

Godly Choice 3461

Chapter 3461: grandfather

Grandpa Li said again: "Fortunately, the people here are very kind, saying that they can go outside in the future, but I just need the opportunity to agree with God, so I stay here, waiting patiently for the opportunity, and want to go out and see you again. And Xiaofeng, and Cai Wei Caixia, how are they doing now?!"

After the explanation, the old man immediately asked about the situation of the three sisters in the family.

It was exactly the same as the grandfather in Li Yun's impression.

He couldn't find any trace of negative evidence that the old man in front of him was not his grandfather. The tone and demeanor of his speech, including some habitual movements, were the same as the grandfather in his impression.

The few years of living in Taohua Village did not change his grandfather's habits.

"Okay, they are all fine!"

Li Yun finally admitted that the person in front of him was his grandfather, and went forward and took the initiative to hug the old man who was much shorter than him.

If a person has the same face as your relatives and cares about you in the same way, then that person is your relative.

At least until he hasn't changed, yes!

"Good, good, everything is fine!"

The old man was very pleased. He patted Li Yun on the shoulder and said with a smile on his face: "Whether I am living here, playing chess and chatting with some old men and old ladies, I just don't worry about you. After knowing that you are all well, I feel relieved ."

Li Yun nodded silently.

His grandfather is not the same as Granny Zhao in the house.

Grandma Zhao is dead and has lived for at least a hundred years, and her relatives, husband and children are all gone, so Grandma Zhao has no regrets about this world and has no idea of continuing to live.

But his grandfather is different.

He still has concerns about the elderly. He wants to watch Li Yun and the three sisters grow up together, marry a wife and have children, and finally thrive.

I am afraid that until Li Yun's grandson grows up, the elderly will completely lose the desire to continue living.

"Grandpa, how are you doing here?"

Li Yun couldn't help asking.

"Of course!" The old man was elated, "Xiaoyun, let me tell you that this village is very magical. The water in the river in the village is very sweet. It tastes better than the mineral water bought for more than ten dollars. The rice here is as big as a thumb. There are also peaches here, all of which are very watery, and don't need money, just pick them, and I'll pick a few for you later. By the way, I don't know if I can go out. If you go out, bring more. Go home and bring some for Xiaofeng and the two girls."

Li Yun responded with a smile.

The old people used to be like this. They rode a tricycle around the county to buy waste products. After seeing mature fruit trees on the roadside, they always thought about picking some and bringing them back to him and Caixia and the others.

This is certainly not a glorious thing, but Li Yun never accused him. The old man did it for their own good, and his grandfather didn't pick a lot every time. In many cases, he picked it with the consent of the owner of the fruit tree.

His grandfather was a bit greedy for petty and cheap, but he was willing to take him and Li Feng out in the orphanage. By picking up trash and collecting waste, he just raised four children.

From this point of view, his grandfather deserves to be a great man.

Li Yun is not stingy to describe his grandfather as great, because for him and Li Feng, this home will always be the best memory of the two of them. Even if there are Qingyu Fangxue and others now, Li Yun just regards the current home as it is. The extension of that home back then became a big family.

Chapter 3462: Granddaughter-in-law

"Well, girls just grow up healthy!"

The old man asked Li Yun about the situation at home. After learning that he and Li Feng were both admitted to Zhonghai University, the whole person was very excited. The old face rose red, rubbing his hands, and patted his thighs saying that he died early, otherwise, When Li Yun and Li Feng are admitted to China Overseas University, they can have a good dinner with relatives, friends and neighbors to make them happy.

Li Yun was stunned.

It wasn't because his grandfather said "I died early", but the reaction of the old man in front of him, as Li Yun imagined, if his grandfather was still alive, he would be so excited, right?

As a result, when the old man saw his appearance, he patted his shoulder angrily: "Xiaoyun, you must have forgotten, right? Oh, don't blame you, you must be out of money for admission to Zhonghai University, right? , I know, I blame Grandpa for passing away early, not well..."

"grandfather!"

Li Yun interrupted him, and said embarrassedly: "I have money now, really, I have enough money. When I was admitted to China Overseas University, the school rewarded me... I just forgot to ask my neighbors to eat. a meal."

When he was admitted to the top prize, the principal brought someone to celebrate, and then went to eat. Li Yun did forget some of his friends before his grandfather.

"That's good, as long as you have money, forget about it!"

The old man quickly figured it out, and said with understanding: "My Xiaoyun and Xiaofeng were admitted to Zhonghai University. It was an individual, not on them. By the way, you and Xiaofeng were both admitted to the university. What about Caiwei and Caixia? Are they alone in the county seat, can they take care of themselves?"

"I asked them to transfer to Zhonghai City, where there is a house to live."

Li Yun did not tell his grandpa that he now has hundreds of billions, let alone that he bought a house in Zhonghai City.

If grandpa is still alive, he would say, but now grandpa...

"The two girls also moved to Zhonghai City?"

The old man was really surprised, but quickly relieved, "It's okay to transfer, Zhonghai City is much larger than the county seat, and if their grades keep up, they don't care which school they go to."

"Don't worry, grandpa, Caiwei and the others have a very good school. The entrance rate is very high. It is not a problem to take a key high school. They will also go to Zhonghai University in the future!"

"That's it, that's good, that's good!"

The old man has become a lot lonely, it should be said that it is this kind of relief that has a lonely expression.

Everything is well at home, which proves that Li Yun has taken up the responsibility of being the head of the family, and he can go with peace of mind.

Li Yun sensed his grandfather's mood and took the initiative to pull over Fan Qingsheng, and said: "Grandpa, this is my girlfriend, um, both!"

"what?!"

The old man was dumbfounded.

Because he had noticed these two beautiful women a long time ago. Although one of them was drunk, he was still naturally beautiful and hard to abandon, and was much more beautiful than the beauties in the county.

But Xiaoyun said, these two are his grandson-in-law? !

"Hello, Grandpa."

Fan Qingsheng's tone was as cold as ever, but the first time she saw a stranger, she called the other person, which was already a very rare performance.

The old man was flattered. Such a beautiful girl must be from a good background. I don't know how I am attracted to my grandson, and there are still... two?

The old man couldn't understand it at all, so he simply nodded his head, "Okay, that's it, it's good to find a daughter-in-law!"

Chapter 3463: Come back from the dead

Then, Li Yun asked his grandpa again about entering this strange Taohua Village. The result was similar to that of Grandpa Zhao, who had been here for three or four years.

It's just strange that the people in Taohua Village do not regard these abnormal people as outsiders, but as people in their own village. It's just that they live in the village very strangely.

Li Yun felt that this Peach Blossom Village was more and more strange, revealing a world that was forcibly changed by others, and made up forcibly!

Everyone here seems to be an illusory existence, controlled by a certain existence behind them, making them forcibly accept some unreasonable settings.

But everyone is extremely real.

They are so real that they know that they are fake, that they are "people" who have resurrected from the dead, and do not shy away from saying that they are dead, but the emotions they show are so real.

For example.

"grandmother!!!"

Smith cried and hugged an old black man who appeared. He thought he had found the grandma who had been resurrected after her death. Li Yun explained to him that Smith would not listen, saying that she must take the grandma out of here, and then use the spirit. If she continues her grandma's lifespan, she will live a hundred years... No, she will live a few hundred years!

Li Yun couldn't explain, he could only let him choose.

"Grandpa, what are your plans for the future?"

Li Yun looked at the old man and asked tentatively.

He must be very moved in his heart, after all, the person in front of him is almost exactly the same as the grandfather who adopted him and Li Feng and raised him.

But even if he resembled him, Li Yun could not completely regard him as a grandfather.

I believe that even if Li Yun brought him back to the real world, Cai Wei and Caixia would not dare to equate the dead grandfather with the "grandfather" in front of him. This completely violates normal people's perception of the world.

Unless, like Song Xi's parents, their parents were resurrected from a dead body, so that the original emotions can be fully entrusted to the resurrected person.

But Li Yun and Caiwei's grandfathers have died of illness, their bodies have been cremated, and their ashes have been buried. It is undoubtedly very difficult for them to believe that their grandfather will come back to life.

"Me? I... have no plans."

The old man also knew his own situation and shook his head and said: "I can know that you are all doing well, that's enough. I don't know what plan to go out. I don't plan to go out. It's good to live in Taohua Village."

Li Yun nodded slightly, but did not persuade Grandpa.

Because he didn't know yet, whether Grandpa's decision to stay in Taohua Village was made by him or by the manipulator behind him.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Kill all the people here, force the existence behind the scenes to show up, reward skills: cold and ruthless, the host has a high probability of encountering unsolvable problems.

Option 2: Bring Grandpa, Grandpa Zhao and others out of Peach Blossom Village, reward experience value +1 billion, all attributes + 100,000, colorful gift bag *3, aura value *1 million.

Option 3: No worries, let the flow go, and reward mental state cultivation to +1. "

Seeing the system prompt, Li Yun was stunned.

Killing everyone is pure nonsense, Li Yun can't do this, and he is not a person who can kill hallucinations without hesitation for the sake of complete Taoism.

From the perspective of option 2, it is indeed quite difficult to take people out of Taohua Village, but it is not impossible.

But this also means one thing: Are the people here real? !

Chapter 3464: A dream

Seeing the comforted and happy old man in front of him, Li Yun was in a mixed mood.

Grandpa gave him an indelible memory.

More than ten years ago, it was the orphanage he personally went to and brought him and Li Feng out of the orphanage.

Although the family is not wealthy, Li Yun made up for the vacancy in the orphanage before and had a relatively happy childhood.

The small two rooms and one living room are enough to be his warm home. Even if the old man dies later, whether it is Li Feng or Cai Wei Caixia, the home can be filled with a warm atmosphere.

So Li Yun can insist on going to the food stalls on the street to work at night to support the continued existence of this family.

Until the accidental acquisition of the system, the home has become better, bigger, and more people, but the warmth has not changed.

"You kid, what are you thinking about?"

The old man patted Li Yun on the shoulder again: "Grandpa is doing well now, are you not happy? Don't worry, grandpa knows that he is dead and he is not suitable to appear in front of Xiaofeng and others. You can tell about this. They don't have to tell them. As long as Grandpa knows that you are having a good life, Jiuquan will be stunned."

Li Yun was speechless, the grandpa in front of him...

"On the contrary, Grandpa has to blame himself." The old man smiled: "I hope my grandpa will be resurrected again, so that Xiaoyun will not feel sad for you. Otherwise, Xiaoyun, you will treat this as a dream, and grandpa will give it to you? "

Everything in front of me is indeed just like a dream.

Li Yun nodded, and the old man laughed loudly. He took Li Yun to the two cups and called his grandson and daughter-in-law.

As a result, everyone ate dinner at Grandma Zhao's place, during which Fan Linglong woke up from wine and knew that the old man was Li Yun's grandfather. He was still very embarrassed. He didn't have time to say anything to Li Yun. He was like a daughter-in-law. Let the old man laugh out loud-he didn't know that Fan Linglong was old enough to be his grandfather's grandfather, cough.

"Xiaoyun, when are you going to get married? Graduated from college? Good, good! It's a pity, Grandpa can't attend your wedding anymore."

"Where's Xiaofeng? What? Xiaofeng found her mother? Oops, this is really...great!"

The old man was surprised when he learned that Li Feng had found his mother and sister, but he nodded with relief, feeling a little regretful that Li Yun had not found his parents, but he was not worried that Li Yun would leave, because Li Yun is undoubtedly a good brother. Will not abandon the sisters.

Li Yun thought for a while, and finally said it.

"boom!"

The cup in the old man's hand fell directly, looking at Li Yun, for a long time in a daze. After a long while, he patted his thigh and wanted to say something.

Then, he patted his thigh again.

Sage Fan Qing glanced at Li Yun, and Fan Linglong also glanced at Li Yun. Aunt Zhao, Smith and others on the table all glanced at Li Yun.

Li Yun: "..."

What are your eyes? What happened to falling in love with your **** sister? I just asked what happened? There is no blood relationship, not a real sibling, but a **** sibling is in love. What happened?

"I should have thought of it long ago!" After taking a few shots of his thighs, the old man suddenly realized his face, and looked at Li Yun with a weird expression: "It's no wonder that sometimes your sister and brother, Xiaofeng and you, take a bath in the same bathroom. Come out, I thought you didn't grow up, but it turned out to be..."

"Cough cough cough cough!"

Li Yun is really embarrassed now! !

Chapter 3465: Can't hide

He was able to hide the ignorant sisters, but he couldn't hide it... In fact, he also hid it from Grandpa.

It was just an accident that Li Yun thought that the two sisters Caiwei didn't come back immediately after school, and the grandfather didn't go home, so they went to the bathroom with Li Feng to wash for nothing.

As a result, Grandpa went home suddenly, and when he heard someone in the bathroom, he shouted, scaring Li Yun and Li Feng inside to death.

Fortunately, Grandpa did not doubt the two of them, but after they went out, he said strangely why you are still taking a bath together, it's not plausible.

Successfully confused the past.

"This..." Li Yun bit his scalp and explained: "My sister and I, no, with... well, she really loves my sister. In fact, it was a long time ago."

"Then you two..." The old man looked at Fan Qingsheng and Fan Linglong, the two saints of the Hidden Sacred Valley, and was embarrassed by the eyes of an ordinary old man.

"Grandpa, please rest assured, I will solve it!" Li Yun said seriously: "My sister also knows about me, she..."

Don't blame Li Yun for omitting it, but this kind of thing, it's really hard to tell in a few words!

"Well, grandpa is getting old and doesn't understand you young people anymore."

The old man shook his head with a wry smile. To be precise, he was already dead.

Li Yun said: "Grandpa, don't worry, I will make my sister, Caiwei and Caixia happy!"

The old man nodded to express his understanding. Suddenly, he thought of something: "Caiwei and Caixia like you too?"

"Huh? Of course they like me."

"I mean, just like Xiaofeng!"

"No, no, they don't mean that!"

".....never mind."

Li Yun denied it, but the old man looked away, and said with joy, "In fact, it's okay. Cai Wei Caixia has lost her parents since she was a child. It is your brother who has been taking care of them. I can also see that they have a deep affection for you. , It's not surprising to grow up to become love.

And, Xiaoyun, you are becoming better now. You can even come in places like Taohua Village. In the future, they will follow you and your four sisters and siblings will still live together. In fact, I can rest assured! "

Li Yun looked embarrassed, what is this all about!

Caiwei and Caixia, how can they have the same mindset as Li Feng? they.....

Seems to be there?

Li Yun remembered some of the performances of the sisters before, and vaguely recalled the look in their eyes full of affection and shyness.

"You."

The old man smiled cheerfully, "But to Xiaoyun, grandpa is at ease. No matter what you do, whether you are to your sisters or sisters, or to people around you, you are as kind and gentle as ever. I want to please their parents. If you are alive, you will also be happy to see the sisters marry you."

Li Yun: "..."

No, if he doesn't agree with this, he will really become a child husband?

Correct!

It's a child husband.

Li Yun remembered the conversation he had with Caiwei and the others. He was adopted by the "Li family" since he was a child, and when he grew up, he married the Li family sisters. Isn't he a child husband?

Fan Linglong, who was drunk again, couldn't help but laughed when he saw him like this. He picked up the wine glass and had a drink with Auntie Zhao, drunk again.

The old man looked at her several times, after all, women who drink alcohol are relatively rare.

At the end of a meal, Li Yun received a system prompt.

"Ding, the host has made a choice, no worries, let the flow go, and reward the mental state to +1."

Li Yun looked at Grandpa subconsciously.

Chapter 3466: disappear

The old man's wrinkled face showed a peaceful and quiet smile, but his figure became illusory.

As if he realized something, he said with satisfaction to Li Yun: "I will be satisfied if I can come back to life again, see Xiaoyun, and know what's going on at home, Xiaoyun, take good care of Xiaofeng and Caixia Caixia in the future, grandpa I know that there are many girls around you, but you can't let them be wronged, do you know?"

"Yes! Grandpa, I will!"

With Li Yun's solemn promise, Sage Fan Qing also nodded his head. Even Fan Linglong, who was drunk, forced himself sober and made a promise.

"Hahaha, this way...I'm relieved."

The figure of the old man finally disappeared in front of Li Yun.

Surprisingly, there was no sadness or too much emotion in his heart. He just felt, ah, it turned out to be that way.

If grandpa really lived to the present, then he must be what the grandpa said just now, right?

The best blessings are left to the living.

Li Yun took a deep breath, then spit it out slowly, picked up the wine glass, took a big sip of wine, the sake poured out from the corner of his mouth and fell on his clothes.

Fan Qingsheng raised her finger and wiped it at the corner of his eye. She seemed to realize something. She put her finger in her mouth again and tasted it: "Li Yun, your tears are light."

"Uh."

Li Yun held her in his arms, Fan Qingsheng obediently wrapped his hands around his waist, was kissed on the face, and asked softly, "Is it better?"

"It's not bad."

Li Yun probably understood why Fan Linglong drank heavily before.

This feeling is really uncomfortable.

Smith on the side fell into an inexplicable daze, his grandma was still there, but in the future, he might disappear like Li Yun's grandfather, right?

In the end, Fan Linglong was drunk and lay down on Li Yun, occupying his arms with the Sage Fan Qing, his face was as peaceful as a child.

Li Yun lowered his head and kissed each of the master and apprentice.

"Li Yun, take them back to rest."

Grandma Zhao pointed to the room next to her and motioned to Li Yun to take the two in.

Li Yun and Fanqing Sheng both looked at her.

"Don't worry, I haven't put it down so quickly." Auntie Zhao smiled: "At least until Sister Linglong wakes up, I still don't want to leave. I will talk about something tomorrow?"

"it is good!"

Li Yun and Fan Qingsheng led Fan Linglong into the room, leaving Auntie Zhao to slowly clean up the mess.

Li Yun didn't understand the world more and more, but he had a wish. The owner of this world was very interesting.

the next day.

When Li Yun woke up, nothing unusual happened last night. When he woke up, the two women also slept next to her.

"Li Yun."

After he woke up, Sage Fan Qing also woke up soon, resting on a bamboo pillow, looking at him with dim eyes.

"Sage Qing, are you awake?" Li Yun said nonsense, and stretched out her hand to touch her cheek. Such a saint is very good-hearted. When Li Yun stroked her cheek, she would squint slightly and let him stroke her. cheek.

"Yeah~" Fan Qingsheng snorted from his nose.

After a while, Li Yun asked, "Qingsheng, did you find anything weird last night?"

"No, How about you?"

"Neither, but I still find it strange."

"Um."

Sage Fanqing stayed in the bed for a while, still got up, and said, "Then let's investigate it?"

Chapter 3467: Explore

Fan Linglong is still sleeping.

Li Yun and Qingsheng didn't care about her, and got up tiptoe. They didn't change their clothes to sleep last night. After all, the world is too strange, and it's hard to deal with something sudden.

Grandma Zhao didn't get up, Smith stayed in his grandma's house.

Li Yun and Fan Qingsheng decided to go out and take a look. There should be nothing wrong with Fan Linglong staying here, at least Grandma Zhao will not return her, and certain strange things, such as those behind the scenes, cannot be attacked suddenly.

At least they are safe before touching possible taboos.

"Shall we walk around the village?"

"it is good."

Fan Qingsheng nodded and agreed, and took the initiative to hold Li Yun's hand.

She has become very much like a girlfriend now, rather than a high saint.

Li Yun smiled and said, "Qingsheng, don't you think it looks dangerous here?"

Otherwise, Sage Fanqing would not take the initiative to hold hands, but watch the surroundings vigilantly.

"Yeah." The lady of the saint nodded slightly and looked quite relaxed. He looked at the scene of the picturesque and beautiful Peach Blossom Village under the morning sun around him, and looked at the fruit trees, peach blossoms and pear blossoms in full bloom on both sides of the road. , Catkins and so on.

Everything seemed so quiet and peaceful.

"Li Yun."

"Um."

"I think."

Sage Fanqing said seriously: "This world gives me the feeling that it is very peaceful. The owner here is a very peaceful person. He is just observing us."

Li Yun thoughtfully.

The sixth sense of Sage Fanqing is very strong, and her physique is quite special. Although not as abnormal as the congenital Taoist birth, the holy body still allows Sage Fanqing to see through all evil and obscure things.

In addition, the Vatican Sage also has strong intuition and keen insight into many unusual things.

For example, when he was on Penglai Island before, it was with her ability that Li Yun was able to lead people into Penglai Island.

"Qingsheng, do you think this world is Eastern or Western?"

Li Yun's problem is actually quite strange.

What do the East and the West mean?

Li Yun actually didn't know, he just thought of the two worlds of the East and the West, about the people in ancient times and the joy of the beautiful world.

The East is the famous Peach Blossom Spring, which describes a beautiful and peaceful world isolated from the world.

The West is Avalon, a fantasy world in mythology.

"God, maybe there is no East and West."

Sage Fanqing knew what Li Yun wanted to say, she thought for a while, "Isn't there the gods we heard about in the east and west at the gate of life and death before?"

Li Yun nodded, "But there are some differences, such as race, yellow race, white race, and black race. Maybe in ancient times, if we humans were really created by gods, I think these three kinds of people In the beginning, perhaps it was created by different gods... Could it be that it evolved naturally in the later period?"

Are the three types of human beings formed after birth or congenital?

Li Yun didn't quite understand it, but modern archeology believes that human beings were all born from Feizhou. After millions of years of slow evolution, the three types of people, yellow, black and white, were formed.

But Li Yun still found it unbelievable. Black people logically say that they have strong genetic abilities, and animals and plants cannot evolve so fast for millions of years.

In short, Li Yun still prefers that in ancient times, three kinds of people already existed, and there may be more races, such as...red, and green!

Chapter 3468: The saint who likes the noise

However, even if human beings were created by several gods, judging from the hints given by the system, gods in ancient times divided powers.

Heaven, monsters, Olympus, Garden of Eden and so on.

In short, the situation is complicated, and Li Yun does not want to be constrained by his thinking.

It's a pity that even though he had already opened his brains, searching around Taohua Village with Saint Fan Qing, he didn't find anything unusual.

The village is quiet and peaceful. From the early morning birds to the morning sun, the villagers began to carry hoes in twos and threes to go out to do farm work, and then to the children playing and playing, the village's private school read loudly, from the Four Books and Five Classics to the time of the Republic of China. Some of the popular science books, etc., have professors.

It surprised Li Yun for a while.

However, this world is very weird. Li Yun and Fan Qingsheng took a closer look at the private school, and after not finding anything abnormal, they gave up.

The only thing that makes Li Yun a little concerned is that the villagers here are very casual. At first, Li Yun thought it was the man behind the scenes-or the **** behind the scenes, who was perfunctory, just to make this isolated village behave normally. Look like.

Later, Li Yun learned that it turned out that Taohua Village is like spring all year round, and there are not many comparisons. Therefore, the villagers here don't need to work hard every day. They only need to grow a small amount of food and vegetables, which is enough to sustain their lives.

"Qingsheng, do you like this kind of life?"

When the sun was right, standing by the ridge, looking at the working villagers, Li Yun asked Fan Qing Sheng who was holding his hands.

"Do not."

"what?"

Li Yun was very strange. Originally thought that the Holy Spirit would like such a leisurely and isolated pastoral life, she did not expect her to deny it so quickly.

"Does it like to be with me?" Li Yun suddenly thought of a reason for her.

As a result, Sage Fanqing glanced at him again, and said leisurely: "Part of it is."

"Uh."

Part of it is, that's not it.

"Actually, I prefer to live in the city." Fan Qingsheng said seriously. Before Li Yun asked, she took the initiative to explain: "The city is very lively, noisy, prosperous, and dusty. I like living in the city very much."

Li Yun held her hand tightly.

The most spotless sage around him, like a fairy, is the one who likes living in the city the most.

Perhaps, for the cool character of the Vatican, the hustle and bustle of the city is not only not annoying, but will give her a pleasant enjoyment.

Li Yun actually feels this way occasionally, because he has become accustomed to living in the city. When he occasionally lives in a quiet rural area, he may enjoy it in the first few days, but after that, he will feel very deserted.

Although he doesn't call friends to play in the city, the noisy atmosphere in the city alone can give people a strong sense of security.

People who are accustomed to first-tier cities, even if they leave first-tier cities, only return to provincial capitals or small county towns. They rarely return to the countryside. Even if they build small villas in the countryside, they still can't compare to living in the cities.

"it is good!"

Li Yun nodded at her and smiled: "After this is over, we will go back to Zhonghai City and spend the New Year in Mansion No. 3. Before listening to Lianyi, there will be grand fireworks on both sides of the Huangjiang River. Go and see?"

"Yeah." Sage Fanqing nodded slightly and added: "I look forward to it."

Chapter 3469: It's him

Li Yun laughed, and it seemed that Lord Saintess was indeed looking forward to the New Year.

Yes, this is the first time she celebrated the New Year in the city.

In a peach blossom place isolated from the world, discussing where to go during the New Year, and looking at leisure, Li Yun felt that if he was the person who controlled this place behind the scenes, he would definitely be **** off!

But the controller behind the scenes is a freak, not only did not inflict any harm on Li Yun and others, but deliberately created corresponding...phantoms to solve them.

Li Yun even thought, let the Auntie Chun of Fan Linglong appear, and then Fan Linglong directly asked about what happened to the cliff at the beginning, and asked why she made the prophecy of the demise of the Hidden Sacred Valley!

Of course, considering that Fan Linglong might be even sadder seeing Aunt Chun, so let's go.

Li Yun, who couldn't find anything, could only return to Aunt Zhao's residence.

Fortunately, Grandpa Zhao still did not disappear, and she sat in the courtyard with the sober Fan Linglong and had a very happy conversation.

"Xiaoqing, this guy is that shameless stinky man, what do you think of him?"

Fan Linglong pointed at Li Yun and asked Aunt Zhao teasingly. The picture was indescribable.

Because Fan Linglong looked at a beautiful woman in her twenties, with her black hair turned into a cloud on her temples, with a wooden hairpin inserted, she was indescribably beautiful, especially her eyes in love. Hi, as if acting like a baby with Li Yun, it was even more throbbing.

And what about Grandma Zhao?

Old-fashioned, wrinkled, sitting in a chair with a cane.

It can be said that they are not like grandma and granddaughter together, but great granddaughter!

But Fan Linglong talked to Aunt Zhao in words to her younger sister, so the picture couldn't be said to be strange.

"Well, sister Linglong, I think Li Yun is a very good man!"

Grandma Zhao praised: "You drank last night, and he was busy taking care of you. Your apprentice's personality is a bit weird, but Li Yun has taken good care of him, and he hasn't fallen behind at all, so I said he's very suitable. Be your sister Linglong and your apprentice's husband!"

Sage Fanqing glanced at Li Yun, his eyes flashing softly.

In fact, she also knew that Li Yun had always taken care of her, and everything was properly arranged so that she could enjoy the bustling and bustling city without having to face those complicated interpersonal relationships.

This is the most beautiful future imaginable by the Fanqing Sanctuary.

"Hey! Just him?"

Fan Linglong was disdainful, but he still agreed with Xiaoqing's statement in his heart.

Although the process of getting acquainted with Li Yun and the first intimate relationship-the night when she was hugged and kissed by this guy for four hours, the process was a bit strange.

But once Fan Linglong accepts Li Yun as a villain in her heart, she likes him more and more, thinking about him more and more. If Li Yun does not come back this time, she will at most wait for the end of the New Year, she will go to Zhonghai The city is looking for her apprentice.

Look for Li Yun by the way.

"Ashamed." Li Yun humbled himself. "It's not good enough. After all, one person has two big beauties, and the pressure is still a bit heavy!"

Fan Linglong blushed and muttered: "You are not two, but many!"

Sage Fanqing glanced at Li Yun again.

"Hehe." Li Yun won't be obedient when he gets a bargain.

Aunt Zhao saw the relationship between the three, nodded clearly, and suddenly sighed again.

Chapter 3469: It's him

Li Yun laughed, and it seemed that Lord Saintess was indeed looking forward to the New Year.

Yes, this is the first time she celebrated the New Year in the city.

In a peach blossom place isolated from the world, discussing where to go during the New Year, and looking at leisure, Li Yun felt that if he was the person who controlled this place behind the scenes, he would definitely be ***** off!

But the controller behind the scenes is a freak, not only did not inflict any harm on Li Yun and others, but deliberately created corresponding...phantoms to solve them.

Li Yun even thought, let the Auntie Chun of Fan Linglong appear, and then Fan Linglong directly asked about what happened to the cliff at the beginning, and asked why she made the prophecy of the demise of the Hidden Sacred Valley!

Of course, considering that Fan Linglong might be even sadder seeing Aunt Chun, so let's go.

Li Yun, who couldn't find anything, could only return to Aunt Zhao's residence.

Fortunately, Grandpa Zhao still did not disappear, and she sat in the courtyard with the sober Fan Linglong and had a very happy conversation.

"Xiaoqing, this guy is that shameless stinky man, what do you think of him?"

Fan Linglong pointed at Li Yun and asked Aunt Zhao teasingly. The picture was indescribable.

Because Fan Linglong looked at a beautiful woman in her twenties, with her black hair turned into a cloud on her temples, with a wooden hairpin inserted, she was indescribably beautiful, especially her eyes in love. Hi, as if acting like a baby with Li Yun, it was even more throbbing.

And what about Grandma Zhao?

Old-fashioned, wrinkled, sitting in a chair with a cane.

It can be said that they are not like grandma and granddaughter together, but great granddaughter!

But Fan Linglong talked to Aunt Zhao in words to her younger sister, so the picture couldn't be said to be strange.

"Well, sister Linglong, I think Li Yun is a very good man!"

Grandma Zhao praised: "You drank last night, and he was busy taking care of you. Your apprentice's personality is a bit weird, but Li Yun has taken good care of him, and he hasn't fallen behind at all, so I said he's very suitable. Be your sister Linglong and your apprentice's husband!"

Sage Fanqing glanced at Li Yun, his eyes flashing softly.

In fact, she also knew that Li Yun had always taken care of her, and everything was properly arranged so that she could enjoy the bustling and bustling city without having to face those complicated interpersonal relationships.

This is the most beautiful future imaginable by the Fanqing Sanctuary.

"Hey! Just him?"

Fan Linglong was disdainful, but he still agreed with Xiaoqing's statement in his heart.

Although the process of getting acquainted with Li Yun and the first intimate relationship-the night when she was hugged and kissed by this guy for four hours, the process was a bit strange.

But once Fan Linglong accepts Li Yun as a villain in her heart, she likes him more and more, thinking about him more and more. If Li Yun does not come back this time, she will at most wait for the end of the New Year, she will go to Zhonghai The city is looking for her apprentice.

Look for Li Yun by the way.

"Ashamed." Li Yun humbled himself. "It's not good enough. After all, one person has two big beauties, and the pressure is still a bit heavy!"

Fan Linglong blushed and muttered: "You are not two, but many!"

Sage Fanqing glanced at Li Yun again.

"Hehe." Li Yun won't be obedient when he gets a bargain.

Aunt Zhao saw the relationship between the three, nodded clearly, and suddenly sighed again.

Chapter 3470: Best friend's wish

"Mother Zhao." Li Yun looked at her, "Do you have any unfulfilled wishes?"

Vaguely, judging from the disappearance of his grandfather's illusion last night, it seems that the people they met who were resurrected from the dead appeared in Taohua Village because they had a certain purpose or unfulfilled wish.

Fan Linglong was taken aback for a moment, and then fell silent.

She wants to drink again.

Aunt Zhao gave a kind smile: "What can I wish for someone who should have died a long time ago? My family has passed away, and the world has nothing to worry about for me...except."

She looked at Fan Linglong, who sullenly picked up the teacup and gulped up the tea.

It's like drinking.

Li Yun couldn't help but laugh. It seems that Fan Linglong's mentality is indeed not old. Compared with Zhao Apo, the latter is indeed an old man.

This made Li Yun couldn't help wondering, after all, when a person's body gets old, his mind also gets old, such as illness and suffering in his old age.

Or is it that the life span of a mortal is limited, and there is something in the soul that must be "dead" when she is old, making Grandma Zhao look like she is aging?

"I'm sure, the one who can't rest assured most is you, Sister Linglong."

Grandma Zhao said slowly, looking at Fan Linglong, her eyes showed nostalgia, "At the beginning, I met my husband in Beijing, but you didn't understand Sister Linglong. Even when I was married, you also used a Looked at me with strange eyes.

At that time, I was thinking, as Linglong's sister of a fairy, what will you be like when you get married in the future? "

Fan Linglong also missed the beginning.

At that time, she was about a hundred years old, but her mentality was very young. She had been practicing in the Hidden Sacred Valley and leading a simple life.

Later, under the advice of her elders, she hid her strength and went to experience the martial arts in the martial arts.

The two had a wonderful time. They were best friends and closest friends, and they almost talked about everything. Except for Fan Linglong's commitment to her elders, she didn't tell Zhao Xiaoqing that she came from a secluded school of immortality.

It is a pity that after just three or four years—at least for Fan Linglong, three or four years have passed in the blink of an eye. At the urging of his parents and his own choice, Zhao Xiaoqing got married in the capital and settled down since then.

Fan Linglong did not leave and chose to live with her in the capital.

It's not because she has any special feelings for her close friends, but because she wants to observe and feel a life that belongs to a mortal.

It was a long, long time.

Ever since Xiaoqing got married and wore a phoenix crown on the day of her wedding, until the birth of her son, Fan Linglong was happy for a long time, smiling from ear to ear, and teasing the little kid.

Year after year, that little kid grew up, his sister also grew up, and finally they both got married.

Then again, the little kids who chased her and called Aunt Linglong, looked at her with strange eyes, and wondered what kind of monster she was.

At that time, Fan Linglong was very sad, but she was also prepared. In the last ten years of Xiaoqing's life, she hardly went out, and rarely saw outsiders, just to send her best friend for the last time.

On the day that Zhao Xiaoqing was buried, Fan Linglong broke through the soul and light realm and returned to the hidden holy valley.

As a result, three hundred years later, she saw her old friend again in a strange little world.
