

Godly Choice 3481

Chapter 3481: Zombie

"What did you do just now?" Fan Linglong couldn't help asking.

"... I said, I just used my ability to become invisible, do you believe it?"

Li Yun did nothing.

Because he had no choice before, knowing what was hidden here, but the village chief and villagers could all push all the weird things to the gods of this world, as long as they didn't admit it, Li Yun was not kidnapped and questioned. , And there is no way to pry open their mouths.

His biggest evidence actually comes from the system.

Therefore, Li Yun intends to use his innate ability to take a look at their true existence from the state of Tongyou.

As a result, these people suddenly lost their souls and became like puppets.

Is it because he is afraid that he really sees something?

It's a pity that when I use the quiet state again, I can't see anything anymore. I only see a living body standing upright on the ground. There is no abnormality at all!

"Soul, it's gone."

Sage Fanqing made a supplement. She had seen these people with her spiritual sense and knew that their souls had already left and turned into an empty shell.

Li Yun stepped forward and patted Xiaomei on the shoulder. The little girl who had picked peaches for them before, was motionless at the moment, exuding a silent and gloomy breath.

Li Yun's heart is like stopping water.

What's so weird about this ghost place is that even if Peach Blossom Village suddenly becomes a hell-like scene, he will only change color a little, and he won't be shocked.

"That's it?" Smith gradually became bolder and couldn't help but ask.

"Perhaps, that's it. Go, let's go into the village and have a look!"

Li Yun looked calm, and the two girls, plus a mixed-race Smith, walked towards Peach Blossom Village again.

I met a lot of villagers along the way, all showing the same appearance as the village chief and Xiaomei, with their hands hanging down in front of them, like targetless zombies, but they were motionless.

To be honest, a whole village, hundreds of villagers suddenly turned into such a ghostly appearance, this quiet and peaceful, but also full of laughter and laughter, suddenly fell silent, anyone will feel inexplicable sadness.

There is a sense of disappointment that the world is suddenly approaching the end of the world. It is the same feeling that the protagonist in the movie no longer changes when he sees the end of a wonderful movie.

Especially sad.

At this moment, Taohua Village has added a strange atmosphere.

"What exactly is going on?!"

Smith is going crazy. He would rather go back to the previous valley and spend decades in the Antarctic continent than face these... people like zombies!

"senior!"

Li Yun suddenly shouted: "Your power is awesome, but the matter is over now, shouldn't it be time to come out and meet us?"

No one answered.

Peach Blossom Village is still breezy, and there is still burning smoke rising in the village. The crops outside the village are crisp, the river is rushing, the peach blossoms are blooming, and the fruits are big and red.

But there is no one.

Everything that is picturesque here is extremely desolate!

Li Yun sighed: "I really don't know whether it is our subjective or objective factors. I always feel that after no one is there, all the good things will become dull."

The system has not yet prompted him to complete the selection event, proving that Li Yun has not found the strangest place yet, and everything here is still a mystery.

Chapter 3482: The living dead

But where is the most anomalous, Li Yun really has no idea now.

He has even tried to fly into the sky with the ability of Tongyou, but he only felt a twisted enchantment blocking his way. If he broke through forcibly, he might go out, but Li Yun still couldn't leave two of his own. The confidante is here.

"Wait patiently!"

After shouting several times, no one showed up and nothing happened. Li Yun gave up. After asking Linglong's opinions, they returned to Zhao Xiaoqing's home and waited patiently.

But Li Yun and the three were able to wait, but Smith, the supernatural being, seemed very restless. He paced back and forth in the yard, constantly asking what to do next, and saying why he would rather face a thousand zombies than face this weirdness. Case.

Then, when the sky was approaching dusk, Smith said that he regretted it again, saying that he had no ability and should not be here. The ruins of the ancient temples were really powerful, killing people invisible, and the gods did not bother to fight with them, only to give An enchantment completely trapped the mortals here.

ten years? century?

No, he can't hold on for that long, Smith felt that he would go crazy here for half a month!

No internet, no news, no delicious modern food, no * water heater!

"Crazy crazy, I'm going crazy!"

Smith couldn't sit still, stood up abruptly, gritted his teeth and said: "I'm going to destroy everything here and see who is behind it!"

Li Yun said: "Don't kill the people here."

He actually wants to know, if everything here is destroyed, can he force out the black hand behind the scenes?

"I smashed all the houses here!"

Smith gritted his teeth and walked out the door. He just stepped out of the threshold with his right foot. Suddenly, his whole body froze and he yelled.

"what happened?"

"You, look!"

Li Yun and the two girls walked over and saw that these villagers who had become living dead gathered around their houses, as if they were watching something funny, but they lowered their heads and looked at them without a god. On the ground.

A circle of people, four to five hundred, all the villagers of Taohua Village gathered here!

"hiss!"

Li Yun couldn't help taking a breath.

The setting sun has fallen down the mountain, the world has become dim, and these villagers stand at their door like ghosts, but Li Yun and others have never noticed it?

"They have no souls." Fan Linglong said calmly: "Walking and moving over, it is like a stone. It is normal not to find it."

Spiritual scanning is not omnipotent, it is more just reacting to people and living animals, which is quite like radar.

And these villagers became like living dead, so Li Yun and the three of them didn't find them in their spiritual thoughts, or they came to the door silently.

"I killed you!!!"

Excessively frightened, and feeling terribly terrified Smith, his face was savagely distorted, and his voice became extremely sharp, he was about to scream and shatter this large group of villagers with his abilities!

The 8th level ability is enough to make him kill five hundred meatballs without the slightest resistance in one move.

"do not!"

Li Yun stopped him and said sternly: "No matter what a certain senior, or what a  is behind, we can't lose our sense. The more someone teases us like this, the more he proves that his tricks have been exhausted. I can only use these strange things to scare us."

Smith was stunned.

Chapter 3483: White bones

"There is a saying." Li Yun smiled: "As long as we are not embarrassed, it is the other person who is embarrassed. I think it is also right to use it here.

As long as we don't show any flaws and are calm and composed, the one who is anxious is the other party! "

His confident appearance made Smith calm down quickly. Carefully, His Excellency Li Yun did have some truth in what he said. As long as they were calm, the hidden  would definitely be anxious, otherwise he would not do something like this. It's coming.

"But you said it all!" Fan Linglong squinted at him.

The pair of masters and disciples, as well as the mother and daughter, now like to look at Li Yun like this, making him a little bit so.

"Ahem."

Li Yun spread his hands, "I just showed our cards to prove that although we are poor, we won't make a fool of myself. This can save us all time. I really need to stay here for ten and a half months. , I can't stand it."

Li Yun had a strange feeling.

The gods here-for the time being called, seem to have a bad taste, including the resurrection of his grandfather, Zhao Apo and other birth women from the beginning, and the restoration of Zhao Apo's youth, and also found a welcoming team for Li Yun and knocked the gong Drumming and so on.

In the end, the villagers turned into such a scary appearance, which showed that the gods behind them have been observing them, and they have always had a special evil taste, wanting to see Li Yun and a few people make jokes.

In this way, the  will let them go after he has had fun.

But Li Yun is not!

Therefore, he stated his plans and plans, and let the  who is suspected of evil taste appear as soon as possible!

"Wow."

Suddenly, the villagers turned into white bones. Almost in an instant, the flesh and blood villagers of Taohua Village who were still alive turned into white bones one by one, and the bones were scattered directly on the ground.

In an instant, thousands of bones were piled up on the village road opposite Li Yun.

"Ha ha ha ha!"

Smith laughed instead, because he felt that the gods behind the scenes had nothing to do with them!

"Your Excellency Li Yun, you are really amazing!" Smith began to slap Li Yun's flattery.

"..."

Li Yun remained silent, his eyes scanned all around, and his spiritual thoughts covered a radius of one kilometer, covering almost half of the village.

"died."

Sage Fanqing did the same thing as Li Yun, and said after seeing the changes in the village.

"What? Die?" Smith still didn't understand her.

"The village is dead."

Li Yun stepped out of the house, Fan Linglong and Fan Qingsheng followed him on both sides, and the three of them walked into the boney village road together.

"The village is dead? The villagers are dead? Could it be that I misheard...ah, wait for me!"

Smith hurriedly followed. His Excellency Li Yun was beside him before, and he didn't think there was anything, but as soon as the most calm Lord Li Yun left, he felt that there was a strange and cold horror atmosphere behind him and on the top of his head. Let him dare not stay alone for a while.

This place is too F*ck! F*ck!

After scolding several F*ck in a row, Smith hurriedly followed, walked in the village with His Excellency Li Yun, and observed the changes in the village again.

Smith quickly understood what Li Yun meant.

Taohua Village is indeed dead.

There is no wind or rain.

Everything fell into silence, and nothing changed.

Chapter 3484: God, appeared

Smith swallowed, feeling that he had come to the end of the world.

There was no wind around, and even when he was walking, he didn't feel that his cheeks were blown by air. Although he was breathing, there was no air flowing into his lungs, and his heart was still beating, but he had no pulse.

The same is true of Taohua Village.

The peach trees swayed by the wind in the daytime are quiet at this moment. The leaves do not know when they fall out. It seems that after decades of time, it has not become corrupt, but has become a kind of gray and ruined appearance that has been eroded by the years.

What's even more amazing is that even the flowing river has solidified!

"Stopped."

Li Yun squatted down, stretched out his hand, and fished a handful of water in the river, but an unprecedented phenomenon occurred: the river water flows back again like mercury, without splashing any splashes.

The sky and the earth became extremely dim, and gradually even the surrounding trees lost their color.

Everything becomes black and white.

Only Xiaomei appeared on the only big tree that still had color, and looked at them quietly, without the slightest emotional fluctuation in her eyes.

"God, appeared."

Smith suddenly felt dry and trembling all over.

He imagined the appearance of a thousand ancient gods, and the most imaginary is as described in the Bible, the Almighty Lord is radiant, surrounded by countless angels behind him, both appearing cordial and majestic, inviolable and inviolable. Look straight.

Or like * Satan, driving a hellfire carriage, emerging from the bottom of the earth, dyeing the world scarlet, countless * demons clamoring and appearing.

But never expected that God appeared as a little girl.

When it appeared, the world was black and white, and only God still had color, which seemed to symbolize the only hope, the only light.

"God... I believe in you."

Smith, who had vowed to say that he did not believe in God, now his legs are getting weaker and weaker. First, he knelt down on the ground as he prayed in church before, and worshiped in awe.

"God?"

Li Yun did not move. While alert, he looked at the little plum sitting on the peach blossom tree and the world around him was black and white.

Yes, "God" appeared before them in the image of the villager Xiaomei that Li Yun had encountered before.

Xiaomei was a seven or eight-year-old girl before, and now the * sitting on the peach tree is also like this, but her eyes are cold, no, it's not cold at all, it's just a kind of... faint, indifferent, watching
The look of something boring.

"Ding, the host makes a choice to find the most abnormal existence in this small world, rewards the supreme gift bag*1, and the other rewards: aura value + 1 million (the host does not find evidence, blindly

Li Yun: "..."

It's all about the sudden appearance of the dog* system, and even complained that he didn't do anything?

If it wasn't for your cheating system to say that there is an abnormality here, Li Yun would never look for it...

Ahem, it is indeed blind.

"I'm."

"Xiaomei" answered Li Yun's question faintly, and then said to Smith: "Get up, poor mortal."

Smith was so agitated, and after kissing the ground, he stood up cautiously, with a fanatical expression, as if he had been brainwashed.

Li Yun felt inexplicable. Didn't Smith say that he didn't believe in God before?

Oh no, this guy wants to pursue power. Indeed, the power displayed by this Xiaomei God is worthy of worship by mortals!

Chapter 3485: Ignorant mortal

"You, are you really a god?" Fan Linglong couldn't help asking, because she looked at this * very well, even though she had behaved a little strangely before, as if she was testing them.

But it is also possible that there is some hidden conspiracy.

"you can say so."

The voice of "Xiaomei God" is very soft, like a revelation given by an ethereal * in a dream, "Everything here is created by me."

The meaning is very simple.

Everything in Taohua Village was created by her. Li Yun had guessed before that the fact that there are only five people in this world has indeed been blinded.

"Ignorant mortal."

As if seeing what Li Yun was thinking, Xiaomei said lightly: "Although I am still asleep, my strength is not what you can imagine. The people you meet are not completely illusory."

Li Yun frowned: "Meaning, my grandfather has indeed been resurrected for a while?"

"No." Xiaomei Shen said: "He hasn't been resurrected, just a trace of what remains in the world. He is your grandfather, not your grandfather."

"..."

God is indeed omnipotent, and philosophy is no longer a problem.

Li Yun thought for a while and asked, "I wonder what is your purpose in creating this Taohua Village?"

"I speak to you like this to make you understand."

The  Xiaomei answered the question and looked at Li Yun indifferently: "You cannot know the language of God, and you have never seen the majesty of God. You can understand my form as the coming of the Son."

Smith immediately became more excited.

Does this seem to be a  from the East, but it is actually from the West? !

The so-called Son is not the Son of God. The Son of God is both a Son and God himself.

Simply put, it is the Trinity.

Jesus, God, and Jehovah are actually one person, that is, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, the trinity, they are one person! !

Xiaomei in front of her, she is both Xiaomei and God.

In a more popular understanding, Xiaomei is the "reincarnation" of God, that is, the coming of the Son!

Therefore, Xiaomei's words are so easy-going, because although she is a god, she is also Xiaomei.

Li Yun touched his nose in embarrassment. He was really complaining in his heart just now. Why is this god's way of speaking not majestic at all? God's words shouldn't be called "the deity, me, the god" and so on. NS?

However, the  is projected as Xiaomei, so he speaks easily, which is a very reasonable explanation.

"The Xiaomei before that..." Li Yun asked a stupid question.

Xiaomei's contempt was naturally provoked, although he couldn't see it on his face.

"I am all things, and all things are me."

The voice of the  Xiaomei became a little majestic, echoing in this world: "I am in the form of everything, and everything belongs to me. The people you see, they are not only mortals, but also me!"

The mighty voice echoed in the heavens and the earth, and Smith knelt down piously and excitedly. This kind of power is really too strong!

Li Yun was speechless.

He had been looking for the anomaly in this world, but after finding it, he discovered that this little plum  was just like the young girl and was inhumane.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Choice 1: Kill the gods, kill Xiaomei in front of you, reward: a huge gift*1, note that this choice is extremely difficult.

Option 2: Silence, no reward.

Choice 3: Blasphemy, rewards supreme treasure bag*1, spiritual value +10 million, no superior recovery pill*1. "

Chapter 3486: Is it tasty

Li Yun once again discovered that his system plug-in was simply awesome!

Aside from other things, the first option alone gave him a feeling of reassurance.

The reason is simple. Since the system gave him an option to kill the gods, it proved that he could kill the gods if he exhausted all his energy and took advantage of the sky and the place.

But why did he do this?

Even if it can be achieved, there are huge rewards, but what's the price? Not to mention the safety of the two women around him, nor the amount of resources consumed, before the saint son Xiaomei offended him, Li Yun felt that he had no reason to kill the gods.

In modern society, we need to be reasonable, not fist!

"I can't choose the first one, but how about the third one? Blasphemous?"

Li Yun turned various thoughts in his mind, and stared at Xiaomei sitting on the peach tree.

The little girl in front of her is Shengzi Xiaomei.

Although the name Xiaomei looks rustic, it resembles a country girl or a village girl.

But when * was born in the mortal world, he was still born in a stable, and was named Manelli by the Virgin Mary. This name is not very good.

In the future, if "Sage Son" Xiaomei creates any sect, then Xiaomei will also become a sacred pronoun and will be respected by countless churches!

And this is not a small probability, but a high probability!

Because, Xiaomei, the son of God, has been confirmed by the system that she is the incarnation of God in the mortal world!

"mortal."

Shengzi Xiaomei's tone was light: "You are disrespectful to me."

Smith was trembling with fright, he suddenly realized that what the saint said was neither English nor Chinese, but he could clearly understand him and the two women of Your Excellency Li Yun!

Could it be said that God can easily see through people's hearts?

"Let me recall." Li Yun looked at Xiaomei who was sitting on the tree, "You said at the beginning, are you descending from the Son?"

"Yes."

"In other words, you are actually Xiaomei?"

"Yes."

"That's why, no wonder."

"Mortal, what do you want to do... Wait, let me down!"

Li Yun stepped forward, came under the peach tree, and stretched out his hand.

Hearing the scream of God, Smith couldn't believe it at first, and raised his head, suddenly shocked. He saw an unforgettable scene.

Your Excellency Li Yun, took the * Xiaomei down from the peach tree.

She said helplessly: "You are not a god, you are just Xiaomei right now, right? So, as a little human girl, you can't climb trees, have you heard!"

"..."

The black and white world fell into a more terrifying silence.

Smith even suspected that this place would be reduced to ashes in the next moment, destroyed by God's thunder and anger!

"Mortal, you are very ignorant." The little face of Shengzi Xiaomei sank, and she was about to vent her anger.

"this!"

Before she got angry, Li Yun quickly took out an elixir that she had just obtained.

Xiaomei's eyes lit up, she opened her mouth and swallowed the * pill in Li Yun's hand without even reaching for it.

"Is it delicious?" Li Yun looked at her with a weird expression.

The son of the * born in front of me can even be said to be a little girl who is equal to god, the incarnation of * in the mortal world, but now has a happy face, with a bulging mouth, as if digesting what Li Yun gave her just now. God pill.

"It's delicious!" Xiaomei looked at him, expecting: "Mortal, I forgive your offense, and give me...one more, hiccups."

Chapter 3487: Incarnation of god

"there is none left."

Li Yun spread his hands.

The pill just now, the reward from the system, is the only one.

"Ding, the host made a choice, hugged the holy child down the tree, obtained God's approval, and also blasphemed the divine power, pulled the divine power off the altar, reward: reward supreme treasure bag*1, spiritual value + 10 million, no Superior Recovery Pill*1, special reward: Shengzi Xiaomei's affinity +70."

To be honest, even Li Yun, who made the choice, didn't understand how the system judged it.

He just took the courage to take the saint son Xiaomei—again, Xiaomei's name is not earthy at all. If Xiaomei becomes a god, then her name is like Jesus.

Li Yun hugged Xiaomei from the tree, but the system immediately judged that she had blasphemed the gods, and pulled the gods down from the altar.

But Li Yun couldn't see at all what it was like to pull down the altar.

In other online novels and movies, it is not about destroying the kingdom of God, then punching the left face of God, then punching the right half of the face, and finally kicking the high * to the ground.

In this way, it is regarded as pulling the gods off the altar!

But Li Yun only took the saint son Xiaomei from under the peach tree to blaspheme the might of the gods, and was judged to have pulled the gods off the altar?

Shouldn't God compromise with mortals? If you have affinity, that means pulling down the altar?

This is too... what the hell!

Li Yun couldn't find the adjective.

But in any case, this embrace is full of history and sacred meaning. If Xiaomei really returns to her position in the future and establishes a great religion, then the popes on the earth will describe it like this:

The saint Li Yun hugged the son Xiaomei from the peach tree, gained divine enlightenment, and became a loyal follower of the gods and a great prophet.

Kekekekekekeke.

Thinking about it, it's getting goose bumps, and Li Yun is not the saint Jacob.

"Mortal, you didn't lie."

Shengzi Xiaomei nodded, and pursed her mouth with regret-because the superior recovery pill was still in her mouth, as if she was eating candy.

Li Yun saw the corners of his mouth twitched, and the superior recovery pill, at first glance, was a reward specially given to him by the system to extinguish the anger of the gods.

If Li Yun doesn't hand it over, maybe the saint son Xiaomei has already slapped him into the air.

Blasphemy will indeed provoke God's anger.

But considering that this medicine is only a recovery pill, no matter how powerful it is, it is useless for Li Yun. It is enough for him to have a golden recovery pill. This kind of superior recovery pill, at first glance, is for the ancient monsters like the holy child. , Used by immortals and gods.

Maybe if you give it to the young girl, you can also win the young girl's strong affection, but who told the young girl not to be here?

Therefore, Li Yun gave the Supreme Recovery Pill to Shengzi Xiaomei, and obtained 70 points of the Shengzi Affinity.

The Son is the incarnation of God and is equivalent to God. In other words, Li Yun has obtained 70 points of affinity with God, which is quite an achievement!

Put it in Christianity, at least a saint, put it in Buddhism, that is, a Buddha!

Li Yun Buddha...I, Cao, the more we think about it, the weirder it gets.

"God doesn't treat mortals wrongly for offering sacrifices."

The saint son Xiaomei is very generous, pointed at Li Yun's forehead, and said in a majestic voice: "In the name of the saint son, I will give you the position of divine envoy, and follow me in the future. After I finish my mortal journey, Bring you back to the kingdom of God and grant you the position of God!"

Li Yun: "..."

Fan Linglong: "...what?"

Sage Fanqing glanced at Xiaomei.

God?

Chapter 3488: Shinshi

"OMG!"

"OMG!"

"Oh...no."

Seeing His Excellency Li Yun, he was actually named as a divine envoy, and after being granted by God himself, Smith was stupid.

He called ohmygod three times in a row, and finally suddenly thought that the little girl in front of him who seemed to be an Oriental was a * equivalent to God!

Although she looks very inconspicuous, there is no doubt that her strength is enough to be called the word "Shengzi".

In the future, he will walk in the world, like Good Friday, followed by the twelve disciples, betrayed by the disciple Judas, and finally crucified and resurrected again.

Wait for everything.

In the future, this sage Xiaomei is likely to do it!

"Me, me, me!"

Smith crawled on the ground, knelt and came to Xiaomei, pious and excited: "I Smith, I am also willing to follow the Son, and from then on, I will regard your teachings as the truth, I..."

He only hated that he hadn't read a few books about how to praise God carefully before, and now he met a  who has the same power as God, but he couldn't say anything.

But before following His Excellency Li Yun's adventure here, Smith couldn't believe that there really is an ancient temple in the Antarctic continent, and there is actually a holy son in it!

"You?"

Saint son Xiaomei will not refuse to come, "Your strength is too weak, you can only serve as an alternate divine envoy, you are willing."

"willing!!"

Smith was ecstatic.

"what about you?"

Shengzi turned his gaze to Fan Linglong and Fanqing Sheng. The two women were not used to it from the beginning. For the Orientals, they were not familiar with the fairy at all.

"In other words..." Fan Linglong looked at her tightly: "Are you not a god?"

"ignorance."

Shengzi Xiaomei threw two words to Fan Linglong, and looked at Li Yun: "God envoy Li Yun, you explain to her...huh?"

Xiaomei, who was about to call her own messenger, saw a strange butterfly appearing in front of Li Yun. She took a closer look and thought about it before she remembered what it was.

"Baba, a lot of delicious foods went in, Baba is too good...eh? Uhhh!" Hei Yudie looked at Shengzi Xiaomei in amazement.

Li Yun gained ten million auras in his Lotus Immortal Mansion, and instantly doubled the aura's richness several times, making the Nine-winged Black Feather Butterfly extremely excited.

But after she came out, she suddenly saw someone who made her feel very uncomfortable!

"Who are you?!"

The black feather butterfly spread out its wings as bright as a starry sky, and looked at her guardedly as if it was facing an enemy.

It was the first time that Li Yun saw this nine-winged black feather butterfly, which is said to be an ancient fierce insect, showing such a nervous expression.

In the past, whether it was facing the young girl, the toad, or the Biyu Palace Penglai Island, etc., the black feather butterfly was able to be calm, even if he was in awe of the Biyu Palace, but it was not scared to the black feathers. He got up with a terrifying look.

"I am the reincarnation of God, the Son who walks on the earth."

Xiaomei was also very interested in her, and beckoned at Black Feather Butterfly: "You are a very powerful being. Would you like to be my pet in the future? After I return to the kingdom of God, I can make you a twelve-winged archangel, accept The worship of countless believers has given you a black laurel crown, which symbolizes the starry sky and the eternal god."

Smith's jaw is about to fall.

Twelve-winged archangel?

Chapter 3489: It's a god, it's also the second

Smith swallowed and wondered whether it was God's words, which was somewhat different from English, so he understood that it was the twelve-winged archangel.

In fact, the son Xiaomei just wanted to give this black butterfly a position similar to Michael and Gabriel, the archangel of the kingdom of God, only because the corresponding word in English is the twelve-winged archangel, so he understood it as this !

But this is also very exaggerated!

Saint son Xiaomei unexpectedly easily bestowed an existence as a twelve-winged archangel with the same position as Michael—this archangel was called the vice-prince of the kingdom of God and the commander of the Million Angels Legion, enough to see the high status.

But Xiaomei, the son of God, actually let a black butterfly do it in such an important position?

"no no!"

Hei Yudie stepped back a few steps and landed on Li Yun's shoulders, and said vigilantly: "Xiaodie doesn't know who you are, Xiaodie won't follow you, Xiaodie will follow Baba!"

Li Yun was eye-opening, and there was originally a nine-winged black feather butterfly in this world that the arrogant little guy was afraid of.

In that case, the power of Saint Son Xiaomei...no, it's a very tall personality, so high that the nine-winged black feather butterflies of the ancient fierce insects are a bit afraid.

But in fact, on the other hand, Shengzi Xiaomei is only a little stronger than the nine-winged black feather butterfly, no matter how strong it is, it is limited...

"Do you know who I am?"

Shengzi Xiaomei also wanted to convince Black Feather Butterfly, "I am... the creator of all things, omnipotent, and compassionate to the world..."

"All right!"

Li Yun put his hand on her head and touched, "You are not a god, you are just a saint, you are still a human being, don't forget... Besides, who just robbed my elixir?"

Shengzi glared at him, "God envoy Li Yun, pay attention to respect me! Let go!"

"..."

Fan Linglong was speechless, what kind of existence is the Son? Isn't that behind the scenes? Why did Li Yun suddenly become an envoy again? What did Li Yun give her just now?

"Ahem."

Li Yun coughed, "Stop talking about this, Xiaomei, can you restore Taohua Village? It's too weird to see it like this."

Now that the greatest secret of Taohua Village has been revealed, the world can be restored.

Besides, Li Yun has always felt that this god...or rather, the reincarnation of god, the incarnation of the walking on the earth, Shengzi Xiaomei, she has a strange kind of breath on her body, which makes people feel that she is very second-degree aura!

Yes, it is Form Two.

God, will also be in the second grade!

From the previous zombies to the current black-and-white world, Li Yun has a strong sense of pretense, as if the son of the saint would die if he didn't pretend to be forced to show the difference between himself and mortals.

"Divine Envoy, pay attention to your identity!"

Obviously seeing Li Yun's disrespect to God, Shengzi Xiaomei clenched her fists.

Li Yun pointed to the distance, "Xiaomei, can the world recover?"

"Huh, a trivial matter."

Shengzi stretched out a slender finger and said majestically: "I said, there must be light!"

Smith was frightened again.

Light bursts from the fingers of the Son, like a magical brush, creating colorful colors for this desolate world of black and white.

The breeze blows, the river resumes its flow, and the sun is warm.

The smoky smoke rose again, and one after another villagers appeared in Peach Blossom Village again, and the children's laughter came from Smith's ears.

"God."

The village chief bends down to salute Xiaomei respectfully, and then walks away kindly.

Chapter 3490: give me

Li Yun and the others already knew that everything here was created by gods, and the village chief who has become very normal now is actually a thought of gods.

"how?"

Shengzi Xiaomei was very proud, raised her chin, motioned to Li Yun, and asked the envoy to worship her sooner.

"So amazing, so amazing!" Black Feather Butterfly sat on Li Yun's shoulders, clapping his hands vigorously, his small face was full of excitement, as if he wanted to record this super powerful magical power, but it was limited by the number of his wings, and This creation-like magical power is so powerful that Black Feather Butterfly can't replicate it.

"Your power shines on the world!"

Smith finally found a suitable compliment sentence and slapped Xiaomei's flattery.

Fan Linglong finally put away some contemptuous eyes.

This little girl, who was hugged from the tree by her husband, was indeed incomparable in the Soul and Light Realm.

She couldn't see what had changed just now. The Son just stretched out her hand and Taohua Village was restored to its original state. This power far exceeded the understanding of the soul and light realm.

This * who appeared in the image of Xiaomei is very powerful!

Fan Linglong couldn't even believe it. The little girl who looked admiring when she saw her before suddenly became a holy son.

"Tsk tsk, it's amazing."

Li Yun sighed, which made Xiaomei satisfied.

"Holy Son, I'll ask you one more question."

"Ask, this is my gift to the divine envoy!"

"...How did you feel when you cried when you saw us before?"

Smith almost jumped up at the question.

Your Excellency Li Yun, do you know how to respect God? !

Actually asked God about what he cried before...

It's blasphemous!

"you you you!"

Calm like a holy son, he couldn't help but puff his mouth with anger, "You ignorant divine envoy, I was in a state of incarnation before, Xiaomei was me, but I am not...ah no, on the contrary, I am Xiaomei... ..No, no, I mean, Xiaomei is not me, and I am not...you are mad at me!"

Shengzi looks like I can't explain to you at all, you stupid mortal give me a * look.

It made Li Yun laugh, but it was a pity that he didn't choose the incident. Otherwise, what he said just now was blasphemous again?

"Xiaomei is not you, but you are Xiaomei."

Sage Fanqing looked at her with some inexplicable light in his eyes, "Your spiritual thoughts have turned into hundreds of Dao, each of which is called an independent person, but does not affect your master character, is it true?"

"Be my ambassador, I'll tell you!"

Shengzi Xiaomei took a fancy to Fanqingsheng again, and began to recruit his subordinates.

As a result, Sage Fan Qing also shook his head, unwilling to be any god.

"How about you? A man who has lived for hundreds of years."

For hundreds of years, it naturally refers to Fan Linglong.

"I believe in Taoism." Fan Linglong replied faintly. Even if this Xiaomei is some kind of saint, she would be too lazy to indulge, and she is not the same.

"Taoism? Su Daji's over there?"

Shengzi Xiaomei unexpectedly said a person's name, which made Li Yun suddenly interested.

"Xiaomei, do you know Su Daji?"

"Call me Saint Son! That vixen... I won't tell you for the time being, as a divine envoy, you must not ask God without authorization! God will not easily answer orders!"

Xiaomei's face tightened again.

Li Yun took out a recovery pill, "Xiaomei, do you want to eat it?"

"want!"

"Su Daji?"

"She's a vixen, so she hooks up! Give it to me!"

"One more question, where is this place?"

"Peach Blossom Village. Give it to me!"
