tens of millions of views and attracted more than three million fans, Li Yun looked dazed.

He shouldn't be snooze this morning.

Li Yun is a punctual and sunny boy. He gets up at 7:30 every day. Unlike Gong Qingyu, he is still sleeping and said to wait until nine o'clock.

Unlike Fang Xue and Xiao Mingzhu, they left at 6 o'clock in the morning and rushed to arrange the venue coordination work.

Therefore, he is alone now-oh, I can't say alone, at least Gong Xiaoqiu came with him, Gong Xiaoxia and others had come with Fang Xue before, and the other two were waiting for Gong Qingyu to come again.

"Oh, I know you!"

A group of other unknown reporters that Li Yun ignored, smiled at the sweet-looking female host of the central station and said, "The weather is freezing today, and my heart is also freezing!"

That sweet-looking and sweet-smiling balcony hostess is Bingbing.

She was ridiculed by Li Yun's words and laughed, and many reporters turned to take pictures of her.

"Why, marry me Xiao Mingzhu, and still wronged you Li Yun?"

A crisp girl's voice came, and Li Yun turned his head to look, isn't it our super white, rich and beautiful Xiao Mingzhu!

She woke up early for work all morning, but she was in good spirits, and her smile was brighter and brighter, not worse than Bingbing's sweet smile.

"Ahem."

Li Yun hurriedly greeted him and explained: "I'm not talking about jokes! Although my heart is Bingbing, after I have you, you will be bright."

A group of reporters don't know what to say.

"Glib tongue, come here soon, everyone is waiting for you."

Xiao Mingzhu almost held Li Yun's ears. Really, this guy can get up at 7:30 in the morning no matter what he does in the evening, but let him get up an hour early, but he refuses to live or die.

"Uh."

Bingbing was a little embarrassed. Fortunately, Xiao Mingzhu immediately said, "This is Miss Bingbing? It was the balcony reporter I invited to interview. I did not expect to invite you. Sorry, I was too busy in the morning to entertain you. ."

"It's okay, it's okay, understandable, understandable!"

Bingbing stuck out her tongue cutely, and glanced at the dense crowd around her: "I have already felt the hard work of your work, this audience is too much!"

Li Yun interrupted and said, "Mingzhu, what's going on? How come it seems that many people from outside the school are here?"

A group of reporters, including Bingbing, looked at him in surprise.

"What, what's wrong?" Li Yun asked with a guilty conscience.

"it's okay no problem."

Xiao Mingzhu explained to everyone: "Chairman Li Yun is the mascot of our China Overseas University Supernaturalists Association. It's good for everyone to understand."

"puff!"

Li Yun, who was vomiting blood, was pulled into the venue. He didn't answer Bingbing's question in the middle, let Xiao Mingzhu answer all.

Thanks to this, Li Yun also knew what Xiao Mingzhu had done in the past few days.

She actually sent invitation letters to all the students with the ability of the city's primary and secondary schools, colleges and universities, masters, doctors, and doctors, and welcomed them to exchange and discuss their abilities, and even come to "exams"!

In addition, for some people in the society who occasionally obtained supernatural powers, they also did not refuse to come, and issued an announcement to welcome them to participate in this test event.

Not only are the superpowers of Zhonghai City, all over the country, and even all over the world, as long as they want to come, they can come.

As a result, in the end, there were as many as 5,000 people who participated in the preliminary statistics, and a group of people had to be selected. Only 1,000 people were allowed to participate on the first day, and the rest were reserved for the next few days.

Chapter 3282: Dad, here

When Li Yun entered the track and field, he saw a group of people who dressed up obviously different from ordinary people, as if they were deliberately, and as if they had to dress strangely because of their own abilities, he couldn't help asking Xiao Mingzhu beside him. :

"Are you sure it's okay? Arrange so many people to take the exam in one day."

"I didn't tell you one day. Today is the preliminary round...it's not right. Anyway, the supernatural players will perform on stage. We will give them points. Those who are strong in actual combat or have strong auxiliary abilities can enter the finals the day after tomorrow!"

"Preliminaries and finals?"

Li Yun raised his eyebrows, "You are all going to make this quiz into something awkward!"

"What kind of ghost, be careful, I ask Xiaoqian to come out!"

Xiao Mingzhu "threatened", with a smile on the corners of her lips, and she didn't know if she was satisfied with the grand event she had made, or if flirting with Li Yun made her feel happy.

Bingbing who followed behind felt that it was the latter, because she could see that this was said to be the most beautiful and richest school girl in the history of Zhonghai University, and every time she looked at Li Yun, she held her unbearable affection.

The sweet tender affection can make her who has never been in a relationship seen at a glance.

"Well, you are right."

Li Yun was trying to say something, a little girl shouted in the distance: "Dad, here~~~!"

In an instant, the word father attracted the attention of countless people.

Li Yun turned his head and looked, and found that it was Shan Xiaoxiao. This girl was sitting in the auditorium near the track and field with a happy face, standing up and waving at her.

The track and field were filled with students and spectators outside. The CEO Shan Ruqing blushed with shame next to Shan Xiaoxiao, and took her daughter's hand to pull her hard and let her sit down quickly.

"Mom, what are you doing? Dad is over there!"

"Single! Shino! Shino! Sit down for me!"

"Woo, after having a father, my mother becomes a tigress~~~"

"I hit you."

"Hey, bad mother, don't let me call Dad."

The mother and daughter whispered and didn't know what to say, and Li Yun couldn't say hello to them. He just waved and walked onto the main seat.

"Ahem! Hello everyone!"

Everyone looked at Li Yun.

Behind him, Xiao Mingzhu looked exactly the same as Shan Ruqing had just pulled Shan Xiaoxiao, and said anxiously: "You idiot, you haven't started yet!! Why are you talking on stage, come down soon, you are so stupid!"

Li Yun ignored him. Instead, he pulled Xiao Mingzhu away, greeted Fang Xue in amazement, and smiled into the microphone: "Perhaps many people don't know me. Let me introduce you. I am the president of the Association of Supernaturalists of China Overseas University. , Li Yun."

"What are you doing?" Fang Xue was surprised and whispered.

She has made a lot of efforts for today's event, but how does she feel that Li Yun, this fool, is going to ruin it? !

Don't look at the atmosphere at all! !

Li Yun ignored her, and continued: "Originally, the so-called supernaturalist exam was just a joke of mine. I didn't expect it to be so big today, and it has the meaning of the world's first supernaturalist conference. My original performance of the supernatural player had the meaning of going against it."

Xiao Mingzhu was stunned.

Fang Xue was also stunned.

The cadres of the Supernaturalists' Association, as well as the leaders of the principal school, were also stunned.

"I'm not saying they did something wrong, but I always think that seriousness and passion are not suitable for today's atmosphere."

Chapter 3283: Performance-oriented

"Simply put, it is easy to get angry, and it is not good for the trend and development of future exchanges and cooperation between the supernaturalists."

"Besides."

Li Yun smiled and said: "Many abilities are unique nowadays, only one in the world, or few people have developed their usage. Nowadays, judging the strength of a person's abilities based on combat power is totally outrageous. , I hope... events these days!"

The exam was not appropriate, and the event was not appropriate, so activities were used.

"It's based on performances, and there can be fighting content, but we, those with supernatural powers, should show the audiences who come to the scene that they are different from ordinary people, rather than fighting!"

Many people are embarrassed.

They are here to fight, or to watch the fight.

Li Yun didn't wait for them to discuss, he took the initiative to open his hands toward the open space of the track and field in front of him: "Then I will make a beginning. Let's not make any speeches. Let's talk about it at an opening performance! Everyone, please take a good look."

Everyone was attracted by his hands and looked at them all together.

Xiao Mingzhu has a complicated expression. She has been busy with Fang Xue these days, preparing for today's grand party.

But who knows, from the beginning, they went the wrong way.

Li Yun didn't want this event to be something of a contest nature. It can be seen from his three classification potentials, actual combat, and assistance.

It's just a pity that both she and Fang Xue, the six ministers, and the school leaders have all been stimulated by the growing attention of the society and the media, and they want to make this exam very incomparable. A grand event.

It is best to re-divide the level of the supernaturalists into the division from E to S. When future supernaturalists mention the level, they will always mention the superhumanist association of Zhonghai University. This is perfect!

Following this trend, Xiao Mingzhu can almost imagine how this event will develop. Everyone is scrambling to show their powerful combat power, playing in the middle of the track and field are inextricably difficult, and even knocking down the entire stadium. possible!

However, Li Yun saw through everyone's desire to compete for the top spot, and when he came up, he broke the frenetic and belligerent atmosphere and brought the event back to the original track.

"Sure enough, I am still far behind, not better than this guy."

For Li Yun, Xiao Mingzhu was convinced, but this time it only deepened her admiration for Li Yun.

Yes, it is worship.

Even if she likes to play games with Li Yun's temporary boyfriend and seems to have mastered the initiative in love, but she knows that if Li Yun is forced to come, she will not refuse at all, maybe she will not even push and half, just a little hesitate , And soon put into it.

After all, she has a deep love for Li Yun, mixed with strong admiration.

"Look up!"

A flame burst out from Li Yun's fingertips, leaping into the mid-air 20 to 30 meters away, and bursting open suddenly, forming several large flame characters several meters high:

Finally, the exam is over! !

The burning flame was suspended in the air, and the person standing on the ground underneath raised his head, his shocked face illuminated by the firelight.

The people sitting around the track and field were stunned with their eyes parallel to the flame characters.

"I... Cao!"

After half a day, someone finally suffocated the classic exclamation.

"sharp!!"

"6666!"

"Is this the ability person? It's so strong!"

"How is it like the magician in the movie?"

"It's a magician. The West calls people with supernatural powers magicians!"

Chapter 3284: Self-evaluation

The flame characters lasted for more than ten seconds before they collapsed and ignited a circle of grassland, proving that this flame is by no means a festive firework, but a genuine and powerful flame that can burn people alive!

Hearing the people around him taking a cold breath and seeing the quiet scene in the track and field, Fang Xue seemed to understand her boyfriend's intentions.

The power of the superpower does not need words and battles to prove it. Just this kind of entertainment + performance method, the power displayed by the superpower is enough to scare ordinary people.

If this event is to go to the * and cruel battle for the first place, then the battle between the abilities will make ordinary people see the scalp numb, and the deeper the fear of the abilities, which will aggravate these two types. Human rift.

Although ordinary people also have the opportunity to become supernaturalists, ordinary people will still occupy the majority for a long time to come.

If the separation between the supernatural beings and ordinary people is too serious, the society will have a huge problem, and it will be no less threatening than the wild monsters and trees!

Therefore, the ability of the person to show up in public and show his ability in the form of performance can narrow the distance with ordinary people.

And the ability person would not object to this kind of ability to pretend, show that he is no less than ordinary people, and do not have the opportunity to fight cruelly.

Pretend to be a secret force, everyone likes it!

"No one commented? Then I'll rate myself."

Li Yun pretended to stroke his chin, "I am a wind and fire ability player. The trick just now was to blow the flames with the wind element. The details are not explained. I think he is quite awesome. An A grade, it is powerful, at least it is also B. The potential is also good. The wind uses the fire to blow the enemy's scalp numb, and it can turn around and hit the bunker, making it impossible to guard against!"

Everyone imagined the scene of fighting with Li Yun. I am afraid that as long as he can reach the place where the wind can blow, the flames can be burned. Within a few hundred meters, all of them are within his attack range. Even if they drill down, they will shut themselves into the room. Inside, but as long as there is a little gap, the gust of wind can send the flames in, directly roasting the people in the room like grilled gophers!

"My Cao!!!"

If it was just a simple sigh before, then everyone's me Cao is the me Cao with shock and horror.

The president of the Association of Ability People, he came up with a big secret force. With this hand alone, he can face a company of special elite fighters alone. Of course, the premise is that his ability can support him to fight forever!

"The president is mighty!!!"

When everyone was silent, the members of the association that Li Yun had taught had already shouted. They had long known that the president's ability to control is very powerful, and it is the only powerful in the association!

Now it seems that when teaching them, the president obviously did not show his full strength.

The audience clapped sparsely, and the applause soon became a piece of applause, mixed with loud screams, and Shan Xiaoxiao's little loli screamed and shouted, Li Yun turned his head and smiled at their mother and daughter. Laughing, Shan Ruqing blushed, and turned her head hurriedly.

Because of joining the Fairy Society, she is now more shy.

The reason is very simple. Shan Ruqing learned about the mess of the sisters and Li Yun at night in the group, the dozens of square meters bed in Gongqingyu Mansion, and then to the Huangsha Hotel in the ancient castle of Zhenbei. For five days and five nights, she knew exactly what Li Yun did with them.

Chapter 3285: Performance

This makes Shan Ruqing can't help but often fantasize that if she joins in, at night, she will go to Qingyu's house with Xiaoxiao as a guest, and let Xiaoxiao live in the room on the second floor, she will be at Su Muxin, or At Li Yun's request, he half-pushed and went to rest on the big bed.

Wrapped in a quilt, she watched Li Yun walking towards her tremblingly, and finally...

"Mother."

"Mother!!"

"what?"

Shan Xiaoxiao nodded her cheek seriously, "Mom, your face is so red. Dad just glanced at you, is mom so shy? That's not okay!"

"..."

The mother, who was shy when her husband glanced at her, stretched out her arm around her daughter and rubbed her baby's fat cheek a few times.

The short story is true. After Li Yun provided the "father's love", she increasingly showed the essence of the tiger mother, which is completely different from the mother who blindly loved her daughter before.

Moreover, Shan Ruqing, who became a tiger mother, also found that her daughter's IQ was getting higher and higher, and her EQ was also terribly high, which was completely different from her previous daughter who only sold cute and beloved.

In a sense, after Li Yun's appearance, or after they joined his big family, their mother and daughter both unanimously showed their own personalities.

"Mom badass~~!"

"Mom is bad? Huh, Xiao Xiao is also a bad kid. He lied to her mother for so long before and said, Xiao Xiao is hiding from her mother?"

The mother and daughter played intimately and watched the supernatural performer held by the father/husband abbot.

The endless abilities dazzled them.

In addition to the most common body strengthening abilities, and element control abilities, there are many strange abilities.

For example, the ability to manipulate metal, the ability to manipulate electromagnetic waves, and the telepathic ability that are common in movies and televisions-actually the director of the Propaganda Department of the China Overseas University Supernaturalists Association, the well-known beauty named Du Min.

She can face ten people at the same time, listen to what they say, and respond at the same time, and can feel their emotions, whether they are happy, nervous, excited, excited, or angry-even if it is deliberately pretended, she can I can tell!

Powerful abilities have attracted many powerful abilities.

This kind of telepathy ignores physical obstacles, which means that Du Min can see at a glance whether someone is hiding around him. According to Li Yun's statement, if it develops to be able to strike people's minds in the future, Du Min can even be separated. Shock those who have weak mental defenses to death!

The dead, without even seeing Du Min's face, died in a daze.

According to Li Yun, the president of the Supernaturalists Association, this telepathic ability, which is rated as A++ potential, can even control the soul of a person in the future, can seal the will of a person, and become a vegetative, but it is not a vegetative. : Because their bodies have been controlled by people with telepathic ability like Du Min, they have become puppets.

When Li Yun spoke these abilities, many people with only combat abilities in their heads were convinced.

They thought that the division of abilities was useless at all, only the fist was the truth.

It can be seen that after seeing Du Min's performance, they were persuaded.

With this kind of ability, with a few low-level abilities, you can kill the high-level abilities!

"Du Min: Potential A++, actual combat E, auxiliary A, comprehensive evaluation, B+, the future can be expected!"

Chapter 3286: I am not a stranger

After commenting on several people, Li Yun handed this work to Vice Chairman Fang Xue. During this period, she frantically made up for the information of the supernatural power sent over from Penglai Island. Which power has more potential for development? Well, I also know a little about how it will develop in the future. Although it is certainly not 100% accurate, it also knows much better than Zhonghai City, who is cultivating in the dark.

Of course, Fang Xue still didn't dare to come alone. She pulled Xiao Mingzhu together. She wanted to pull Su Muxin, but the little pepper formed a cheerleader, saying that she was going to cheer for the next actual performance. , Fang Xue could only give up.

Li Yun found that Su Muxin likes to hang out in the cheerleading team. When school started before, she brought a group of beautiful women to welcome him. It seems that she will not be the president in the future. It is best to go to the public relations department to be responsible for the company's image maintenance, or Simply send her to the international relations maintenance department and other tasks that require foreign exchanges.

"come on!"

"Go!"

"Wonderful!"

With the beauty commentator, the atmosphere in the track and field is becoming more and more heated, which is much more passionate than sports competitions. At least in the eyes of many people, the performance of supernatural powers is more passionate than regular sports events, and the physical strengthened supernatural powers. Can do all kinds of things that ordinary humans can never do.

For example, a person with a mutated body bravely stood up and showed his mutated body. In his words:

"I hope you don't think of me as an outlier, even in the future...I will become strange because of my abilities, but I still retain the human heart!"

The words made everyone in the track and field silent, waiting curiously for his ability.

As a result, everyone was shocked after the performer really showed his abilities.

He saw his hands burst instantly, and crimson tentacles suddenly appeared, twisting and dancing in the air, covering a range of nearly 20 to 30 meters.

At least there are hundreds of tentacles twisting at the same time, and they are covered with bumps and lumps of meat, which is no more than the mutant monsters in the movie.

Countless people in the track and field were so frightened that their faces were pale, and even Fang Xue took a step back in fright.

"Very strong!"

Li Yun took the microphone, suppressed the commotion, and said with a smile: "If it weren't for you before, I would have thought it was some big boss who has transformed, and it's quite a shocking ability!"

The man smiled awkwardly, his face flushed, and it would be uncomfortable for any normal person to become this appearance.

But he had to stand up again, because he had a hunch that his ability would not be concealed in the future. Instead of being misunderstood by the time, he might as well take this opportunity to show it.

"Is there anything you can perform?" Li Yun asked.

"I, I haven't figured it out yet, but my tentacles are very flexible and can do what ordinary people can't do."

"It's too ugly to call a tentacle, call it the hand of supernatural power."

Li Yun thought for a while, "This is a very powerful ability, I don't know how it would be used to toss a plate."

"Toss the plate?"

"Yes, it's just like the previous acrobatics! Wait, I'll let someone bring some plates... Well, forget it, which audience has finished drinking water, throw the water bottle to you, right?"

".....it is good."

As a result, everyone in the track and field saw a very shocking scene.

Countless bottles were thrown into the middle of the track and field, but this tentacle man, extended the hands of these abilities for a hundred meters, and took all the bottles thrown down within the range!

Chapter 3287: Recognized

And it can be thrown up and down, just like the acrobatic performance of the Spring Festival Gala, or throw dozens of bottles back and forth with ten tentacles, or rotate the mineral water bottle up and hold it in the air, or throw the bottle in one breath. Get up and form one word after another in the air.

"My name is Lin Haoyan, I am not terrible, thank you everyone for enjoying my performance!"

A performance that human beings can't even practice acrobatics for a hundred years has won enthusiastic applause from 20,000 spectators. Many of the little girls who were scared to pale face before are now blushing with excitement, especially He Shan. Little girls like Xiaoxiao are even more screaming. I like this project so much!

Lin Haoyan was very excited. Ever since he accidentally possessed a power and showed it in front of everyone, everyone around him looked at him as if he were looking at a monster. He was extremely uncomfortable looking at the strange eyes.

The family also had a hard time understanding him. Every time he looked at his hands, it was like looking at ugly bugs. His wife was unwilling to even touch his hands. It was disgusting.

At the same time, those so-called supernaturalists' organizations came to look for him, saying that only those with different kinds of supernatural powers were his destination.

But Lin Haoyan didn't want to join the evil organization in the movie, he just wanted to live a good life.

How can you live without being able to integrate into the surrounding society?

So Lin Haoyan came to Zhonghai University and proved himself through this performance.

"Thank you, thank you everyone!!"

Lin Haoyan was very excited and bowed deeply to Li Yun, who was sitting on the stage. This man changed his life.

"Isn't this a normal ability?"

Li Yun glanced at the hand that Lin Haoyan took back, and turned back to a normal human hand, and smiled: "If I guess it's correct, even if your power hand is burned by the flames, it's served by the sulfuric acid, and it's directly chopped off. It can be regenerated easily, right?"

"Indeed!" Lin Haoyan didn't conceal it. He didn't want to fight at first, and it was known that his cards were nothing.

"In this case, you can do many dangerous tasks that normal people can't do in the future. With this ability that stretches one hundred meters, you can easily earn one hundred thousand a month."

"Uh, if someone is willing to hire me." Lin Haoyan scratched his head awkwardly. He did lose his job recently, and his wife started to complain.

At the beginning, there were many bosses in the track and field, expressing their willingness to hire him.

"But I don't want to participate in some supernatural fights, I just want to do ordinary jobs!"

Lin Haoyan quickly said that he didn't want to be the boss's personal bodyguard, it was too troublesome.

But then he said: "If Li Yun has anything you want me to help me, I will definitely not refuse!"

He finally determined that his tentacles...no, the hands of supernatural powers are still very powerful, and they can do many things that normal people can't do.

"me?"

Li Yun thought for a while, "Indeed, there may be many monsters in the future, or things that need your ability hand to solve, so let's go, if our Zhonghai University Supernaturalists Association needs your ability in the future, Just call you to help, and then let the school pay you, how about it?"

The school leader was naturally overjoyed, not to mention other powers, but this power hand is really very practical. Just send them to the library to sort out the books, and he alone can do it all.

"Uh, good!" Lin Haoyan agreed.

As a result, some government departments in Zhonghai City also wanted to hire Lin Haoyan, directly to the establishment, according to special talent recruitment, high wages.

Chapter 3288: Evaluation

All of a sudden, the test venue for super talents in the track and field turned into a competition for talent grabbing.

Everyone looked embarrassed, and they could predict what would happen next. "Anyone with special abilities will be robbed by countless bosses, private employers, China Overseas University, and some secretly organized organizations. .

The salary still starts at 20,000 to 30,000.

Supernatural beings have become human masters again, such as Lin Haoyan. His supernatural powers are already scary enough, but because they can make money and are very useful, they are much more important than many people!

"Lin Haoyan, ability potential: A-, ability actual combat A+, ability assistance: A++, comprehensive evaluation: A+"

After Li Yun announced that he had received an A+ evaluation, Lin Haoyan flushed with excitement, bowed again to express his heartfelt thanks, and trot back to the audience excitedly.

"Wife, I am now..."

"Husband, I am sorry!"

"No, wife, I..."

"Husband, don't say anything, it's because I'm not good. I won't hate you in the future. Just like President Li Yun said, your hands are magical hands, not tentacles. They are very powerful tools, husband. , I am proud of you!"

"Wife!!"

The husband and wife are getting back together. It makes others admire or admire them. Their wages have risen seven or eight times, they also bring staff, and they can also go to China Overseas University or go to other places to work part-time. This kind of ability is simply incredible!

At noon, when it was time for dinner, the 20,000 spectators in the track and field were still very interested, not wanting to eat, for fear that their seats would be gone when they came back.

The performance of the supernatural beings was completely beyond their imagination. There was no pee during the whole process, and the children's hands were red.

The evidence is that when Li Yun caught Shan Xiaoxiao who had jumped from the audience cheering, the girl's hands were flushed, and her cheeks were flushed with chuckles, and she looked very happy.

"You kid, why are you messing around like this!"

Shan Ruqing hurriedly stepped down from the auditorium, and lightly hit Shan Xiaoxiao in Li Yun's arms, with a reproachful expression.

The audience jumped off the track and field field for at least two or three meters. Ordinary people fell down if they didn't pay attention. However, Shan Xiaoxiao had already started to practice the exercises Li Yun gave her. Even if she fell three or four stories high, she would be fine. Qing is purely concerned about her daughter.

"Mom, it's okay~"

Shan Xiaoxiao hugged Li Yun happily: "Dad and a few little ones...well, the sisters are all here, they will catch the little ones~!"

The evidence of this girl's high EQ can be seen from this sentence.

She used to want to call her little mother, but if she called this sentence in the public, it was easy to be seen by others, so the girl changed her name and became a little sister.

"Little~, come by my sister!"

Wearing a tight-fitting la la la dress and a short skirt, with slender legs and rompers and warm socks, Su Muxin ran over, half coaxing and half forcing her lovely Shan Xiaoxiao in her arms, and kissed her brutally. She grinned on her small face.

"Little Chili Sister!!"

Shan Xiaoxiao struggled hard.

"Why? Don't mess around, go, sister will take you to the cafeteria for dinner~!"

Su Muxin carried Xiao Xiao, let her sit on her neck, and carried her forward with a smile. The two girls, one big and one little girl, had a great time.

Xiao Mingzhu came over, followed by Fang Xue, Gong Qingyu, and Bingbing from Yangtai. The gathering of several big beauties made Li Yun in the team the center of attention once again.

Chapter 3289: Network duo

However, after Li Yun showed off his strength and had successfully abbot's morning activities, his current status was completely different from before.

Everyone can see that this guild leader not only has a strong ability, but also is absolutely superb in dealing with people. He will definitely be a big man in the future, surrounded by several big beauties, it is really normal.

Fortunately, Liu Xianxian has another job, and she will fly back tomorrow.

Otherwise, with Liu Xianxian present, the scene will be even more exciting.

"Let's go, Miss Bingbing, let's go to the cafeteria."

Li Yun did not call Shan Ruqing, after all, he was "his own", unlike a guest like Bingbing.

"Okay, I haven't been to China Overseas University. I don't know how the food in the cafeteria is."

Bingbing is not very old this year. It is estimated to be only twenty-seven and eighty. She must be considered old in front of Xiao Mingzhu's first-year students, but she looks sweet, and she seems to be the same age as her seniors, and also I just came out of graduate school, still with a student spirit, and has a completely different temperament from the stubborn elder sisters in the society.

It's no wonder that Bingbing can conquer the hearts of countless straight men on the Internet, and let them scream when they see Bingbing's sweet smile, calling me the heart of Bingbing.

"What? Do you still wronged you by marrying me Bingbing?"

Li Yun couldn't help but think of the network joke, and almost spoke it out in front of the person involved. After being glared at by Xiao Mingzhu, he quickly suppressed his expression.

Speaking of which, all the confidantes around him are no less than Bingbing, not to mention the most beautiful Xiao Mingzhu, Gong Qingyu, Fanqing Sheng, etc., even Fang Xue and Xia Feiyao have their own characteristics.

"Mingzhu, Qingyu." While eating in the dining hall, Bingbing looked at these beautiful school girls a lot, and said with a weird expression: "Before I only heard the rumors, but now it seems that you and Li Yun will grow up together. relation....."

Observing her up close, she came to an amazing conclusion!

Xiao Mingzhu and Gong Qingyu, as well as the daughters of Fang Xue Su Muxin looked at each other, and even Shan Ruqing paused.

Between them, and between Li Yun, it's really hard to say clearly in a few words.

Many outsiders would think that Li Yun is a simple scumbag if they don't understand it, but in fact, they follow Li Yun willingly!

"It's all my little mother~~!"

Shan Xiaoxiao, who was sitting with Su Muxin on the table next to her, said quietly.

The table in the canteen can only sit for four people, and Li Yun and his party are divided into two tables.

"Little mother..."

Bingbing suddenly realized that he understood.

But she quickly looked at Shan Ruqing at the next table in surprise, "Even Miss Shan...?"

Her eyes were full of consternation.

Shan Ruqing's cold face blushed, but she nodded slightly, acquiescing that the relationship with Li Yun is indeed not easy-although she and Li Yun have not made the last step, not even a serious date, she just A day of playing with Li Yun with Xiaoxiao is equivalent to a day of family fun.

But this kind of family play is not the same as dating between men and women. Shan Ruqing has not experienced what dating is like, nor did she experience it when she was a student. She was more rebellious at the beginning.

"In other words... President Li Yun, is the daughter's father?" Bingbing was surprised.

"Dad of course is daddy~"

Chapter 3290: It's scary to think about it

Shan Xiaoxiao's innocent and lovely words shocked Bingbing once again on the spot.

"Don't talk nonsense!"

Shan Ruqing glared at her, "Your father is not a real father, but... a stepdad."

Stepdad!

Shan Ruqing didn't know in what mood she said this sentence. After her daughter heard it, she kept laughing, seeming to be laughing at her mother who finally agreed to admit her relationship with her father.

As for whether Li Yun is her father or not, Shan Xiaoxiao doesn't care anymore. Anyway, it's the father who is the only father she admits, and nothing else counts!

Bingbing was confused by the complicated relationship between them and Li Yun, and even had the illusion that since Shan Xiaoxiao is not Li Yun's daughter, she will grow up in the future... Will she also have the same complicated relationship with Li Yun?

This is not her random thoughts, but she knows very clearly that President Li Yun possesses the masculine charm, even several beautiful women who are more beautiful than her will follow him willingly.

Since Shan Xiaoxiao will live with him in the future, when she grows up, the young girl who is in love with her will not guarantee that she will not fall in love with her stepdad Li Yun because of her Electra complex.

In the future, there will be more and more complicated relationships between Li Yun and these beautiful girls...

"It's scary to think about it."

Bingbing couldn't help thinking in her mind. Fortunately, she didn't like this man—at least she now feels that she would definitely not like a man surrounded by so many girls!

Li Yun pretended not to see it.

If the favorability system is still there, it is estimated that the system will prompt how much Bingbing's favorability has increased or decreased. Fortunately, the favorability system is turned off, otherwise Li Yun will be more concerned about the favorability of Bingbing with this sweet smile.

Cough.

However, the awkward atmosphere was only temporary, and Su Muxin had a lively character. There is a topic that she will not worry about not chatting, plus she also has playmates: Shan Xiaoxiao, these two people simply use the cafeteria as their home to make a fuss. The sound of laughter is crisp and sweet, making many people in the cafeteria look at their food. Stuffed in my nose—all stunned.

Therefore, although Gong Qingyu is very cold and Shan Ruqing is relatively silent, the atmosphere is not awkward.

Bingbing originally didn't want to inquire about the relationship between Li Yun and these girls, but couldn't stop her curiosity, and quietly asked a few questions on the side before continuing to eat contentedly.

She blames herself in her heart, how can she inquire into other people's privacy!

However, whether it is Fang Xue, Su Muxin, or sitting next to her, Xiao Mingzhu, who has a bright smile and a beautiful face, these people are such excellent girls.

But they all followed Li Yun without any regrets, and even faintly developed a sister relationship-at least from what she has seen so far, these beautiful girls have a very good relationship, that is, Shan Ru. The relationship between Qing and them is almost, but they are also familiar friends, but Shan Ruqing can't let go.

On the contrary, her daughter is very relaxed, and can even talk to the classical girl with high coldness.

After eating, everyone immediately left the canteen, leaving their place for those who hadn't eaten yet.

Thirty or forty thousand people came today. Several large cafeterias at the school were fully fired. The restaurant at the school gate was full, but there were still many people waiting to eat, so Li Yun did not occupy a place and let him out after the meal.

When I went out, I saw Lin Haoyan helping out in the kitchen behind the cafeteria. Dozens of power hands were activated at the same time, one person worth ten people!
