

Godly Choice 3491

Chapter 3491: Here is heaven

"One more question, who are you? Real name!"

"Xiaomei, ask a thousand times, or Xiaomei, I am the Son of God, the reincarnation of God! Give it to me!"

After five consecutive recovery pills were put into Xiaomei's pocket, Li Yun finally gave up.

These people who have lived from ancient times to the present are all concealed guys who are more concealed than anyone else. They are cunning and very rascal.

Trying to pry something out of their mouths is harder than reaching the sky.

Li Yun wasn't even sure, what kind of reincarnation was this saint of Xiaomei, a female fairy from the East, or a goddess from the West?

"Xiaomei, you are too greedy!"

Li Yun looked at her heartbrokenly as if she was eating candy, holding a golden gift bag worth of pill in her mouth and biting it. He had already eaten the recovery pill, but there was almost no recovery of strength and no change. , This little girl is purely eating for fun?

"You have to take care of it." Xiaomei said vaguely: "As a holy son, you also have to eat...and, you are not allowed to question me, a divine envoy, no question to God!"

Li Yun raised her eyebrows and gave her a brain collapse, "I didn't promise to be your divine envoy, besides, are you really a divine?"

"You don't believe me?"

Xiaomei raised her hand again, "I will revive your grandfather, see you..."

"do not!"

Li Yun hurriedly stopped her, "It's not my real grandpa that you resurrected, don't mess around, be careful that I am angry!"

"Huh! Ignorance." Xiaomei muttered, but didn't insist, put her hand down.

Smith's heart also dropped.

He now seriously doubted whether God could wipe the earth with just one finger?

This kind of strength... is too strong!

"Xiaomei, let's have a chat?"

Li Yun and the two saints of Fanqing actually had countless questions to ask her about this space and ancient things, including space rifts, anomalies on the Antarctic continent, and the gate of life and death.

Unfortunately, this girl just refused to say.

In the end, Li Yun only asked a few things.

This is indeed a place similar to the gate of life and death, except that Shengzi Xiaomei personally suppressed it, and she would not open it unless it was finally needed.

Vaguely, Li Yun even had a bold idea, this Xiaomei, could it be an artifact soul generated by a jade disc fragment similar to good fortune?

That is the key to this life and death door, which gave birth to spiritual wisdom.

Later, in the long years, Xiaomei created this world, waiting for a certain critical moment to come.

"You want to open the door to life and death?"

After eating several recovery pills, and being forced to ask many questions by Li Yun, Xiaomei's divinity faded a lot, becoming more and more like the reincarnation of a * on earth, that is, humanity is more than divine, and a lot more easy-going.

"At least you must have some information."

Li Yun didn't give her the pill for nothing, and Xiaomei was still willing to say something without revealing the key information.

"If it's someone else, I will let him leave immediately."

The Son looked at Li Yun with an inexplicable look in his eyes: "However, you are my divine envoy. If you do this, I will still support you. By the way, this is not the gate of life and death. "

Li Yun took a deep breath and suppressed the urge to beat the little girl.

"Then here is..."

"Heaven."

"what?"

"Heaven." Xiaomei bit the candy. "Here is heaven. It's a worry-free paradise. It's also a place where I sleep. It's that simple."

Chapter 3492: all fake

Heaven?

Not to mention Li Yun's unbelief, even Smith, who has lived under the influence of the church since childhood and has participated in many prayers as a child, has a suspicious expression on his face.

He now began to wonder whether this little girl who claimed to be the Son of God was really the incarnation of the gods?

How do you feel a bit greedy and full of nonsense!

"In other words, what you said before about the seven gates of life and death in this world are all made up?"

Li Yun's eyebrows were beating.

"Correct!"

"Snapped!"

"Ouch!"

Li Yun finally couldn't help it. He stretched out his hand and flicked a flick on this little girl's forehead, causing Shengzi Xiaomei to let out an ouch cry, stretched out his hand to cover his forehead, and glared at him: "A mere divine envoy, how dare you tell me Disrespectful!"

Li Yun pointed again, and Xiaomei hurriedly hid behind Fan Qingsheng. Of course, she said that she was eating a lollipop that Fan Linglong had given her before.

Three black lines appeared on Li Yun's forehead.

Dare to love so much nonsense before, is it all fake?

"Xiaomei!" Li Yun said to her solemnly: "Are you staying here for too long, so eager to communicate with people, so you fabricated a lie to let us stay here for a while?"

Before, the head of Taohua Village said that someone would come in here, but Li Yun knew that the villagers were all the thoughts of Shengzi Xiaomei, and now there are plenty of reasons to suspect that after they entered here, most of the information they obtained was fake!

Except for the system prompting that Xiaomei is the reincarnation of a god, Li Yun now doesn't believe a word!

"Who said you lied?"

Shengzi's eyes were evasive, and I was lying, but don't let me admit it.

Li Yun took a deep breath, "Yes, you have just reincarnated after all, and God's reincarnation is also a reincarnation. Since you are still young, I won't care about you."

Li Yun knows nothing about the reincarnation of the gods, but referring to the "historical story" of * being betrayed by the saint Judas, crucified and resurrected, Li Yun believes that the so-called Son is probably a god. A clone of God is very weak, mainly to replace God's lower realm and spread God's faith.

As for why you said * didn't bring a bunch of angels to reincarnation, don't ask, just go to a history book!

The crucifixion of * is very clearly recorded in history books, even in this world where myths are missing, it is not made up by Li Yun.

"Mortal, no, Li Yun Divine Envoy!" Xiaomei sullen her face, "I strongly suspect that you have not respected me, you know? My power..."

"Fine, I see."

Li Yun waved his hand, not too lazy to talk to this little girl, who was arrogant and arrogant. He also brought some middle two children, "You are the incarnation of God, but you are also a divine envoy, a holy son, and even a seven or eight-year-old boy. Girl, right?"

Li Yun was funny and understood that the existence of the Sons is so wonderful. They have some memories of God, but they also have brand-new personalities, but they have the same great existence as God.

According to the Trinity, God is equivalent to a supremely powerful being. It is omnipotent, creates everything, has thousands of thoughts, and tens of thousands of incarnations. Xiaomei in front of her is one of the incarnations of God!

This explanation should make sense.

"Huh, ignorant mortal."

Xiaomei licked a lollipop, and after being told by this guy that she was a child, she seemed to be more relaxed.

Chapter 3493: Go out together

"In that case, shall we go out?"

Fan Linglong's proposal was quickly approved. Li Yun actually thought so too. There is no point in staying in Taohua Village. The saint son Xiaomei in front of him, like the young girl, refuses to tell the least ancient secrets, since Fan Linglong I've found it, and it's useless to stay here.

"You guys, are you leaving?"

Xiaomei's tone became a little lonely.

"Um."

Li Yun nodded.

"Huh, whatever."

Xiaomei turned around and wanted to walk away.

"and many more!"

Li Yun grabbed her shoulder, "What else are you doing? Pack up your things and get ready to go!"

"You... want to take me, no, you want me to go with you?!"

Xiaomei was full of incredible expressions, and was naturally surprised by Li Yun's.

"That's not it."

Li Yun shrugged and pointed to the beautiful Peach Blossom Village in front of him: "It looks very beautiful here, but in fact, you are the only one going back and forth. Xiaomei, you have turned your thoughts into countless villagers. In essence, you are talking to yourself. Bar?"

"What talking to myself, ignorance!"

Shengzi Xiaomei burst into laughter, wiped a handful of tears that did not exist, and said proudly: "As a divine envoy, you want to invite me out..."

"Are you still packing things?" Li Yun interrupted her decisively.

"What to pack?"

"That's what you were when you turned into Xiaomei."

".....ignorance!"

Shengzi gave Li Yun a blank look, "I am in many forms, the villager is me, I am the villager, I am not Xiaomei, I am also Xiaomei, I don't understand this!"

Li Yunquan was talking nonsense as a child, rubbing his chin and looking at her with a smile:

"Indeed, Xiaomei, your identity is a big problem. In other words, is your body male or female?"

Fan Linglong, Fan Qingsheng, the master and apprentice both looked together.

Li Yun was immediately embarrassed, he really didn't mean that!

Affinity is not a favorability degree, besides, the favorability degree system has been shut down, and no matter how much animal or animal it is, it is impossible to treat a little girl... No, it is impossible to deal with God!

"ignorance."

From Xiaomei's mouth, I don't know how many times the word ignorance popped out, "God... has no gender."

Li Yun smiled and said: "If you have no gender, why do you pause for so long? Lie, in our Eastern mythology, Nuwa Empress is a female, Sanqing Dao Zun is a male, and the same is true abroad, God Jehovah is male, Athena Yes....."

"Ignorance, ignorance, ignorance!!"

Xiaomei yelled and retorted: "Who told you that God is a man? Although the three uncles are indeed men, Shiva...well, what am I telling you, ignorant mortals!"

Li Yun: "..."

Smith on the side digs his ears, and only thinks that he was too stupid before, and he actually worshiped a son of this one...No, no, no disrespect to God, the suffering of the son, or the son of Xiaomei, are all worthy of forgiving of.

"Less long-winded."

Li Yun picked up Shengzi, "You shouldn't need to pack Xiaomei's things, right? In addition, the name Xiaomei, are you sure you want to use it all the time?"

Li Yun suspected that she only saw Xiaomei fit her gender, so she temporarily used Xiaomei's appearance and name. In fact, the reincarnation of this saint child may not necessarily look like this.

Sure enough, after hesitating for a while, Shengzi changed his appearance, only two or three points similar to the previous Xiaomei, but he has become much more cute and well-behaved, and his age has changed from seven or eight to... eight or nine years old.

Chapter 3494: Son Xiaosu

What's more special is that Xiaomei, no, a faint golden pattern appeared on Shengzi's forehead!

The golden lines appeared on her forehead strangely, matching the majestic and exquisite face of the Saint Child, which looked sacred and extraordinary, exuding an aura that was decidedly different from that of mortals.

Smith knelt down feverishly again, ashamed of his ignorance.

Even if the * is reincarnated and transformed into a holy son walking on the earth, showing a childish, ridiculous, innocent appearance, but she is always the incarnation of God, once she reveals her majesty, she will become sacred and inviolable, high above the earth, looking down on the mortal world. Everything!

"Li Yun's ambassador, how about my image?"

Shengzi is very proud, her exquisite features are completely different from the appearance of Xiaomei before. At this moment, she is absolutely a cute and majestic little beauty. If Luo Li sees it, she will definitely be pleasantly surprised.

"very beautiful."

"Humph."

"Also cute."

"...Cute is superfluous!"

"It's really cute."

Fan Linglong followed, she didn't feel much about Xiaomei's appearance before. She only thought she was an arrogant kid, but now when I look at the image of Shengzi, I feel that such a proud little girl was really a sage when she was a child. Look like.

Of course, Qing Sheng is much more beautiful than the so-called Shengzi.

"Ignorant mortal!"

Shengzi stretched out Bai Nen and pointed to his face, "The face is born from the heart. I have just reincarnated now and face... this world again, so I am walking in the world as a young image, and my mentality is also young. If you live If you feel that you are old after hundreds of years, then you will really be old, understand?"

Fan Linglong said nothing in silence.

Shengzi's words hit her heart.

One hundred years ago, she fought against the sage of the six gates, Wan Nishang. At that time, her state of mind was already decayed, and she became desperate, even if she died.

Later, after she became pregnant with the Holy Spirit for various reasons, her mood became healthy again because of the birth of a new life. Especially when Qing Sheng grew up little by little, her heart was also Following the recovery bit by bit.

Until, accidentally kissed Li Yun...

"Understood?" Shengzi forced her to ask.

Fan Linglong was forced to nod, "Yes, yes, I see!"

There are really not many people in this world who can force her to answer, except for Li Yun.

"Well, that's right."

Shengzi nodded and waved towards Taohua Village. In an instant, the originally beautiful village froze again, and time was frozen, as if Li Yun entered the Lotus Immortal Mansion for the first time, and this small world fell into dead silence.

"I'll come back later."

Shengzi said lightly, turned his head and looked at Li Yun, indicating that he could go out.

Smith was once again shocked by the power of the incarnation of God.

"I think, do you want a new name?" Li Yun thought of another thing, "Since Xiaomei is not your image, then you should have a new name, call you Shengzi all the time?"

In fantasy novels, the Son and the Saint are a pair. Of course, in Western mythology, the Son is the incarnation of God.

"name....."

After hesitating for a moment, she reported a name: "In the future, you will call me Xiaosu!"

"Xiaosu?"

"Well, just Xiao Su!"

The saint son Xiaosu is better than saint Xiaomei. Li Yun didn't say anything, and smiled and said: "Okay, I will call you Xiaosu, Xiaoxiaosu, by the way, Xiaosu, let's go out."

Chapter 3495: Runny nose

"Too lazy to care about you, ignorant."

When the voice fell, Xiao Su stretched out his hand and pointed again. Li Yun and the others only felt that the world was turning upside down, and the bone-to-heart cold suddenly hit.

It wasn't until this time that Smith remembered that they were still in the Antarctic Continent, and they were still in the coldest of the ancients, surrounded by strange ice fog that could freeze all fire-type supernatural powers into ice slag!

"what!"

Xiao So shuddered, which made Li Yun quite strange. He stretched out his hand and held her in his arms. The earth's fierce flames spread out to block her from the cold. At the same time, he asked: "Xiao Su, don't you have a very powerful force? weak?"

"Nothing, ignorance."

The stinky ten-year-old Shengzi was wiping her nose. Strangely, after leaving Taohua Village, Li Yun could really see her looks.

The facial features are as delicate as a doll, the gold patterns on his forehead have disappeared, his eyes have turned golden, the soft hair with a little undulation is also golden, and the skin is as white as milk.

It's just that the little loli son was shivering from the cold, his nose and tears came out together, and the little face was red from the cold, which slightly damaged the beauty of this delicate and beautiful little loli.

Of course, the loli son with a runny nose is also as cute as ever.

After leaving the small world of Peach Blossom Village, the little Lolita Son was like falling from the person of a * again. He was a Son before, but now he is just a messenger who can use some of the power of the gods.

"Could it be that Xiao Su's power is only useful in that small world?"

Fan Linglong quickly guessed the truth. The little Lolita still wanted to be stubborn, but her small body kept digging into Li Yun's body, wishing to incorporate the fierce Li Yun into her body to resist this horror. Bitter cold.

Smith froze again.

This period of adventure is really ups and downs, but after the end of the adventure, he, who had already become a quasi-divine envoy, was only to be loyal to a little loli who was shivering from the cold?

Li Yun glanced at him with a smile. Smith was startled, hurriedly stepped forward, and saluted again respectfully: "My Lord Son, in any case, you will be my * of faith in Smith in the future. In the outside world, perhaps your power has already Weak, but I, Smith, swear, I will protect you!"

"I don't need you."

The coldness brought by the ice mist made Shengzi Lori slip into Li Yun's arms to get warm. Of course, she is still very proud of her as the Shengzi, and said with an annoying voice: "You don't need to follow me to spread my name, Ye Xiao Jesus, let people in this world restore their faith again."

Ye Xiaosu?

Li Yun looked strange, "You want to occupy the magpie's nest and use Jesus' name to spread your faith, so that you can regain your strength sooner?"

".....ignorance."

Saint Lolita refused to answer again, and wiped his nose on Li Yun's arm.

Her golden double ponytails are very dazzling and beautiful. Little Lolita's eyes are also golden. Even if she is showing her arrogance, she still feels beautiful and cute.

"Take me out!"

Xiaosu, the son of Lolita, gave orders again, and still shrank in Li Yun's arms, and said muffledly when he was roasted by the fire.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Throw the saint son Xiaosu in the valley, reward equipment: the spear of killing gods.

Option 2: Take her out, reward: Saint Son Xiaosu affinity +10, golden gift bag*5. "

Chapter 3496: Affinity

Li Yun was taken aback for a moment. From the first option, the little loli son really lost most of her power after she went out to the outside world. Just throwing her at the exit of her small world can make her lose the outside world. This incarnation, a disguised God-killing.

Conversely, in Peach Blossom Village, if Li Yun chose to kill the gods, it is estimated that the key point is to go out to the outside world and lure the little Lori son out of Peach Blossom Village, so that Li Yun can have a chance to defeat the incarnation of the gods.

This also gave him a wake-up call, if it is not confirmed, don't go into the small world created by others, otherwise, once conflicts with the owner of the small world, you can only become a turtle in the urn.

"Get out now, it's cold to death!"

The Little Loli Son was mad, "This place is affected by the unstable space that I created, and mixed with the aura of the original source, the first angel is formed. It is horribly cold, hurry and go!"

Origin of Qi? The first angel? What's all this?

Li Yun still wanted to ask again, but unfortunately, let alone little Lolita now that he couldn't stand the cold, he himself felt shivering, hugged her in his arms, and after another glance at the two girls, he hurried out with Smith.

"Ding, the host makes a choice, reward: Saint Son Xiaosu affinity +10, golden gift bag *5."

Li Yun was not tempted by the so-called god-killing weapon. No matter how powerful the weapon is, there is the incarnation of the deity in Xiaoli, and the young saint son is powerful?

After stepping out of the valley, the few people breathed a sigh of relief, quite a feeling that they were finally relieved.

The person who obviously caused the abnormality turned into a little blonde loli in Li Yun's arms, but Li Yun was still very embarrassed.

"President!"

Bart came with people, and when he saw the blond little loli in the arms of His Excellency Li Yun, they were all surprised.

"Everyone!"

Smith stood up, his face was serious, his voice was loud, and he pointed to Little Lori, and began his first mission: "This is the incarnation of the omnipotent existence, the son Xiaosu..."

Bart and the others were about to drop their jaws, as if their foreheads were torn apart by the Antarctic blizzard.

After less than three days, why is their boss brainwashed?

Still a god...

and many more!

Bart and the others suddenly thought that the boss had entered the ancient ruins. Could it be said that... this little girl who tried to pretend to be majestic was really a holy son? !

"..."

Li Yun looked facelessly, turned his head to look at the two sages of Fanqing, and shook their little hands, using the ground to dispel the chill on them.

Fan Linglong's face was reddened, and he did not refuse such an intimate move.

After all, she and Li Yun did more intimate things last night.

After the missions and believers over there are expropriated, Li Yun asked Xiao Su: "Let's go back to the camp first? Xiao Su, do you have anything else to do?"

Saint Lolita shook her head, walked to Li Yun again, asked him to pick her up, her face was rubbed, and turned to the group of new believers and ordered: "This is my Pope. You will all listen to it in the future. His order!"

"Yes, Lord Son, Lord Pope."

But the few people hurriedly saluted.

"...Almost done."

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry, "What kind of pope, fooling around... Forget it, Xiao Su, has your church decided what it is called?"

"It's called the Little God Cult!"

"Well, then call it Taohuajiao."

The name of the church was unilaterally changed, and Li Yun took her back to the camp with the two women.

Chapter 3497: Dreamlike development

After showering the blonde loli and putting her on the large clothes taken out of the space ring, letting her sleep on the bed, watching Xiao Su fall asleep peacefully, Li Yun breathed a sigh of relief.

Only then did he understand how hard it is to be a pope, especially a pope who needs to personally serve the saint son Lori!

"Li Yun, come over here."

With the dim light on, in the room blown by the wind and snow in the Antarctic continent, neither Fan Linglong nor Fan Qingsheng slept, and sat aside, watching Li Yun set his son Lori Xiaosu to settle down before beckoning. Let him pass.

"what happened?"

Li Yun sat between the two women, trying to hold Fan Linglong in her arms, but she refused, and only held Qing Sheng in her arms.

"what happened?"

Li Yun asked again.

"Ask what's wrong!"

Fan Linglong's voice was not loud, he was worried about Xiao Su who was sleeping in the room, but the questioning voice did not change at all: "Don't you think that since we entered the illusion, we have been in a sense of... floating in the air? "

Floating in the air refers to the development of things beyond people's expectations.

Li Yun meditated.

In fact, from entering the Hidden Sacred Valley again, a series of things happened too dreamy.

Whether it's the Holy Lord, or the fairy in yellow clothes, or enters the chaotic world, or sees the escaped man, he will come to the Antarctic Continent again.

In the end, Li Yun and Fan Linglong actually brought a saint child out to earth!

This is a person who truly admits to the system as a reincarnation of a god!

The power she possesses, despite being severely restricted, still has an inexplicable sense of mystery.

"Little Su..."

Li Yun looked at Lori Shengzi, who was sleeping soundly on the bed, with blond hair scattered on the pillow and sleeping soundly.

"Illusory?"

Li Yun asked himself, it is indeed a bit unusual, but he still believes in the data of the system, Xiao Su, the reincarnated body of the god, has an affinity for him as high as 80. In theory, the affinity is the same as the intimacy, reaching 80 points or more is equivalent. Exaggeration belongs to the category of mutual trust.

"Xiaosu is trustworthy!"

Li Yun chose to choose her and also choose to believe in the system. Although he only believed selectively, at least he couldn't tell at the moment. The power was still too weak compared to the ancient gods and immortals.

"Oh?" Fan Linglong didn't have much objection. He just hesitated for a moment and said: "But I think she is deliberately attracting our attention, especially after showing her main body, she is from a high god, Soon she became a little girl who only eats sweets. It has changed a lot!"

Sage Fanqing nodded slightly.

She still remembers that when she first saw Xiao Su, she was sitting on a tree, and the world around was black and white.

Shengzi's eyes are indifferent and ruthless, and mortals can't cause her mood fluctuations, but can only serve as the object for her to observe the world.

Just as she created Peach Blossom Village with her own hands, Shengzi's ideas were transformed into more than 500 villagers, each showing a different character, but Shengzi was always Shengzi and was not affected.

Such a person, such a holy son, undoubtedly gives people a strong sense of disobedience.

Neither Fan Linglong nor Fan Qingsheng said before, and Li Yun made the decision. After they came out, they finally put forward their opinions.

"Then you can only ask one person."

Li Yun took out the satellite phone, and Sage Fan Qing asked directly: "Senior young girl?"

"Correct!"

Li Yun got through the phone of the young girl who was in the Huangtingshan Villa in Zhonghai City.

"Xiaosu?"

Chapter 3498: The words of the young girl

When Li Yun called back, it happened to be night in Zhonghai City, and the young girl was playing games. In her words, she kept herself young, so she played games all night in Beijing, or watched movies all night. I watched all kinds of messy movies, TV, and even animation works.

Of course, it also includes documentaries about life, earth, and nature that young girls love most. This ancient aunt will also be able to do it all night. According to Li Yun's housekeeper, one night she will come to the maid with red eyes and ask for some tableware paper. He said that he was watching a documentary called "Hunting" and I cried.

Li Yun was still quite speechless when he heard it, and it was nothing more than the strange thing of watching a documentary all night. There were people who watched a documentary about the nature of life and cried when they watched it?

Therefore, Li Yun couldn't understand the thoughts of the ancient aunt, Qingnv, and could only guess at her, maybe... it was a hard time before.

"Yes, she calls herself Xiaosu."

Li Yun was in the living room in the room of the son Xiaosu, and told some of her situation to the young girl who was playing the game, and she didn't know how much she had listened to.

".....impossible."

"how?"

"Did you lie to me? There are still people who can maintain a small world? Just what you said in Peach Blossom Village, do you regard the illusion as reality?" Qing Girl was full of contempt, "just like the last time you were deceived by me. Oh, I still advise you not to get involved in these things, those ancient monsters are very scary, you don't listen to what you say!"

"Uh."

Hearing what Qingnv said, Li Yun was also a little skeptical. He glanced at the two girls and could tell from the expressions in their eyes. They were also not sure whether everything they saw in Taohua Village was true.

Dealing with these ancient monsters is so horrible. What you see and hear, you taste, are frightened, and moved to tears. In the end, you are not even sure if this is true!

Just like Li Yun, even though the son Xiaosu said that his grandfather was real, Li Yun was not sure about it from beginning to end, so he could only comfort himself. Grandpa's Nine Heavens Spirit indeed knew it. He and Caiwei have had a good time.

Li Yun's current situation seems to have just risen to level 10. He took a set of bronze suits he thought was better and left the Novice Village. As a result, he encountered a group of level 70 and 80 monsters.

Even if the rookie has the best equipment like the Hongmeng Purple Spirit Bracelet, he can't beat this group of ancient monsters.

This is actually the reason why Li Yun did not choose to offend the dead young girl and Xiao Su: if there are a lot of revivals in the future gods, big monsters, ghosts, fairies, etc., he can at least rely on the relationship with the young girl and Xiao Su to gain a little shelter.

"I am 90% sure that the Xiao Su you met was a pretender, and there is no history of asking for Taohua Village. She just saw you enter her surroundings, so she made a temporary one. The environment, the purpose is for you to take her out!"

"what?"

What the young girl said on the phone made Li Yun a little confused, and also made Xiao Su who was "sleeping" wrapped in the quilt squeeze his fist.

"Young girl... Senior."

When Fan Linglong uttered the word senior, she seemed a little hesitant and uncomfortable, because she hadn't called anyone a senior for two hundred years, and people had always called her senior.

Chapter 3499: Go to sleep

However, this claim also allowed her to regain some of the state of her youth, just like last night with Li Yun's bridal chamber, her mentality changed a little.

"What's the matter? Your name is Fan Linglong?" The young girl asked.

"Yes, it is."

Fan Linglong asked respectfully: "You said Xiao Su was for us to take her out, but even if she came to the outside world, her power would become weaker, she should be able to come out easily, right?"

"Hey." The young girl said with disdain and a little helplessness: "The outside world has changed so much. Of course, it is to be more comfortable with you outsiders. You can arrange her residence and itinerary, and everything is properly prepared. You are a fool. Not following you."

Three black lines appeared on Li Yun's forehead. You, the ancient aunt, think so too, right? It's fair to say, you can!

"Let's talk about it." Qingnv said again: "If you meet some of her former enemies, can't you help her solve it? This is all normal, well, I am 100% sure that she is using illusion to provoke you, No normal ancient monster can maintain a small world."

Li Yun wanted to ask something, but the young girl had not given him a chance, and added: "Don't ask me who she is. As long as you are a normal person, you will not reveal your identity. You can only wait... the world is more spiritual. When there is enough, you will be able to know her identity!"

"What about yours?" Li Yun took the rare opportunity to question the young girl.

"Hang up, I'm matched up with someone, it's a jungler for me."

".....Grass."

Grass, a kind of plant, Li Yun is not cursing people, let alone an ancient elder who is playing wild in the mobile game of Kings-as we all know, jungle is the most difficult position, and it is also the most irritating position. To grab wild monsters is to rub a wave of lines and provoke scolding from teammates.

Cough.

Back to the topic, Li Yun briefly exchanged opinions with the two women. At present, he still believes in the youth more.

The reincarnation of the god, the guy who claimed to be the son of saint Xiaosu, created an illusion world. By influencing Li Yun and others' emotions, Li Yun trusted her and brought her out of the Antarctic continent.

Almost everything in Taohua Village is unbelievable, but Xiao Su has no strong malice.

Of course, Li Yun actually cooperated with the prompts of the system to infer that the son Xiaosu can be trusted, otherwise, Li Yun would not dare to bring an ancient monster with weak strength but numerous means to follow him.

Including young girls, in fact, the same is true.

"Go to sleep first."

Li Yun checked the time and asked the two women to go back to sleep first. He slept in Xiao Su's room alone—with a second bed. After all, it was the Antarctic continent, where the environment was harsh. Two beds in a room were normal.

"it is good."

Fan Linglong pulled the disciple to his feet, thought for a moment, looked at Li Yun and said, "Since you decide to believe her, then I won't say much, and I will treat her as an old predecessor in the future...well, no, Is a little girl who was reincarnated by an old predecessor, who treats her as a kid?"

Li Yun laughed, went forward to embrace her slender waist, and kissed Linglong fiercely on the face.

"You're going to die, Qing Sheng is still with you..."

As a result, the shy Fan Linglong saw that her apprentice was also kissed.

"go to sleep."

Li Yun smiled and pushed the two girls out. It was not that he had never thought about the idea of the three being together, but Qing Sheng hadn't reached the fire yet, it was a little bit close.

Chapter 3500: Worry about

Sending off the two women, Li Yun closed the door, turned back to the room, walked to the bed of Saint Xiaosu, and looked at her.

The sleeping son of Loli is very cute, not much more than Xiaoxiao. Her appearance in her early ten years has given her the allure appearance of a little beauty, and her small and bright red mouth is slightly open to breathe. Li Yun is standing by the bed. You can smell a sweet milk scent, especially nice.

She didn't seem to hear the conversation in the room just now.

"brat."

Li Yun stretched out his hand and stroked her cheek, "I hope you are not a bad god, otherwise it will be difficult for me."

"Hmm~"

Loli Shengzi, who was touched with her face, made a dreamy protest. Li Yun gave a chuckle, took off his clothes, turned on another bed, closed his eyes and fell asleep.

When Li Yun was about to fall asleep, vaguely, he seemed to hear a voice:

"Huh, really worrying mortals."

Li Yun woke up the next day. It was already dawn outside, but Shengzi Xiaosu had not yet woke up. When he looked over, he only saw the golden hair of Lori Shengzi exposed outside the quilt, and his small body was wrapped in it. Inside the quilt, she sleeps like the chubby baby silkworm.

"Uh, this weather..."

Li Yun glanced at the window that was isolated with three-layer glass. There was heavy snow drifting with goose feathers, and the violent wind made the window crackle.

In this harsh cold weather, sleeping in a heated room is really a pleasure that even the gods don't want to get up.

Didn't you see that the son Xiaosu was sleeping late?

Li Yun didn't get up either, took out his mobile phone and looked at it. He returned some information and reported that he was safe, especially when he said to Shangguan Lingxian who had been waiting, he would be there soon.

"Aren't you going to send Qing Sheng and the others back? Wait until you have time after the Chinese New Year to find me."

Shangguan Lingxian took the initiative to change the time agreed with Li Yun. She read the news in the fairy group last night and learned that Li Yun was in the Antarctic continent.

I also heard about him, and actually picked up another ancient senior to go back, so Shangguan Lingxian was very surprised.

If the young girl is only a single case, then the appearance of the son Xiaosu represents a certain era. There are indeed many powerful gods sleeping in certain places, and there is a great probability that they will reappear in the future.

This also means that Li Yun will be busier.

Although Shangguan Lingxian wanted to see him again, he didn't want him to lose his career just to fly to see her.

"It's okay, are you still at Tiandanmen? Or else, we don't rush back to Zhonghai City, let's see you first, and then go back to the New Year, how about?"

"Well, let me see... there are still seven days before the New Year, okay!"

Shangguan Lingxian agreed, changing his tone from gentle understanding to cheering.

It can be seen that she is actually looking forward to seeing Li Yun very much, even if there are other girls going with her.

But Li Yun is now on the Antarctic continent and in the center of the continent. Although he can fly with Xiao Su, he spans half a continent, plus a few thousand miles before landing at the nearest airport. None of it is realistic.

It was unrealistic to find the entrance to the Chaos World before, so I could only choose to fly to Huang Xuanguo's scientific research station first, and then borrow a boat to go back.

"Get up, Xiao Su!"

After the decision was made, Li Yun stood up and got up, and went to shake the saint son Xiaosu who was still asleep.

"Well, mortal, how dare you..."

"Get me up!"

Li Yun decisively lifted her up, but the result was not so wonderful.

So the son likes to wear nothing while sleeping? Cough.
