

Godly Choice 3471

Chapter 3471: marry

Why she?

When I saw Zhao Xiaoqing, Fan Linglong was thinking about it and regretting it. If Zhao Xiaoqing was young, maybe she would still take Zhao Xiaoqing to drink freely, recalling the time when the freshly clothed angry horse walked the rivers and lakes-despite the freshly clothed angry horse Most of them describe teenagers, but they indeed used to pretend to be Young Master Pian Pian, leaning on the leaning bridge together, laughing together and watching the red sleeves waving at them all over the building.

Unfortunately, Xiaoqing still appeared in front of her as an elderly person, evoking something she didn't want to face: death.

The cultivator means abandoning the world; the immortal, living in the mountains.

Since it is entering the mountain, it means isolation from the world.

"Sister Linglong, can you satisfy my wish?" Zhao Xiaoqing looked at Fan Linglong, her muddy eyes showing expectation.

At the beginning, she was so admired and looked forward to looking at Sister Linglong. When the two walked together, it seemed that there was nothing in the world that Sister Linglong couldn't do.

Whether it is punishing evil and promoting good, or picking up the famous master of the late Innate Realm with a sword, or facing the people from the court, sitting with her on the river bank cruise ship, drinking coolly.

At that time, they really did all the things that gangsters dared not do.

It is a pity that after a few decades, Sister Linglong is still Sister Linglong, she is still Nine Heavens Fairy, and Zhao Xiaoqing is just a vulgar old woman. Only from the still beautiful and young face of Sister Linglong can we see the appearance of Zhao Xiaoqing. .

Now, she wants to see one of the most irresistible things happening in front of her.

Because she knew that Sister Linglong was not a fairy, she actually needed someone to accompany her.

"How can I satisfy you?!"

Fan Linglong was very irritable, and gritted her teeth and glared at her: "Isn't it because I don't satisfy your wish, you won't die?!"

"No." Zhao Xiaoqing said flatly: "Because I believe that Sister Linglong will fulfill my wish."

"What is your wish?"

Li Yun looked at them, "Is it related to me?"

"Nothing!" Fan Linglong blurted out.

"Yes." Zhao Xiaoqing said with a smile: "I want to see with my own eyes that sister Linglong also wears the appearance of Fengguanxiamen."

"Do not!"

"it is good!"

"I said, don't!"

Fan Linglong's voice was louder than ever before, and her hand on the table was also tightly gripped.

The atmosphere in the house became very quiet.

"exquisite."

Li Yun whispered: "If you say, I want to marry you?"

Fan Linglong's lips moved, and her white teeth bit her lower lip, looking at him, then at his apprentice, and finally, he met Zhao Xiaoqing's gaze.

Finally, slowly nodded.

Suona sounded, and the happy copybook was posted.

Aunt Zhao's home became very lively. Fan Linglong fixedly sat in front of the vanity mirror and asked Zhao Xiaoqing, who was already more than seventy years old, to carefully stroke her eyebrows, apply red rouge, and put on exquisite and verdant ones. Fengguan, a thin layer of powder was also smeared on her cheeks, and then a blush appeared.

Suddenly, a beautiful bride appeared in front of Saint Fanqing and Zhao Xiaoqing.

"gorgeous!"

Aunt Zhao exclaimed, her eyes filled with relief: "Sister, I was thinking a long, long time ago, what would it look like if my sister put on a bridal gown? Now I finally saw it."

Fan Linglong greeted her mouth, but her face showed a shy blush: "Isn't it you and that little villain who persecuted me?"

"hehe."

Chapter 3472: wedding

Zhao Xiaoqing smiled and said, "Li Yun is a good person, he...does not want to see your sister sad."

Fan Linglong had insisted not to marry Li Yun before, not because he didn't want to marry, but because he didn't want to satisfy Zhao Xiaoqing's wishes, which made this close friend disappear again.

However, Zhao Xiaoqing knew that she was just a remnant soul, resurrected from the dead, an unsound remnant soul, and it was meaningless to stay in this world without her husband and family members also dead.

She came alive, her only wish was to see her sister Linglong get married.

Although this is a bit cruel to Linglong sister, since Zhao Xiaoqing has appeared in the form of a remnant soul, let's satisfy her little wish as an old man.

No, not the old man, but her little wish of Zhao Xiaoqing.

"Humph!"

Fan Linglong no longer insisted, because she clearly saw the unprecedented beauty of herself in the mirror, and the blush of happiness on her cheeks, which made her feel incredible.

It turns out that the woman at the time of marriage is really the most beautiful.

"All right, sister." Zhao Xiaoqing finished dressing up for her, and said with a smile: "You should spoil your little sister again, okay? Back then, my sister loved me so much and fulfilled my wish. Now Just again, just once, okay?"

Zhao Xiaoqing's tone had the charm of a young girl coquettishly, evoking Fan Linglong's previous response.

"Xiaoqing, you!"

Fan Linglong turned to look and found that Zhao Xiaoqing had turned back to the appearance of seventeen or eighteen. He looked at her with a smile, his eyes bright.

"Ah, am I younger?"

Zhao Xiaoqing's tone changed a bit, full of joy instead of grandmother-like kindness. This is a very mysterious state, but Zhao Xiaoqing knows that this is because there is a manipulator behind the scenes, allowing her to experience the girl again. She of the times.

"very nice!"

Zhao Xiaoqing was pleasantly surprised, a rebirth feeling that spontaneously made her feel vitality radiating from every part of her body.

The only regret is that this kind of girl time can only last for a short time.

"If, if, when I was young, my sister got married before me, that would be great!"

Zhao Xiaoqing's words caused Fan Linglong to roll her eyes and hit her on the head when she reached out.

Zhao Xiaoqing is quite familiar with this action. After sticking out his tongue, he smiled and said: "However, people can't be insatiable. It is already quite satisfying for Xiaoqing to attend her sister's wedding in this appearance. Not to mention, the auspicious time is here, sister Qingsheng, come on, let's be the bridesmaids!"

From Apo Zhao to Zhao Xiaoqing, the change is so great.

Sage Fanqing, who was sitting aside, witnessed this change with his own eyes, which gave her a rather strange feeling.

As if the years have turned back and forth, the cycle of time has given her new insights all at once. Unfortunately, now is not the time to carefully cultivate and realize, she still has to be the maid of honor for the master.

"it is good."

Saint Fan Qing stood up, came to Fan Linglong, and stood with her.

When the three beautiful girls appeared in the hall, everyone's eyes were attracted by them.

There is no doubt that Fan Linglong, wearing a red hijab, is the focus of the three of them. Even if they cover their faces, the beautiful charm they possess at this moment can't even be compared to the Sanctuary of Fan Qing.

Li Yun's mood was rippling, and he greeted him, and took the initiative to hold Fan Linglong's small hand, feeling her hand shrink a little, as if a little shy.

"Don't be afraid."

Li Yun guided her forward.

Chapter 3473: Baitiandi

"Wow!"

"Second worship Gaotang...well, Gaotang has passed away, so worship the heaven and the earth again!"

"Husband and wife worship!"

With the sound of firecrackers, Li Yun completed the marriage ceremony with Fan Linglong wearing a red hijab. Although the ceremony was not complete, it lacked the traditional name, Najib, gift-giving, and the process of asking for an appointment, but the most important thing is to worship the heaven and earth. , But it's done.

This also means that from now on, Fan Linglong is at least Li Yun's fiancée. In fact, if both parties recognize and accept in their hearts, Fan Linglong is already his wife.

Just like Nie Xiaoqian, in the original space-time fantasy, Li Yun also completed a wedding with her.

"Send to the cave mansion!"

Under the gaze of everyone in Taohua Village, Fan Linglong was supported and returned to the cave. Li Yun, dressed in the official costume of the bridegroom, stayed behind and accompanied them for a round of wine, and was soon pushed into the bridal chamber.

"and many more!"

Fan Linglong inside screamed, reaching out to lift off the red hijab, but she was afraid of being unlucky and held back.

"What's wrong? My lady."

Li Yun smiled happily, went forward to hug her, and kissed Fan Linglong, who was still wearing a red hijab.

"Wait! Don't, don't."

Fan Linglong, who knew what would happen on the night of the bridal chamber, hurriedly pushed with her little hands, her cheeks already hot.

It turned out that this is the feeling of entering the cave.

Compared to the last four hours of being intimacy with him, and the fooling around for more than half of the night, it made her feel more flustered.

But there is another kind of joy from the heart that makes Fan Linglong unable to resist, even if she is in the Soul Bright Realm, it will not help to spend the candle night in the bridal chamber.

"What else?"

"asshole!"

After the red hijab was pulled down by Li Yun, Fan Linglong opened his mouth and bit Li Yun's hand, and said in embarrassment, "Get me out and see Xiaoqing!"

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry, so he said that this wedding ceremony was not complete, just like the last time he and Nie Xiaoqian were in the fantasy world, they were forced and helpless to get married.

Although both parties are willing, it is not the taste.

But Fan Linglong insisted on going out to take a look, but Li Yun had no choice but to take her and walk outside.

Perhaps, in the heart of Fan Linglong, this wedding is not a formal wedding between her and Li Yun, at most it is an engagement, and she will have to make it up again in the future, so she insisted on coming out.

".....elder sister!"

Zhao Xiaoqing also couldn't laugh or cry, holding a wine glass, with a look of hate that iron cannot be made of steel: "How can a bride come out while drinking a cup of wine? Hey, sister, what is your expression, haven't you drank the cup of wine?"

Fan Linglong forcibly smiled, "Isn't it just handing over a glass of wine? Just drink it, little villain, come!"

"What do you call me?" Li Yun glared at her.

Fan Linglong's face blushed, and he squeezed for a long time before whispering: "Husband~"

Li Yun's bones were all soft and soft.

It is a feeling that a master of the Soul and Bright Realm, or a beautiful and incomparable beauty, can call him a husband in person. This kind of feeling is really unstoppable.

"Lady!" Li Yun hugged her waist and kissed her delicate red lips.

Fan Linglong pursed his lips, extremely shy.

Even more embarrassing is that her apprentice is still watching!

"Hand in a cup of wine, hand in a cup of wine!" Zhao Xiaoqing, who looked like a girl, roared.

Fan Linglong lingered, and finally held up a glass of wine with Li Yun, entwined her arms, and glanced at each other with shy eyes, before she drank the cup of wine representing marriage.

"Finally, enter the bridal chamber~~~!"

"This, this, Xiaoqing, forget it? I just do it!"

"What do you look like? Come on, come with your husband, enter the ~ cave~ room~!"

Chapter 3474: Unreasonable worry

The detailed process of the wedding night in the bridal chamber naturally does not need to be described, nor can it be described. In fact, Li Yun had a similar night with Fan Linglong before. The difference is that the last time is up, and now it is one night.

When Li Yun woke up the next day, Fan Linglong, with the traces of the kiss on her neck, was still sleeping sweetly. Her delicate face was like a red flower soaked in morning dew, exuding a different kind of beauty, and she could not see her at all. Has lived for hundreds of years.

"exquisite?"

Li Yun screamed softly, stretched out her hand to remove the hair from her cheeks, and carefully watched her sleepy and lazy appearance, covered her with a quilt and covered her white shoulders. His eyes were full of love and affection. Last night She was really exhausted.

If Li Yun had only regarded her as a beautiful and powerful elder before, then after Zhao Xiaoqing appeared, all the sense of age in Fan Linglong suddenly came to her face, letting Li Yun know that she is not only a person who can only nest in In the small building, sit and watch the ups and downs of the times and the worldly masters.

Fan Linglong was also a chic and heroic beautiful girl who walked the rivers and lakes with righteousness and enmity. She was hidden in the capital and spent her life with her best friends.

Five hundred years, Fan Linglong has already spent half of her life. What Li Yun has to do is to accompany her through the rest of her life. No, he and her will live for one thousand or two thousand years in the future, until they are impatient.

"To live impatiently?"

Looking at Fan's exquisite sleeping face, Li Yun thought of a question inexplicably: a hundred years later, or five hundred years, a thousand years later, will he and his confidantes around him live like Zhao Xiaoqing? patient?

"It's probably because I'm worried about it."

Li Yun couldn't help but smile. Humans before him could only live for seven to eighty years, and they would age physically, move inconveniently, and slow in thinking.

But if you are in good health, people will still indulge in new things in their nineties. For example, there is news. An old lady from abroad still plays online games in her nineties.

Including some scientists, there are many people who are still working in their 70s or 80s.

This is enough to show that it is not that humans only want to live for a hundred years, but that the human body traps the soul.

In the future Aura era, the life span of human beings can generally be several hundred years. Just imagine that your relatives and friends are still alive, don't you want to live anymore?

Ordinary people have to retire after decades of hard work. They want to travel and travel everywhere, but they are too tired to move.

Therefore, if human beings can live for hundreds of years, not only will their lifespan change, but their mentality will also change.

It may even promote the development of cultivating immortality because ordinary people can live for hundreds of years. Practitioners, as well as those with supernatural powers, will also maintain the original social relationship and become eager to live, instead of the former Vatican. Similarly, after the death of a close friend, I feel boring in life and retreat.

"Looking back now, when I was on Penglai Island, I chose to start the Aura Era, which was really right!"

Li Yun was somewhat fortunate in his original choice.

The reason is simple. If he and the confidante around him can live for hundreds of years, thousands of years, but their family members and friends will die within a few decades. Although ordinary people will go through this process in their lives, but If even his sons and grandsons die in front of him one by one, I am afraid that this kind of impact will be a huge torture to anyone.

And now in the age of spiritual energy, for at least a thousand years, Li Yun will accompany the confidantes around him and slowly grow old together.

Chapter 3475: disappear

As for the thousand years later, God knows!

"Linglong, I'm such a genius!"

After figuring it out, Li Yun kissed her fiercely. As a result, Fan Linglong woke up. After seeing Li Yun, he remembered what happened last night and blushed.

"Lady, can you still get up?"

"Huh~"

After chatting with her for a long while, Li Yun finally picked her up from the bed, and the two of them dressed and washed together.

After all, Fan Linglong is a realm of soul and light. Although the rain and wind of last night made her feel uncomfortable, at least she could walk smoothly.

Outside the door, only Sage Fanqing sat in the courtyard with a book in his hand. After hearing the sound of the door opening, Sage Fanqing looked over.

Li Yun suddenly had a bad feeling in his heart.

So is Fan Linglong.

The atmosphere became a little sad, as if a loved one had been sent away.

"Ugh!"

After a long while, Fan Linglong sighed slightly, and walked into Zhao Xiaoqing's room. As expected, no one could be found.

However, there was a letter left on the table.

It's a parting letter.

"Xiaoqing, you...really!"

Fan Linglong picked up the letter and looked at it casually, with a helpless and relieved expression on his face, which was very complicated.

Li Yun took it and looked at it with Qing Sage, and found that nothing was recorded in it, that is to say, she had a hunch that she was leaving last night, and she was satisfied with her wish.

If it is the elderly Zhao Apo, she may not leave any letter, but it was Zhao Xiaoqing last night. She was sentimental in the girlhood, so she left a letter specially as a farewell.

I also said in my heart that if there is only Sister Linglong, she would not leave any letters, but now Sister Linglong is married and has a husband by her side, and as a married "Zhao Xiaoqing", she knows how a married woman treats her. Her husband, that's why she left the letter.

Because Li Yun can comfort sister Linglong, she doesn't have to be sad alone.

Talking about, at the end of the letter, finally left some useful information.

"Ancestral Temple?"

Zhao Xiaoqing specifically mentioned that the ancestral temple in Taohua Village is where the villagers believe. Vaguely, she also feels that her resurrection is related to the ancestral temple, so if she asks Linglong sister to take a look, there may be some gains.

Li Yun had a weird face, and glanced at the two women, but none of them spoke.

In fact, the existence of this letter is strange in itself.

In theory, whether Zhao Xiaoqing and Li Yun's grandfathers are real or not, the resurrection of the two is related to a certain behind-the-scenes messenger, and what they do is under the control of each other. This is what Zhao Xiaoqing and Li Yun did yesterday. After suddenly becoming younger, it also proved this point.

But now, Zhao Xiaoqing left a letter saying that there was a problem with the ancestral temple in the village.

Is this the meaning of Zhao Xiaoqing after the resurrection, or is it a message specially conveyed to Li Yun by a manipulator in the ancestral temple?

"Don't think about it, just go and see!"

Fan Linglong has regained her vigorous and vigorous character, and compared to before, she has become more confident and confident after meeting her best friend again, but after meeting her wish.

Sage Fanqing looked over, and Li Yun pondered for a moment, and said, "It's affirmative to go and see, but before that, we need to understand two things."

"What's up?"

"follow me!"

When Li Yun walked out of Aunt Zhao's house, in fact, after the death of his relatives, the last thing to do is not to go to the place where he used to stay before his life, otherwise it would be easy to see things and love.

However, Fan Linglong is a Soul and Bright Realm after all. After seeing the parting of life and death, he quickly recovered and put the envelope away solemnly.

As for other things, just follow the wind.

Chapter 3476: Also disappeared

Li Yun took the two girls to the place where Smith was, where his grandmother lived in Taoyuan Village.

However, seeing the mulatto Smith sitting on the stone slab in front of the house blankly, he was completely ecstatic.

"Your grandma, gone?"

"Um."

"are you OK?"

"Um....."

Li Yun patted him on the shoulder.

After a long while, Smith sighed: "Your Excellency Li Yun, you are right. People have been dead for a few years and cannot be resurrected, even in the Aura Age."

Li Yun looked at him.

"She is my grandmother, but not my grandmother." Smith shook a fist and said with emotion: "Her appearance seems to be the soul I have been longing for in my mind. It appeared in front of me and after fulfilling my wish, The peaceful disappearance made me put everything down and regroup. I am now, everything is fine!"

He waved his fist to show that he had a special belief and power, after meeting his grandmother.

Li Yun nodded, "Satisfying inner desires, this is actually...wait!"

He suddenly thought of a possibility, "Could it be that everyone who enters Taohua Village has their inner wishes and desires satisfied?!"

Fan Linglong gave him a white look and pointed to his apprentice.

Undoubtedly, among the four people who came in, the cold and holy Saintess did not reflect the "person" in her heart, and no one came to satisfy her so-called wish.

She was so cold, as if seeing Li Yun's grandfather and Master's close friends had no effect on her, and she had always looked deserted.

"me."

Sage Fanqing thought for a while, then looked at Li Yun: "It's enough for me to have you."

"what!"

Not to mention Li Yun was shocked and moved, even Smith who was still immersed in the departure of his grandma, seemed to see something in the eyes of him and Fan Linglong.

"Me too." Li Yun smiled, holding the hands of the two women, "I have you enough!"

"Stop it."

Fan Linglong wasn't as cheating as his apprentice, so she threw away Li Yun's hand angrily and asked, "What is the other thing? Hurry up, I can't wait to visit the ancestral hall!"

"you're so dumb."

Li Yun smiled and said: "Yesterday, Qing Sheng and I visited the village, but we didn't find anything unusual. If we go directly to the ancestral hall, we probably won't be able to find anything. Let's ask the village chief."

"Ask the village chief? Is it useful?"

Fan Linglong murmured, but now she has no choice but to follow Li Yun.

In other words, since getting to know Li Yun, she felt that her strength in the Soul and Light Realm was not enough at all, and her performance was similar to that of the Void Returning Realm, especially in this weird world handed down from the ancient times, the Soul Light Realm and the Void Returning Realm. The environment is the same.

With the three of them, Li Yun found the village chief who was taking the shade under the willow tree.

"The ancestral hall?"

The head of Taohua Village gave Li Yun a weird look, "Is there no ancestral hall in the outside world? The ancestral hall is dedicated to the remains of our ancestors and ancestors in Taohua Village. Why don't you go to worship during the Qingming Festival? What's wrong? Is there no Ching Ming Festival?"

"Yes...but recently it has been advocated not to light firecrackers during the New Year, nor to sacrifice to ancestors in Qingming."

"Too shameful!"

The village head was very angry and took the initiative to explain the history of Taohua Village to Li Yun. From the first to the tenth generation, Li Yun couldn't stand it anymore, so he hurried away with people.

"The people in this place live so long."

Smith sighed with emotion.

Chapter 3477: Everyone is weird

Indeed, people in Taohua Village are still young and middle-aged when they are 100 years old, and they are middle-aged and old when they are two hundred years old. It is normal to live four to five hundred years old.

Everything here seemed so relaxed and comfortable, except for the two days because of Li Yun and others, three people were "refreshed" and "resurrected" in Taohua Village, which caused some riots, but the village quickly restored a peaceful atmosphere. .

For people here, people who come out because of the arrival of outsiders are like ancestors and ancestors, remembering, but not deliberately remembering.

"Where is the most abnormal?"

When I came to the unremarkable ancestral hall in the village, I turned left and right, looking up and down, but I couldn't see any problems. Li Yun felt a little scratching his head.

The rewards given by the system are really rich. You only need to find the most abnormal existence in the village to get a gift bag of supreme treasures. You don't even need to solve it, just find it!

But Li Yun just has no clue.

He was almost certain that the abnormal place was inside the village, not the farmland, fruit trees, and a small piece of woods outside the village, because there was no meaning at all, and the most abnormal place could not be there.

"Your Excellency Li Yun, are we going to find a way out by the way?" Smith also didn't want to stay in this ghost place, although it was very beautiful, but it was everywhere that was incompatible with them.

Standing in front of the village ancestral hall, looking at the big characters on the plaque on the Taohua Village ancestral hall, Li Yun sighed: "Why, do you want to go out? Didn't you want to make some benefits in the ancient ruins before? Now you come in and want to go out, This won't work!"

Fan Linglong and Fan Qingsheng have already given up. They are sitting under a big peach tree and whispering. Of course, most of the time it is Fan Linglong talking. It seems to be teaching Qingsheng what happened last night?

"Uh."

Smith scratched his head, "Your Excellency Li Yun...you know? I thought the ancient ruins I entered would be a very magnificent and vast place, and I would come into contact with extremely dangerous traps, just like those tomb robberies!"

"Tomb Raiders movie? Raiders of the Raiders? Unknown Sea? Tomb Raider?" Li Yun smiled.

"almost!"

Smith stretched his hands, "I only found out after I came in that there are adventures, but only in the first half of the ice-cold mist, it was a bee-like life form. It was weird, but there was no way!"

Li Yun smiled, and an inexplicable word flashed in his mind: bee-like life form?

"There's more!"

Smith tried to persuade Li Yun to leave here as soon as possible: "Your Excellency Li Yun, don't you think this place is particularly strange?"

Li Yun raised his eyebrows, "Is it about your grandma's resurrection?"

"No, this is just one of them!"

Smith said: "What I say is weird, I mean everyone here is weird."

Li Yun's body shook suddenly, and he muttered, "Everyone is weird?"

"That's right!" Smith said scaredly later: "Peach Blossom Village gives me the feeling like a cage. Everyone seems to live in the village and do their own things, but in fact, what about them? The three who suddenly disappeared from the village. Individuals were indifferent, and continued to work on their own the next day, seemingly enthusiastic, but in fact it was so cold that it was...horrible."

The cage, the swarm of bees, is indifferent to the disappearance of people, seemingly enthusiastic, but actually cold.

"I understand!!!"

Li Yun shouted abruptly, looking at Taohua Village, "I understand what the most abnormal existence here is!!!"

Chapter 3478: Only five people

Fan Linglong and Fan Qingsheng both watched over. As the person who reminded Li Yun, Smith also looked dumbfounded.

What do you understand?

He just said that the people in this village don't look like living people. This is normal. After all, the villagers are all dead or illusions. Isn't it normal?

"Go, let's go to the village chief!" Li Yun called them and strode towards the village.

"The village chief has a problem?"

Smith became nervous, "I don't know my eighth-level vocal ability, it doesn't work here... Well, I guess, it's useless."

The black hand behind the scenes can be resurrected, and he can know the deepest secret in his heart. If the * is controlling everything, then the power of this * is too terrifying.

"It's not that the village chief has the problem, but... forget it."

Li Yun changed his mind, stopped, and said to Smith: "You use your voice power to let everyone in Taohua Village come to the ancestral hall!"

"what?"

Smith doesn't know what problem Li Yun has seen, but he is the most trustworthy here, and he can only trust Li Yun.

So Smith used his supernatural powers and shouted at Peach Blossom Village:

"...Hello!"

Smith looked at Li Yun with embarrassment.

Fan Qingsheng glanced at Li Yun again, and Fan Linglong laughed unceremoniously.

"I forgot." Li Yun patted his head, full of helplessness, "I have been talking to you in English, and I have forgotten that you guys can't speak Chinese anymore. Forget it, let me do it!"

Li Yun's luck was in his throat, his anger sinking in his dantian, and he shouted: "Everyone in Taohua Village, please come to the ancestral hall. As a foreign guest, I want to confirm one thing!"

"What happened?"

"Who is yelling? Still let people not sleep?"

"Oh, so annoying."

"Who is this person?"

Villagers in twos and threes began to gather. After half an hour, less than half of the four or five hundred people in Taohua Village came. It was obvious that many people did not put Li Yun's words in their ears.

Li Yun didn't take it seriously. Standing in front of the ancestral hall of Taohua Village, he said to everyone, "Hello, my name is Li Yun!"

The head of Taohua Village looked weird, "Young man, who are you talking to?"

"This kid is evil!" An elder in a village knocked on a dry pipe and shouted to another grandmother: "Old lady, bring me the guy who eats, and I will drive the kid out of evil."

"Big brother~?" Xiaomei, who Li Yun met yesterday, looked at him timidly, with doubts in her big eyes.

"Outsider, what do you want to do?!"

An irritable uncle carried a hoe, and said angrily: "Don't use a loud voice, just come and disturb us!"

The sentiment surged, and he was obviously extremely dissatisfied with Li Yun's sudden shout.

"Li Yun, you?" Fan Linglong was a little confused, "Did you call so many people to announce something?"

"So many people? No, there are only five people here!"

Li Yun stretched out a palm and pointed at himself again, "I, Linglong you, Qingsheng, Smith, and... four or five hundred people in Taohua Village, a single person! Five!"

"what?!"

The comments of the five people aroused dissatisfaction among more villagers. They didn't even know what Li Yun was talking about. They were all living people. How could they be regarded as one person?

"Big brother?" Xiaomei blinked and looked at Li Yun with a pitiful look.

Chapter 3479: You are not human

Xiaomei said, "Brother, are you... your brain is broken? Hehe, how could Xiaomei be alone with other people, ah, I really don't know what brother are you talking about! Sister, what do you mean by brother?"

Sage Fanqing was thoughtful, but still very puzzled, and looked at Li Yun.

"Actually, a very simple reasoning!"

In the face of the angry crowd, Li Yun said categorically: "This is not Peach Blossom Spring, but a small world created by a powerful existence. You have not been passed down from thousands of years ago to this day. You should not. Say, none of you are human!"

Everyone in Taohua Village was shocked and angry, spitting hard at him.

"We are not humans, are we ghosts?"

"Yeah, are you hysterical?"

"My suggestion is just to have a fight."

"For some reason, I'm going back, and I have to go back to cook for the children after I finish my work."

Some people left directly, but there were many others left. Li Yun must give them an explanation.

All these performances made the Sage Capital of Fanqing begin to wonder, is Li Yun's guessing too outrageous?

As for Fan Linglong, she was already ready to fight a battle, to deal with the sudden appearance of the enemy, but in the end... it was a group of villagers who were asking for explanation?

"I'm not talking nonsense."

Li Yun calmly said: "You may behave like people, and even here there is a history of thousands of years, 10,000 years, and hundreds of thousands of years, but all of this is...or, behind you, there is a Similar to the existence of the queen bee, watching you silently!"

"What's the meaning?"

The head of Taohua Village was puzzled.

With the various performances of these villagers, Fan Linglong couldn't fault anything at all.

"However, no matter how humans are, there will still be flaws."

Li Yun continued: "The first flaw is that you are too easy to accept the resurrection of people, my grandfather, Linglong's best friend, and this Mr. Smith's grandmother, they all suddenly resurrected in the village, right?"

"No!" the village chief denied, "They all come from outside."

"Yes, in your memory, they came from the outside world."

Li Yun said: "But in fact, their bodies have been cremated, even their bones have been burned out, it is impossible to appear here again!"

There was a commotion among the villagers, and many people showed expressions of horror of error.

"My grandfather, I saw him die of illness and pushed him into the incinerator, burning him to the point of ashes..."

Li Yun continued, "Therefore, I can conclude that they are all resurrected, and you, as villagers of Taohua Village, quickly accepted them. Isn't it strange?"

The villagers fell silent one by one, shocked by this bizarre statement.

The village chief retorted: "That's because we are very friendly to outsiders and we can let them live in the village."

"Don't worry, I still have evidence."

Li Yun said again: "Yesterday, my grandfather disappeared, but after I quickly accepted it, you soon stopped paying attention to this matter, why?"

The villagers fell into a weird silence.

It seems that no reason can be found.

Smith suddenly felt the creeps again, and a bit more creepy than before.

"You are hospitable, but you don't pay attention to the dead." Li Yun looked at the village head, "Even you, as the village head, didn't pay attention to and ask too much, because you already know me, and the people around me. Several people have accepted the disappearance of my grandfather, and there is no need to explain anything, right?"

Chapter 3480: Variety

The village chief sighed. Smith, who didn't understand but could understand the atmosphere, almost thought he had admitted, and he was so frightened that he was so frightened.

"Little friend Li Yun, you blamed us!"

The village chief shook his head and said: "Our village is blessed by gods. Outsiders, including us, often have strange things happening, including you suddenly coming in and someone suddenly disappearing. Isn't this normal?"

Fan Linglong was persuaded.

Her husband had said it for this reason, but these people still did not show anything strange, which proved that it was indeed not their problem.

Li Yun was noncommittal, staring at these villagers: "Since there are gods for protection, then ask your gods to come out and show me!"

"Absurd!" Some villagers scolded.

Some villagers also expressed fear and backed quietly.

Xiaomei asked nervously, "Brother, don't you... mess around? Big brother, you are not that kind of person!"

Li Yun remained silent, "Since you don't want to show up, then I can only force you to come out!"

"What do you want?!"

The villagers glared at him, and some even raised the latter's hoes and sickles.

Li Yun sank his face, his figure disappeared in front of everyone, causing a commotion among the villagers.

Smith, who didn't understand, didn't understand. So, looking around nervously, the villagers waved their weapons in an attempt to force Li Yun to show up. Some people started yelling.

The scene was a mess.

Fan Linglong didn't make a move. She guessed it. Now Li Yun is using his very powerful stealth means instead of direct threats to create pressure on the villagers.

But she has a question in her heart: Is this useful?

Gradually, the shouting and noise quieted down.

"Really useful?!"

Fan Linglong opened her eyes wide, and saw a strange scene with Fan Qingsheng.

The movements of the villagers gradually became sluggish, standing in place, their hands lowered, their heads drooping, and they stood expressionlessly toward the ground, like zombies!

The villagers who had been outraged before, those who believed that Li Yun was unreasonable to make trouble, including the village chief who solemnly defended, and...Xiaomei!

All the villagers in Taohua Village bowed their heads, standing on the spot like corpses that would not move anymore.

"OHMYGOD!"

Smith only felt that the cold sweat was flowing, and the scene in front of him was even more terrifying than the zombie movies seen in the movie!

Because the zombies in the zombie film can at least move, it feels like a beast-like monster.

But the villagers of Taohua Village in front of them stood in place one by one, with their hands down, giving people an extremely gloomy and terrifying feeling under the scorching sun.

"Did you show up yet?"

Li Yun's figure slowly emerged, watching these villagers alertly, but after waiting for a long time, these "people" did not make any movements, but maintained the appearance of their hands hanging and their heads drooping!

Smith suddenly thought of a possibility: "Your Excellency Li Yun, did you kill them?"

Sage Fanqing glanced at Li Yun, she didn't believe that Li Yun would kill people directly.

"No, it's not me."

Li Yun walked forward slowly with a serious expression. Shennian glanced at Xiaomei's body first, and noticed that her body was still working-pulse, body temperature, breathing, blood flow, etc., everything was normal.

But there was no movement, his eyes were open, and he looked at the ground blankly.

It's like... the soul was taken away alive and turned into a vegetative existence!
