Chapter 3451: No need to wash peaches

"wash?"

The little girl glanced at the peaches on the peach tree and blinked: "Why do you need to wash the peaches on the tree? Xiaomei's hands are not dirty."

She showed off her white and tender little hands. It seemed that she was isolated from the world and there was not much farm work. The little girl was seven or eight years old, but her hands were still very white and tender, unlike ordinary rural girls. I started helping my family with farm work at the age of, mowing the grass and feeding the cows.

Little girls are different.

Her hands were very white, and there was no black dirt in her nails. She was white and tender, and she was obviously pampered.

Or, never work.

Li Yun smiled, retracted his gaze from careful observation, and looked at the eyes of the little girl named Xiaomei, "Little sister, your hands are really clean, don't you usually need to help your mother with her work?"

"..."

Li Yun's tentative question made Xiaomei give him a strange look, "Big brother, are you..." She looked down and looked at Li Yun's hands, "Did you never wash your hands? ?"

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry, and glanced at the river that passed through the peach blossom forest. "Xiaomei, do you usually wash your hands in the river?"

"Occasionally."

"What is this place called? Have no outsiders come?"

"This is Peach Blossom Village! Outsiders... there don't seem to be any. Big Brother, you are the first one~"

Li Yun was a little disappointed when he heard Xiaomei's words. Did Linglong not come here? Or is there something you were scrupulous about and didn't show up in front of this group of villagers?

"It's here, village head, that outsider is here!"

There was a noisy sound in the distance. Li Yun looked up and found that it was the little boys who had run away before calling the adults.

The head was an old man with gray hair and beard. His face was red, and his head was very good. After seeing Li Yun, Fan Qingsheng and Smith, his faces showed a surprised expression. After a while, he said with a sigh: "How much For the first time in the past few years, two groups of people have contacted and entered here. The old man is the head of Taohua Village. I have seen you all!"

The old man used a kind of etiquette that Li Yun hadn't seen before. Li Yun didn't force to learn, but just arched his hands and asked curiously: "The village chief, you just said that there are two groups of people? But this sister Xiaomei just now, Didn't it mean that we were the first to enter here?"

Seeing Li Yun suspected her, Xiaomei immediately said: "A beautiful sister came in before, but she knows people here, so she is not an outsider. I was right!"

"Pretty sister?" Li Yun's eyes lit up, and there was a hint of hope in Fan Qingsheng's eyes, and he asked, "What does that sister look like?"

"what!"

Fan Qingsheng's voice is as good as ever. After Xiaomei heard it, she called out directly. After a long pause, she replied: "Sister's voice is good, Xiaomei still wants to hear it."

"..."

"Where is the older sister?" Li Yun asked, "What does it look like? We came here to find someone. If we find someone, this fairy sister will talk to you again. Thank you, okay?"

Li Yun decisively took the voice of Lord Saintess as a sales item, causing Saint Fan Qing to glance at him again.

No objection.

"Okay, okay, Sister Fairy's voice is really nice~~~! It's so nice!"

Xiaomei was very happy, and quickly recalled: "When the older sister came in, she flew into the sky and rushed into the village. She didn't believe it, but the result was... Granny Zhao in our village recognized it. she."

Chapter 3452: Fan Linglong's acquaintance

Grandma Zhao?

Li Yun looked at Fan Qingsheng, who shook his head lightly, saying that he never knew anything about Grandma Zhao, nor did he hear Master mention it.

In a closed, isolated village, and still entering in the rift in the Antarctic continent, a person said he knew Linglong? !

You know, even though Fan Linglong hates mentioning her age, she has lived for four to five hundred years, and most of her friends have died. Fan Linglong herself has only been outside two or three times in a hundred years.

Therefore, Li Yun doubted whether the person who knew Fan Linglong was something used to confuse people in this super-real illusion.

"In the beginning, the long-haired elder sister didn't dare to recognize her, her eyes widened, and she said that her evil spirits were outside, but the grandmother said one by one what happened at that time and took out a bottle of very strong wine. The black and long-haired elder sister suddenly burst into tears, rushed over and hugged the grandmother, saying things like Xiaoqing, I am good for you."

Xiaomei said moved: "Grandma has been taciturn since she came to our village hundreds of years ago. Now she is a lot happier."

Li Yun was shocked.

The woman with very long hair in Xiaomei's mouth is really Fan Linglong? !

"Li Yun!"

Sage Fan Qing yelled to him a little excitedly. Li Yun reacted immediately and leaned down and touched Xiaomei's head: "Xiaomei, can you take us to find that sister? Your fairy sister and I are just for her. Come!"

If it weren't for worrying that the villagers in Taohua Village might be real people, Li Yun would want to shout directly to let Fan Linglong come out faster!

"OK."

Xiaomei nodded obediently and turned to look at the village chief.

"Little friends, don't worry."

The village chief of Taohua Village smiled and said: "You are all guests from far away, please let the old man take you there. There have been no outsiders in Taohua Village for a long time. It just so happens that the old man wants to talk to you about the recent external affairs."

"Of course, you know everything!"

Li Yun was a little skeptical of his own inference, are these people really real people?

It's really weird.

Li Yun and Fan Qingsheng were walking through a valley in the shivering Antarctic continent that was still filled with ice and mist the moment before. The next moment they came to an isolated Taoyuan with the fragrance of birds and flowers, they saw a group of short-sleeved short sleeves. Yi, a child who is eating peaches and playing.

With such a contrast, ordinary people may have long been confused, just like Smith now-Li Yun estimated that even if he understood Chinese, he was too shocked to speak.

"By the way, the village chief, I haven't introduced myself yet. My name is Li Yun. This is my wife, the Holy Fanqing. We all live in Huang Xuan country, that is, the descendants of Yan and Huang!"

Li Yun talked about his origins. The village chief of Taohua Village nodded and said humorously: "It doesn't matter if the old man's name is mentioned, it has been forgotten for hundreds of years. The villagers call me the village chief, and you also call me the village chief. Okay. But, you...?"

He looked at Smith.

Anyone with sufficient IQ and EQ can respond.

Smith hurriedly spoke in completely unfluent Chinese and said: "I, Smith!"

Play money!

Li Yun laughed aloud and explained: "This is a foreign friend...that's from abroad, from the Western Regions, and there are people from the west."

Taohuacun nodded with a serious face, "It seems that the exorbitant taxes over there are also very heavy. You see, this baby is so tanned at a young age."

Chapter 3453: Drink, drink happily

Li Yun suddenly felt that it is not a good thing to be a black and white person. Otherwise, Smith would be a bit darker, and there would be no so much trouble. He would directly explain that this was a black man, which would save trouble.

Following the river bank, enjoying the peach blossoms all the way, Li Yun finally entered the village after listening to the village chief's explanation.

In conclusion, the origin of Taohua Village explained by the village chief is actually similar to the one recorded in The Story of Taohuayuan.

A long, long time ago, the ancestors of Taohua Village came here somehow in order to escape the war and the ancestors of Taohua Village came here a long time ago, a few hundred years old who lived in the village for a long time, and there are no records in ancient books.

After that, they thrived in this isolated place and passed down from generation to generation.

Sometimes outsiders come in here, some choose to leave, some choose to stay, the last person who entered was more than 300 years ago in the Ming Dynasty, when a person named Apo Zhao entered here.

Of course, Taohua Village is still different from ordinary villages.

People here live a long and long life, and fruit trees and crops are growing very well. There are even weird fruit trees that produce mature fruits while continuing to bloom, so that the villagers can easily obtain a source of food. Life here is carefree, there are only occasional frictions, but they are all resolved quickly.

After all, there are only four to five hundred people in the village.

The houses in the village are a little different from the outside world, but there is nothing unusual. Li Yun quickened his pace and came to a house with the village chief.

"Here, this is the home of Zhao Apo."

"Um!"

Li Yun several people entered the yard. He had heard Fan Linglong's exaggerated laughter and drinking before he saw anyone.

"Come on, Xiaoqing, celebrate our meeting again in 300 years, drink, have a great...hiccup!"

"Linglong, you are drunk, don't drink it, you want to drink some time in the future."

"Who said I was drunk? I'm fine, come, continue to drink, don't have a good time, don't want to leave today!"

Li Yun's raised foot dared not fall.

This person who drank wildly in the house and drank freely, is Fan Linglong?

"Master." Fan Qingsheng said suddenly: "She has been having a hard time all these years."

She is making excuses for Master's indulgence.

Maybe everyone needs time to vent their feelings?

Li Yun nodded silently and walked into the house. The village chief didn't follow up and let them reunite.

"exquisite."

After entering the house, Li Yun said faintly, and saw a room of wine cans, wine and vegetables scattered on the table, and two people, one old and one young, drinking at the table.

The old one, about 60 or 70 years old, was full of wrinkles, and the lesser one had long black hair, snow-white skin, and a beautiful face full of drunkenness. When Li Yun came in, she happened to hold up a big pot. The sake was poured into his throat with his mouth wide open and gurgling.

The sake flowed out from the corners of her lips, followed the swan-like neck, all the way to the collarbone, and finally got into Van's exquisite clothes and wet her upper body.

"Drink, continue to drink! Drink so dimly, heaven and earth turn over, enjoyment, enjoyment is to drink!"

Fan Linglong was talking nonsense, and after a drunk glance at Li Yun, he laughed again, "My little villain has come to me, ah, my dear daughter is here too, hahahaha, that's great. Today is the happiest day of my life. I have friends, my father, my daughter and my apprentice! Hahaha!"

Chapter 3454: Home

After Li Yun approached her, Fan Linglong burped, and the smell of wine spit out. There was no smell of ordinary alcoholic drinkers after drinking. The smell of wine from Fan Linglong's mouth was somewhat sweet. Xinxiang, Li Yun looked at her embarrassed and embarrassed appearance, and he felt a bit of index finger movement, so that he swallowed.

"Master." Sage Fanqing ran his mana and looked at Fan Linglong intently, carefully observing her from top to bottom.

She didn't know whether she should be fortunate or not. She couldn't see that Master was fascinated by something, but the way Master was now, she didn't look normal.

"Why do you tell me? Why do you see me? Drink it~~~!"

After seeing Li Yun and Qing Sheng, Fan Linglong became more and more happy, grinning and laughing, and then picked up the flask, raising his head to pour it down.

If Li Yun is not there.

"exquisite!!"

Li Yun grabbed her hands angrily and glared at her, "Qing Sheng and I are outside, facing the cold wind, and looking for you in fear, but you are not worried about us. Let's come. Yes, don't you say it?"

"Well....."

Fan Linglong looked at Li Yun in a daze, as if he couldn't react. After a long while, he leaned forward and snapped a bite like a little girl kissing her childhood sweetheart, giggling and saying: "Say, is that right?" "

"..."

Li Yun confirmed that this kind of Fan Linglong is indeed not Fan Linglong.

It can also be said that such a Fan Linglong is a drunk and completely let go of Fan Linglong.

"Not enough? You are such a badass~"

Fan Linglong, who was drinking with pink cheeks, felt dissatisfied when seeing Li Yun not speaking, so she leaned forward again, wrapped his arms around his neck, and kissed Li Yun's lips without hesitation.

This kiss is a long time.

Xiaomei, who followed, shyly covered her eyes. After looking at her fingers for a long time, she still couldn't stand it anymore. She stepped her short legs and ran out, saying something like a shy kiss in her mouth.

Auntie Zhao smiled at the scene in front of her, holding a wine glass, took a sip slowly, turned her head to look at the Sage Fanqing who was standing on the side, and said in surprise: "Are you... the daughter of sister Linglong?"

Sage Fanqing walked to her and nodded, "Yes, I am Master's daughter. My name is Sage Fanqing. Are you?"

With that, she sat down without asking Apo Zhao's opinion.

After sitting down, Fan Qingsheng still watched Master and Li Yun intimacy. When Master attempted to take the initiative to move his feet, he silently extended his hand to forbid the two of them from going overboard.

There are people nearby. Even if you want to do it, you can only do it when no one is there.

Sage Fanqing has gotten used to it. When he is with Li Yun, he will always meet other girls, or be intimate with her.

As long as there are no outsiders, Fan Qing Sheng will not prohibit it.

"Ha ha."

Grandma Zhao laughed heartily, "I really didn't expect that one day Sister Linglong would take the initiative to hug a man's neck and kiss him. Without a trace of defense, Sister Linglong seemed to have found her home. !"

Sage Fanqing is not good at speaking, so he just nodded.

Grandma Zhao didn't care, she continued to look at the two kissing together with satisfaction, and said with satisfaction: "Daughter, is this man your father? She is really young, and the cultivators are different. ."

Chapter 3456: Swig

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Look for the most abnormal existence in this small world, reward the supreme gift bag*1, and the remaining rewards are to be determined.

Option 2: Use the abilities of the innate Taoist fetus to escape here as soon as possible, no reward.

Choice 3: Do nothing, let the flow go, reward: white gift bag*3. "

When Apo Zhao recounted what happened more than 300 years ago, when Li Yun embraced Fan Linglong, who was in a state of drunken life and dream, he received a prompt from the system.

There was almost no hint in this selection event. The only thing Li Yun can be sure of is that this is indeed a small world.

He couldn't be sure whether the people here were real or fake, and he couldn't be sure whether it was a relic of the ancients, he could only count one step at a time.

"and after?"

After confirming that Fan Linglong was drunk and slept, Li Yun raised his head and took over the task of chatting between Qingsheng and Zhao Apo.

"Later? No later, and then I died!"

This grandmother Zhao is very talkative and cheerful, with a bit of boldness as her children, she is indeed the heroine who once wandered through the rivers and lakes with Fan Linglong.

But what he said really surprised Li Yun.

"Dead?" Li Yun looked at her in surprise. Although the grandmother Zhao in front of her had gray hair, whether it was her face, temperament, charm, and even Li Yun's use of spiritual sense to feel her vitality, it was enough to prove. She is a living person.

Rather than a dead person or a ghost like Nie Xiaoqian.

"Yes, isn't it normal that people die when they get old? Sister Linglong and I are different. I'm just an ordinary person who practices martial arts, but Sister Linglong is an immortal."

Auntie Zhao looked at Fan Linglong in Li Yunqi, with nostalgia and love in her eyes.

Yes, it is petting.

As she grows older year by year, her mentality is also getting older, but Fan Linglong is still like a day for decades, drinking, sitting, and practicing, and she is full of energy.

She still remembered that when she felt that she was too old to walk and wanted to see Fan Linglong for the last time, sister Linglong was sitting under a peach tree, drinking wine and painting, just like now. Her long black hair was scattered behind her head, and she was so beautiful and strange as a goddess.

When she saw her who was very old, Sister Linglong smiled back at her and said, "Xiaoqing, come over and drink with me!"

Aunt Zhao has never forgotten that scene.

"This may be the reason why my soul entered here and was reborn in Taohua Village!"

Auntie Zhao explained to Li Yun herself.

Li Yun nodded slightly and asked, "Did Linglong be shocked when she saw you? What did she say?"

"What did you say?" Auntie Zhao shook her head, "Sister Linglong knows me, she just told me to drink with her, and she knows everything."

"?"

This is really mysterious, but Li Yun decided to believe in Fan Linglong, so he directly asked the resurgent Zhao Granny: "Then Granny, how do you...how do you feel about yourself now? After your resurrection, how have you been in the past few hundred years? Coming here?"

Li Yun still finds it incredible!

Think about it, he just went to the Hidden Sacred Valley not long ago, entered the most hidden spiritual rift in the Hidden Sacred Valley, and saw the chaotic small world of the cosmic dying inside.

After that, they chased a man who had fled to the South Pole, but they made a mistake. Li Yun and Fan Qingsheng chased Linglong again, and entered this peach blossom source!

Chapter 3457: social relationship

In other words, Li Yun experienced five or six world changes in just a few days.

One, the main world, that is, Li Yun and his daughters travel in the Tianxue Palace on the earth.

Second, the hidden sacred valley, this place surrounded by the world of escape, has existed for at least five thousand years, or even longer.

Third, the chaotic world. This place was created by a powerful * or fairy tens of millions of years ago. The original function is unknown. Now it is suspected to be the place where the aura is born. All the auras on the earth come from here.

Fourth, return to the main world and come to Antarctica.

Fifth, I entered Taoyuan Village from Antarctica.

After five scene changes, other people may be dizzy. In fact, Li Yun also feels dizzy.

The main reason is that in these five world changes, except for the first time that Li Yun and the girls happily played in the Tianxue Palace and slept with the big quilt at night, there are countless secrets in the rest of the world. If you want to explore one, you have to Kill countless brain cells.

Therefore, Li Yun didn't think about it at all.

"I have been here for more than ten years."

"what?"

Zhao Apo's words surprised Li Yun, "But Xiaomei said before, haven't you been here for decades?"

"No, no."

Grandma Zhao shook her head in denial, "I can't stand it for decades, and there is no one here to speak with my old lady. If someone told me that I would see Sister Linglong in the future, I would have been impatient." ."

She has a very plain tone, and she has already seen life and death a long time ago.

Li Yun probably knows what she thinks, she doesn't belong to this era, nor does she belong to people in this world.

Grandma Zhao belonged to the Ming Dynasty three hundred years ago. Her parents had already passed away, and her husband was buried in the ground and turned to dry bones. Even her son, daughter, grandchildren and grandchildren have been dead for two hundred years.

She has no worries in this world. She has lived enough in this life and has experienced everything. Apart from Fan Linglong, there is nothing to worry about.

Therefore, the resurrection is not a reward for her, but a punishment.

Every day she lives in this world, she just wants to see the exquisite side of Brahma who is still alive again.

"Grandma Zhao is different from Fan Linglong and Princess Yongning."

An enlightenment flashed through Li Yun's mind.

Grandma Zhao is an ordinary person, and her world is the world of ordinary people. Relatives and friends, and all interpersonal and social relations are confined to the category of ordinary people.

A hundred years later, there will be no place for her Aunt Zhao in the world, unless she can break out of the original shackles and make friends with immortality, and she will live for hundreds of years.

In this way, the original social relationship can be transferred to the immortal cultivator, her social attributes as a human being can be satisfied, and she will not feel lonely.

Fan Linglong is different. Although she doesn't like going out, she at least has a few friends in the Hidden Sacred Valley, and some of her younger generations can also bring her "social attributes" satisfaction.

After that, Fan Linglong accepted another apprentice, or in other words, she was pregnant with the Holy Spirit, and once again felt nostalgic for this world.

After all, Fan Qingsheng can live for hundreds of years in the future, and Fan Linglong can pin her emotions on her.

And what about Princess Yongning?

She is different from the previous two. Her social relationship came to an abrupt end. After separating from her parents, she has not married and has no offspring.

Therefore, Princess Yongning will soon be integrated into his family after meeting Li Yun, and she will be extremely attached to him.

Chapter 3458: do not worry about me

Because for Yongning Princess Zhu Shue, Li Yun is the starting point of her social relationship in this world.

Just like after a person is born, the starting point of social relations is the parents. Only the parents extend the relatives and friends, and then the neighbors, followed by classmates and teachers.

After that, it is to start a family and continue the relationship between the next generation.

So when Li Yun found Princess Yongning, Fan Linglong specially prepared an illusion of choosing a son-in-law for the resurrected little princess. Was it just for Princess Yongning to integrate into the new social relationship as soon as possible?

Li Yun thought of Qingnv again. For her, all her friends and family members were all dead. Even the enemy seemed to be dead. It's no wonder that she was not very interested in everything around her, was it because she couldn't integrate into it. reason?

Thinking about it this way, Li Yun felt that his mood had undergone an inexplicable change.

"Now that I see sister Linglong like this, I feel relieved."

Auntie Zhao looked at Li Yun and said with a smile: "Although I don't know how you won Sister Linglong's heart, I can see that you love her very much, and Sister Linglong loves you very much. Between her, there is another..."

She looked at Fan Qing Sheng, who nodded slightly.

Li Yun was a little embarrassed and said, "Don't worry, mother-in-law, I will be nice to Linglong, and she will..."

He was embarrassed to say it himself.

"Hahaha! Young man, what are you doing?" Auntie Zhao quipped, "I don't have that face to be the elder of Linglong's sister. You should treat her well. If you dare to be bad to Linglong's sister, I guess she took it early in the morning. The sword chopped you down!"

"..."

She deserves to be a chivalrous woman who has walked through the rivers and lakes, her words are domineering!

Li Yun thought for a while, "Senior after you...?"

"You won't stay here, will you?" Auntie Zhao asked back, and after getting the affirmative answer, she nodded and said: "That's good, then I will feel more at ease. When you are in this strange world, I will be more at ease. Accompany Linglong sister, chat with her, drink and drink, and when you leave, I choose to go back underground again and accompany my old man... Well, you may think from my previous words that my husband does not understand me.

But in fact, my old man is a good person. I don't know if he is reincarnated now. Did he find other wives...I didn't reincarnate with me because I couldn't worry about sister Linglong, right? Alas, this is good, I can rest assured. "

It is not an illusion, people do nag when they are old.

Especially after seeing her former sister find her own happiness, Zhao Apo's heart fell to the ground, and she said with joy.

Li Yun hesitated to speak but stopped, he found it very incredible.

Looking at each other with Fan Qing Sheng, Qing Sheng seemed to feel the same way.

This grandmother Zhao is so easy to talk.

Not only that, but...

"Don't worry about me!"

Aunt Zhao smiled again: "I can afford it, but I can't let it go, but after letting it go, I really let it go! Without you as a young man, I would still worry about sister Linglong seeing me and seeing me after my death. , I'll be sad again, but with you and the taciturn little girl like Fan Qingsheng accompanied Linglong sister, I'm actually very relieved, Linglong doesn't say anything, but she's actually more sentimental than anyone else."

Is Fan Linglong sentimental?

When Li Yun heard it, he would think this was a joke on Fan Linglong.

But when I think about it carefully, I think it's very appropriate.

Chapter 3459: I'm doing very well

Fan Linglong's appearance is mysterious and quiet, and he is a gesture of rejection from outsiders thousands of miles away.

But once you get close to her heart and fully understand her, you can realize her emotional side.

Apart from other things, just because she clearly remembered the scene of her aunt Chun holding her in tears hundreds of years ago, she knew that Fan Linglong was actually quite concerned about the feelings of the people around her.

Judging from her performance now, after meeting her old friends, drinking and drunk with her, drunk unaware of people, and venting the depressed mood in her heart, in fact, Fan Linglong has been lonely all these years. Fear of losing friends again.

But in the Hidden Sacred Valley, she couldn't find anyone who could communicate freely.

The holy masters of the Hidden Sacred Valley, the holy teachers, are enough as ordinary friends, but if you want Fan Linglong to drink and have fun with them, and talk about the secret words of the boudoir, you can't.

Many people who have friends don't realize that close friends are actually a very luxurious thing.

"I understand!"

Nodding to Apo Zhao, Li Yun couldn't help but leaned down and kissed the drunk-eyed Fan Linglong's beautiful face.

After looking at it, Grandma Zhao showed a relieved smile.

"Li Yun?" Fan Linglong cried out in a daze.

"Huh? What's the matter?"

"kiss Me."

The drunk Fan Linglong seemed to be acting coquettishly when he was messing around with Li Yun at night.

"I'm kissing."

Li Yun kissed again.

"Not enough~" Fan Linglong said happily like a young  the twenty-eighth level: "A kiss again, I will be in front of Xiaoqing's ghost to prove that I am very happy, so that she won't die~"

"what?"

Li Yun was taken aback, and looked at Apo Zhao with Sage Fan Qing.

Is this living old woman a ghost?

Aunt Zhao didn't speak, but just smiled, looked at sister Linglong kindly, and didn't care if she said she was a ghost.

Li Yun couldn't understand more and more, what kind of strange existence this grandmother Zhao and the people of Taohua Village really are!

"Kiss me, kiss me!"

Fan Linglong threw Li Yun down on the low table, pulling his clothes indiscriminately, and said drunkenly, "I want to make Xiaoqing feel at ease. I was sorry for her at the beginning, but now I can finally prove it to her. Actually, I can. Good time!"

Li Yun still felt baffled, but vaguely understood what had happened.

However, he couldn't do it to cooperate with Fan Linglong who is now fooling around.

After all, no matter how you say it, you can't live in broad daylight!

"Brother Li, Brother Li?"

Fortunately, everyone from Xiaomei shouted in exclamation outside the door. Li Yun hugged the chaotic Fan Linglong and said to Aunt Zhao: "Mother-in-law, Qingsheng and I will go out first, and I will come back to find you later."

"Do you need me to look at Sister Linglong?" Auntie Zhao asked.

Li Yun shook his head. He didn't dare to hand over the drunk Fan Linglong to a stranger, and this stranger was still a...I don't know what it was.

Sage Fanqing thinks so too.

She stood up and walked over, picked up the master from Li Yun's arms, supported her, and walked out with Li Yun.

"Mother-in-law, do you want to go out and have a look?" Li Yun looked at Grandma Zhao.

"Me? My old lady won't go."

Grandma Zhao shook her head, "I don't care much about things in the village. I want to clean up the banquet that Linglong's sister has messed up. I will prepare dinner for you in the evening. Do you live here at night? I want to drink Linglong. Sister talk for a while."

"it is good."

Chapter 3460: Complicated feelings

Li Yun agreed, said goodbye with Saint Fan Qing, walked out of Zhao Apo's house, and walked outside.

"Xiaomei, you call me..."

Li Yun's words stopped, because he saw a...impossible, completely impossible person to appear again!

"Xiaoyun!!"

An old man looked at him excitedly, his hands trembling, trying to hug Li Yun, but he didn't seem to dare to come forward.

Sage Fanqing supported the master, glanced at Li Yun who was completely stunned, and then glanced at the old man.

This old man was no different from other old people. His figure was a little rickety, his face was full of wrinkles, his hands were rough, and his hair became sparse. He was at least seventy years old, and he had reached the age of destiny.

"grandfather."

After a long while, Li Yun spit out two words from his mouth.

Yes, it's Grandpa.

Without any prefix, he is Li Yun, Li Feng, and Li Caiwei, Li Caixia's grandfather, Li Mingde!

"Xiaoyun, is it really you?"

The old man in front of Li Yun, after hearing the grandfather he called out, was so excited that he was so excited that he wiped his tears with his hands, his eyes were full of joy, but he was relieved, as if he was someone who saw his grandson grow up. Old man.

"Grandpa...you!"

Li Yun is really in the mood "I'm the master"!

In a few words, there is absolutely no way to explain his feelings at the moment.

Before, he didn't quite understand why Fan Linglong yelled and screamed, drank drunk wine, and drank himself drunk.

But now, in Li Yun, he himself saw his grandfather, he and Cai Wei, who had been dead for many years, stood in front of him again, using a familiar tone, familiar gestures, and even the excitement in his impression. Grandpa is exactly the same.

Li Yun's mood is really like "I'm  a dog!"

real!

Probably only after the old man died, his family was ready for all follow-ups, Dao Gong also called, relatives and friends also invited, the cooking pot was set up, everything was ready, it was necessary to read a scripture, After preparing to put the old man in the coffin, the old man suddenly resurrected and yelled at you for being a shameless offspring.

This kind of bizarre encounter can portray Li Yun's current mood.

"Grandpa, you, haven't you already...?"

Li Yun's whole person is not good.

He is also a frequent visitor to the illusion, has entered all kinds of bizarre illusion mysteries, has explored tombs in depth at night, and explored various chaotic places.

But now seeing the living grandfather standing in front of him, Li Yunming knows that the person in front of him is very likely, and most likely it is a fake, an illusion, an illusion, and a trick of the enemy.

But still cruel, he slashed him with a sword.

It was only then that Li Yun understood how tough the protagonists who entered the fantasy world and saw their relatives in front of them, and then swung their swords.

In other words, ruthless!

Anyway, Li Yun couldn't do it, at least until the "Grandpa" in front of him did not do anything to harm him and intended to lock him in the illusion world, Li Yun would not draw his sword and kill people.

"I'm your grandfather, you kid."

Grandpa Li blamed him and said something, but his eyes didn't show any punishment. On the contrary, he was very happy. He also took the initiative to explain: "I don't know what happened. I died at home due to illness a few years ago, and then I didn't have anything. Remember, when I woke up, I found myself in this strange village."
