

Godly Choice 341

Chapter 341: The clash of three geniuses (part 1)

defeating Li Yun is just a breeze#"

Yidao, Gong Qingyu, Li Yun#"

"Even if Li Yun is arrogant and pale?"

In the evening, Caixia held her mobile phone and sat next to Li Yun with Caiwei and the three sisters of Li Feng. Caixia's delicate little fingers pressed and pressed on the mobile phone, mumbling about hot topics on Weibo.

"Brother is on a hot topic again." Cai Wei's personality is soft, and even her worried tone is extremely gentle.

"It doesn't matter."

Li Yun's tone was flat, and he stretched out his hand and scratched Cai Wei's little nose.

The touch is soft and smooth. After eating the skin care and beauty pill and the small Zhuji pill given to her by Li Yun, the three sisters are now more beautiful, and their skin has become much hydrated and smooth, like freshly peeled lychee meat. Just as tender.

"Brother is confident to take first place!"

After comforting the sensitive Plucking Wei, Li Yun received a prompt from the system.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Defeat everyone in the second mock test, get the first place, reward Gong Qingyu favorability +4, experience value +300,000, free attribute points +1000, purple gift bag*1, additional rewards are random A scientific knowledge reaches the doctoral level.

Option 2: Tied with others for first place, reward Gong Qingyu favorability +2, experience value +100,000, free attribute points +500, blue gift bag*2.

Option 3: Can't get the first prize. Reward skill: speak madly (Effect: There is a chance to anger the opponent and increase the thickness of your skin.)

Li Yun was speechless.

What option is this? Is this first item under his control?

If others have the strength to take the first place, Li Yun can't cut their hands for rewards, right?

"Spicy chicken system, forget it, there is no reward for option two, I'll choose one!"

As for the * skills that speak arrogant words, Li Yun won't ask for it. This is a cheating thing.

After thinking about it, Li Yun casually posted a Weibo:

"I hope this mock exam is as difficult as possible [laughs]."

Not long after, his Weibo, which has 5 million followers, was overwhelmed by comments.

"Yes? Are you human?"

"What does it mean that the harder the better? Boss, please be a man!"

"I cried, knowing that Brother Li is a genius, but you can't cheat us!"

"[Anghuo] You don't want Song Yidao to be tied for first place with you, do you? As for pitting us so much?!"

"I hope this mock test is as simple as possible, so that I can also get a perfect score, tied for the first place with Gong Qingyu [大笑][大笑]."

In just half an hour, Li Yun's Weibo comment reached one hundred thousand, and it was forwarded nearly two hundred thousand, and it quickly rushed to the hot search list.

When Li Feng saw it, he spit out a little fragrant tongue.

This group of netizens had long expected her brother to be embarrassed. After all, it has been more than half a month since Li Yun released the cruel words. Netizens' emotions have grown to the highest point, and now they are just breaking out.

But then, two microblogs from related personnel completely detonated the popularity of the second mock test in Zhonghai City.

"Song Yidao [V Certification: Champion of the First "Genius Challenge"]: It just so happens that I think so too."

He didn't name him, nor did he repost the Weibo of @谁, but everyone could tell at a glance that he was responding to Li Yun's Weibo!

In an instant, the dialogue between the two geniuses caused a large number of netizens to watch, but unexpectedly, another person joined the battlefield.

"Qing Guo Mingyu: The best score, who is it? [Picture]"

Chapter 342: The clash of three geniuses (part 1)

At the end of Qingguo Mingyu's Weibo, a cute cartoon-style picture was attached. In the picture, a cute little girl with a chubby face was standing with her waist pinched and laughing.

In front of her, there were two boys who were beaten up by the little girl, and one of them was marked with an arrow by Qing Guomingyu.

"The arrogant little hacker."

There is no doubt that arrogance + hacker is Li Yun's label!

As for the two boys who were defeated by her, the other one who was not marked must be Song Yidao!

This comic has a lovely style and delicate composition, which quickly attracted the attention of many netizens.

From the fragmented information, everyone inferred that the owner of this Weibo was Gong Qingyu!

"Wow, is the blogger still a schoolmaster? The comics drawn are so cute!"

"Follow me, I like it, beauty + cartoonist + Xueba!"

"LS, there are no photos, how do you know it's a beauty?"

"According to people from Zhonghai Experimental Middle School, Gong Qingyu is a cold and classical beauty. She scored 748 points in the mock test last time!"

"Classical beauty? Is there a photo?"

"[Link] I stole this from the Post Bar at the Experimental Middle School. It is indeed a lady with a classical temperament!"

"Miss?!"

I have to say that all of the netizens are supernatural and good at speaking. No wonder everyone likes to surf the Internet and like to stay and surf the Internet~~.

Everyone was stunned after clicking on the pictures.

In the picture, a classical beauty with a cool temperament, a graceful figure and long black hair is walking out of a luxury car.

There were two maids standing beside her, and four bodyguards in black waiting not far away. Everyone bowed their heads to show respect to this classical beauty.

Just from this somewhat vague photo, everyone can make up for the image of a daughter of a big family, with a cool temperament, and an extraordinary lady!

"It's so beautiful, I decided that this classical beauty will be my girlfriend in the future!"

"Following, beautiful women are going to post a selfie!"

"Student Gong Qingyu, all the girls in our fifth high school support you, defeat the two arrogant boys, and regain the dignity that belongs to girls!"

The shouts of the three top geniuses, the declaration full of gunpowder, and the strength of the three of them, made this mock test instantly become the focus of everyone's attention.

In addition, Gong Qingyu's classical beauty and the character design of the daughter-in-law made the wolf|friends scream with excitement.

Not long after Li Yun's Weibo was sent, he received calls from beautiful girls he knew, or deductions from the Internet.

"Fox Xiaomeng Mengda: Big brother, big brother, how are you preparing for this mock test? You must cheer, but I promise in front of my classmates that the big brother will definitely get the first place!"

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry, this Hu Xiaomeng's button name is really...cute?

"Rest assured, the top score is not a problem."

"Hee hee, it's good for big brother to be confident. By the way, people are going to go back to Longyang County to see my grandfather. Then I will go to see my brother and play with you~"

"it is good."

Li Yun agreed that Hu Xiaomeng had an extraordinary background, and her grandfather was a retired 'great general'. His influence in the country has not receded, and there is no harm in a better relationship.

Just after talking with Hu Xiaomeng, Li Yun received another message from Gong Qingyu.

"Qing Guo Mingyu: Li Yun, are you ready?"

Chapter 343: Xia Feiyao

"Yunjuan Yunshu: Of course, what about you? Are you ready to be defeated by me?"

Li Yun's screen name is generally called Yunjuanyunshu, which is taken from the phrase in "Cai Gen Tan": Do not be surprised, watch the flowers bloom and fall in front of the court; leave unintentionally, leave the sky with clouds and clouds.

"Huh! [Little girl defeats the arrogant hacker]!"

Gong Qingyu sent him the picture she specially drew. Li Yun looked embarrassed. Aren't you a cold, classical beauty, Qingyu? How cute the style is~!

After chatting with Gong Qingyu for a while, Su Muxin, the little pepper, found him again, saying that she had just returned from learning hacker knowledge from the library and saw the hot search of brother Li Yun as soon as she went online, so she couldn't wait to contact him.

Of course, Li Yun has also been chatting with Fang Xue, which means that he is chatting with several beautiful girls at the same time, so Li Yun suddenly feels that he is lack of skills, so he has to ask Fang Xue to review and let Xiao Jiao take a bath and send them away. .

"Husband?"

Just after taking a breath, Li Yun unexpectedly received a call from his'fiancee'.

"Yaoyao?"

"Well, it's me~"

Xia Feiyao's tone is very cute, tender and tender, like a newly born baby bird, soft and waxy milky voice, like a feather in the heart of people, making Li Yun's heart itchy .

"Yaoyao, have you been practicing swords lately?"

After opening a room at the hotel last time, Li Yun and Xia Feiyao said goodbye. She followed the senior sister back to the martial arts, but was also confined by her parents for two months and told her to calm down.

Fortunately, Xia Feiyao said that her parents were actually very talkative, and Li Yun was not too worried about her for a while.

"Yes, husband~"

Because of the previous events, Xia Feiyao's favorability for Li Yun has already reached 100. In her heart, she already regards Li Yun as her husband.

Chatting with Li Yun privately, she has always behaved like a meek and well-behaved little wife. She is completely the ancient wife who obeys the three obediences and four virtues. She is extremely mild-tempered. She regards her husband as the heaven and listens to Li Yun. of.

"On the ordinary days, Yaoyao, I usually get up at 7 in the morning, and go to practice swords after washing up, and after 8 o'clock, I eat breakfast, and then I go to read, write, or learn to be a female actress with my mother, at noon. After dinner, I will practice swords at 2:30 in the afternoon until the evening..."

Xia Feiyao talked about what she probably did in the day, without a trace of concealment. She even used the ancient-style bath barrel to bathe every day, and went to the bath exclusively for her every three days. The petal bath all speak out.

"One petal bath every three days?"

Li Yun laughed teasingly: "No wonder my Yaoyao is so fragrant, I smelled it in the first place."

"Husband, husband, don't make fun of me." Xia Feiyao's tender face turned red, but she didn't blame Li Yun for teasing her.

It seems normal for the husband to say these boudoir secrets to his wife. She had secretly heard her parents say this when she was a child.

"It's not a joke, it's true."

After joking with his little wife for a while, Li Yun was very satisfied.

Xia Feiyao is completely his belonging, this kind of wholehearted dependence on him can greatly arouse a man's desire for protection, and the same is true for Li Yun.

He can't wait for himself to be an innate master, and then go to bring Xia Feiyao back and gain the approval of her parents and everyone!

Now Xia Feiyao can only use her mobile phone secretly at night, and Li Yun can only wait for her to contact her, which is very regrettable.

Chapter 344: Concubine Wan Qing apologizes

Xia Feiyao couldn't use the phone for a long time. Li Yun chatted with her for a while and hung up after hearing her say something to miss him in her coquettish little milk voice.

Unexpectedly, as soon as I hung up, another person called.

"Hello, Li Yun?"

"Concubine Wan Qing?"

What surprised Li Yun was that he received a call from Concubine Wan Qing. Didn't this guy just have an unpleasant incident with him?

Oh, right!

Li Yun thought of something and smiled slightly: "Consort Wan Qing, have you used the detoxification pills for others?"

"How do you know that I am for others?"

Concubine Wan Qing is in a good mood, her voice is crisp and tactful, and she faintly reveals the charming and charming of a girl, which is completely inconsistent with the image of Concubine Wan Qing's enchanting woman!

Li Yun shrugged, "I wonder if you don't look like you are poisoned, so the detoxification pills can only be used by others."

"It's pretty smart, hehe~."

Li Yun was stunned for a moment. Concubine Wan Qing would actually laugh like a girl. This laughter was as beautiful as a spring hitting the pebbles, and it was unbelievable that Concubine Wan Qing had made it.

"Huh, why are you in a daze? What a idiot!"

As if seeing Li Yun's expression at the moment, Concubine Wan Qing smiled again and said in a soft tone: "After this is my voice, you are the first person to hear my true voice except for the holy mother."

Listening to her jewel-like voice, Li Yun's heart trembled. This concubine Qing Qing lifted up a man very well.

A voice specially said to a person, this kind of special treatment, a man will feel extremely proud.

"Ahem!" Li Yun coughed, "What is your real voice? I will feel honored when I take a look at your real appearance."

"Others say that girls with nice voices don't look very good. Concubine Wan Qing, don't you do the same?" Li Yun joked.

But to be honest, even if Concubine Wan Qing is not good enough, her exquisite figure and superb disguise skills alone are enough to make a man feel unbearable.

"Aren't you raising your appearance because of this?" Concubine Wan Qing sneered.

"The first time I saw you, I was the real face."

".....Humph."

Concubine Wan Qing had nothing to say, but she quickly laughed softly: "If you want to see my true face, you have to work harder. If you give me ten or eight detoxification pills, I might just I will show you my peerless face!"

Hearing this sentence to Li Yun, perhaps she just thought she was really arrogant.

But after Concubine Wan Qing said it, her pure and beautiful face blushed.

This sentence seemed to be a confession to Li Yun, she seldom showed her true appearance, let alone showed her looks in front of a man.

So in a sense, showing your face = giving everything you own to the other party.

"Ten eight pieces?"

Li Yun smiled with anger, "Concubine Wan Qing, do you really treat my detoxification pill as a popular product? Tell you..."

"Okay, I'm sorry." Concubine Wan Qing interrupted Li Yun and said in an apologetic and extremely soft tone: "I know that your detoxification pills are very expensive. I was joking about that sentence, Li Yun, actually I Thank you very much, really!"

She spoke earnestly, as if showing her heart in front of Li Yun, sincerely thanking him.

Li Yun was surprised at first, then his face became very strange.

Consort Wan Qing refused to apologize before she died or alive, but now she took the initiative to say sorry to him.

Chapter 345: Concubine Wan Qing in Contemplation

The contrast between before and after is too strong.

Li Yun thought to himself that this might be the effect brought by the 85-point favorability degree, and Concubine Wan Qing already trusted him extremely.

"Okay, don't mention the past." Li Yun said a lot: "But I hope that in the future, between you and me, there will be no deception, distrust, or threats."

I don't eat this set.

Li Yun didn't say this sentence, but I believe Concubine Wan Qing can hear it.

The other side was silent for a while, and then said leisurely: "Okay, I see, you can ask me anything you want to ask in the future, provided that I want to answer you. Thank you, Li Yun."

"Nothing, I want to thank you too."

The two of them were like ordinary friends that they had just met, and after being polite and polite, they met to hang up.

Li Yun didn't take this matter to his heart for too long. Concubine Wan Qing was like an unstable factor, and she was involuntarily in the six magic gates. It was undoubtedly stupid to put hope on her.

But Concubine Wan Qing hasn't calmed down for a long time.

She opened the delicate wooden door, holding her smooth and round chin, and staring at the distant mountain gate blankly.

In her sight, the divine light of the valley in the night was shining, and fairy animals and animals were faintly screaming and flying among the mountain peaks, as beautiful as a fairyland.

It's just that Concubine Wan Qing is now in a mess, and she has no intention of appreciating, and she has already seen too much beauty in front of her.

"Li, Yun..."

She whispered the name softly, and a warm current gushed out of her heart, which made her feel warm and very useful.

But Concubine Wan Qing rationally told her that this kind of mood was the most undesirable.

If you want to survive in the six demon gates, you must be cruel, and never allow anyone who is concerned about it, otherwise, it will easily become the handle of others.

"Li Yun, what should I do with you."

Concubine Wan Qing sighed quietly, stood up and stretched her lower body, her graceful figure is undoubtedly revealed under the thin clothes. The pure temperament and the pure looks can make every man's heart hot when she sees it.

It is a pity that there is absolutely no possibility that a man would dare to step into her small building, otherwise he would be ruthlessly attacked by Concubine Wan Qing!

"Qing concubine."

At this moment, a crane made of paper flew over. This crane was very delicately made. With its pointed mouth opened and closed, it could really speak human words!

If someone from outside sees the cranes and can speak, they have to be scared and dizzy.

"Mother-in-law?"

"You come over to me."

"it is good."

Concubine Wan Qing agreed neatly.

If there is anyone in the Six Demon Sect worthy of Concubine Wan Qing's attention, it is only this person whom she calls the holy mother-in-law.

Concubine Wan Qing put on makeup, then concealed her real face, took her weapon, and left this small building.

Her two maids, Xiaoqing and Xiaolan, did not follow. Concubine Wan Qing wore a long black dress like ink and walked through the valley of the Six Demon Gates.

Along the way, I don't know how many eyes peeping at her in the dark, a pair of weird eyes, changing to be someone else, I am afraid that I will be abruptly scared to death!

"Mother-in-law."

Concubine Wan Qing came to a remote, low and dark wooden house, and knocked respectfully on the door, until there was a response from the inside, Concubine Wan Qing opened the door and entered.

The strange thing is that the inside of the house is not dim, the space looks much larger than the outside, and the clean and tidy furniture looks very beautiful.

Chapter 346: Holy fairy

"Mother-in-law, are you recovering again?!"

Concubine Wan Qing was very pleasantly surprised. The space in the house was much larger when she came in the morning, which proved that the saint mother's skills were quickly recovering.

Soon, the saint mother-in-law will be able to get back her powerful cultivation base again, enough to move mountains and seas, and the sun and the moon will be dark. Then who will dare to resist them in the six magic gates? !

Not only that, but the appearance of the holy mother has become much younger.

The haggard and yellow cheeks that had been dazzled by the external force inside the body were now hydrated and smooth again, as if they were a beautiful woman with lingering charm.

"The Detoxification Pill you brought is amazing."

The saint mother-in-law smiled, pulled Concubine Wan Qing to sit with her, and asked carefully the origins of this detoxification pill and Li Yun.

After listening, the holy grandmother pondered for a long time before she said:

"In the past, I was betrayed by the * of Fan Linglong, and I was caught off guard by her. Although I gave her a backhand with the emperor's magic power at the last moment, Fan Linglong has not died until now. I should have found a way to solve it. ."

Concubine Wan Qing nodded gently.

Fan Linglong of the Hidden Sacred Valley fought with the holy mother-in-law for many years, and finally fought both sides. The holy mother-in-law had to live in seclusion for many years. She had almost no right to speak in the magic gate, and could only survive for many years until Concubine Wan Qing accidentally obtained Li Yun's detoxification pills , And then recovered.

"After I retired, the Lord of Heaven and Human Dao took the opportunity to seize power and completely held the Six Demon Gates, but it's a pity."

The holy mother sneered, "The sky fails to meet people's wishes, and the rise of human science and technology in the outside world will destroy the scarce aura of the outside world with cannons, causing our six magic gates to be affected. He is unable to return to the sky and can only be doomed."

Concubine Wan Qing asked: "Mother-in-law, shall we summon the demons and hold the six demons in our hands again?"

"Do not."

The saint mother shook her head, "Although I was a blessing in disguise, the emperor's magic skills have been cultivated to the eighteenth floor that no one has ever been to before, but the lord of heaven and humanity is not an idle generation. His method of transforming the devil's mind was 30 years ago He has already entered the state of transformation, and now at least half of the elders support him. We are not his opponents for the time being."

Concubine Wan Qing nodded, it is better to be more cautious.

"Besides." The holy grandmother looked solemnly: "The last time you said that someone was spreading spirit sticks and spirit sticks, have you found out who is behind them?"

Both of these things came from the six magic gates, and the master behind them could only be found in the magic gates.

Concubine Wan Qing shook her head, "I guess it was done by a certain lord, but no evidence was found. Moreover, the spell on the spirit stick seems to have been changed a bit. I didn't see the purpose."

The holy mother-in-law thought for a long time, and the concubine Wan Qing fixedly looked at her, the mother-in-law has indeed changed for the better, and even her appearance has recovered.

It is said that the holy mother-in-law had a common title in the martial arts of the Demon Gate and the outside world, namely: Holy Fairy.

It means that her temperament is as noble as a saint, and she has a beautiful face like a fairy, so she is called a saint fairy.

Although fifty years have passed, the face of the holy mother-in-law is still the same, and after years of precipitation, it has become more charming.

"I don't care about this for now." The saint mother took out a piece of paper, wrote something on it, and then folded it into a paper crane, imposed a spell on it, and handed it to Concubine Wan Qing:

"This thing, open it after you go out, and it will find that bitch!"

Consort Wan Qing was a little surprised, "Mother-in-law, why did you contact her?"

"Hehe, it's just killing someone with a knife, go, mother-in-law, I want to rest for a while, waiting for the day when I fight again with Fan Linglong!"

Chapter 347: Preheating for mock exams (part 1)

Li Yun naturally didn't know the conversation between Concubine Wan Qing and the holy mother-in-law, and he didn't know who Concubine Wan Qing used the detoxification pills.

But he understood that even if Concubine Wan Qing trusted him, it was impossible to tell him more secrets.

Because Li Yun's current level is too low, he is only a warrior in the middle of the acquired realm, and he is not qualified enough to know about Concubine Wan Qing and the Six Demon Gates.

Therefore, Li Yun didn't ask too much, so he prepared for the mock exam with peace of mind.

The next day, Li Yungang and Li Feng went out after breakfast. Before they reached the school gate, they were besieged by a group of journalists carrying guns and cannons.

"Hello, are you Li Yun? I'm a reporter from Entertainment Weekly. Are you going to take the mock exam today?"

Nonsense, you all came to surround me, don't you know this?

Li Yun couldn't help giving these reporters a blank look in his heart.

"Hello, Li Yun, I am the editor of "Yi Xin News", would you like to take a moment to talk about mock exams?"

"Student Li Yun, are you confident to defeat Song Yidao? Where is Gong Qingyu? I heard that you have a very good relationship with her, is it true?"

"Hello, beautiful beauty, are you Li Yun's girlfriend? Are you living together?"

"Li Yun, tell us what your goal is for this exam?"

"..."

A large group of reporters were clamoring and clamoring. Under the current heat, they would like Li Yun to say a few more words. It is best to use the kind of hot news to make their news flow more!

Li Feng tightly grasped his younger brother's hand, and tried to speak several times, but was stopped by Li Yun.

These entertainment reporters have no limit at all. Li Yun said that he is confident to win the first place, but the news headline of these reporters will be: shocking! Li Yun uttered wild words, Song Yidao was not in his eyes at all, why did he say that?

Wait, anyway, the news headlines of the reporters are shocking and unstoppable, shocking the ministers.

In the end, Li Yun was impatient with the quarrel, and said directly: "I will definitely get a full score in this exam. I will leave it here. Go write news!"

After finishing speaking, he took Li Feng's hand and walked quickly into the school gate.

The reporters did not dare to enter the campus, so they could only take a few photos of Li Yun face to face, and each went back to write news and compete for traffic.

Soon, as soon as Li Yun finished reading early, Wang Houliang took the cellphone to report the letter.

"Brother Li, you are on the hot search again."

"..."

Li Yun was speechless, this Nima, he went on hot search every day? This group of reporters is really idle.

"What did the hot search say about me?"

"Hey, the fifteenth in the hot search list!" Wang Houliang said with a smile: "Reporters said, you live with a beautiful school girl and are very close."

Li Yun shrugged, expressing his disinterest.

Even if others knew that he and Li Feng had intimate behaviors beyond normal, Li Yun was not afraid at all.

Why?

Because Li Yun and his elder sister are not relatives at all, the reporters knew that the siblings were adopted as soon as they checked, so there is basically something wrong, Li Yun is not afraid of being scolded by someone pointing his nose.

At most he scolded him for being polite and fluid, stepping on a few boats or something.

But having said that, when a young man is proud, doesn't he just want to hug left and right, and enjoy the beautiful things and beauties in the world?

However, Li Yun let him go to reporters, and let him ignite again.

"I can still get full marks in the second mock test? Brother, I'm waiting for your performance to see if you are really awesome or bragging!"

Chapter 348: Preheating for mock exams (below)

With the attention of countless netizens, the second mock test of Zhonghai City has finally begun.

At 9 o'clock in the morning on Thursday, the language test.

If Li Yun writes with divine help, he will be full of thoughts when writing the essay. After two and a half hours of examination time, Li Yun only took less than one and a half hours to finish the examination and hand in the papers and leave.

Seeing Li Yun stepping onto the podium with a confident face and handing in papers, the students in the examination room became agitated.

"Brother Li is too fast, right? Men can't be so fast!"

"Brother Li is awesome! Just now every time I looked up, I saw Brother Li writing, so I don't need to think at all!"

"Brother Li writes too fast. I observed it and finished the 800-word composition in 15 minutes."

"This...I just achieved reading comprehension, and the composition hasn't been reviewed yet!"

"Li Yun, wait!" The invigilator picked up his test paper, looked at it suspiciously, and saw that all the answers above were filled in, without fail.

Turn to the back of the test paper and see it as a essay. The handwriting is clear and the segmentation is reasonable. A cursory glance shows that this essay should be at least 56 points or more!

"Are you... sure you want to hand in the paper?"

The invigilator was shocked. He had seen English exams hand in papers in less than an hour, but there were a lot of questions in the Chinese exams, plus there were essays. Generally speaking, a genius would take at least two hours!

The invigilator looked at the table below and found that it took only half of the time for 1 hour and 15 minutes.

"Confirm to hand in the paper."

Li Yun nodded calmly.

"You have to think about it." The invigilator once again persuaded: "You can't return after you hand in your papers and leave the examination room. You must check it before leaving. Besides, don't you want to take the full score?"

The invigilator for the mock exam is also from this high school, so the classmates in the exam room did not complain about Li Yun's extra care.

Li Yun smiled slightly, "If I don't have this confidence, then I don't dare to say that I get a full score in the test!"

After speaking, he strode out of the examination room, leaving behind a group of stunned classmates.

"This is the confidence of a perfect genius?"

The invigilator smiled bitterly and shook his head. This is the first time he has seen such a genius since he has been a teacher for 20 years.

Soon, the news that Li Yun handed in the paper more than an hour in advance spread quickly across the Internet and also reached the ears of a middle school classmate.

"Huh, there is nothing great about submitting papers in advance, the key is still to look at the scores, right, Song Ge?"

A classmate slapped Song Yidao's flattery, but the latter did not look good.

His language test took an hour and 45 minutes, which was half an hour longer than Li Yun.

This is simply unbearable for Song Yidao, who is striving for the first place in everything!

"No, I must hand in papers earlier than him for the math test in the afternoon!"

Song Yidao clenched his fists, a touch of determination flashed in his eyes!

Experimental middle school, special class.

After finishing the Chinese test, Fang Hao was proud of the spring breeze, and said to the classical beauty who was sitting quietly: "Qingyu, I heard that Li Yun finished the Chinese test paper in just over an hour."

Gong Qingyu didn't even look at him.

Fang Hao didn't get angry, and continued: "Qingyu, I don't think how long it takes is important at all. The important thing is whether a person can fulfill his promise. Li Yun said that he wants to be the first, but he doesn't pay much attention to the exam. He just said that there was no action at all!"

This kind of man is undoubtedly the kind that girls hate most.

Gong Qingyu smiled at the corner of his mouth, "Fang Hao, the grades haven't come out yet, how do you know he can't be the first?"

Fang Hao was speechless for a while.

"Don't talk to me again."

After dropping this sentence, Gong Qingyu packed up and left the classroom with his schoolbag on his back.

Fang Hao was left with bitterness gritted his teeth.

Chapter 349: The answer is approximate

The math test starts at 3 in the afternoon and ends at 5, after which the teacher immediately changes the paper, and basically gets the ranking on Monday.

Before four o'clock, Song Yidao stood up and handed in the paper in the eyes of everyone in surprise, leaving a group of stunned classmates.

The second mock test is the most difficult, because there is a third mock test, which is easy, so as to build confidence for the college entrance examination students.

But the second time, it can be said how difficult it is to do it. The questions are all about torture the candidates to death.

Many students with good grades can't finish it in two hours, but Song Yidao can hand in the paper in less than an hour. This is incredible!

"This time, I won!"

Song Yidao walked out of the classroom and immediately took out his mobile phone to search on Weibo, but did not find Li Yun's Weibo for leaving the examination room.

Obviously, if there is not, it means that Li Yun has not yet handed in the paper. After all, there are many reporters waiting for them, and they were photographed as soon as they left the examination room.

"Hehe, it seems that Li Yun just writes fast, not very talented!"

Song Yidao showed a satisfied smile. Although one question was a little strange, he promised that his answer must be correct!

As for that strange question, I can only say that the level of the teacher in Zhonghai City is too low, and it is not his problem.

the other side.

After finishing all the questions, Li Yun looked back at the fifth question of multiple choice questions.

"A conical bus bar is 13cm long... find the side area of the conical shell (the answer is an approximate number.

Li Yun thought about it.

This question is only the fifth question of the math question, and the difficulty is not high. With his current attributes of wisdom, he can calculate the answer mentally with a glance.

but!

There is a pitfall about this question.

If you follow the normal calculation steps given in the textbook, the answer is 112, which is no problem at all.

However, if you strictly follow the calculation standards issued by the examination institute, that is, in the calculation process, you must keep one more approximate number in accordance with the accuracy requirements each time, the answer to this question can also be 113.

If Li Yun's memory is correct, there are similar questions in the textbook, and the standard answer should be 112.

But according to the rules of the examination institute, the real answer to this question is actually 113!

"Damn, the textbook editors and the test questions are not the same people, and they have made such an oolong thing!"

Li Yun wanted to scold his mother. What's more cheating is that the system also gave an option event.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Fill in B (112), reward all attributes +500.

Option 2: Fill in C (113), reward skill Dan*1.

Choice 3: Choose both, reward purple gift bag*2, justice value +30. "

The corners of Li Yun's mouth twitched. The system is quite generous at this time, but this question is really difficult to choose!

He now has another choice event. After he gets the top score, he can get Gong Qingyu's full favorability.

If you make a wrong choice, you lose 5 points for this question, which is basically insulated from the full score.

Li Yun pondered for a long time, then glanced at the subject, then looked at the options given by the system, and thought about it.

"wrong!"

Li Yun was surprised to find that choosing the three systems gave a reward purple gift bag, and also rewarded justice value?

Although there is only a justice value of 30, there is no doubt that this is the correct option prompt given by the system!

Maybe it is correct.

"Damn it, don't care!"

Li Yun made a ruthless message, and directly wrote the answers of 'B and C' in the fifth question of the multiple-choice question registration.

There are two answers to multiple multiple choice questions. It is estimated that all Zhonghai City, no, he is the only one in the world who dares to answer this question.

Chapter 350: 145 points of mathematics

"Ding, the host has made a choice, and the reward (purple gift bag*2, justice value +30) has been issued!"

After Li Yun's math test took a full hour and 30 minutes to walk out of the examination room, everyone looked at him with different eyes.

Pity, regret, gloating, disdain, ridicule, etc.

"Song Yi took only 55 minutes to take the math test, and Li Ge...1 hour and 30 minutes, so much difference!"

"Brother Li...probably has reached the limit."

"Alas, there is no difference in simple subjects like Chinese, but when it comes to mathematics, the gap between evildoers and geniuses suddenly becomes obvious."

"Song Yidao is a wicked evildoer, and Brother Li is just a genius, the two are simply incomparable."

"It deserves it, I can't understand him holding Fang Xue, it's cool!"

Everyone shook their heads and sighed. The reporters were so excited that they were ashamed of blood, similar to "Li Yun walked out of the examination room and shook his head and sighed, "Longyang County genius has reached the limit" Song Yidao firmly took the first place, Li Yun was clearly behind 'Wait for the news, it has been unceremoniously dumped on the Internet.

For a while, Li Yun's Weibo was once again occupied by netizens who came to watch.

"Hahaha, you can't do math, right?"

"Fortunately, you're still a hacker, don't know math?"

"I have a question, the blogger, your last war against global hackers or something, wouldn't it be the hype of the product launch?"

"Hope a dog, Nima is really disgusting!"

After Fang Hao saw this, he was so excited that he couldn't wait to find Gong Qingyu and talk about it the next morning.

"Li Yun finished all the topics in 50 minutes." Gong Qingyu was annoyed and told Fang Hao this matter in a cold voice.

"50 minutes? Math test? Impossible!"

Fang Hao was full of sorrowful expressions, "Song Yidao and I are both Olympiad gold medalists, and we have to finish writing in nearly an hour. How can he be 50 minutes? Besides, why doesn't he leave after writing the test paper? I think he is better than But Song Yidao and I lied to you Qingyu, right?"

Men want face.

The students around also all expressed that it was the case.

Gong Qingyu had nothing to say. She was thinking about the fifth question that Li Yun said to her last night. Could it be...

In summary, two and a half hours of exam time.

Li Yun's time: 1 hour and 15 minutes.

Song Yidao time: 1 hour and 27 minutes.

English, two hours of test time, the end of listening time is 45 minutes after the start of the test.

Li Yun's time: 45 minutes.

Song Yidao: 49 points.

At the end of all examination subjects, everyone was surprised to find that Li Yun actually overwhelmed Song Yidao in the examination time of the three subjects!

But everyone didn't think it was Li Yunqiang, but he smashed his face to fill the fat man, and wrote the answer without careful calculation, in order to beat Song Yidao in the exam time!

Zhonghai No.1 Middle School.

"Brother Song, this Li Yun is too disgusting!"

"Yes, the hard power can't match Brother Song, so I'm here to build a human mentality."

The classmates rushed to express contempt for Li Yun, Song Yidao shrugged indifferently: "After the exam is over, only the score is the most important thing. I don't need to worry about other things. I will get the full score!"

"if....."

"There is no if, if there is, then the marking teacher in Zhonghai City is too * to see the beauty of my answer!"

Everyone was shocked by Song Yidao's domineering. They said that the full score is full marks, and the answer is still beautiful, dare to ask who can do it?

Just as everyone was crazy to flatter Song Yidao, a classmate screamed:

"Brother Song, Li Yun's math grades have come out!"

"Full marks?"

"No, only 145 points! I'm Cao, that kid is embarrassed!"
